HERE I GO, BIRDIE

Strange Infatuation of One Woman for Another.

EMMA FOX COMMITS SUICIDE.

She Said She Would Kill Miss Boate and Herself if She Lost Her Friendship.

The Threat Only Partly Fulfilled—Miss Fox Was a Handsome Brunette, Well Educated and Very Religious—It Made Her Angry to See Miss Boate with Any One—She Was Repelled and then Shot Herself with a 32-Calibre Revolver.

ALTOONA, Pa., April 1. — Miss Emma Fox, aged about 23, shot herself in the abdomen almost in the presence of Miss Birdie Boate, with whom she was strangely infatuated and who had repelled her friendship. She died a few moments afterwards. A coroner's jury found a verdict of suicide, but assigned no cause for the self-murder. The circumstances of her infatuation for Miss Boate furnish the clue to it.

Miss Fox was a handsome brunette, a young woman of many graces, well educated and deeply religious. She attended faithfully the Lutheran Church, of which she was a member. An orphan, she lived with her brothers, from whom she kept the secret of her love for Miss Boate.

Miss Boate is a decided blonde, about 23 years old. She is a seamstress, and she resides with her parents. She and Miss Fox had been acquaintances for years. About nine months ago Miss Fox began to demonstrate an extraordinary affection for her. About that time the Boate family were attacked with diphtheria, and four of its members died. Miss Fox, without solicitation, established herself in the Boate home, and nursed the sick with assiduous care. She refused to go to her own home until all the survivors were convalescent. She seemed only content when near Miss Fox.

After that event Mr. Boate became alarmed by the affection expressed by Miss Fox for his daughter and forbade their association. Miss Boate, who had never returned the affection of the other, informed Miss Fox of her father's command. From that time on Miss Fox always intercepted Miss Boate whenever she went down town, and would insist on walking with her. She was angered whenever she saw her with any one else.

Recently Miss Boate was compelled to walk home from her work after dark and, fearing that Miss Fox would trouble her, secured a male escort. They were met by Miss Fox, who tried to push Miss Boate's escort away, saying that she would accompany the young woman to her home. Miss Boate refused her company and Miss Fox was very much angered.

A few days later Miss Fox met Miss Boate in the street and said: "Birdie, if you will not be my friend I will kill you and then myself." Miss Boate thenceforth tried to avoid the girl.

Miss Boate and her sister-in-law were returning home from the Baptist Mission and were joined by Miss Fox, who implored them to take her to her home. Fearing her they walked on as rapidly as possible, trying to rid themselves of her presence. She followed them to Fourteenth avenue, a short distance from Miss Boate's home. Then she drew a revolver from her pocket and flourishing it cried: "Here I go, Birdie, in your presence."

Miss Boate and her companion ran to their house. While they were running they heard a revolver shot, followed by several agonizing screams. Several persons ran to the place and found Miss Fox lying on the ground.

She did not speak after being found, and died in a few minutes.

After a search the weapon from which the shot was fired, a 33-calibre revolver, was found some distance away.

OVER THE MAYOR'S VETO.

Philadelphia's Council Gives Permission to Introduce the Trolley System.

PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—Mayor Stuart yesterday afternoon vetoed the ordinances which were rushed through City Councils giving the Philadelphia Traction Company permission to introduce the Trolley system on a large number of streets without the paying of any consideration to the city for such privileges.

Great pressure was brought to bear on the Mayor by those who favored it and still greater pressure by those opposed.

A mass meeting was held last Wednesday evening in the Academy of Music and a formal protest entered against the introduction of the Trolley, and since then many thousands of citizens have signed a paper asking the Mayor to veto the ordinance.

On Monday the Mayor listened for six hours to arguments on both sides of the question.

When the Mayor handed in his veto to Councils, both branches took a vote and passed the ordinance over the veto.

The Doctor Settles.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 1.—The suit which was begun by David S. Hankinson against Dr. T. B. Flagler for $3,000 damages for alienating the affections of the plaintiff's wife, was settled yesterday by the physician paying the complainant $1,600. The doctor then left town. Mrs. Hankinson is still in the almshouse under treatment for the morphine habit.

Mr. Dougherty Exonerated.

COLUMBUS, O., April 1.—The committee appointed by the Ohio House of Representatives to investigate the charge that R. K. Dougherty of Fayette county, received $3,500 to vote for John Sherman for United States Senator, have reported. The report completely exonerates Mr. Dougherty, and says there is not one iota of evidence to sustain the charge.

WHY BURROWE DID NOT FIGHT.

Harry Vane Millbank's Statement of the Affair.

NEW YORK, April 1.—All the parties concerned in the Borrowe-Drayton scandal appear to be on the defensive, each anxiously awaiting further action from the enemy before further committing himself.

The Millbank-Borrowe faction have issued a statement over Harry Vane Millbank's signature which defends Mr. Borrowe's failure to meet Mr. Drayton by quoting an agreement made by that gentleman and his wife.

The statement is dated Oct. 28, 1891, and the part which concerns the monetary consideration is to the following effect:

"The wife has an income of $35,000 per annum, under all circumstances she retains one-half. She agrees that the other half be placed with trustees, $5,000 of which shall be paid to the husband and $12,000 to herself for maintenance of children; out of the money she receives wife to keep up establishment for husband and family; the husband's $5,000 for his personal expenses, such as clothing, amusements, travelling, medical attendance, etc.

"Wife agrees, should she hold any verbal or written communication with Mr. H. A. Borrowe, that the $12,000 for children shall be paid to the husband, and he shall have control of same and children. Husband on his part agrees that for the $5,000 he will go to Europe with his wife, and make his dwelling place there with her."

IN THIRTY FEET OF WATER.

The Body of John Lawler, Supposed to Have Been Murdered, Found.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 1.—Timothy Conlon of Rhinecliff, was arrested by order of Coroner Conklin and lodged in the Dutchess county jail here last night.

He is suspected of complicity in the killing of John Lawler on Vice-President Morton's dock near Rhinbeck last Sunday. The two men were together all day and were seen on the dock together, both being intoxicated.

Sunday night Lawler was missing and there has been no trace of him until yesterday, when his body was found in 30 feet of water, a short distance from where he was last seen in company with Conlon.

Blood spots were found in different places on the dock, and there were evidences of a struggle. This, together with the fact that ugly cuts were found on the dead man's head, led to Conlon's arrest. He will be held subject to the action of the coroner's jury, to meet again to-morrow.

Lawler was 28 years old and single. Conlon has a wife and two children.

An Incorrigible Boy.

PITTSBURG, April 1.—Allegheny has an incorrigible 9-year-old boy named Joseph Doyle, who, because of his misdeeds, languishes in jail. He was arrested at the instance of his mother, who says that four weeks ago he sharpened a bone and stabbed his grandmother in the neck, inflicting a serious injury, because the old lady reported some of his misdoings. Wednesday he sharpened a butcher knife and threatened to cut his grandmother's throat. Last week he attempted to burn down their home by pouring kerosene on the floor and throwing lighted matches into it. He has stolen money from his mother and broken furniture mirrors and pictures. Yesterday he came home having on an entire new suit of clothes, which no one can tell how he procured.

Kept a Baby Farm.

LYNN, Mass., April 1.—Mrs. A. B. Fisher and her daughter, Mary C., were arrested at Saugus charged with keeping a baby farm. Six children, whose ages varied from 3 weeks to 8 years, were found in the old and squalid house which the women called home. The women refused to give the names or parents of the children found in their care. The finding of a body of a child near the Fishers led their arrest. They were brought here for trial.

Panic in a Theatre.

ROCHESTER, April 1.—The Can't Be Worse Dramatic Company attempted to give a performance at the Bijou Theatre last night called "The Defeated Candidates." The audience began presenting the actor with eggs, carrots and brickbats from the galleries, and in the excitement the first balcony gave way, throwing a number of people to the lower floor; a distance of 15 feet. Several were injured and have been taken to the hospital.

Five Deckhands Lost.

WASHINGTON NEWS

The President Abandons His Ducking Trip.

BUSY ON BEHRING SEA AFFAIRS.

Senator Morgan Creates a Sensation in the Senate.

He Wants the Views of Members, Who Are Possible Candidates for the Presidency, on the Silver Question—The Hoosier Poet, James Whitcomb Riley, Entertains the President and Family—Army Officers as Indian Agents—A Life Saver Rewarded.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—President Harrison abandoned his contemplated ducking trip in order to personally conduct the negotiations for a renewal of the modus vivendi, having brought the matter to a point where it seemed probable that an early agreement would be made.

He has been busily engaged most of the day yesterday upon this subject. General Foster was with him some time, and later Senator Morgan, a member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, spent a half hour with the President.

As stated Wednesday, there has been no further correspondence between the governments.

The negotiations proceeding wholly by personal interviews, the President's confidence that an agreement will be speedily reached is believed to be well founded.

SENSATIONAL RESOLUTIONS.

Senator Morgan Fires a Shot at Presidential Candidates.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Senator Morgan caused a decided sensation in the Senate yesterday by the introduction of a series of silver resolutions for reference to the Finance Committee, and his announcement that his purpose in bringing forward the subject in this way was to ascertain whether there were Senators who permitted the shadow of coming heroes in the Presidential contest to come between them and their votes on this important question, and also to ascertain the views of Senators on the silver question on his side of the Chamber who were now looming up as Presidential candidates.

Mr. Morgan's resolutions come up again to-day.

To Reimburse Senate Contestees.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections examined the accounts of Mr. Claggett, the unsuccessful contestant for the Senate from Idaho, Mr. Dubois, the successful contestee from that State, and Mr. Davidson, the unsuccessful contestant from Florida for Senator Call's seat, and decided to recommend to the Senate that Mr. Claggett be allowed $4,000; Mr. Dubois, $2,000, and Mr. Davidson, $1,250. These amounts are expected to cover the sums expended by the gentlemen named in the contests.

Poet Riley at the White House.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier poet, appeared in Washington last evening before a large audience, including the President's family and several members of the Cabinet. After the performance he visited the rooms of the National Capitol Press Club, where a large and fashionable reception, a kind of house warming by the club, was in progress, and delighted the guests with several recitations. To-night a reception will be given in his honor at the White House.

Army Officers as Indian Agents.

WASHINGTON, April 1. — The Senate adopted the House provision in the Indian bill authorizing the President in future to appoint army officers instead of civilians as Indian agents, but with a proviso giving him discretion to continue to appoint civilians where he deemed it desirable.

Free from Duty.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Treasury Department has decided that coffee shipped to Europe from Venezuela and Columbia previous to March 15 and imported into the United States from Europe would be entitled to free entry into the United States.

A Life Saver Gets a Medal.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Secretary Foster has awarded a life saving medal to Joseph Fernald, of Portsmouth, N. H., for saving the lives of four persons last July.

Gov. Flower's Condition.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 1.—Gov. Flower will not resume his duties in the Executive Chamber for a day or two. He has recovered from his illness, except that he is still a little weak, and his physician has ordered him to rest for a few days. He still transacts important business at the Executive Mansion.

DRAGGED BY THE NECK.

Joseph Lytle, Who Hacked His Wife and Daughters, Lynched by a Mob.

FINDLAY, O., April 1.—Joseph Lytle, the man who Wednesday hacked his wife and two daughters in a horrible manner, was taken from the county jail here at midnight by a mob of nearly 1,000 determined men and hanged.

The mob broke in the windows of the jail, but were unable to reach Lytle's cell by that route, and finally the doors were broken open and Lytle was taken to the bridge, about two squares away, and strung up to an iron cross-piece of the bridge.

Just as he was being pulled up a shot from a revolver rang out on the night air and the rope was shot in two, dropping the victim to the ground. He was then hurriedly taken to the nearest telegraph pole where the lynching was completed, Lytle dying without a struggle.

As the mob entered the jail Lytle called their attention to the cell he was occupying as the one they were looking for. It took thirty minutes to batter down the cell door, when the doomed man was dragged out and thence to the Main street bridge. After the first attempt was made to hang Lytle he was dragged by the neck through the street to the fatal telegraph pole. Shots from two score revolvers were fired into the lifeless body.

The mob is said to have been composed of the best citizens, but poorly organized and lacking a leader. The body was not taken down until the arrival of the Coroner, which was not for several hours.

Lytle displayed great gameness and seemed to be satisfied that he was meeting with justice.

MAY BE EXTERMINATED.

Salmon in Canadian Rivers Becoming More Scarce Every Year.

BOSTON, April 1.—A petition has been forwarded from this city to the Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries signed by 113 owners and lessees of fishing privileges in Canadian rivers, the signers being fairly divided between Canadians and Americans.

The petition sets forth that of late salmon have become more and more scarce each year in the Canadian rivers; that unless the Dominion Government shall promptly adopt some decided and effective measures to enable a larger number of salmon to reach their spawning grounds great danger of extermination of the species will ue incurred; thae the present requirement that the nets shall be raised from Saturday evening till Monday morning affords inadequate opportunity for a fair proportion of the fish to safely reach their spawning grounds.

Therefore, it is respectfully petitioned that all salmon nets and traps be hereafter raised during three successive days and nights of each week, which shall be the same stated for three days and three nights for all nets.

SAW THE MAN KILLED.

It is Supposed that Moonshiners Carried Out a Threat.

PITTSBURG, April 1.—John Hochstetler, of Somerset, Pa., was undoubtedly murdered near Trent postoffice, fifteen miles from Somerset, by moonshiners.

A young man named Beals, while on his way to his sister's house, while traveling along a lonely spot on the road near Trent, saw two men in ambush fire upon a man a short distance away. The man fell and the two men proceeded to knock their victim on the head with guns. Young Beal fled from the spot and took another route to his sister's home. On arriving there he told the story of what he had witnessed on the road. A party is now searching for the murderers.

Some months ago, at Scranton, John Hochstetler testified against moonshiners of this county. The moonshiners' companions threatened to kill him and, as he went to Trent Wednesday and has not been seen since, it is believed they carried out their threats and threw the body in a creek.

A Woman's Crazy Deed.

HOBOKEN, N. J., April 1.—Mrs. Margaret Doane threw herself and her 5-year-old son Frank from the third story of her residence in Hoboken, N. J. Both were fatally injured. About three months ago Mrs. Doane gave birth to a child, and since then has acted strangely. Three weeks ago she called upon Police Captain Hayes and asked to be committed to some institution, as she said she was often seized with a desire to kill herself and her children.

The Recent Combine.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 1.—Appearance was entered in the Dauphin County Court House yesterday for all the railroad companies defendants against whom the Attorney-Genetal of Pennsylvania has proceeded, by a bill in equity, for an alleged violation of the Constitution in forming the recent combine. The Attorney-General promptly filed a rule on the defendants to plead demurrer or answer within thirty days from service of rule or answer.

Victim No. 3 Identified.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The body of victim No. 3 of the Hotel Royal fire has been identified as that of Henri Doltaire, of 327 State street, Albany. The identification was made by Dion Dandersean, a cousin of the dead man, who recognized the clothing and a photograph taken at the morgue. The body will be disinterred and sent to Albany.

Canadians Hunt at Their Own Risk.

LONDON, April 1.—Lord Salisbury has refused to consent to indemnify the Canadian sealers this year for any loss they may sustain by being excluded from Behring Sea. The Canadian sealers have been informed that they will go to sea at their own risk, and cannot lay claim to any protection from the British or Canadian governments if they go into those waters.

STATE OF ANARCHY

Life and Property in Venezuela in Peril.

BATTLE FOUGHT NEAR CARACAS.

The Insurgents Outnumbered Three to One and Defeated.

They Were Successful at First, But Were Finally Repulsed With a Loss of 300—The Revolution is Spreading—Prisons Are Crowded and the Newspapers Are Muzzled—The Government is Preparing for a Desperate Defense.

PANAMA, April 1.—A French steamship which has arrived here brings authentic news of the uprising in Venezuela against President Palacio. The officers say that the country is in an anarchistic condition and that life and property in the vicinity of Caracas are in constant peril.

The rumors of a recent battle between President Palacio's troops and the insurgents under General Joaquin Crespo are confirmed.

The battle was fought near Caracas and lasted for three hours. At first Crespo's forces were successful and drove the government troops steadily back on the road to the city. Reinforcements for Palacio's arms arrived as the retreat was becoming a rout, and the government troops made a stand on a wooded hill.

Crespo's men were outnumbered almost three to one, the government having 7,500 troops to their 3,000. They tried to storm the position on the knoll three times, but were driven back with a loss of 800. The government troops then took the offensive and followed the insurgents, who retreated, leaving 300 dead on the field.

The insurgents retreated toward Eastern Zamora with the intention of joining another insurgent army which is said to be 6,000 strong. Detachments of the government troops went in pursuit, and several skirmishes took place in which the revolutionists repulsed Palacio's men.

The revolution is spreading and the insurgent forces are augmented daily.

In Eastern Zamora the people are taking sides with Crespo, and many soldiers have deserted the government. Crespo, the French officers say, has the reputation of being the best general in Venezuela. He is a brave fighter, but his policy at present is to remain inactive while his forces are swelled by deserters from Palacio's army and by discontented citizens.

Even the most loyal citizens have been rendered restless by the despotic measures to which Palacio has resorted to suppress the rebellion. Spies of the Government are everywhere, and hardly a day passes without the arrest of some conspicuous man for utterances supposed to reflect on the Government. The prisons are crowded and the newspapers are muzzled.

Large quantities of arms have been landed recently on the coast near Puerto Cabello. They are of American make and are known to have been distributed among Crespo's troops. When he shall have recruited and armed his forces sufficiently for a long campaign, Crespo is believed to intend to march at once on Valencia, the capital of Carabobo, or upon Caracas.

The Government is preparing for a desperate defense of both cities. The garrison in each has been doubled, and men are at work night and day throwing up earthworks. Extraordinary supplies have been stored in the Government buildings in both cities, and the roads have been flanked for a distance of 30 miles with small detachments of soldiers.

The Government has an overflowing treasury and is supplied with an abundance of small arms and a considerable number of cannons. The insurgents have comparatively few field guns.

Both Valencia and Caracas are already governed as if in a state of siege. Government spies are in every place of public resort and have made their way into many private households. Arrests are made without apparent cause and men are held prisoners without examination or trial. Conspicuous men not in full sympathy with the government fear to go alone in the streets at night for fear of being seized and locked up on false charges. Many have left the city to escape such a fate, after having been warned that the government spies were watching them.

The French officers say that the cause of the revolutionists is the popular one, and that in case of two or three victories for Crespo, the great majority of the people would throw off the semblance of loyalty and join their fortunes with his. The government has more money and better drilled troops than the revolutionists, and the issue of the conflict is therefore uncertain. At all events, they say, the struggle will be a long one.

Favorable Logging Weather in Maine.

BANGOR, Me., April 1.—Such favorable weather for logging in northern Maine is seldom known in March, and the amount of lumber hauled to the landings will be considerably in excess of midwinter estimates. Over 50,000,000 feet of logs will go into Moosehead this season, and that the total Kennebec cut is now estimated as high as 140,000,000 feet, while the Penobscot cut will be even larger. About 131,000,000 feet will come down the Mattawamkeag.

Blair Says He is a Candidate.

PITTSBURG, April 1. — Ex-Senator Blair, who was here on his return from a southern trip, said: "It is true that I am a candidate for the Presidency. My impression is that with the delegates to Minneapolis the man who is most likely to lead the party to victory will be nominated. Pledges will not amount to much when that question is considered. The main issue will be the tariff, and silver will cut some figure."

STILL DROPPING DEAD.

Food Sent to Starving Russians Seized by Rabid Officials.

BOSTON, April 1.—Herman Friedland, a newsdealer of Rocksbury, has just received a letter from his father, who lives at present in the town of Arigola, upon the Russian frontier, which tells a horrible tale of suffering among the Russian people.

The letter says that in spite of food sent from America, people are dropping dead in the streets from starvation.

The food as it is distributed through the infected country is seized by rabid officials and shared among them.

Impervious to human suffering, they see men and women dying in all the anguish of starvation, and with a curse visit the supply station and take all the food to their homes, leaving never a crust for their starving people.

The famished crowd is desperate. Many are insane from hunger, and it is only the fear of prison, or a worse fate, bred in a Russian from his birth, that prevents rebellion.

He says: "There is no hope for relief. The power exercised by Russian officials is absolute. There is nothing for the people to do but starve, unless help shall come from outside, and that speedily."

Count Kochejay Gets Five Years.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 1.—Count William de Kochejay, who claims to be a member of a very wealthy family of Paris, and who, some time ago, was accused of deserting Miss Scovil, fleeing the city shortly afterward, was arrested in Philadelphia on a bench warrant and brought here. He was arraigned before Judge Hugg and sentenced to five years' imprisonment in State Prison for bigamy. The complainant was his first wife, Miss Scovil. When arrested in Philadelphia he was found living with another young woman whom he claims to have married. Miss Scovil is a daughter of Col. James Scovil and a sister of Lawyer Harry Scovil.

Standard Oil Capital Increased.

NEW YORK, April 1.—A special meeting of the stockholders of the Standard Oil Company was held at noon at the Company's office for the purpose of increasing the capital stock from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000. The increase was ordered made. The additional capital is to be used for buying independent plants and to pay for some recent purchases of small concerns.

Negroes Leave the Adirondacks.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 31.—A party of ninety-seven negroes, en route from the Adirondacks, passed through Buffalo last evening. The party has been passed along by the various poormasters of Erie County until they fell into the hands of Buffalo's poormaster and were sent on to Dunkirk.

—Edsall says his store has never been so completely and largely stocked with new and fresh elegant goods as now. The qualities are the very best that can be had; no seconds or manufacturers' imperfections or auction stuff is dealt in. The prices he guarantees to be the lowest.

—The Women's Christian Temperance union removed to their new quarters, Crescent rink building, to-day. Especially interesting services will be conducted there next Sunday at 4 p. m., when it is expected that several prominent speakers will deliver brief addresses. The singing will be in charge of Mr. Moon.

—Governor Abbett signed only one bill yesterday, and that related to New Brunswick. It is Senate 14, introduced by Senator Barrett for President Adrain, and permits governing bodies of cities of the second class to carry forward by resolution any unexpended appropriations to be expended for objects originally named.

—The United Tea and Coffee Growers' association announce the receipt of 2,000 pounds, 34 tubs, of extra quality dairy and creamery butter, which they offer at 25 cents and 27 cents a pound. They also declare their intention of accepting coupons issued by the R. S. Peals company to subscribers of the Encyclopædia Brittannica.

—Gov. Abbett has signed the labor law providing that 55 hours shall constitute a week's work in factories and workshops. The period of employment shall be between 7 and 12 in the forenoon, and from 1 to 6 in the afternoon, except Saturday, when the time shall be from 7 to 12 only. No person under 18 years and no woman over that age shall be employed for overtime.

Counselor Reed Wins Her Case Against the Railroad—Points Made in the Summing Up—The Suffering and Loss of the Plaintiff—Mr. Richey for the Defense Insists That There Was No Negligence on the Part of the Engineer—The Jury Was Out All Night.

The case of Abbie VanDoren vs. The Philadelphia and Reading railroad to recover $50,000 damages for personal injuries was finished in the United States court at Trenton yesterday morning. The lawyers on both sides summed up and the case was given to the jury at 2:30 o'clock.

Chas. A. Reed, of this city, for the plaintiff, stated that she had been compelled to suffer a great deal, to pay heavy doctor bills, to give up her employment and in all probability to suffer throughout her whole life through the injuries received on the crossing of the railroad.

He did not refer to the younger sister, who died from her injuries, but asked the jury to fix the damages at an amount which would in some degree compensate the plaintiff for the money she had spent, the suffering she had sustained and loss which she must necessarily endure throughout her whole life.

Mr. Richey, in behalf of the railroad company, said there was no carelessness on the part of the engineer. He explained that he had proceeded up the track only a sufficient distance to expel from the steam chest the water which had collected there from the condensing steam. The engineer, he said, had stopped a moment to oil his engine and had then gone back to take his train.

Mr. Richey insisted that there was no negligence whatever in his action and argued that the action of Washburn in driving across the track just in front of the locomotive standing there was grossly careless and negligent and that the responsibility for the accident rested mainly upon him.

Mr. Grey, speaking of the damages, said the amount claimed was preposterous. He said that the defendant had at one time been nearly well and had then become worse. He attributed this fact to less skillful medical treatment than might have been secured and said that in the near future the young lady might be entirely well.

He closed by referring to the rights and privileges of the railroad company and said that no jury should take money from the pockets of any corporation unjustly or interfere with its rights.

Ex-Congressman Alvah Clark followed Mr. Grey, taking up the subject almost without a break.

He insisted that the company was liable for negligence when an engineer took his engine from the round-house and let it stand within 30 feet of a wagon crossing. Mr. Clark said the key to the situation was the fact that the engineer's wife was visiting in a house just opposite the crossing and but for that fact the engine would not have been standing there. Referring to the testimony of the engineer, who said that he was at the crossing only a few moments, the speaker asked the jury how it accounted for the 34 minutes from the time of leaving the round-house to the time of hitching to the train. In closing, he asked the jury to judge by the facts laid before them on which he said the case must stand or fall.

In charging the jury, judge Acheson said that the test was whether the railroad company had been negligent and had been the primary cause of the runaway which resulted in Miss VanDoren's injuries. The judge charged as a matter of law that any negligence of Mr. Washburn, who drove the horse which injured the plaintiff had nothing to do with the responsibility of the railroad company. As to the question of damages, if the jury found for the plaintiff, they must take into consideration not only the expense of medical attendance on the plaintiff and her inability to continue her trade, but her alleged deplorable physical condition.

After being out all night, the jury this morning brought in a verdict of $7,975.

An Old Deed Put on Record.

An ancient deed was put on record Tuesday for the first time in the Union county clerk's office at Elizabeth. It was made January 16, 1761, and conveyed six and nine-tenths acres of land in the present township of Linden to Justus Morris, yeoman. The deed was made by Jonathan Hampton, high sheriff of the borough. The consideration was £8 and 6 shillings.

MR. McCUTCHEN RETIRES.

His School Regretfully Accepts His Resignation—Councilman Case His Successor.

The annual election of officers of the First Baptist Sunday-school, for the year beginning April, 1892, took place last evening. A very large number of teachers was present. The proceedings were opened with superintendent Charles W. McCutchen in the chair. After the reading of Scriptures, and prayer by the pastor, Mr. McCutchen in a very feeling speech referred to his many years of service, and requested to be allowed to retire. In severing his connection as superintendent he said he was making a greater sacrifice than the school would be.

The election was then proceeded with, and in spite of Mr. McCutchen's withdrawal, he was re-elected to the office. After some time spent in pleasantries, during which the latter again referred to his inability to assume office another year, a new election was ordered, and councilman Rufus K. Case was elected superintendent for the ensuing year. Messrs. Perry, Joseph, Serrell, Biglow and Brown had received a few scattering votes, and Mr. Case's election was then made unanimous.

Superintendent—Rufus K. Case.
Assistant Superintendent—L. H. Biglow, jr.
Secretary—Charles H. Smith.
Assistant Secretary—David H. Lenox.
Treasurer—Charles Brown.
Librarian—B. J. Shrieve.
Assistant Librarian—Edward Wilson.

S. B. Joseph was elected superintendent of the Mt. Olive Sunday-school.

Mr. McCutchen has served the First Baptist Sunday-school as superintendent and in other offices most faithfully and acceptably for over twenty years, and his present retirement is the result of great pressure of other work which forces him to lessen his labors in this field. The school has prospered wonderfully under his direction.

PARTICULAR MENTION

You can't believe some dealers always. They want to sell the medicine that pays them the largest profit. What you want to buy is the one that does you the most good. Sometimes, it may be a matter of doubt. But in the case of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, there's no room for doubt. It's a matter that can be proved.

Which one is it?

With the facts before you, it's an insult to your intelligence to have something else offered as "just as good."

And here's the proof: Among all the medicines that claim to cure woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities, and diseases, the "Favorite Prescription" is the only one that's guaranteed.

If it doesn't do all that's claimed for it, if it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you'll have your money back.

There's strength and vigor for every tired and feeble woman, health and a new life for every delicate and ailing woman—and if there's no help, there's no pay.

Mssrs. George and Wallace Miller Have Leased Force's Hotel.

To-day papers were signed leasing for a term of years to George and Wallace Miller formerly of Laing's hotel, the building on North avenue known as Force's hotel.

The new tenants will take possession at once, and the owners have agreed to make a number of desirable alterations. The unsightly wooden awning over the sidewalk will be removed entirely and an ornamental balcony will be constructed across the front of the hotel on the parlor floor.

The Miller Bros. will refurnish the hotel throughout, and no money or effort will be spared to make it one of the most comfortable and desirable hosteleries in the State.

The new proprietors will apply to the council next Monday evening for a license to serve their guests according to their desires. It seems to be acknowledged by those in a position to know, that the signers of Mr. Force's license application which was withdrawn by permission of the council, are still eligible to sign another certificate.

Changes in Train Time.

The following are the most important changes that are to be made in the schedule of the New Jersey Central train service between this city and New York. They take effect Sunday next:

WEST-BOUND.

Train now leaving New York at 6 a. m. and Plainfield at 7:10, will run between New York and Somerville only.

Train now leaving New York at 7 a. m. for Plainfield, will be changed to leave at 7:15 a.m.

The Easton and Scranton express train now leaving New York at 3:45 p. m., and stopping at Plainfield at 4:32 on signal, will be withdrawn.

The Plainfield and Dunellen express train now leaving New York at 3:45 p. m. will be extended to Bound Brook and Somerville.

Train now leaving New York at 4:30 p. m., and arriving in Plainfield at 5:20, will run through to Scranton.

EAST-BOUND.

Train now leaving Dunellen at 8:21 a. m. and Plainfield at 8:31, will be extended to leave from Somerville at 8 a. m.

Train now leaving Easton at 8:44 a. m., and Plainfield at 10:04, will be changed to leave Easton at 8:39 a. m., arriving in New York at 10:50 a. m.

Train now leaving Easton at 10:18 a. m., will be withdrawn between Easton and Somerville but will leave Plainfield at 12 noon as at present.

Train now leaving Easton at 12:32 p. m., and Plainfield at 2:07, will be changed to leave Easton at 11:18 a. m., arriving in New York at 1:40 p. m.

Train now leaving Easton at 4:09 p. m., and Plainfield at 5:36, will leave Easton at 4:39 p.m., arriving in New York at 6:32 p. m.

Train now leaving Easton at 6:49 p. m., and Plainfield at 8:31, will be changed to leave Easton at 7:35 p. m., arriving in New York at 10:10 p. m.

A Conductor Afraid to Do His Duty.

A coarse-mouthed, drunken rowdy from Plainfield made life miserable for decent people on the Royal Blue train leaving New York at 12:15, last night. His loud and vulgar remarks and actions were continued all the way to Plainfield, and those who had paid for first-class passage were annoyed with exhibitions that would have done discredit to a cattle car. The conductor, whose duty to his company, ot the public, and to his own self-respect, was to maintain order and decency on his train, did n't have spunk or dignity enough to shut the rowdy up or eject him from the train, but instead seemed to enjoy the performance and to be sorry when it was over and the intoxicated, loud-mouthed individual tumbled out of the car to the station platform. The indignant passengers were of the opinion that a person who found so much amusement in witnessing passengers' discomfort and rowdies' delight would better be relieved of duty by the management of the aristocratic Royal Blue line, and directed to the more congenial atmosphere of a low and vulgar bar room.

$3,000 Wanted for Library Purposes.

A special meeting of the Board of directors of the Plainfield public library was held Wednesday evening. Those present were directors Baldwin, Tyler, Tracy, Cox, Talmadge, Dumont and Stillman. The object of the special meeting was then stated by the president to be for the purpose of fixing the amount of the tax moneys that will be required for the maintenance of the public library for 1892. The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, by this board, and this board doth hereby determine, that the amount or sum of $3,000 will be required in the year 1892 for the maintenance of the library and reading room, established and existing in the city of Plainfield under and pursuant to the act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "An act to authorize cities to establish and maintain free public libraries and reading rooms", approved March 14, 1879, and the act amendatory thereof, approved March 6, 1888.

Resolved, That the president of this board forthwith certify to the common council of the city of Plainfield that the said amount or sum of $3,000 will be required in the year 1892 for the maintenance of said library and reading room.

A Rare Musician from Ripley Hill.

A number of Plainfield people have recently had opportunity to enjoy marvelous music wrought from the piano by a young woman whom they knew only as Miss Pearl Whitaker; it will be an added pleasure to them to know that Miss Whitaker is a near neighbor, being a resident of Westfield. Besides being a wonderfully accomplished musicician, Miss Whitaker is one of the fairest of that town's daughters. Her charming personality, heightened by her accomplishments, has made her a favorite in a wide circle of society. At the all-too-few performances on the piano with which she favors an admiring public she usually appears in a beautiful gown of soft, snow-white silk, which, while it clings with bewitching grace about her form and heightens her own natural loveliness, permits perfect freedom of movement in manipulating the keys. Her arms are unfettered by sleeves, save for a film of fluttering lace. Her rich mass of hair is arranged in waves of richly gleaming chestnut-gold. The combination of her own attractiveness and of the beauty and witchery of her music is therefore most entrancing. Her touch on the keys is light, yet firm and accurate; her grace of movement is perfect; she is thoroughly self-poised and self-controlled. In a word, she is a thorough artist, and her playing is most graceful, fascinating, and altogether delightful. She brings the soul of the composition into direct communion with the soul of the listener, and for a performer who can effectively do that it is easy to predict a brilliant and successful future in the world of music.

50,000 Catholics to 10,000 Methodists in the Elizabeth District.

The report of the condition of the Methodist churches in the Elizabeth district, which includes Plainfield, was read yesterday morning by Presiding Elder Brice before the M. E. conference at Morristown. The district is composed of a population of 187,826, Dr. Brice stated, and of that number 74,196 are church members, including twenty-two denominations. Of the number of church members reported 29,765 are Roman Catholics.

In the Methodist church, Dr. Brice reported, there are fifty-five ministers and 9,144 members. There were 1,000 conversions during the year and 880 probationers added. The membership has increased 400, and 400 have died. There are seventy-three Sunday-schools, 1,065 teachers and 8,400 scholars. The contributions to benevolences were as follows: Missions, $7,500; other benevolences, $3,444; Woman's Foreign Missionary society, $374; Woman's Home Missionary society, $691; total, $12,009. The amount paid to pastors during the year was $44,984; presiding elder, $2,575; Bishop, $662; conference claimants, $1,959; sustentation fund, $400.

Progress in Christian Endeavor Work.

A highly encouraging meeting of the local unions of Christian Endeavor societies was held in the Park Avenue Baptist church last evening. The seven societies already members were present, together with these which were elected to membership—Hope chapel, Washingtonville, Seventh-day Baptist of New Market, Seventh-day Baptist of Plainfield. All the societies except Hope chapel had a large representation. Interest in the work of the union was revived, and the outlook is now very encouraging. After a business meeting of great interest a prayer and conference service of much power was held, and all enjoyed an informal social time. The prospects are that the union will be made a live and prosperous organization. A committee has been appointed to arrange for a large general Christian Endeavor meeting.

I SUFFERED from a severe cold in my head for months and could get no relief. Was advised to use Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like magic in its cure. I am free from my cold after using the Balm for one week, and I believe it is the best remedy known.—Samuel J. Harris, wholesale grocer, 119 Front street, New York.

He Failed to Get His Goose.

Tom Brantingham, of South Plainfield, is one of the crack shots of the Plainfield Independent Gun club, and an all-round good field shot. This morning a small boy informed him that there was a wild goose on the bosom of New Brooklyn pond. Tom hastily grabbed his gun and accompanied by a friend proceeded to exterminate that goose, the friend kindly pushing the boat. When within 30 yards of the goose the friend said "shoot!" "No, no, put me closer!" So he was put within 18 yards, when, raising his gun, he said—"Now, he's my meat; see me take his head off". Bang! and the goose toppled over. "My, but he's a tough one", says Tom. Bang—and the goose gally rode the waters. "Oh, darn it, to-day is April 1st", says Tom, and when he got ashore he found lots of admiring friends ready to congratulate him. "Uncle" Bill Manning put up the job. The friend was also in the secret. "Uncle Bill" added insult to injury by condemning Tom for shooting his wooden decoy to pieces.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street Plainfield, N. J.

They Had Heard Him Before.

Mr. Hoste (in a terrified whisper)—Marie, there isn't half enough luncheon for all these people. What on earth am I to do?

Mrs. Hoste—I'll get rid of some of them, dear.

Mr. Hoste (ten minutes later)—You're a trump, Marie! But how did you manage to get so many to go?

Mrs. Hoste—I just whispered to them that you had consented to sing "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep."—Boston News.

A Mean Plot.

Old Bachelor (fervently)—No, indeed; no, indeed. I think it would be eminently sensible.

Pretty Girl—That's just what I told old Mrs. Sourface, who admires you so much; but she said you'd be shocked. I'll run and tell her.—N. Y. Weekly.

An Excellent Reason.

Toughleigh to Dudeleigh—Why in thunder don't you go around and thump the stuffin' out of that editor for what he said about you in his paper yesterday?

Dudeleigh (inconsolably)—Aw, me boy, how can I evah do it, don't you know? I've nevah been introduced to 'im.—Detroit Free Press.

"Of Two Evils."

She (thirty-five in the shade)—You must either marry me or buy me a silk dress; this is leap-year, you know.

He—Must I choose?

She (archly)—You must.

He (resignedly)—Well, what kind of a silk would you prefer?—N. Y. Herald.

So Different.

Mr. Billus—Maria, I think you lavish altogether too much time and attention on that poodle.

Mrs. Billus—Poor little fellow! I feel so sorry for him, John! You know, he hasn't any club where he can go and spend three or four hours every evening.—Chicago Tribune.

A Reasonable Request.

"What can I do to induce you to go to bed now?" asked a Harlem mamma of her five-year-old boy.

"You can let me sit up a little longer," was the youngster's reply.—Texas Siftings.

Naither.

Mr Hogan (after hammering on the door for five minutes)—Is it dead or alive ye are?

Mr. Grogan (within)—Naither; I'm shlapin'.—Demorest's Magazine.

An Average.

Jack Spratt took anti-fat,
His wife took anti-lean,
And so betwixt them both
They struck a happy mean.
—Detroit Free Press.

The Opening Gun.

She—You live in bachelor apartments, do you not? How do you like it?

He—Fairly well, but it isn't half such a nice place as this is.—N. Y. Sun.

A HAPPY PATER FAMILIAS.

This old man is the husband of a faithful wife and the father of five buxom daughters. Examine him closely and perhaps you will see the entire family also.

A Truthful Girl.

Cora—What! you going to marry Fred Hipple?

Madge—Yes.

Cora—Why, not long ago you said you would not marry him if he were the last man in the world.

Madge—Well, I've kept my word. He isn't.—Judge.

Where the Profit Came In.

Mrs. Trotter—How much did you pay for that cigar?

Mr. Trotter—Ten cents, my dear.

Mrs. Trotter—Rather a profitable investment—considering that the cigar itself has about twenty scents.—N. Y. Herald.

Consolation.

Flora Wall—Oh, dear! there's a spot on the back of my gown. How can I ever go to the dance to-night?

Minnie Ball—It won't be noticed, my dear; if you go early.—Puck.

Ready for a Change.

Mamma—Dick, you must stop using that slung-shot in the yard. You'll break one of the windows next!

Little Dick—Whose yard shall I go to, mamma?—Good News.

The Sermon.

Greene—I thought Dr. Thirdly's sermon this morning was a regular philippic. How did you regard it?

White (yawning)—More as a soporific.—N. Y. Herald.

He Could Use It.

Kutten—Yes, that's a good story. And you tell it capitally. It will suit my purpose exactly.

Dryde—Your purpose?

"Yes. I am compiling an encyclopedia of chestnuts."—Chicago Tribune.

Mamma and Aunty.

Indulgent Aunty (after stuffing little nephew with doughnuts and fruit cake)—What does your mamma give you between meals?

Little Nephew—Orders not to eat.—Good News.

I was persuaded by a friend to try "Salvation Oil" for neuralgia and headache. I found it a great relief after a few applications. I cheerfully recommend it to all who likewise suffer. G. H. McGEE.

To unfortunate chronic coughers we recommend the timely use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. 25 cents.

HOW TO GIVE A DINNER.

Mrs. John Sherwood Gives Some Hints to Young Hostesses.

The Painful Effect of Trying to Overreach One's Means and Facilities—A Very Simple Dinner Is Often Acceptable to Exacting Guests.

[COPYRIGHT, 1892.]

Who does not remember the failure of that first dinner party? When the baby began to cry so persistently, when the hostess was not dressed when the bell rang; when the cook spilled the soup all over the range and filled the house with a bad odor; when the waitress, usually so cool, lost all her presence of mind and fell on the basement stairs, breaking all the plates; when one failure succeeded another until the husband looked reproachfully at his wife, who, poor creature, had been working day and night to "get up" this dinner, who is responsible for none of its failures and who has an attack of neuralgia afterwards which lasts all winter.

Who has not read Thackeray's witty descriptions of these failures of dinners, poor and pretentious, ordered in from the green grocer's and uneatable, in London?

"If they could have a leg of mutton, an apple pudding and a glass of sherry, they would do well, but they must shine, they must outdo their neighbors."

MRS. JOHN SHERWOOD.

And that is the first mistake. People with $3,000 a year should not try to emulate those who have $50,000 a year.

And Thackeray says again: "But there is no harm done, not as regards the dinner givers, though the dinner eaters may have to suffer. It only shows that the former are hospitably inclined and wish to do the very best in their power. If they do badly, how can they help it? They know no better."

The first thing at which a young housekeeper must aim is to live well; every day her tablecloth must be fresh, her glass and silver clean, a few flowers must be on the table to make it dainty, a few dishes well cooked, such a table as will be healthy for her children and acceptable to her husband, and then she has but to add a "little more" and it is fit for any guest, and any guest will be glad to join such a dinner party.

But here I am met by the almost unanswerable argument that the simplest dinner is the most difficult to produce. Who knows how to cook a beefsteak, to roast a leg of mutton so that its natural juices are retained, to roast it so that "the blood shall follow the knife," to mash potatoes and brown them, to make a perfect rice pudding that cook is said to "deserve that cordon bleu, which Vatal, Ude and Bechamel carved."

The young housekeeper of to-day, with very modest means, has however, now, to meet a condition of prosperity which even twenty-five years ago was unknown. All extremes of luxury and every element of profusion is now fashionable and, one may say, expected.

And remember that rich people, stifled with luxury at home, like to be asked to these dinners. A lady in England, very much admired for her witty conversation, said she "intended to devote herself to the amelioration of the condition of the upper classes, as she thought them the most bored and altogether the least attended to of any people," and we have heard of the rich man in New York who complained that he was not any longer "asked to the little dinners." "There is too much worship and fear of money in our country. In England and on the continent there is no shame in acknowledging 'I cannot afford it.'" I have been asked to a luncheon in England where a cold joint of mutton, a few potatoes and a plate of peaches constituted the whole repast, and I have heard more delightful conversation and have met more agreeable people than at much more expensive feasts. Who in America would dare to give such a lunch?

The simple dinner might be characterized thus, giving the essentials as a soup, a fish, a roast, one entree, a salad, an ice and fruit—simply the fruit—in season, a cup of coffee afterwards, with a glass of sherry, claret or champagne, good enough for anybody; such a dinner is possible to the person of moderate means.

From this up to the splendid millionaire dinners, served on gold, and silver, and priceless Sevres, Dresden, Japanese and Chinese porcelain, with flagons of ruby glass, bound in gold, with Benvenuto Cellini vases, and silver candelabra, the ascent may be gradual. In the one, the tablecloth is of spotless damask, in the other it may be of duchesse lace over red, with velvet mat under the silver epergne. The very mats are mirrors, the crystal drops of the epergne flash like diamonds. It may be served in a picture gallery. Each lady has a bouquet, a fan, a ribbon painted with her name, a basket, or bonbonniere to take home with her. The courses are often sixteen in number, the wines are of fabulous value, antiquity and age. Each drop is like the river Pactolus, whose sands were of gold. The viands may range from Algiers to St. Petersburg, strawberries and peaches in January, the roses of June in February. Fruit from the Pacific, from the gulf, artichokes from Marseilles, oranges and strawberries from Florida, game from Arizona and Chesapeake bay, mutton and pheasants from Scotland—luxury from everywhere. The primal condition of this banquet is that everything should be unusual.

But remember that, after all, it is only the Grecian vase heavily ornamented. No one person can taste half the dishes. It takes a long time, and the room may be too hot. The limitations of a dinner should be considered. It is a splendid picture, no doubt. But it need not appall the young hostess who desires to return the civility.

A vase of flowers or a basket of growing plants can replace the epergnes. Some dinner cards etched by herself, with a Shakespeare quotation showing a personal thought of each guest (how complimentary). Her spotless glass and silver, her good soup, her fresh fish, the haunch of venison roasted before a wood fire, the salad mixed by her own fair hands, perhaps a dessert over which she has lingered, a bit of cheese, a cup of coffee, a smiling host and a composed hostess, a congenial company, wit withal, who shall say that the little dinner is not as amusing as the big dinner? To be composed; yes, that is the first thing to be remembered on the part of a young hostess. She may be essentially nervous and anxious, particularly if she is just beginning to entertain, but here she must resolutely put on a mask of composure and "assume a virtue if she have it not." Nothing is of much importance excepting her own demeanor. A fussy hostess who scolds the servants, wrinkles her brow, or even forgets to listen to the man who is talking to her is the ruin of a dinner.

As, however, it is a great intellectual feat to achieve a perfect little dinner with a small household and small means, perhaps that form of entertaining may be postponed a few years. Never attempt anything which cannot be well done. There is the afternoon tea, the musical evening, the reception, the luncheon, they are all easier to give than the dinner. The young hostess, ambitious to excel in the "art of entertaining," can choose a thousand ways. Let her avoid attempting the impossible and let her remember that no success which is not honestly gained is worth a pin. If it is money it stings, if it is place and position it becomes the shirt of Nessus. Earn everything honestly.

But for the well-mannered and well-behaved American woman what a noble success, what a perfect present awaits her, what a delightful future! She is the founder of the American nobility. All men bow down to her. She is the queen of the man who loves her. He treats her with every respect. She is to teach the future citizen "honor, loyalty, duty, respect, politeness, kindness and the law of love." Such a man could read his Philip Sidney and yet not blush to find himself a follower. An American woman wields the only rod of empire to which American men will bow. She should try to be an empress in the best sense of the word. To a young woman entering society we should recommend a certain exclusiveness. Not snobbish exclusiveness, but it is always well to choose one's friends slowly and with a due consideration. We are not the most perfect beings in all the world. We do not wish to be intimate with too much imperfection. A broken friendship is a very painful thing. We should think twice before we give an intimate friendship to anyone. No woman who essays to entertain should ask everybody to her house. The respect she owes to herself should prevent this. Her house becomes a camp unless she has herself the power of putting a sieve outside the door.

And as a hostess is the slave of her guests, after she has invited them, she must be all attention and all suavity. If she has nothing to offer them but the hospitality of a small house, a cup of tea and a smile she is just as much a hostess as if she were a queen. If she offers them every luxury and is not polite she is a snob and a vulgarian. There is no such detestable use of one's privileges as to be rude on one's own ground. "The man who eats your salt is sacred." However, "to patronize" is a great necessity in some natures. There is little opportunity for it in free, brave America, but some mistaken hostesses have gone that way. Every one feels pleasantly toward the woman who invites him or her to her house; there is something gracious in the act. But if, after opening her doors, the hostess refuses the welcome or treats her guest with a doubtful degree of cordiality, why did she ask you at all? Every young American can become a model hostess, she can master etiquette, create for herself a polite and cordial manner, she should be as serene as a summer's day, she should keep all her domestic troubles out of sight. If she entertains let her do it in her own individual way, a small way if necessary. There was much in Touchstone's philosophy—"a poor thing, but mine own." She must have the instinct of hospitality, which is to give pleasure to all one's guests. And it seems unnecessary to say to any young American hostess, "noblesse oblige." She should be more polite to the shy, ill-dressed visitor from the country (if indeed there is such a thing left in America, where, Bret Harte says, "the fashions travel by telegraph") than to the sweeping city dame that can take care of herself; a kindly greeting to a gawky youth will never be forgotten, and if some one has entered her precincts who is less fashionable than another (Heaven save the mark!) who can graduate American fashion!

Like the snowflake on the river,
A moment here, then gone forever.

Then it is to the humblest that a hostess should address her kindest attentions.

Do not overfeed people. Who is it that says: "If simplicity is admirable in manners and in literary style, in the matter of dinners it becomes exalted into one of the cardinal virtues?"

The ambitious housewife would do well to remember this when she cumbers herself and thinks too much about her forthcoming banquet. If she ignores this principle of simplicity and falls into the opposite extremes of ostentation or pretentiousness, she may bore her guests rather than entertain them.

M. E. W. SHERWOOD.

A JOYOUS MOMENT.

Nervous Gentleman (who has engaged individual on left to act as guide)—But, my good man, are you sure you have taken the right road?

The Individual (gruffly)—I know I has; we are now close to the "Bloody Gulch," where a man's skelington was found last summer with bullet holes in the skull. They tried to fix the murder on me, but (with a grin of great satisfaction)—they couldn't prove nothin'. No, they couldn't prove nothin'!—Life.

"We always fry ours in Cottolene."

Like most other people, our folks formerly used lard for all such purposes. When it disagreed with any of the family (which it often did,) we said it was "too rich." We finally tried and not one of us has had an attack of "richness" since. We further found that, unlike lard, Cottolene had no unpleasant odor when cooking, and lastly Mother's favorite and conservative cooking authority came out and gave it a big recommendation which clinched the matter. So that's why we always fry ours in Cottolene.

Sold by all grocers.

BRAINED HIS RIVAL

Tragedy on a Canal Boat in Jersey City.

A PRETTY WIDOW THE CAUSE.

One of Her Admirers Was Insanely Jealous of Her.

George Creech, Alias "Nick," Had Long Been Enamored of Mrs. Mann, Who Owned Two Boats, but His Affections Were Not Returned—He Had Sworn to Kill the Suitor Who Was Favored by Her and Buried an Axe in His Skull.

JERSEY CITY, April 2.—George Creech, alias "Nick," a canal boatman, is wanted for a murderous assault upon John Smith, a watchman.

Smith, who was employed on the steamboat Canonicus, called upon Mrs. William F. Mann, who lives on the canal boat Oliver A. Payne, which is tied up in South Cove.

Mrs. Mann is a prepossessing widow, who owns two canal coats, the Payne and the Ed Rennett. Both boats have been in winter quarters in South Cove, alongside the steamer Canonicus.

Creech was employed by Mrs. Mann last summer. He had paid Mrs. Mann considerable attention and so had Smith. The latter was received with the more favor apparently, and the result was that Creech became insanely jealous.

The two men fought about Mrs. Mann three weeks ago, and she says that Creech then threatened to kill Smith, who secured a revolver to protect himself.

Smith and John Babcock, of the Canonicus, were in Mrs. Mann's cabin talking with her and her two little children, when Creeck came down the hatchway and ordered the men to leave the boat, saying he had been put in charge of the boat by the sheriff, who held an attachment in favor of James Howell, one of Mrs. Mann's creditors.

Hot words ensued. Mrs. Mann ordered Creech to leave. He refused and Mrs. Mann threw some water on him. Then he went on deck and she bolted the hatchway.

Creech then began to batter in the door with an axe, and shouted: "I want youse to come out."

Babcock went on deck and Smith followed. As the latter's head and shoulders appeared above the cabin, Creech lifted the axe and sunk it deep into the left side of Smith's head, inflicting a terrible wound.

Smith dropped on the stairs, and the axe became loosened and again fell on his neck and shoulder, cutting him badly.

Babcock clinched with Creech, but the latter finally escaped. Smith was taken to the hospital in an ambulance.

This is the story of Mrs. Mann, who says that Creech has a wife and family in Troy, N. Y., where he killed a negro some years ago.

He lives, she says, with his niece, a married woman, at Third avenue and Twenty-third street, New York.

Creech is described as 5 feet 8 inches in height, stoutly built, weighing 180 pounds, of dark complexion, dark mustache, and wearing a black overcoat with pockets in the sleeves, drab trousers with blue stripe and a black derby hat.

Now They Are More Attractive.

DETROIT, Mich., April 2.—Detroit is laughing over the results of its latest moral streak. Last Tuesday night the Common Council adopted a resolution forbidding the exposure of off-color theatrical posters and similar advertisements. The Griswold Street Theatre had a line of variety show paper to put up Monday which came within the prohibition. The bill posters cut red paper into dress forms and posted them over the bare limbs of the actresses in the lithographs. The posters are now more attractive than they would have been if let alone.

An Apple Causes a Boy's Death.

RONDOUT, N. Y., April 2.—A sad accident, resulting in the death of the victim, occurred to the 2-year-old son of Jerome Terwilliger, of Port Ewen. The boy was eating of an apple and had bitten off a large piece, when something aroused his merriment. Through his laughter the lad forgot the piece of apple, which quickly slipped down his throat and lodged in his windpipe. Medical aid was quickly summoned, but the poor little fellow choked to death long before the doctor reached the house.

A Loss to Paper Manufacturers.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 2.—Supt. F. Lillis of this section of the Erie Canal began letting out the water on both the upper and lower levels of the canal here early in the morning for the usual spring clearing. All the mills in the section from here to Brockport, a distance of 42 miles, dependent on the canal for water power will have to close down for this month unless provided with steam power. This will occasion a severe loss to the manufacturers of pulp and paper in this city.

The Hetherington Case.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, April 2.—Friends of Lieutenant Hetherington, who killed Gower Robinson in Yokohama, claim to have ascertained that the principle laid down by the Supreme Court in the case of John M. Ross, who was convicted in the Consular Court of Japan of murder, applies to the Hetherington case.

Carpenters Strike at Newport.

NEWPORT, R. I., April 2.—The Union carpenters here struck for nine hours work and $3 per day. This action means a great deal to Newport at this time, as work on houses for summer residents must be done by June. The bosses thus far have declined to accede to the demand.

INSPECTOR BYRNES MAD.

He Says the Grand Jury Presentments are Insulting.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The grand jury, which was incited to action by Dr. Parkhurst's eloquence from the pulpit of the Madison Square Presbyterian Church, rounded up its affairs by bringing in some half dozen presentments. The principal presentment, after passing a high eulogium on the efficiency of the New York police, charges that body with not exercising their powers sufficiently in closing and arresting the inmates of the various gambling dens and disorderly houses in their several precincts, but leaving such work rather to private societies; it also censures the police for being derilict in their duty in not securing the conviction of the many flagrant violations of the excise law, suggesting that in all probability there may be some bribery in connection with such violations.

The next in importance is directed to certain newspapers which print in their columns the advertisements of places of vice.

Inspector Byrnes was much incensed over the matter, declaring the presentment an insult to the entire police force and department. He threatened to retire from the department if such attacks were upheld.

"If there are individual members of the force who have committed wrongful acts," said the inspector, "they should be indicted and punished as they deserve, but to attack the great body of men for the misdeeds of a few is manifestly improper and unjust.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Mrs. Sampson, the Strong Man's Wife, Takes Poison.

LONDON, April 2.—Mrs. Edith Sampson, the bigamous wife of the strong man, made an attempt to commit suicide in a disorderly house in Leicester square by taking poison. She was saved and was arrested.

Ever since the fact came out in the examination of Sampson on the charge of stealing Mrs. Bernstein's jewelry that Sampson was already married she has been deeply despondent and sank lower and lower. She was formerly an attractive woman, but has lost much of her beauty, and when arraigned in court presented a pitiful spectacle.

She is said to have expressed an earnest desire to damage the good looks of Mrs. Bernstein, who won the strong man's heart away from her.

WAS SHE MURDERED.

Mrs. Chambers, of Keyport, N. J., May be a Victim of Foul Play.

KEYPORT, N. J., April 2.—Carrie Chambers, aged 39, wife of Captain William Chambers, of this town, was found dead in her bed Thursday morning, and it was at first thought that she died of heart disease. It is now believed that she was murdered.

An examination of the body disclosed several discolorations on the neck and breast. Her step-children insist that her death was not a natural one.

It is said that Frank Pettit, her brother-in-law, at whose house she died, made threats to break up her home.

Another Case Similar to Mrs. Osborne's.

LONDON, April 2.—Reports are in circulation that a suit similar to that which brought Mrs. Florence Ethel Osborne to grief will soon be tried. A lady, the wife of an officer in the army, missed a valuable brooch. She visited a jewelry shop and there saw a brooch displayed like the one she had lost. Upon examination she became convinced that it was the same, and inquired from the jewelers how they had obtained it. They gave the name of a lady who was an intimate friend of the loser, as having sold the brooch. The loser afterward wrote a letter to her friend charging her with the theft, and now the friend has instructed her solicitors to institute a suit for libel and slander.

A Negro Arrested for an Assault.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 2.—Charles Burgess, a notorious colored character, has been arrested here charged with breaking and entering a house and with having committed a criminal assault upon a white woman. In the struggle with the latter she had wrenched a sleeve button of peculiar design from his cuff, which was used as a clew to capture the scoundrel. The penalty for the negro's crime is $1,000 fine and 21 years' penal servitude.

Barely Escaped With Thier Lives.

ERIE, Pa., April 2.—A destructive fire broke out in the Merchant Flour Mills and Elevator, the girls employed in the building barely escaping with their lives. A strong southwest wind rendered the small fire department almost useless, the Downing Baby Carriage Works and several houses being consumed. The loss aggregates over $200,000.

Danny Richardson Signs.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Danny Richardson has decided to wear the uniform of the Washington Club. A telegram has been received here from Mr. Wagner stating that the "prince of second basemen" had affixed his signature to a Washington contract. The terms of the ——agt call for $4,500 for the season.

CHICAGO'S CALAMITY

Many Persons Killed and Injured.

A CYCLONE'S TERRIBLE WORK.

Buildings Crushed Like Eggshells Beneath the Weight of a Heavier Structure.

The Cries and Screams of the Unfortunates Buried Beneath the Debris Were Awful—Aid Came from All Quarters—Willing Hands Went to Work to Rescue the Poor People from the Ruins.

CHICAGO, April 2.—The terrific wind and thunder storm which passed over the city early in the night, wrecked buildings and demolished outhouses and prostrated telegraph wires. The seven-story brick building at Nos. 14 and 16 Pearce street, on the West Side, was struck by the wind and crushed like an eggshell. The building was surrounded by one and two-story frame and brick buildings, the homes of laboring men, which were also wrecked, killing and injuring the occupants.

The killed are as follows:

David Hulett, 6 months old, living at 18 12 Pearce street.

Horace Motts, 5 years old, living at 12 Pearce street.

Those fatally injured are:

Alice Hulett, 8 years old, crushed about the legs, body and head.

Mrs. Ada Keown, living at 319 West Harrison street, visiting at the residence of Thomas Hulett, buried beneath a mass of bricks and fatally hurt.

Mary Wigant, of No. 12 Pearce street, crushed terribly about the legs and body.

Horace Wigant, an infant, badly crushed about the head.

James Mott, of 12 Pearce street, crushed about the head.

Mrs. James Mott, badly bruised and mangled.

Mamie Mott, 10 years old, bad wound on the head.

James McGowan, his wife and son William, 10 years old, are supposed to be buried in the ruins.

The building, a 7-story brick, fronted on No. 14 and 16 Pearce street, and was 118 feet long by 50 feet wide. It had just been erected by Young & Kent, manufacturers of brass work, and was practically completed, the roof having been finished this week. It was the centre of a mass of one and two story frame buildings, nearly all of which were occupied by poor people. Immediately in the rear of the building was a two story brick house, the home of Thomas Hulett, who lives there with his wife and nine children. They were at supper, and were entertaining as guests Miss Emma Hope, a relative, and her friend, Mrs. Ada Keown. When the building fell the force of the terrible mass of brick and iron, wood and plaster seemed to be directed rearward, completely burying the structure. All the inmates were killed or injured.

Frank Dilleny, who happened to be passing on the street and was an eye-witness to the disaster, said that he first noticed the rear wall bulging out. The rain was driving in torrents and there had just been a fearful gust of wind. There was a loud crash, and he was conscious of a deafening noise, which continued for some time as the masses of debris piled on the smaller structures.

Then arose cries and screams of those buried unfortunates who were not dead or unconscious beneath the tons of fallen walls. An alarm of fire was turned in, and as soon as the nature of the calamity was appreciated assistance began to arrive from all directions, and the work of tearing away the wreckage was promptly begun.

A Mad Dog Runs Amuck.

JERSEY CITY, April 2.—A mad dog ran amuck on Ocean avenue, this city, and caused great excitement in the neighborhood before he was finally killed. Three men, named Luh, Pfahler and Mang, and several dogs and a horse were bitten by the infuriated animal before he could be dispatched. The three injured men had their wounds cauterized and will visit Gibier's Pasteur Institute in New York. All the dogs bitten were killed.

A Popular Hotel Destroyed.

LARATOGA, N. Y., April 2.—The Riverside House in Luzerne, owned by E. M. Garnais, was burned. The loss is estimated at $60,000. Garnais's family, the servants and a few guests who were in the hotel when the fire occurred, had very narrow escapes. The loss all their effects. The Riverside House was quite popular with summer tourists.

Brutally Murdered.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 2.—Atlas Taylor was brutally murdered near here. His head was beaten into a jelly and his body was thrown into a swamp, where it has been found.

THE BARBER WENT CRAZY.

He Wanted to Take a Customer "to Heaven" With Him.

JEWETT CITY, Conn., April 2.—William Reese, a barber, became suddenly insane while shaving Darkin Jackson. He had just finished lathering Jackson's face when he suddenly remarked;

"Jackson, you would make a beautiful corpse. I will take you to heaven with me."

The barber's eyes grew wild and his hand moved uneasily, scratching Jackson's face. He laid the razor down for a minute and began rubbing his hands. Jackson sprang from the chair and rushed for the door, but Reese headed him off.

Jackson grappled with the madman, and after a desperate struggle freed himself and started down the street with Reese in close pursuit. Reese stumbled and fell and was quickly overcome by several men. He was locked up and will be taken to an asylum.

AN INTERESTING MARRIAGE.

Two Sisters Marry Two Brothers at Rhinebeck, N. Y.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 2.—Society in the village of Rhinebeck, Dutchess county, is greatly interested in a double marriage which took place there on Thursday evening.

William F. Way and Eliza Traver were married in the parlor of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Traver's aunt. When this couple stepped from before the clergyman Frank Way and Maria Traver took their places and were also married, the Rev. Chester A Traver officiating in both cases.

The two bridegrooms are brothers and the two brides sisters.

The Ways are ranked among the well-to-do farmers of the town and have a splendid home on the old post road, a short distance from the village. The Travers live near by and the father of the brides is the supervisor of Vice-President Morton's farm.

HORSEWHIPPED A SCRIBE.

A Lockport Woman Avenges the Publication of One of Her Escapades.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., April 2.—A woman rushed into the news store of John Doherty at Niagara Falls, drew a whip from under her cloak and began whipping Doherty about the head and shoulders, saying she would teach him to put her name in the papers.

The woman proved to be Mrs. Alice Shurray, who heard that Doherty was correspondent for the Buffalo papers which published an account of her being found at the New York Central depot in her night dress and being taken home by a telegraph operator.

Mrs. Shurray is a well-to-do, young and handsome widow. Her antics lately have occasioned a great deal of talk.

An Accident at the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—An accident occurred at the Capitol which almost caused the death of two House employes. A leak was discovered in a gas pipe under the western terrace and in trying to repair it two men were asphyxiated. Their names were Fitzsimmons and Mills. Another employe, Taylor, seeing the predicament of his comrades, endeavored to rescue them and was in turn overcome. Taylor and Mills are out of danger, and Fitzsimmons was conveyed to the hospital, where he lies in a critical condition.

Suffocated in the Mud.

PATERSON, N. J., April 2.—The body of the man found dead in a ditch beside the Little Falls road was identified as that of Terrance Reynolds, of Singac, about three miles above Paterson. Reynolds was 33 years of age and unmarried. He was superintendent of Powers' brick yard at Singac. Reynolds met his death while on his way home while on his way home in a buggy. The horse, it is supposed, took fright and ran over the ditch. Reynolds' body was found face downward, and he was evidently suffocated in the mud.

Hung Himself to His Baluster.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 2.—Walter Britcher, aged 49 years, was found lying dead on the stairs of his home here. He had committed suicide by tying one end of a rope to the upper end of the baluster and the other about his neck, then sliding on the stairs the length of the rope. When Britcher committed the act is not known, but it was some time in the morning. He had been in ill health.

Congressman Dodge's Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Mr. Lodge, of Massachusetts, introduced in the House, for reference, a bill to provide for an international conference on the matter of a ratio between gold and silver, and to suspend, pending the execution of a proposed treaty, the purchase of silver bullion and the issue of treasury notes thereon, as provided by the act of July 14, 1890.

Confessed the Murder.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Michael T. Sliney has confessed to Inspector Byrnes that he killed Bob Lyons in his butcher shop in Cherry street, on Nov. 25 last. He said that they had a quarrel about money matters and that Lyons knocked him down. He then picked up a cleaver and threw it at Lyons and it hit him in the neck.

The St. Lawrence River Bridge.

KINGSTON, Ont., April 2. — The bill to permit the bridging of the St. Lawrence River near Kingston will be presented to the Dominion Parliament next session. The bill will be similar to the one passed by the New York Legislature.

Treasury Department Statement.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—A statement prepared by the Treasury Department shows that there are $1,851,850 of 4 1-2 per cent. bonds outstanding, $23,632,950 having been redeemed and about $26,000,000 continued at 2 per cent.

REPULSED AT ORITZ

The Revolutionists Defeat the Government Troops.

REBELS CAPTURE GUNBOATS.

Fleeing Senators Captured and Put in Prison With General Salazo.

Reinforcements Marching to Join General Crespo—The Head Waters of the Orinoco River Now Under Control of the Insurgents—Foreign Commercial Houses Are All Closed—A Run Has Been Made on the Bank of Venezuela.

PANAMA, April 2.—The Government troops commanded by General Rodrigues have been repulsed near Ortiz. They met the forces that were marching from Orinoco to re-enforce General Crespo, the leader of the revolutionists. There was a sharp engagement, in which General Rodrigues's forces were compelled to retreat, though the loss was not heavy on either side.

The revolutionists occupied Oritz, a town of 7,500 in the State of Guarico, and then began an advance on Curs, a city of 10,000 inhabitants 60 miles southwest of Caracas.

The success at Ortiz was followed by the seizure of the national gunboat, Nueve de Julio, which was stationed at Esmeralda, on the Orinoco River. This success gives the revolutionists the command of the upper end of the river and and will be of great advantage in future operations.

News of these reverses has greatly depressed the followers of President Palacio, who continues his dictatorial course. Meanwhile the cause of the revolutionists is growing in popular favor.

General Ballista is marching from Zamaras with 1,000 soldiers to fight for the revolution.

The President informed Congress that he would resign the moment his successor was elected and the centralised form of government proclaimed under the new constitution which has been ratified by the States. The President thus named was under Palacio's decree to be the first under the new constitution and was to be ineligible to re-election.

These terms were not accepted. They were denounced by the opposition in the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, the Federalists declaring that they would insist upon the election of a new President before proclaiming the new constitution.

When the news of this refusal was taken to Palacio, he issued a decree dissolving Congress and sent troops to arrest members who refused to bow to his will.

Senators and Deputies fled when Palacio's soldiers marched into the halls of Congress, evidently fearing a repetition of the scenes when Managas forcibly dissolved Congress in 1848.

Palacio's soldiers pursued the fleeing members. General Salazzo, the leader of the Federalist members and candidate for the speakership, was caught and dragged off to prison. He battled bravely to escape, but his fight was useless.

Senators Gondoleri, Silva, Gregorio and Rivera and Deputies Bustamente and Lopezbaralt, whose opposition had especially incensed President Palacio, were captures as they fled from the capital and were put in prison with General Salazzo.

Many private citizens who were known to be in sympathy with the offending Senators and Deputies were arrested, and they, too, are now in jail, with the members of the Supreme Court and other political prisoners.

The dissolution of Congress and the arrest of its members caused tremendous excitement throughout the city. Those who had shown sympathy with the opposition sought places of refuge. Some fled from the city.

Foreign commercial houses were all closed. Protests were made by foreign residents against the policy of President Palacio, but these acts did not allay public apprehension. To the fear of personal violence was added the fear of loss of property and a financial panic followed.

A run was made on the Bank of Venezuela, where the government has deposits amounting to $3,000,000. All the gold in the banks has been withdrawn from circulation. Paper money is depreciating in value. Great distress is threatened.

His Head Severed from His Body.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 2.—Daniel Igo, a prominent citizen of Ystesville, near Shenandoah, aged 26 years, while attempting to board a moving train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, fell under the wheels and his head was completely severed from his body.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Senate has passed New York Park Police Pension bill.

Jockey John F. Thayer, one of the oldest jockeys on the turf, is dead at his home in Camden, N. J., of pneumonia.

A dispatch from Augusta, Kan., states that Thursday night's cyclone did great damage there. A number of lives were lost.

While attempting to secure some valuable papers from his burning residence Judge R. V. Bush of Evansville, Ind., was fatally burned.

The disappearance of Charles Kinsey, a partner of Alderman Atkinson in the livery business in New Brunswick, N. J., has caused a sensation.

The Treasury Department has mailed 28,140 checks, aggregating $4,840,852, in payment of the quarterly interest due on the 4 per cent. bonds.

A large party of rich Hollanders arrived in New York yesterday on the steamer Rotterdam from Amsterdam. The are going out to settle in Iowa and California, where there are several very prosperous Dutch colonies.

Cleveland's is the Baking Powder used in the U. S. Army.

GUNPOWDER EXPLODED.

People Alarmed and Windows Shattered in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, April 2.—A can of gunpowder was exploded in front of 45 Willow street, Brooklyn, in the most fashionable quarter of the city.

The windows on both sides of the street were shattered, and the sound of the explosion was heard for miles.

Among those who lived in the neighborhood are the Rev. Lyman Abbott, ex-Mayor David B. Whitney and General Horatio King. They and their families were a good deal alarmed.

Those who reached the sidewalk just after the explosion occurred, saw two men running away and the remnants of a burning fuse lying near the curbstone in the gutter. Nobody was hurt so far as is known.

ESHER FACTION WINS.

A Decision that Gives it Control of the Evangelical Church.

CLEVELAND, O., April 2.—In the Circuit Court a decision was handed down in favor of the Esher faction of the Evangelical Church. The court held that the Indianapolis General Conference held last October, and not the one held by the opposing faction at Philadelphia, was the legal Conference of the Evangelical Association. The Esher faction, therefore, has the right to appoint the board of publication of the society, to control its property and to direct all the affairs of the association.

Robbed by Footpads.

CHICAGO, April 2.—S. M. Hall was sandbagged in the most brutal manner, dragged into an alley off Wood street, between Jackson boulevard and Adams street, and robbed of his watch and money by four footpads Thursday night. When found Mr. Hall was unconscious and bleeding from several wounds in the head, where he had been kicked and beaten. His condition is critical. No arrests have been made. The crime was committed under the broad glare of two street lamps just at nightfall and the citizens who were summoned to assist in caring for Mr. Hall were forced to go as far as Van Buren street before they could find a police officer, and then found one coming out of a saloon.

Washington Accedes to Hoy's Terms.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—It is announced that President Wagner had finally yielded to the general demand for the presence of Hoy, the deaf mute fielder on the Washington team, and signed him at the figure of last year's contract with the Athletics. This leaves Danny Richardson the only player assigned to Washington with whom arrangements for the season are not practically complete.

Alger Will Remain in the Race.

DETROIT, Mich., April 2.—When questioned about Senator Cullom's withdrawal from the Presidential race, Gen. R. A. Alger said it would have no effect at all upon his candidacy. Having gone so far he would feel as though he were shirking his duty were he to withdraw. He says he is a candidate until the convention at Minneapolis shall express itself in a decisive vote.

Cowhided Her Tradueer.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 2.—Mrs. Albert Thompson of Sugar Grove, Thursday evening, publicly cowhided James J. Lurton, a married man employed by her husband, for insulting her last Saturday. Lurton tried to escape, but she headed him off and triumphantly marched him up the street, where in the presence of her husband she lashed him across the face with her buggy whip till the man screamed with agony.

Horses and Valuable Trotters Burned.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 2.—The barn of Dr. William Haggerty, with its contents, including two valuable trotting horses, was burned at an early morning hour. The Grace Reformed Church adjoining was also badly damaged. St. Cecilias Convent, also near by, had a narrow escape. Loss about $5,000.

Elliott Sentenced for 20 Years.

COLUMBUS, O., April 2. — Patrick J. Elliott of the Sunday "Capital," who shot and killed Albert C. Osborn of the Sunday "World" on Feb. 28, 1891, was sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary.

Five Hundred Confirmed.

NYACK, N. Y., April 2.—Archbishop Corrigan confirmed nearly 500 children in St. Peter's Church, Haverstraw, the largest number ever confirmed in any village in this State in one day.

PARTICULAR MENTION

Anthony Shoder, district deputy grand-master, 5th Masonic district, will visit Jerusalem lodge, No. 26, next Tuesday evening.

That unanimous reappointment of Dr. Justus H. Cooley to the assessorship shows that the borough council recognizes faithful service and knows how to reward it.

Miss Edith O. Katline, one of the most competent and efficient teachers in the North Plainfield public school, has sent in her resignation and is to be married next week Thursday.

Funeral services over the remains of ex-Senator Robert L. Livingston were held from the late residence of the deceased this afternoon. The attendance was large, and included a number of county officials. The officiating clergymen were the Rev. S. P. Simpson and the Rev. Asa Reed Dilts.

Richardson Garretson, once the freight agent of the Central Railroad company at Plainfield, but now a hustling life insurance agent, with an office at 202 Broadway, New York, paid THE PRESS a visit yesterday. His many friends will learn with great joy that he is also actively engaged in mission and church work.

William R. Chapman, conductor of the Melopœia, is to retire as conductor of the Musurgia club, New York, at the close of its concert to be given on Tuesday evening the 19th inst. Frank Damrosch, who is considered by many a superior musician to his brother Walter, will be the man to conduct the "Musurgia" for its future concerts.

Through the exertions of James T. Velgard and other enthusiastic friends, Charles Burns, secretary of Watchung lodge, No. 161, International Association of Machinists, and chairman of the committee in charge of the very successful anniversary held on the 24th ult., has been presented with an elegant gold badge in token of his untiring efforts in behalf of the occasion.

In the unanimous re-election of Henry H. Brokaw to the office of borough clerk last night the North Plainfield council paid a deserving compliment to a most worthy young man and faithful official. Both councilman Hegeman and mayor Saunders took occasion to speak in high commendation of the clerk's past record, and the council did a creditable thing in increasing the clerk's salary from $150 to $200 per year.

William L. Saunders, new mayor of the borough of North Plainfield, made an auspicious beginning of his official career last evening. His first message is a strong and able document, and he made the pleasing innovation of presenting it verbally to the council, without notes, in ringing and eloquent tones and impressive manner. His appointment of committees is a wise selection, the men on their respective committees being especially fitted for the work assigned to them.

GETTING READY FOR WORK.

BOROUGH COUNCILMEN ROLL UP THEIR SLEEVES FOR A BUSY YEAR.

Able Message on Important Matters from Mayor Saunders—Appointments of Borough Officials — Councilman Sebring Joins the Democrats, and the New Mayor Holds the Balance of Power.

The new borough council of North Plainfield organized last night. The new mayor, William L. Saunders, was escorted to the chair by the retiring mayor, Charles Place, and by him sworn into office. Then the new councilmen, George H. Neal and M. L. Connolly, were sworn into office by mayor Saunders, and all took their seats, in this order:

MAYOR SAUNDERS.

Hegeman	Connolly
Sebring	Neal
Hummer	Needham

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE.

GENTLEMEN OF THE COUNCIL:—I have, during several years past, viewed the affairs of this borough from the stand-point of a citizen and tax-payer, and as I am now honored with the office of mayor it is my privilege as well as my duty to call your attention to questions of importance relating to public interests.

Our citizens have placed upon your shoulders and mine the responsibilities, cares and duties that belong to the management of this borough. It is not sufficient that we qualify by good conduct only, or that we serve merely as vigilant watchmen taking care that the public funds are wisely expended and that the people are protected. It is our duty to do something more. We should zealously advance public interest. After giving our first thought to the health and protection of our people we should look to their prosperity by encouraging such public improvements as will fill up our empty lots and add to the number of our citizens.

We need better facilities for transit to such an extent that it becomes our duty to provide them. I am unconditionally in favor of a system of street cars, whether it be by horses, cable, trolley or compressed air. The sacrifice which we are called upon to make when a street car franchise is given is small when compared with its great advantages. We give up a portion of our streets, and in doing so we should require the traction company to keep the main part of the street in good condition. This might reduce rather than in*crease the cost of keeping the streets in order.*

Our friends across the brook have taken action on the street-car subject, and we are informed that the tracks are soon to be laid. We should take steps to extend their system here, provided it is a good one. I believe it has been decided that the trolley will be introduced, and though I am somewhat inclined to favor the use of compressed air stored in tanks under the seats for propelling street cars, yet to my mind there is nothing the matter with the trolley. It is vastly superior to horses or a cable. Its rapid introduction throughout the country is in itself an evidence of its utility. It has advanced so far that there is really nothing experimental about it. Our streets are well adapted for a trolley system because they are not wide enough to require the poles to be placed in the street, but at the curb line where they are not in the way. It goes without saying that a good system of street cars will be an advantage to the borough; it will increase our population and improve our property; it will benefit our shops, and increase the attendance at our churches, our schools and places of amusement, and in doing all this it brings no burden upon the tax-payers.

Next in importance for your consideration is the question of improving the streets. I am inclined to the opinion that it will be well to adopt a general rule which will provide for macadamizing every street in the borough on which the property-owners subscribe one-half the expense. In view of what has already been done, it does not seem to me likely that this will involve any burden, but, on the contrary, those who will be most benefited by the improvement will be called upon to pay the largest share, and the return through an increased number of buildings and improved property will equalize in taxes the sum taken from the borough treasury. It has been charged that there are certain streets in the borough which are at times in such condition that fire engines and heavy trucks cannot travel. If this be true, and if there are any buildings adjacent to these streets, it becomes your duty to see that they are promptly put in good condition.

As to sidewalks, the question seems to have been kept alive during the past year, yet little has been accomplished. The committee on streets and public health, in their report recently submitted to the council, admit that they have had only "moderate success". I can do no better than quote the concluding words of this report, and recommend it not only for your consideration, but your action:

"We do most earnestly recommend, in view of the urgent necessity of better walks in the borough, that the subject be kept well alive during the coming year, and that the council will, as far as possible, take steps that will cause a substantial improvement in this respect."

You are perhaps aware that a committee was appointed some weeks ago by the Plainfield council to investigate and report on the question of sewerage. I know that the man on that committee on whom has rested the labor of this investigation is eminently fitted to find out what has been done in other places, and to advise wisely and temperately. George H. Frost, through his large experience and acquaintance among engineers, has prepared an able review of the subject which will be embodied in a report soon to be presented. Now I do not share the belief held by some that our cesspools are a source of danger, or that we are liable to be overtaken by an epidemic. I believe that the cesspool system which we have in the borough is absolutely safe, quite as much so in fact as the best sewerage system that can be applied. We have a peculiar soil here which warrants us in claiming safety for this system, and since we have been supplied with water from the street mains there is no reason to doubt that we will be safe during the natural lives of all of us. But we cannot make everybody think as we do. The popular idea of a cesspool is fixed, and it is difficult for us to convince strangers that our gravel soil is all that we claim for it. We cannot always get a chance to argue the question even if we were disposed to, and the fact remains that, admitting the safety of the cesspool, we are confronted by a fixed state of public opinion which we cannot change. Let us, therefore, consult with our neighbors, for, if it be true that they have treated the subject wisely, we should at least get the benefit of their experience. It requires no argument to convince you that a system of sewerage in the city of Plainfield and none in North Plainfield might in the eyes of outsiders offset in some measure the advantages which we have of a better atmosphere and a more picturesque and attractive home. Should we at any time seriously consider the sewerage question, let us not lose sight of the interests of the tax-payers.

I shall from time to time call your attention to matters of public interest, such as a proper maintenance of lights and a rigid enforcement of the ordinances against unmuzzled dogs. These are questions for which our committees and the borough officers are responsible, and I urge you to see that no one neglects his duty.

In all that we do let us bear in mind that we are the servants of the people, not their masters. A good servant must be active as well as true, and in this line we can do no better than to perform the duties of office with that same skill, vigilance and energy which characterize success in ordinary business pursuits.

WM. L. SAUNDERS, Mayor.

April 1, 1892.

The following standing committees were appointed:

STANDING COMMITTEES.

Auditing and Finance—Sebring, Needham, Hummer.

Fire, Water and Lamps—Connolly, Neal, Sebring.

Laws, Ordinances and Elections—Hegeman, Needham, Sebring.

Streets and Public Health—Neal, Connolly, Hegeman.

Licenses and Marshals—Hummer, Neal, Connolly.

Printing and Stationery—Needham, Hummer, Hegeman.

Salaries were fixed as follows: Borough counsel, $250 per year; borough marshal, $50; borough street commissioner, $50, and $2 additional for each day engaged on street work; tax assessor, $500; borough clerk, $200; special marshals, 25 cents each hour on duty.

APPOINTMENTS.

For borough counsel Mr. Needham nominated Charles A. Reed, by resolution. Mr. Neal amended to substitute the name of John H. Jackson. The amendment was lost, Messrs. Neal and Connolly alone voting for it. The vote on Mr. Reed was tie, and the mayor cast the deciding ballot for him. Mr. Sebring voted with Messrs. Neal and Connolly.

For borough marshal Mr. Hummer nominated G. C. VanHorn. Mr. Neal amended to substitute the name of Wm. N. Pangborn. The amendment was adopted, and Mr. Pangborn was elected. The vote was tie as before, and the mayor cast the deciding ballot.

Justus H. Cooley was unanimously chosen tax assessor, as was Henry H. Brokaw borough clerk.

For street commissioner Mr. Sebring nominated Israel Stout. The vote was again tie, and Mr. Stout was elected by the mayor's deciding ballot.

The following list of proposed special marshals was tabled: Job Coddington, W. C. Allen, Francis Whitely, S. B. Wheller, L. Sprague, Richard McDonald, Rufus Benson, John Stine, S. Taynor, Israel Jones.

Petitions for the macadamizing of Manning, Brook, Myrtle, Mountain and Farragut avenues, Park place, and Vine street, were referred to the street committee, and minor routine business was transacted.

The council will meet again April 15.

The Property Owners Must Pay For It.

$6,000 is said to be the figure that is to be paid the Y. M. C. A., for cutting off some of its property on East Front street to permit the continuing of Broadway into the borough. The money will be assessed on the owners along the street as far possibly as Crescent avenue, and probably those also for half a block down each cross street. It is supposed that J. Fred. MacDonald, who has many a running foot of his property cut off along Broadway from Front to Second street, will be assessed $1,000 cold cash besides.

The War on the Dogs.

The dog that bit Mr. VanZandt and Miss Titsworth—and which, by the way, there is much reason to believe was not mad—has brought disaster upon his race. Fifty-four stray dogs have been taken in by Mr. Frisbey and his assistants in the last few days, thirty-three of which have been killed, seven redeemed and fourteen still remain in the pound.

Pure Bostonese.

"For me", said the Boston girl, glancing askew,
"Some auriferous aural appointments willdo."
Gold earrings she meant, and her lover with zest
Responded, "Io Collier's I'll go for the best".

From my knowledge of the value of Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills, derived as well from my own experience as from the testimony of many who have tested their merits, I am satisfied that they well deserve the ample patronage they are receiving.—The Rev. C. VAN SANTVOORD, Kingston, N. Y.

The wrong way, with Catarrh, as to stop it without curing it. The poisonous, irritating snuffs, strong caustic solutions, "creams," balms and the like may, perhaps, palliate for a time. But they may drive the disease to the lungs.

The wrong way is full of danger.

The right way is a proved one. It's with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It cures, perfectly and permanently, by its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, the worst cases of Chronic Catarrh. It has proved itself right, thousands of times, when everything else has failed.

And this makes its proprietors willing to prove that it's the right thing for you, no matter how bad your case or of how long standing.

If they can't cure your Catarrh, they'll pay you $500 in cash.

They mean it.

They're certain of their medicine.

You pay only for the good you get.

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

OBITUARY.

Smith E. Hedges, M. D.

Dr. Smith English Hedges, one of the oldest practicing physicians in Morris county, and one of its most valued citizens, died at his residence in Chester at a very early hour yesterday morning. He had not been in good health for some time. His death inflicts a deep and abiding sorrow upon the community in which he lived, and where his life was expended for the promotion of the good of its people in every way that human influence could be exerted. Dr. Hedges was born in Chester, Nov. 20, 1830, and inherited his love for his profession, his father, grandfather and great-grandfather all having been physicians, and it is remarkable that his two sons have adopted the same profession. He was educated in the Medical department of the University of the City of New York, from which he was graduated in 1852. He settled in his native village and continued there until within a few years of his death, when failing health led him to retire from his profession. He had virtually worn himself out by the assiduity with which he had devoted himself to his profession. As a physician he was exceptionally successful and was as much beloved for his cheering presence and sympathy as he was for his skill and patience.

As a citizen Dr. Hedges took a foremost position in all movements to promote the public good, and his influence was great because of the excellence of his judgment. His wise counsel has been the stay of many, and he was strong in the possession of all the best qualities of neighbor and friend. In politics he was an enthusiastic Republican, standing stanchly for principle these many years in a community where political sentiment was strongly against him, and for many years he was the postmaster of Chester, filling the position to the satisfaction of the people. In the welfare of the Presbyterian church, of which he was for many years an elder, he was always deeply interested, and his sterling Christian character was everywhere recognized. Indeed, in every sense, Dr. Hedges was a well-balanced man—the truest type of a Christian gentleman, and his conception of his duties in every walk of life was only equaled by his fidelity in following his convictions.

Dr. Hedges leaves a widow, a daughter and two sons. The latter are both physicians in successful practice—Dr. Ellis W. Hedges, of this city, and Dr. B. Van D. Hedges, resident physician of the Presbyterian hospital, New York city.

The funeral services will be held at his late residence on Monday next, at 1 o'clock.

A Memorial for Al. Bandle.

Many of Plainfield's sportsmen will remember the pleasurable times had at the traps with that genial and gentlemanly shooter, Al. Bandle, who died in Syracuse, January 24, after a short illness. His fellow-sportsmen of his native city have been endeavoring to raise a memorial fund for a monument to his memory, by selling photographs of the floral tribute which was presented by his friends and admirers. At the late tournament in Wilmington, Del., at the suggestion of "Tee Kay" Keller, of the United States Cartridge company, an Al. Bandle memorial race was shot, which netted the sum of $39 towards the fund, which was placed in the hands of Fred. Quimby, of New York, to be sent to the proper authorities. Each shooter put in a dollar and shot at one blue-rock each. It is thought that other gun clubs throughout the country will follow this mode of securing the necessary fund, so happily started by "Tee Kay".

Won by a Crescent Bowler.

Lyman won the day for the Park club last night. The Union county bowlers had the game in their hands till Lyman rolled up the score of 177, winning the game by 24 pins. The score:

PARK CLUB.		UNION COUNTY CLUB.
Matthews	134	Herring	121
Bartling	148	Kimball	151
Rogers	126	Brooks	131
Roome	136	Fleming	169
Reed	125	Mason	136
Murphy	105	Moore	119
Sandford	111	McKinney	116
Peck	129	Booth	125
Thiers	135	Depew	131
Lyman	177	Burnett	113
Total	1326	Total	1302

The Tournament Petering Out.

It now looks as though the Crescents had lost all interest in their bowling tournament, and as though by a series of forfeits the leaders were to be euchred out of the place for which they have worked so faithfully. Even captain VanEmburgh may thus lose the first prize which belongs to him. By last night's bowling forfeits Hervey Doane was lifted into third place, and is in a fair way to reach the top without half trying.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

There will be no evening service in the church. Members of the congregation are urged to attend the Monroe Avenue and Park Place chapels in the evening.

Called Forth Five Times After Midnight.

The New York Music and Drama has this to say of the young prima donna who is to sing at the next Melopola concert:

Miss Margaret Reid made one of the greatest hits ever known on the lyric stage. In the mad scene with which the opera closes Ophelia appears in the white robes which etiquette prescribes for all crazy heroines on the stage, her hair enwreathed with fantastic garlands of "crow-flowers, nettles, daisies and long purples". She has the scene to herself, only an invisible chorus at times singing a gentle melody. The music of Thomas is here difficult. Miss Margaret Reid looked, acted and sang this scene to perfection. The audience was entranced. The curtain fell at twenty minutes after midnight, yet the singer, a stranger to almost all in the house, was called five times before the curtain, the audience standing, cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs. It was a memorable scene, and the young singer must have deemed it the greatest experience of her life.

THE PLAINFIELD, TEAM.

Somerville Still Guessing at Its Make-up.

(From The Somerville Democrat.)

The story which our Republican contemporary told two weeks ago about the Plainfield base-ball team, and how the men would be placed, has created no little amusement in that city, as it is entirely in the wrong. Manager Keller is perfectly willing to inform newspaper men as to the placing of his team as far as he knows, and to say he is not is both foolish and ridiculous. As to the rock bottom authority which the Gazette claims to have, we can only say that undoubtedly Mr. Beger tried hard to find out who Plainfield had signed, but he is a little too far off to attempt by guess work to place the Crescent team.

In conversation with Mr. Keller the other evening, he laughed at the idea of Murphy pitching and Leidy playing third base. To use his own words, "I don't think I will place the men as the Gazette says, because I intend winning at least part of the games". Mr. Keller said the team with the exception of the battery would be as follows: On the bases, Murphy, Turner and Daily; Keeler at short, while in the field Bonner, Jones and Leidy will hold forth. As to the battery, Mr. Keller is as silent as the grave, but at the present time it is reasonable to believe that George Cadmus, of Cornell university, will do the pitching, and Hofford, of New Haven, will back him up. Hofford is the man who caught the games two years ago when Doran pitched, the time there was so much excitement, and all who saw the little backstop then have a knowledge of what he can do.

At a special meeting of the board of managers of the Children's Home association held at the house of the president, yesterday, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His providence to remove from the scene of her earthly labors to His heavenly rest, our friend and associate officer, Mrs. James McGee, therefore

Resolved, That we will ever hold in grateful remembrance her loving and efficient service since the days of the first informal work of the Home. She has served on its Board fifteen years—first as treasurer, and for thirteen years as vice-president.

Resolved, That our sense of personal and official loss and the memory of all she has so lovingly done for the Home, shall be a constant inspiration to us who remain to greater faithfulness and efficiency in our work for the children.

Resolved, That as an association we offer to her husband and children our deepest sympathy in this sudden sorrow that has shadowed their hearts and homes.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her husband, also that they be entered on the records of the association, and published in the city papers.

Our Congressman's Daughter to be Married.

Among the engagements lately announced is that of Miss Anna Margaret Geissenhainer, daughter of Congressman J. A. Geissenhainer of this district to Charles Elliott Warren, son of Dr. George William Warren of New York. Miss Geissenhainer is well-known in this city, as well as throughout the fashionable centres of New Jersey. Mr. Warren is a member of the Sons of the Revolution and of the Calumet club. As both families are in mourning, the wedding will be a quiet affair. The ceremony will be performed at noon in St. Peter's church, Freehold, followed with a breakfast at the bride's home. Miss Sallie Hunter of New York has been asked to act as maid of honor. The groomsman is to be Richard Henry Warren, and Appleton L. Clark, Francis G. Loudon, Egbert C. Denison, Edward Y. Weber, C. B. Geissenhainer, and Talcott C. Van Santvoord are to be the ushers.

The 4 o'Clock Meeting.

The W. C. T. U. meeting to-morrow afternoon, in the new hall, Rink building, Broadway, promises to be of unusual interest. Several of the city's ablest pastors are expected to make brief addresses, after which the meeting will be thrown open for volunteer remarks.

Some practical phases of the temperance subject, by way of rather startling suggestions or questions, will be discussed. All pastors and workers are especially invited to be present and take part in the exercises as far as possible.

Homes Within the Reach of All.

The Central New Jersey Land Improvement company advertise in THE PRESS today that they have decided to dispose of all their remaining properties in the towns and cities along the line of the railroad, at prices that will please anybody. All the properties they offer are situated in places already built up, and provided with schools, churches, stores, etc.

BACK AND SIDEACHE.

Just What to Do to Cure Them.

The most annoying pain is backache. The next most uncomfortable condition is sideache. Nothing makes a person so weak, nervous, miserable and dragged out as a more or less constant weakness or pain in the back or side. And it is entirely unnecessary to suffer from it, too, for Dr. Greene's Nervura, which you can get at druggists, $1.00, will cure perfectly and completely. This remarkable nerve medicine and sure reliever of pain is purely vegetable and harmless, and it is absurd for people to suffer from headache, neuralgia, pain in back, side, limbs, &c., when a cure is certain by using this great discovery for the nerves. Dr. Greene's Nervura is the best spring medicine, and should be used now, as all these troubles are worse from Spring Debility.

OH! MY BACK!

"I have been under the care of many doctors for neuralgia and rheumatism, which I had terribly in my back and side. So badly did I suffer that I was unable to attend to my business for three years, before I came across the right remedy to cure me. The remedy is Dr. Greene's Nervura, and I have been perfectly and completely cured by this wonderful medicine.

JAMES BOWN,
27 Market St., New York City."

N. B. Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th St., New York, can be consulted, free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free. 2 2 td ttas

Had to Do It.

Briggs—Did you know that Parker had sold his residence on the avenue?

Griggs—No. What did he do that for?

Briggs—He wanted to get his wife a sealskin cloak.—Cloak Review.

The Landlord.

As a blessing you never were meant;
Of this I have very good proof;
For you make me put up for the rent
And put up with the one in the roof.
—Judge.

A STRAIGHT ANSWER.

Mr. O. Turk—Oi hear thot Micky wor hurt in th' blast yisterday.

Mrs. McPhee—Thrue fur you.

Mr. O. Turk—An' how is he gettin' along?

Mrs. McPhee—Oh, he can't complain.—Judge.

A Gifted Subordinate.

Enraged Contributor—Your proof-reader made nonsense out of that article of mine this morning, sir—outrageous nonsense, sir!

Editor—By George, I couldn't make anything out of it at all! I'll raise that fellow's wages.—Chicago Tribune.

One View of It.

"I don't think it's exactly fair for my teacher to keep me in because she can't read my writing," said Willie. "It isn't my fault if she doesn't know how to read."—Harper's Bazar.

No Bill of Fare.

Mamma (at dinner table)—Why, Dick, what are you crying for?

Little Dick—Boo-hoo! I didn't know there was any pudding 'till I got all through.—Good News.

BULL DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

And make you sing and praise it too.
Get the Genuine. Made only by

BLACKWELL'S DURHAM TOBACCO CO., DURHAM, N. C.

Modern Health Appliances.

Physician—What you need every day is a good shaking up.

Patient—How would horseback riding do?

Physician—That isn't quite severe enough. What you want to do is to take a ride every day in one of our hospital ambulances.—Life.

He Wanted to Know.

Philip—Mother, they call all the men in Wall street either "bulls" or "bears." Which is papa?

Philip's Mother—It's time to go to bed, Philip.

Philip—Well, I only wanted to know whether I was a "cub" or a "calf."—Jury.

A Word of Caution.

Spatts (to Miss Munn)—Mabel, love, I dote upon you wildly.

Miss Munn—That's all right, but don't let papa know it.

"Why?"

"He's violently opposed to young men's wild dotes."—N. Y. Sun.

A BEAUTIFUL WRECK.

A sad scene with which to terminate a brilliant evening. They have returned from a reception. She had felt restless and nervous during the day, and is suddenly taken with that "faint feeling" so prevalent with our women.

The cause of this feeling is some derangement, weakness, or irregularity incident to her sex, and can readily be removed by prompt and proper treatment.

The Vegetable Compound acts like magic in such cases. It not only gives prompt relief, but effects a permanent cure.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

It cures the worst forms of Female Complaints, that Bearing-down Feeling, Weak Back, Falling and Displacement of the Womb, Inflammation, Ovarian Troubles, and all Organic Diseases of the Uterus or Womb, and is invaluable to the Change of Life. Dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus at an early stage, and checks any tendency to Cancerous Humor. Subdues Faintness, Excitability, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, etc., and invigorates the whole system. For the cure of Kidney Complaints of either sex, the Compound has no rival.

All Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00. LYDIA E. PINKHAM MED. CO., LYNN, MASS.

An illustrated book, entitled "Guide to Health and Etiquette," by Lydia E. Pinkham, is of great value to ladies. We will present a copy to anyone addressing us with two 2-cent stamps.

A Daring Spirit.

Ethel—I wonder whom Mr. Dashing will marry?

May—A dynamite bomb, I guess.

Ethel—What do you mean?

May—He is so brave he courts nothing but danger.—Household Monthly.

Very Weak.

Jessie—You must be a hard worker, Mr. Chapley.

Chapley—What makes you think that, Miss Jessie?

Jessie—George told me yesterday that you make him tired.—Once a Week.

A Grand Plan.

"How do you make your paper go, anyhow? I never see it anywhere."

"We print pictures of prominent men, and they buy it."

"To distribute?"

"Oh! no; to destroy!"—Puck.

He Knew.

Wife—Shall I have my black silk fixed over, dear, or shall I get a new one?

Husband—By all means get a new one. It's cheaper.—Cloak Review.

A Common, Every-Day Man.

A common, every-day man is he:
He doesn't shine in society,
But he's none the worse for it, maybe;
For after the supper's over at night,
He doesn't to club or to lodge take flight,
But sits with his wife in the parlor bright,
And fondles or rocks the baby.
—N. Y. Press.

Information Wanted.

Editor—I want you to take charge of the "Queries" column.

New Man (modestly)—I fear I cannot answer the questions our readers would ask.

"Oh! yes, you can. Most of the questions are from college graduates, and they are very easy."—Demorest's Magazine.

Economy.

Mrs. Trotter—I hear that all three of Mrs. Barlow's children have the measles.

Mrs. Faster—Yes; so I understand. They're so poor that they have to economize on the doctor by all getting sick at once.—Judge.

Not So Easy After All.

Miss Birdie McGinniss—You young married women treat us unfairly by absorbing the attention of the gentlemen.

Young Mrs. Clamwhooper—That difficulty is easily overcome.

"How?"

"Become a young married woman yourself."—Texas Siftings.

Another Victim.

The man in the mackintosh had been studying the time tables in the book for half an hour and getting madder every minute.

"Is that a railway guide?" inquired the man with his feet on the table.

"No!" snorted the other, throwing it on the floor, "I'm the guyed!"—Chicago Tribune.

A Damaging Secret.

"I deem it pwopah to tell you," said Codling, to the hotel clerk, when he registered, after his visit to "the other side," "that I am the son of an English duke, doncher know."

"All right," replied the clerk, "don't be afraid. I'll not expose you, if you keep your board paid a week in advance."—Jury.

Greater Still.

Tommy (to new boy)—You wasn't born in this country. You can't never be the president.

New Boy—No, but I can be a policeman some day, and you can't.—Chicago Tribune.

Too Hot for Him.

Mrs. Madison Square—You haven't been inside of a church since we were married!

Mr. Madison Square—No; a burnt child dreads the fire.—Texas Siftings.

Simpler.

Servant (to Squibs, in his new boarding place)—Shall I get some ice, sir?

Squibs—No; it isn't necessary. Just put the pitcher of water in the stove.—Puck.

The World Mistaken.

Up in high stations we mistake ourselves—
A captain, a major, a colonel:
But to General Public we must bow,
Or there'll be a row infernal!

DISASTROUS FIRES

New Orleans Swept by Two Conflagrations.

PEOPLE FLED FOR THEIR LIVES.

The Losses Will Aggregate Over Three Million Dollars.

The First Fire Was in the Cotton Press District—It is Supposed 80,000 Bales of Cotton Were Destroyed—It is Thought Some One Threw a Lighted Match on the Cotton—The Second Conflagration Was Caused by the Carelessness of a Woman in Using Coal Oil Which Exploded.

NEW ORLEANS, April 4.—This city was visited by two serious conflagrations yesterday, and property aggregating over $3,000,000 destroyed.

The first and most disastrous of the fires started in the district bounded by Peters, Front, Thalia and Robins streets.

A high wind was blowing at the time, and the flames spread with appalling rapidity. Building after building was quickly licked up, until all in the district mentioned were either in ruins or very badly damaged.

Among the presses destroyed were the Fire Proof, Penroxe Brothers, managers; Shippers, Boyd & Herrick, proprietors; Independence Yard and the Orleans Cotton Press.

It is thought that 80,000 bales of cotton were in the buildings destroyed, but it is believed that much of this will be saved. It is estimated, however, that the loss on cotton will be close on to $2,500,000. The loss on the sheds and presses is placed at $200,000.

The fire is believed to have been of accidental origin, due probably to the careless handling of a lighted match.

A panic prevailed in the vicinity of the fire which was close to the residence district, and people living many blocks distant began fleeing for their lives carrying what few belongings they could gather up in their haste. There were also destroyed in the cotton district several minor buildings. The New Orleans Vinegar factory was completely destroyed, involving a loss on the stock of $10,000. A frame barroom, No. 329 Front street, was razed. At 321 South Front street, a two-story brick building was entirely destroyed. No. 333 Front street, a two story brick residence, was damaged considerably, as was 335 and 337 Front street, buildings of the same character. A three story brick building, No. 2 Thalia street, was damaged considerably.

The cotton loss is estimated at about $65,000. This would mean a loss of about $2,225,000 in cotton alone.

It is claimed by some that the fire was the work of laborers who wished to avenge the purchasing of the press by the trust. The fire proof press is owned the trust in the name of Penrose Bros., managers. The Orleans is also in the trust in the name of Adam Lorch, manager. The shippers press is owned by Boyd & Herrick, who are not in the trust.

While the firemen were engaged in a hopeless struggle with the cotton fire, another blaze broke out at the corner of Laurel and Third streets, a mile away.

Mrs. Valentine tried to start a fire with coal oil. An explosion followed and the house was soon in flames. It was reported at the time that two children were killed by the explosion, but investigation fails to confirm the statement.

For half an hour the fire was a small affair, but no engines arriving, it finally spread to the surrounding buildings, which were all wooden cottages, and in two hours the flames had swept over an area of six blocks in extent, reaching from Magazine street to Constance Crossing. In all 185 houses were destroyed.

The loss will approximate $500,000. A careful estimate of the total insurance on both fires fixes the amount at $3,300,000.

A Hotel for Women at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 4.— Within the next fortnight a scheme for the erection of a hotel designed especially for women will be placed before the public of Washington for their approval in the way of subscriptions to the stock of the company which will build and operate it. The intention is to conduct it on so liberal a plan that here, where there are so many women who could patronize such a place, it is hoped and believed that the problem of a women's hotel will be successfully solved.

Dangers of the Trolley System.

NEWARK, N. J., April 4.—A furniture truck, drawn by three horses which became frightened at an electric car on Central avenue ran away, and dashed madly down the avenue. They ran into one of the poles that support the trolley wire, snapping it like a pipestem, and at the same time knocking a woman down. She was rescued in time to save her from the electric current, which ran along the ground for two blocks.

Henry George Will Provide for Her.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 4.—Mrs. George N. Hutchins, of Ancora, whose husband died and left his estate to Henry George for the purpose of disseminating his views, and who recently had to go to the Camden County Almshouse owing to her impoverished condition, was taken away from that institution by Henry George, who is going to provide a home for her in Philadelphia.

Minister Smith's Resignation.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Nothing definite can be learned here in regard to the published statement to the effect that Charles Emory Smith, Minister to Russia, will resign upon his arrival in the United States. Secretary Blaine, when shown the publication, declined to say anything in regard to it.

BURGLARS CAPTURED.

They Bawed Their Way Out of the Massachusetts State's Prison.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Two desperate burglars who recently escaped from a Massachusetts prison, were captured in this city.

They were taken into custody by two members of Inspector Byrnes' staff after a slight struggle. A companion attempted to assault the detectives, but he, too, was arrested.

"Dick" Drohan and George E. Welles are the two thieves who sawed their way out of the Charlestown State Prison last March. Both were known to be desperate characters, who would stop at nothing in order to gain their liberty. The prison was crowded, however, and they were confined in the same cell. An armed guard paced their cell door every 20 minutes, but in spite of this they managed, with steel ribbon saws which had been smuggled in to them, to cut asunder the steel bars on the window of their cell. They then pried off the bars, descended from the window by means of ropes made from their bed clothing, and scaling the walls were free.

MOONSHINERS' THREATS.

They Say that Hochstetter's Nephew and Beals Must Die.

PITTSBURG, April 4.—A telegram has been received at the Internal Revenue office in this city from United States Internal Revenue Commissioner Mason at Washington, directing the Government officials in this district to co-operate with the State officials in capturing William C. Miller and William Pritts, who, by the confession of Robert C. Miller, are the murderers of Jonathan Hochstetter in the Laurel Hill Mountains of Somerset County on Wednesday last.

It was learned last night that Wm. C. Miller and Pritts intend to kill young Hochstettler, a nephew of Jonathan Hochstettler, and the young man Beals, who witnessed the bloody crime. If the moonshiners succeed in carrying out this threat, it is said they will then surrender to the authorities.

It has come to light that there are at least thirty illicit distilleries operating in the mountains of this and Fayette County. The moonshiners are organized in a society called the "Freundschoft."

A Notable Funeral.

TROY, N. Y., April 4.—The funeral of Miss Mary Benedicta Murphy, daughter of Edward Murphy, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, occurred yesterday afternoon, and the entire town, it seemed, turned out to pay the last respects to the dead. Thousands of people were denied admission to St. Joseph's Church, The sidewalks from the residence to the church, a distance of one mile, was packed with people. Senator Hill, Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan, Mayor Grant, Richard Croker and many other public officials were present.

Russell Harrison Admitted.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The Press Committee has reaffirmed their former action in admitting Mr. Russell B. Harrison to the privelges of the press galleries of Congress. Mr. Harrison appeared before the Committee and fully, and to the satisfaction of the Committee answered every question in regard to the charges preferred against him. He specifically denied every charge that would, if true, make him ineligible to admission under the rules prescribed for the government of the press galleries.

Important Steamboat Purchase.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 4.—S. D. Coykendall has purchased ten steamers known as the the Cheny line and acquired the large and valuable business connected therewith. The line has heretofore been a competitor of the Cornell Steamboat Company, and hereafter they will probably operate in harmony with each other. The transaction is one of the most important in steamboat property that has been made on the Hudson River in many years.

Attacks American Women.

PARIS, April 4.—A sprightly and scandalous novel entitled "L'Americaine," severely attacking and libeling American women in general, has just been published here. The name of the author has not been given, but when it is disclosed there is likely to be trouble. It is evidently written to gratify the ill feeling aroused in certain Parisian circles by the Deacon-Abeille tragedy.

Committed for Murder.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 4.—William P. McLaughlin of High Spire, this county, is dead from the effects of a gunshot wound inflicted Saturday night by Jacob K. McAllister, who has been committed to this city on a charge of murder. According to McAllister's story he shot McLaughlin after the latter had blackened his eyes. Both, he says, were drunk when the fight and subsequent shooting occurred.

The Tilden Estate Appraised.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The appraiser of the Samuel J. Tilden estate has filed his appraisal in the Surrogate's Court at White Plains. The total value of the real and personal property is estimated to be $5,189,681. After the expenses, various trust settlements, etc., are deducted, the balance will be $3,207,792 [illegible] at law.

ASSASSIN RAVACHOL

The St. Germain Explosion Managed by Him and Gustav Matthieu.

Healats' Wife Carried the Machine Under Her Skirts—Says He Had Nothing to do With the Lobau Barracks Affair, but Managed the Rue Clinchy Explosion With Matthieu—He Now Has Five Murders to His Credit.

PARIS, April 4.—The Anarchist Ravachol was examined at the Conciergerie, and it was a long time before the magistrate could obtain any admission from him as to his participation in the crimes that are laid at his door.

Finally, driven into a corner and made to contradict himself repeatedly, Ravachol said:

"You want me to confess. Very well, I will confess. I committed five murders, and all that I got from these I have used in carrying out my Anarchist ideas. I wanted to blow up the Chamber of Deputies and the houses of certain of its members. The St. Germain explosion was managed by me and Gustav Matthieu.

"Healats' wife carried the machine under her skirts, and then I took it to the second floor. I had nothing to do with the Lobau barracks affair. The bomb in the pastry cook's mould filled with dynamite was made by Basltar. He and Matthieu put it in its place. I managed the Rue Clinchy affair with Gustav Matthieu. I took the box up to the second floor, while Matthieu kept watch. I tell you this because it is my affair and I choose to do so, but you need not try to get anything out of me about my friends and accomplices. All the dynamite that was stolen at Soisey Sous Etiolles I have destroyed."

The examination of Ravachol lasted for three hours.

BEAUTY IN OVERALLS.

A New Jersey Girl Masquerades in Pittsburg, Pa.

PITTSBURG, April 4.—A handsome girl about 18 years old, calling herself Jennie Scott, was sent to jail here for masquerading in men's clothes on West Carson street. She was dressed in a new suit of blue overalls, with a small soft hat pulled down over her face and her long, wavy blonde hair tucked up under it.

Miss Scott, according to her story, came from Doty's Mills, near Atlantic City, N. J. Her parents were both dead, she said, and she came to Pittsburt two months ago and has stayed with different families.

Before coming to Pittsburg, she claimed, she had been living with her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Critsman, at Doty's Mills. She wanted to go back, and not having enough money, thought the best way to get there was to dress in boy's clothes and steal her passage on a freight train. It is thought that she has a lover in New Jersey and was trying to go to him.

Illegally Constructed.

CHICAGO, April 4.—It now develops that the seven story building at 14 and 16 Pearce street, the collapse of which Friday night caused the death of eight people and the maiming of a score of others, was illegally constructed. An examination of the records at the building commissioner's office revealed the fact that a permit for a three-story building had been issued. Commissioner O'Neill at once began an investigation and he threatens to prosecute Samuel Young, the proprietor, both criminally and civilly.

Hirsch Buys a Famous Mansion.

LONDON, April 4.—Baron Hirsch, the world-famous philanthropist, has bought the palatial residence, Bath House, in London, and intends to make it his home during the season hereafter. He is said to be looking for a chance to purchase an old family estate, so that he may become an English landed personage. It is said that the Baron still enjoys the full favor of the Prince of Wales.

Maverick Bank Third Dividend Ordered.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The Comptroller of the Currency has directed the receiver of the Maverick National Bank, of Boston, Mass., to prepare checks for a third dividend of 15 per cent. upon claims presented in addition to the 60 per cent. hitherto paid to claimants, making 75 per cent. in all. It is expected that the checks will be ready for delivery about the 15th inst.

A Position for a Woman Physician.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The Civil Service Commission has a requisition for a female physician for the Indian service in Colorado which cannot be immediately filled because there are no women physicians on the register of eligibles. The salary of the position is $1,000 a year.

A COWARDLY MURDER.

George Whalen Will be Lynched if Caught and Taken to St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, April 4.—Indignation is at a high pitch in St. Paul last night over the murder of George H. Spaulding, a boy of 19 years, at Portage, Wis., shortly before dawn on Saturday morning.

Young Spaulding was the son of Hugh Spaulding, one of St. Paul's leading citizens. Mr. Spaulding arrived here yesterday afternoon with the body of his son and cleared up the mystery of the assassination. He was killed by George Whalen, a young man of 25, whom Spaulding considered one of his warmest friends.

Three or four days ago Whalen coaxed Spaulding to take a trip to Chicago. On Friday Spaulding's father purchased tickets for both young men, gave his son $35 dollars and a gold watch, and accompanied the pair to the evening train. On the way to Chicago Whalen prevailed on Spaulding to get off the train for a day at Portage. They left the cars at that point at 3:40 in the morning.

After walking a few rods along the track Whalen picked up a broken, jagged coupling pin and beat Spaulding's head into a jelly. Robbing the body of the money and the watch, Whalen took Spaulding's coat and shoes, threw the body into the canal, and made his escape. He had evidently planned the murder several days before. If caught and brought to St. Paul Whalen will be lynched.

STRANGLED TO DEATH.

A Ragpicker, Once Beautiful, Meets an Untimely End in Berlin.

BERLIN, April 4.—The dead body of a woman was found in a sack in the area of a villa in the Kaiser Wilhelm strasse last night. She had been strangled, and the marks of fingers were still apparent on her throat. She was identified as a ragpicker who was a well-to-do peasant's daughter, and lived with her father in the country until about thirteen years ago.

She ran away with a captain in the reserves named Schall, and left him shortly after her arrival in Berlin for a student whom she subsequently deserted for an attache of the Russian legation.

She lost her beauty through dissipation, and for the last eight years had been a ragpicker. She left her room at 6 o'clock in the morning, and was not seen alive afterward, as far as has been learned, by anybody who knew her.

SPURGEON'S UNSELFISH LIFE.

The Great English Divine Gave All His Income Away to Benefit Humanity.

LONDON, April 4.—The announcement that Rev. Dr. Charles H. Spurgeon left only 2,000 pounds when he died will doubtless be as great a surprise in America as it is here. Everybody not intimately acquainted with the celebrated preacher's methods of work supposed him to be possessed of a comfortable fortune. It is doubtful whether any preacher in Europe or in America ever received greater sums of money, and it is certain that none lived a more simple and inexpensive life.

But Dr. Spurgeon merely considered himself the trustee for the poor of all sums that came into his possession. He never considered himself the rightful possessor of the money in his pocket when he met a person in greater need than himself.

Potter Estate Sold.

BOSTON, April 4.—A large part of the magnificent estate of Asa P. Potter in Cohasset has been bought by Col. Albert A. Pope, of bicycle fame. The terms are not made public. The purchase includes all the property south of the Jerusalem Road, but does not take in that to the north of that famous drive. In the part transferred are the large house occupied by Mr. Potter, the homestead, with the big stable adjoining, and the dwelling known as the Irving A. Evans house, with its stable and a cottage for the servants. There is also the Daggett cottage the first bought by Mr. Potter, with its stable. The large bowling alleys also come into the property bought by Col. Pope.

To Allow Methodists to Dance.

NEWARK, N. J., April 4.—A resolution was introduced at the Newark Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Morristown which will cause a heated discussion when brought up for action. The resolution is intended to modify one of the strongest provisions of the Methodist books of discipline and will, if adopted, allow Methodists to dance and indulge in other amusements that have heretofore been prohibited by the Church.

Sale of the Road Confirmed.

TRENTON, N. J., April 4.—The Chancellor has confirmed the sale of the Philadelphia & Seashore Railroad to Lindsey Garrison of Camden, for $185,000. The Bethlehem Iron Company opposed the confirmation on the ground that they knew of a party who would give 21 per cent. more for the road. The Chancellor said that the sale was properly conducted and could not be reopened because of some prospective bidder.

Does Not Know Trout are Killed.

NEWBURG, N. Y., April 4.—Willet Kidd, fish and game protector for this district, was asked if it was true, as stated in the newspapers, that thousands of trout had been killed by the filming of the streams in this vicinity. He replied that the first he had heard of such a condition of affairs was gleaned from the papers, and he knew nothing about it further than that.

Mrs. Foote a Mother.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., April 4.— Mrs. Richard Foote, in the Broome County Jail awaiting trial for the murder of her husband last fall, was delivered of a twelve-pound female child yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Alvin Le Long, who is also awaiting trial for husband murder, and who has occupied the same cell with Mrs. Foote, is acting as her nurse.

SENATE AND HOUSE

The Week's Prospectus for Washington's Lawmakers.

CONSIDERATION OF TARIFF BILLS

For Silver Legislation the Outlook is Not Very Bright

The Less Radical of the Silver Advocates Do Not Deem It Advisable to Block Legislation by Filibustering — Mr. Dawes Wants Another Vote on the Indian Agent Bill—He Hopes to Secure the Retention of Civilian Agents.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The House will devote the greater part of this week to the consideration of the tariff. To-day Mr. Wilson (W. Va.) will close the general debate on the Democratic side, and acting for Mr. Springer, will move a vote on the pending bill. It is expected that the consideration of such amendments as may be submitted will not occupy more than two days. It is the desire of the Democratic leaders to send the bill to the Senate on Wednesday at the latest, but no advantage, it is said, will be taken of the suspension rule.

The Binding Twine bill will be taken up upon the passage of the Free Wool bill, provided the House should not decide to side-track it for an appropriation bill.

It is altogether probable that the members interested in measures on the private calendar will make a strong effort to secure the regular order on Friday for that purpose. This the House may defeat, as it is the plan of the managers to hasten the consideration of the tariff bills as rapidly as possible.

The prospect for silver legislation in the House is decidedly poor, the boasts of the free silver men to the contrary notwithstanding, nor is it probable that the ardent advocates of the Free Silver bill will go go so far as to attempt to obstruct all measures except the tariff bills if their efforts to secure consideration for their pet measure are disregarded. The less radical element of the silver advocates believe that it would be both poor policy and poor politics to filibuster against measures of paramount national importance and to go to the extreme of attempting to block necessary legislation.

The Senate has resolved to devote two uninterrupted days during the coming week to the consideration of bills on the calendar. How far this intention will be interfered with by the "debating school" on the silver question, as Mr. Sherman terms the prospective debate on the Morgan resolutions, remains to be seen. Appropriation bills also have to be taken into consideration. They have the right of way at any time.

The Indian bill is not yet completed. Mr. Dawes wants another vote on the question of authorizing the President to appoint army officers as Indian agents. That passed the Senate with a discretionary modification, when there was barely a quorum in attendance. Mr. Dawes hopes to secure the compulsory retention of civilian agents, as at present, if he can get the question before a full Senate.

Mr. Allison has the District of Columbia appropriation bill ready for presentation. Its consideration in itself to occupy two or three days at the least. Between these opposing forces the general bills on the calendar will probably stand a poor show, especially as Mr. Stewart's free coinage bill is high up on the list, and he has given notice of his intention to call it up to-day.

BOARD OF ARBITRATION.

A Rumor that Judge Putnam, of Maine, Will be Selected by the President.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Judge Putnam, of Maine, called on the President in company with Senator Hale, and his visit started a rumor that he is to be assigned to duty in connection with the Behring Sea arbitration, either as an arbitrator or as one of the counsel on the part of the United States. He is a Democratic lawyer of prominence and was a member of the commission which considered the Canadian fisheries controversy during President Cleveland's administration.

It is impossible to verify the rumor, but it finds many believers from the report that the President desires to have both political parties represented on the Board of Arbitration.

The Champion Swimmer's Challenge.

PROVIDENCE, April 4.—Prof. Gus Sundstrum, champion swimmer of the United States, while in this city with the New York Water Polo team, issued a challenge to swim from one to ten miles for the championship and stakes of from $500 to $1,000, and expressed a preference for a match with Robert Hayes of Baltimore, who is instructor for the Manhattan Athletic Club of New York.

Treasurer Webster's Accounts Correct.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 4.—The investigating committee of the Common Council, which has been for six months looking over the accounts of ex-City Treasurer Grove Webster with the aid of two experts, has reported that Mr. Webster's accounts are correct, and that he does not owe the city a dollar.

Forest Fires in Massachusetts.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., April 4.—Forest fires have been raging all over the cape for the past two days. Much damage has been done in the magnolia woods, and several tracts of forest have been destroyed.

Revolution in Ecuador.

PANAMA, April 4.—It is reported that a revolution has broken out in Ecuador and that the revolutionists have seized the Government steamer.

How They Differ.

In make up: Most baking powders contain ammonia or alum. Cleveland's does not; not a particle.

It is made of pure cream of tartar and bi-carbonate of soda, with a little flour to keep the strength, nothing else. Cleveland's is wholesome.

In strength: A rounded spoonful of Cleveland's does better work than a heaping spoonful of any other.

A large saving on a year's bakings. Cleveland's leavens most.

Cleveland's leavens best.

MINISTER REID ARRIVES.

He Had With Him Reciprocity and Extradition Treaties.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Mr. Whitelaw Reid, United States Minister to France, returned from Paris on the steamship La Champagne. Mr. Reid was accompanied by his wife and two children. His arrival has been looked forwards to with much inetrest in view of the understanding that he had resigned his post, and consequently he was besieged by a host of newspaper reporters as soon as the vessel reached her piar. Mr. Reid talked freely concerning international affairs. He had with him the reciprocity and extradition treaties between the United States and France. The obtaining of the signature of M. Ribot, Minister of Foreign Affairs for France, and the attaching of his own to the treaties was the last official act of Mr. Reid.

Mr. Reid had a pleasant trip over, there being but one stormy day encountered.

AGAINST MONMOUTH PARK.

Asbury Park Indignant at the Prospective Reopening of the Track.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., April 4.—Considerable indignation exists here over the prospective reopening of the Monmouth Park race track, and mass meetings protesting against the making of books there will be held along the northern New Jersey sea coast; Petitions will be circulated for signatures, calling upon both the State and county authorities for a strict enforcement of the State laws against bookmaking, pool selling and other modes of gambling.

Rev. S. Edward Young, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church here, denounced race track gambling in his sermon. He said the bookmakers ruined thousands of men every year and that racing brought to Monmouth Park the moral slops of New York, Brooklyn and adjacent cities.

A Curious Clerical Error.

LONDON, April 4.—Lady Brooke has just had an extraordinary stroke of luck in the will of the late Sir Victor Brooke, which has just been probated. It is by a curious clerical error which occurs in the will that she inherits heavily from the estate. The provision inserted was that "if she declines to receive certain moneys due to her from her grandfather upon her father's death," her annuity from Sir Victor is to be reduced from 12,000 to 900 pounds. The mistake is in the word decline, which should, of course, have been decide. She thus gets both legacies.

Result of Dr. Parkhurst's Charges.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The saloons of this city were tightly closed yesterday, and thirsty New Yorkers had to rely on prohibition drinks. The police issued an order Saturday to all saloon keepers that they must shut up or stand the consequences. The order, so far as known, was strictly obeyed. This was a result of the grand jury's presentment founded upon the charges made by Dr. Parkhurst.

Seamen Washed Overboard.

BOSTON, April 4.—Capt. Beck of schooner Morris W. Childs, at this port Saturday from Pensacola, reports that on March 28 the second mate, August Carman, 22 years of age, belonging to Deer Isle, Me., and seaman August Anderson, a native of Russia, 26 years of age, were washed off the jibboom into the sea and lost. It was blowing a gale at the time, and the vessel was hove-to.

Killed on His Wedding Eve.

MATTAWAN, N. Y., April 4.—Conductor Willard C. Brower, who died Saturday from injures received Friday by being run over by a locomotive at Danbury, Conn., was to have been married in a few days to a young lady of this place.

First Penobscot River Salmon.

BANGOR, Me., April 4.—The first Penobscot River salmon of the season was taken Saturday in a smelt fisherman's net. It weighed 17 pounds. Fly fishing may be expected in two weeks.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Secretary Elkins has gone to West Virginia to remain a few days.

The First National Bank of Westfield, N. J., capital $50,000, has been authorized to begin business.

The Griffith Steam Laundry Company at Boston has made an assignment, and the business will be sold.

The nine elevator boys in the Stock Exchange building, Boston, struck Saturday for an increase of wages.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, NEW YORK, April 4.—For northern New Jersey: Showers this evening; stationery temperature; southeasterly winds. For Tuesday, rain; slightly warmer; southeasterly winds. For Wednesday, fair, slightly cooler.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—If you want a new pair of gloves—and most of you do, this time of the year—go to Peck's!

—Laire & Co. are ready for spring trade with a full stock of lawn seeds, fertilizers and mowers.

—Somebody wants THE PRESS to again state that the dog-pound is not on the Smock farm, but on a place that belongs to a person by the name of Kitchen.

—It is rumored now that Carey, the ex-policeman, objects to a street railway for Plainfield, and is using all his endeavor to prevent its construction on West Front street. We'll see about that!

—The Bible Normal class of the First Baptist church will this evening take up the book of Numbers. An unusually interesting study may be expected, to which anyone in the city will be most cordially welcome.

—Mrs. John Whitehead says she was assaulted by a would-be robber, Saturday evening, on Fourth street. At about 10 o'clock she was thrown down and brutally beaten. She suspects who her assailant was. She is prostrated over the assault and lies ill at her home on West Third street.

—The Overland Monthly for April has some unusually fine illustrations. The opening article, a light descriptive sketch of scenes and incidents along the San Francisco city front, is illustrated by Ernest Peixotto with wonderfully delicate and expressive little washes and pen sketches, in the soft, broad French handling that has recently come in so effectively in magazine illustration.

—The New Jersey Traction company intend to connect Elizabeth and Newark by means of electric cars before the summer is over, if the applications now before the aldermanic boards of both those cities for the right of way through several streets be granted. It is said by the company that cars can be run by electricity from Broad and Market streets, Newark, through to the Union station in Elizabeth in twenty-three minutes, making all allowance for stops.

MAY METHODISTS DANCE?

That's a Question Now Agitated in the Newark Conference.

The Book of Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal church prohibits the church members from indulging in imprudent conduct, sinful tempers or words; buying, selling or using intoxicating liquors as a beverage, signing petitions in favor of granting licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors; becoming bondsmen for persons engaged in such traffic; renting property as a place in which to manufacture or sell intoxicating liquors; dancing, playing at games of chance, attending theatre parties, horse races, circuses, dancing parties, or patronizing dancing schools; for taking such other amusements as are obviously of misleading or questionable moral tendency.

The Rev. Dr. James Boyd Brady, who is seeking to have the Conference amend this restricting paragraph so as to permit dancing, card playing, theatre-going, and kindred amusements, says:

"I am inclined to advocate such an adjustment of our governmental system to spiritualize wealth and refinement with such dignity and delicacy of balance as shall avoid infringing on the fundamental principles of our scriptural discipline on the one side and without colliding with the intelligent conscience and godly judgment of our best people on the other.

'Some of our rich and educated people who want more liberty in non-essentials than our discipline permits leave our church for other churches for the purpose of enjoying these things. I want the discipline of our church to be firm in fundamentals, but in non-essentials scriptural and charitable. In minor matters in which one's own Christian conscience alone can be the determining umpire our discipline should be delicate, cautious and flexible.

"There is"—he adds—"dancing and dancing. The dancing that keeps a girl away from her home and associates with strangers until a late hour of the night is something that every enlightened Christian conscience must condemn."

The Rev. Dr. J. L. Huribut, of Plainfield, one of the leading men in the Methodist church, said: "I think there might be some modification of the Book of Discipline on the subjects referred to, but just what those modifications ought to be I am not prepared to say at present."

BY THE WAY.

—An important business meeting of the "Ys" will be held in their rooms Tuesday, April 5, at 4 p. m. A full attendance is desired.

—There is just one way to get your house painting and decorating done to your utmost satisfaction. The work that Woolston & Buckle do is the best, and their prices will likewise suit you.

—Jennings's blacksmith shop on Madison avenue, which has long been an eyesore, is being torn down by order of the new owner, James W. Jackson, making a great improvement to the street.

—Among the manifold attractions at the coming fair of the Unitarian church will be the exhibition and sale of a series of choice volumes by famous authors, with the writers' autograph on the fly-leaves.

—The long-deferred trial of the case of Harry Gordon, charged with non-support of his wife, took place before judge Coddington this morning. The court decided the wife's claim a just one, and will fix an amount of alimony.

—Henry Goeller has opened a machine and repair shop at 3 Somerset street, where he is prepared to repair all kinds of machinery, lawn mowers, sewing machines, etc., at very low prices and in the most workmanlike manner.

—At noon to-day the weather was 23 degrees hotter than this time last year, and within 4 degrees of the record made in 1887. But the prospects are that spring may be knocked out by a western storm.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Drake of Westfield were thrown out of their carriage by their startled team of horses, in front of the Westfield post-office Saturday evening. They were badly bruised and shaken up, but not seriously injured.

—The average attendance at the Boys' club last week was 73 per evening, the largest being 96 and the smallest 59. The number of visitors was 15. The monthly average attendance was 73, the largest attendance being 185 and the smallest 37. The number of visitors during the past month was 84.

—The complete novel in Lippincott's Magazine for April, "But Men Must Work", is by the well-known and popular author, Rosa Nouchette Carey. In it the narrator, as visiting governess and presiding genius, digs her way into the family secret, and at last banishes the family skeleton. It is a captivating tale.

—Last evening at about 8 some young man and a few others enjoyed themselves by shooting a revolver on a vacant lot near Grant avenue. Finally one of the fellows used a grocery store as a target, one of the bullets passing through the woodwork of the front door and breaking a large bay window. The store-keeper has a few of the fellows' names.

—The meeting at Reform Hall last evening was well attended. The address by Charles B. Brown was an able one, and was well received. Assistant secretary Mount, of the Trenton Y. M. C. A., made some very appropriate remarks at the close of the meeting. The choir, under the leadership of Mr. Vanderbeek, rendered choice selections. President Spencer occupied the chair.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Howard B. Spencer of New York spent yesterday with friends in Plainfield.

The date of Mr. MacClymont's organ recital is changed from April 12 to April 14.

James Athy and his sister, Miss Nettie, of Worcester, Mass., are visiting ex-councilman Hetfield.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bushnell of Maple Cottage, who have been spending the winter in New York, have returned home.

Miss Lavers, supervisor of drawing in the Plainfield public schools, has returned from her vacation visit at her old home at Quincy, Mass.

Samuel R. Jackson, father of Mrs J. W. Yates of East Seventh street, died at his home in Brunswick, Me., yesterday, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

Emeline, infant daughter of the Rev. Charles E. and Emma Demarest Dunn, died at Albany yesterday at the age of one year. The other little girl, Bessie, is very ill.

Ex-councilman John B. Dumont, having purchased the property at the southwest corner of Sixth street and Broadway, will remove therefrom the house now standing there and replace it with the house he now occupies on East Seventh street. On the beautiful location he owns at Broadway and Seventh street, he will then erect a handsome home for his family.

A large gathering of mourners attended the funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. James McGee Saturday. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Mr. Mitchell, Dr. Huribut assisting. Appropriate selections were sung by Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Titsworth and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bigelow, jr. The pall-bearers were two sons and four sons-in-law. The service was a deeply affecting one, to the host among whom the departed was sincerely beloved.

Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson yesterday attended funeral services at Shiloh over the remains of the late Dr. George Tomlinson, father of the Plainfield physician. The deceased was a graduate, in 1831, of the University of Pennsylvania, and practiced medicine in Roadstown until 1883. He was one of the organizers of the Cumberland County Medical society and served as its president in 1857 and in 1872. He was one of the oldest directors of the Cumberland Mutual Fire Insurance company and was a vice-president of the Cumberland Bible society. For about half a century he had been a deacon in the Seventh-day Baptist church.

An interesting trial took place before justice Hetfield and a six-men jury this morning. The case was brought by the Merchants' Retail Commercial agency of Chicago, vs. George W. Leonard, to recover $15 which they claimed he agreed to pay them for the privilege of belonging to the agency. He admitted signing such an agreement, but said he afterwards found the affair to be fraudulent and concluded not to go in it nor pay the $15. His lawyer, Mr. Lindsley, of Rahway, claimed it was a foreign corporation incorporated under the laws of Illinois, and had no right to do business under the laws of New Jersey without being especially sanctioned by the laws of New Jersey. He denounced the scheme as a fraudulent and blackmailing one, and said that they were looking for the $15 from each individual who joined the concern without the party joining getting one cent's worth of benefit, and that they only solicit customers in small towns and would not dare go in New York city and similar places. The jury was out fifteen minutes and gave a verdict of no cause for action. W. A. Coddington appeared for the plaintiff.

—An entertainment will be given at the Boys' club this evening. All boys and their friends are invited to attend.

Grover Cleveland's Law Firm Has a Case in Plainfield.

John Angus Manning, a retired lawyer of New York city who died at the Buckingham Hotel, New York city, last June, left a last will and testament cutting off his relatives and leaving his estate of $100,000 to a Mrs. Furguson of New York. William W. Pearson of this city was a personal friend of Mr. Manning, and a subscribing witness to his will, which is now being contested before the New York surrogate, and owing to the fact that Mr. Pearson is a paralytic and unable to attend before the surrogate in New York and give his testimony, surrogate Ransom appointed Charles A. Reed of this city as a commissioner to take Mr. Pearson's testimony on interrogatories, and Saturday afternoon the testimony was taken before the commissioner. Mr. Macveagh, of Grover Cleveland's law firm of Bangs, Stetson, Tracy & Macveagh, appeared for the proponents and for the will, and John H. Wolff of New York city for the contestants.

The Household Idol.

Worthington Co., 747 Broadway, New York, announce for immediate publication as No. 25 in their International Library, "The Household Idol" by Marie Bernhard, author of "The Rector of St. Luke's", translated by Elsie Lathrop. 1 vol., 12mo, ½ Rox, $1.25; paper, 75 cents. This, the latest novel of Marie Bernhard, author of "The Rector of St. Luke's", is a charming story of life among the highest circles of society, the scene being laid at the present time. The heroine, "The Household Idol", is the beauty and belle of all Hamburg, idolized by parents and friends. One of the chief personages is a celebrated artist, and the book contains graphic descriptions of studio life. The interest is fully sustained throughout the entire story, the characters being drawn with singular clearness and fidelity.

I SUFFERED from a severe cold in my head for months and could get no relief. Was advised to use Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like magic in its cure. I am free from my cold after using the Balm for one week, and I believe it is the best remedy known.—Samuel J. Harris, wholesale grocer, 119 Front street, New York.

New Attractions Every Week.

The introduction of wax figures that are apparently alive to the eyes of the closest observer has made a decided hit at the Eden Musee, 55 West 23d street, New York, and crowds are flocking to see the wonder. The notable group entitled "The Dying Gamekeeper" is constantly surrounded by interested spectators. Other novel and attractive additions, especially the "American Historical Hall", are being prepared by eminent artist, and will be on exhibition in a short time. The music of the Hungarian orchestra led by Munczi Lajos is universally pronounced excellent. "DeKolta" the magician is showing new tricks each week. There are many other features which can only be appreciated by a visit to this popular amusement resort.

PROGRESS IN CHINA.

The Wheels Move Slowly in the Dragon's Empire.

His Majesty the Emperor of China and the "Son of Heaven" is enjoying a train of miniature railroad cars, presented to him by the French syndicate of capitalists who wish to get contracts for building railways.

In China, they will wonder at its steam engine; and the six thousand electric lights, which are now being introduced into the holiest of Chinese sanctuaries, cannot but turn their eyes to our civilization. It will not be long ere a material advancement will be made in the science of medicine, which has for so many centuries remained a blot upon their civilization.

The missionaries are doing much to dispel the mysticism and reverent awe which the Chinaman holds for the concoctions of snakes, toads, lizards, etc., prepared by the native doctors. They recommend standard remedies which have long been favorably known in America and Europe, such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a remedy for all cases of blood-taints or humors, which has had years of uninterrupted success in the United States, and numbers its cures by the tens of thousands. This is a point gained for the future welfare of the Dragonean Empire.

BASE-BALL CHAT.

A representative of a New York sporting goods concern was at the Crescent club-house Saturday night with a line of base-ball and bicycle goods. The base-ball committee selected a new uniform of gray, with blue and gold trimmings and blue stockings. The club emblem will adorn the breast of each shirt.

Among the many improvements to be made on the Crescent grounds will be a press stand, which has long been needed.

Season tickets will soon be placed on sale.

Past Noble Grand Krank Kenney, of the Order of Rooters, is circulating a subscription paper to raise funds for the new uniforms, and the boys are responding nobly.

A Delightful Idyl at Music Hall.

When "The Charity Ball" was given its first performance its coming was awaited with interest because people wanted to see how it would compare with "The Wife", which up to that time had been known as Belasco & DeMille's best work. When the curtain rises on the scene of the first act of this charming idyl to-morrow evening, it will doubtless find gathered together a fine audience, ready to give the play greeting for its own sake, and remembering its success last season. Belasco & DeMille have done much good work, have helped much to give America an American drama, but they have nowhere shown so much skill as playwrights as in "The Charity Ball".

There are few John VanBurens and Ann Crugers, among even their gallery of portraits from the life. Its people and its lines justify the oft-repeated assertion that there is not a dull moment in "The Charity Ball"—when interest is not invited by the strength of its situation or the depths of its emotional scenes, merriment is incited by its bright and ever natural comedy. Its story is told in so simple and artistic a manner that it must always please all classes of people that see it. Its interpretation, under Daniel Frohman's management, is sure to be in the hands of a fine company, and in the same policy are included scenery and appointments and costumes that are worthy of the play.

Suffered Abuse for His Plainfield Pride.

[From The Perth Amboy Democrat.]

"Coffee" is the name of a colored man who at one time drove a hack in Perth Amboy. He is now engaged in the same business in Plainfield. On Wednesday last "Coffee" came down from the latter place to see his old friends, and after enjoying an afternoon's pleasure he went to the Lehigh Valley depot preparatory to taking the train. While waiting for the train he delivered an extemporaneous speech to the hackmen around the depot, dwelling principally on the appearance of the Plainfield livery teams, and explained in a burst of enthusiasm that the Amboys ought to be ashamed of themselves. He said "their hacks were a disgrace to them and if they had any indignity about them however they would keep them clean".

The Perth Amboy boys stood these abusive words with gentle submissiveness until at last their indignation was aroused and, using one of their terms, they "split coffee all over the platform." "Coffee treated the matter good naturedly, but he said if he was about to step heavenward his last words would be: "That the Perth Amboy hackmen ought to keep their 'Noah's Arks' at least presentable".

Dying of Pneumonia.

Dr. Henry R. Cannon, past grand master of the Masonic order in New Jersey, one of Elizabeth's commissioners of taxation, and for twenty years county clerk of Union county, is dying of pneumonia at his home, 1,016 Lafayette street, Elizabeth. Dr. Cannon is nearly seventy years old. He is very popular in political and social circles and is a strong Cleveland Democrat. He has been tax commissioner nearly eight years.

—The Pond Juniors played a practice game of base-ball against the Unions of Grant avenue on the Union's grounds Saturday afternoon, beating them by the score of 20 to 9.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signs perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street Plainfield, N. J.

CHANGES AMONG CONDUCTORS.

What Becomes of Jersey Central Men Under the New Spring Schedule.

"Cannon Ball Tuck", of rapid notoriety, is slated for a Cheesequake special, Morgan Station being his lay-over point. The indications are that he will remove his dog kennel to that place, where foxes run wild and thus give his thoroughbreds a chance at practical coursing while he interests himself at clam digging.

Brother Staats, who invariably never notices Fanwood as a stopping-point on his evening run east, and drops passengers for that station at Graceland, will be promoted to take charge of the "flyer", a new train, between Lorraine and Aldine. His crew will be increased in numbers as those cities advance in population.

Mr. Barick, who travels on his shape, and whose regulation coat covers all deformities, it being said by his enemies that were his nether limbs exposed they would look as though he had been "riding a hog", has been reported, together with his right bower Eddie Teel, to have earned a vacation; and they may be placed in charge of the dog-pound at the "eight sisters" near Evona.

Gentle Willie Sopers will have returned from his well-deserved vacation in time to hear the news as regards himself and the over-worked Slater. I am not posted as yet on what disposition will be made of him, but unquestionably his home will be at Roselle as heretofore.

Warren Sanborn, of military fame, will remain on his present beat. He is one of the most reliable conductors on the road, and few outrank him in duration of service. It seems that he is entitled to a less fatiguing run, but is always good-natured and saves money from his salary, for "Old Man Barley Corn" knows him not.

Joe Ross, not, by the way, a brother of the lost Charlie, will run Somerville and Roselle trains. This will suit Joseph, as a nice little home at the latter place has been in his perspective for some time.

Is it true that Mr. Horton is to be provided with a bell punch in place of the regulation? His engineer is reported to have said "Great Heavens, if he is I will be shutting off steam every time he cuts a ticket, for I can hear his click! click! in the cab even now."

"Pop" VanArsdale, the man of all others to receive a good berth, by reason of his being one of the seniors in point of service, will in all probability be appointed chief clerk to the assistant general passenger agent, in which position he will have ample time to examine all tickets lifted by his now brother conductors.

Walcott, of the night runners, has at present the most trying position, and will probably continue in it. His baggage-master, Tinsman, late "spotter" at Jersey City, appears not only to look after his ostensible duties, but to keep an eye on his superior. George may have had his salary reduced, but cannot forget, as it seems, that once a spotter, always a spotter.

—"Chappie", conducting the Produce Exchange special leaving Plainfield at 8:48 a. m., has become so imbued with the tales of rapid fortunes made in the several "pits" on 'change as related by Messrs. Jeffries and Mulligan of this city, ——— and Miller of Fanwood, and Charlie Young of Westfield that he cares little whether or not he retains his position; for these gentlemen have assured him, in the event of suspension, the position of "Sampler" on the floor, providing he will agree to allow smoking in his department, which luxury he now positively prohibits in the rear car of his train, known as the Produce Exchange club car.

Sad is the report that the "Gilt Edge" conductor will no more run the 3:45 p. m. out. He is to be relieved of such serious burdens, and may run on the "Mosquito Line" between Roselle and Newark.

Veteran "Billy" Clark will, it is said, be relegated to the care of his brother-in-law George Myer, the expert accountant, at Oneida Lake, during the season that ducks fly northward, and will then have charge of the Barnegat express in the fall. So he may find all fowl which escaped his eagle eye up north, on their flight to winter quarters. As he deserves it, good luck will of course attend him, whether on or off dut .

John Herbert, the only conductor on the line who has as yet proved himself able to control cyclone Jones, the dude baggage-master, will, with his crew, probably be assigned to the Amboy division and between hours assist cannon-ball Tuck in excavating the succulent bivalve. If this crew goes down there, the veteran masher Reese Mulford will do well to keep the fences up around his harem.

No other changes have been reported, and so Jake Aicher, who, strictly speaking, is not a Central conductor, may be depended on to protect (?) his non-combatant passengers from the objectionable utterances of the under-crust on the 12:15 a. m. train from New York as heretofore.

THE COMMUTER.

From my knowledge of the value of Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills, derived as well from my own experience as from the testimony of many who have tested their merits, I am satisfied that they well deserve the ample patronage they are receiving.—The Rev. C. VAN SANTVOORD, Kingston, N. Y.

TWO LITTLE WOEFUL TALES.

A Brace of Yarns That Put a Very Sharp Point on Several Morals.

A little story came my way one day last week that struck me as being particularly good, and if you knew the characters you would think so, too. But perhaps you will recognize them, anyhow. Here it is for what it is worth:

The small and sagacious son of one of our best-known clergymen went not long ago to spend a few hours at the home of a friend of his mother who did all in her power to entertain him. In the course of a most diverting conversation the subject of sermons came up, and the kind hostess, wishing to say something real nice, remarked to the young man:

"Well, I do n't see how your papa can write so many, many sermons. I should think his stock of ideas would be completely exhausted; and then where would he turn for new ones?"

"Huh!"—replied the scion clericus.—"Do n't you fret yourself about pop's sermons givin' out. He kin git lots more of 'em where he gits all of his'n from."

A regrettable episode took place at one of our recent fashionable wedding receptions which I did n't see or hear at the time, but which is going around now and might as well be told.

The night was a dreadfully stormy one; the elements seemed to be at odds with our social events, and carriages were at a premium. A young man whom I won't mention lest I say something that would grate too harshly on his tender ears, had chartered a conveyance for the evening from one of the stables, but, somehow, after the reception, the vehicle forgot to return, and the young man was forced to seek out another conveyance in order to keep his end up with the ladies of the company. So he raised a mighty smoke, maligned the fair name of the liveryman, and besought a young hackman who was in waiting for a client to act as substitute for the missing stable outfit. The young hackman said he was engaged, but that a relative of his near at hand might be available. The relative was sought out, and took pity on the sorrows of the unfortunate leader of cotillions—oh, I beg pardon. That was a slip; I hope I haven't given him away. He would n't like it, I'm sure. Anyhow, the kind hackman drove up, the happy youth and his dainty companions climbed into the comfortable coupe, and were carried whither they listed. And then came the horrible part of the thing, for, when the obliging hackman requested a dollar for his hire (and a dollar was cheap that night—I did n't get off so easy, myself) well, when he asked for his righteous due, the nervy young prig flew into a great passion and confronted the bewildered cabby with the startling information that he had been sailing under false colors, that he had represented himself as an employe of the livery-man first mentioned, and had deceived the gay guests by a daring, bold, bad stratagem. Then he capped all by an insolent refusal to pay the hackman the dollar which he had honestly earned. The cabby's breath was taken almost away, but he did find wind enough to tell the youth that regard for his family was all that saved him from getting his aristocratic, retrousse nose broken then and there. Since that time the hackman has made several ineffectual attempts to get his money.

What is the use in our creme de la creme young man (You have heard that "skimmed milk masquerades as cream") holding to such downright folly? It would take only a few strokes of my facile pen to let his name out and shatter his pretty, glit-edged dash, but I forbear.

And why?

Because a little bird of my acquaintance whispers in my ear a very palpable explanation, and I beg to warn our nice young men that hereafter they should not attempt to do the grand quite so grandly when they have n't got a dollar to their name!

THE CENSOR.

Encouraging Outlook of the New Headquarters.

The dedicatory service of the Women's Christian Temperance union's new quarters on Broadway, yesterday afternoon at 4, was largely attended, and of a very interesting and enthusiastic character. The Rev. Mr. Fernald made the opening address, which was followed by short stirring remarks by a number of prominent Christian temperance workers in the audience from the various churches of the city. Mr. Moon conducted the singing and sang a solo which was much appreciated. The women feel very much encouraged with the auspicious opening of their new rooms.

Scotch Plains Beats Plainfield.

The Arlingtons of this city played their first base-ball game of the season at Scotch Plains Saturday morning and were beaten by the score of 11 to 4. It was a very interesting game up to the fifth inning, when the Arlingtons went to pieces and lost the game. Following are the players and score:

Mrs. Kyte's Dee Party.

The Thursday afternoon entertainment given by Mrs. George Kyte of Fanwood was a decided success. It seems that the Fanwood women are natural inventors of novelties in the way of table decorations. Although informal, the "tea" was served at a table decorated entirely with popped corn, but so artistically colored and arranged as to represent all the choicest varieties of plants and flowers. Banks of roses, pinks and violets, interspersed with lilies and smilax neatly entwined, gave the table a marvelously beautiful effect. Together with other refreshments, popcorn was served in a multitude of ways—with syrup, with maple-sugar, with cream, with honey and cocoa. A novelty indeed—so said the ladies; but their greatest surprise was on departing, when each was presented as a souvenir with a "Kyte" shaped figure of pop-corn and sugar in variegated colors. Those present were Mrs. H. P. Robinson, Mrs. A. P. Downer, Mrs. and Miss Briggs, Mrs. Quereau, the Misses Boutcher, Mrs. Lacey, and Mrs. C. K. Moore.

—B. T. Barnes cut the thumb off his left hand, Saturday, while chopping wood, clear through the bone, so that it hung by a mere shred of flesh. The surgeons hope to make it grow together again.

A WIFE'S INSANITY

Her Husband Blames the Keeley Cure.

FOUND IN THE STREETS SINGING

Was Treated at White Plains, N. Y., for the Alcoholic Habit.

She Was Given Liquor When Ill and Drank It in Secret Afterwards—She Was a Loving Mother to Her Children and Helpmate to Her Husband—Her System Is Entirely Broken Down—Will be Placed in an Asylum.

HOBOKEN, N. J., April 5.—A tall, stately woman, who had been seen wandering aimlessly about the streets of this city for several hours, stopped at the door of the Church of Our Lady of Grace on Willow avenue late on Saturday evening, gather a number of children around her and began singing to them in a plaintive tone. Policeman Welbe, who came up and listened to the singing, said to her in a kindly way that her audience seemed to appreciate her efforts. She did not pay the slightest attention to him, and at last, seeing that her mind was wandering, he tood her to the station house.

The sergeant on duty tried to get a statement from her, but she would not answer any questions or tell anything about herself. He remembered that a general alarm had been sent from Jersey City for a missing woman, and this one answered the description. Word was sent to the Jersey City police, and late in the evening a gentleman called at the Hoboken police headquarters, said that he was William Garretson and identified the woman as Evelyn Garretson, his wife.

Mrs. Garretson, after she was taken home on Saturday, became very violent and smashed furniture, crockery and bric-a-brac. Her husband was not able to control her, and she will be taken to an insane asylum as soon as suitable arrangements can be made.

He attributes his wife's dementia to the treatment given to her at the Keeley Institute at White Plains, which he alleged broke down her system entirely and left her a physical and mental wreck. He says that Mrs. Garretson became a victim of the alcholic habit a long time ago. During a long and very severe sickness she had been fed on alchoholic stimulants to keep up her strength, and when she began to get well she could not give them up. She drank in secret, and her appetite became so strong that she would sacrifice everything to get liquor, and her family ties, her love for her children and home did not have any restraining effect upon her.

Mrs. Garretson was removed quietly to the Keeley Institute at White Plains last August, in the hope that the terrible habit might be broken. She spent five weeks at White Plains. Her husband visited her regularly and had no fault to find with the care that was given to her. He says that Dr. Vandenburg, one of the physicians at the institute, told him that Mrs. Garretson was so nervous and excitable that it would be unsafe to give her the full treatment; that it would be dangerous to give her certain of the drugs used.

"Mrs. Garretson was somewhat broken down when she went to White Plains," said Mr. Garretson, "but she was in a great deal worse condition after she left. Within a month after she came home she began to exhibit signs of insanity, and upon one occasion she wandered away from home in New York and was found in the night unconscious on a square. She was taken to a hospital and did not have the slightest recollection of where she had been and what she had been done. A constant watch had to be kept on her to prevent her from going away from home. My wife's present condition appears to be similar to that of several other of the patients who have had the Keely treatment, and I believe that her mental derangement is due largely to the treatment that she received at the institute."

Mrs. Garretson has two lovely children, and since her husband met with business reverses she has assisted him by giving music lessons. Some of her pupils are the children of the wealthiest persons in Jersey City, and Mrs. Garretson was very well thought of everywhere.

Is It Another Deeming Murder?

DUBLIN, April 5.—The body of a girl has been discovered underneath the floor of a cottage near Bandon, 20 miles south of Cork. The body had been buried and then covered with cement in a manner identical with that followed by the murderer Deeming in the case of eis wife and four children, whose bodies were found under the floor of Dinham Villa, at Rainhill, near Liverpool.

Attempted to Drown Herself.

METUCHUCHEN, N. J., April 5.—Miss Daily Watson, of New York, visiting the family of H. M. Allen, of this place, became suddenly deranged yesterday and attempted to drown herself in a neighboring pond. She was rescued after a severe struggle by William Breen. The young woman has been a sufferer from nervous prostration.

"Count" Kochejay Gets a Stay.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 5. — "Count" Kochejay, who was convicted of bigamy at Camden and sentenced to five years' imprisonment, was to have been taken to the Trenton prison yesterday, but his counsel, Col. Scovel, who is also his father-in law, obtained a stay of proceedings pending an appeal.

TERRIFIC HAIL STORM.

Scarcely a House in Scottsdale, Pa., Escaped Unscathed.

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 5.—A terrific wind, hail and rain storm, accompanied by lightning, passed over the southern part of Westmore county Sunday night doing great damage.

At Scottsdale, Everson and Brownstown the wind was very severe, blowing down and unroofing buildings in all directions. The Scottsdale rolling mill was unroofed and the interior badly wrecked by falling timbers; while the Jackson House, Henry Beed's house and the Keagey residence were badly damaged.

A large two-story frame building at Heminger's mill, near Scottsdale, was blown down, and two of Mr. Heminger's daughters were carried about 200 feet, but escaped injury.

In all parts of the above mentioned towns there is scarcely a house in which the windows and doors are not blown in or broken by the hail, which fell to the depth of several inches.

For a time the people were panic-stricken and fled in the basements of the houses. Many persons were slightly injured by the broken glass and flying timbers, but no fatalities are reported. The loss to property cannot be estimated at present.

CHINESE BARRED OUT.

The Exclusion Bill Passed in the House By a Vote of 179 to 43.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The Geary Chinese Exclusion bill was passed in the House yesterday by a vote of 179 yeas to 43 nays.

The bill as it passed the house absolutely prohibits the coming into the United States of Chinese persons, whether subjects of the Chinese empire or otherwise, as those who are now here and may hereafter leave, except such persons who may come as ministers or other diplomatic representatives, Consuls General, commercial agents and other agents of the Chinese government travelling on business.

FIVE PERSONS DROWNED.

A Boating Party Swept Over a Dam in Massachusetts.

GREENFIELD, Mass., April 5.—At the hamlet of the Griswold Manufacturing Company, Willis Place, Coleraine, located on the north branch of the Deerfield River, Sunday afternoon, while six Germans were boating on the river, the high water carried their boat over the dam and five were drowned.

Those who lost their lives were Joseph Egger' aged 35; two Lord boys, about 15 or 16; their sister, about 18, and a girl named Rugenig, about 18.

Only two bodies have been recovered. Carolina Frink was saved, after being carried over the dam, by grasping a pole thrown her, and was pulled ashore.

The Rubber Trust.

NEW YORK, April 5.—At a meeting of the directors of the United States Rubber Company, in this city, the company was authorized to purchase the property of the New Jersey Rubber Shoe Company and committees were appointed to negotiate toward the purchase of the L. The trust will negotiate with other companies, as it is its purpose to eventually absorb all rubber manufacturing concerns.

$1,000 for His Wound.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The Speaker laid before the House yesterday a communication from the Secretary of the Navy looking to an appropriation of $1,000 by Congress for the relief of Joseph Fernandez, a British subject residing at Key West, Fla., who was accidentally wounded by a shot fired by one of a party of men belonging to the U. S. S. Galena while engaged in revolver practice.

Inquiry Into Bette's Sanity.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 5.—Henry L. Bette, a former wealthy merchant of Brooklyn, N. Y., is on trial to have his sanity determined upon, prepartory to placing him on trial for the murder of Charles Blisch in the Eagle Hotel, Peekskill, some months ago. The killing was the outcome of an alleged intimacy existing between Blisch and Bett's wife, who is a decidedly attractive woman.

Free Wool Debate Closed.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—General debate on the Free Wool bill was closed by Mr. Springer, who made his first appearance on the floor for six weeks. He received quite an ovation. Owing to his physical condition, Mr. Bryan, of Nebraska, read Mr. Springer's remarks. The bill was then debated under the five minute rule for two hours and the House adjourned.

Over 1,000 Men on Strike.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The cabinet makers and varnishers of this city are out on a strike. They demand eight hours work a day and the establishment of the old rate of pay. One third of the cabinet makers' firms have granted the request, and about one-fourth of the varnishers' employers. Over a thousand men are on a strike.

SIX-POUND BOMBS

An Attempt to Blow Up Madrid's Public Buildings.

FRENCH DYNAMITER CAPTURED

He Carried One of the Missiles Under His Cloak and Tried to Explode It.

When Arrested It Was Learned that He Had Placed Another Bomb in the Building, but the Fuse Failed to Burn—His Name is Levat—He is Supposed to be in League With the Paris Anarchists.

MADRID, April 5.—The police arrested a Frenchman as he was entering a back door of the Parliamentary building.

He had excited their suspicions by his efforts to avoid observation and by holding with great care a bundle under his cloak. When arrested he tried to throw down the bundle but was prevented. He was taken to a police station, where the bundle was found to contain a dynamite bomb with a fuse ready for lighting.

The Frenchman said that he had placed a similar bomb in the lobby entrance, but evidently the fuse had gone out. An examination of the lobby resulted in the discovery of the bomb behind a pillar.

Each comb contained about six pounds of dynamite, enough to have wrecked the whole building.

In the Frenchman's papers was found an Anarchistic proclamation containing this statement:

"Everything enjoyed by the rich is created by the labor of the poor. The wicked system of modern society prevents workingmen from possessing what the produce. Whatever the form of government, the rich seize the power and rob the poor, and no party dares to oppose them. As the laws serve only to protect the rich in their plundering, let us help ourselves. Let us attack the rich with all conceivable means—with fire, knife and poison. Ownership is theft! Death to the bourgeoisie! Strike now!"

His name is Devat. He has traveled much in Portugal and Spain, and is supposed to be a leader in the plots of the Spanish Anarchists. Additional papers have been found sewed in his underclothes. They contain the details of plans to blow up with dynamite the Chamber, the Senate, the Palace and Opera House, as well as several municipal buildings. The police think that the plots were laid by Anarchists in Paris in collusion with members of the Mano Negra in Spain, and that Devat was sent to lead in the execution as he knew the country, yet was not known to the police.

The police think the prisoner is a member of the Mano Negra, the organization of murderers and robbers to which the Xeres Anarchists belonged. A clipping from the Paris "Figaro," confirming the dynamite outrages in this city was also found in his pocket, and it is thought that he may be the man who placed the bomb at the Spanish Embassy there. A description of him has been telegraphed to Paris. The prisoner refuses to give any account of himself further than to say that he had not been in Paris recently. He is a stranger here, however, and the police, who have been keeping a close watch of all suspected Anarchists here for ehe last six weeks, say that he is probably one of the refugees from the Paris colony. Almost one hundred of these refugees, they say, have settled in this city and its suburbs in the last two weeks.

Anarchists Convicted.

LONDON, April 5.—The trial of the Walsall Anarchists closed with the conviction of Frederick Charles, Victor Cailles, John Thomas Deekin, and John Battolls, alias Deoganavicof. The other prisoners, named John Wesley and William Ditchfield, were acquitted. The jury united in recommending Deekin to mercy.

Saved the Cattle.

PALMER, Mass., April 5.—A large barn at the State Primary School, 44 by 80, was burned this afternoon with one cow, one calf, fifty tons of hay, a lot of bran, etc. There were sixty head of cattle in the barn when the fire broke out, but all were gotten out. Loss about $9,000.

SPOILED THE ELOPEMENT.

RICHMOND, Va., April 5. — "Love laughs at locksmiths," but not always at irate fathers' shotguns, as was proved by a case of interrupted elopement in Amherst.

Mr. Wood, who resides near Lowesville, is the father of a very handsome daughter. Sunday morning this young lady attended Sunday school at a church some distance from her home. After the session the lover of the young lady named Campbell, appeared on the scene in company with two companions, and the party started for the nearest railroad station to take the train for Washington, were the young couple were to be married. The prospective bride rode behind her lover on the same horse.

The young lady's father heard of the runaway and, mounting his horse and arming himself with a shotgun, galloped in pursuit. He overtook the party near Amherst Court House and opened fire. The two companions of the lover immediately put spurs to their horses and have not been seen since. The other animal, tired of carrying double, bucked, and the young lady losing her seat, fell to the ground. Her would-be husband, fearing that he would be rifled with bird shot, followed his flying chums into the the village and sought shelter behind a rock wall.

He was afterward arrested by the county authorities and fined for disturbing the peace. The young lady's father remounted his horse, took the young lady up behing him and, placing his weapons across the pommel, reurned homeward.

MOURNED HIM AS DEAD.

Book Canvasser O'Connell Playing Ride and Seek with His Wife.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 5.—Annie O'Connell, of this city, the 17-year-old wife of Daniel J. O'Connell, a canvasser of the Scribner Publishing Company, applied at police headquarters here for the arrest of her husband for abandonment.

The couple were married here by Rev. C. H. Honnoburgh, April 6, 1890, the bride being pretty Annie Place. O'Connell took her to Chicago, from where he sent her back to Poughkeepsie, saying that he would follow. He came after several months, but went away again.

The next the young wife learned of him was a statement to the effect that Daniel J. O'Connell had died in a police station in Jersey City.

Mrs. O'Connell believed the story in the paper and mourned her husband as dead until he suddenly appeared in Poughkeepsie last January. He explained to his wife that it was William Harris, a well known Poughkeepsian, who had died in Jersey City, which was actually the case.

O'Connell took his wife to New York, and then, after a short time, sent her back. She has not heard from him since. She says that he often told her that he had another wife and child in New York.

The American Tin Plate Plant Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 5.—N. & G. Taylor's American tinplate plant, the first of the kind in the United States was almost destroyed by fire yesterday morning. N. & G. Taylor are the first to make what is claimed to be a successful attemp at the manufacture of American tin-plate in this country. So successful have they been that they are now erecting a plant 350 feet square at Swanson and Tasker Streets. They have their works in operation since April of last year and their loss is expected to amount to about twenty-five hundred dollars which is covered by insurance.

The President Will Shoot Snipe.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—President Harrison intends to go snipe shooting some time this week. It was his purpose to leave Washington to-day, but the Behring Sea controversy has not been fully determined, and he does not want to leave until the modus vivendi has been renewed, or something equivalent to it has been agreed upon. He will probably go down on the North Carolina coast, where snipe abound at this time of year, and he expects to be absent three or four days.

COWARDLY LOUTS

They Stand and Look at the Murder of a Woman.

ONE OF THEM A DEPUTY SHERIFF

The Most Brutal and Sensational Crime Since the Almy Tragedy.

George E. Wiggin Plunged a Knife Repeatedly Into His Wife and then With Fiendish Deliberation Twisted Her Head Until Her Neck Was Dislocated—A 12-Year-Old Boy Shames the Cowards—He Hits the Murderer With a Stone Behind the Ear.

MEREDITH, N. H., April 5.—The most sensational and brutal crime that has been accomplished in this section since the Almy tragedy occurred on the platform of the railway station here yesterday.

Mrs. George E. Wiggin was the victim and the murderer was her husband. Wiggin stabbed his wife half a dozen times, cut her throat and then twisted the woman's neck till it became dislocated, so as to make sure that he had accomplished his hellish purpose.

All the time Wiggin was engaged in his murderous work a dozen countrymen, among them a deputy sheriff, stood and gaped, but not one of them, by voice or action, had courage enough to try and save the unfortunate woman's life.

A small 12-year-old boy, who also witnessed the crime, did an act which should bring a blush of shame to those in the vicinity who bear the appellation of men. He threw a big stone at the brute, and it inflicted an ugly cut behind the ear. This, however was the only attempt at interference.

After Wiggin had wiped the blood from his dagger, Deputy Sheriff Bartlett drew his revolver and slowly approached the murderer, exclaiming:

"Wiggin, I arrest you! Don't try to escape!"

Wiggin surrendered without a struggle, and is now in jail.

While the body yet lay on the platform an accommodation train pulled into the station and the bloody corpse was seen by scores of persons.

Wiggin was probably prompted to commit the awful crime by the fact that his wife, who had left him on account of his cruelty, had begun proceedings for divorce. The case was to come up for trial to-day.

Mrs. Wiggin, who lives in Lake Village, came to town yesterday morning to consult with her counsel. Her husband evidently had heard of her intended visit, for he was waiting on the station platform for her. He was seen to speak to her as she left the train, and then they walked up and down the platform for several minutes, seemingly engaged in earnest conversation.

Finally, some of those who were present say Mrs. Wiggin shook her head as a rejoinder to some entreaty of her husband. At this the husband drew a long, keen dagger from under his coat and, pulling the woman toward himself, he plunged the knife into her back three times in rapid succession. He then threw her to the floor and plunged the knife repeatedly into her neck. After this was done he knelt beside his victim and twisted her head with fiendish deliberation until the neck was dislocated.

Apparently satisfied with his work now the brutal murderer arose, carefully wiped his crimson-stained dagger and replaced it under his coat. His arrest followed. Wiggin was entirely sober when he committed the crime. He is very sullen in his cell at the jail and refuses to talk.

Physicians who have examined the body of she unfortunate woman aver that death was due to the brutal garrotting, which left the head connected with the body only by the skin, and not to the wounds inflicted by the dagger.

The Picture Identified.

DOVER, N. H., April 5.—The picture of John Arthur Simpson, alias George Simpson, alias George A. Stillwell, formerly of Frederickton, N. B., once a Baptist minister, later a burglar, horse-thief, forger, bigamist, and finally a murderer, has been identified as that of Julius McArthur, who killed Deputy Sheriff Charles H. Smith, of New Hampshire, March 16, 1891, while resisting arrest for stealing a horse, and who escaped from the rotary jail in this city July 17, 1891. McArthur is supposed to have gone West. He is a remarkably fluent talker. He can preach a sermon, make a prayer, or deliver a practical oration in a manner to win high compliments, while his education and natural judgment enable him to gain consideration as a polished gentleman where his record is not known.

Walt Whitman's Will.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 5.—The will of Walt Whitman has been read to his relatives and several friends. The exact terms of the will cannot be learned. It is known, however, that the poet has made his sister executrix, allowed his housekeeper the use of his house in this city for a year, and appointed Dr. Bock of Ontario, Canada, and Horace Toubel of Camden, his literary executors.

No Action Taken.

CONCORD, N. H., April 5.—At a meeting of the trustees of Dartmouth College the resignation of Hon. Hiram Hitchcock of New York as a member of the Board was received and accepted. The subject of selecting President Bartlett's successor was discussed, but no action was taken.

Hailstones as Large as Teacups.

NORBORNE, Mo., April 5.—Hailstones as large as teacups fell here Sunday night. They came down with such force as to bury themselves in the ground. The damage was confined to skylights.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Lord Montagu's Daughter-in-Law Sentenced to Prison for Her Child's Death.

DUBLIN, April 5.—The trial of Annie Margaret Montagu, for the manslaughter of her three-year-old child, was concluded yesterday. Much interest is attached to the case owing to the social standing of the prisoner.

The evidence in the case showed that the deceased child had disobeyed her governess, and was put in a dark room for punishment, and was afterward found dead in the room. The room was about nine feet seven inches high, and the space allowed for the child to walk about in was about six feet square. The room had neither window nor fireplace, and when the door was closed there was no light. The metal rings had been screwed into the woodwork.

It appears that the governess, Rose Doseli, found that the little girl had been guilty of a slight breach of propriety, and put her in the dark room, Mrs. Montagu at the time being absent. When Mrs. Montagu returned, and learned what the child had done, she went to the dark room, and scolded the little one, and said she must punish her. She then tied the child's arms above the elbow with a stocking, and attached that to the ring in the wall.

She then went away and did not return to the room until three hours afterward. Mrs. Montagu opened the door and called the child but the little one did not answer, and after calling the second time, Mrs. Montagu went in hurriedly and untied the string. The child then fell and the mother lifted her and ran to the bedroom, took off stockings and clothes, laid her on the bed, and ran downstairs for help. The governess came back with the mother and the child was put in a bath, artificial respiration being tried and brandy used, but without success.

Mrs. Montagu was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment.

STUDENTS KILL THEMSELVES.

Five Members of a Suicide Club Draw Fatal Lots.

BUCHAREST, April 5.—Five cadets at the military school in Krajova shot themselves dead in their rooms last night. They were members of a suicide club of 19 cadets, organized a few weeks ago.

Each member then swore on oath to kill himself when his lot would be drawn.

The Government will make an inquiry into the matter. All the cadets at the school belong to old Roumanian families, and the institution is watched with special interest by King Charles. Other scandals, it is said, will be revealed by the investigation.

To Sell a Company's Property.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Judge Lacombe yesterday granted the petition of William C. Lane, the receiver appointed in the action of Henry D. —L. S. Bond, tenor of the First Presbyterian church choir, has been elected superintendent of the Boys' club, and will enter on his duties September 1.

—For fair and honorable dealing the firm of Zimmerman & Rumpf can be depended on. They succeed the Pierson Hardware company at 42 West Front street, where may be found a most complete stock of hardware goods, at lowest cash prices.

—The sudden expulsion of the members of the Asbestos club, limited, from their rooms on North avenue, by their landlord, has caused much indignation among them, and hints are made that an action for damages for ejectment will be commenced soon through the club's attorney.

—Mr. Venino's piano recital is to take place at the Casino April 28. It will be of particular interest to all music students, as Mr. Venino will play a varied programme, representing the classical and romantic schools. Tickets are now on sale at Reynolds's pharmacy, corner of Park and North avenues.

—John Dietrich of Arlington place complains of fishermen trespassing on his place. Yesterday his hired man was assaulted with a fishing spear, and a revolver had to be used to drive the fellow away. The hired man says that unless an apology is made he will have his assailant arrested.

BY THE WAY.

—James Frisbee, Henry C. Cruse and Charles Lang have been made special policemen.

—George Moore of 14 North avenue had North river shad to-day, the first in the city.

—The annual meeting of the Hillside Tennis club will be held to-morrow evening at the club-house.

—Three new electric lights are to be placed on Arlington avenue from Arlington place to Ninth street.

—The pew committee will be in the new Grace church, Saturday afternoon, to wait upon all who wish to select pews.

—F. M. Hulett has been delayed by illness from opening his piano store at 74 West Front street. He will open in a day or two.

—Eight dogs were captured on the streets yesterday, and incarcerated in the dog pound. Eight more were imprisoned to-day.

—The doctors had a merry meeting at the Albion last evening, and their dinner was the best that even the Albion has yet provided for them.

—The old town clock no longer strikes, and the committee on fire and buildings has been authorized to look into the matter of doctoring it up again.

—Rogers's customers were served to-day with a fine line of Delaware shad and shad roes, besides all the other delicacies to be found in the markets.

—A man from Bound Brook fell from a railway train near the North avenue station yesterday afternoon and was slightly injured. He was assisted to his home.

—The new Netherwood station is to be a handsome structure on the hotel side of the track, and the approach from the north side is to be by a tunnel under the tracks.

—The petition of Wallace V. Miller to keep a hotel with bar-room privileges at 7, 9 and 11 North avenue was last night referred to the license committee of the common council.

—All property-owners whose sidewalk-pavement has been made uneven by frost or growing tree-roots are to be notified to relay the pavements to an even level immediately.

—Local merchants may now rejoice. A street patrol cart is to be purchased, and the business streets are to be thoroughly cleaned of mud and refuse every day in the week.

—New crosswalks are to be laid at West Seventh street and Arlington avenue, Eighth and Division streets, Liberty and Second streets, Madison avenue and Sixth street, and Orchard place and New street.

—A fine new shoe store is to opened at 32 West Front street the latter part of this week. It will be known as Springer's star store, and will undoubtedly become a most popular headquarters for footwear. The quality of goods will be excellent, and the prices will fit the people's purses.

—Councilman Frazee thinks that the laborers on the streets ought to be paid twice a month. He considers it a hardship to make them wait to the end of the month for their money. Councilman Marsh holds that the law at present makes semi-monthly payments impossible. The matter has been referred to the law and ordinance committee.

—The opening entertainment at Elysium Lake was given by William G. Gray at his home last evening. The friends of the host were sumptously entertained with delicacies of the season, in addition to the table being filled to overflowing with the substantials of life, including choice fish and game. After the repast was over the assembly was treated to gay music and the tripping of the light fantastic toe, until the morning star's bright face had arisen on the eastern horizon.

—If you drop in at VanEmburgh & White's any time this or next week 'twill be to your interest. The store is packed full of new, seasonable goods that have been bought for hard cash, some of them direct from the mills, others from the auction rooms, where the firm buys many of the good things that they sell 25 to 50 per cent. below other houses that do not handle auction goods; and the firm's constantly increasing business proves that the trade are wide-awake to the fact that VanEmburgh & White's is the place to buy goods.

VETOED.

Gov. Abbett Questions the Constitutionality of the Reading Bill.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

TRENTON, N. J., April 5.—Gov. Abbett to-day vetoed the bill legalizing the Reading deal.

The object of the bill was to confirm the lease of the Central Railroad of New Jersey and the Lehigh Valley railroad to the Port Reading railroad, a branch of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad.

As the New Jersey Legislature has adjourned, this stops action on the bill until it meets again.

Gov. Abbett questions the constitutionality of the act.

COUNCILMAN CHARLES J. FISK.

The Genial Banker Unanimously Chosen to Succeed Mr. Ackerman.

The resignation of Ernest R. Ackerman from the office of councilman from the Third ward was received by the common council last evening. Councilman Marsh, in moving to accept the resignation, said that all regretted that Mr. Ackerman felt called on to leave the council; he had been a faithful, active member, and had given the city valuable service; the councilmen were loath to consent to his withdrawal, and regretted that the resignation was made absolutely necessary by business engagements.

All voted to accept the resignation, and Charles J. Fisk was unanimously elected Mr. Ackerman's successor.

Messrs. Erickson and Frazee sought out the new councilman and escorted him to the chamber. Mayor Gilbert administered the oath of office, and Mr. Fisk took his seat after being introduced to his fellow-councilmen.

Mr. Fisk will serve in Mr. Ackerman's place as chairman of the finance committee and on the committee on streets and committee on laws and ordinances.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The exhibition will include oil and water-color paintings, pastels and drawings, by distinguished American artists, including George Wharton Edwards of Plainfield.

A Live Athletic Club.

The Plainfield Athletic club, which has been organized somewhat over a year, has lately sprung into prominence in the west end of the city, and promises this spring and summer to give some fine entertainments in the way of sports. The club is officered as follows:

President—Wm. T. Marr.
First Vice-president—John Dixon.
Second Vice-president—John Whitehead.
Steward—John Whitehead.
Recording Secretary—James F. Welsh.
Financial Secretary—Arthur W. McKeeby.
Treasurer—Harry Corless.

The club has thirty members, who meet Monday night as a boxing school; and on Wednesday and Saturday nights sparring is in order, and many a fine bout is indulged in. John Dixon has lately received the fine gold badge won by one of their former members (William F. Brown) at Bound Brook last summer, and will forward it to him at Bridgeton, N. J.

Re-districting the Fourth Ward.

An ordinance was introduced by councilman See last night, unanimously adopted on second reading, and ordered engrossed and advertised preparatory to final passage, re-districting the fourth ward. Heretofore the dividing line has been the railroad, and Mr. See said that the polling places were inconvenient to many. People living at Evona on one side of the track had to come nearly two miles to vote, and people on the other side of the track had to go clear to the Pond Tool works. The new division is at Plainfield avenue. All the fourth ward this side is the first district; the other side the second.

License for the City Hotel.

The application of John H. Staats for a license to keep a hotel with bar-room privileges at the City Hotel was last night granted by the following vote.

Hotel license: All aye.

Liquor license: For—Councilmen Bird, Erickson, Fisk, France, Ginna, Johnston, See and Weber—8. Against—Councilmen Case and Marsh—2. Absent—Mr. Gallup.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and destroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. TROUBLE OVER A HOUSE.

Permit Refused to Loomis & Rice to Let Their Building Stand.

The application of Loomis & Rice for permission to build a house that is already partly constructed in disregard of the ordinances governing the erection of frame buildings inside the fire limits was last night refused by the following vote:

To grant—Councilmen Bird and See—2.

To refuse—Councilmen Case, Erickson, Fisk, Frazee, Ginna, Johnston, Marsh and Weber—8.

The councilmen seemed to be of the opinion that Loomis & Rice had acted in good faith, but had nevertheless acted in direct disregard of the ordinances and of fire marshal Doane's advice. Their violation of the ordinances—they held—was at their own risk. The firm refused the alternative of building of brick the wall of the house facing the adjoining Rockwell property, proximity to which materially increased the fire risk.

Mr. Rockwell said that Loomis & Rice had threatened to make it unpleasant for the objecting neighbors if they had to tear down the new dwelling. Mr. Loomis denied this. Mr. Rockwell said that he was told that a tenement house was to be erected close to the property line in case the other building had to be removed.

Aggrieved at Alleged Insult.

The communication of James H. Force, presented at a previous meeting of the common council, asking that he be permitted to withdraw his license application, was last night given further attention at the hands of the councilmen. The communication said:

On the 1st of last February I made application for my license to keep an inn and tavern, conforming to all the requirements of such ordinances as had been previously laid down by your body, but for some reasons known only to yourselves, and unfathomable to anyone else, my license was refused, and as a result I have been obliged to close my hotel to the public. In view of the situation I must respectfully withdraw my application now before your honorable body.

The request to withdraw the application had at the previous meeting been granted. Mr. Erickson had been absent from the meeting. Last night he said that he was surprised, reading the letter in the papers, to think that it should have been permitted to slip through the council unnoticed. Some of the statements—he added—were untrue. The application had not conformed to the ordinances. It had not been refused. It had been reported as not complying with the ordinances, as one of the signers was unqualified to sign. It therefore had been referred back to the applicant for correction. He considered that the letter of Mr. Force cast unwarranted reflections on the council. He concluded with the statement that if the application had been correct it undoubtedly would have been granted.

On motion of Mr. Marsh the motion to permit withdrawal of the application was reconsidered, and the motion to permit withdrawal was laid on the table. Mr. Frazee alone voted no.

On motion of Mr. Erickson the communication of Mr. Force was ordered returned to him.

New Route of the Lehigh Valley.

The route of the Lehigh Valley railroad trains under the new arrangement, which went into effect yesterday, is as follows: Leaving the Jersey City station of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, they run over the tracks of the Newark and New York railroad to its junction with the Newark and Elizabethport branch, which they follow in a southerly direction for about a mile. Then, turning to the west, they connect with their own road, recently finished, over the meadow south of Newark, crossing the Pennsylvania railroad (on an iron bridge) between that city and Waverly, and the tracks of the New Jersey Central at Roselle. At South Plainfield, twenty-four miles from Jersey City, they strike the old Easton and Amboy road, leading from Perth Amboy to the coal regions, by which most of the Lehigh Valley's coal is carried to tidewater, and by which, up to last spring, their passenger trains used to reach Jersey City, via Metuchen, Rahway, Elizabeth, and Newark over the Pennsylvania road.

By the new route, which avoids all of those cities, the time and distance are considerably shortened.

Dunellen Doings.

Borough election is being held at Dunellen to-day. The regular nominees are P. W. Brakeley and John Runyon. A citizens' ticket is in the field, which substitutes Peter Schultz's name for Mr. Runyon's. At the regular meeting for nominations Mr. Schultz was proposed but defeated.

Alva Gray has made a number of improvements around his residence at Dunellen. In fact, his yard has entirely another appearance, and will be one of the finest in town when completed.

A circular and subscription card asking for subscriptions for the purpose of building a chapel for the First Presbyterian Sunday-school has been distributed among the town people of Dunellen. The school is in great need of such a building, and it is to be hoped that a good subscription will be raised.

The Dunellen Y. P. S. of C. E. have arranged to hold an Easter service out of the ordinary style. They are to invite delegates from all the societies and hold a union service in the First Presbyterian church on Easter Sunday.

A union temperance meeting will be held in the Dunellen M. E. church next Sunday evening.

HO FOR RAPID TRANSIT!

Within Six Months a Portion of the Road Will Be in Operation.

A new street railway ordinance was adopted on second reading last night and ordered engrossed and advertised preparatory to final passage. It provides that the route of the road will be from the corner of West Sixth street and Park avenue along West Sixth street, to Plainfield avenue, to West Seventh street, to Monroe avenue, to West Fourth street, to Grant avenue, to East Front street, to Park avenue, and out Somerset street to the borough line. The experimental section of the road, down West Front street, and through Grant avenue, West Fourth street and Monroe avenue, is to be completed in six months, and the balance within nine months after the council so directs.

An ordinance to grade West Fourth street for the coming of the railway was put through its second reading.

Opening of the Lyceum Tournament.

For all the diseases and disorders peculiar to womanhood, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the surest and speediest remedy. You can depend upon that—but if your case is obstinate, give it reasonable time.

It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nervine, and a positive specific for female weaknesses and ailments. All functional disturbances, painful irregularities and derangements are corrected and cured by it. All unnatural discharges, bearing-down sensations, weak back, accompanied with faint spells and kindred symptoms, are corrected. In every case for which it's recommended, "Favorite Prescription," is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or the money is refunded. No other medicine for women is sold on such terms. That proves that nothing else offered by the dealer can be "just as good."

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following ordinance has been introduced before the common council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., April 5, 1892.

AN ORDINANCE

to amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance dividing the Fourth Ward of the City of Plainfield into two election districts". Approved June 4, 1889.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That section 2 of the ordinance whose title is cited in the title to this ordinance be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. The first election district shall include all the territory and inhabitants thereof contained in that portion of the Fourth Ward described as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the center line of Fourth street and the center line of Park avenue and running thence along the center line of Fourth street southwesterly to the center line of Plainfield avenue; thence northwesterly along the center line of Plainfield avenue to the center line of Front street; thence southwesterly along the center line of Front street to the center line of Girard avenue; thence northwesterly along the center line of Girard avenue to the City line in Green Brook; thence northeasterly along the City line to the center line of Somerset street; thence southeasterly along the center line of Somerset street to the center line of Front street; thence northeasterly along the center line of Front street to the center line of Park avenue; thence southeasterly along the center line of Park avenue to the point or place of beginning."

Sec. 2. That section 3 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. That the second election district shall include all of the territory and inhabitants thereof contained in that portion of the Fourth Ward outside of and not included in the foregoing description of the first election district."

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the common council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., April 5, 1892.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance locating the tracks of the Plainfield Street Railway Company and regulating the construction and operation of the same and granting permission to said Company to use electric motors as the propelling power of its cars". Approved April 27, 1891.

Section 1. That section 1 of the ordinance whose title is cited in the title to this ordinance be and the same is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the route designated in the second paragraph of said section and substituting therefor the following:

Beginning at a point at the intersection of West Sixth Street with the Southwesterly line of Park Avenue and running thence through West Sixth Street westerly to Plainfield Avenue; thence through Plainfield Avenue southerly to West Seventh Street; thence through West Seventh Street westerly to Monroe Avenue; thence through Monroe Avenue northerly to West Fourth Street; thence through West Fourth Street easterly to Grant Avenue; thence through Grant Avenue northerly to West Front Street; thence through West Front Street to the Southwesterly side line of Park Avenue, and also from Front Street through Somerset Street to the line of North Plainfield Township.

Section 2. That section 11 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended as follows by striking out all the words of said section which precede the words "or shall afterwards fail or neglect to operate the same" and substituting therefor the following: "If the said Company shall fail to build or construct that part of said road lying between the point at the corner of Monroe Avenue and West Seventh Street and the point at the intersection of Front Street with the Southwesterly line of Park Avenue, with its turnouts and switches in the manner aforesaid, and to put the same in complete operation for the transportation of passengers, within six months next after the passage of this amended ordinance, and the rest of said road within nine months after the passage of a resolution by the Common Council directing said Company to proceed and complete the road."

Section 3. That section 19 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended as follows: By striking out the word "herein" where it occurs in said section and substituting therefor the following "in this ordinance as the same shall be amended by the proposed amendment introduced April 4th, 1892."

Section 4. That section 20 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended as follows by inserting in said section after the words "the terms and conditions in this ordinance," the words "as the same shall be amended by the proposed amendment introduced April 4, 1892."

Section 5. That in case it shall be hereafter judicially determined that the provisions of the ordinance to which this is an amendment or the provisions of said ordinance as amended hereby, which authorize the erection of poles in the streets of the City, are invalid, the intention of the Common Council and of the said Plainfield Street Railway Company is that the rest of the ordinance shall remain in force subject to the option of the Common Council to repeal the same in case said Company fail within six months after notice to agree with the Common Council upon some other method of propulsion for their street cars.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.
Plainfield, N. J., April 5, 1892.

AN ORDINANCE

To establish the grade on West Fourth Street from Grant Avenue to Monroe Avenue.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

That the grade on West Fourth Street from Grant Avenue to Monroe Avenue be established as follows:

Beginning at Grant Avenue at an elevation on the westerly curb corner of twenty-nine and eighty-eight one hundredths (29.88) feet above the City base and on the easterly curb corner twenty-nine and eight-tenths (29.8) feet above the City base, and running thence with a straight descending grade to the northeasterly curb line of Monroe Avenue, elevation on the northerly and easterly curb corners twenty-four and seventy-seven one hundredths (24.77) feet above the City base.

Section 2. That all ordinances, so far as they conflict with this ordinance, be, and the same are, hereby repealed.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signs perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street Plainfield, N. J.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

FOR simple hoarseness take a fresh egg, beat it and thicken with pulverized sugar. Eat freely of it.

KEROSENE will soften boots or shoes that have been hardened by water and render them pliable as new.

TO BRIGHTEN carpets, wipe them with warm water in which has been poured a few drops of ammonia.

TO PURIFY the air of a newly-painted room put several tubs of water in it and it will absorb much of the odor.

A TABLESPOONFUL of powdered alum sprinkled in a barrel of water will precipitate all impure matter to the bottom.

TO CLEAR a stove of clinkers put a handful of salt into it during a hot fire; when cold remove the clinkers with a cold chisel.

PINE may be made to look like some beautiful wood by giving repeated coats of hot linseed oil and rubbing hard after each coat.

FINE shavings from soft pine wood make a pleasant pillow. They have special curative virtues for coughs and lung troubles.

SPECIAL REAL ESTATE SALES FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL ONLY.

THE CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY offer its houses and lots at greatly reduced prices and on very easy terms, in the following Cities and Towns:

	Population.	Time from New York.	Commutation.
ELIZABETH	40,000	30 minutes	20c per day
BAYONNE	27,000	21 "	15c "
NEWARK	175,000	30 "	17c "
PLAINFIELD	20,000	45 "	27c "
BRITAN	3,000	55 "	35c "

The CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, after an existence of twenty years, during which time it has sold thousands of lots and been instrumental in the rapid growth of the towns and villages along the Central Railroad of New Jersey, has decided to dispose of its remaining properties at such prices as will prove attractive to home seekers, investors and speculators. Don't invest in the many mushroom paper towns when here is a chance to buy lots in prosperous, healthy cities, with good schools, churches, electric light, low taxes and city charges paid for, all improvements made, such as sewers, curbing, paving, etc. Many $400.00 lots reduced to $200.00, and large reductions throughout. In many instances city improvements have cost close to $200.00. A rare chance, and present prices will hold good DURING APRIL ONLY.

PRACTICAL SAYINGS.

CLAM shells are good to scrape kettles and frying pans.

POOR rubbers are the cause of much canned fruit spoiling.

OLD matting may still be serviceable by putting it under carpets.

TO KEEP celery firm put it in a tin pan of cold water, else it soon becomes limp.

SALT makes an extra fine tooth powder; it keeps the gums hard and rosy and makes the teeth brilliantly white.

CONDENSED milk, beaten up with one egg and a little pulverized sugar, will make an excellent filling for cream puff.

A NICE dinner dish is made by cutting off half a head of red cabbage, seasoning with pepper, salt and vinegar.

USE fresh, green grape leaves to place on the top of pickles in jars, instead of cloth. Change them occasionally.

PURCHASE laundry soap by the box of one hundred pounds and keep in a dry, warm place, and it will become hard and last much longer.

A BRUISE may be prevented from discoloring by immediately applying hot water, or a little dry starch, moistened with cold water, and placed on the bruise.

FOR neuralgia make a small muslin bag and fill it with salt; heat it hot, and place it against the aching spot; it will retain the heat for a long time and will greatly relieve.

FOR a teaspoonful of ammonia into a quart of water, and wash your brushes and combs in this, and the dirt and grease will greatly disappear. Rinse well, shake and dry.

THE air in a room may be greatly purified by setting a pail of water in the room for a few hours. It will absorb all the poisonous gases, and the air will be pure and the water utterly bad. The colder the water is, the more perfectly it will absorb impurities.—Good Housekeeping.

TRAVELING TOILET CASE.

One of the Most Convenient Things Ever Devised by a Woman.

This is one of the most convenient ways of carrying the various things that are wanted when one is away from home, and the one here shown has been used a great many times very satisfactorily. It is made of heavy, unbleached linen, the back being about 13 inches wide by 18 high, and the corners rounded as shown in the illustration. The pockets are made of the same material, first being bound with either red or brown braid, and the name of what is to go in the pocket being worked in cotton of the same shade as the braid. All the pockets open toward the center. Sew the pockets in place on the back and finally bind the whole around the outside with braid. When in service the case is rolled up and fastened by means of two pieces of the braid about a foot long.

WHAT TO EAT

is a difficult problem with many people because but few articles of food agree with them. The doctor says

and the result is unpalatable food. The reason the physician objects to grease is because lard is the article most used, and every physician knows that hog lard in any shape is unhealthy and indigestible.

Every one interested in pure and healthful food hails with joy the new product which is composed of pure cottonseed oil and pure beef suet—nothing else—not even salt. It is better than either lard or butter for all cooking purposes, and one pound of Cottolene will do as much as two pounds of lard or butter, and it costs less than either.

Every housekeeper that tries Cottolene will find in it just what she wants.

INSTANTLY KILLED

Brutal Murder Committed in Lawrence, Mass.

A COWARD SHOOTS HIS WIFE.

He Had Shaved Off His Mustache and Met Her in the Dark.

She Was Accused of Being Unfaithful to Him, But the Charge Was Groundless—It Was Then Discovered That He Had a Wife Living in Connecticut, and She Would Have Nothing More to Do With Him—The Murderer Escaped.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 6.—A most brutal murder occurred at 7 o'clock last evening on the north side of Common street, near Broadway, where Peter Eno, a Boston & Maine brakeman, and a worthless husband, shot and instantly killed his industrious wife, Minnie.

Only one shot was fired, but it lodged at the base of the brain, and the woman fell to the pavement and died without a murmur.

The murderer escaped, running down Common street into the darkness.

He is about 33 years of age, and his wife was about the same age. The couple have a son 7 years old.

Eno has been living apart from his wife for some time and has often threatened her life. He often left home, refusing altogether to contribute to his wife's support and that of his child. Mrs. Eno, however, conducted a restaurant and provided for the wants of her family.

The husband was jealous of his wife without cause, and said the reason for refusing to support his wife was because she kept company with other men. This suspicion was unfounded, but Eno, nevertheless, raged against his wife.

He last went away over six months ago. Then a terrible discovery came to Mrs. Eno. She found that she had been duped and that her husband had another wife living in Plainfield, Conn. Then she refused, although he wrote to her, to have anything to do with him. He came back repeatedly to Lawrence, but she told him she would not live with him. He drank, came around the house every week or so, bothered the boarders and threatened his wife. She complained to the police and feared violence. He met her repeatedly by night on the street and threatened to give her a present of a white dress and new bonnet.

Last night proved that his threats were not idle. He came to town last week and was seen on Friday night hovering near his wife's house. There was no trace of him from that time until yesterday.

He shaved off his moustache and met his wife just half a square away from the restaurant. She was walking to a cloak store, when he stepped up, spoke quietly for a minute and then fired the fatal shot.

It was so quickly done, and so dark was the street, with so few people about, that the murderer had every chance for his cowardly deed and every facility for escape. In a flash he was gone.

WAVED HER RED SKIRT.

A Plucky Little Widow Prevents a Railroad Disaster.

PITTSBURG, April 6.—The Bakerstown tunnel, on the Pittsburg & Western Railroad, caved in yesterday just after a passenger train enroute to this city had passed through. Mrs. Baker, a widow living near, discovered the accident just as another passenger train running at the rate of 50 miles an hour was approaching.

The plucky little woman promptly realized the perilous position and, taking her red flannel skirt, she started on a run toward the approaching train. Swinging it in the air, she succeeded in stopping the train within a few feet of the tunnel. Mrs. Baker disappeared before the grateful passengers could thank her.

Wants Damages from Uncle Sam.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Speaker has laid before the House a communication from the Secretary of the Navy looking to an appropriation of $1,000 by Congress for the relief of Joseph Fernandez, a British subject residing at Key West, Fla., who was accidentally wounded by a shot fired by one of a party of men belonging to the U. S. S. Galena while engaged in revolver practice.

Bridgeport's Chief of Police.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 6.—Judge Prentice gave a decision for Chief John Rylands to assume command of the police force pending the application to the Supreme Court. He will take that office when the formal order is issued. The Chief's victory over those who fought to remove him is now regarded as complete.

Denounced by a Presbytery.

PITTSBURG, April 6.—At a meeting of the Pittsburg Presbytery in this city a resolution was unanimously adopted denouncing the Chinese Exclusion bill just passed by Congress as a menace to Christianity and commerce, and entirely out of harmony with the civilization of the 19th century.

Rev. John Collingwood Dead.

LONDON, April 6.—The Rev. John Collingwood Bruce, antiquarian and historian, is dead. He was born at Newcastle in 1804, and was educated at the University of Glasgow. He is the author of "A Handbook of English History" and other works.

French Expedition Massacred.

PARIS, April 6.—Advices received here through the Governor of Senegal state that it is reported that the expedition of Captain Menard has been massacred at Segula by a band of warriors in the Dominion of Samory.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

AN IMPROBABLE TALE.

It Looks as if Somebody is Trying to Bunco a Poughkeepsie Hotelkeeper.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 6.—James C. Griggs, proprietor of the Morgan House, one of the leading hotels in this city, has recently received three letters written in Spanish, to the effect that a man in a prison in Barcelona for life has a 16-year-old daughter whom the writer is very anxious to have brought to America.

The letters state that the prisoner has an enormous treasure which he designs for his daughter. The key to the location of the treasure is in a trunk in the possession of a friend in Spain. The writer of the letter claims to be the only one able to read this key or cypher explanation of the locality of the treasure.

Mr. Griggs sent the letters to the Spanish consul at New York, but has, unfortunately, made no note of the name and address signed to the same.

There are reasons to believe that hundreds of such letters have been sent to various persons, as the last letter asked the loan of a few hundred dollars for the expenses of working out the scheme.

It is expected that the Spanish consul may be able to help in the exposure of what looks like a romantic attempt at a swindle.

EVACUATION OF RICHMOND.

A Salute Intended for Admiral Greer Stirs Up the Colored Folks.

RICHMOND, Va., April 6.—"De white folks on the capitol squar firin' cannon to celebrate de cullud folks' freedom."

"De white folks dun come roun as las."

These, among many other expressions of a similar character, were heard among the colored people of this city. It so happened that the howitzers began firing their salute in honor of Rear-Admiral Greer just at the time when the colored societies were parading the streets to celebrate the evacuation of Richmond.

The colored people not being able to understand why this salute was fired, came to the conclusion that it was in honor of the evacuation of Richmond by the Confederate forces, and that the Richmond howitzers were helping them to celebrate the event. Among others the opinion prevailed that President Harrison had ordered the salute.

Fair Buildings Damaged by a Gale.

CHICAGO, April 6.—A heavy gale from the southwest yesterday morning damaged the Illinois State Building at the World's Fair grounds to the extent of $15,000. A large portion of the main dome was blown down, and in the fall it carried away derricks, scantlings, trestles and a large section of the south brick wall. The new brick power house adjoining Machinery Hall was also damaged to the extent of about $2,000.

Money in Circulation.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The circulation statement issued monthly by the Treasury Department shows the circulation of gold ann silver coins and certificates, United States notes and national bank notes on April 1 to have been $24.68 per capital for the 65,168,900 people estimated to be citizens of this country. The total circulation is placed at $1,608,641,530- which is a decrease since March of $917,872.

Congressman Reed May Retire.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—It is reported at the Capitol that Representative Reed, of Maine, contemplates retirement from Congressional life after the end of his present term. When the report was shown to Mr. Reed he laughingly said: "I do not know anything about it myself."

Hanged Himself to a Tree.

JOHNSTOWN, N. Y., April 6.—Jacob Boshart, jr., aged 50, a well-known citizen, wandered from home, and in a fit of temporary insanity (caused by ill-health, hanged himself to a tree in the southern part of the town.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A flood from the recent rains has swollen the creeks to an extent unknown for years in the vicinity of Clinton, Ill.

John F. Beggs, the only one of the five men indicted for the Cronin murder who was acquitted, died yesterday in Chicago.

Minister to Italy Porter has finally denied that he is a candidate for the Republican Gubernatorial nomination in Minnesota.

The death is announced in Philadelphia of Samuel H. Hemple, for many years a favorite commedian. He was 60 years old.

A lumberman's exchange with a $20,000,000 capital has been organized at Macon, Ga. It is said to be a trust embracing all the milling firms in the State.

J. J. Duane's steam mill and chair stock factory in Landgrove, Vt., was burned with contents yesterday. Loss, about $3,000.

A vast conflagration was raging in Piqua, Ohio, last night. Many dwellings were destroyed. Among the factories burned was Cron, Ellis & Co.'s furniture plant, worth $125,000.

DEEMING LAUGHED

Thinks the Evidence Against Him is Amusing.

INQUEST UPON HIS WIFE BEGUN.

The Court Room in Melbourne Crowded With Eager Listeners.

He is Identified by the Owner of the House in Which the Body Was Found—When Arrested He Was Making Preparations for His Marriage With Miss Rounseville—Had Hired a House and Bought a Barrel of Cement.

MELBOURNE, April 6.—The inquest upon the body of Mrs. Deeming, formerly Miss Mather, which was found buried beneath the floor of the house occupied by the Deemings at Windsor, a suburb of this city, and for whose murder Deeming is now in custody, opened in the City Court room yesterday. The room was crammed with a throng of eager listeners.

The owner of the house in which the body was found then identified Deeming as the man who had hired the house from him.

Several witnesses identified Deeming as the husband of the dead woman.

Mr. Hirschfeld, who went to Perth, Western Australia, to identify the prisoner, narrated a conversation he had had with Deeming, in which Deeming had manifested extreme curiosity to learn how the body looked when found, and had made a number of incriminating remarks.

Throughout the hearing Deeming wore a careless air, and on several occasions laughed loudly at some of the statements made by the witnesses.

Later details regarding Deeming's arrest show that when he was taken into custody at the Southern Cross gold fields, where he was employed as an engineer at Fraser's gold mine, he was making final arrangements for his marriage with Miss Rounseville, who was on her way from Bathurst, New South Wales, to join him. He had already secured a house, and his first act after taking possession was to purchase a barrel of cement with which he had the floor of the main room cemented.

He was reading a newspaper account of the discovery of Miss Mather's body at Windsor when a constable suddenly entered and, without the least warning, arrested him on the charge of murder. For the moment Deeming was dumfounded, but he quickly recovered his self-possession and, pointing to the paragraph, asked the constable if that was the crime of which he was accused, adding: "I think I know the party who was murdered. She was a good little thing, and I cannot believe that anyone would hurt her."

Efforts are being made to trace a gutta-percha air mattress sold by Deeming in Perth. There was a dark red discoloration on it, and it is supposed it was the mattress on which many of the murders were committed.

John Kemp, who described himself as a matrimonial agent, said that Williams had advertised for a wife through him. Williams represented himself as 33 years of age, with $360 in the bank, and stated that he was going to take up a good appointment.

NOT SEVERE ENOUGH.

The Sentence of Mrs. Montagu Universally Condemned.

LONDON, April 6.—There is universal condemnation of the sentence of Mrs. Montagu as too lenient. They compare her case with that of Fannie Gane, the poor girl who was convicted and sentenced to death on the charge of having strangled her infant, although there was no convincing proof that she intended to cause the death of her babe, and although, if she did, she was presumably insane at the time with her sufferings.

The sentence of Fannie Gane has been commuted to imprisonment for life, but this is everywhere declared to be monstrous severity, whereas Mrs. Montagu, who caused the death of her child by deliberate cruelty, is let off with one year's imprisonment.

It is claimed that this inequality of treatment in the case of the poor, friendless girl, and the wealthy wife of Lord Montagu's son is calculated to lessen respect for the law, and to create a feeling that justice is not impartially administered.

It is argued that it is high time for a popular movement to enforce the equality of all before the law. There is a demand on the part of the press for the appointment of a permanent guardian for the remaining children of Mrs. Montagu, and that the mother should be set aside so far as personal care and control of the children are concerned.

Senator Mills' Committeeships.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Senator Mills has been appointed as a member of the Committees on Coast Defenses, Mines and Mining, Patents and Postoffices, to fill vacancies created by the retirement of Mr. Chilton, his predecessor.

CRIMINAL LIBEL CHARGED.

A Letter Carrier Accused of Rejoicing Over the Death of Two Boys.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 6.—Patrick H. Kearney, a letter carrier here, caused the arrest of John Walsh and James Galvin on a charge of criminal libel.

Last week Edward Walsh and James Galvin, jr., relatives of the accused men, were killed on the New York & Massachusetts Railroad while lighting cigarettes between the cars. A few days later a card appeared in an evening paper here accusing Kearney of having publicly rejoiced over the accidenc and of saying that the boys should have been killed long ago. The card was signed by Galvin and Walsh, who were arrested last evening.

Kearney is a Republican ward politician and an ex-city official. It is rumored that there will be developments in the case which will raise a row in the Poughkeepsie postoffice, where the story of Kearney's alleged remarks are said to have originated.

DETERMINED TO DIE.

A Pittsburg Saloonkeeper's Desperate Attempt to Commit Suicide.

PITTSBURG, April 6.—John Gilroy, formerly a grocer, made application for a liquor license, but was refused. This fact so weighed upon his mind that he determined to commit suicide.

Going into the cellar, he took with him, under the pretense of wanting to cut wood, a cane knife and a hatchet. After several unsuccessful attempts to end his life by hitting himself on the head with the hatchet, he placed the point of the knife to his throat with one hand, hammering the blade into his throat with the hatchet, which he held in the other.

Gilroy, who is married and has a family of children, was found soon afterward in a pool of blood. He is not expected to live.

$10,000 for False Imprisonment.

NYACK, N. Y., April 6.—A suit for $10,000 damages has been brought by Mary Kinsella, a chambermaid at the Prospect House, a large summer hotel here, against Francis Southwick, a prominent citizen of Brooklyn, who spent last summer at that hotel. Mr. Southwick's family lost some jewelry, and the chambermaid was arrested, locked up, and afterward discharged because of a lack of proof. The woman now sues Mr. Southwick for false imprisonment and malicious prosecution, claiming damages in the sum of $10,000. The case will be tried in the Rockland County Supreme Court in May.

Nettleton May Be Removed.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—It has been learned from the very best sources that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Nettleton is to be removed. He may be permitted to resign, it is said, but the chances are that his removal will be recommended to the President by Secretary Foster. Ellis Island scandals are said to have led the Secretary to decide on parting with his assistant.

John F. Winslow's Will.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 6.—The will of the late John F. Winslow, of Monitor fame, was opened in the Surrogate's Court here. The estate is estimated to be worth between $3,000,090 and $4,000,000, the bulk of which is left to the widow, Harriet W. Winslow, and her only daughter and an adopted son, in trust, after her death to be kept in the family by some trust company.

Rewarded for Saving a Ship's Crew.

LONDON, April 6.—The Board of Trade has presented a watch and chain to Captain Willegorod, of the North German steamship Spree, in recognition of his services in saving the crew of the steamship Abyssinia, which was burned last December. The second and third officers of the Spree receive binoculars, and each member of the crew received $15.

Rev. Dr. Dunn's Parting Shot.

NEWARK, N. J., April 6.—At the meeting of the Methodist Conference at Morristown yesterday morning the Rev. Dr. Dunn of East Orange, who was retired last night, said that there were those in the meeting who would stab him if they dared. The remark caused quite a sensation.

Gibbons and Abbott to Fight.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Austin Gibbons of Paterson, N. J., and Stanton Abbott of England, lightweight pugilists, have been matched to fight to a finish before the National Sporting Club, London, Eng., for a $2,000 purse and $1,000 a side. The fight will take place in October.

Minister Egan Granted Leave of Absence.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Assistant Secretary of State Wharton admits that Minister Egan and Consul McCreery have been granted leaves of absence. Mr. Wharton added that Minister Egan had not been in this country since he went into the diplomatic service three years ago, and it was quite natural that he should desire to return home for a brief rest. Our diplomatic relations with Chili, Mr. Wharton concluded, were thoroughly satisfactory.

Promoted for Shooting a Man.

BERLIN, April 6.—The private in the Third Regiment of the Guards who was tried recently for shooting at a civilian from his post as sentry before the barracks in the Wrangel strasse, has been promoted corporal in consideration of his correct discharge of his duty on the occasion in question. The promotion has excited bitter comments in the radical press.

Lost His Life Through a Joke.

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—While attempting to light his pipe at an electric light, as he was told to do in a joke by a fellow workman, a Hungarian at Johnstown, Pa., was instantly killed. A current of 2,000 volts passed through his body.

ANARCHY RAMPANT

Paris Clubmen Selected as the Victims of Poison.

THE POLICE DISCOVER THE PLOT

A Bomb of Dynamite Found in a Powder Magazine by Soldiers.

Belgian Authorities Making Preparations Against May Day Disorders—Convinced that Serious Trouble is Intended—Excitement in Madrid Has Not Abated—The Civil Governor and Police Highly Complimented—What England's Home Secretary Says.

PARIS, April 6.—The Anarchist Ravachol admitted to a magistrate that he wrote the article in the "Journal International" describing the surest method of blowing up public buildings and giving information as to the manufacture of bombs and high explosives. He gave the most minute details as to the manufacture of his own explosive. A sample of it has been sent to the State Laboratory to be tested.

The police have been collecting evidence in regard to the alleged plan of certain Anarchists to poison the food of wealthy people. They have proof, it is said, that several of the Anarchists under arrest conspired to poison by wholesale the members of one of the principal Paris clubs. One of them is alleged to have repeatedly applied for employment as waiter at the club, and cipher correspondence found on him shows that his object was to poison the viands or drinks.

The Socialists persist in their determination to celebrate May Day. M. Ferroul, Deputy, is represented to have said that the French Socialists were entirely as one in the matter, and that the demonstration would pass off quite peacefully unless the police provoked the people.

MADRID, April 6.—The whole police force is engaged in hunting down Anarchists, with the view of getting at the bottom of the conspiracy to blow up the Cortes. They made a raid upon an Anarchist club and arrested twelve of its members. They also found a number of disguises, which it is supposed were to be used in the dynamite outrages.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.—In the Russo-German frontier towns continual search is being made for Nihilist documents and bombs. Information from the Paris police says that a great part of the dynamite cartridges lately stolen there were conveyed to Switzerland, whence they are to be smuggled into Russia.

LONDON, April 6.—Replying to a question in the House of Commons, the Home Secretary said he was not aware that France had expelled the Anarchists. If it was probable that any of that class would attempt to come to England the Government would ask for the necessary powers to prevent them.

MADRID, April 6. — The excitement caused by the attempt made to blow up the building in which the Cortez meets does not abate. The Civil Governor and the police are highly complimented, and comparisons are made with the Paris police, to the disadvantage of the latter.

BRUSSELS, April 6.—The Belgian authorities are making extensive preparations against disorder on the 1st of May. The theft of 200 cartridges of dynamite and forty cartridges of compressed powder from the Baneau collieries has convinced the officials that serious trouble is intended.

ROME, April 6.—The authorities at Palermo, Sicily, are investigating an attempt to cause a terrible explosion. A bomb of dynamite has been discovered by a patrol of soldiers close to the powder magazine of Monte Pellegrine. Had it exploded it would have occasioned immense damage.

The Ericsson Projectile Failed.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—It is said at the Navy Department that the test of the Ericsson submarine projectile by the Board of Ordinance and Fortification at Fort Wadsworth, New York, last Friday was not satisfactory. The first projectile discharged described a curve and sank in the bay. The steering apparently refused to work. The second projectile broke when it struck the water. Another test will be made as soon as arrangements can be made.

The Captain Appeals.

ROTTERDAM, April 6.—Capt. Bakker, commander of the Netherlands-American steamship Obdam, who was recently convicted of manslaughter for shooting and killing a fireman on that vessel about a year ago while on a voyage from New York for Rotterdam, has appealed from the sentence of one year's imprisonment imposed upon him. The public prosecutor has, on the other hand, appealed against the leniency of the sentence imposed on Capt. Bakker.

Great Loss of Horses and Cattle.

JULESBURG, Col., April 6.—The snow storm which has been raging here since Sunday night will cause a great loss of horses and cattle in this region. The snow is badly drifted and all the woods are blocked. Nearly every train on the Union Pacific road is behind time, caused by a train being derailed by a snowdrift. No one on the train was injured.

Boys Should Not Play With Pistols.

RED BANK, N. J., April 6.—Forman C. Woolley and another lad named Ely, both of Eatontown, were playing with a pistol yesterday. Woolley playfully placed the weapon to his head, saying he was going to shoot himself. Not knowing that the pistol was loaded, he pulled the trigger. The weapon was discharged, the ball crashing in the side of his head at the ear and lodging in the temporal bone. It was immediately extracted by a physician, but the boy, who is about 8 years of age, will probably not recover.

The four Official Reports,

U. S. Govern't, Bulletin No. 10; Canadian Gov't, Bulletin No. 13; Ohio Food Commission, and N. J. Food Commission, show

Cleveland's Baking Powder strongest of all pure cream of tartar powders, yielding (average) 12.87 per cent. carbonic acid gas.

The Scientific American, after a most careful examination of the Official Reports, says: "The showing Cleveland's makes, compared with all the principal brands, is such as to put it emphatically at the head."

GEARY'S FIGURES.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Representative Geary, of California, in an interview on the subject of the Chinese Exclusion Bill passed by the House, and in reply to the question, "If China severs trade relations with the United States, will not the manufacturers here suffer," said:

"That is a matter of figures. In 1889 the imports from China were $20,000,000 and our exports were $2,000,000. Last year we brought $19,000,000 worth from China and exported $8,000,000. For the last ten years the balance of trade has averaged about $18,000,000 in favor of China, and $14,000,000 of our imports have been teas, drugs, etc., which did not pay duty. When China annually sells us $20,000,000 worth of goods she is not likely to abrogate commercial relations unless the moon is made of green cheese, which I do not believe is the case."

"In China to-day there are exactly 1,023 Americans. Of these 28 are in trade, and the rest are missionaries, seamen and stragglers. Suppose these people are expelled. We can retaliate by expelling 130,000 Chinese who are in this country according to Mr. Porter's census. Do you think China wants to go into the expulsion business? Hardly, especially when her citizens who are here send more than $1,000,000 back to China every year, as the result of their interference with American labor. It would be a good thing to expel them."

China Will Retaliate.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—It was stated last night that the Chinese Minister had indicated to Senator Sherman, who is Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, that if the Extreme Chinese Exclusion bill became a law in the form that it passed the House yesterday the Chinese Government would sever all diplomatic relations with this country. With his usual reticence concerning pending legislation, Senator Sherman would say nothing for publication.

THE RUBBER TRUST.

It Acquires the Plant of the United States Company of New Jersey.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A meeting of the directors of the United States Rub ber Company of New Jersey was held here yesterday. The purchase and transfer of the plant and good will of the New Jersey Rubber Company was consummated, the deed being recorded at New Brunswick and formal possession being taken.

The board of directors was increased, and Henry L. Hotchkiss, president of the L. Candee Company of New Haven; Charles N. Johnson, treasurer of the same company; M. C. Martin, president, and James Dashler, secretary of the New Jersey Rubber Shoe Company were elected directors of the United States Rubber Company.

A committee was appointed to negotiate for the purchase of the two lines of steamers engaged in transportation on the Amazon River. The object of this proposed purchase is to enable the company to obtain the rubber supply at its source and not at Para as heretofore.

Sensation in Religious Circles.

ELIZABETH, N. J., April 6.—Among the large class of persons confirmed by Bishop Scarborough, at St. John's Episcopal Church, this city, last Sunday, was the Rev. Robert A. Tuft, a Congregationalist minister now preaching at Camden, N. Y. The disclosure of the fact has caused a sensation in religious circles. Mr. Tuft endeavored to hush the story by denying it, but the clergy of St. John's substantiated it as true. He will shortly be ordained as an Episcopal clergyman.

Seven Years for Highwayman Lapham.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 6.—In the Superior Court, Alfred M. Lapham, the road agent who held up the ticket agent at the Guilford Station, on the Shore line in March, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to seven years in State's prison.

For Railroad Commissioner.

CONCORD, N. H., April 6.—Governor Tuttle, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, nominated Col. Thomas Cogswell for Railroad Commissioner. The council has several times rejected Cogswell's nomination.

To be Executed June 9.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 6.—Governor Pattison has issued a warrant for the execution on June 9 next of Charles Cleary, who killed a policeman at Reeves, Clinton county.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair and Cooler To-morrow—Fair and Warmer Friday.

(SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.)

GOVERNMENT WEATHER REPORT.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—For New Jersey: Light local showers this evening; westerly winds; cooler.

LOCAL FORECAST.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, NEW YORK, April 6.—For northern New Jersey: Showers this evening; cooler; brisk to high southwesterly winds. For Thursday, fair, cooler. For Friday, generally fair, slightly warmer.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—F. M. Hulett, the new music dealer, is putting in a large and handsome stock of pianos and organs.

—A devotional meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 in the new rooms, Crescent rink building.

—Frank Smith will be the Crescents' official scorer this season. He knows how to keep his little book.

—If your lawn is shaded or dry during the summer, you can get seeds that will suit the conditions at A. M. Griffin's.

—For delicious ice-cream, and cake to eat with it, go to C. K. Compton's. His is the best of that seasonable dainty.

—The Plainfield Union of King's Daughters will meet Friday, April 15, instead of April 8, in the Crescent Avenue church parlors at 4.

—Chicken thieves are at work again. A night or two ago they relieved Mr. Leland's roosts on South Second street of 20 choice fowls.

—In the play at Music Hall, last evening, the Neumann Bros. organ was used from the new establishment of F. M. Hulett, West Front street.

—Dog-catcher Frisbey defies anybody to take an affidavit that he ever coaxed a dog out of a yard to capture it, or ever dragged a dog cruelly through the streets.

—Geo. H. Fountain will give a popular talk on "Peculiar Ideas; or, How to Think", to-morrow evening at 8, at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. All young men are invited.

—The Holy Cross church choir will give the second entertainment in aid of their camping fund, in Holy Cross parish building April 20. A most attractive programme has been arranged, and will soon be announced.

—The ground keeper of the Crescent field is getting the infield in shape. If it is ready by Saturday the bicycle boys and the home members of the Crescents will begin out-door practice.

—A new council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics will be instituted at North Branch, to-night. Franklin, No. 41, and Somerset, No. 104, of this city and North Plainfield, will be represented.

—Of late there has been a notable absence of the New Jersey mockingbird from his accustomed haunts along the coast, and scientists have gravely asserted that this desertion of his favorite abode is not due to any lack of affection for either the region or its inhabitants but rather on account of the destruction of the cedar groves in the neighborhood. It may be, too, that "of late" the prevailing temperature of the Jersey coast may have had something to do with this songster's disappearance.—The Tourist.

A ROSELLE WOMAN'S SUICIDE.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW YORK, April 6.—Jane Beale, a teacher of sciences, committed suicide by jumping from a fourth-story window, from the house 185 Lexington avenue, at 6 this morning.

Miss Beale had been suffering from acute melancholia for nearly a month. She had several pupils at private houses and conducted a class as well.

About three weeks ago she gave up her class and retired to her home at Roselle, N. J. Her melancholia increased, and last Monday she came to this city and placed herself under the care of Dr. Dillingham of 36 West Forty-sixth street.

FATAL EXPLOSION OF A LOCOMOTIVE.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW YORK, April 6.—A locomotive boiler exploded in the Long Island railroad yards at 9:15 this morning with a tremendous report. All of the engine's crew were more or less badly injured, and the ragged pieces of iron that flew in every direction struck down other employes who were near. Five men are reported to have been more or less badly hurt, and four others are reported to be dying. A tenth man is dead.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS]

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 7.—The State election is progressing quietly, with both sides making the usual election day claims. Rhode Island is the only debatable State to vote before the national conventions meet, and the result will have considerable effect on national politics. The results for the past three years, in fact ever since class distinctions were removed, have been favorable to the Democrats, and the election of W. T. C. Wardwell is therefore confidently predicted. Republicans, however, under the leadership of Senator Aldrich, have made so strong a fight, that nothing like a prediction can be made just now. The reports from Pawtucket, and other towns, show that everything is going on quietly. A governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, attorney general and general treasurer, are being voted for to-day.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The family of S. P. Dunn of East Seventh street returned to-day from their winter home in New York.

Miss Minnie Hamliton of Paterson is the guest of ex-Councilman and Mrs. E. D. Moffett of Orchard place.

H. G. Runkle, E. R. Pope, Peter Brunson, A. J. Brunson and E. G. Pope were yesterday elected directors of the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light company for the ensuing year.

Gathering of the Cranks.

At a special conclave of the Ancient and Improved Order of Rooters, held at Kenney's Kranks' Korner last evening, a most spirited discussion took place, the subject being "How Shall We Win the Pennant?" A goodly number of the order were present, most prominent being Most Esteemed Krank Pierson, Most Robust Krank Lyman, Past High Krank Hallock, Most Sedate Krank Doane, and Most Longear Krank Pangborn. Several new members were initiated into the mysteries of the order, which is steadily growing.

367 Buildings Now Use City Water.

The first tap of the mains of the Plainfield Water Supply company was made Aug. 17, 1891. Subsequent taps have been made as follows: August, 44; September, 74; October, 87; November, 81; December, 36; January, 4; February, 23; March, 18. The total number of taps up to April 1 is therefore 367, and for each of these meters in service the minimum annual fee is $10. There is no limit to the maximum.

LOOKING FOR A SUCCESSOR.

No Lack of Applicants for Miss Bulkley's Position.

At the meeting of the board of education Monday evening the members present were Messrs. Babcock, Hurlbut and Probasco. The minutes of the last meeting were approved. The following bills were ordered paid: S. Conway, $7.50; Thos. Peterson, $6; W. Hand, $8; Marsh, Ayres & Co., $2; Plainfield Daily Courier, $1.75; N. Y. and N. J. Telephone Co., $40; Woolston & Buckle, $65 33; L. W. Randolph, $1.75.

The board authorized a requisition to be made upon the assessor and collector to meet the expenses of the school year of 1892-93, of .43 per cent. on the taxable valuation of real and personal property, and also such sums as may be required to make the annual payment on indebtedness and interest.

The salary of the clerk of the board was fixed at $300, for the present year from Jan. 1.

The report was received from the collector of taxes, he having deposited $765 in bank, collections for March.

Miss Bulkley was appointed as city superintendent of schools, and supervising principal for the balance of the school year.

The committee on building and repairs reported estimates received for work in front of Stillman building, and the contract was awarded to Geo. F. White, as was also the work of laying the flagging on Liberty street, at the side of the Washington building.

Tuition money for the second and third quarter was paid over by the principal, amounting to $447.

A set of Appleton's cyclopedia was bought for $70 out of the library fund.

A supplementary catalogue of books in the library was ordered, and the committee on school supplies was authorized to purchase some new singing books for the Franklin school.

A communication was received from Miss Bulkley announcing her acceptance of the position as Dean of the Woman's college and Associate Professor of Education in the University of Chicago, which will sever her relation with the board at the close of this school term.

The committee on teachers was authorized to examine and confer on all applications for position as principal, and report to the board at the next meeting. The list of applicants is already large.

OBITUARY.

Henry R. Cannon.

Dr. Henry R. Cannon died at his residence, 1,016 Lafayette street, Elizabeth, last night of pneumonia, at the age of seventy-one years. He was the son of the late James Spencer Cannon, professor of Theology in Rutgers college, and was born at New Brunswick. He was graduated from Rutgers, and practiced medicine at Bedminster. He then went to Plainfield, where he engaged in the drug business, in the store at 15 East Front street, which Gavett has just vacated. When Union county was set off from Essex by the New Jersey Legislature the Governor appointed Dr. Cannon the county clerk. He was elected by the people when his appointment expired and held the office for twenty-two years. He was of Revolutionary descent and was a prominent member of the Sons of the Revolution. He was one of the most prominent members of the Masonic Fraternity in New Jersey. He was Grand Master of New Jersey for two terms, and was the Historian for the State. He was engaged on a new edition of the history of New Jersey Masonry and a biography of the late William E. Pine of Newark, who was high in the fraternity and was an intimate of Dr. Cannon. Dr. Cannon leaves a wife, a son, and a daughter. He was a tax commissioner of Elizabeth, having been appointed by Gov. Abbett.

Crescent Prize Winners.

The Crescent League tournament fizzle seems by unanimous consent of the disgusted participants to have languished into oblivion. The games now left unfinished will probably never be played. Night before last Davis and Green tried to shake up a little excitement, but gave up after a single game, the score of which was 166 to 137 in Davis's favor. As matters now stand the recipients of the prizes will be:

First—VanEmburgh.
Second—Thiers.
Third—Hervey Doane.
High Score—Hallock, 245.
High Average—Lyman, 159⅔.

VanEmburgh's average is 162, but it is stated that no bowler can take two prizes.

Ought to be smaller — the great, griping, old-fashioned pill. There's too much unpleasantness for the money. Ought to be better, too. They're big enough, and make trouble enough, to do more good.

That's just what Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do,—more good. Instead of weakening the system, they renovate it; instead of upsetting, they cleanse and regulate it—mildly, gently, and naturally. They're the original Little Liver Pills—the smallest but most effective, purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and easiest to take. Only one little Pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attack, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

They're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get. It's a plan peculiar to Dr. Pierce's medicines.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

QUARTS—25 Cents. PER GALLON—75 Cents. 3 1 tf

MR. AICHER'S A DIPLOMAT.

Experience Has Taught Him to Deal With Offensive Passengers in a Way That Will Cause the Least Disorder.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—A clipping has been shown me said to have been published in THE PRESS of Friday last. A second clipping appears to have been published on Saturday and is signed "A Commuter". Both refer to Joseph Aicher, conductor of the 12:15 night train from New York, and the first makes a specific charge against him of failing to relieve the passengers of the sight and sound of a disorderly person on the way to Plainfield.

I do not remember that I was on the train on the night in question, but if I was I remember nothing of the incident. Mr. Aicher tells me that the charge is untrue. I am sure that you can take his word for it, for my custom is to travel home on this train nearly every night, and Mr. Aicher's tact and courtesy in dealing with refractory persons have been my ceaseless wonder. Mr. Aicher is the right man in the right place and he is a gentleman.

I wish it were possible to say as much for the Plainfielders. Men whom I used to know as sober men have appeared on this train with wits and voices and clothing spread apart to the cardinal points. Young men whom I once thought steady and decent have turned up on the night express with striking resemblance to Christofero Sly and certain of Dickens's characters who play the part of human beer tanks.

On one occasion a party of twenty or more young calves got aboard at Elizabeth with the little brown bottle, and the comic song circulating among them with rapidity. A few had kept their heads, and these assisted Mr. Aicher to hold the rest in the smoking compartments and out of sight of the ladies. It was better for the sake of the calves and their watching mothers at home to have taken them aboard than to have left them to the Elizabeth police. Mr. Aicher did a kindness then to Plainfield and the calves, for the story of that startling night never got out.

There are many other Plainfielders not at all addicted to hilarious conduct who are in debt to Mr. Aicher for the unfailing courtesy he has shown them. If anybody is to feel the lash of your just criticism let it be the men who dishonor their citizenship in the fairest and most beautiful of Jersey towns.

ANOTHER COMMUTER.

Better Luck for the Independents, Next Time.

Yesterday was borough election in Dunellen, and a more exciting time the town never witnessed. Two independent tickets were in the field, which made the vote very close. Peter Schultz and Joseph Maier were on the independents, and in nearly every instance where the regular ticket was not cast, one or the other of these names was substituted for John Bunyon.

The poor voter would get within about 100 feet from the polls when he would be set upon by a half-dozen or more solicitors from all sides, something after the manner in which a country farmer is pestered by cabmen when he lands at the Grand Central depot in New York. After all this the voter would look knowingly at the tickets he received whether he could read or not, go straight to the polls, pick up a regular ticket and vote it.

The result of the vote was Dr. P. W. Brakeley and John Bunyon were elected for three years, and Adam Dealman to fill the unexpired term of Samuel Luckey. On the independent ticket Peter Schultz received 47 votes. Jos. Maier received 64 against John Bunyon's 67—a difference of only 3 votes.

Miss Thomas, Mr. Macy, and Others.

The cast selected from the Thomas Opera company that is to render Planquette's opera in three acts, the "Chimes of Normandy", at The Casino, Thursday evening, the 21st inst, under the direction of the Union County Country club, is given below.

Those who enjoyed, last season, the "Mikado" by this same company, still remember the sweet voices of Miss Thomas and Miss Mersereau, and the artistic comedy of Mr. Macy, besides the well-balanced chorus and enjoyable orchestra. That success is to be surpassed by the coming one. The cast;

Serpolette	Miss Emma Henry-Thomas
Germaine	Miss Alice Mersereau
Gaspard	Charles Halleck
Baillie	J. Williams Macy
Grenicheux	J. T. Brennan
Marquis	Wm. D. Preston
W. W. Thomas	Musical Director
Charles Halleck	Stage Director

Garbage Breeds Disease.

The dumping of refuse, ashes, garbage and offensive material within the city limits, though covered over with earth, is injurious to health. Foul odors penetrating living rooms, interfere greatly with rest, often cause nausea, loss of appetite and the depreciation of vital forces, which depend for their proper vigor on physical and mental rest; good appetite and regular digestion.

The health authorities, viewing this matter from a sanitary point, have prohibited the promiscuous dumping of unsavory nuisances anywhere near residence property.

From my knowledge of the value of Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills, derived as well from my own experience as from the testimony of many who have tested their merits, I am satisfied that they well deserve the ample patronage they are receiving.—The Rev. G. VAN SANTVOORD, Kingston, N. Y.

A MEETING FOR PUBLIC MORALS.

Young Men and Their Elders Urged to Unite in a Law and Order League.

A large number of prominent citizens have been invited to attend a meeting to be held at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, next Saturday evening, to consider the expediency of effecting an organization in Plainfield, which shall contemplate the following purposes and objects:

The promotion of public morality, and the prevention of vice and crime.

The enforcement of the laws.

The discouragement and prevention, so far as practicable, of schemes both in State and municipal affairs for private aggrandizement at public cost.

The promotion of honesty and lawful and fair administration in public affairs whether of the State or of the city.

The reduction of the taxes so far as is consistent with the reasonable care of public interests.

The meeting will be under the direction of the Rev. E. M. Rodman, L. V. F. Randolph, A. S. Patterson, the Rev. William R. Richards, the Rev. D. J. Yerkes, Isaac L. Miller and Samuel Huntington.

Luxury of Modern Railway Travel.

A recent trip over the Royal Blue line, New York to Washington and return, impressed the writer most strongly as to the wonderful possibilities regarding speed and luxury in railway travel in America. Having been in nearly every State in the Union and over a large part of Europe we are prepared to feel ourselves acquainted with railway transportation thoroughly, and while in no way failing to recognize the splendid service furnished the public by the great railway lines of America, the writer believes that he is stating nothing too strongly in saying that in his judgment there is not a service in the world, which taken as a whole, will compare with the famous Royal Blue Line, composed of the Central railroad of New Jersey, the Philadelphia and Reading and Baltimore and Ohio railroads. Not only is the time made between these points, via this line, the quickest ever made between New York and Washington, but with a road bed that is simply perfect, and an equipment so luxurious as to leave nothing to be desired, it furnishes no doubt the finest service of any line in the world.

Every train via the Royal Blue Line is vestibuled from end to end, and consists not only of the most luxurious parlor and sleeping cars ever made by the Pullman Palace Car company, but also of palatial day coaches far superior to the parlor cars run on many lines, with smoking compartments fitted up with chairs and sofas, the same as in drawing room cars. Although the service is so superior and the time so quick, on no train are there any extra charges. To those who desire accommodations in the drawing room or sleeping cars only the regular additional charges are asked, and on all of the trains vestibuled day coaches are run open to the public without any extra charges whatever. The dining car service attached to the principal trains is in keeping with the splendid character of the line's service and the cuisine equal to the best hotels of the country. It is no wonder that the Royal Blue line has attained phenomenal popularity, and it has not attained its position by any other reason than that it deserved it. It is so incomparably superior to any service ever inaugurated between New York and Washington that it would be surprising if the public did not patronize it so liberally; certainly no one who wants the best should take any other, and when it is considered that for the finest service in the world no additional charges of any description are required, it should receive, as it does, the endorsement and patronage of the public.—Christian Leader.

Just after noon yesterday, one of the Central railroad hands sitting in section-house No. 19, at Fanwood, eating the dinner from his pail, espied a rat come up through the floor. The rat ran out on the track and the man after it. The animal, however, had start enough to get across the rails, but the section hand was caught by the engine of a westward bound coal train and thrown down the bank.

County Physician Westcott was summoned at once, and the man was supposed to be badly injured. To-day, though, he is better but probably will not sit down to meals again before Sunday.

To Protect the Public.

To protect the public from fraud and imposition, the genuine medicines of Dr. R. V. Pierce are now sold only through druggists, authorized as agents. They are the cheapest medicines to use, as well as the best, because in every case you pay only for the good you get. The money is refunded if they ever fail to benefit or cure.

Being sold on this peculiar plan of "value received or no pay", the prices of the genuine guaranteed medicines always have been, are, and always will be, as follows:

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (the remedy for all diseases arising from a torpid liver or impure blood), $1 per bottle.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (the remedy for female weaknesses and derangements), $1 per bottle.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets (the original and best Liver Pills), 25 cents per vial.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, 50 cents per bottle.

Suspicion naturally and rightfully attaches to any medicines purporting to be Dr. Pierce's, when offered at any other prices than those above given.

—A white horse owned by John A. Benner and tied to a post on North avenue took fright at a piece of paper whisked about by the wind this morning, broke his halter, and ran wildly down the street. He was caught without damage by a red-headed boy on Park avenue.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signs perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street Plainfield, N. J.

Neither Grammatical Nor Otherwise.

A school teacher who believes in giving pupils practical illustrations asked little Johnny Filkins if he was possessed of any hens.

"Yep," said the boy, "I got one."

"Now I want to ask you," said the pedagogue, gravely, "whether she sits or sets."

"She don't do nuther," said Johnny, with animation; "she only cackles."—Buffalo Engineer.

A Little Too English.

Chum—What! You are not engaged to Miss Highstone! Well, I declare! I thought surely that would be a match.

Young Tremolo—I backed out. She was too much a slave of fashion, too English, you know.

"You amaze me."

"Fact. She wanted me to go by myself and ask her father's consent."—N. Y. Weekly.

Woes of Authorship.

Wife of Promising Young Author—Edward, I don't like the heroines of your love stories.

Promising Young Author—Why not, dear?

Wife—Because they are all golden-haired blondes, tall and stately—and I'm little and a brunette—and I—I think they're j-just as—as—as ug-ugly as they can b-be!—Chicago Tribune.

His Old Self Again.

Dumley—Why, Robinson, I'm glad to see you out again. You don't look the same man you did two months ago.

Robinson—Oh, I'm all right again. By the way, Dumley, have you got a couple of dollars about you?

Dumley (handing him the money)—As I said, Robinson, you don't look the same man, but, by peanut, you are the same man.—Tansell's Punch.

Getting Ready for Summer.

She—You know, doctor, that my husband is very much opposed to my going away. Do you think (anxiously) I will be ill enough to go to Europe?

The Doctor (doubtfully)—That's pretty hard to tell.

She—You know, I want to make certain of it. Perhaps you would better call a few more times.—Brooklyn Life

Age of Miracles Not Passed.

Pretty Sister (hearing Johnny recite his Sunday-school lesson)—Now, Johnny, can you tell me what is meant by a miracle?

Johnny—Yes, sister. Mother says that if you don't marry the new parson 'twill be a miracle, judging by the way you go on with him.—Texas Siftings.

THE BEST FOR EVERY PURPOSE.

A Reportorial Genius.

"That new reporter is a genius, I tell you," said the city editor.

"What has he done?" asked the managing editor.

"Why, he wrote a long article about the coal output, and didn't once say 'dusky diamonds.'"

"He must be new at the business—that's all."—Texas Siftings.

An Advantage.

Employer—You are having a decided flirtation with the girl who has charge of our telephone wire!

Truthful Clerk (with cold chills running up and down his spine, and with visions of instant discharge)—Y-e-e-s, sir; but, please, sir—

Employer—Well, keep it up. She will give more attention to our calls, if you do.—Puck.

TOO EXPANSIVE.

Mr. Wash Jefferson sits for his photograph. The artist asks him to "smile a little!" Unfortunately it was a card photograph. The result when printed.—Judge.

A Regular Falling Off.

Gilhooly—I can't possibly make out what's going to become of our boarding house. I wanted ham and poached eggs the other day, and couldn't get 'em.

Gus De Smith—Ah! and I wanted credit there the other day and couldn't get that.—Texas Siftings.

THE CRY OF THOUSANDS.

If It Hits You, Well and Good.

"What's the matter?"

"I dont know. I feel nervous and queer, don't sleep well, lost my appetite, am blue and depressed."

This is the cry of thousands. Sick and do not know what is the matter.

Never mind how you got them, whether from Spring Debility, weaknesses following the Grip, overwork, strain on the nerves, dissipation, &c.—what you want is a cure. Go to your druggist's and purchase for $1, Dr. Greene's Nervura, the best regulator of the stomach, liver and bowels, and the greatest known tonic, invigorator and strengthener for the nerves. It will surely make you feel yourself again. Purely vegetable and harmless.

"I was a bad sufferer from dyspepsia and indigestion, my blood was poor and my nerves very weak, which affected my heart. I was in a bad way with these complaints; no one suffered more than I did. I tried most everything, but Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th St., New York, can be consulted, free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free. N. B.

SINAI'S FAMOUS MOUNT.

The Spot Where Moses Is Supposed to Have Received the Law—St. Catherine Monastery—The Legend of an Ancient Chapel.

Mr. Charles Grad is the latest traveler to Mount Sinai and its famous monastery, where a few monks of the Greek church lead an isolated life. The mountain is called also Mount Horeb, and its Arabic name is Djebel-Mucs, or Mount of Moses. The story of Mr. Grad's visit to the sacred mountain is published in Le Tour du Monde and is illustrated with views of the sandy desert and barren mountains of the Sinai peninsula. Sinai is not often visited by travelers. Some scholars who have explored the mountains assert that one or another summit is more likely to have been the Sinai of the Jews than the mountain which the Greek monks believe was the eminence that was wrapped in cloud and smoke and shook with thunders as Moses ascended it. Most of the authorities, however, accept the tradition which makes the mountain on whose side the monastery stands the true Sinai.

There is no settlement for many miles around. It is a region of sandy valleys and bald granite mountains. On all sides of the monastery rise naked hills of gray stone. There is not a particle of vegetation except in the garden adjoining the monastery, where the tops of a few cypress trees rise above the walls. The time was when strangers were raised into the monastery by means of a pulley. Now, however, the gate is kept open. The monks no longer have to contend with enemies as in earlier days, when the Arabs sought to annihilate them.

Within the lofty walls are several buildings separated by narrow, dark alleys. The walls are pierced for musket and cannon, and a few cannon are mounted on them. They are objects of curiosity, but could do little harm to an enemy. The two most conspicuous buildings are the church and the chapel of the Burning Bush, where, according to the local tradition, God spoke to Moses. The library was once very rich in treasures, but its rarest manuscripts have been carried away. There Tischendorf found the text of the Gospels which is known now under the name of the Codex Sinaiticus.

Mr. Grad learned that while the monks were friendly and hospitable they accepted with pleasure the money he offered for his entertainment. The convent is now very poor, and subsists largely on alms. There are only thirteen monks, most of them natives of the Grecian isles, and well advanced in years. Their white beards of unusual length give them a venerable aspect. Fresh blood is introduced now and then, and when Mr. Grad visited the monastery in 1886 two young men had just arrived, having consecrated themselves to the life of pious isolation. Few buildings in civilized lands are as old as some of the structures within these walls. The monastery was founded in the sixth century, and the church, built during that epoch, is standing. Its corner stone, the inscription says, was laid in the year 527 A. D., by Justinian and his wife Theodora.

Behind the church, sheltered from the sun, are the wells which provide the monastery with fresh and limpid water. According to the monks, Moses aided the daughters of Jethro to water their flocks at this fountain.

Mr. Grad climbed to the top of Sinai. A rude stairway of about 3,000 steps, made of pieces of rock placed one above another, lead to the top. There is also a more circuitous route, which some tourists prefer to the steeper climb. On the way up the path is an ancient chapel, consecrated to the Virgin, which illustrates one of the numerous legends of which the old mountain is the subject. It is said that in the early days of the monastery the monks were driven out of the convent by an invasion of fleas. They retreated to the top of the mountain, where the Virgin met them, ordered them to return to the convent, and promised to deliver them from their enemies. The monks obeyed, and not a flea could be found when they reentered the monastery. It is proper to add that the fleas have returned.

Two more little chapels are along the steep path. They are dedicated to the prophets Elijah and Elisha. In the chapel of Elijah the monks show a crevice in the rock, where the prophet, it is said, retired after the slaying of the priests of Baal. On the top of the mountain are Greek and Mohammedan chapels, for the mountain is an object of veneration to Christians and the followers of Islam. Mohammed visited the mountain, and from its summit, it has been said, he was translated to Heaven. On this spot mingle the traditions of the Bible and the Koran, and this barren rock has an important place in the history of the descendants of Isaac and of Ishmael.

Lard as a Life-Saver

The school boy's composition asserted that pins had saved the lives of many people by their not having swallowed them; so lard has saved the lives of thousands by their having avoided food of which it forms a part. Hog's lard is responsible for much indigestion and dyspepsia, as any physician will testify, hence has been introduced to take the place of lard. There is no secret as to its composition. It consists only of highly refined Cotton Seed Oil, and Beef Suet. Clean, delicate, healthy and economical. Lard has had its day, and a greasy day it was. When next about to use lard,—Don't, but try Cottolene. At leading grocers.

DR. WEBSTER'S END

He is Found Dead With His Neck Broken.

DID HE JUMP FROM A WINDOW?

He Was a Prominent Methodist Minister and Was Married Two Weeks Ago.

Registered Under an Assumed Name in a Hotel in Charleston, W. Va.—It is Believed That He Was Taken Ill and Sat in a Window to Get Fresh Air—A Message Found in His Room.

BALTIMORE, April 7.—The Rev. Dr. J. J. G. Webster, the prominent Methodist minister who disappeared on Monday night, leaving his bride of two weeks at her mother's house, was found dead in Charleston, W. Va. The news came to the wife in the form of a dispatch from Justice Hall of Charleston.

The clergyman had no relatives or friends in Charlestown and was entirely unknown there. It is believed that he went from Camden station, where he was seen by one of his parishioners, to Washington, and there bought a ticket to Charleston on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad. When he reached Charleston Tuesday afternoon he went to the Hotel Ruffner and was assigned to a room on the third floor. Yesterday morning he was found dead on the sidewalk underneath the window of his room.

There is no doubt that Dr. Webster was insane. The remarkable feature of the case is that he had given no indications of coming aberration. He was quite ill just before his marriage, and the labors incident to the preparations for the conference which was held at his church increased his burdens. He was a hard worker, but was not strong. Dr. W. Marshall Smith, his son-in-law, with whom he had been living, said he had noticed in him no indication of mental depression up to the time when he bade his wife good-by on her mother's steps and asked her to wait for him until his return from the quarterly conference, which he was expected to open.

Dr. Webster was one of the most gifted and most popular clergymen in the city. He was 40 years old, and he had had charge of the largest Methodist churches in the city. His recent appointment as presiding elder gave general satisfaction.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 6.—The Rev. Dr. J. J. G. Webster, of Baltimore, arrived from the East yesterday afternoon and registered at the Hotel Ruffner as "J. J. Worthington, Washington, D. C." He was assigned to a room on the third floor, to which he went at once. About 7 p. m. he called for a cup of hot coffee, which was taken to him. He asked the bell boy to light the gas and shut the window-blinds. When he had finished his coffee he had the boy turn out the light, open the blinds and put up a window. At 5:30 this morning he was found dead on the pavement, thirty-five feet below the window. His neck, the back of his head, one arm and several ribs were broken.

In his room was found a scrap of paper, on which the following message was written:

Ruin and gone forever. Stay at home.
J. J. G. W.

It is believed here that Dr. Webster was taken ill and rose from the bed and sat in the window to get fresh air.

Why he registered under an assumed name is a mystery. There were no papers or anything to indicate that he had been in any trouble.

Newark M. E. Conference Adjourns.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., April 7.—The Newark M. E. Conference adjourned at noon after a week of zealous labor. The special feature of the last session was the vote of 110 to 37 against the presentation of a memorial to admit women delegates to the General Conference at Omaha. The committee on public morals read a report in which the last New Jersey Legislature was arraigned for its method of procedure, and it was declared that the moral conditions established by it were disgraceful.

Loyal Legion Banquet.

NEW YORK, April 7.—New York Commandery of the Loyal Legion held its monthly dinner at Delmonico's last night. The occasion was of special interest because of the presence of Senator John Sherman, who read a paper on the life of his illustrious brother, the late General W. T. Sherman. Among others present were Generals Swayne, Howard, Porter, Greene, Woodward and Rear Admiral Braine.

Mrs. Montagu Begins Her Sentence.

DUBLIN, April 7.—Mrs. Annie Margaret Montagu, who, on Monday, was sentenced at the Assizes here to one year's imprisonment at hard labor for killing her young daughter Helen, is resigned to her punishment. She adopted the dress and diet of a convict without a murmur.

Another Typhus Case in New York.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The health authorities have discovered another case of typhus fever. The victim was a Russian Hebrew, 31 years old, of 240 Cherry street. Twenty families live in the tenement and much apprehension is felt for their safety from the disease.

New York Fair Bill Signed.

ALBANY, N. Y. April 7.—The World's Fair bill has been signed by the Governor. He filed a memorandun with it endorsing its provisions and saying that it is sufficient money for all purposes. The bill appropiates $300,000.

A Hospital Burned.

MISSOULA, Mont., April 7.—The Northern Pacific Hospital, a building costing about $60,000, was discovered to be on fire shortly before midnight. The patients probably all escaped, but the building is a total loss

RHODE ISLAND REPUBLICAN.

The Big Democratic Registration Overcome by Stay-at-Home Voters.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 7.—D. Russell Brown, Republican candidate for Governor, has a plurality, and the next Legislature will be Republican.

The vote was as follows: Brown (Rep.), 28,187; Wardwell (Dem.), 22,072; Gilbert (Pro.), 1,411; Burton (People's), 176; Brown's plurality, 1,115.

It requires fifty-four members of the Legislature to elect on joint ballot, and the Republicans have at present fifty-one, with every probability of having elected six more.

The city of Providence went Democratic by about 400 majority. Pawtucket was carried by the Democrats by about 100, and Woonsocket by a litele less.

The vote polled was the largest in the State. The town of Lincoln elected six Republican Assemblymen, thus insuring the Republicans at least fifty-seven votes on joint ballot and giving them control.

The Republican State ticket will be chosen by the Legislature, and Nelson W. Aldrich will be returned to the United States Senate.

The Democrats made Legislative gains in several towns, but the result is a surprise to the Democrats.

The ordinary stay-at-home voters came out and overcame the heavy Democratic registration.

A SENSATION NIPPED.

Happy Termination of a Breach of Promise Suit.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 7.—Miss Eliza Wager, of High Falls, this county, and W. Irving Bray, the principal of the Montrose, Westchester County, high school, have become man and wife, and thus a sensational action for breach of promise has been nipped at the outset.

Miss Wager, who is the daughter of a well-to-do and prominent farmer residing about fifteen miles from this city, retained as counsel Judge A. T. Clearwater, and commenced an action for $25,000 damages.

The judge has been absent from his home since Monday, and on his return was agreeably surprised to find a letter awaiting him from Miss Wager, in which she says that on Saturday evening last Principal Bray, her affianced, and she made up their differences and were happily wedded. The letter stated that they both united in extending the judge sincere thanks for having thus brought them together.

Judge Clearwater says he prefers the happy termination of the action to the recovery of any amount of damages.

SHALL THE FAIR CLOSE SUNDAY.

Arguments by Col. Shepard and Rev. Dr. Knowles of New York.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The House Committee on the World's Fair heard arguments relative to closing the Exposition on Sunday.

Col. Elliott F. Shepard of New York spoke in support of the various petitions for closing on Sunday and requested the committee to shape its legislation relative to the Exposition so that the doors of the Fair should be closed on the Sabbath. Mr. Shepard's time expired before he had finished his remarks and he concluded with a request for a future hearing.

Dr. Knowles of New York, a member of the American Sabbath Union followed Mr. Shepard in support of the proposition to close the fair on Sunday. He had received, he said, petitions memorializing closing the fair on Sunday. These contained about 2,000,000 names. Their object, said Dr. Knowles, was to preserve the Sabbath as a day of rest. The State of New York, he said, in making an appropriation for an exhibit at the exposition had attached to it a provision requiring the exhibit to be closed on Sunday.

Mr. Caruth of Kentucky, a member of the Committee, asked if New York was the only State which had made a provision of this kind. Dr. Knowles replied that he understood that it was, but he understood New Jersey, Massachusetts, Kentucky and other States were going to fall into line. The Association he represented desired Congress to attach such a provision to any appropriation they might make, for the fair.

Mrs. Ingram Married.

LONDON, April 7.—Sir Edward William Watkin, Bart., and M. P. for Hythe, East Kent, was married yesterday to Mrs. Ingram, widow of the founder of the "London Illustrated News." Sir Edward is about 72 years old, and Mrs. Ingram, now Lady Watkin, is about ten years older.

Broke the Engagement.

CINCINNATI, O., April 7.—Miss Bettie Fleischman, daughter of the millionaire yeast manufacturer and distiller, Chas. Fleischman, of this city, has broken her engagement with Count Logothetti because he refuses to become an American citizen.

A Shoe Factory Burned.

HAVERHILL, Mass., April 7. — A fire occurred last night in the shoe manufactory of Harry W. Chase, Nos. 56 and 58 Washington street, causing a loss of $10,000 on stock and machinery, insurance $30,000

ASSAULTED IN A CAR

Another Illustration of the Compartment System.

A GIRL IN A VILLAIN'S POWER.

Her Assailant Followed Her and Leaped Off the Train—No Trace of Him Could be Found by the Police—The Girl Was Only 13 Years Old—It is Believed There Will be a General Adoption of American Cars on English Railways.

LONDON, April 7.—Another compartment outrage occurred yesterday morning on a train bound for Ruabon, Denolghshire. Passengers were aroused by hearing cries and shrieks for help from the footboard of one of the compartments.

When they looked out of the windows they saw a young girl standing on the footboard and clinging to the handrail of the carriage.

The girl had presence of mind enough to make her way to the next compartment, where she was helped in. There, as soon as she could be calmed, she told her story.

She was but 13 years of age, and had been alone in the compartment with a man she did not know. The man spoke to her and at last made improper advances. She tried to repel him, whereupon he assaulted her.

When he let her go she dashed out of the carriage to the footboard and shrieked for help. Her assailant being frightened, followed her to the footboard and leaped from the train, evidently fearing arrest.

The police were notified at the next station, and hurried to where the man was supposed to have left the train. He had evidently got away safely, as no signs of him were visible.

This new instance of an outrage in a railway carriage compartment will, it is believed, hasten the general adoption of the American railway carriages, of which several are already in use in England.

It was only a few days ago that John Goodall, an Evangelist, was sentenced at the Staffordshire Assizes to two years' imprisonment for assaulting Mrs. Mary Siddals in a compartment of a car on the Midland Railway. Mrs. Siddals jumped from the train and was very badly injured.

Another victim of the compartment system is Miss Went, who some time ago was taken on the Guilford Hospital suffering from concussion of the brain sustained in falling from a train.

During a brief period of consciousness she stated that as the train on which she was traveling was moving out of Woking station on its way to Aldershot, a man jumped into the compartment she occupied and attempted to assault her. She was crazy with fear, and jumping from the carriage she fell heavily upon her head. Her assailant was never caught.

TO TEST ITS LEGALITY.

President McCall Will Not Permit Mr. Beers to Draw His Pension.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Although an annual pension of $37,500 was voted to William H. Beers when he retired from the presidency of the New York Life Insurance Company by the trustees of the company, and a contract to that effect between him and the company was duly executed, he has not yet drawn any part of the pension and will not be permitted to draw any by his successor, President John A. McCall, until the contract has been established in the courts as binding upon the company.

President McCall said that he was not a member of the board of trustees when the pension was voted to Mr. Beers and the contract agreed to. If he had been he would not have voted for it. He said no money would be paid to Mr. Beers until the courts declared the contract valid.

Think They Were Chloroformed.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 7.—While Mrs. John Burke of Wappinger's Falls was sleeping, a burglar entered her bedroom and stole a gold watch and other valuables. Mrs. Burke lives with her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Smith, on the outskirts of the village. The burglar also took Mrs. Smith's pocketbook, containing nearly $50 in money, and papers. Burnt matches were found scattered about on the floor, the intruder probably having made himself at home. The women think they were chloroformed, but there is no good evidence of this. There is no clue to the burglar.

A Modus Vivendi Agreed Upon.

WASHINGTON, April 7. — Secretary Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister, called at the White House yesterday morning and had an interview of half an hour with President Harrison upon the Behring Sea matter. It is understood that the interview was perfectly satisfactory, and resulted in an agreement for a renewal of the modus vivendi over Behring Sea, which, with the exception of a few preliminaries, is

THE LANDLORD HELD UP

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 7.—A stranger robbed Frank Deiderick, proprietor of the Rhinecliffe Hotel, at the point of a pistol.

Shortly after midnight Mr. Deiderick heard a noise in the stranger's room and going there found him apparently greatly excited. He declared that he heard burglars in the house, and tried in every way to induce Deiderick to accompany him down stairs and look for them. Deiderick, however, refused to go.

"Don't be afraid of me," said the stranger, taking the loaded chamber from his revolver and handing the handle part to Deiderick. "Come," he persisted, "I will help you catch the rascals, for I know they are here."

Deiderick still refusing to accompany him the fellow went down stairs alone. He returned in a short time, saying that there was a helpless man in the gutter in front of the hotel.

"It's a shame to leave him there," he said, "let's go down and help him."

These and other schemes to get the hotel proprietor down stairs failing, the stranger retired to his room. A few minutes later Deiderick went to the fellow's room to bid him be quiet, and upon opening the door a revolver was pointed at his head with the declaration by the stranger:

"I must have money to get out of this town."

Deiderick was cornered. He gave the robber all the money in his pockets. Five minutes later the stranger was hurrying up the road while the village constables were being aroused. The thief made good his escape.

He is described as being about 30 years of age and rather good looking, with a smooth face.

Deiderick's Hotel was burglarized about a month ago.

MRS. DEACON TRAVELING.

She Appears to Care Nothing for Her Husband's Welfare.

PARIS, April 7.—Mrs. Edward Parker Deacon is making a tour of Spain with her brother. She will return to France early in May in time to be present at the Alpes-Maritimes Assizes for the killing of M. Abeille.

Her friends here say that she has suffered from partial nervous prostration since she confronted her husband before the judge d'instruction in Grasse, and is now gathering strength for the ordeal in court.

She has grown thinner under the anxiety of the last few weeks and has lost much of her color.

She is said to make no inquiries as to the welfare of her husband, who remains at the hotel in Grasse.

Articles Signed for Dixon.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Tom O'Rourke, manager of George Dixon, the feather-weight champion boxer of the world, has signed articles on behalf of the colored fighter for a contest with Fred Johnston, the English champion, at 117-118 pounds, before the Coney Island Athletic Club on Suburban day. The athletic club guarantees a purse of $5,000, and will allow Johnston training and other expenses if he will agree to fight. O'Rourke also offers to bet $2,500 on the outside. Johnston, therefore, it is believed, has sufficient inducement to meet the champion.

Refuses to Accept His Release.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 7.—Third Baseman Arthur Whitney has caused no end of a sensation by refusing to accept his release from the local club and intimating he would stay and report all season and bring suit for his salary. Whitney signed a regular National League contract containing a 10-day clause, and the directors, when notified of his stand, hardly knew what to make of it, unless Whitney had some private agreement with ex-Manager McGunnigle, of which they knew nothing.

Woman Charged With Incendiarism.

BOSTON, Mass., April 7.—Catharine McLean and Margaret Shannon, two unmarried women, are held under $3,000 bail charged with setting fire to the building at 40 Kneeland street last Friday. The women kept a tailor shop on the ground floor and occupied a room in the rear as a sleeping apartment. It is claimed that kerosene had been sprinkled about the rooms, and then set on fire.

Eight People Burned to Death.

FORT MADISON, Iowa, April 7.—Shortly before midnight the two-story frame building of S. V. Kitchen, was discovered to be on fire and it, with the dwelling of John Knuck, was entirely consumed. S. V. Kitchen, his wife, three children, his wife's sister, Miss Sidney Day, and August Knemeier, a boarder, were burned to death. Sam Kitchen and Henry Knemeier were badly burned.

Fire Bugs Make Threats.

BATH, Me., April 7.—Incendiary fiends have been at work in this place for some time past. It is said that members of the city government and a number of prominent citizens have received anonymous letters stating that unless the present police force was removed the city would be laid in ashes. A reward of $1,000 has been offered for the detection of the fire bugs.

An ex-Lord Mayor Held for Trial.

LONDON, April 7.—Sir Henry Isaacs, formerly Lord Mayor of London, Horatio Bottomley, Joseph Isaacs and Charles Dollman, have been committed for trial on the charge of having conspired to defraud the Hansard Publishing Company, limited, of upwards of 20,000 pounds.

Railroads to be Sued.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Armour & Co. have instituted twenty-one suits to recover $1,155,000 from various railroads in the country for overcharges under the Inter-State Commerce legislation.

A HORRIBLE SIGHT

Terrific Explosion and Fire in Madison, Iowa.

SEVEN PERSONS FOUND DEAD.

Two Others Discovered to be Alive, but Die Shortly Afterward.

The Flames Were Beyond Control Before Water Could be Played Upon Them—The Firemen Had a Desperate Battle With the Fire—Bodies Found Embraced in Death and Charred Beyond Recognition—A Touching Spectacle.

FORT MADISON, Iowa, April 7.—Late in the night fire was discovered in the two-story residence of S. V. Kitchen, which is situated on Santa Fe Avenue.

An alarm was at once given, but before the occupants could make their escape a terrific explosion occurred in the building, windows and doors being shattered, and the rocking and swaying structure threatening to topple over in a heap.

When the fire department reached the conflagration the fire had made rapid headway. To their further discomfiture they found that the nearest hydrant was four blocks away, and before the water could be brought to bear upon the burning building, the flames were beyond control.

After a desperate battle the firemen succeeded in controlling the fire and, as soon as they could enter the building, attempted to find the nine missing occupants.

They found their way to the upper stories completely cut off, however, the explosion having totally wrecked the inner stairway leading to them. Ladders were brought, and when the men ascended they were confronted by a ghastly, but touching spectacle.

Embraced in death lay the bodies of Mrs. Kitchen, her baby and sister, Miss Sidney Day, charred almost beyond recognition. Near by lay the body of Mr. S. V. Kitchen and his two other children. August Kenemeyer, a boarder, also had met his death in the building, and but two of the occupants of the ill-fated house showed any signs of life. These were Henry Kenemeyer, aged 18, a boarder, and Samuel Kitchen, aged 21, a brother of S. V. Kitchen. They were carried out of the building, but both died a few hours afterward.

STOLE $70,000.

A Firm of New York Bankers Systematically Robbed.

NEW YORK April 7.—A systematic robbery of the banking house of Dix & Phyfe, 45 Wall street, was unearthed yesterday. The exact amount of the stealings is not yet definitely known, but it is believed they will reach between $60,000 and $70,000. Fifty-three thousand dollars of the amount stolen has been recovered, and the loss of the firm will not, therefore, in any event, be very large.

Oscar Creamer, 19 years old, of 425 Hicks street, Brooklyn, the assistant bookkeeper, was the promoter of the scheme. He had as confederates W. E. Carpenter, aged 35, a clerk of Dix & Phyfe, and James L. White of Brooklyn, an outsider. Carpenter is under arrest, but Creamer and White have disappeared and are supposed to be somewhere on the ocean on the steamer Oakland, which left this port for Copenhagen on Monday.

Hon. Willard Saulsbury Dead.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 7.—Willard Saulsbury, aged 72 years, Chancellor of the State of Delaware, and ex-United States Senator, died suddenly at Dover this morning, of heart failure. He was appointed Chancellor in 1873 and was the seventh that the State has had. He was in the Senate from 1859 to 1871, and also held the position of Attorney General for Delaware from 1850 1855. He was always a Democrat, and was a delegate to the convention which nominated Buchanan for President.

Paid His Reward.

BOSTON, April 7.—Frederick J. Brown, of this city, was paid the reward of $2,500 offered by the Selectmen of Milton for information that would lead to the arrest of the person or persons who shot and killed Edward Cunningham, a wealthy resident of that town, on Nov. 31, 1889. The Italian murderer is now serving a long term in State prison.

Sunday Ball Games.

CINCINNATI, April 7.—It is not likely that there will be any more fuss made over Sunday baseball games in this city unless another crusade is made against it. In the Police Court yesterday the cases of the ball players arrested for participating in last Sunday's game, were placed on the open docket. This means that there will be no trial.

Has Not Resigned

SING SING, April 7.—Warden Brown stated to a representative of the National Press that it was untrue that he had handed in his resignation as warden of the prison here. He said there was a great deal of talk going on about his affairs, most of which were false.

Dr. Cannon is Not Dead.

ELIZABETH, N. J., April 7.—Dr. Henry R. Cannon, Past Grand Master of the Masonic order of New Jersey, is not dead as was reported. The announcement of his death grew out of the demise of a neighbor. Dr. Cannon's condition, however, is very low.

Hawaiian Fair Commissioners Arrive.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—E. M. Walsh and son and L. A. Thurston arrived by steamer Australia from Honolulu, en route to Chicago. They are commissioners to the World's Fair from the Hawaiian Islands. They are going on now to arrange for space.

BLOWN IN ALL DIRECTIONS.

A Long Island Railroad Locomotive Explodes With Fatal Results.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., April 7.—A locomotive exploded with terrific force in the yards of the Long Island railway here yesterday.

Five men who were working near were severely injured, some of them it is thought, fatally, the engineer and fireman of the locomotive being among the latter.

The locomotive was completely wrecked.

The accident occurred while the train was moving out of the station towards Bliesville. It was what was known as the working train and consisted of a locomotive and a number of flat cars. There were six men seated on the car directly behind the locomotive. They received no warning of the explosion, and were blown in all directions.

John Lush, brakeman, 25 years old, killed.

Andrew Walker, engineer, 25 years old, badly scalded.

Theodore Van Leuren, fireman, fatally hurt.

James Cloine, conductor, fatally hurt.

John Laffey, water boy, scalded.

DEMOCRATS IN CAUCUS.

Legislators at Albany Meet in Secret for Over Two Hours.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 7.—The Democratic members of the Assembly met in caucus last evening immediately after the adjournment of the afternoon session of the House. For over two hours they were closeted in the Assembly parlor, and it is said that heated and, at times fiery, discussions were had. The proceedings were strictly executive, and the members absolutely refuse to disclose a syllable as to what was done.

It is well understood, however, that it was agreed to support the Constitutional Convention bill, the Tammany Inspectors' bill and the Congressional Reapportionment measure. The Excise bill was taken up for consideration and a hot fight was waged over it provisions. Some of the members refused to support it under any consideration. After much discussion it was agreed to not make it a party measure, as that would be practically impossible under the circumstances.

The Strong Man's Trial.

LONDON, April 7.—Carl August Sampson, the professional "strong man," was tried at the London Sessions for stealing Margaret Bernstein's jewelry, valued at £800. The prisoner went to New York, was extradited, and after his return the woman withdrew from the case. The prosecution is now taken up by the Treasury. Among the letters read in evidence one ran thus: "Trust me ever, darling. I am truly yours. Maggie." The case was adjourned.

Hiccoughing for Eight Months.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 7.—One of the most remarkable cases of hiccoughing known is that of Miss Etta May Cox. She has been hiccoughing at the rate of 75 times a minute for eight months, except when asleep. She is so much reduced in strength and flesh that she is only a living skeleton. She came here from Troy, N. Y.

Had a Rough Time in America.

LONDON, April 7.—A dispatch from Liverpool represents Sir George Baden-Powell as saying that he had a rough time in America despite the fact that Lord Salisbury's intellect was behind him. Lord Salisbury, he is said to have added, is the superior of any statesman in America.

Diamond Dealer Arrested.

BOSTON, April 7.—William J. Knowlton, diamond dealer, of 169 Tremont street, has been arrested, charged by Michael Fox & Co., of New York, with having obtained $1,353 worth of gems from them under false pretences. Bail was fixed in $2,500.

GOVERNMENT WEATHER REPORT.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—For New Jersey: Generally fair; warmer Friday afternoon; winds becoming southerly.

LOCAL FORECAST.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, NEW YORK, April 7.—For northern New Jersey: Light rain this evening, slightly warmer, northeasterly winds. For Friday, rain, slightly warmer. For Saturday, fair, slightly cooler.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Newark Evening News, the banner newspaper of the State, is now the handsomest as well, having donned a fine new dress of handsome type.

—The Catholic Young Men's Lyceum last night defeated the German society at bowling by the score of 1335 to 1046. No lyceum tournament games were rolled.

—The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the First Baptist church will hold its regular meeting to-morrow afternoon at 2, in the lecture room of the church.

—C. Weiss is to sprinkle the streets of North Plainfield with pure water from the Supply company's mains. Boroughites should make the season's contracts with him.

—Thomas Carty, for many years with Rockfellow the grocer, has bought out the butter and egg store at 22½ North avenue and will re-stock the store with fresh goods.

—Frank Quigley of Evona and Jack Porgaux of Newark fought a prize fight near Plainfield last night. A number of Plainfielders attended. Quigley easily whipped Porgaux and took the stakes.

—The Plainfield public librarian has been authorized to extend the invitation of the board of managers to the New Jersey Library association to hold its next unengaged meeting at the Plainfield library.

—A meeting of the Literary society of the Trinity Reformed church will be held this evening in the lecture room at 8. The subject will be "Study in Old Testament Geography". A general invitation is extended.

—Next week Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Plainfield Reform club, John H. Carney will give a popular entertainment at Reform Hall, at popular prices. The entire affair will be managed by Mr. Carney, which is sufficient guarantee that it will be strictly first-class.

—Dr. Palmer M. Way, now ninety-three years of age, is said to be the oldest living Freemason in New Jersey, having been a member of the order since 1828, when he joined a lodge at Middlefield, N. Y. He was an intimate friend of J. Fenimore Cooper in the last year of the novelist's life.

—Mrs. Mary Clement Leavitt of Boston has returned to America after an absence of eight years on a missionary tour around the world as a representative of the World's W. C. T. U. She has visited 39 countries, organized 86 W. C. T. U.'s, 24 men's temperance societies, and 23 branches of the White Cross, has held over 1,600 meetings, traveled nearly 100,000 miles, and has had the services of 231 interpreters in 47 languages. She will speak in Plainfield May 31.

THE MYSTERY OF NEW YORK BAY.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS]

NEW YORK, April 7.—Deep mystery envelops the finding of the nude body of a beautiful unknown young woman in the waters of the harbor opposite Governor's Island.

The body is very much decomposed and the face is bloated and so fearfully distorted as to be extremely difficult of identification. A pair of tiny imitation diamond earrings were found fastened in the ears, and a plain gold-plated ring was worn on the wedding finger.

The fact puzzles the police that the woman was, with the exception of a pair of black cotton stockings and a buttoned boot on her left foot, entirely unclothed.

It is a genuine river mystery, and it is doubtful if a coroner's inquest will ever solve it.

CROOKER CAPTURES THE SCHOOLS.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS]

ALBANY, N. Y., April 7.—Judge Andrew S. Draper to-day retired from the position of State superintendent of public instruction, and the new superintendent, James S. Crooker, of Buffalo, took formal charge.

MEXICAN VETERANS IN ENCAMPMENT.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS]

LAS VEGAS, N. M., April 7.—The Grand Army posts of New Mexico began their annual encampment here to-day. There is a large attendance, and unusual enthusiasm. The encampment was to have been held April 5, but as that was the date fixed on for many municipal elections it was changed to April 7.

BOSTON CULTURE GOES TO THE DOGS.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS]

BOSTON, April 7.—The eighth annual bench show of the New England Kennel club will open to-morrow, and to-day a private exhibit is being held. It promises to be one of the most successful dog shows ever held, as most of the prize winners at the famous New York club exhibit are in the kennels.

GREAT BICYCLE RACE.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW YORK, April 7.—The final arrangements are being made to-day at the office of a new York sporting paper for one of the greatest bicycle matches ever held. It is to come off in May, and to-day is the final time for entries. The route is to be from Chicago to New York, via Toledo, Cleveland, Buffalo, Rochester and Albany, and has been carefully laid out by Tom Roe. Fully a hundred entries have been filed and the race is to be by "relays". The distance is to be covered in 96 hours.

WILL FAVOR HARRISON.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., April 7.—While the Republicans of Arkansas seldom enthuse over the State outlook politically, they are to-day in a position to honor their leaders by selecting them to represent the State at the Minneapolis convention. At noon to-day, the delegates were gathered together in Opera House hall, and are preparing for a short but interesting session. At the recent meeting of the State Executive committee, resolutions favoring Harrison's renomination were unanimously passed. It is altogether likely, therefore, that the delegation selected to-day will be instructed to vote in like manner.

WILL BUILD JEFF DAVIS A MONUMENT.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW ORLEANS, April 7.—New Orleans is in gala attire to-day, and will be for several days to come. While to-morrow is really the opening day of the Third Annual Confederate Veterans' reunion, the old soldiers are crowding into the city to-day from all over the South, and it is confidently believed that every city and county of note will be represented. General Commander J. B. Gorden, Adjutant General Moorman, and the Executive Committee, are meeting to-day and perfecting all arrangements for the great convention. Its objects are to secure careful consideration as to the best methods of compiling important history, and to enlist each State in the compilation and preservation of the history of her citizen soldiery; the benevolent care through State aid and otherwise of disabled, destitute or aged veterans and the widows and orphans; the care of the graves of known and unknown dead buried at Gettysburg, Fort Warren, Camps Morton, Chase, Douglas, Oakwood cemetery, at Chicago; Johnson's Island, Cairo, and at all other points; to see that they are annually decorated, the headstones preserved and protected, and complete lists of the names of dead heroes with the location of their last resting place furnished to their friends and relatives through the medium of camps, thus rescuing their names from oblivion and handing them down in history; the consideration of the different movements, plans and means to erect a monument to the memory of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederate States of America, also to aid in building monuments to other great leaders, soldiers and sailors of the South. The convention will close April 9.

PARTICULAR MENTION

Justice J. Oakley Nodyne, who has so long been seriously ill, is once more able to attend to his office duties.

A very happy home is that of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley S. Miller—especially since the advent of a bright baby boy, who arrived this afternoon at 2.

The music on Decoration Day at the Opera House, will be rendered by the Holy Cross choir with an additional chorus of one hundred girls, under the direction of W. H. Miner.

The marriage of Miss Alice Holmes, daughter of Capt. A. D. Holmes of this city, and John Faxon, of Fitchburg, Mass., will take place Thursday evening, the 21st inst., in the Crescent Avenue church, at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Jessie Maud Clum, daughter of William H. Clum of Leland avenue, was married at 12 noon, yesterday, to Stewart B. Todd, a leading grocer at Westfield. The happy young people are now on a tour, and will make Westfield their home.

The Rev. Samuel Jessup, D. D., will speak in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue church Friday evening at 8, on "Mission Work in Syria", illustrating the subject by stereopticon views from all parts of the field. Admission will be free.

Counselor William K. McClure of this city is prominently mentioned for the office of county attorney. He has the backing of such men of character and influence as R. V. Lindabury, and deserves any honor the county has in its power to bestow.

The M. E. conference appointments in which Plainfielders are interested are as follows: Plainfield M. E church—the Rev. C. B. Mitchell; Dunellen—the Rev. W. C. Kinsey; Scotch Plains—to be supplied; Westfield—Wesley Martin; the Rev. Dr. J. L. Hurlbut, corresponding secretary of the Sunday-school Union and Tract society of the Methodist Episcopal church, and member of Plainfield Quarterly conference.

The Rev. John Gardner Hale of Redlands, Cal., who died March 23, after a brief illness, in his sixty-ninth year, was a retired minister, and a brother of the famous old-time journalist, Thomas Hale of this city. He was one of a large and distinguished family. Among his brothers are the Hon. Matthew Hale, a prominent lawyer in Albany, the late Hon. Robert S. Hale of Essex county, New York, and Henry Hale of St. Paul, all of whom were graduates of the University of Vermont.

The Rev. Dr. Richards and the Rev. Dr. Yerkes officiated at the funeral yesterday of the little daughters of the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dunn of Albany. There was a large attendance of friends from this city, New York, Brooklyn and elsewhere, and all were visibly touched by the occasion and the services. The bodies of the little girls lay in white caskets covered with roses and lilies. They were interred at Hillside. Mrs. J. K. Myers, Miss Holmes, and Messrs. Gavett and Smith sang.

Somerville Amateurs Just Dying to Get at Plainfield's Bicycle Ball Players.

Last Saturday evening, at Somerville, the men who formerly wielded the willow in an effort to win games for the West Ends, called a meeting and formed a strictly amateur base-ball club. It will be known as the "Unions" and will play on the West End grounds the days the professional team is away from home. Frelinghuysen, Major, Davenport and Conkling will play on this team, and they expect to vanquish all who cross their path. They would especially like to hear from the Plainfield Bicycle club.

I highly recommend Salvation Oil; it has done more for my wife in one night than physicians have accomplished in years. FRED. A. SCHULZE,

You don't get what you want, if you expect to buy Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines at less than the regular prices. You can buy counterfeits, imitations, dilutions, and substitutes, from unauthorized dealers, at what are called "cut prices," but the genuine guaranteed medicines cost more, and are worth more.

If you do get the genuine, they're the cheapest medicines you can buy, for they're guaranteed in every case to benefit or cure, or you have your money back.

But you won't get the genuine, except through druggists regularly authorized as agents, and at the following uniform and long-established prices:

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (the remedy for all diseases arising from a torpid liver, or impure blood), $1.00 per bottle.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (the remedy for woman's chronic weaknesses and derangements), $1.00 per bottle.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets (the original and best little Liver Pills), 25 cents per vial.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

TO BENEFIT CHILD-WIDOWS.

Plainfield's Ramabai Circle Planning to Enlarge Its Usefulness.

The fifth annual meeting of the Ramabai Circle of Plainfield was held in the Congregational church yesterday afternoon. The president, Mrs. S. J. Taylor, was in the chair, and a number of members attended.

After the usual routine of business was finished, the secretary read a letter from Pundita Ramabai which gave very encouraging information concerning the progress of her school for child-widows. The number of her pupils has increased fifty per cent. during the past year, and her philanthropic work is beginning to receive friendly recognition from orthodox Brahmins. A very interesting incident was detailed in the Pundita's letter, in proof of the last statement.

Since the last meeting of the circle, property had been bought in Poona, and the Sharada Sadana, as the school is named, is to be happily provided with all the facilities at present needed for a successful prosecution of its work.

The secretary also read an appreciative notice of the school sent by a lady, a native of India, to the Madras Mail. In concluding, the writer says: "Pundita Ramabai's work is national in its effects, for the widows that she is training are sure to take the lead in the emancipation of the women of India. They have no demands on their time, no ties, and if they can make life more useful, more intellectually, innocently happy, the married women would be sure to follow, and make life in their homes worth living."

The Ramabai Circle of this city, it was stated at the meeting, numbers sixty at present, the list having been reduced somewhat by death and other causes. Some new names were added yesterday, and a special effort will be made the current year to increase the membership.

BRET HARTE'S SON.

He Has Retired From Newspaper Work to Become a Developer of New Towns.

The Philadelphia Press, the Brooklyn Standard-Union, and a number of other prominent papers of the United States, printed the following in their editions of a week ago Sunday, concerning a young man well known in this city, where he resided many years, and where his mother and sister still have their home:

Those whose business brings them into the vicinity of Park Row, New York, where the great newspapers are concentrated, often see a young man of about 30 whose long hair and unkempt beard suggest a cross between a poet and an Anarchist with studious tendencies. Although some would be attracted to him by his personal appearance, none would think of him as the son of Bret Harte. Yet he is—Griswold Harte, now quite a successful worker on the prominent New York dailies. Some who know him personally even do not suspect the relationship from the name, since young Harte in no wise depends or trades upon the reputation of his father to make a success. He lives quietly in Brooklyn, and during the day is employed in journalism. He resembles his father only in physique, being tall and inclined to angularity. He leaves his hair to its own sweet will, because of a sensitiveness to cold. In summer, the locks of the winter are shorn. He is very popular among his associates, is liked by all, makes friends easily and holds them as readily.

Griswold Harte is Bret Harte's eldest son. He was born in San Francisco, and gained his first experience as a journalist on a paper which he started among the Catskill Mountains when he came East. The paper was not a success; or, as young Harte says, the subscribers would not even pay their subscriptions in cabbages and potatoes. But he worked his apprenticeship, and now does clever work as a writer on the staffs of the "Tribune," the "Sun," the "World," and other papers. He is just about to begin a series of sketches of "Life in New York City" for a syndicate of papers, and intends later to take charge of the Cuban end of the new Mexican-Cuban Press News Association which is under organization in New York. He will then have his headquarters at Havana. Young Harte is married, and is the father of one little girl.

Since the above was written, Mr. Harte tells a PRESS reporter that he has given up a literary life—at least temporarily—and opened a real estate office on Broad street, Elizabeth, where he is engaged in booming the new town of Aldine. Anyone who wants to buy a fine location for a suburban home at but little cost, would do well to call on, or write to, Mr. Harte at that city.

A Pleasant Farewell Surprise.

F. M. Hulett, the West Front street music dealer, was with Mrs. Hulett given a pleasant farewell surprise party, last Friday night, at his old home in Pottsville, Pa. The local paper speaks of the event as follows:

"F. M. Hulett, the well-known music dealer, and wife left for Plainfield, N. J., on Tuesday morning, where he has opened a large music store. Although loth to leave their large circle of old friends, who part with them very regretfully, business advantages necessitate their departure.

"On Friday evening a number of their friends called upon them in a body and tendered them a pleasant surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Hulett, as host and hostess, acted their parts well and made their guests enjoy themselves in every respect. Mr. Yoder tendered them the freedom of his spacious hall, and many tripped the light fantastic to the beautiful strains of Weston's orchestra. Refreshments were served at 12. Those present numbered more than one hundred."

A PLAINFIELD MAN DID IT.

To Ex-Mayor Randolph Is Due the Credit for Successful Management of the Tilden Millions.

To ex-Mayor L. V. F. Randolph of this city is due much of the credit of the successful administration of the Tilden estate. Mr. Randolph became associated with the executors soon after the death of Mr. Tilden in 1886. That he has been invaluable to them in many ways is proved by the fact that he will continue to aid them in their administrative duties in connection with the so-called "Tilden Trust". The business of the estate is nearly closed, but the duties of the trustees of the great two-million-dollar library have hardly been begun. After the completion of the "accounting" of the executors with the Tilden heirs, a few days ago, the Hon John Bigelow tendered to Mr. Randolph a handsome testimonial of regard in the form of letter which congratulated him upon his very excellent work done in connection with the estate. At the same time Mr. Randolph was invited to remain as controller of the "Tilden Trust". He has accepted this very flattering offer, and is peculiarly well-fitted to assist in the formation and conduct of a library such as the executors contemplate giving the New York public.

The Tilden executors' accounting will show that the estate has increased two million dollors. In this connection the following from the New York Tribune of to-day will be of interest:

That the estate of Samuel J. Tilden has been administered with success and economy is proved by the accounting which the executors will present to the Surrogate's Court or to the Supreme Court, within a few days. The executors have spared no effort to secure for the people of New York a great public library, and have at the same time managed with care, success and profit the large amount of money and property intrusted to them by the will of Governor Tilden.

The executors are John Bigelow, formerly Minister to France under President Lincoln; Andrew H. Green, formerly Controller of the City of New York, and George W. Smith, who was Mr. Tilden's confidential secretary. They have been assisted in their administrative work by L. V. F. Randolph, formerly treasurer of the Illinois Central railroad.

In spite of the litigation expenses (including all the various litigations in which Governor Tilden himself was engaged at the time of his death, and which he bequeathed to his executors), and of all the various necessary expenses attending the administration, the estate has increased in the executors' hands more than $2,000,000. Part of this has come from prudent realizations of property at advantageous prices, and part of it from income on carefully chosen investments.

Not a dollar of interest due the estate is uncollected. After protracted examination by expert accountants, representing the heirs, of the transactions of the estate, it is found that not an error has been made, and not a dollar has been lost or wasted, and not a single piece of property has been sold by the executors for less than the value set upon it originally by the official appraisers.

The original appraisement of this estate was about $5,000,000. From this amount of property about $1,000,000 was set aside for "special trusts" under the will, for the benefit of Mr. Tilden's relatives and a few friends named in his will. To the remainder of about $4,000,000 has been added, as stated, something over $2,000,000 of profits and income, together making the main body of the estate, exclusive of special trusts, not far from $6,000,000. Of this amount, one-half now goes, under the majority decision of the Court of Appeals, to the six children of Henry A. Tilden. From the other half was paid, some months before to the final decision of the Court, about $1,000,000, to Mrs. Laura Pelton Hazard, who was sole heir to one-half of the estate not lawfully disposed of in the will of the testator.

This sum was paid to Mrs. Hazard under an arrangement with the "Tilden Trust" as a compromise to her claim. What remained of this half, after this payment to Mrs. Hazard, amounted to about $2,000,000, including real estate. This remainder of Mrs. Hazard's share belongs now to the "Tilden Trust", which is the name given by Mr. Tilden to the public library corporation. The division just made by the persons interested is of personal property only, and the share of the "Tilden Trust" out of this is about $1,800,000. Some real estate remains to be divided, and a few minor questions growing out of the will are still to be passed upon by the courts. So far as the administration of the estate is concerned, it may be safely said that few large estates can show so successful and satisfactory a record.

The real estate not yet disposed of consists chiefly of Governor Tilden's two houses, the one at Nos. 14 and 15 Gramercy Park, and the other his favorite house known as Graystone. The latter is especially a home which may appropriately be characterized as "princely". It is situated within the city limits of Yonkers, and has, perhaps, the finest outlook of any home in that handsome suburban city. From the windows one may see the Hudson as far up as Peekskill, and look down New York bay to Staten Island. The grounds comprise upwards of 100 acres, and are studded with many noble trees, including the famous Tilden Oak. The green-houses and graperies are extensive, and filled with handsome plants and vines. The mansion contains about forty rooms, many of which are remarkably spacious and beautiful.

DECORUM ON RAILWAY TRAINS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Judging from the communication in last night's issue of your paper, signed "Another Commuter", it is the opinion of that writer that Joseph Aicher, conductor of the 12:15 night train from New York, fulfills his duty to his company and to the public when he makes things pleasant for such of his passengers as may be intoxicated. I am sure no one has any objection to Mr. Aicher's befriending those whose indiscreet potations have rendered them helpless: it is a pitiful fact that not a few Plainfielders do come home on the 12:15 train in a most disreputable condition, and far be it from me to censure Mr. Aicher for kindly attentions to these misguided unfortunates. But does n't "Another Commuter" carry too far his zeal for the intoxicated minority, and thus blind himself to what is due the sober, decent and orderly majority who have occasion to use Mr. Aicher's Blue Line?

I happened to be a passenger on the 12:15 train the night of March 31, and in common with a number of other Plainfield people can testify that the statements published in THE PRESS of April 1, concerning Mr. Aicher's disregard of the comfort of passengers who were disturbed by an intoxicated individual, were true—Mr. Aicher's denial, and "Another Commuter's" belief in that denial, to the contrary notwithstanding.

It is a fact that to my mind is not to Mr. Aicher's credit that among those who travel much on the 12:15 he has the reputation of being so friendly to the disturbing element that he becomes inattentive and neglectful towards the quiet-loving travelers. Mr. Aicher is of course free to choose his class of associates, but his duty as a conductor is to see that gentleness and quiet prevail on his train. If a passenger be boisterous and obnoxious to the orderly passengers it is the conductor's duty to quell the fellow. If the recalcitrant will not be subdued, then the conductor owes it to the company and the public whose servant he is, and to his own dignity and manhood, to eject unceremoniously the disturber from the train. In any event, the disorder must be suppressed—but it was not on the occasion in question, nor was any effort made by Mr. Aicher towards suppression. Yet the disorder was of a nature such as would have resulted in the individual's arrest and imprisonment, had it occurred on the public street. The one question at issue is whether or not Mr. Aicher was guilty of neglect of duty. "Another Commuter" thinks that he was not. But "Another Commuter's" opinion is that of a man who was n't there.

"Another Commuter" remarks emphatically that Mr. Aicher is a gentleman. That assertion I shall not attempt to confute. But I cannot help remarking that there were good women on his train on the night of March 31, who would have had higher regard for his gentlemanly qualities had he suppressed as he ought the unmannerly fellow who drove quiet and comfort from the car which held his carcass.

It is possible that the inattention in question is the only mistake in Mr. Aicher's entire official career. I ride but infrequently on his train, and am not familiar with the suppressed orgies which "Another Commuter" speak of so intimately. This one particular maudlin outburst, however, was permitted to continue all the way to Plainfield, without Mr. Aicher's once offering to interfere. He in fact seemed pleased rather than otherwise at what he appeared to consider a diversion to his routine life. The disorder was of a most disagreeable nature, and not only women but men were distressed by it. Mr. Aichers certainly deserves discredit for his apathy in the matter.

The letter of "Another Commuter" is apt to give the impression that the 12:15 train is patronized mostly by inebriated Plainfielders returning from a night's spree. Such a reputation for that Blue Line would be unjust, for it is very often the only train that reputable people in theatre parties can catch, and most of its patrons are people deserving of what their tickets call for—"first-class passage". Passage is not first-class when a boor or rowdy is permitted to rule the car. A train which is apt to have a superabundance of the intoxicated element such as "Another Commuter" so feelingly writes about is just the train that needs a conductor not only gentle but firm and full of grit—one who will not court a personal encounter but who nevertheless will not be afraid to exert himself and exercise his functions in defense of those who senses are aggrieved and whose rights are abused.

If Mr. Aicher will permit me, I should like to congratulate him on the valiant zeal and unconditional laudation of his friend "Another Commuter"; and while deprecating the conductor's undoubted mistake of March 31, I sincerely hope that he will recognize and repent of his error, and by future devotion strictly to duty win the regard of all people whose respect and esteem are desirable.

Glory on the Park Club Banners.

The Union County Country club met its third defeat—and a bad one—from the Park club bowlers last night. Dr. Thiers bowled especially well—for a game-legged man. The score:

PARK CLUB.		UNION COUNTY CLUB.
Matthews	98	Brooks	121
Bartling	144	Herring	108
Rogers	129	Kimball	132
Boome	118	Booth	96
Reed	150	Mason	121
Townsend	127	Wharton	111

Sandford	137	Wilcox	149
Thiers	204	Flemming	124
	1275		1295

This ends the series, the Park club having won three successive games. The evening of April 18 two five-men teams from each club will contest.

Smashed the Doctor's Rig.

Dr. Cooper of Westfield, who attends to Dr. Field's patients during the absence of the latter from Plainfield, was run into by a runaway team drawing one of Rickett's trucks, on Broadway, Monday afternoon. The team ran into the carriage from the back, one horse going on each side; and the pole crashed through the doctor's carriage, striking him in the back. Though entirely unprepared for such an attack in the rear, the doctor did not lose his presence of mind, but urged his horse ahead and got clear of the runaways. His carriage was pretty badly bent and torn, and one shaft was broken.

The doctor himself was not scratched, but patched things up and drove home. By the time he reached Westfield the doctor looked upon the affair as a good joke and was laughing about it. It is a trait of the doctor's character that he can enjoy almost anything.

Manager Pucci Gets His Money.

Every effort is being made by the duped certificate holders of the "late" National Custom Clothing company to get back some of their money, but the only victim who seems to have succeeded thus far is manager Pucci of the New Jersey Postal Telegraph company. Yesterday the office furniture of the Elizabeth branch, seized by manager Pucci, was sold by constable Carey. There were few bidders. The desk was purchased by Chief Astfalk for $22. Superintendent Root, of the Telephone company, bought the railing and chairs, and a newspaper correspondent invested twenty-five cents in the few yards of carpet. The proceeds satisfied the claim of Mr. Pucci, and left a balance.

The School Ma'ams All at Somerville.

The Teachers' Institute was opened at Somerville to-day for a three days' session—Hon. James J. Bergen making the welcome address. About four hundred pretty "school marms" of both Hunterdon and Somerset counties thronged the streets during the early morning hours, or until the time of convention, when they wended their way to the only opera house in the town—"Somerset Hall". There for the next three days they will read papers, deliver essays and enter into debates—of course not the whole four hundred, but the brightest ones. During these three days the county schools all are closed.

Plainfield Veterans at a Banquet.

Senator John Sherman delivered before the New York Commandery of the Loyal Legion, assembled around Delmonico's tables last night, an address and warm eulogy on William Tecumseh Sherman.

The regular meeting of the Loyal Legion, for the election of officers and the transaction of other routine business, was held before the veterans sat down to the banquet. A large number of notables was present, and Plainfield was represented by John E. Stewart, Dr. F. S. Wells, J. F. Hubbard, W. D. W. Miller and S. C. Peck.

Is the Jersey Central's Charter in Danger?

It was stated at Philadelphia yesterday that Attorney-General Stockton, of New Jersey, would at once begin suit to annul the charters of the New Jersey Central and Port Reading railroads for violating the law of 1885, which permits railroads to consolidate only after filing notice in the office of the Secretary of State and obtaining permission from the Legislature. The Reading officials were informed of this statement, but they serenely made light of the matter and declined to go into details.

TREES ON A TOWER.

A Grove of Maples on the Greensburg (Ind.) Courthouse Tower.

The town of Greensburg, Ind., has a curiosity of which its citizens are justly proud, and in which strangers are always interested. The spectacle of a fine grove of young maples growing and flourishing on the top of the courthouse tower, one hundred and thirty-five feet above ground, is certainly unique.

The accompanying picture, taken for the New York World, gives the reader a fair idea of the relative size of the trees on the tower. For years they have grown and multiplied. There they have stood unprotected from the scorching rays of the summer sun and the cold and freezing blasts of winter. No human hand has ever watered or cared for them. They have depended solely on the elements for their nourishment.

In the fierce thunder-storms of the summer season the lightning often plays among their leaves. The tempests toss and wave their branches, but nature has dealt gently with them after all.

THE TREES ON THE TOWER.

A short time ago the courthouse was repaired, and the architect decided that the roots of the largest tree, which is about twelve feet tall and three inches in diameter at the butt, were loosening the heavy sandstone cappings of the tower. He declared that in the interest of public safety and the future welfare of the tower the tree must be removed. As soon as the intentions of the architect became known the citizens protested against the proposed action, and in response to the popular wish the grove was left untouched.

How the trees came to grow on this elevated and unproductive spot is a problem that has never been satisfactorily solved. The tower, as stated, is 135 feet high, and is composed of solid brick and stone masonry. The top is covered with heavy sandstone bedded in cement. The prevailing theory is that seeds of the maple were carried either by birds or the wind and deposited in the crevices of the masonry. Here they sprouted and, watered by the dew and warmed by the sun, grew and flourished like the proverbial peach.

NEEDED IT BADLY.

A Rounder and Cab Driver Meet at the Right Time.

He stopped a well-dressed man who had evidently been out for a night with the boys, says the Chicago Tribune, and said:

"I'm in need of a little financial help."

"Go 'way," said the well-dressed man.

"Wait a minute," returned the other. "I want to make a business proposition. I need fifty cents, and need it bad."

"No time to fool with beggars," protested the well-dressed man.

"This is no begging trick; this is business," persisted the stranger. "I need half a dollar, and you need a cab."

"What are you talking about?" asked the man who had been out with "the boys."

"Business; nothing but business. You need a cab as bad as I do the half dollar. I've got the cab. Have you got the half?"

IN NEED OF A LITTLE HELP.

The well-dressed man looked at the other intently for a moment. Then he said:

"Say! I guess you're right. I've got the half."

"Cab's just around the corner," said the stranger.

He took the well-dressed man to it and helped him in.

"I was just wondering what I needed," said the latter. "Sort of thought it was another drink, but I guess you're right about its being a cab."

And so he went home.

An Elevated Railroad.

A remarkable piece of engineering work is the tunnel of the Parana Oroys railroad through an Andean mountain peak at Galera, Pern. It is at an elevation of 600 feet above the perpetual snow line and is to be 3,847 feet long. It is the highest railroad tunnel in the world and is located in the highest inhabited region in the world. The town of Galres is 15,635 feet above the sea level, nearly 1,500 feet higher than the hotel on the top of Pike's Peak.

WELDING THE CHAIN

WAS KNOWN AS "THE DEMON."

He Was in London at the Time of Mrs. Eddowes' Murder.

A Surgeon Who Conducted the Post Mortem Examinations at Rainhill Adds Strength to the Theory—He Says it Was the Work of an Expert—A Letter From Melbourne Scows that Deeming Was Skilled in the Use of Medicine.

LONDON, April 8.—The evidence pointing to the identity of Deeming with Jack the Ripper is growing stronger here. Deeming's appearance is found to tally almost exactly with the authentic description of the Ripper recorded at Scotland Yard.

This description was given by a man who left the Duke Street Club House on the night of September 30, 1888, shortly before the murder of Mrs. Eddowes, the Ripper's sixth victim.

Shortly before reaching Mitre square he noticed a man and woman in the Mitre passage. The woman was Mrs. Eddowes. The man was about 35 years old, square shouldered and had a heavy moustache. It is certain, moreover, that Deeming was in London at the time.

The only statement to the contrary is made by Detective Brandt, who says that to the best of his recollection, Deeming was then in the Transvaal. This statement, however, is discredited by reports from the Cape.

Dr. Creighton Hutchinson, one of the surgeons who conducted the post mortem examinations at Rainhill, in an interview, adds strength to the Jack the Ripper theory.

He says that the work was that of an expert; in only one case was the stroke which caused death more than sufficient for the purpose. It severed the vital organ and no more, and might have been accomplished by a surgeon or a butcher who knew his business well.

The last letter sent by Deeming's Melbourne victim to her mother showed that Deeming was skilled in the use of medicine, and it is believed by many that if occasion arose he would have shown that he was equally skilled in the use of surgical instruments.

Every day evidence comes to light to show the character of Deeming, and it is a matter of surprise, cunning though he was, that he should have pursued his career of crime so long undetected.

A man who worked with Deeming ten years ago stated that he was then known among his fellow workers as a vindictive and treacherous character, and that he went by the nickname of "The Demon."

At the inquest Thursday the name of the wife of the murderer, whose body, together with those of her four children, was found under the floor at Dinham Villa, at Rainhill, near Liverpool, was mentioned at the hearing for the first time, and was identified by witnesses by means of a photograph.

DEEMING DEFIANT.

The Coroner's Jury Finds Deeming Guilty of Willful Murder.

MELBOURNE, April 8.—The coroner's jury has delivered a verdict of wilful murder against Frederick B. Deeming, in the case of the wife, formerly Miss Mather, whom he married at Rainhill, England, and whom he murdered and buried at Windsor, a suburb of Melbourne, on or about last Christmas day

Deeming received the verdict with a defiant air.

Boston Narrowly Escapes Defeat.

BOSTON, April 8.—The baseball season was opened in Boston yesterday. There was a crowd of 6,100 persons at the South End Grounds, exceeding by 2,000 all previous records for the Fast Day game. The Bostons played three batteries, and narrowly escaped defeat at the hands of the college boys. The sympathies of the crowd were with the latter, and their really fine play was greatly admired. When Kelly struck out in the sixth inning, the only time he went to the bat, he was guyed. Bets were made that Yale would defeat Harvard when the come together. Score: Boston, 3; Yale, 2.

Treason to Favor Annexation.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 8.—Minister of Militia Bowell has taken steps to have Lieut. A. E. MacDonald, of the Twelfth Battalion, Toronto, removed from the military list for having declared himself in favor of the annexation of Canada to the United States. MacDonald is a candidate for a seat in the Ontario Legislature and announced that he enters the contest on the platform of a political union between Canada and the United States. His fellow-officers, who have preferred the charges against him, regard this as treason.

A Little Girl May Die of Fright.

PITTSBURG, April 8.—Cora Vanora of Allegheny, aged 13, was coming down stairs last Friday, carrying her little sister, nine months old, when she slipped and fell. The infant's skull was fractured and it died. Cora's little friends told her she would be hanged and this so worried her that she contracted a raging fever, lost her reason and it is feared she will die.

One Killed, Two Injured.

SHENNANDOAH, Pa., April 8. — By an explosion of gas at the Glendon colliery yesterday afternoon Thomas W. Williams was instantlo killed and John Phillips and John Myson seriously injured. The explosion was caused by a spark from a drill with which they were drilling a hole, igniting a pillow of gas. They were not to enter a chamber till the gas had been removed.

ENO ARRESTED.

The Lawrence, Mass., Wife Murderer Tells Different Stories.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 8.—Peter Eno the wife murderer for whom the police have vainly searched since Tuesday night the eve of his crime, has been captured The arrest was made under strange circumstances.

Eno, it appears, has been wandering aimlessly about town since the commission of the murder, and he presented himself at the police station as a vagrant, giving the name of Charles Little.

In appearance he has greatly changed since last Tuesday, having grown emaciated, seedy and dusty, and it is no great wonder that under these circumstances the police in the station failed to recognize the man they were so actively engaged in searching for.

Yesterday, however, when seen by the light of day, he pas recognized as he was above to leave the station and locked up. When the arrest was made he confessed his identify, and said: "I killed the woman and I should do it again. I am the man you want, lock me up."

A little later he told a different story. He said that he met the woman Tuesday evening and she attempted to shoot him with a pistol she had. He wrested the weapon from her, and during the struggle it exploded and she was shot.

He says that he never married his victim and that she knew he had a wife before they began living together.

SULLIVAN'S TRAIN MOBBED.

Duncan Harrison Arrested for Knocking a Man Down.

CLINTON, Ill., April 8.—When the train bearing the Harrison-Sullivan combination, on the Illinois Central Railroad, arrived here yesterday en route for Decatur, a great mob of men rushed into the cars.

In passing through the cars, W. H. Kelly, of Clinton, tripped and fell into the lap of Duncan B. Harrison, who was seated playing cards. In the row which followed Harrison claimed Kelly struck him in the face. Harrison knocked Kelly down twice and out of the car. Then a general row was imminent, when the town marshal boarded the car with cocked pistol and arrested Harrison.

When John L. Sullivan demanded of the marshal to show his warrant, the latter declared he would arrest him, too. The champion was about to make things lively, when his better judgment prevailed. Harrison was fined $38.

The Man Who Hung Mrs. Surratt Insane.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 8.—Capt. Chris Rath, who hanged Mrs. Surratt and other Lincoln conspirators in Washington, was suddenly bereft of reason Tuesday night on the run to Jackson with the mail train. He has been mail agent for twenty years between here and Jackson and made the latter place his headquarters. Tuesday night it was noticed he did not throw the mail off and an investigation found him in the car surrounded by the bags staring wildly at vacancy. He was provost of Washington at the close of the war and retained a vivid recollection of the hanging of the conspirators.

The President Goes South.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The President, accompanied by Dr. George W. Boyd of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and Lieut. J. F. Parker, left Washingeon at 10 o'clock last night for New Church, Accomack county, Va. They go first to Wilmington, Del., thence by rail through the State of Delaware, to New Church, on the Chesapeake. The President will remain Friday and Saturday, returning here either late Saturday night or Monday morning.

Denies the Statement.

TRENTON, N. J., April 8.—The attorney-general of the State made the statement yesterday afternoon that he had not authorized any one to make any communication in regard to suits against the Central Railroad of New Jersey and the Port Richmond Railroad for the annulment of their charters, nor had he expressed to any one that he had any intention to commence such a suit; also, that he had not such intention.

Not the Haverstraw Dr. Crawford.

NYACK, N. Y., April 8.—The Grand Army post at Haverstraw has investigated the case of John Crawford, who was drowned in Florida on March 21, and finds that he was not the missing Dr. Crawford of Haverstraw. From certain information it is now the general belief that the missing doctor is still alive.

Struck by a Train and Killed.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., April 8.—Irving A Howe, aged 50, manufacturer of the "Hub" shirt, 383 Washington street, Boston, was struck by a train at the Fairmount crossing of the New York, Providence & Boston road here Wednesday evening and instantly killed.

The Telephone Bill Killed.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 8.—The adverse report of the Committee on the Malone bill to create a telephone commission for New York and Brooklyn has been agreed to by the Assembly—75 to 40. A motion to reconsider was lost. This kills the bill.

NETTLETON LEAVES

Secretary Foster Transfers the Immigration Business.

MR. SPAULDING IN CHARGE.

The Change Made at Mr. Nettleton's Request.

He Will be Gone from Washington Two Weeks, and it is Understood That He Will Enter Private Business at the End of That Time—Before Leaving He Addressed a Letter to Immigration Commissioner Weber.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Nettleton has left Washington, to be absent two or three weeks. It is understood that Mr. Nettleton, at the expiration of that time, will enter into private business, a step which he has postponed for the past month because of the pending Congressional investigation into Ellis Island.

At the request of Mr. Nettleton, Secretary Foster transferred the emigration business of the Treasury Department, heretofore under his charge, to Assistant Secretary Spaulding.

Prior to leaving, Assistant Secretary Nettleton addressed the following letter to Colonel Weber, superintendent of immigration at New York:

"Dear Sir—On the 16th ultimo I addressed you a letter which seemed to imply criticism of your official course in landing certain classes of immigrants upon receiving the assurance of persons or societies that they should not become a public charge. That letter correctly stated the attitude of this department on the main question referred to, which is that whenever an immigrant is found upon inspection to be likely to become a public charge, he will not be landed because of any written or oral assurance of any person or society, except upon distinct written authorization of the Secretary of the Treasury. But your subsequent oral explanations have convinced me that we did not place the same construction on certain language of your former letter, which furnished the basis of mine.

"In your communication, after referring to certain destitute alien immigrants who had been landed by the authority of the Superintendent of Immigration at Washington, upon the guaranty of certain parties that they would not become a public charge, you used this language: 'These aliens in question would be considered in the catagory of persons likely to become a public charge.'

"From this language, and from the fact that these cases had been held up and referred to the Department at all, I fully understood that they had been duly inspected, found to be persons likely to become a public charge, and yet had been finally landed contrary to law, upon the assurance of some charitable society that they should not in fact become a burden upon the public. This understanding of mine was not modified by your next sentence, to wit; 'The determination of this likelihood depends upon the circumstances surrounding the case in point.'

"You now explain that the misleading reference of these cases to the Department was an error committed during your temporary absence. You further explain that the language first above quoted from your letter means simply that these particular immigrants, being otherwise eligible, were persons whose status on final inspection would be properly considered in connection with the provision of law, excluding persons likely to become a public charge. You further inform me that at the date of your action, and of your letter, you were not aware of the Department circular fixing the authority of the Superintendent of Immigration.

"In the light of this explanation there was, of course, nothing in your official action calling for criticism, and I cheerfully make the correction. My letter to you was based upon the statement contained in the first quotation from your language herein given, and upon the attendant circumstances."

Democratic Executive Committeemen.

WASHINGTON, April 8. — Chairman Mitchell of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, has reported the following Executive Committee to manage the details of the Committee's work: J. R. McCreary, Kentucky; J. F. Andrew, Massachusetts; J. R. Whiting, Michigan; C. A. O. McClellan, Indiana; William Mutchler, Pennsylvania; Benton McMillin, Tennessee; Thomas J. Geary, Cala; John D. Alderson, West Virginia; George Johnston, South Carolina and Thos. Bowman, Iowa.

A Timely Poem of Whitmans Found.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8. — There has been found among the papers of Walt Whitman a poem on the landing of Columbus, which is said to have great literary merit. It is the intention of Mr. Horace L. Traubel, the literary executor of Whitman, to offer the poem to the World's Fair managers.

FOUL PLAY CHARGED.

A Young Woman's Body to be Exhumed.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 8.—A. Q. Martin and S. M. Enerich, of Debanon county, arrived in this city yesterday and charged that their niece, Ada R Elbersole, who was buried at Milton Grove, this county, on March 28, had been foully dealt with, and demanded that her remains be disinterred and an investigation be made.

Miss Elbersole died at Dalton, O., and her remains were brought East by her stepfather, Harry R. Weinman, with whom she lived, and who is suspected of having caused her death.

Mr. Weinman's peculiar actions and different stories he told of the girl's death, and the fact that he would allow no one to come East with him with the body, aroused suspicion.

Investigation has disclosed that the girl, who was in excellent health, was only sick two days, and that as soon as she complained of being ill, and before a doctor was called, Weinman said she would die.

Mr. Weinman said that a post mortem was held at Dalton, and that five doctors who attended found the lining of her stomach punctured with small holes, but could not find the cause for her strange and sudden death.

The reason assigned by the relatives for the foul play is that Mr. Weinman desired to obtain possession of his stepdaughter's money. She had been left a good-sized bequest by her grandfather, and as she was to have been married soon it is thought that Weinman resorted to crime to prevent the money from escaping from his grasp. The body will be disinterred and a thorough investigation made.

WORK FOR CUSTOMS OFFICERS.

Must Now Distinguish Between Certain Goods from San Domingo and Hayti.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Assistant Secretary Spaulding has instructed Collectors of Customs to exercise great caution in identifying the products of San Domingo and Hayti as under existing conditions certain specified products of San Domingo are exempt from duty on importation into the United States and certain specified products of Hayti are subject to duty on importation into the United States.

This order is made necessary by the fact that the United States has a reciprocity treaty with San Domingo while the reciprocity treaty with Hayti has been suspended by the recent proclamation of the President.

The difficulty of distinguishing the products of the two countries will be apparent when it is stated that sugar from San Domingo is not dutiable upon importation into the United States, while sugar from Hayti is.

Rhode Island's Complete Returns.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 8.—Complete returns of the State elections give Brown, (Rep.), 229 majority over Wardwell, (Dem.) Melville Bull, (Rep.), is elected Lieutenant-Governor by 1,081 majority. George H. Utter has 287 majority, and is re-elected Secretary of State. No election for General Treasurer. Samuel Clark, (Rep.), lacking 147 of a majority. Root W. Burbank, (Rep.), lacks 607 of a majority for Attorney-General. The total vote cast was 54,690. The Legislature has a Republican majority of 14 on a joint ballot, not counting the Lieutenant-Governor, who votes in the Senate.

Knocked Out in Four Rounds.

NEW HAVEN, Conn, April 8.—Charlie Moore, of Utica, N. Y., met Lettie Leighton, of Hartford, in the ring with four ounce gloves, and in four fierce rounds succeeded in knocking him out. It was a lightweight battle, the men fighting at catch weights, Moore being some six pounds heavier than Leighton. The place of meeting was the Allegro Club House, in this city, but the affair was conducted so quietly that the police knew nothing of it.

Cruel Revenge.

DUBLIN, April 8.—An evicted tenant has again been avenged by a terrible outrage. On a farm on the Clanricarde estate, now occupied by a police pensioner, but from which the previous occupant had been evicted, fifty ewes have just been found with their legs broken. The unfortunate animals, although in the greatest agony, were, when discovered, still endeavoring to suckle their lambs.

German Exports to America.

BERLIN, April 8.—The report of Germany's exports to the United States for the first quarter of 1892 show a large falling off, especially in the North German trade. As compared with the exports of 1891 for the corresponding period, the decrease in the district of the Berlin Consul-General is 8,000,000 marks. In Hanover the increase is 64,000; Plauen, 280,000; Dresden, 580,000; Gera 600,000.

The Coming Billiard Contest.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The forthcoming contest between Frank C. Ives and George Slosson for the championship at 14-inch balk-line billiards will take place in the Central Music Hall in this city Saturday, May 21. At a meeting between the representatives of the Eastern champion and Ives the date was amicably arranged.

An Old Lawyer Dead.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Cornelius Van Santvoord is dead, aged 79 years. He was one of the oldest members of the New York Bar Association, for which he acted as treasurer many years. He graduated from Yale in the same class with William M. Evarts. He leaves four sons and a daughter, all grown up.

May Have a Rival.

NEW YORK, April 8.—A rival to the sugar trust is foreshadowed in the possible combination of 100 grocers, representatives of whom have been conferring with Erastus Wiman with a view of establishing a sugar refinery on Staten

WILHELM'S CABINET

Caprivi Has Little Heart for Sham Battles.

HIS PRIDE HAS BEEN GALLED.

He is Suffering from Overwork and Will Rest at Carlsbad.

The Minister of War, Gen. von Kaltenborn, is Also Ill—His Illness Said to be Diplomatic, Due to Inability to Ably Defend Army Reform Plans of the Emperor—He Has Cut a Poor Figure in Parliament.

BERLIN, April 8.—The adjournment of the Landtag yesterday without having made an appropriation for the salary of the new Minister-President of Prussia, shows that the Cobinet crisis is still acute. The Independents and members of the left wing of the National Liberals say that the government now virtually acknowledges that the separation of the Chancellorship from the Minister Presidency was only a temporary makeshift.

The government, in view of the Radical and Liberal opposition to the separation, they say, has decided to unite the offices in the near future under the incumbency of Count Botho vo Eulenburg, and therefore avoid the excitement incident upon a needless debate on the proposed appropriation.

It is an open secret that Count von Caprivi is determined to retire. His pride has been galled by the taunts of the Liberals in the Reichstag since the appointment of Eulenburg, and he has shown himself to be only half hearted in his defence of the Emperor's course in the recent emergency. Just before the adjournment of the Reichstag he remarked to Herr von Levetzow:

"I have little heart for these sham battles.

The Chancellor's journey to Carlsbad and the announcement that he is suffering from overwork are regarded as the prelude to his retirement. Few ministers have left the Prussian or Imperial Cabinet in the last five years without similar advance notices.

Caprivi's interviews with Kalnoky at Carlsbad will probably be one of the last negotiations of his career as Chancellor. These negotiations, it is said, will concern the recognition of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, earnestly desired by Austria, as well as the threatening attitude of Russia on the border.

Another sick man in the Emperor's Cabinet is the Minister of War, General Von Kaltenborn. His illness is said to be diplomatic and due to his inability to defend ably the army reform plan of the Emperor to be introduced before the Reichstag next winter.

He has shown himself to be a poor figure in Parliament, and in view of the uncertainty of a Government majority, an abler speaker will take his place. The most likely candidate is said to be Lieut.-Gen. Von Blume, Commander of the Eighth Division in Erfurt.

THE MAYNARD CASE.

The Investigation of the Bar Association Charges Closed.

ALBANY, April 8.—The Maynard investigation has been closed. No more testimony will be taken.

The farce will be concluded some time next week by the presentation of two reports—a majority report exonerating Maynard from any criminal or unjustifiable act, and a minority report, filled with astonishment that the prison doors have not already closed behind him.

Lieut. Backus Did Not Commit Suicide.

NEW YORK, April 8. — Lieutenant Backus, U. S. A., who has been missing for several days, and who was reported to have sent a letter to the War Department declaring his intentions to take his life, turned up shortly after midnight. At this hour a man walked unsteadily up to an officer, who was standing on the corner of Eighth avenue and Thirtieth street, and in a thick voice said: "I'm Lieutenant Backus, the man who is lost." The Lieutenant seems temporarily demented and was unable to give a coherent account of his wanderings.

Rome, Ga., Under Water.

ROME, Ga., April 8.—A terrific storm broke over this city Tuesday night and it kept up raining until yesterday. The country for miles around is submerged and the business portion of the city is from two to six feet under water. Cattle, horses and human beings were carried down the rivers from points above Rome. Two negroes were drowned here while removing lumber in boats.

Vermont's Maple Sugar Season a Failure.

MONTPELIER, Vt., April 8.—The Maple Sugar season in Vermont is practically over and unless there is a decided change in the weather the season of 1892 will prove a failure. It is estimated that only one quarter of our average crop has been produced and if this estimate is correct it means the loss this year of fully $1,000,000 to the Vermont farmers.

Her Father Turned Her Out.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 8.—Sarah Rowan, a young girl with a child, asked for lodging at the police station yesterday. She said she had come from a hospital in Philadelphia, and that her father, on Atlantic avenue, had turned her out of the house because she had been betrayed by her lover. The overof the poor took charge of her.

Mrs. Peck Gets Her Divorce.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 8.—Judge Prentice has granted a divorce in the case of Lillian A. Peck against Lester O. Peck It was proved that Peck had been unduly intimate with Nina Farrington, an actress, and with others. Mrs. Peck is the daughter of Frank Armstrong, one of the wealthiest residents of this city, and was married in April, 1888.

"No baking powder is gaining public favor so rapidly as Cleveland's."

One reason is people like to know what they are eating, and the composition of Cleveland's baking powder is given on every label.

So many baking powders containing ammonia or alum are widely advertised as "absolutely pure," the best way is to refuse any brand the composition of which is concealed.

IS THE MYSTERY SOLVED?

It is Said That the Missing Charley Ross Has Been Found.

ST. LOUIS, April 8.—According to the firm belief of H. G. Sparks, a reputable citizen of Benton, a suburban town west of this city, the missing Charley Ross, stolen from his parents in Philadelphia on July 1, 1874, is found.

If Mr. Sparks is correct in his belief, Charley Ross, now arrived at man's estate, is at present living with and employed by him at Benton, and the world famous mystery of the greatest abduction sensation known to criminal annals is about to be cleared up forever.

So strong is the evidence already gathered in the case that a relative of the boy is now shroute from Philadelphia to Benton. Mo., to meet the young man. The relative is expected to reach here today.

Mr. Sparks says that about four months ago a young man bearing the appearance of a tramp applied to him for work. After becoming acquainted with him the young man told him enough of his history and so far as he could remember it, to convince Mr. Sparks that he was Charley Ross.

A MODUS VIVENDI.

The Agreement Signed by Mr. Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote.

WASHINGTON, April 8—There are strong reasons for believing that a renewed modus vivendi on the Behring Sea matter. the terms of which were agreed upon between Sir Julian Pauncefote and Mr. Blaine, was submitted to the President by Gen. J. W. Foster yesterday morning and, meeting with his entire approval, was signed by Mr. Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote.

Confirmation of this belief is found in the fact that Lord Salisbury started for the Continent last night, undoubtedly with a view of laying the matter before the Queen. If further confirmation were needed it might perhaps be found in the facts that our own State Department officials have suddenly become dumb as oysters, and that President Harrison has gone snipe shooting.

Didn't Think It Was Loaded.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 8.—Jacob Elk, a butcher, shot his sweetheart, Ida Engel, of Spring Garden avenue, Allegheny, through the heart Wednesday night. There was no one present at the time and Elk claims the shooting was an accident. He says he was under the impression that the revolver was "not loaded" and snapped it at her to frighten her, when it went off. He is wild with grief, and when arrested begged the officers to shoot him. He will be held to await the Coroner's inquest.

Thought First That It Was a Murder.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 7.—Michael Curry, living near Fort Griffith, was found dead at an early morning hour near his home. His body was terribly multilated, and it was believed at first that he had been murdered, but investigation showed he had killed himself, having used dynimite for that purpose. Curry had threatened to commit sucide because of family trouble. He had just got out of jail where he had served a term for abusing his wife.

Dismissed by the President.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The President has dismissed from office C. M. Leavy, appraiser at San Francisco, for complicity in Custom House frauds. The extent of frauds practiced on the Government is not known, but they are believed to have been extensive and to have extended over a long period.

An Irish Landlord Murdered.

LONDON, April 8.—A tenant farmer named Byrne in Essex quarrelled with McCartan, his landlord, at the latter's house in regards to the rent, and stabbed him in the abdomen with a pitchfork. McCartan will probably die. Byrne has been arrested.

The Spree in Collision.

LONDON, April 8.—TheNorth German Lloyd steamer Spree, Capt. Willigerod, at Bremen for New York, was in collision with the schooner Fruiterer. The Spree sustained no damage. The schooner was damaged above the water line.

Want Chinamen Naturalized.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Mr. Dawes has presented to the Senate a petition for the naturalization of such Chinamen as came to this country before the passage of the first exclusion act with the intention of making it their permanent home.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—An electric railroad is to be built from Red Bank to Long Branch.

—Elsie A. Garreteon has transferred to Henry B. Lounsbury, real estate, North Plainfield, for $3,200.

—William D. Craig, executor of Maria E. Berckman, has sold to Catherine Kiely North Plainfield real estate for $980.

—Get your church notices into the hands of the editor by 10 o'clock Saturday morning, if you wish to be sure of their insertion.

—Thieves broke into the shop of Harris Goldstine on Somerset street at 1 this morning, but were frightened away by the family without securing any plunder.

—The New York Evening World prints a story that begins this way: "The Plainfield boys always had the name of being smart." If the World keeps on that way it will be a great paper some day.

—The Arlingtons of this city and the Scotch Plains of Fanwood will play their second game of the season to-morrow morning on the Park avenue grounds at 10:15. The batteries: Arlingtons—G. Mattis, C. Sutphen; Scotch Plains—W. Miller, E. Erickson.

—Arnold, the Liberty street butcher, is doing a tremendous business. This is but the natural result of his unceasing efforts to give to the public the best-kept meat shop and best service in town. His meats are always of the choicest, and his shop is as neat as wax.

—A special Easter sale of groceries will be begun by the United Tea and Coffee Growers' association to-morrow. Everybody is invited to call at the store for a price list of goods, by which is guaranteed a saving of from 15 to 30 per cent. Coupons issued by the R. S. Peale company to subscribers of the Encyclopedia Britannica are redeemed by this firm.

—Years ago, in the wonderful days of Aladdin, the Magician, so runs the tale, gave new lamps for old. This remarkable bargain is almost equalled by that offered at Hillier & Co's, 49 North avenue. While they do not offer new goods for old ones, they can cleanse or dye last season's clothing so as to make it look almost as good as new. Give them a trial and avoid the expense of buying new garments.

—On the Heights of Netherwood, overlooking the city of Plainfield, N. J., and commanding a varied view of sweeping country, is situated the Hotel Netherwood. The Netherwood offers exceptional attractions to business men of New York, who want to spend the summer out of the city, and yet be within easy reach of their offices. The Netherwood is only forty-five minutes distant from the foot of Liberty street, New York. Only a mile from the Netherwood is the Albion, under F. E. Miller's management. The Albion is open the year round.—St. Augustine News.

HYMENEAL.

Hull—Slape.

At the residence of W. H. Slape, Dupellen, there took place, last evening, at 5, the wedding of his daughter, Jennie May, to Harry W. Hull, of Sing Sing, N. Y. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Searles, of Sing Sing, a former pastor of both parties.

At precisely 5 o'clock Mrs. M. Davis took her seat at the piano, and as the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin were heard the bridal party entered the back parlor and proceeded slowly to the front parlor, were, surrounded and embowered by Easter lilies, the ceremony took place. The bride was attired in leaf tan faille, trimmed with steel passementerie, and carried a bouquet of Catherine Mermet roses.

The presents were displayed in an upper room, and occupied nearly the entire space. There were many pieces of handsome furniture, pictures, elegant and costly bric-a-brac, and a large quantity of silver. One gift attracted especial attention, being a case of several dozen spoons, for different purposes, which were made from a special design of clover leaves and daisies, the lid of the case being ornamented with a check for fifty dollars. The combined gift was from an uncle and aunt of the bride.

Stephenson of this city was the caterer.

The bridal couple departed on the 9:08 train from Plainfield, for an extended tour after which they will take up their residence in Baltimore, Md.

Among the guests, aside from the immediate relatives, there were present the following:

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Slape, Miss Sarah Boon of Salem, N. J., Mrs. Elizabeth Hull, Miss Lillie Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Kipp, Miss Seville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kipp, Geo. Kipp, Mrs. James A. Hart, Miss Anna Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Miss Josie Robinson, Mrs. Dixon, Miss Emma Miller, A. D. Watson, Mrs. C. Watson, Mrs. Hanford, Archie McNeal, Miss Annie DeBaun, Miss Carrie Reynolds of Sing Sing, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fred Hull, Miss Ella Hines, Walter Hull, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Will Hull, Miss Florence Hull of Brooklyn. Mrs. B. D. Drake of Baltimore, Miss Ida Bubler, Miss Marie Hunter of Newark, Mrs. Wm. Jones of Astoria, Mrs. Mangam of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevens, Mrs. M. Davis, Miss Lizzie Davis, Mrs. and Miss Fishbaugh, Mrs. Elias Milliken, W. H. Milliken, Miss Jennie Stevens of Dunellen, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coddington of Plainfield.

PARTICULAR MENTION

Edward S. Hooley has returned from Green Cove Springs, Florida.

The Rev. Erskine M. Rodman of Grace church will preach at Holy Cross church this evening.

The Rev. U. D. Gulick of New York will preach at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Miss Maude Agnes Bowers will take part in the entertainment to be given by Holy Cross church choir April 20.

Thomas Mair and Sylvester Scribner will represent North Plainfield at the Prohibition convention at Trenton next Tuesday.

Dr. John F. Griffen was stricken with paralysis yesterday and is now in a very critical condition. His entire left side is paralyzed, and he lies in a stupor. Dr. O. L. Jenkins is attending him.

The new board of directors of the American Mutual Fire Insurance company organized last night by electing John Ross as president, B. S. Braider as vice-president, and L. E. Barkalew as treasurer.

Henry B. Roberts, son of ex-councilman Dan S. Roberts of this city, and Miss May B. Hughson, also of Plainfield, were united in wedlock at the parsonage of the Westfield Presbyterian church, Saturday evening, by the Rev. N. W. Cadwell.

Miss Amy E. Green and Miss Eleanor T. Morrison, as delegates from the Plainfield "Ys", started this noon to attend the convention to be held in Trenton this afternoon and to-morrow. They were accompanied by Mrs. S. J. Taylor, Mrs. Harder, Miss Mary Mosher, Miss Mamie Brown, Miss Louise K. Green, Miss Mary E. French and others. They expect to return to-morrow evening.

The Rev. William Maxwell Reilley, formerly rector of All Saints' church, Fanwood, left New York yesterday, with Mrs. Reilley, on the Chicago Limited, for his new pastorate, Marysville, California. Through the courtesy of the management of the Pennsylvania road the clergyman and his wife were carried through on the high-class service at exceptional rates. A number of Fanwood friends gathered at the station to bid the departing ones godspeed.

Mr. Lynch Has His Eye on Mr. Dodd's Job.

Sergeant Lynch of the Plainfield police force is a prominent candidate for the soft berth and lucrative office of county jail warden, the position that is now so well filled by Charles Dodd, ex-police captain of this city. But Mr. Lynch is handicapped—as is every other candidate for a county office from this city—by the fact that Plainfield sends no Democratic freeholder to the board, and the Democratic members have the claims of candidates from their own towns and cities to urge. Sergeant Lynch would make most as good a warden as Mr. Dodd, but Senator Marsh's father, who has been the warden before—and was a warden unsurpassed—is to be appointed again if he will accept. However, the office will not be vacated by Mr. Dodd until Thursday, December 1.

OBITUARY.

John Gardner Hale.

Died—In Redlands, California, March 23, 1892, after a brief illness, the Rev. John Gardner Hale, brother of Thomas Hale of this city.

In announcing the above death, which was referred to in these columns yesterday, the Redlands Civrograph says:

"Born in Chelsea, Vermont, Sept. 12, 1824, he was one of a large family, members of which have achieved eminence in business and professional life. Among his brothers are the Hon. Matthew Hale, a well-known lawyer of Albany; Wm. B. Hale, for many years a prominent banker of Massachusetts, now residing in Virginia; Judge Robert S. Hale, an eminent lawyer, and regent of the University of New York; and Henry Hale, lawyer and capitalist, of St. Paul, Minnesota—the last two now deceased.

"The deceased was educated at the University of Vermont and Andover Theological Seminary. He came to California in 1852 as a home missionary, organized the Congregational church at Grass Valley, and remained four years, returning to Vermont, where he was pastor for varying periods of years. In the fall of 1881 he returned to California and came to Redlands in December as the first resident pastor of the Congregational church, then worshiping in a small school-house. He continued pastor till April, 1885, during which period the house of worship on Lugonia terrace was built. In the fall of 1885 he was solicited to establish a boarding and day school of high grade, and opened Bellevue Academy in February, 1886, which prospered under his principalship until removed in August, 1889, and later absorbed into the high school. Since then he has resided on his home place, on Terrace avenue, cultivating a fruit ranch.

"Well-known and highly esteemed, he has left an enviable record as a preacher, a teacher, and a thoroughly conscientious, devoted and self-denying Christian man, whose loss will be widely mourned."

Jessie Titsworth Rice.

Mrs. Jessie Titsworth Rice, who died March 21, at the home of her father, J. H. Titsworth, near Nortonville, Kansas, was born in Plainfield, N. J., February 28, 1857, went with her people to Kansas in 1865, and was married to Homer Rice, of Muscotah, where, with her husband, she resided till her death. Five children, a husband, parents, brother and two sisters are left to mourn her loss. She professed religion in early life, and leaves as a legacy to her friends the memory of her sweet and amiable disposition. Her funeral was at the Nortonville Seventh-day Baptist church, March 23. The sermon was preached by the pastor.

Thomas Leader.

The death occurred on Lodge farm, Bardefield, Essex county, England, Saturday, March 26, of Thomas Leader, father of Albert J. Leader of 63 Duer street, North Plainfield. The deceased was in his eightieth year, and had been hale and hearty till seized with a sudden and fatal attack of the grip. He was an ardent disciple of Mimrod, and was hunting a few days before his death. He leaves an aged widow, three sons and four daughters. Albert Leader of North Plainfield visited his father at his home in England last September, and both father and son then engaged actively in out-door sports.

A Plainfielder Spins a Tale.

William Cushing Bamburgh, of 28 Jackson avenue, has recently published in dainty brochure form a work from his pen, entitled "Giacomo: A Venetian Tale". The story is told in blank verse, and is published in the highest style of the printer's art. The volume is of fine Berkshire linen paper throughout, and the type is artistically arranged. The alternative pages are blank, affording the student opportunity for inscribing comments on the text. The profusion of fly-leaves will be found similarly serviceable for those wishing to make memoranda. Copies will be furnished by the author at $1 apiece.

Officers Installed.

At a regular meeting of Franklin council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., held in K. of P. Hall, last evening, the following officers were installed for the ensuing quarter by Past Councilor D. S. Dunavan:

Councilor—P. C. David Bodine.
Vice-councilor—John P. Reed.
Conductor—Herbert S. Thatcher.
Warden—John F. Wakefield.
Ass't Rec. Secretary—Firman A. Long.
Inside Sentinel—Caleb Dickinson.
Outside Sentinel—Edward E. Brown.
Medical Examiner—O. L. Jenkins, M. D.

A banquet followed the installation, and the evening was very pleasantly spent.

Arrested—the progress of Consumption. In all it's earlier stages, it can be cured. It's a scrofulous affection of the lungs—a blood taint—and, as in every other form of scrofula, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a certain remedy. But it must be taken in time—and now is the time to take it.

It purifies the blood—that's the secret. Nothing else acts like it. It's the most potent strength-restorer, blood-cleanser, and flesh-builder known to medical science. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, and all lingering Coughs, it's a remedy that's guaranteed, in every case, to benefit or cure.

If it doesn't, the money is returned.

In other words, it's sold on trial.

No other medicine of its kind is.

And that proves that nothing else is "just as good" as the "Discovery."

The dealer is thinking of his profit, not of yours, when he urges something else.

Judge for yourself which is likely to be the better medicine.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

BY THE WAY.

—At Demarest's, to-morrow, you will find strawberries and a full line of fresh vegetables.

—A special praise service will be held by the Young People's League of the First Baptist church to-night.

—The annual meeting of the Boys' Club association will be held in the club rooms next week Thursday evening at 8.

—N. H. Guttman will for the balance of the month run a special bargain sale of eight 5-cent papers of tobacco for 26 cents.

—James Emmons, who has been spending two or three days in the lock-up for drunkenness, paid a $20 fine last night and was released.

—"How Much Owest Thou My Lord?" will be the theme of the pastor's discourse at the Seventh-day Baptist church to-morrow morning.

—The Alcyone Boat club of Elizabeth, at a special meeting last night, decided to abandon aquatic sports and turn the club into an athletic, bowling, and wheeling association.

—At the Plainfield Bicycle club election last evening all except one of the old officers were re-elected. The only change was the election of Hervey Doane second lieutenant in place of Hinrichs. The club adopted a new uniform of black, with braid trimmings.

—The sudden death of Mrs. Bridget Mulligan of New street, yesterday afternoon, was due to a paralytic stroke, instead of heart disease as was at first supposed. She was stricken at noon, but though at first thought to have died instantly she lingered until 4 o'clock, when in spite of medical aid she expired.

—This week's Judge, the eminent Republican weekly, makes a bad break in picturing a "western lamb" in a cyclone and making him say: "I hate to find fault with the Scriptures but talk about 'tempering the wind to the shorn lamb'." If Judge wants to do the right thing now it will let us know where in the Scriptures we may find that shorn-lamb quotation. We rather think the quicker way to find it would be to read Lawrence Sterne's "Sentimental Journey" first, and take up the Scriptures afterward.

The Duellist at His Mansion Among the Hills of Somerset.

The sudden departure of J. Coleman Drayton from New York city, occurring as it did simultaneously with the mysterious disappearance of H. Alsop Borrowe and his so-called second, H. Vane Millbank, gave rise to general discussion yesterday in the clubs and up-town hotels. Mr. Drayton's whereabouts were indicated yesterday by lawyer Rowland B. Hazard, who is interested with him in several railroads and is one of his close friends.

Mr. Drayton—said Mr. Hazard—went to New Jersey last Tuesday night or Wednesday morning to engage in labor and make arrangements for putting his estate at Bernardsville, finely situated among the mountains back of North Plainfield, in order for the coming summer. He is still there. His place, Crowfoot, on Mine Hill, is the finest in that part of the country. It was designed by the architect of the Cornelius Vanderbilt mansion. It is of stone and brick, and is made attractive by the masses of ivy and honeysuckle with which it is almost covered. It is in the Italian style, with a lofty stone tower. The garden and grounds extend over forty acres, and it is chiefly to the disposition of the grounds and to the planting of the gardens that Mr. Drayton's attention is now directed.

Gold Ore Found in Jersey.

The people in South Trenton are interested by the discovery of gold beneath the ground on which stands the Trenton Hygein Ice company and the new brewery adjoining. The discovery was made by T. B. Peterson of Jenkintown, who is driving an artesian well.

After a depth of seventy-five feet had been reached, several small pieces of rock were brought to the surface. In the rock were found small quantities of gold. A. R. Kuser, who is at the head of both companies, is satisfied that there is gold ore beneath the surface, but at such a depth that it is doubtful whether it would pay to dig for it.

State Geologist Smock was not surprised at the find, considering the character of the rock that underlies Trenton. It belongs to the Philadelphia gneiss rocks, known to contain gold, but not enough to pay for the labor of getting it out. This rock extends through the Southwest, and in North Carolina and Georgia gold has been found in it.

Elizabethport's Y. M's Defeat Plainfield's Y. M's.

The bowling team of the Catholic Young Men's Lyceum went to Elizabethport, last evening, and rolled a good score on the strange alleys of the Catholic Young Men's Lyceum association of that place. It was the best score made on the Elizabethport alleys by any visiting team except the Crescents. It was the Plainfield Y. M's first match out of town and they came near winning it. The score:

Billings Deposits Cash and is Released.

John I. Billings, formerly of Westfield, the fugitive agent of the Jersey Central railroad, who was recently arrested in Chicago on a warrant of extradition, was taken before Judge Cowing in the General Sessions at New York yesterday on the charge of having stolen $700 from the company. He pleaded not guilty, and bail was placed at $1,000. Billings promptly surrendered that sum in cash, and was released. Billings had charge of all the business of the Jersey Central road at Pier 8 North river, and the complaint alleges that he robbed the company by putting in vouchers for the wages of workingmen who were never employed.

Pinned Under a Locomotive.

Patrick Connolly, a brakeman on the New Jersey Central, died in the Bayonne Hospital yesterday from injuries received the previous night on a drill locomotive near the round-house and Port Johnson coal docks. The locomotive, while running at high speed, was derailed at a sharp curve and thrown broadside across three tracks. Connolly was pinioned, the steps of the cab crushing his chest. He could not be extricated until the locomotive was raised by use of hydraulic jacks, which took fifteen minutes.

PROPRIETORS OF NEW JERSEY.

A Queer and Much Disliked Old Board Brought Into Prominence.

The Board of American Proprietors of east New Jersey, whose office is in Perth Amboy, has caused its suit against the late William M. Force, a wealthy resident of Newark, who has so many good friends in this city, which was suspended by his death in November last, to be revived, Chancellor McGill having granted an order to that effect. The defendants in the suit thus renewed are the executors and trustees under the provisions of the will, who are also sued individually, with the exception of Frederick W. Ward of Newark, who was counsel for Mr. Force in the original suit, begun last spring. They are ordered by the court to answer within thirty days, failing in which the plea of Mr. Force will be taken to be theirs. This suit is for the recovery of some twenty thousand dollars, alleged to have been misappropriated by Mr. Force during his term as Register of the Board of proprietors (a period of about ten years), the proceeds of the sale of certain New Jersey lands or proprietary rights held by or vested in the Board.

After the death of Prof. George H. Cook, Surveyor-General of the Board of Proprietors, John C. Goodridge, jr., the New York civil engineer, was elected to that office, and James Steen, a lawyer of Eatontown, N. J., was elected Register in place of Mr. Force. The first official act of Mr. Goodridge after the adjournment of the meeting and departure of the members of the Board on the day of election was the application of strong Yale locks to the outer and inner doors of the office in which is the brick vault where the proprietary records are preserved. Having locked these doors securely and pocketed the keys, he was, and has since remained, master of the situation. The next day a new lock was ordered for the iron door of the vault itself, and the key of that also went into Mr. Goodridge's pocket. Then he made a thorough investigation of the records and account books, resulting in a demand by the proprietors upon William M. Force for restitution of the missing funds. After the lapse of several months the latter, through his counsel, acknowledged the "errors" amounting to about $1,200, and paid that amount back to the Proprietors. His refusal to make good the rest of the claim led to a lawsuit, which is now revived and soon to be tried.

One of the points raised by Force, which is to be argued, is whether the Board of Proprietors is a corporation and capable of suing and being sued, and upon that may hinge the outcome of the whole matter. Cortlandt Parker of Newark, in the course of an address delivered in Perth Amboy on the occasion of the bicentennial celebration of the Board in 1884, said that while it was never formally incorporated, he supposed, nevertheless, that it might be a corporation.

Be that as it may, "The Board of American Proprietors of East New Jersey" is a unique and interesting body of historical renown, whose birth and origin, moreover, are surrounded by an atmosphere of such antiquity and mystery that outsiders are prone to regard it with mingled curiosity and awe. Its corporate (?) existence dates away back to 1682, and every acre of land in the State of New Jersey once belonged to these Proprietors, of whom there were at that time twenty-four. They acquired it by purchase from the trustees of Governor Carteret, he from James, the Duke of York, and he by royal grant, from his brother Charles the Second, King of England, in 1662. Since then, through storm and sunshine, peace and war, the Association has existed, though its raison d'etre at the present time is well-nigh wanting; for of the countless thousands of broad acres once controlled by it, but few remain, and its rights in even those, it is generally thought, ought to be vested in the State, by purchase if need be, and thus should be abolished an institution which is held to be at variance with the ideas of to-day.

A "share" in the Board is nominally worth $1,000, and a one quarter share entitles the holder to a "seat." The shareholders are gentlemen of means and reputation, without a particle of sentiment for their distinguished predecessors and most of them are quite able to lose, without feeling it, several times the value of their shares, which, in many cases, cost them really nothing. But for year's the apparent aim and object of the Board have been to rake up bits of "unappropriated lands here and there, picking flaws in old and undisputed titles, whereby the same were clouded and could be cleared only by paying for it and thus creating "a dividend", and in other ways achieving a reputation for meanness and oppression which, while sometimes undeserved, has caused the board of proprietors (or "Appropriators") to be cordially disliked from one end of New Jersey to the other. It is the opinion of most of the property-owners of Middlesex county, especially, that the sooner the valuable maps and records of the office become the property of the State and are lodged at Trenton, the better for the fair name of New Jersey, Middlesex county, and Perth Amboy.

THIRTY PASSENGERS KILLED.

Terrible Wreck Reported on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

CINCINNATI, April 8.—A terrible wreck is reported on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad near Huntington, West Virginia. The train called the "Flying Virginian" dashed over an embankment.

Thirty persons are reported to have been killed.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—It was stated at the office of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad company in this city that no report of an accident to a fast train had reached there. It was also stated that both fast trains had been held up on account of a bridge being down, somewhere along the line.

Are There Traitors in Counselor McClure's Camp?

As already stated in THE PRESS, counselor McClure of this city is one of the strongest candidates in the race for the office of county attorney. He is most highly recommended by such prominent members of the bar as R. V. Lindabury and Frank Bergen, and prosecuting attorney Marsh says nothing but good of him. But it is rumored that his chances are being seriously imperiled by one of his own party from his own city.

The story is that in order to get rid of James J. Gerber as a competitor in the field of possible surrogates, R. M. Stover of this city is trying to knock out McClure as county attorney in favor of Gerber. By thus providing the latter with a berth, Stover thinks he can sail straight into the office of surrogate, for which no one even thinks of nominating him except himself, and for which office, or any other office, he would beover whelmingly defeated by the Democrats of his own city.

A King of Magic to Amaze the Public.

On April 12 the Eden Musee on West Twenty-third street, New York, will introduce for the first time "Powell's Wonders". The success of magic at this resort has induced the management to continue that delightful form of entertainment for a longer term. In appearance and conversational ability Powell is a remarkable magician. For several years he has been traveling in South America, where his name is a household word. Besides scores of tricks and wonders, Powell will perform new and startling illusions never before seen in this country. His repertoire is an exceedingly extensive one. Powell's performance is enhanced by the fantastic feats of Frank Majilton, one of the famous Majilton family, in a sketch called "Japanese Pastimes". That this combination will make a decided hit is beyond question. DeKolta is in his last week. The music of the Hungarian Band cannot be excelled.

Bit a Policeman and Died for It.

Policeman Giese was bitten in the hand by a dog, this morning. The dog was chained in the policeman's yard at the time, and though it was not supposed to be mad Mr. Giese shot it at once. Pharmacist Leggett cauterized the wound and Dr. Probasco fixed it up in good shape.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signs perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street Plainfield, N. J.

A Murderer Captured.

SOMERSET, Pa., April 8.—Wm. C. Miller, one of the moonshiners who murdered old man Hochstetler for giving the secrets of the gang away to the United States revenue officers, has been captured. The capture was made without bloodshed.

Sampson Gets One Year.

LONDON, April 8.—In the case of Sampson, the American strong man, accused of stealing the jewelry of Mrs. Bernstein, whose lover he was, the jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the judge sentenced him to one year's imprisonment at hard labor.

Germany Adopts the Maxim Gun.

LONDON, April 8.—A special dispatch from Berlin states that the German Government has decided to adopt the Maxim gun, and that it has ordered 180 of them for use in the navy.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Sir Arthur Sullivan is better.

The cholera in Herat, Afghanistan, is abating.

Great damage has been done by floods in Mississippi.

The attempt at oyster culture in the Baltic has failed.

Queen Victoria's health is improving rapidly at Hyeres.

Efforts are making to organize a nickel trust at Sudbury, Ont.

The Bank of England's rate of discount has been fixed at 2 1-2 per cent.

Market Hall at Pullman, Ill., was burned yesterday. Loss, $50,000.

From my knowledge of the value of Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills, derived as well from my own experience as from the testimony of many who have tested their merits, I am satisfied that they well deserve the ample patronage they are receiving.—The Rev. C. VAN SANTVOORD, Kingston, N. Y.

Ambitious Youths.

PATERSON, April 8.—Joseph Quinlan and Henry Brennan, queer looking specimens of humanity who claimed to have traveled from Deckerstown, were committed to the county jail here as vagrants. The only articles of clothing they wore were tattered jackets and trousers. The latter hung together with safety-pins. Both are youths. They said they had resolved to become cowboys or bandits and were on their way West.

Set Fire to the Old Man as a Joke.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 8.—Old John Balder was taking a drink in a saloon when William Sterzler, John Knorr and Edward Maner threw him down and poured alcohol from the cigar lighter on him and then set fire to him. The old man was badly burned and the three jokers were arrested.

Wharton for Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—It is said that W. F. Wharton, First Assistant Secretary of State, will probably be nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Third District of Massachusetts.

Medical Testimony.

W. Thornton Parker, M. D., Recorder, Association of Acting Assistant Surgeons of the U. S. Army, writes:

"SALEM, MASS., March 23, 1891.

"When at Stuttgart, Germany, during the Winter of 1881-82, I was suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis, which seemed to threaten pneumonia. I met, at the Hotel Marquardt, Commander Beardslee, of the United States Navy. In speaking of my sickness, he remarked: 'Doctor, you can cure that chest trouble of yours by using an ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER.' 'That may be true,' I answered, 'but where can I get the plaster?' 'Anywhere in the civilized world, and surely here in Stuttgart. Whenever I have a cold, I always use one and find relief.' I sent to the drug store for the plaster, and it did all that my friend had promised. Ever since then I have used it whenever suffering from a cold, and I have many times prescribed it for patients.

"The ALLCOCK'S PLASTER is the best to be had, and has saved many from severe illness, and undoubtedly, if used promptly will save many valuable lives. Whenever one has a severe cold they should put on an ALLCOCK'S PLASTER as soon as possible. It should be placed across the chest, the upper margin just below the neck; some hot beef tea, or milk, will aid in the treatment.

"This is not a patent remedy in the objectionable sense of the term, but a standard preparation of value. The Government supplies for the U. S. Army and Indian Hospital Stores contains ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS, and the medical profession throughout the world are well aware of their reliability and excellence. I shall always recommend it, not only to break up colds, but as useful in allaying pains in the chest and in the back. It is a preparation worthy of general confidence."

SPECIAL REAL ESTATE SALES FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL ONLY.

THE CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY offer its houses and lots at greatly reduced prices and on very easy terms, in the following Cities and Towns:

	Population.	Time from New York.	Commutation.
ELIZABETH	40,000	30 minutes	20c per day
BAYONNE	25,000	30 "	15c "
NEWARK	175,000	30 "	17c "
PLAINFIELD	20,000	45 "	27c "
RARITAN	3,000	55 "	35c "

The CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, after an existence of twenty years, during which time it has sold thousands of lots and been instrumental in the rapid growth of the towns and villages along the Central Railroad of New Jersey, has decided to dispose of its remaining properties at such prices as will prove attractive to home seekers, investors and speculators. Don't invest in the many mushroom paper towns when here is a chance to buy lots in prosperous, healthy cities, with good schools, churches, electric light, low taxes and city charges paid for, all improvements made, such as sewers, curbing, paving, etc. Many $400.00 lots reduced to $200.00, and large reductions throughout. In many instances city improvements have cost close to $200.00. A rare chance, and present prices will hold good DURING APRIL ONLY.

The Great American Hog

Is welcome abroad once more, and abroad he may go. As long as Lard was a requisite in every kitchen, the Great American Hog was highly esteemed at home; but now that modern science has introduced the new vegetable substitute for Lard, poor Piggy's occupation's gone.

The reason for this is threefold. COTTOLENE is cleaner, healthier and much more economical. A trial has convinced thousands as to this. It will convince any "convincable" person. Will you be convinced?

RUNAWAY COUPLES

John Johansen Elopes With His Friend's Wife.

FRIEND TAKES MRS. JOHANSEN.

They Meet On Board a Steamer, but Agree to Keep the Matter Quiet.

The Two Families Were Neighbors in Stuttgart—Mrs. Said She Had Loved Her Companion for a Long Time—They Did Not Dream of Meeting the Other Couple on the Ship—They Exchange Again in America.

NEW YORK, April 9.—John Johansen and Marie Vogelsan were passengers on the steamship Lahn, and were landed at Ellis Island. There were two other persons on board the ship who had eyes for the pair only. They were a middle-aged woman and a younger man.

During the voyage the elder woman and her companion kept a close watch on the other couple, and their actions attracted the attention of several of their fellow-passengers. They appeared anxious that the first couple should not see them, and kept out of their way.

When the passengers were landed at Ellis Island the man who accompanied the elder woman said he was Johann Vogelsang, and the woman said she was Marie Johnsen. They said that they were going to Norwalk, Conn.

Soon after the other couple were registered, and then the similarity of their names struck Clerk Silberstein, and he asked them where they were going. They said they were going to be married, and intended residing in this city.

The man Johansen was 46 years old his companion, Marie, said she was 30. She was a very pretty young woman.

The clerk told the couple to step within the inclosure, and he started to find the elder woman and her cumpanion. He soon found them, and led them to the inclosure.

No sooner had they entered than they caught sight of the other pair. All turned pale. Then they began a heated discussion in German, which Clerk Silbertstein cut short, and led the four before Col. Weber.

Then a most peculiar story was told. The young woman with Johansen was the wife of Johann Vogelsang, and the elder woman was the wife of John Johansen.

The two families were neighbors at Stuttgart. Johansen had taken a liking to the young wife of his friend, and had secured her consent to leave her husband and come to America with him and be married.

On March 23 they left for Bremen, taking all the money they could raise, which aggregated to about $300 in American money. They then boarded the vessel.

The story told by Mrs. Johansen and her companion was in effect that they had loved each other for a long time, and that when their partners left they surmised they had eloped and concluded that they would do likewise.

They never dreamed that the other couple would come to America, and it was not until the vessel was three days out that they encountered the others.

Then they determined to keep quiet, but they had registered under their right names and it was too late to change.

The colonel talked long and earnestly with the four persons, with the result that the younger woman consented to go with her first husband and Johansen declared he would take back his wife.

The two couples were allowed to depart and went away together.

War Vessels to Move.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Orders have been issued from the Navy Department directing the Yorktown and the Adams to proceed from San Francisco to Puget Sound. The ultimate destination of the vessels is Behring Sea. The Baltimore and Charleston, also at San Francisco, have been ordered to Astoria, Ore., to participate in the centennial celebration of the discovery of the Columbia River, on May 12. The Concord, now in the West Indies, has been ordered up the Mississippi River to Memphis, Tenn, to be present at the opening of the bridge there on May 12.

Orders to Lehigh Canal Lockmen.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 9.—Lockmen along the line af the Lehigh Canal have received notice not to let any empty boats return to Mauch Chunk. It is thought that the canal will be closed so as not to affect the Reading combine coal tonnage. The canal was carrying thousands of tons to places along the Lehigh River, and many dealers were arranging to get their entire tonnage in that way. A prosperous summer was anticipated by the boatmen.

Not an Honorable Discharge.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The War Department has rendered a decision, holding that where a major in the United States army was dishonorably dismissed by executive order for offenses for which he had been tried by court martial and acquitted, that his discharge from the service was not honorable.

Thousands of Cattle Perish.

OMAHA, Neb., April 9.—Dispatches to the "World-Herald" indicate an alarming loss of cattle during the late storms. Between North Platte and the Wyoming line 1,200 cattle lie drowned in the North Platte River. Several thousand calves perished in the blizzard.

President Harrison Going to Cape May.

CAPE MAY, N. J., April 9.—A prominent resident of this city has been informed that President Harrison and his family will again occupy the Cape May Point cottage this summer. They will arrive early in June.

HE IS A CLEVER FORGER.

Henry Blankenfeld Proves to be "Count" Von Watersleben.

NEWARK, N. J., April 9. — Henry Blankenfeld was arrested several weeks ago for stealing money from his employers, Messrs. Ohl & Haffner, machinists, He had been employed several months by the firm, and had raised the payroll which he had charge of until he was able to steal a considerable sum every week. He boarded with a Mrs. Blakeslie, became engaged to her daughter, and sang in one of the principal choirs of this city.

It has just been learned that Blankenfeld is identical with Hans Blankenfeld, alias Count Henry Von Watersleben and a number of other aliases. He is one of the cleverest of forgers, as well as a thief.

He worked for several years in Elmira, created a sensation and served a term of imprisonment there. He also worked in Brooklyn for Brewer Abbott. While there he forged notes and discounted them in New York.

On account of his criminal actions he has ruined his mother, so that she is obliged to live on the bounty of her sister.

He married a respectable girl who worried herself to death over his escapades. She was a Miss Michaelis, a daughter of a real estate dealer at 88 Second avenue, New York. He represented to her that his father left a fortune of $1,000,000, which would come to him on the death of his mother.

SULLIVAN-CORBETT FIGHT.

The New Orleans Club Must Give a Guarantee of Good Faith.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The is still much discussion in sporting circles over the demand of the Olympic Club of New Orleans that John L. Sullivan and James J. Corbett shall deposit $2,500 each as a guarantee that they will appear and fight in the ring of the club on September 7.

The matter may form an impediment to the consummation of the match, for Charley Johnson, Sullivan's backer, says he will not put up a cent to that end. He points out that Sullivan has, during his entire career, kept all engagements, and so has Corbett, so far as he knows him.

He says there is not a case on record where fighters of reputation had to put up a guarantee for their appearance. Johnson says, however, that his side has determined that the club must give them some surety that the $25,000 purse is there before they will fight.

LIKE WILD ANIMALS.

Fearful Destitution of a Family Living in a Tent in Texas.

WACO, Tex., April 9.—At Jackson's Lake, sixteen miles south of here, in a tent made of an old quilt, a woman and four children were found, nearly nude and living on cornmeal mush, fish and frogs.

The mother said: "My name is Mrs. Murphy. My husband left me here three months ago, and told me to stay until he returned."

The children were nearly as wild as the wolves that prowled around their bivouac.

The oldest girl wore one tattered garment and rawhide moccasins of her own make.

The family was brought to town and provided for.

Maltreated His Son.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 9.—The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children has unearthed a case of extreme cruelty in this city. Henry Warren was arrested on a charge of maltreating his 8-year-old son, who is reduced to e mere ekeleton by the alleged abuses. The father's favorite method of punishing the lad was to clinch a broken finger ring on the boy's nose, leaving it there for hours. The story has raised a feeling of widespread indignation here.

Corner Stone for Grant's Tomb.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The corner stone of the tomb and monument to be erected in this city to the memory of General Grant, will be laid on the 27th inst. Mayor Grant has issued a proclamation calling the attention of the citizens of this city to the fact that the present time is a fitting one for the completion of the fund necessary to carry out the undertaking.

Died from His Injuries.

TUCKERTON, N. J., April 9.—Mrs. Lucy Hillier, while cleaning house put some old paper in the stove to be burned up. Among the rubbish was a bag of gunpowder. It instantly ignited, blowing the stove to pieces. Mrs. Hillier was not injured, but her 4-year-old boy, who was standing by, was so severely injured that he died.

To Fight the Rice Trust.

NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—New Orleans rice merchants have organized a stock company with $500,000 capital to fight the rice trust. A new rice mill will be erected here, as all the present mills are in the trust. It is thought the farmers will join issues with the new company

FRONTIER THIEVES

One Thousand Horses Stolen by Rustlers.

HUNTING PARTIES AFTER THEM

No Mercy Will be Shown the Bands When Captured.

It Has Been Determined to Rid the Country of Them—One Man Shot Through the Head, Others Mysteriously Disappear—The Thieves are Located at the Jackson Hole in Wyoming—A Horse Thieves' Paradise.

HELENA, Mont., April 9.—The first results of the war looking to the extermination of horse thieves in Eastern Montana and Wyoming has just come to light, when the body of a man was found on Alkali Creek, about ten miles from Billings.

He had been shot through the head and had been deah several days.

The man has not been identified, but is supposed to be a Wyoming rustler enroute to Canada. Two other men suspected to be in communication with horse thieves have mysteriously disappeared within the past few days.

Two parties are now after the rustlers, who are located at the Jackson Hole, in Wyoming, with a thousand stolen horses in their possession.

A party of fifteen, all frontier and mountain men, under the leadership of Sim Roberts, left Big Timber, in Eastern Montana, for Jackson Hole a few days ago.

Another party expects to reach the north end of the basin under the leadership of the Chapman brothers at about the same time as the first party.

Each will be largely reinforced on its way to the Hole, and as every man is determined to rid the country of rustlers some interesting reports may soon be expected.

ST. PAUL, April 9.—Correspondence from Chamberlain, S. D., details at length the exploits of a band of horse and cattle thieves, known as the "Culbertson Gang," who commenced operations in Bonhomme county, and being driven from there went to Northeastern Nebraska, where they resumed operations.

The band was short lived in that section, and a vigilance committee hunted down and disbanded the gang, killing several and driving the survivors out of the country.

Two Culbertson brothers escaped and afterward went to the Black Hills, where their identity was hidden until they were arrested for the brutal killing of a friendly Indian named Few Tails during the closing days of the Indian disturbances at Pine Ridge five months ago.

Although they practically admitted the killing, they were liberated on the ground that war with the Indians existed at that time, and that the killing was an act of war.

"Old man" Hoyt, one of the band who was not fully identified with the running off of cattle and horses, but who is known to have harbored the thieves, was permitted to escape with his life.

Word has just reached Chamberlain that he has returned to his old "stamping grounds" in the Bluffs west of Running Water, Bonhomme county. He reached there the other day after an absence of nearly fifteen years, and again lives in an old hut that was his former home.

The dwelling is on the east side of the Missouri River, directly opposite the town of Nobrara, Neb., and is located on the mouth of a deep ravine that extends back from the Missouri to a distance of two or three miles.

This ravine was a veritable horse thieves' paradise, and completely concealed their actions.

Hoyt is now quite old, and has come back to the old home of the desperadoes to die.

The Alleged Barcelona Fire.

BARCELONA, April 9.—American newspapers lately received here contained reports of the burning of several ships in this harbor. The correspondents were evidently "gulled" by one of the journals of this city, which published an alleged account of such a catastrophe, and at the end of the article said: "Such might have happened," etc. The whole thing was a "fake," but alarmed a good many people here at first.

Unanimously Approved.

PARIS, April 9.—The Customs Committee of the Chamber of Deputies has unanimously approved the commercial agreement between France and the United States negotiated by Mr. Whitelaw Reid.

Killed by an Apple Tree.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., April 9.—The 14-year-old son of Taylor Worthington, living near Fountainville, this county, was killed He was cutting down an apple tree, when it fell and crushed him to death.

THE HUSBAND SUSPECTED.

A Young Wife Found Dead With a Revolver Lying Near Her.

CANANDAIGUA, N. Y., April 9.—Mrs. Malone Plimpton, of Ontario County, was found dead in her room. Near her, on the floor, was found a revolver. Indications point strongly toward her husband as the perpetrator of the crime.

He was of a quarrelsome disposition and a heavy drinker, and was seen leaving the house with his brother shortly before the discovery of the dead body. As both were intoxicated it is thought that a quarrel took place and terminated in murder.

Webster Hewitt, a neighbor who discovered the body, states that he was prompted to go to the house by fragments of a conversation he overheard while the brothers were passing the house.

He says that he heard the brother say to the husband that some one ought to be informed of what had happened, and that the latter told him to shut up and not say anything here.

Plimpton was arrested later and lodged in jail. He is 28 years of age, while his wife was but 17.

NO WILL FOUND.

Arlo Pardee Died in Intestate—Many Institutions Will be Disappointed.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 9. — Arlo Pardee, the wealthy coal operator who died in Florida two weeks ago, died intestate. The fact was made public. Mr. Pardee's private secretary rummaged through the dead man's papers, but found no trace of a will.

Arlo Pardee, jr., the son of the dead coal operator, took out papers of administration. He had to file a bond for $5,000,000, as the estate is worth about $20,000,000.

Patdee, who was married twice, had children by both wives. A big legal contest is anticipated.

Many educational institutions throughout the country will be disappointed when the information that there is no will reaches them. It was expected that Mr. Pardee would bequeath largely to these institutions.

Killed by a Judge's Son.

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., April 9.—Charles Wear, son of Judge John G. Wear, shot and killed C. H. Lael, night caller for the Iron Mountain Railroad. Wear was drunk and slapping people with a piece of board. Early in the evening he kicked out Lael's light and again after midnight he pounded Lael on the shins with a heavy cane and called him vile and abusive names. Lael pushed Wear from him and he fell in the mud. Lael then ran and hid. Wear hunted for him for him for an hour, went and got a revolver and when Lael came back to work shot him in the head without warning. Lael made no effort to protect himself. There is great public indignation.

A Farmer's Discovery.

VINCENNES, Ind., April 9.—Emery M. Smith, of Harrison Township, while cutting into an oak tree on the farm, the axe he was wielding sunk to the handle into the rotten heart. Instantly there issued from the tree a roaring noise resembling escaping steam. Smith thought he detected the fumes of gas and, applying a lighted match to the cavity, a blaze shot forth extending ten feet from the tree. It burned steadily for two hours. The occurrence was so sudden and mysterious as to put Smith and two companions to flight.

A Boy Shoots His Playmate.

FLEMINGTON, N. J., April 9.—Albert, the 9-year-old son of Henry H. Randt, of Tinivum, this county, was shot by Reading Mitchell, aged 13 years. The boys were playing in a blacksmith's shop, when Mitchell picked up a musket and, pointing it at Randt, pulled the trigger. The ball took effect in Randt's head. He lived until nightfall. The Mitchell boy says he did not know the gun was loaded.

The Reports Denied.

BOSTON, April 9.—The report coming from Washington that Gov. Russell would move into the Essex district to run for Congress against Gen. Cogswell, and that Mayor Matthews would run for Governor, is absolutely denied by Secretaries Rhodes and Taylor, respectively, in the absence of their chiefs.

Found Her Burned to Death.

FLEMINGTON, N. J., April 9.—The 2-year-old daughter of William Seeds, of this place, was burned to death. Her clothing caught fire from the smouldering embers of some brush which her father had burned. The child was missing some time. Her charred body was found.

Threw Her Child in a Sewer.

ASHLAND, Pa., April 9.—Miss Lizzie Ohl has been arrested for throwing her newly born illegitimate child into a sewer on Third staeet where it was found alive by workmen. She has been arrested, and officers are seaching for the father of the child.

Murdered by Malays.

SINGAPORE, April 9.—The Malays have murdered the British officers Stewart and Harris in Pahang. In the town of Pekan there is a general panic. The Europeans have fortified themselves in a stockade, and all the women have been sent down to the river's mouth.

Coal Breaker Burned.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 9.—The Mozier Breaker of the Newton Coal Company was destroyed by fire. The loss is $40,000; insurance $27,000. Three hundred men and boys are thrown out of employment.

A New Superintendent.

NEW YORK, April 9. — Lieut. O. W. Lowry, U. S. N., has been appointed Superintendent of the House of Refuge on Randall's Island.

SPOILED HIS BEAUTY

Mr. Morrell's Experience with a Wildcat.

HIS APPEARANCE IS STARTLING.

One of His Eyes Out and He is Otherwise Badly Mutilated.

It Took Him Thirteen Weeks to Get Over His Fight With the Animal, and He Doesn't Brag About His Good Looks Any More—It Was the Largest Cat Ever Seen in Northern New Jersey—It Will be Stuffed.

DICKERSTOWN, N. J., April 9.—Aleck Morrell is a well-known quarryman over in Sandystone township. The big slate quarries are in that part of Sussex county. He was in the habit of driving down here and stopping for a chat with the boys. Nobody had seen him for over three months, and some of his friend were proposing to take a trip over to his home to ascertain what was the matter when Aleck stepped into a familir gathering place.

Morrell had always been rather handsome, but when he came to town he presented such a startling appearance that his friends were aghast. One of his eyes was out and the greater part of his cheek and mouth was pulled around nearly to his right ear. His back teeth could be seen through the gap. His left ear was partially gone and two of his fingers were missing.

With facial contortions that were painful to behold the quarryman told the following story:

"I stopped one evening several months ago at the house of a friend, and it was pretty late when I got home. I had been drinking a little, but not enough to affect me or make me careless. My house is a little way back from the road, and there was a little porch to the front door with vines growing over it, so that it was pretty dark inside of the porch. As I put my foot on the step I saw something sitting on the rag carpet mat, and thinking it was a stray dog I fetched it a kick and says 'Git out!' Before I could take time to think something landed square on my chest and knocked me off the stoop and into the flower bed.

It was too dark to see what it was, but I said to myself, "Aleck, you've got a job on your hands," and I tried to grab the critter, but got my left hand in its mouth, and that's how I lost them two fingers. They I caught a wipe across my face, and at the same time my right hand closed on the critter's windpipe, and in spite of the loss of my eye and the blood flowing all over me, I rolled over on the critter and got my knee on its breast. It clawed at me with its hind feet and ripped me open in a dozen places, but I held on until I lost my senses, and the next thing I knew was when I woke up in bed with Dr. Moore stitching up my wounds.

"It seems that my wife heard the noise of the scrimmage and came out with a lantern. She found me lying across the dead body of a wildcat. I was all torn up and had scarcely a rag on me. It took 13 weeks for me to git over it, and I haven't bragged about my good looks since, but I'm bragging that I'm the only mao ever choked a full grown wildcat to death."

Morrell is going to have the wildcat stuffed. It weighed 44 pounds, and is the largest ever seen in Northern New Jersey. It is the first one of that species that has been heard of since 1876, when a good sized one was shot by a woodchopper in one of the heavy forests over in Montague township.

INVESTIGATION ENDED.

Chief of Construction Burnham Compelled to Retract.

CHICAGO, April 9. — Congressman Dockery's Committee finished its investigation of the World's Fair. The only sensation of the investigation was when Mr. Dockery administered a stern rebuke to Chief of Construction Burnham and compelled that gentleman to retract the statement that Director General Davis did not know what he was talking about.

The Director General had testified that the estimates for expenditures in the Construction Department could be cut down about $22,000,000, and this was more than Mr. Burnham's temper could stand.

When asked his opinion of the Fair after the investigation was completed. Mr. Dockery replied:

"While we have been making this inquiry into the exposition the conviction has been growing upon me that it is the greatest work of enterprise the world has ever known. It is vast, but the men at the head seem to understand the requirements of the situation."

Kentucky Opposes Sunday Opening.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 9.—Kentucky's House of Representatives passed a bill appropriating $100,000 for Kentucky's exhibit at the Columbian Exposition. The bill has already passed the Senate and will be signed by the Governor. It provides for the closing of the Kentucky exhibit on Sunday and against the sale of intoxicants. It provides for pay only for the chairman of the Kentucky commissioners.

A Princeton Battle Monument.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—A bill appropriating $30,000 for a monumental column to commemorate the battle of Princeton, N. J., was favorably reported to the Senate and was placed on the calendar.

$100,000 for the G. A. R.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The Senate by a vote of 42 to 10 passed an appropriation of $100,000 for subsistence and quarters of the G. A. R. at the encampment at Washington in September next.

SHE JILTED HIM.

Miss Fleischmann's Broken Engagement Confirmed

CHICAGO, April 9.—Count Eugene Logithetti confirmed the report that his engagement to Miss Babette Fleischmann, the beautiful daughter of the great yeastmaker, has been broken. Shortly after the announcement of Count Logithetti's betrothal to the fair heiress, he assumed the management of her father's business in this city.

"It is true that Miss Fleischmann has jilted me," said he. "Immediately upon her return a few days ago from California, where she and her father had sojourned for a time, she informed me that our engagement was at an end."

"Is the story that the cause of your estrangement is your refusal to become an American citizen true?"

"If you were ever in love," replied the count, "you would know that Miss Fleischmann, who loves me as dearly as I love her, could not break our engagement for such a cause. That story is ridiculous. I do not wish to say why we are not to be married. That is a personal matter between Miss Fleischmann and myself. I am a true gentleman and under no circumstances will I tell the reasons Miss Fleischmann gave for calling our engagement off. I am yet an intimate friend of the Fleischmann family, and will continue to be."

NOT RECONCILED YET.

But "Lucky" Baldwin's Friends Think He Will Forgive His Daughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—So quietly did Lucky Baldwin return to town yesterday that no one discovered his presence until evening. The old millionaire was as uncommunative as a clam about his daughter's marriage, and all he said in response to queries was; "The marriage is legal so far as I am aware, and if I am satisfied with it the public will have to be."

When asked if he would resume relations with the runaways, he said: "I have nothing to do with my son-in-law." The inference from this made by his friends is that he will hold out for a short time and then forgive. Meanwhile Anita's husband has been promoted in the County Clerk's office.

Lynched by a Masked Mob.

PROVIDENCE FORGE, Va., April 9.—Isaac Brandon, a negro, charged with attempted assault upon a white woman, was taken from the jail at Charles City on Wednesday night by a masked mob and lynched. His little son, who was staying in jail with him, says the men entered the jail with pistols in hand and told Brandon to cross his hands behind him. He asked them if they were going to hang him, and they told him they were. He said: "Well, you are going to hang an innocent man." No one doubts here that he was guilty.

Tarred and Feathered.

SAGINAW, Mich., April 9—In the Township of Swancreek a man named Allen, aged 76, drove his aged wife from home that he might live with Annie Lakeland: who is only 28 years old. After warning the old man and his paramour twice without effect, 15 men gave them a liberal coat of tar and feathers Tuesday night and notified them that if they did not separate the citizens would burn the house and ride them on a rail. He is still living with her.

Second Officer Hillier Drowned.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 9. — The steamer Yemasee grounded in St. John's River at Dame's Point on her way to Charleston. A boat with Second Officer E. B. Hillier and two sailors was sent to carry a line, and on returning the boat capsized and Hillier was drowned. The Yemasee was pulled off and after putting in here she proceeded on her way to New York.

Barbers Won't Shave Them.

HAVERHILL, Mass., April 9.—A boycott has been placed on all the employes of J. H. Winnell & Co., who recently discharged all their union help and now run a free shop. The men that took the places of the discharged help find it difficult to obtain boarding houses. Barbers refuse to shave them and tradespeople decline to provide their families with with goods.

Increase in the Wheat Crop.

COLUMBUS, O., April 9.—The crop bulletin of the State Board of Agriculture just issued estimated the wheat crop of this year at 25,000,000 bushels, an increase over last year of 5,000,000 bushels.

—Henry Corsa is now doing police duty at the North avenue railroad station. He was appointed by the railroad company and will be paid by them.

—On and after Monday next, train No. 1 on the Central railroad will leave New York at 4 in the morning, Plainfield at 5:15 and will arrive at Easton at 7:15.

—Don't fail to hear that droll and popular dialect humorist, Rob McDonald, at the people's popular entertainment at Reform Hall, Thursday evening, April 14.

—J. Murphy, the famous evangelist, will begin a series of afternoon and evening meetings next Monday, April 11, at the Mt. Olive Baptist church. All are invited.

—The Choral society's rehearsal next Monday will be a divided one. The sopranos and altos will sing at 3:45 p. m., and the tenors and basses at 8 p. m. A full attendance is desired.

—Music is not commonly evolved from precious stones, but there is more or less chin-music when the baseballist plays on the "diamond". This joke is not as clear as the diamonds at Collier's; they are of the first water and don't depend wholly on the price for dazzling effects.

—The editor who is afraid to speak out on a public question, lest some subscriber will stop his paper, will never secure a very large circulation or an extensive influence. The editor who expects to please everybody will wind up his career by pleasing nobody. The first lesson of independence for the newspaper man is to keep his paper as nearly right as possible without fear of the subscriber who stops his paper.

—"Gloriana", the farcical comedy at Herrmann's theatre, New York, seems to have completely captured the metropolitan playgoers, as well as all strangers seeking to beguile an evening. The dash and brilliancy of the performance make it peculiarly fascinating. Besides it is infectiously funny throughout. E. J. Henley's Russian Count, with his "always perfectly calm, always perfectly correct" manners, is a masterly characterization. His impersonation creates unlimited merriment and commands generous applause. Kitty is a quaint comedy character, and very effective, with the aid of her misfit dress, in producing shouts of laughter. The whole cast, which now includes Mrs. Louise Thorndyke Boucicault, is a brilliant one. Herrmann's theater, by the way, is a great big go. "Gloriana" has only another week in New York this season. "Wilkinson's Widows" follows.

From my knowledge of the value of Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills, derived as well from my own experience as from the testimony of many who have tested their merits, I am satisfied that they well deserve the ample patronage they are receiving.—The Rev. C. VAN SANTVOORD, Kingston, N. Y.

"WE TOLD YOU SO!"

A Contract for a Public Supply of Plainfield Water Must be Made as Dictated at Elizabeth.

On the evening of March 21, the council by a unanimous vote authorized the immediate execution of a contract with the Plainfield Water Supply company for 201 street hydrants including the 45 now located and connected. But that contract has not yet been signed. Why?

It seems that probably THE PRESS has been right as usual in prophesying that the day would come when the Elizabeth tail to the Water Supply company would wag the whole dog. That day "has came"! A contract fair alike to the company and the people, may be agreed upon by the council and Messrs. Runkle, Pope, Murray and other Plainfield members of the company, but if it does n't suit John Kean and president Frank Bergen, it does n't go.

She Was a Winner From the First.

Here is the opinion of another New York critic concerning the appearance at the Metropolitan opera house of Miss Reid who is to sing at the Melopoia concert in the Casino, May 3.

"There was a new prima donna made her debut in 'Hamlet', as Ophelia, with the traditions of Nilsson staring her in the face. It was acknowledged, somewhat shamefacedly, I think, that her parentage was American. She walked on with the composure of an old veteran. She won her audience at the first duet. Her voice was not only of fine timbre, excellent compass and equability, but thoroughly disciplined and tractable. So far as her vocalism went she secured an unmistakable recognition. In former years this would have been a musical event of immediate importance. But there is a disposition now to dispatch the whole matter with a commiserating intimation that it is American."

BY THE WAY.

—A praise service will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms this evening at 7:45.

—A fine assortment of base-ball and tennis supplies and photographic outfits at Harper's, 75 Park avenue.

—A bill passed the last Legislature, and has been signed by the Governor, prohibiting the shooting of pheasants for three years.

—A horse driven by Max Newman, the hackman, fell at Rockfellow's corner this morning. A shaft was broken, and a bad runaway was narrowly averted.

—The Bible says "Young men see visions". The Rev. Charles B. Mitchell, a young man himself, will speak to-morrow night in his church of "The Visions of Young Men."

—D. L. Hulick, carpenter and general jobber, has removed his shop from 30 Somerset street to 35 Jackson avenue. Orders may be left at 26 Somerset street, or sent by mail.

—To-night, Thomas's play of "The Burglar" will be given at Music Hall, for the second time this year. The play cannot be improved but the cast is stronger in many particulars. Mr. Lipman still plays the title role.

—The Woman's Presbyterial society for Foreign Missions in the Presbytery of Elizabeth will hold its twenty-first annual meeting at Elizabeth next Tuesday, in the Westminster Presbyterian church, at 10 a. m. Mrs. Wm. Waters of Philadelphia will speak on "Our Machinery". At 12:30 a social gathering with basket luncheon. The afternoon session will begin at 2. The speakers will be Mrs. J. B. Howell, of Brazil, and the Rev. Dr. Gillespie of the foreign board. All who are interested in the work are cordially invited to attend.

Special Services at Grace Church.

The Grace church services to-morrow will be the last in the old building. During Holy Week there will be morning prayer each day at 10 o'clock, and evening prayer at 5 each day except Thursday and Good Friday. Thursday there will evening service and Holy Communion at 7:30, with sermon by the Rev. T. Logan Murphy. Good Friday there will be a three hours' service of prayer and meditation from 12 to 3.

The opening services of the new church will be held Easter Day as follows: Early celebration, 7:30 a. m.; morning prayer, sermon by Bishop Scarborough, and Holy Communion, at 10:30; children's festival, 3:30 p. m.; evening sermon by the Rev. Dr. Langford, on the missionary work of the church.

Monday and Tuesday of Easter week there will be Holy Communion at 10 a. m.

The annual parish meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Samuel Hudson of Somerset street is very ill with the grip.

By the way, councilman Erickson, chairman of the committee on fire and buildings, why has n't president Bergen signed that city hydrant contract?

Agnes W. Smith, youngest daughter of the late Robert Smith of New York, died suddenly at Fanwood Thursday. Funeral services will be held at "The Homestead" Monday morning at 11.

Mr. Venino has removed with his family to his new home on Stelle avenue. It is one of the prettiest houses architecturally, for its size and style, in the city. A. L. C. Marsh is the architect.

Edward S. Cannon died at his home, one of the "eight row" houses, Dunellen, to-day, at the age of 48 years. Funeral service will be held from the Dunellen M. E. Church, Monday afternoon at 2:30.

John A. Thickstun, one of North Plainfield's honored citizens, was stricken with a light stroke of paralysis last night about midnight. Medical aid was at once obtained and to-day he is a little better.

A pleasant birthday party was given to Miss Augustine Liseignolo at her home on East Front street, last evening. Plainfield and Westfield people attended, and showered congratulations on the young hostess.

The Rev. Samuel Jessup, D. D., spoke in the Crescent Avenue chapel last evening, on mission work in Syria, illustrating the subject by stereopticon views from all parts of that field. There was a large and intensely interested audience present.

The many friends of Clarence L. Eick, late organist of the First Presbyterian church, will be pleased to know that he will be in charge of the choir of Westminster Presbyterian church, Elizabeth, until May 1. The music of the Easter services will be of a high order.

The literary exercises of the approaching celebration of the Monday Afternoon club anniversary will be of a most interesting character. Among the notable club women to take part will be Mrs. David Prescott Hall, who will deliver the words of greeting; Mrs. Charlotte Emerson Brown, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs; Mrs. Jennie de la Lozier, president of Sorosis; Mrs. G. W. Nields, of the Wilmington club; Miss Charlotte E. Clarke, recording secretary of the Monday Afternoon club; Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, president of the New England Women's club; a delegate from the Century club guild of Philadelphia; Mrs. Mary E. Mumford, of the New Century club, Philadelphia; Miss Adeline E. Thompson, of the Woman's club of Orange; Mrs. Helen H. Bacheus, president of the Brooklyn Women's club; and Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell and Mrs. Isaac L. Miller, who will engage in a debate.

The Brave Policeman and the Little Dog.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—It was quite amusing to read the account in your paper last evening of the terrible experience the courageous official of the First ward had with the vicious dog yesterday. The facts are these: The police officer was cleaning his front yard. A little black and tan dog came along, with chain attached to collar, which was evidence that the dog had been chained up and broken loose. As the dog roamed around, the chain became fast in the boards of the officer's sidewalk. The little dog, seeing the brave officer rushing at him, became frightened, which is not to be wondered at. In place of calling his neighbor who owned the dog, which any man with good judgment would have done, the officer attempted to loosen the dog, and got bit in the finger. Then, like a hero, he rushed to the house and returned with a revolver in hand and planted a 32-pounder into little doggy's head. The remains were then thrown out into the lot, to be interred by the board of health. WESTERVELT AVENUE.

He led the German and his dudish dress was the admiration of the assembled fair, but his stout partner slipped on his favorite corn. Sensation! Salvation Oil to the rescue. Happiness again!

Services at Netherwood during Holy Week.

The Holy-week services at the Church of Our Saviour, Netherwood, will be:

Monday—Evening prayer and meditation at 4:30. Tuesday—Evening prayer and meditation at 4:30. Wednesday—Evening prayer and lecture at 7:45. Maundy Thursday—Holy-communion at 7:30 a. m. Evening prayer and meditation at 4:30. Good Friday—Morning prayer, Litany and sermon at 10:30. Evening prayer and lecture at 7:45. Easter Even—Evening prayer and meditation at 4:30.

A woman who can see. She's the woman who gets well. It's the woman who won't see and won't believe who has to suffer.

And it's needless. There's a medicine—a legitimate medicine—that's made to stop woman's suffering and cure woman's ailments. It's Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's purely vegetable and perfectly harmless—a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nervine, imparting vigor and strength to the whole system. For periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, and all "female complaints," it's a positive remedy. It improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength.

No other medicine for women is guaranteed, as this is. If it fails to give satisfaction, in any case, the money paid for it is refunded. You pay only for the good you get. On these terms it's the cheapest.

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

To Millions of Free Acres via B. & O. R. R.

Early in April 3,000,000 acres of land of Cheyenne and Arrapahoe reservations in Indian territory will be thrown open to settlers. Those contemplating availing themselves of this opportunity to secure free homes will find the Baltimore & Ohio railroad the quickest route from any point in the East to the Indian territory. Four trains daily from New York, Philadelphia, Chester, Wilmington, Baltimore, Washington, Cumberland, Wheeling, Pittsburgh, and all intermediate stations. All persons contemplating settling at any point in the West, however distant, are requested to write to Chas. O. Scull, general passenger agent, B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md., for full information as to rates, time of trains, and sleeping car accommodations from any point East to any point West.

Fought in the Captain's Presence.

Police captain Grant was called to Cottage row to-day to quell a dispute between Mary Colman and Ellen Parson, colored women, who are tenants of the same house and who accused each other of misappropriating coal. While the captain was trying to settle the matter the women clinched and fought like tigers. After separating them with difficulty, the captain took the bloody-faced belligerents to judge Codington, who censured them and sent them home.

PLAINFIELD'S HEALTHFULNESS.

Interesting Reports of Local Boards to State Officials.

From the annual report of the State board of health just issued the following local matters are extracted:

PLAINFIELD'S BOARD OF HEALTH.

George W. Rockfellow, president; Lemuel W. Serrell, Stephen A. Ginns, George W. Endicott, M. D. Oliver B. Leonard, secretary. Post-office address of all, Plainfield.

The water is obtained from twenty driven wells, reaching to the underground sources of supply, and the supply is about 2,500,000 gallons per day if required. At present but a limited number of house-takers have availed themselves of its advantages. The character of the water is excellent. The year just closed has witnessed a quiet but continuous work by the board in looking after the healthfulness of Plainfield. The health inspector has reported 495 personal inspections of different properties, and 100 mandatory notices, for the removal of nuisances, have been served. During this time 460 cesspools have been emptied and 346 vaults cleaned. The collection of kitchen garbage is attended to by regularly-licensed persons, often enough every week to prevent any accumulation. In these ways and many others the board has endeavored to promote a fair degree of healthfulness by averting the causes of preventable diseases. It is a pleasure to be able to report another year of good health, notwithstanding the great amount of upturning of fresh earth for laying water-mains, etc., and the excessive moisture of oversprinkling. The number of cases of sickness has been smaller this year than any recent year.

OLIVER B. LEONARD,
Secretary.

FANWOOD TOWNSHIP'S BOARD OF HEALTH.

Hon George Kyte, Fanwood; L. W. Miller, Scotch Plains; William Terry, Plainfield; John Robison, Scotch Plains; F. W. Westcott, Scotch Plains.

Water-supply from wells and cisterns. At Fanwood about twenty-five houses are furnished with water from the Fanwood Water Supply company. This supply is obtained from driven wells and proves to be an excellent quality of water in every way. The usual water-level is such as to secure dry cellars. Most of the swamps are properly cared for, and we have very little malaria. We have no system of sewerage. In a part of the township cesspools are not cemented, but laid up with loose stone. In Fanwood they are cemented and most every house has two or three connected with each other. They are emptied as often as it is necessary. We have had no prevalent disease this year, except la grippe, and that in a mild form. We have no slaughter-houses in our town. We have no ordinances. The board meets each month. We have had no trouble this year, as each case reported to the board has been attended to in a satisfactory way. I am glad to say that the people are each year growing to look on the work of the local board in a very friendly way, and seem anxious to obey the laws and rules as laid down. We have so far only to request and every nuisance is promptly abated.

F. W. WESTCOTT,
Secretary.

WESTFIELD TOWNSHIP'S BOARD OF HEALTH

Chas. C. Endicott, N. B. Gardner, A. S. Clark, Jos. B. Harrison, M. D., John M. C. Marsh, secretary.

Our board holds regular meetings and is in good working order. Have had no contagious diseases to contend with the past year.

J. M. C. MARSH,
Secretary.

Mayor Gilbert Will Give a Toast.

The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. will receive the active members of the association at their rooms next Tuesday evening. Supper will be served at 7, and afterwards Mr. Taggart, one of the secretaries of the international committee, will present a new and interesting feature of association work. Mayor Gilbert and others will respond to appropriate toasts.

Jags From Their Cheerful Side.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Thanks for the pleasure you have given by publication of Mr. Clarke's clever retort upon "Another Commuter". With several thousand other Plainfielders you will be glad to learn that there is no probability of conductor Archer being transferred to another train from the night express, Mr. Clarke's peremptory demand to the contrary notwithstanding.

It is probable that Mr. Clarke is not altogether right in his way of dealing with the drunk. No drunk ever lived who did not object to the firing process, and between tolerance of his tipsy remarks and a row in the car nine men and all women would rather put up with the tolerance. Then if a drunk is once fired he can sue the railroad company and the trainmen. Any shyster lawyer will undertake the damage suit on the chances of a favorable verdict. Those chances are ten to one against the railroad company convincing the jury that the man was rightly fired, experience having shown that the majority of jury verdicts are against the railroad, no matter what the real merits of the case. Either side in the suit has the right to compel the attendance of Mr. Clarke or of any or all ladies or gentlemen who witnessed the row. Witnesses, railroad company and Plainfield would all get unpleasant advertisement.

The dark side of the drunkard's case is well presented by Mr. Clarke. Let me show him the cheerful side. Intemperance of old was of more tragic style than now, and ten years ago the principal plea in murder cases and others of assault with murderous intent was that the prisoner was drunk and did n't know what he was doing. Drinkers have since been scared out of the excess that leads to violence. The drunks to be seen now are mild drunks, and I trust that many of the PRESS readers have the wit to note carefully the peculiarities of the m. d. He is in a transition state, for even mild drunkenness has fallen under opprobrium, and the struggle of the m. d. to conceal his tipsiness is at all times an interesting psychological study. That study will also lead to the certain conclusion that the time is coming when drinkers will as a class be able to halt upon the border line of the jag, stepping beyond not once in twenty years.

The man with the jag can now find his way alone to the right railroad, get his ticket and get it punched, get on the right train and off at the right station. This is surely a remarkable feat, and we ought to enjoy the sight while it lasts. The present popular size of the jag sometimes leaves the owner in a cunning frame of mind, as one Plainfielder knows to his cost. A jagged man on the boat was making pungent remarks to a Chinaman, and the Plainfielder stalked out in search of a boat hand. The drunk ceased from his talking and settled down to sleep with one eye open. The Chinaman took another seat, and the Plainfielder, being near-sighted, was not able to discover his victim when he came back prepared for war. The cabin-full of ladies caught on to his predicament—cruel women—and rewarded him for his chivalry with such a shrill and cackling laugh as he will remember to his dying day.

Cheap John.

Cheap John prices won't buy the genuine medicines. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (for the Liver, Blood and Lungs) and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription (for woman's weaknesses and ailments), each cost $1.00 per bottle, and his Pleasant Pellets (the original little Liver Pills), 25 cents a vial, and no discount.

These genuine medicines are now sold only through druggists, regularly authorized as agents, and at the above long-established prices. But if you get the genuine, they're the cheapest medicines you can buy at any price. They're sold on a peculiar plan—"value received or no pay". In every case they're guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is refunded.

Beware of all such.

A perfect remedy for scrofula, in all its forms—something that purifies the blood, as well as claims to. That, if it's taken in time, will cure Consumption.

As a strength-restorer, blood-cleanser, and flesh-builder, nothing equals "Golden Medical Discovery". For every form of Scrofula, Bronchial, Throat, and Lung affections, Weak Lungs, Severe Coughs, and kindred ailments, it's the only remedy so sure that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

State of New Jersey – Department of State.

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETING:

Whereas, In the judgment of the Board of Directors of the

a corporation organized under the laws of this State, it has been deemed advisable and most for the benefit of such corporation that the same should be dissolved before the expiration of the time limited in its certificate of organization, as appears by a duly authenticated record of the proceedings of said board of directors of such corporation held in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An Act concerning corporations," approved April 7, 1875, and the several supplements thereto, which said record, including the consent in writing of two-thirds in interest of all the stockholders of said corporation that such dissolution should take place, as by said act required, having been by said corporation deposited in my office;

Now therefore, I, Henry C. Kelsey, Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, being satisfied by due proof that the requirements of "An Act concerning corporations", approved April 7, 1875, and the supplements thereto, relative to the dissolution of corporations, have been fully complied with by the said corporation, Do Hereby Certify that the did on the fifth day of April, 1892, file in my office a duly executed and attested certificate of consent to the dissolution of said corporation by two-thirds in interest of all the stockholders thereof, which said certificate of consent, and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file and of record in my said office, as provided by law.

(Seal) In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed my official seal, at Trenton, this fifth day of April, A. D. Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-two.

NERVOUS AND FAINT.

Are Women Slaves to Their Nerves?

Women are great sufferers from nervousness, weakness, nervous prostration and debility. Thousands droop and languish in the close, confined shops, factories or offices, and hundreds of thousands wear out their nerve-power in household cares and work. This is especially true during the Spring months, when Spring Debility makes them much worse.

It is a fact also that no disease in the world has ever left such a train of invalids in its track—invalids who suffer from both nervous and physical weakness and prostration.

What wonder that they become worn out in nerve and vital power, and have great weakness, exhaustion, pain in back and limbs and other distressing complaints which are always caused by loss of vital strength!

The great nerve invigorator and female restorative is Dr. Greene's Nervura. No remedy in the world is so sure to bring back the bloom and color to the cheek, the brilliancy to the eyes, the elasticity to the step, the strength and vitality to the unstrung, shattered and worn nerves. "It is the greatest of all uterine tonics and regulators," and cures all female weakness and disease. Use it this Spring and get back your strength and vigor. Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists, $1.

"I had very severe headaches lasting three days. A loss of memory—would have to stop and think what I had to do, and was bothered very much. I had inward spasms, was very hysterical; would cry all day for nothing. I would drop anything out of my hand, and my speech was affected. I took Dr. Greene's Nervura, and it has been the greatest blessing to me and my husband, who, before, never knew if he should find me alive when he returned each night. I feel so thankful for what Dr. Greene's Nervura has done for me that I should need a whole page praising it.

MRS. LUCY SOUZA,
685 Ninth avenue, N. Y. City."

N. B. Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th St., New York, can be consulted, free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free. 2 2 tf tues

Everybody

if it is made with Cottolene, the new pure substitute for lard. Cottolene is simply pure cottonseed oil and pure beef suet, two of the healthiest foods known.

Properly combined they are better than lard for all kinds of shortening, and everyone can eat, digest, and enjoy food cooked with it. Food that was indigestible when cooked with lard is easily digested when cooked with Cottolene, and many of the leading housekeepers of the land say they can make nicer bread, rolls, biscuit, cakes, cookies, ginger bread, pies, patties, tarts, griddle cakes, croquettes with Cottolene than with either lard or butter. Get it of your grocer and try it. Beware of imitations.

He Had Been Tried.

A Texas gentleman applied to a friend for information in regard to a certain man whom he wished to employ on his ranch.

"Is he honest and reliable?"

"I should say so. He is tried and trusty. He has been tried four times for stealing horses and got clear every time," was the reply.—Texas Siftings.

A Practical Man.

Deacon Hayrick—Goin' to marry Penelope? Sho! She's a nice gal, but she's older'n y'r poor dead an' gone wife was, you know.

Farmer Rakestraw—I know it, deakun, but no one else kin take my dear wife's place. Penelope is the only one that's got my wife's own receipt fer punkin pies.—Good News.

The Poet and the Star.

There was a poet in olden times
Who loved a star: but he loved in vain,
For it took much more than he earned with rhymes
To pay what it cost for the star's champagne.
—Judge.

Quick at Figures.

Young Featherly—Are these your children?

Mrs. Brand—Oh, yes! The boy is five years old and this girl seven.

Young Featherly—Well, how time flies! It doesn't seem possible that you have been married twelve years.—Leslie's Weekly.

ON A BURNING BED

A Dying Woman's Terrible Situation.

CUT OFF FROM ESCAPE BY FIRE.

He Husband Made an Attempt to Rescue Her but Failed.

An Italian Grocer Accused of Setting Fire to His Store to Secure the Insurance—She Was Shockingly Burned and Was Saved from Being Cremated by the Foreman of a Hook and Ladder Company and Taken to a Hospital.

BROOKLYN, April 11.—A fire, supposed to have been of incendiary origin, broke out shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the three-story brick tenement, 160 Columbia street, this city.

The flames did not burn more than twenty minutes, but the house was gutted from cellar to roof.

The ground floor was used as a grocery store by Joseph Barbara. On the first floor lived William Boyd with his wife Mary, each aged 48 years, and their five children.

Every day during the past three months Mrs. Boyd's death has been expected, as for years she had been gradually wasting away with consumption. Rev. Father John J. Barry had been in constant attendance upon her; and so confident was he that the end was fast approaching that he had intended calling again yesterday to administer the last sacrament of the Church. Up to the time the fire broke out he had not arrived.

The woman lay in bed in the front room and her husband sat by the window reading to her. While so engaged he smelled smoke. Running down the stairs he found dense volumes issuing from under and over the side door leading into the grocery store.

He raised an outcry so as to alarm the other tenants. Then, as he heard the flames roaring and crackling inside, he tried to kick in the door, but without success. Within five minutes his five children ran down the stairs shouting that their flat was in flames.

Boyd rushed up the stairs and to his horror saw that the room in which his helpless wife was lying was completely cut off. He made one wild rush to save her, but was driven back by the flames, which were devouring everything.

Down the stairs he ran again and out into the street. In the meantime an alarm had been sent in and a hook and ladder company and several fire engines were coming up the street. With as little delay as possible, Foreman John Leo placed a ladder at the second-story window, up which he ran himself. An instant later he returned bearing in his arms the dying woman.

An ambulance came from St. Peter's Hospital, three blocks away, and into this the woman was lifted. She had been burned in a shocking manner, and the ambulance surgeon shook his head when he saw the charred body.

During all this time Mrs. Crimmins and her family were having a lively time. Before they had made up their minds what to do escape was cut off by way of the stairs. All managed, however, to get safely to the roof, and then down to the street from one of the other houses.

Boyd told Police Sergeant Slattery that he thought the fire was of incendiary origin. Barbara, he said, had only occupied the store about four months, and he claimed the whole stock was not worth more than $200 and it was insured in the London and Lancashire Insurance Company for $1,500.

"Fifteen minutes before I smelled the smoke," continued Boyd, "I heard voices in the store. All seemed to be Italians, yet when I tried to break in the door there was no one there.

Barbara has not been seen since, but the police are looking for him.

Impaled on a Cow's Horns.

KEYPORT, N. J., April 11.—Mrs. Lizzie Loshen, aged 42, wife of a well-to-do farmer at Centerville, was impaled by a cow. She went out to give the cow some feed and the cow overturned the tub in which the feed was placed. Mrs. Loshen attempted to fix the tub right when the cow, anxious to get at the feed, suddenly raised her head and Mrs. Loshen was impaled on her horns. Mrs. Loshen screamed for help. When rescued it was found that she was dangerously wounded in the stomach. Mrs. Loshen is a sister of Capt. James Walling, engaged in the commission business in New York.

Travelers' Protective Association Officers.

NEW YORK, April 11.—At the annual meeting of the New York Division of the Travelers' Protective Association George W. Graves was elected president, John F. Henry secretary and George F. Corbiere, treasurer. These gentlemen were also elected delegates to the annual convention, in June, at Old Point Comfort, Virginia. It is stated that the balance in the treasury of the National Association at the present time is $18,000.

Saratoga Town Appointments.

SARATOGA, N. Y., April 11.—President Mitchell has appointed George V. Koenig, a Democrat, as Police Commissioner for the full term, to succeed James I. Wakefield, whose term has expired, and C. L. Pond, a Republican, as Street Commissioner for the full term, to succeed himself. Both commissions are non-partisan.

Tried to Carve His Wife.

PATERSON, N. J., April 11 Will Cannon, who dubbs himself the "lucky politician of the Eighth Ward," armed himself with a big knife Saturday and sought to carve his wife into mincemeat. He chased Mrs. Cannon and slashed her face over the left eye, causing and ugly and painful wound. The eyelid was cut through.

THE FAIR APPROPRIATION.

Arguments Will be Made Why Congress Should Grant $5,000,000.

WASHINGTON, April 11. — President Baker and Directors Odell, Winston and Butterworth of the World's Columbian Exposition will appear before the House of Representatives Committee on World's Fair to-morrow to show cause why Congress should appropriate $5,000,000 for the exposition.

"While we are in Washington," said Mr. Baker, "I shall see the Coinage Committee and try to get them to recommend the issue of a Columbian medal half dollar to be used for admission at the Fair in place of printed tickets. It would be less easy to counterfeit than tickets and besides would be valuable as a souvenir of the exposition. This issue would also relieve the silver question to the extent of about $10,000,000, for we can easily use 20,000.000 of them.

"If they are issued we will buy them from the Government, have on sale at the regular ticket stations and make them the only ticket of admission to the grounds."

Divinity Students Licensed to Preach.

NEW HAVEN, April 11.—The following students of the Yale Divinity School have been licensed to preach: F. L. Goodfield, East Jaffray, N. H., Amherst College; J. H. Keeling, Utica, N. Y., Rutgers College; F. L. Johnson, Byron, Ill., Wheaton College; H. A. Mossler, Spring Lake, Mich., Olivet College; F. L. Davis, Brooklyn, N. Y., University of New York and Union Theological Seminary; L. B. Goodrich, Plainfield, N. J., Amherst College; G. A. Holzinger, Princeton, Ills., Olivet College; J. McLaughlin, Danielsonville, Conn., Brown University; W. J. Moulton, Center Sandwich, N. H., Amherst College; F. Park, Volga, Ill., Iowa State University; T. C. Putnam, Buffalo, N. Y., Amherst College.

A New Scheme to Transport Coal.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, Aprill 11.—The New York Steam Company is arranging to grind coal in the Connellsville coke regions to a fine powder and mix it sufficiently with water to make it semi-liquid, and then force it through pipes to New York. There it will be allowed to settle in great tanks and a large proportion of the water drained off. It will then be pressed into bricks and used in that state for fuel. It will be forced through the pipes at the rate of five miles per hour. The company has the whole process on a small scale in successful operation in New York city with the exception of the pulverizing process.

Corbett's Training Quarters.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., April 11.—Wm. A. Brady, the manager of the theatrical combination with which Jim Corbett, the pugilist, is now traveling, has rented a cottage here for the season, and Corbett will come here at the conclusion of his California tour and train for his coming fight with Champion John L. Sullivan. The latter has also expressed his determination to summer at this place. He will be the guest of Harry Kernell, the comedian, who owns a villa in West Asbury Park.

The Hetheringtons Reunited.

DUBUQUE, Ia., April 11.—Lieutenant Hetherington, of the United States Navy, who was acquitted of the murder of Gower Robinson, an English banker, in Yokohama, for being to familiar with his wife, has been written by his father, ex-Mayor Hetherington, that he is in honor bound to stay in the navy. It is said that Hetherington and his wife have settled all their differences and are living together again.

Pension Information.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—During the month of March the Pension Office issued 26,341 pension certificates, the first payment on which aggregated $3,882,759, the average first payment being $147.40, and average monthly rates $10.10. Of the total certificates issued 6,471 were under the general law, and 19,870 under the act of June 27, 1890.

To Bless Flour for Russia.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, pastor of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, will bless a shipment of 280,000 pounds of flour on the Inman line dock, pier 43, North River, to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The shipment of flour is to be sent to the Russian sufferers by famine by the Red Star steamship Conemaugh.

Kicked to Death by His Son.

BOSTON, April 11.—Daniel Donovan, aged 70, died at the City Hospital yesterday from the effects of a brutal assault by his son John. The son went home drunk and began to beat his mother and sister. The father interfered and was kicked to death. Several ribs were broken.

The Gregory Divorce Suit.

TRENTON, N. J., April 11.—Buel D. Penfield has been appointed referee in the suit of Prof. Benjamin C. Gregory for absolute divorce from his wife, and the taking of testimony will begin today at Mr. Penfield's office. No. 206 Broadway, New York city.

THE LEADER CAUGHT

Philip Munoz Arrested in the Suburbs of Madrid.

HIDING WITH A COMPANION.

He is Said to be the Brains of the Anarchists' Movements in Spain.

Charged With Having Laid the Plans to Blow Up the Parliamentary Buildings—Police Are Searching Houses for Infernal Machines Munoz is Known to Have Kept for Use—He Makes Light of His Arrest.

MADRID, April 11.—Philip Munoz, the Anarchist leader, was arrested here yesterday. He is charged with having laid the plan for blowing up the Parliamentary buildings and having employed Delbocho and Ferreira, who were caught in the act of placing bombs before the doors of the Cortes. He is the man to whom were to be consigned the dynamite cartridges which Delbocht ordered from Diso, an Anarchist arrested in Bilboa on Wednesday. He is thought to be the brains of the Anarchists' movements in Spain and to be the originator of the plans to blow up the palace, the police station and the building of the War Department in this city. These plans were found sewed in Delbocho's underclothes, and the writing in them, the police say, resembles that of Munos closely.

He was caught in the suburbs, where he was hiding with a comrade. The police are searching the near-by houses in hopes of finding the ammunition and infernal machines which Munoz is known to have kept for use by the executors of his plots. Nothing has yet been discovered. Several suspects have been arrested, but the police refuse to disclose the nature of the evidence against them. Munoz will be brought before a magistrate for examination to-day. He makes light of his arrest and says the police can prove nothing against him. An effort will be made to induce him to confess, as did Delbocho, after at first refusing to speak of his criminal plans and denying even that he was an Anarchist.

An Attempt to Blow Up a Church.

MADRID, April 11.—While a Jesuit priest was preaching in church at Bilbao last evening, a cripple near the door found a bomb with a burning fuse behind the pillar. He made an outcry and extinguished the burning fuse. There was a rush for the door and women and children were trampled to the floor. A dozen persons were seriously injured. No strangers were seen to enter the church after service began, and it is supposed that the bomb was set with a slow fuse earlier in the evening. No arrests have been made.

BRUTAL TREATMENT.

A Pauper's in an Almshouse Bound Hand and Foot.

CANTON, Mass., April 11.—A scandal has developed in connection with the management of the almshouse in this place. James H. Berry, an inmate of the almshouse, was found by a town official gagged and bound hand and foot and bruised and bleeding from wounds on the face.

He accused Keeper Dunbar of maltreating him because he had been overheard complaining to a friend of the management of the place. Keeper Dunbar claimed that Berry was drunk, but this charge was not sustained. An investigation will probably be made.

The Tattersalls Buys a Kentucky Exchange

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 11.—The Tattersalls of London, through their American agent, William Easton, who has been in this city for the past two weeks, have bought of W. R. Brasfield & Company, the interest of W. R. Letcher, in the Brasfield & Company Horse Exchange. This consists of about eight acres of land and improvements thereon located in this city of Lexington. The name of the firm will be Tattersalls, Brasfield and Company, and all kinds of horses will be sold.

A Lighthouse Keeper Drowned.

NEW LONDON, April 11.—Christopher Culver, aged 24, keeper of the Race Rock lighthouse, was drowned Saturday evening while attempting to reach his station from this port, where he had been spending a few days with his wife and child. He started for the lighthouse, eight miles distant, in a small rowboat, and in spite of the rough sea. When two miles off shore the boat was seen to upset. The body has not been found.

Sarah Althea Terry's Estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—Inventory and appraisement has been filed in the matter of the estate of Sarah Althea Terry, the widow of Judge David S. Terry, who is now in the insane asylum. The total value of her personal estate is $1,700, and consists of jewelry, silverware and dress goods. The property will be taken care of by R. Porter Ashe, the guardian of Mrs. Terry.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The passage by the Senate last week of an appropriation of $400,000 to aid in defraying the expenses of the National Encampment, G. A. R., next September, has greatly encouraged and enthused those in charge of the arrangements for the affair. In addition to this sum, the citizens' committee expect to raise $60.000, of which over $30,000 have already been subscribed, and every cent will be needed. The books of the committee show that more posts have been booked and quartered than at any previous encampment so far ahead of the date of meeting. The number disposed of thus early is unprecedented, and presages, in the opinion of the committee, an attendance of 300,000 people.

One of the features of the parade will be the unusually large number of mounted officers. In this respect the encampment will eclipse anything ever seen in the history of the Grand Army. The staff of the commander-in-chief aggregates fully 200 men, and all of them will be mounted. The same can be said of the various department commanders. Another feature of the parade will be the addition, for the first time, of the National Association of Naval Veterans. This body contains a membership of several thousand, and their yearly meeting will be held in Baltimore the same week of the encampment. On tha day of the parade they propose to come to Washington in a body and participate.

FAMINE RELIEF FUND.

Liberal Contributions from Different Parts of the Country.

WASHINGTON, April 11. — Gov. Hoyt, Chairman of the Russian Famine Relief Committee of the United States, has received from President White of the Fourth National Bank of Cincinnati, a draft for $1,790 contributed by the people of that city to the Famine Fund, with assurances of a second remittance soon.

He is also in receipt of liberal contributions from Gov. Fleming of Florida in behalf of his people, and is encouraged by Gov. Page of Vermont to hope for considerable sums as a result of the latter's Fast Day proclamation.

Immigration Increasing.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The past week has shown the largest arrival of immigrants for years. Twenty-one steamships arrived here, which carried 1,466 cabin, and 15,014 steerage passengers. Of these latter 1,213 are detained at Quarantine. On one day, Thursday last, 4,506 steerage and 706 cabin passengers were landed, and Saturday there arrived in port 3,557. For the corresponding week of last year, there arrived 18 ships which carried 1,038 cabin, and 11,852 steerage passengers. Up to date there have arrived this year, no less than 90,000 passengers, exceeding the number for the same time last year by 11,256.

Wages to Be Reduced.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., April 11.—Notices have been posted at all the furnaces in this city that there will be a general reduction of wages, to take effect on April 17. The turn men will be reduced 15 cents, the day laborers 10 cents and the iron men three-quarters of a cent per ton. This will give the turn men $1.75 per day and the laborers $1.35, which is the same that they received before the raise last November. An operator said to a reporter that the reduction was necessary because of the condition of the iron market.

Will Support Gresham and Polk.

CINCINNATI, April 11. — Deputy Supreme Master Workman Cavanagh, who has returned from Philadelphia, says that the conference of K. of L. leaders in that city resulted in a determination to support Judge Gresham for President, and Polk of North Carolina for Vice-President. It is stated that Judge Gresham strongly intimated that if a modified platform was adopted he would accept the Third Party nomination.

Searching for a Runaway Girl.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 11.—Mrs. L. P. Wood of 21 Laidlow avenue, Jersey City, has requested the police of this city to look out for her daughter, Daisy, who ran away from home about two weeks ago and is supposed to have come to this city, where her aunt resides. At the aunt's residence all information regarding Daisy was refused.

Jute Mills Closed.

PATERSON, N. J., April 11.—The strike of the 100 doffers at the Dolphin Jute Mill has resulted in the closing down of the mill until they return to work or other help is procured. The spinners and other employes are unable to go on with their work without the aid of the doffers. A strike of twenty helpers is in progress at the Phoenix Silk Mill.

Freight House Destroyed.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., April 11.—The freight house of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in this place, was burned yesterday. The loss, which cannot be definitely given until consignees and shippers put in their claims, is estimated at $40,000. The company will rebuild at once.

A Bogus Reporter in Trouble.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 11.—F. H. Marlowe, who claims to be a reporter for New York papers, has been held in $500 bail on each of the charges of forgery and larceny. The police think he is a bogus reporter and one of a gang that has been passing worthless checks in this region.

Sulphur Mills Burned.

NEWARK, N. J., April 11.—The sulphur mills of the Passaic Chemical Works were burned yesterday. Five small frame buildings adjoining the works were also destroyed. Loss, $75,000; partially insured. Several hundred men are out of work.

HORRIBLE TORTURE

Two Atrocious Outrages Committed by Burglars.

THREE RUFFIANS IN DISGUISE.

After Nearly Killing an Old Couple the Thieves Did Not Get Anything.

John Daly Bound Hand and Foot, Had a Knife Jabbed Into His Neck, a Lighted Lamp Used to Burn an Ear Off, and He is Then Beaten Until Insensible—Miss Oliva McDowell, a Maiden Lady Treated in a Similar Manner.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., April 11.—Two atrocious outrages were committed in this town Saturday night by masked burglars. John Daly, an old soldier, was awakened shortly after he had retired for the night by three burly masked men. They demanded his pension money which he was supposed to have concealed about the house, and he refused to give it up. They then bound him, hand and foot, tied him to a chair and began a horrible system of torture.

First they jabbed him in the neck with a knife, beat him over the head with a revolver, but still refused to tell the hiding place of his money. Next they took a lighted lamp, held it under his ear, burning the organ completely off.

The old soldier yelled with pain and begged for mercy, but the burglars only renewed their torture. Daly was resolute, however, and would not divulge the whereabouts of his wealth. Seeing that it was useless, the burglars beat the man until he became unconscious.

After thoroughly searching the house, the burglars left and proceeded to the house of Miss Oliva McDowell, an aged maiden who is reported to have a little money.

They dragged her from her bed and bound and gagged her. She was tortured in a similar manner to old Daly, but she refused to tell where her money was concealed. She was hit in the left eye and the sight destroyed. They also pierced her skull with the edge of a knife, and beat her in such a brutal manner that her life is now in danger.

The robbers secured nothing. There is no clue to their identity.

CRAZED BY HIS LOSSES.

James Hawley's House Destroyed and an Adopted Son Burned to Death

PITTSBURG, April 11. — Fire shortly after midnight destroyed the residence of James Hawley. All the inmates escaped except Joseph Linton, an adopted son, who was burned so death.

When his burning bed fell to the first floor Mr. Hawley, crazed with grief, sprang into the flaming building and threw himself upon what remained of it.

He was dragged from his perilous position, his rescuers sustaining severe injuries.

He then attempted to cut his throat with a pieces of glass but was prevented, and soon afterward made a third attempt at suicide by dashing his head against a post, and, failing in this, tried for a fourth time, by running his head against a wagon wheel.

Hawley has met with many losses of late, his barn having been burned down and his cattle poisoned. It is thought the fire was incindiary.

Forest Fires in Connecticut.

NORWICH, Conn., April 11.—Forest fires, due to the prolonged drouth, are burning around nearly all the rural towns in the eastern part of the State. In Griswold, east of this city, several hundred acres of wood land were burned over last week, and it was only by fierce fighting by the whole neighborhood that several farm houses were saved from destruction. Fires have raged for several days in the forests at Canterbury and other towns in Windham County and also in the western counties of Rhode Island.

A Sugar Warfare Promised.

NEW YORK, April 11.—In speaking of the wholesale grocers' project to build an independent refinery on Staten Island, Mr. John E. Searles, secretary and treasurer of the American Sugar Refining Company, said: "We do not fear the new combination. Arrangements can be made whereby we can open agencies and supply the retailers direct." The indications are that a warfare will be begun which will greatly cheapen sugar for consumers.

Four Boys Drowned.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 11.—Four boys, named Charles Beatty, Manson Stevens, Joe Waters and James Padgett, were drowned in the Tennessee River, near Lower Island. The lads were drifting on a raft, which was dashed by a swift current against the island with such force as to shatter it. None of the boys could swim and all were drowned.

Rev. W. T. Griffin Resigns.

JERSEY CITY, April 11.—Rev. W. T. Griffin, who was called to the pastorate of the Park Reformed Church in this city a few months ago to succeed the Rev. Dr. Suydam, has been forced by ill-health to resign.

Reading Repair Shops Burned.

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—The repair shops of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad at Nicetown, and four adjacent dwellings, burned last evening. Eighty coal and freight cars were destroyed. Loss $75,000.

Will Not Aid the Lottery.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Mexican Government makes the statement that it has not authorized the establishment of the so-called Juarez Lottery or guaranteed the payment of its prizes

It's concealed, but it's there—ammonia in baking powder widely advertised as "absolutely pure;" 'tis easy to detect it;

Boil up a heaping spoonful of the powder in a spoonful of water, and smell the steam.

There's nothing to conceal in Cleveland's baking powder; the composition is stated on every label.

The ingredients are all so wholesome we are glad to have people know what they are.

THE NEW CHARLIE ROSS.

Friends of the Missing Boy's Father Will Pursue the Latest Clue.

ST. LOUIS, April 11.—Further inquiry into the Charlie Ross case at Benton, Mo., makes the story more interesting and circumstantial. R. H. Sparks of Blodgett, Mo., on whose farm the supposed Charlie Ross is working, was seen. In an interview, in which his statements were corroborated by his friends, he said:

"In 1874 an unknown man brought a boy to Benton between three and five years old. No effort was made to place the matter before the Germantown people, because Mr. Ross at that time said he was utterly disgusted with the way he was being led to different parts of the country on wild-goose chases. The resemblance between the picture of the kidnapped boy and Mr. Sparks's protege was considered marvelous."

Advices from Philadelphia are to the effect that Mr. Ross will not pursue this clue, but that some of his friends will do so for him.

Chinese Exclusion Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Considerable interest is felt as to the probable course of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations on the House Chinese Total Exclusion bill, which was referred to that committee on Wednesday. No action was taken on the bill by the committee that day, which is the regular meeting day. Strong efforts will be made by the Pacific Coast Senators, through Mr. Dolph, who is a member of the committee, to force a favorable report on Wednesday next. Failing in that, an attempt will probably be made to release the committee from further consideration of the bill and to pass it through the Senate by a hurrah vote.

Two Alleged Cures by Faith.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 11.—Two remarkable cases of cure by faith and prayer brought about by visits to the Rev. Thomas Adams, the suspended priest of Brooklyn, are said to have been recently made of residents of this region. Mrs. James Finan of Creekclocks, it is alleged, has been cured of cancer, and a child named Elsie Connolly of weakness in the legs which prevented her from walking without the use of iron braces. Mrs. Finan was declared incurcurable by her physicians.

Governor Pattison Not a Candidate.

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—Last week there was a great deal of talk about putting Governor Pattison on the Democratic national ticket. Attorney-General Hensel, Pattison's leader, said last night that the Governor is not a candidate for either first or second place on the ticket, and that his name will not go before the convention.

Senator Quay's Victory.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 11.—Returns from Saturday's primaries show that on the popular vote on the Senatorship Senator Quay has a majority of more than 8,000 over Congressman Dalzell.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Justice Lamar is much better.

A copyright treaty between Spain and Mexico has been arranged.

The decline in the price of silver is causing depression in business in Mexico.

It will not be possible to open the Cheyenne and Arapboe reservation before April 19.

AN EVERY DAY AFFAIR.

The milkman's daily jest comes as a perpetual surprise to the housemaid, and though oft repeated it never palls. Our daily story comparing the prosperity of Plainfield's papers, is no jest to the others, but is interesting to the public.

SLIGHTLY WARMER TO-MORROW.

(SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.)
GOVERNMENT WEATHER REPORT.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Forecast till 8 p. m. Tuesday: For New Jersey, fair; warmer; variable winds; becoming southeasterly; increasing cloudiness. and possible rain Tuesday afternoon or night.

LOCAL FORECAST.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, NEW YORK, April 11.—For northern New Jersey: Monday, generally fair, with occasional snow flurries; stationary temperature; brisk northwest winds. For Tuesday, generally fair; slightly warmer. Wednesday, increasing cloudiness and rain; slightly warmer.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Hear that tenor, Chas. Smith, at Reform hall, Thursday evening.

—Tickets of admission for the free organ recital of W. E. MacClymont may be obtained at Randolph's, Shaw's, Reynolds's, or Leggett's drug stores.

—The mechanical drawing and bookkeeping classes of the Y. M. C. A. will meet this evening as usual. Every member of these classes is requested to be present.

—The contract for new suits for the Plainfield Bicycle club this season, has been secured by Edward B. Ryder, of this city, representing Hulbert Bros. & Co., of New York.

—It has been determined to continue the line of the Lake Hopatcong railroad to Budd's Lake via Stanhope, thence to Schooley's Mountain, terminating in a junction with the Jersey Central or the Lehigh Valley.

—Bert Firstbrook's base-ball nine defeated S. Hoffman's nine Saturday by the score of 9 to 0. The battery for Bert Firstbrook's nine was A. L. Schomp and Elmer Hoffman; for S. Hoffman's nine, P. Hand and S. Hoffman.

—An entertainment will be given next Thursday evening at the Boys' club. A very nice programme is being arranged, and all members are urged to be present. The exhibition of the scroll saw work will be held on that evening.

—When you want good carpentry work done by a reliable man go to R. H. McCullogh, 21 Steiner place. His specialty is sashes, blinds, doors and mouldings, and he does excellent scroll sawing and turning. Whenever you have work to be done, ask him for an estimate.

Directors to Receive Members.

Mayor Gilbert and others will respond to appropriate toasts at the supper to be given by the board of directors to the active members at the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-morrow evening at 7. Commuters arriving in the city after 6 are requested to go directly to the association rooms.

PARTICULAR MENTION

General James Negley sailed from Liverpool for home on the City of New York, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dou ll Miller (nee Miss Eleanor Shepard) have just returned from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Abbott of Prospect avenue, will shortly leave this country for a European trip.

The Rev. Dr. Lewis of this city, preached in the Presbyterian church at Bound Brook, yesterday morning.

The Rev. Charles B. Mitchell leaves tonight for Pittsburgh and will not return before Saturday morning. He is called to the bedside of a dying friend.

Among the students of the Yale Divinity school who have just been licensed to preach is L. B. Goodrich, brother of the Rev. C. L. Goodrich of this city.

Veterans Charles H. Bugg, William H. Williams, and W. Wallace Coriell, were present at the reunion of the 2d Regt, of N. J., in Jersey City, Saturday last.

The marriage of George F. Randolph, jr., of this city, and Miss Louisa A. Crawley, will take place at the home of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Thomas, 372 West 126th street, New York, Thursday evening next at 8:30.

Dr. John F. Griffen, who was stricken with paralysis last week Thursday, died last night. He was in his sixty-ninth year, and leaves a family of grown children. He was the father of Arthur M., Charles H. and George M. Griffen. Funeral services will be held at his late home, 63 East Second street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Interment private.

Isaac P. Brown of 124 Broadway, known to so many of us as "Uncle Ike," remembers that 66 years ago to-day there were six inches of snow in Plainfield. He was a boy then working at 9 cents a day for many a year, with hours in harvest time extending from 4 in the morning until 9 at night. He is as active now as he was then, and enjoys a life of ease that patient service and frugality in his younger days has gained for him.

THE CRESCENT LEAGUE TEAM.

The Pick of Semi-Professionals Already Signed—The Battery Still a Secret.

To quiet the agitation of those who still think that manager Keller is not moving as fast as he should in securing good wood for the Crescent League baseball team, THE PRESS herewith gives the team as signed with the exception of the battery, which is still a secret.

Daley, third base; Keeler, short-stop; Turner, second base; Jones, first base; Leidy, left field; Murphy, center field; Bonner, right field and change catcher; Windish, change pitcher.

The infield—Daley, Keeler and Turner—is the finest in the State. They are three crack players in their places, and at the bat are sure hitters besides being most clever base runners. Jones at first, it is believed, will distinguish himself. He is particularly well-fitted for the place by his experience as a catcher. His only fault has been a fear that some one would step on his feet. This he can overcome. Leidy is every bit as good a fielder and batter as McIndoe, and never sulks. Murphy and Bonner can't be excelled—the latter, especially, will fool many a man who thinks his hit out of reach.

Henceforth Order Will Be Maintained.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—The communication of my anonymous friend, "The Other Commuter", in Saturday's issue of your paper, would have passed unnoticed by me had not the writer misrepresented me in his opening paragraph. He states that I made a peremptory demand for the dismissal of conductor Aicher. That is either a misunderstanding or a deliberate perversion of what I have said. My previous letter was merely a statement of facts. I am heartily glad to be able to report that despite "The Other Commuter's" sympathy for disorderly persons the railroad officials have recognized the justice of my complaint and have given instructions to their train men that never again must disorder be permitted to continue on their trains. In this connection I may say that conductor Aicher is to be retained in his present position on promise never again to neglect his duty. The command is that henceforth all disorder in cars must be suppressed. The company having taken my view of the matter, that decorum and decency must be maintained in passenger cars, I am content to let "The Other Commuter" cling to his own peculiar policy. His opposition is harmless. With "The Other Commuter's" essay on "drunks" and "perfect ladies" I have nothing whatever to do.

WALTER IRVING CLARKE.

Its Support a Disgrace and a Disaster.

The following appeared at least two days in succession, last week, in the News of this city:

Do you notice that the side it [The News] takes on public questions always wins.

No! but we have noticed that the things the News most bitterly opposes, win. Here are a few "public questions" the News fought against:

Electric lights.
Fire department horses
Street railway.
Electric fire signal.
Expulsion of policeman Carey.
Election of Mayor Saunders.

The only public questions the News favored that ever won, where those that had a large majority of the people in their favor and consequently the support of the News could not result in their overthrow. The Republican party of this city repudiated the News and started the Courier because the indorsement of the former was a disgrace and a disaster.

MC CLURE'S THE MAN.

The Democracy of Plainfield Want Him for County Attorney and Hetfield for Surrogate.

Rowland M. Stover is the Democratic candidate from this city for the office of Surrogate. Walter L. Hetfield, ex-Councilman, has his eyes turned toward the County Attorneyship.—Plainfield Courier.

The Republican organ of this city, as shown by its assertions above, is still creeping in politics. If it was able to stand alone and knew something it wasn't told, there'd be no excuse for the two palpable errors quoted.

Rowland M. Stover is not the Democratic candidate from this city for surrogate or any other honorable office. He is not fit; he is not wanted; he's not in it.

The Democratic candidate from this city for the office of surrogate will be a high minded, clean handed and popular man. One whom the public respect. A man like ex-councilman Hetfield, for instance; not a rowdy politician.

And as to the Courier's assertion that Walter L Hetfield has his eyes turned towards the county attorneyship—that's nonsense, too. Every Democrat in Plainfield, including Mr. Hetfield himself, wants to see counselor William K. McClure in that office. He'd be a credit to the county, an honor to the position, and the powers in the party who placed him there would gain votes for themselves in the by-and-bye.

TO CANCEL THE WHOLE CHURCH DEBT.

Pastor Schenck's Energetic Efforts for Financial Prosperity.

The Trinity Reformed church is at last to be freed from the debt that so long has hampered it. When the Rev. Cornelius Schenck assumed the pastorate, in June, 1887, the church was then encumbered by a bonded debt of over $15,000. Through Mr. Schenck's personal efforts, heartily supported by his own congregation and liberal outsiders, this debt has been gradually reduced, until now it is only $4,300. The annual report, read Sunday morning, of the receipts and disbursements for the year, showed a reduction of $1,000 on the debt during the past year. Mr. Schenck then stated that he believed the entire amount could be raised now. Cards were therefore circulated, and $2,225 was pledged, as the result of his appeals, payable on or before Dec. 1, 1892, to B. A. Hegeman, the special treasurer of the bonded debt fund. A dozen subscription lists will be placed in the hands of members of the congregation for raising the remainder of the amount, and it is believed that the liberal-hearted people of Plainfield will be glad to help lift the burden. At the evening service Sunday $155 more was pledged, making $2,380 in all. Trinity church certainly has prospered both spiritually and temporally under Mr. Schenck's pastorate.

Youthful Base-ball.

The Arlingtons played their second game of the season Saturday morning with the Scotch Plains of Fanwood, and won by the score of 22 to 18. It was a heavy batting game all the way through. There was a plenty of three- and two-base hits and base on balls. The Scotch Plains started off with a run, but the Arlingtons soon overtook them and made three. In the fourth inning the Scotch Plains made nine runs on base on balls and a two-bagger and a three-bagger, but in the sixth inning the Arlingtons made ten runs by timely hitting and bases on balls. The features of the game was the fine pitching of G. Mattis, who struck out three men in succession in one inning and the pitching of G. McNair.

Can be counted on to cure Catarrh—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It's nothing new. For 25 years it has been doing that very thing. It gives prompt and complete relief—but you want more than that. And you get it, with this Remedy—there's a cure that is perfect and permanent. The worst chronic cases, no matter of how long standing, yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. "Cold in the Head" needs but a few applications. Catarrhal Headache, and all the troubles that come from Catarrh, are at once relieved and cured.

You can count on something else, too—$500 in cash.

You can count on it, but it's more than doubtful whether you earn it.

The proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy, in good faith, offer that amount for an incurable case of Catarrh. Don't think that you have one, though. They'll pay you, if they can't cure you. That's certain.

But they can cure you. That's just about as certain, too. Can you ask more?

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and destroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

Decorated Dinner Sets at Half Price!

Make up your own set from this beautiful open stock pattern and save just one half. The style is "Decorated Virginia Creeper, on Parisian Granite Body, illuminated with Gold, Gold Decorated Handles and Knobs. A new rich and delicate pattern that is very much admired."

This pattern can be had in open stock for the next ten years, so broken pieces can be replaced by new ones at any time. A complete set of dishes usually costs from $12 to $20. We have marked these wares at N. Y. prices, and a set can be made from this pattern costing as low as $6, and the set can be enlarged at any time. Don't buy till you have seen this ware, when you are sure to take no other.

Decorated Toilet Sets at $2.50, worth $3.50. We will give a genuine discount of 20 per cent. on all our Decorated Vase and Hanging Lamps. Lamp fixings and chimneys in endless variety, and our prices secure you for all time as customers on these. Examine and price our Common Crockery; we can save you money. If we can't show the most complete line of Tinware in town at prices the lowest, we remain silent hereafter. We can supply the largest portion of your House-furnishings this Spring, and sell them for less than what they would cost in New York. Remember, you get your bargains on 5 and 10-cent counters, and we have six of them. Royal Tooth Powder at 10 cents equals anything sold for 25 or 50c. ANOTHER BLOW TO OLD FRIENDS.

Governor Abbett Refuses Again to Indorse an Act of the Last Legislature in Spite of the Pleadings of Some of the Most Influential Men in Politics.

It seems that again is proof furnished that governor Leon Abbett would rather do what he thinks is right than be senator. News was received in THE PRESS office Saturday evening that he had killed bill 192 by refusing to sign it. It is the electric railroad bill, that was intended to nullify the decision in the Supreme Court in the suit brought by George A. Halsey and others to prevent the construction of electric roads in Newark and Trenton.

The governor's action will not materially affect Plainfield's road as the council are unanimously for it and the people by a large majority are demanding it—all being convinced at last by THE PRESS that it is a mighty good thing to have. But his refusal puts the operators of trolley roads in Newark, Passaic, Paterson, Camden, and other places in New Jersey in the light of trespassers.

Many people in Newark look upon the electric roads as the only solution of the rapid transit problem. They are surprised at the governor's action in view of the fact that James Smith, jr., Gottfried Krueger, the officers of the Prudential Insurance company, and many other influential men in politics on both sides are deeply interested in electric road projects, and roads are being laid or projected between Newark and Jersey City, Elizabeth and Newark, Newark and Passaic, and in many other cities and villages. One of the governor's best friends in Trenton said to a PRESS reporter recently: "If the bill is not signed I'll be ruined."

Millions of dollars have been invested in the new system by local capitalists in proposed roads in all the biggest cities in the State, and the strongest influence has been brought to bear upon the governor without effect.

Mr. Halsey's suit was brought to prevent the Newark company running an electric line along Broad street in front of his house. Horse cars are now run on this route. The report of the Governor's action created a sensation Saturday night throughout the city of Newark, but the killing of the bill will not stop the extension and maintenance of the system in that city. Newark has been given such perfect trolley roads by such broad and generous men as Messrs. Nevins and Riker—now of the Plainfield Street Railway company—that the merchants on Broad and every other business street that has n't them are crying for the trolley. Streets where are the horse car lines, are deserted by shoppers, callers, theater-goers and everyone else.

The effect of the Governor's action is that all trolley roads that were changed from the horse-car to the electric system are running in contravention of law as the supreme court recently decided that the power of a common council is limited to the regulation of travel by steam and horses. It is without authority to authorize a railroad company to replace horses and steam power with electricity. Instead of appealing from this finding to the court of last resort, the company concerned had an enabling act introduced into the legislature and passed. Though it was among the earliest passed it did not reach the governor until after the legislature had adjourned—"The messenger might have been delayed in the hall on his way to the governor", is how senator Marsh explained it to a PRESS reporter. Consequently the legislature had no chance to pass it over a veto if they wanted to.

The question that now interests the roads it does affect is as to what they shall do to save their plants from destruction. They may, in the hope of delaying the necessity for taking down their center poles and wires, appeal to the court of errors. By the time a decision is reached they hope the next legislature will be in session to give them relief.

He Told Her.

A certain small Tom was going out to luncheon by invitation. His mother was anxious he should behave well, but wisely recalling that simplicity is the essence of all true politeness, gave him but one caution, "Act, Tom, as if you were at home; take what you want with a 'Yes, please', and decline anything with a polite 'No, thank you'; be as honest as at your own table", trusting that with his confidence established the continual home sowing of precept and example would bear its fruit.

At night Tom reported results. "I guess I did all right, mother"—he said—though I got a laugh on me once."

"What was that?"—inquired his mother.

"Well, we had baked apples, and when it came my turn to be served Mrs. C. said: 'And now, Tom, which apple do you want?'"

"You told her, of course"—interpolated his mother, as the boy hesitated a little.—"You know I have often explained that it is good manners to give a choice when one is asked."

"Yes, mother, I told her, and that was the laugh. I said: The one I want is gone."

I FEEL it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even it at. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

A glass factory in the State of New Jersey is said to be engaged in little else but the manufacture of bottles for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

A Few of the Candidates.

The Elizabeth Herald says that a prominent Democrat thus predicts the candidates for State and county officers:

In all probabilities the Republican ticket will read—For governor, John Kean, jr.; for congress, John C. Rankin, jr.; for surrogate, George T. Parrot; for county clerk, Foster M. Voorhees.

Among the many persons who are mentioned as probable candidates for congress on the Democrat ticket are Hon. John T. Dunn, senator F.C. Marsh, James E. Martine of Plainfield, Francis C. O'Reilly of Orange, senator Robert S. Hudspeth of Bayonne and ex-mayor Hartford of Orange.

For surrogate may be mentioned alderman Jacob Sheppard, of Elizabeth and Walter Hetfield of Plainfield, James H. Durand of Rahway.

John L. Crowell and freeholder Charles Moore are the only candidates mentioned for the lucrative position of county clerk.

The newly-elected Board of Freeholders will meet next month and elect a director and various county officials.

John J. Donahue, William H. Trahon, Charles Moore and Samuel Holliday of Rahway would like to occupy the director's chair and handle the gavel.

There are a number looking for the clerkship of the board, a few of the candidates are Jeremiah F. Desmond, Thos. C. Lathrop, John Lane of Summit, John M. C. Marsh of Westfield, Thomas McDiarmid of Cranford and Louis H. Brown of Plainfield, beside several dark horses.

In the field for the collectorship are ex-county collector Patrick Sheridan, Francis C. Engel and J. Williams Crane.

The following named persons are mentioned for county attorney: William K. McClure and Walter Hetfield of Plainfield, James H. Durand of Rahway.

Among those who desire to watch the county's prisoners and act as warden of the jail are John C. Pender, J. Edwards Marsh and Patrick Lynch of Plainfield.

It is reported that James J. Carey will accept the position of deputy warden.

Dr. E. R. O'Reilly, Dr. A. Q. Donovan and several other well-known physicians are mentioned as candidates for county physician.

What it is That Fixes Easter.

The full moon of April 12 holds the most important place on the lunar records of the year. It is the first full moon after the vernal equinox, and it determines, according to ecclesiastical usage, that Easter shall fall on the following Sunday. As this festival is the most ancient and important of all the movable feasts of the Christian church, it determines all the other movable feasts and fasts. The full moon on the 12th is, therefore, the pivot on which Easter turns, and is indirectly the regulator of the movable feasts and fasts of 1892. Thus one satellite, if it be a dead world, has no insignificant mission to perform in terrestrial affairs. Events innumerable are regulated by the fall of the great festival, and a difference of forty-three days, the extreme points of its occurrence, may exert a mighty influence on human affairs.

$100,000 FOR THE G. A. R'S.

Senator McPherson Says Give Them All They Ask For.

The appropriation bill to provide for the coming Grand Army encampment in Washington, was discussed in the Senate at Washington, Friday.

The Democratic senator of this State, John R. McPherson, warned the opponents of the bill that the country at large would not sympathize with the niggardly feeling which had been infused into the discussion. He said he was in favor of giving everything that was asked for the reception of those men but for whose gallantry there would be now no national capital in which to receive them.

An appropriation of $100,000 was then passed.

Growls from Grant Avenue.

Why is there no sidewalk under the Grant avenue bridge?

Why does Mayor Gilbert hang fire and not give the people an officer below Grant avenue?

The Plainfield Athletic club had a fine sparring exhibition Saturday evening at their hall on Lee place.

Why would it not be a good idea for the telephone company to put in a public telephone at the Grant avenue station? It would pay well.

Why do the present police hang around Grant avenue station and try to bribe young boys to purchase liquor from "speak easies" instead of patroling the outskirts? Are they officers of the peace, or spies?

The Coming of a Great Evangelist.

J. Murphy, the famous evangelist, will begin to-day a series of afternoon and evening meetings, at the Mt. Olive Baptist church. All are invited. Concerning the great work of this preacher the last issue of the Hackensack Index said:

"Evangelist J. Murphy, of Bedford, Mass., who has been conducting service in Templar hall, Hackensack, for the past two weeks will baptize about 25 persons, next Thursday evening, in the Baptist church, on Union street, near Ward street, which the Baptist people have generously tendered for the purpose.

"The Rev. Mr. Murphy is undoubtedly doing a good work in Hackensack among the colored people. He has conducted large meetings every evening during the past two weeks in Templar hall, and has made many converts.

"On Friday evening last, under his able management, the Mt. Olive Baptist church of Hackensack was organized with 43 members. Rev. Joseph J. Porter, of Elizabeth, was made pastor, with deacons Thompson and Wayne, and Louis West as church clerk.

"There was a large attendance on the evening of the organization, and many prominent ministers were present, among them being Rev. Joseph Bailey, of Elizabeth, Rev. J. H. Travers, of East Orange, Rev. W. Perry, of Montclair, and Rev. Simmons, of Paterson. There were also present a delegation of five from Elizabeth.

"The organization of this church is the outcome of Evangelist Murphy's two weeks' work here, and he says the outlook is very encouraging."

Plainfield's Delegates and Others Meet in Third Annual Conference at Trenton.

There were nineteen unions represented by sixty-five delegates at the Young Women's Christian Union's third annual conference, held in Library Hall, Trenton, Friday and Saturday of last week.

The delegates from this city were Miss Eleanor T. Morrison and Amey E. Green, accompanied by Mrs. S. J. Taylor, Mrs. Harder, Miss Mary Mosher, Miss Brown, Miss Louise K. Green, Miss Mary E. French, Miss Ross and others.

Mrs. Raphael, of Ocean Grove, was requested to open a short memorial service in memory of Mrs. Downs who died last fall, after having devoted most of her life to the temperance work.

Mrs. Ellis was then called upon as she had been with Mrs. Downs at the end. Mrs. Ellis told of the work done by Mrs. Downs and said she was one of those few individuals who were never too busy to have a kind and courteous word for every one, no matter how rushed she might be. Her last message to the Temperance women of New Jersey was: "Tell them I love them every one and to work as hard as if I was here to spur them on."

$500 for a Solution.

The Asbestos club has authorized its counsel to offer a reward of $500 for a solution of the following pronunciamento that has been found inscribed on the club's walls:

April 6, 1892.

To the Asbestos Club, Greeting:

We congratulate ourselves with so favorable a prospect of further development. Having occasion to recall our original primeval nebulos which by social cohesiveness we have finally become a collective correspondence with the environments of pleasure. We also remember our trials with the Amorphous clouds that darkened our future and exposed the individuality of our most prominent associates. Through this peculiar narrowness in our development we have gradually assured increasing complexity, until our highly differentiated and respected acquaintance have almost overcome the circumstance of the past, and we trust the evolution here will continue on until further necessities overrule the vacuum of our incompleteness.

BY ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT.

The Crescent Wheelmen Will Wear Cavalry Coats.

The Crescent League having already the boss bowling team and the boss ball nine, propose to have now the boss bicycle club. Its officers are: Charles P. Leggett, president; G. H. Macon, secretary; Joseph A. Haynes, captain; M. A. Haven, first lieutenant; J. Hervey Doane, second lieutenant.

A meeting will be held this evening to decide on suits. They will probably be of a very dark green, with cavalry coats profusely trimmed with broad and narrow black braid.

Holy Cross Choir Entertainment.

On Wednesday evening, the 20th inst., the second entertainment given by Holy Cross church choir to add to their camping fund will take place in the parish building. The programme will include, beside other things, readings by Miss Maude Agnes Bowers, a comedy sketch enacted by George Taggart and Will Holmes, and singing by members of the choir. A special feature will be the final number, the first public rehearsal of the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah", which the choir will also render in church at their choral service on the Sunday after Easter. Tickets may be obtained of the choir members.

"NO MORE DOCTORS FOR ME! They said I was consumptive, sent me to Florida, told me to keep quiet, no excitement, and no tennis. Just think of it. Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., April 5, 1892.

AN ORDINANCE

To establish the grade on West Fourth Street from Grant Avenue to Monroe Avenue.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the grade on West Fourth Street fromGrant Avenue to Monroe Avenue be established as follows:

Beginning at Grant Avenue at an elevation on the westerly curb corner of twenty-nine and eighty-eight one hundredths (29.88) feet above the City base and on the southerly curb corner twenty-nine and eight-tenths (29.8) feet above the City base, and running thence with a straight descending grade to the northeasterly curb line of Monroe Avenue, elevation on the northerly and easterly curb corners twenty-four and seventy-seven one hundredths (24.77) feet above the City base.

Section 2. That all ordinances, so far as they conflict with this ordinance, be, and the same are, hereby repealed.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the common council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., April 5, 1892.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance locating the tracks of the Plainfield Street Railway Company and regulating the construction and operation of the same and granting permission to said Company to use electric motors as the propelling power of its cars". Approved April 27, 1891.

Section 1. That section 1 of the ordinance whose title is cited in the title to this ordinance be and the same is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the route designated in the second paragraph of said section and substituting therefor the following:

Beginning at a point at the intersection of West Sixth Street with the Southwesterly line of Park Avenue and running thence through West Sixth Street westerly to Plainfield Avenue; thence through Plainfield Avenue southerly to West Seventh Street; thence through West Seventh Street westerly to Monroe Avenue; thence through Monroe Avenue northerly to West Fourth Street; thence through West Fourth Street easterly to Grant Avenue; thence through Grant Avenue northerly to West Front Street; thence through West Front Street to the Southwesterly side line of Park Avenue, and also from Front Street through Somerset Street to the line of North Plainfield Township.

Section 2. That section 11 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended as follows by striking out all the words of said section which precede the words "or shall afterwards fail or neglect to operate the same" and substituting therefor the following: "If the said Company shall fail to build or construct that part of said road lying between the point at the corner of Monroe Avenue and West Seventh Street and the point at the intersection of Front Street with the Southwesterly line of Park Avenue, with its turnouts and switches in the manner aforesaid, and to put the same in complete operation for the transportation of passengers, within six months next after the passage of this amended ordinance, and the rest of said road within nine months after the passage of a resolution by the Common Council directing said Company to proceed and complete the road."

Section 3. That section 19 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended as follows: By striking out the word "herein" where it occurs in said section and substituting therefor the following "in this ordinance as the same shall be amended by the proposed amendment introduced April 4th, 1892."

Section 4. That section 20 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended as follows by inserting in said section after the words "the terms and conditions in this ordinance," the words "as the same shall be amended by the proposed amendment introduced April 4, 1892."

Section 5. That in case it shall be hereafter judicially determined that the provisions of the ordinance to which this is an amendment or the provisions of said ordinance as amended hereby, which authorize the erection of poles in the streets of the City, are invalid, the intention of the Common Council and of the said Plainfield Street Railway Company is that the rest of the ordinance shall remain in force subject to the option of the Common Council to repeal the same in case said Company fail within six months after notice to agree with the Common Council upon some other method of propulsion for their street cars.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following ordinance has been introduced before the common council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the council to adopt the same.

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., April 5, 1892.

AN ORDINANCE

to amend an ordinance entitled "An ordinance dividing the Fourth Ward of the City of Plainfield into two election districts". Approved June 4, 1889.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That section 2 of the ordinance whose title is cited in the title to this ordinance be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. The first election district shall include all the territory and inhabitants thereof contained in that portion of the Fourth Ward described as follows: Beginning at the intersection of the center line of Fourth street and the center line of Park avenue and running thence along the center line of Fourth street southwesterly to the center line of Plainfield avenue; thence northwesterly along the center line of Plainfield avenue to the center line of Front street; thence southwesterly along the center line of Front street to the center line of Girard avenue; thence northwesterly along the center line of Girard avenue to the City line in Green Brook; thence northeasterly along the City line to the center line of Somerset street; thence southeasterly along the center line of Somerset street to the center line of Front street; thence northeasterly along the center line of Front street to the center line of Park avenue; thence southeasterly along the center line of Park avenue to the point or place of beginning."

Sec. 2. That section 3 of said ordinance be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Sec. 3. That the second election district shall include all of the territory and inhabitants thereof contained in that portion of the Fourth Ward outside of and not included in the foregoing description of the first election district."

YOUNG DISMISSED

Charged With Betraying Secrets of the Senate.

HIS FRIENDS ARE INDIGNANT.

Senator Sherman Demands that the Courtesy of the Senate be Upheld.

The Committee on Foreign Relations Say They Have Proof of the Executive Clerk's Guilt, and that He Was Not a Proper Person to Hold the Office—Many Senators Say the Action of the Senate is Outrageous.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The United States Senate in secret session yesterday declared vacant the office of executive clerk, held by Mr. James Russell Young of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Young was charged with betraying Executive secrets, but as proof of his alleged guilt was brought forward, and according to information obtained from sources thoroughly reliable he was legislated out of office against the conscientious convictions of a number of those who voted to thus stigmatize him to observe the precedent of Senatorial courtesy in sustaining the Committee on Foreign Relations which reported in favor of declaring Mr. Young's office vacant.

The Senate went into secret session at 1:10 o'clock on motion of Mr. Cameron, who secured Mr. Young the position of executive clerk. Immediately after the doors were closed Senator Manderson brought forward his resolution providing for the re-admittance to secret sessions of the clerks on the Executive force who have been excluded from the Senate on the ground that they were responsible for the betrayal of Executive secrets.

This suspicion was the outcome of the accurate reports which have appeared in the newspapers of the proceeding of the Senate in secret session on the case of Judge Woods of Indiana and the Behring Sea Treaty.

There was a short debate on this resolution, Mr. Manderson speaking earnestly in favor of its adoption as an act of justice to Mr. Young and his subordinates en the executive force, and Mr. Sherman opposing it with equal vehemence. Many Senators were absent when a vote was taken, and the resolution was rejected by a small majority.

Then Mr. Sherman called up the resolution declaring vacant the office of executive clerk, reported favorably from the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Sherman said that the committee had reasons for believing that the office should be declared vacant; that it had had evidence of Mr. Young's guilt, and that the committee's word had been given that Mr. Young was not the proper person to hold the office. He also made some comment on the largeness of the executive force, contending that the executive secrets were confided to too many persons not members of the Senate, and that it was not strange that secret proceedings should come to the knowledge of newspaper men.

Mr. Sherman urged upon the Senate the necessity for sustaining the committee, and hinted that if it were not sustained that those Senators who voted against the adoption of the resolution would be guilty of a violation of Senatorial courtesy.

Mr. Hale, who introduced the resolution for Mr. Young's removal, made an earnest appeal for its adoption.

He contended that the betrayal of Executive secrets had reached a point where stringent methods for its stoppage should be resorted to. He was particularly severe on Mr. Young, and made the charge that he was guilty of the allegation brought against him. Mr. Hale is not a member of the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Senators Manderson and Paddock made earnest appeals for the rejection of the resolution.

They stated in substance that the Committee on Foreign Relations was going too far in attempting to secure the removal of an honorable gentleman who was known never to have betrayed the trust imposed in him. Senators knew only too well where accounts of executive proceedings came from; they knew that they did not emanate from Mr. Young.

Senator Manderson was particularly vehement in his denunciation of such a course as the Committee would have the Senate pursue; to make a scapegrace out of an innocent man, deprive him of a position he had filled well and cast upon him a stigma which he did not deserve.

Senator Cameron read a letter from Mr. Young claiming the right to be heard, requesting an investigation and asserting his entire innocence. Mr. Cameron made a short appeal in behalf of Mr. Young's retention.

Other Senators also spoke in behalf of Mr. Young, some of them urging an investigation, but Mr. Sherman's personal appeal for the exercise of Senatorial courtesy in sustaining the Committee on Foreign Relations had its effect, and the resolution was adopted by a majority of ten. It was directed that Mr. Young be informed of the action of the Senate.

The session waxed warm at times and was interesting by reason of its personal aspect. Many Senators privately expressed themselves in conversation with colleagues after the final vote had been taken, that the action of the Senate was outrageous, and some Senators who voted for the resolution acknowledged that they had been actuated in so voting by the appeal for the indorsement of the Committee on Foreign Relations more than by the merits of the case.

Newspaper correspondents in Washington were treated without gloves by Mr. Hale and some others in favor of the resolution. An effort will be made by Senators who believe Mr. Young has been treated unjustly to have the detailed vote on the resolution made public.

DESPERATE TRAIN ROBBERS.

Three Captured and One Killed in a Fight.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 12.—A desperate encounter took place yesterday near Falkwith, Morgan County, between four black train robbers and a posse of officers. Tom Wright, one of the robbers, was killed. Tom Head, Tom Randall and Henry Williams, the others, were arrested and put in jail.

When freight train No. 72, on the Louisville & Nashville road, reached Wilhite yesterday morning, four negroes attempted in daylight to break open a sealed freight car. When Conductor Martin and his brakemen interfered, the negroes drew pistols and defied them. Just then the train pulled out. The trainmen jumped aboard, the robbers shooting at them.

At Falkwith the officers were notified, and a posse of officers and section men started in search of the robbers, who were met near town. The negroes refused to surrender and drew pistols. A fight occurred, both sides firing several shots.

One of the robbers, Tom Wright, was killed. Tom Randall, another, was captured. The other two fled. Conductor Rudder, of a construction train, boarded his engine and pursued them, capturing Tom Head, after a desperate resistance, on Sand Mountain. Henry Williams, the fourth man, was caught at Laconte.

He made a confession in which he said the gang were the same ones who, on the night of March 30, held up and robbed the Georgia Pacific mail train at Weems, seven miles east of here. He also said they were the parties who attempted to wreck the Louisville & Nashville train near Boyle's recently, and shot at the flagman.

They reside here and are most desperate characters. Their captors will get the $5,000 reward offered by the Governor for their arrest.

An Immigration Agent's Scheme.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 12.—A German immigrant agent named Seemans, whose operations are conducted on a colossal scale, waited upon Premier Abbott yesterday morning, accompanied by some Northwest Territories Members of Parliament. He proposed to settle 400,000 German immigrants in the Northwest at so much per head. What the per capita price is neither he nor any one of the members who were with him will divulge. He claims to have settled a quarter of a million Germans in Brazil. The Government is considering the proposition.

Indians Need Not be Alarmed.

NEWARK, N. J., April 12.—Harry Marsay and Charles Hughes, the youngsters who ran away from their homes in the Twelfth Ward two months ago with the purpose of going out West to slaughter Indians, were found in a cheap lodging house in Duane street, New York. They were brought back to this city, and were soundly spanked for the worry they had given their parents.

Attorney-General Miller's Trip.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Attorney-General Miller left Washington for New Orleans and points in Texas, returning by way of Memphis, Louisville and Cincinnati. His trip will be devoted to business connected with the Department of Justice in the localities he visits. He expects to return to Washington by May 1.

An Old Colony Steamer Damaged By Fire.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., April 12.—The steamer City of Fitchburg of the Old Colony freight line, in port here, was badly damaged by fire. Several tugs poured streams of water into her and the fire department of the city was also at the scene of the burning vessel, and did good work in subduing the flames.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—A statement prepared at the Treasury Department shows that since April 1 there has been a net loss of gold to the Treasury of more than $1,900,900. The custom receipts at New York since April 1 have been $2,660,525, showing a slight gain over the corresponding period last year.

New Laws in New York State.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 12.—The following have become laws: Requiring boards of excise to pass upon written complaints of excise violation within thirty days after the hearing in a case is closed; to prevent parachute jumping; the Sohmer anti-Pinkerton bill.

Mrs. Bruck in Providence.

Denounced by Ministers.

BOSTON, April 12.—The Congregational ministers of Boston and vicinity, at a meeting yesterday, adopted a resolution condemning the Chinese Exclusion act, and requesting Massachusetts Senators to prevent its adoption by the United States Senate.

ALL FOR THE POOR

Rich Salvationists to Work in the Slums of New York.

ROMANTIC STORY OF A COUPLE.

Mrs. and Mrs. Montgomery as Soldiers of the Cross.

They Are Wealthy and Devote Their Time and Riches to the Advancement of Religion—Both Are Privates in General Booth's Army, and Ardent Believers in the Faith Cure, to Which They Attribute Their Recovery from Disease.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery, a wealthy California couple, who belong to the rank and file of the Salvation Army, have arrived in this city, and will begin to study the condition of the people in the slums.

The story of this couple, who have dedicated their wealth and energy to the advancement of religion, is strangely interesting, and reads like a page from a romance.

George Montgomery is a native Californian. On the Pacific slope he is rated as a millionaire. He owns several mines in Mexico and he has valuable holdings in real estate. In his younger days he was one of the gay young men of San Francisco. He fell a victim to a fatal disease, and was told that he could not live. He was cured, as he firmly believes, by faith.

His wife was formerly Carrie Judd, of Buffalo. Her father was O. K. Judd, for thirty years in the employ of the American Express Company. Carrie was a delicate girl, and in her youth was prostrated by a spinal trouble that doctors pronounced incurable. She was bedridden for two years, but was miraculously cured, as she also believes, by the prayers of a faith healer, a colored woman, Mrs. Edward Mix, who lived in Walcottville, Conn. This was in 1879. The remarkable cure and its peculiar features are well remembered by the residents of Buffalo.

When Carrie Judd and George Montgomery met at a faith cure convention in Chicago in June, 1889, the similarity of their experiences was the magnet that drew them toward each other. In May, 1890, they were married in Buffalo. While on their wedding trip they chanced to attend a meeting of the Salvation Army in Boston. Their attention was arrested by the earnest spirit of the soldiers of the cross.

On their return to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery established a mission in the slums of that city which they conducted for a year or more. Last Thanksgiving Day they joined the Salvation Army in San Francisco, their action causing considerable of a sensation.

Mr. Montgomery has founded a Salvation Army town near Oakland, Cal. It is called Beulah. There a refuge for fallen women is soon to be erected on land given by Mr. Montgomery, as well as a home for superannated Salvation Army soldiers. In addition to these good works, Mr. Montgomery proposes to open a great camp meeting ground at Cazadena, 85 miles from San Francisco. He owns 1,350 acres of land there and a summer hotel. The place is described as extremely beautiful. The groves of mammoth redwood trees, some of them 75 feet around and 300 feet high, are noted for their grandeur.

Crying for Bread.

LONDON, April 12.—The unemployed held another meeting at Tower Hill yesterday. John Moore Packer said that unless speedy relief was afforded the unemployed, thousands of men would rise up and demand work. The Trafalgar square demonstration would be nothing to the movement that would be inaugurated. A news dispatch from Middlesborough, Yorkshire, says that owing to the Durham miners' strike children are crying in the streets for bread. The Poor Law officers have been besieged by starving people. The state of things is pitiable beyond words.

Nearly Ready to Resume Duty.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 12.—Colonel Williams, the Governor's private secretary, says Governor Flower will resume his duties at the Executive Chamber some day this week, probably to-morrow. He would have been at the Executive Chamber a week ago, but did not feel strong enough to meet the number of people who would call on him there daily, especially while the Legislature is in session, in addition to the transaction of his official duties.

Charlestown's Second Election.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 12.—The second election in Charlestown yesterday resulted in the Democratic gain of a Representative, Herbert A. Gates, while the Republicans elected their Senator, Joseph C. Church.

Peace Again in Venezuela.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Navy Department is informed that the U. S. S. Newark sailed from La Guayra for Curacoa, West Indias. This is taken to mean that peace has been restored in Venezuela.

FOR A NEW SETTLEMENT.

Unallotted Lands of the Sisseton Reservation to be Opened.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The President yesterday signed the proclamation opening to settlement the unallotted lands of the Sisseton and Wahpeto Reservation in North and South Dakota known as the Lake Traverse Reservation at 12 o'clock noon on the 15th inst. Warning is given that until the lands are opened to settlement all persons save the Indians who are members of the Sisseton and Wapeto band are forbidden to enter upon and occupy any part of it. It is also ordered that the lands (described in the proclamation) shall be attached to the Fargo and Watertown land districts.

The agreement made between the Government and the Sisseton and Wahpeto Indians under an act of Congress for the cession of their lands was signed on December 13, 1889. An allottment of 160 acres has been made to every member of the bands. Under the law, it is provided that patents shall not issue until the settler or entryman has paid $2.50 for each acre taken up by him, and the title to the lands shall remain in the United States until the full amount has been paid by the entryman or his legal representative.

LARGE LOSS OF LIFE.

Hundreds of Homes Swept Away by Floods in the South.

COLUMBUS, Miss., April 12.—The past week has been the most distressing this section has ever experienced. Wednesday morning the Tombigbee River, already full, began rising rapidly. By Thursday all the low lands were submerged, the river having risen 14 feet that night. It continued to rise all that day and by Friday morning it was seven feet higher than was ever known before. Black and Luxapilla creeks joined their waters with the Tombigbee and the Columbus was then literally an island with five miles of water in every direction.

There has been great loss of life, and an immense amount of property destroyed. Fourteen negroes were drowned within a few miles of this place.

A low estimate puts the loss of life at fifty in this county. Up to this time no whites have been reported drowned.

The flood has carried destruction in all directions. Hundreds of homes have been swept away, miles and miles of fences destroyed, and the loss of mules and cattle is fearful.

A Mystery Cleared Up.

POMO, Cal., April 12.—The mystery of the robbery of George E. Holden of New York of $8,000 in a Pullman car last November has just been cleared up. Holden has identified the securities which prove that the money and bonds were stolen by Oliver Curtis Perry, who made the sensational attempt to rob the New York Central train last February. Perry was on the train with Holden, but represented himself as a New Mexican cattle rancher. After stealing Holden's valuables he left the train in the night. Pinkerton detectives have found the bonds and jewelry, but Perry spent all the money.

For Attempting to Poison His Wife.

NEWARK, April 12.—Damiano, the Italian saloon keeper who was arrested Saturday night charged with attempting to poison his wife by giving her arsenic, has been held to await the action of the grand jury. Patrick Mullin, his companion, is held as a witness. Mullin has confessed that Damiano intended to kill his wife. It is understood that Mullin first informed the police of the affair, as he had become frightened at Damiano's talk about poisoning his wife.

Efforts to Commend Parkhurst Failed.

NEW YORK, April 12.—At the meeting of the New York Methodist preachers, the Rev. Dr. Atkinson, of Newark, N. J., offered a resolution commending the sermon of Dr. Parkhurst in which he so vigorously attacked the police and city authorities, but it made such a commotion and so many energetic protests against committing the Methodist preachers to the indorsement, that the Doctor withdrew his resolution.

Fined for Allowing Aliens to Escape.

NEWARK, N. J., April 12.—R. J. Cortis, the general agent in New York of the Hamburg-American line of steamers, has been sentenced by Judge Green to pay a fine of $300 for allowing aliens to escape from one of the vessels of his company. The aliens were brought over here under contract to work at mining, and were permitted to go from the vessel contrary to orders to hold them.

Explosion in a Rod Mill.

PITTSBURG, April 12.—A large separator connected with the battery of boilers in Oliver & Robert's rod mill exploded early in the morning, seriously, and perhaps fatally, injuring James Rodgers, the engineer; Michael McCullough, Frank Ross and Dennis Donovan were painfully scalded. The mill was completely wrecked by the explosion.

He Was Not Drowned.

LONDON, Conn., April 12.—Christopher Calver, jr., the keeper of Race Rock Lighthouse who was reported to have been drowned Saturday, arrived here alive and well. He was unable to reach his station, and this fact, coupled with the report of the overturning of his boat, led to the belief that he had been lost.

Lexington's Great Horse Show.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 12.—Yesterday was annual horse show day at Lexington, and over $1,000,000 worth of trotting, thoroughbred and hackney stallions were on exhibition. Horsemen from all over the country were present.

An Instructor and Eight Boys Drowned.

BOSTON, April 12.—An instructor and ten boys connected with the Boston Farm School at Thompson's Island were capsized in a sail boat and the instructor and eight of the boys drowned Sunday night.

SPRECKELS IN LUCK

Said to Have Made $5,000,000 by the Sugar Deal.

THE TRUST HAD TO KNUCKLE.

It Became Weary of the Struggle Against the King.

Some New Facts Given by One of Spreckels' Most Intimate Friends—The Story of How He Used the Sugar Trust to His Own Advantage—The Old Man is Immensely Wealthy and Made it All Out of Sugar.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Since Claus Spreckels, the sugar millionaire, returned here, there have been many conjectures as to the real status of the compromise between him and the Sugar Trust. Some of the trust people declared that the combine had brought Spreckels to his milk, while Spreckels' friends assert that he had made practically his own terms. One of Spreckels' most intimate friends gave new facts in regard to the recent dicker between the California sugar king and the trust. He said:

"The formation of the trust about five years ago was a surprise to Spreckels, but he was still more surprised when the trust gave him the option of going in with them or being crushed. Their offensive way of bluffing him aroused the old man's wrath, and he defied them to do their worst. While they were laying plans to shut down the refineries here he went to Philadelphia, built a $3,000,000 refinery, and opened an active fight in their own camp.

"They stood the competition until this winter, when they became weary of the struggle and agreed to Spreckles' terms, $8,000,000 for his Philadelphia refinery and liberty to control all the sugar interests on the coast. So Spreckels came back with his $5,000,000 in profits, ready to meet the Hawaiian planters and secure control of all the sugar crop of the islands. Spreckels gave $1,000,000 each to his three children. The old man is worth fully $20,000,000, all made out of sugar.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

The Result of an Elopement of Forty Years Ago.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 12.—As the result of an elopement which occurred nearly forty years ago, the courts here will be called upon to decide an interesting legal question in regard to the disposition of the estate of Israel Wohlman, who died last September leaving about $7,000 worth of property to Rebecca Wohlman, whom he claimed to be his lawful wife.

A son, Louis Wholman, now appears and will make a contest for the property on the ground that the woman who lived with his father was not the latter's legal wife. Proof has been forwarded from Warsaw which shows that Wohlman's wife, whom he deserted 40 years ago, is living there in destitute circumstances. Wohlman and the woman with whom it is alleged he eloped from Warsaw have lived in this city for nearly 40 years.

Will Not Honor the Requisition.

BOSTON, April 12.—The correspondence between Governor Russell and Governor Bulkeley, of Connecticut, in regard to the requisition for the arrest of Preston B. Sibley, who is wanted here for kidnapping William Philips, has ceased. Governor Bulkeley will not honor Governor Russell's requisition, and Governor Russell has not complied with Governor Bulkeley's request that the indictment against Sibley be quashed. Officers throughout the State have been informed of the condition of affairs, and Sibley will be arrested if found in the State. Philips is incarcerated in a Connecticut jail. His father has brought a civil suit against Sibley to recover damages.

Information for Telephone Stock Holders

BOSTON, April 12.—Treasurer Driver of the American Bell Telephone Company, states that subscribers to the new stock must make their subscriptions to four shares or multiples of four shares, in order to secure the full benefits of the subscribtion. Only 625 shares will be issued June first. Prepayments do not carry benefits as the issue of stock is limited on the payment dates.

Bond Robbers Sentenced.

LONDON, April 12 —The two notorious criminals, Frederick Pemberton Peach and Walter Selyen, alias "Lord Fairfax," alias "Captain Selyen," also known as Archibald Herbert Melville, have been convicted and sentenced for their part in the extraordinary robbery of Turkish bonds. Selyen received a sentence of five years, and Peach fourteen months.

The Pope and American Schools.

ROME, April 12.—The Pope has written a letter to Archbishop Ireland disapproving of certain criticisms in the Jesuit organ, "Civilta Cattolica," on the Archbishop's course. The Pope is giving much study to the school question in the United States, and has received from Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore an interesting sketch on the subject.

New Britain's Election.

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., April 12.—The Democrats elected their entire city ticket yesterday by majorities ranging from 19 to 163, John Walsh, for Mayor, receiving the last named majority. This is the first time in the history of the city that the Democrats have elected their ticket.

Standard Oil Stock Increased.

ALBANY, April 12.—The certificate of the Standard Oil Company increasing its seven million dollars capital has been filed here. The debts of the Company are given as $1,356,629.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

Battles for the League Championship Begin To-day.

NEW YORK, April 12.—To-day the League diamonds will resound to the clash of bats, the hoarse cries of coachers and the howls of an enthusiastic public. The fact that twelve clubs are contesting for the coveted flag will have a tendency to sharpen public interest, and it is likely that fully as great a number of people will witness the opening games to-day as at the beginning of any League season in recent years.

The Giants will play in Philadelphia, where they will tackle Harry Wright's Quakers. There is no prophesying upon the result. It will be a hammer-and-tongs battle, full of dash and ginger, and it is possible that over 12,000 people will witness it.

Although not exactly in the best of condition at present, the Giants are "comers," and their admirers should not lose heart at the loss of half a dozen games. President Day is confident that the boys are pennant winners.

Johnny Ward's men will make their debut in Baltimore against Barnie's Orioles. John has a great team this year and will make the best of them hustle. A large crowd of Brooklynites left for Baltimore last night and Ward will not lack vocal encouragement.

The champion Boston's should not have much trouble in defeating the Washingtons at the capital, although Nash's men have not been putting up their usual game of late. As far as the Western contingent are concerned, Anson will be extremely lucky if he gets away from St. Louis with his scalp. In Cincinnati the fight between the teams of Comiskey and Hanlon will be one of the closest of the day's series of battles. Cleveland and Louisville are also well matched. The weather prophets predict a fair day, which means large crowds all over the country.

ACCEPTED OUR PROTECTION.

Distinguished Chilians Now Being Entertained at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Washington is entertaining just now two distinguished Chilian gentlemen—Juan E. Mackenna and Julio Banados Espinosa. They were members of Balmaceda's Cabinet, which was overthrown in the revolution of last year, and who later, were among those who accepted the hospitality and security of the American Legation in Santiago.

Their visit to Washington is for the purpose of expressing to Secretary Blaine their gratitude for the favor shown them by Minister Egan, at a time when his protection was the means of saving their lives and their property.

They are profuse in the expressions of their thanks for the service rendered. Messrs. Mackenna and Espinosa are making a trip through the United States, expecting to remain here some time.

CARPENTER'S PAINTING.

The Present From American Women to Queen Victoria.

LONDON, April 12.—The Queen has just sent another testimonial of her appreciation of Carpenter's International Arbitration picture, which has been placed by her orders in the royal banquetting room of Newburgh Castle, to Mrs. Carson, of Newburgh, N. Y., who presented the painting to Her Majesty in the name of the women of the United States.

In addition to the royal acknowledgement from the Queen dated February 27, the day the court mourning for the Duke of Clarence expired, Her Majesty has now sent a second letter asking Mrs. Carson's acceptance of a full length portrait of herself, mounted and framed, with the date in Her Majesty's handwriting, together with her autograph, in the right hand corner of the picture.

Ravachol Anxious for Notoriety.

PARIS, April 12. — Ravachol seems anxious for a trial apparently on account of notoriety it will bring him. He is extremely vain, and delights in posturing as the great Anarchist of the age. He is endeavoring to convert his warden to Anarchy, and he has attempted to make a disciple even of M. Goron, head of the Detective Department. When the latter came to question the outlaw, he found that instead of examining Ravachol, he was being examined by him. "Don't you see, remarked the dynamiter, "I am the apostle of the Anarchical idea, which is the idea of the future. Others will take my place hereafter. They will be an army."

A Noted Lawyer Dead.

TROY, N. Y., April 12.—John H. Porter, senior counsel for the people in the trial of Garfield's assassin, Guiteau, and for defence in the Beecher trial, is dead at Waterford. He was a son of Dr. Elijah Porter, and was born at Waterford on January 11, 1819.

A Monster Eight-Hour Demonstration.

CHICAGO, April 12.—A great international eight-hour demonstration will take place Sunday, May 1. It is estimated that 20,000 men will participate in the street parade. The plan is to have the paraders congregate at the lake front where addresses will be delivered. It is not yet known, whether the police will permit speech-making.

America's Aid to Starving Russians.

LONDON, April 12.—The "Chronicle's, correspondent in the Russian famine districts writes that he saw Count Tolstoi's daughter open and in a single day letters containing checks amounting to 3,000 rubles, mostly from America and England. There was one check from London for £100.

Consul John Jarrett Accepts.

PITTSBURG, April 12.—A meeting of the Iron and Sheet Steel Manufacturers Association will be held in this city to-day, at which a letter from Consul John Jarrett will be read announcing his acceptance of the position of agent of the Association at a guaranteed salary of $4,000 per annum.

(SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.)

GOVERNMENT WEATHER REPORT.

WASHINGTON, April 12 — For New Jersey: Fair till Wednesday night; warmer northwesterly winds, becoming variable.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, NEW YORK, April 11.—For northern New Jersey: For Wednesday, fair; stationary temperature. For Thursday, fair; slightly warmer.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Choice blooming plants for Easter may be obtained from Miss A. E. Lincoln.

—The boys' and girls' Eaton cap can be found in any shade at Hallock & Davis's, and their showing of Easter neckwear has never been equalled in this city.

—According to the advertisement of the United Tea and Coffee Growers' association, butter is way down, as are also Pillsbury's flour and Ferris's hams and bacon.

—There are ten new trains each way that run out of the Jersey City station of the Central railroad, under the new timetable, all of them being Lehigh Valley trains. This has necessitated an increase of force in the baggage department, clearing department, etc.

—The new management of the Central New Jersey railroad, should lose no time, whatever in changing the color of the Central cars. The present yellow has nothing to recommend it, and is worse than the sickly green of the old two-cent postage stamp. A color should be chosen which is pleasing to the eye, and which does not, as the present one does, remind everybody of a darkey wedding.—Railroad Employee.

—A week from next Friday will be Arbor Day, the day set apart by the governor for the planting of trees. It is only of late years that this day has been much observed, but it is a day whose lessons ought to be thoroughly studied by the old and thoroughly taught to the young. The fact that such a day has been set apart proves that forests are being destroyed, that trees are much fewer in numbers than they used to be, and that the results of the wasteful destruction of tree life are becoming better realized. Willful waste makes woeful want, no matter what is wasted. Our trees, our birds, our seals, our buffaloes—all have been wasted; cruelly, ruthlessly wasted, and nature will have her revenge.—Elizabeth Journal.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Seymour G. Smith, of Central avenue, is still ill with pleurisy.

Mrs. Stephen Dayton, of Bernardsville, is visiting her brother, J. H. Searing, 39 Madison avenue.

George F. Brown arrived home last evening from Honolulu, after a sea voyage of 34 days. He is looking and feeling unusually well.

The Rev. Dr. J. L. Hurlbut will lecture on Venice at the M. E. church Thursday evening. The lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon views.

Mayor Saunders of North Plainfield will address the members of the Boys' club at their entertainment, Thursday evening of this week. This will be a treat for the boys.

—Active members of the Y. M. C. A., who may find it impossible to be present at supper at 7 this evening, are requested to go to the association rooms as soon after that hour as possible.

The proposed presentation at the Casino, of Planquette's opera, "Chimes of Normandy", by the Thomas Amateur Opera company, Thursday evening of next week, has been abandoned.

On the 4th page of this issue of THE PRESS appears a portrait and a sketch of Dr. Robert Lowry, of this city, in which that noted hymn writer tells something about his songs and which is his favorite.

The wedding is announced to take place on Thursday evening, the 26th inst., of Miss Florence Potter and Alexander M. Ross. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter, jr., 43 Seventh street, West. Mr. and Mrs. Ross, after a wedding tour, will reside in this city where the groom will present the bride with a house.

AN OFFICE TO HOPE IN.

John Kean Imports Irish Bog Oak and Fits Up Palatial Headquarters.

Ex-Congressman Kean, who owns Elizabeth and has his grip on Plainfield, has fitted up palatial headquarters for himself in the National State bank building at the former city, and is now prepared for the gubernatorial lightning to strike him. The affable young millionaire has taken possession of the quarters until recently occupied by the Prudential Insurance company. The rooms are for offices of the Water company, of which he is President and chief stockholder.

The woodwork is all in quartered oak—the New York World says—and Mr. Kean's private office in the rear, which has jokingly been dubbed "the Governor's room", is artistically finished with Irish bog oak, imported expressly for the purpose. An immense plate-glass door lets the visitor into Mr. Kean's sanctum, where he smilingly receives all comers and chats pleasantly on the political prospects in New Jersey.

The suite of rooms now occupied by the chairman of the State Republican committee are probably the finest of their kind in New Jersey.

Ex-Congressman Kean says he is quite hopeful of Republican success this fall. Rats!

BY THE WAY.

—There is but one laundry in Plainfield. Drop a postal with your address to H. W. Marshal, 14 East Front street, and the American Steam Laundry will do the rest. Your goods will be called for and delivered regularly.

—Reserved seats are now on sale at the drug store of R. J. Shaw and the bicycle emporium of Frank L. C. Martin for the people's popular entertainment Thursday evening at Reform Hall. As only a limited number has been reserved, secure your seats early.

—F. M. Hulett will open his music store Thursday morning with a full supply of the very best makes of pianos and organs. Sheet music will be a specialty. Any person calling on the opening day will receive a piece of music entitled "Hulett's Opening March", and a six-months' subscription to a musical journal free of charge.

—The firm of Barkalew & Dunn, the star grocers of this city, has been dissolved by mutual consent, but Fred W. Dunn will continue the business at the same stand, 18 North avenue, with the same fair dealing and attention to the wants of the people that has brought him success in his line.

Comptroller Williams Promoted to Three Vice-Presidencies.

At a meeting of the directors yesterday of the Central Railroad company, George F. Baker was elected vice-president, in place of Walter G. Oakman, who resigned to accept the presidency of the Richmond Terminal company, and S. M. Williams was elected second vice-president. Mr. Williams has been appointed second vice-president also of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company and of the Port Reading Railroad company, and will have charge of the accounts of the latter company and its leased lines.

A WHOPPER TAX RATE.

Said to be the Biggest in Plainfield's History.

At last night's common council meeting appropriations were made for the ensuing year which will make the tax rate for Plainfield citizens about 2.35. Last year the rate was 2.22. The report of the finance committee, fixing the appropriations, was adopted as follows:

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Plainfield:

GENTLEMEN:—Your Finance Committee to whom was referred the matter of determining the amount of money required for the needs of the city to be called for in the tax levy for the year 1892, report as follows:

1st—That the Alms Committee will need, in addition to the balance to their credit, the sum of $2,500, and in addition to this, for the erection of a proper building, as called for in the Mayor's message, and recommended by their Committee, the sum of $6,000, making in all, $8,500.

2d—We find on consultation with the Committee on Fire and Buildings, in order to properly maintain the Department and replace apparatus that is absolutely necessary to put the Department in shape for the proper protection of the City, that there will be needed at least $13,000.

3d—For general purposes we find the needs of the several committees to be as follows:

Finance Committee to cover rents, election and incidental expenses	$11,500
Police	8,500
Lights	9,500
Printing and Stationery	1,500
Water and Sewer Committee	1,000
Streets	12,000
Making a total of	$43,800

We estimate with the amounts already received and covered into the treasury, that the city will receive from

Licenses	$ 9,800
Railroad	650
Sewers	150
Fines	900
Poll Tax	1,500
Board of Education	800
Miscellaneous	2,000
Total	$15,800

Leaving a balance of $28,000 to be raised.

The above estimates have all been made after very careful consideration, and are as low, in the judgment of your committee, as present needs of the city will allow.

4th. The directors of the Public Library and Reading room call for $3,000 to be levied for the use of the Library and Reading room. The committee, therefore, recommend that the following amounts be inserted in the ordinance calling for the levy of taxes:

Poor	$ 8,500
Fire Department	13,000
Library	3,000
General Fund	28,000

included in which last named sum shall be the sum of $12,000 for the improvement of streets.

Your committee desires to call special attention to the fact that the adoption of this recommendation will increase the taxes for the current year as compared with 1891, $10,700.

$6,000 of which is for the purchase of land and erection of a suitable building for the city poor. The wisdom of making this appropriation can be determined by your honorable body.

3,000 is for the fire department, and as stated above is absolutely necessary for the proper maintenance of the department and the protection of the city. This matter is also one of great importance and should receive your most careful attention.

You will also note that the amount received from liquor and hotel licenses this year will be only $9,000 against $11,245 in 1891, a decrease of $2,245.

Another matter we should particularly call attention to at this time is the work on the streets. Before fixing the appropriation some definite policy should be decided upon and most carefully considered. During the last ten years a large amount of money has been spent in the improvement of our streets. The greater proportion has been well used and the city benefited, but, through misjudgment and bad management a large amount has been wasted. Previous to the year 1891, little or no attention seems to have been given to grades, and, in some cases, the streets have been spread with stone, which will all have to be removed, the street graded and the stone spread anew in order to properly drain the city. The question of grades should be at once looked into, and little new work should be done until the question is definitely settled.

Should a system of sewerage be decided upon as now seems probable, during the construction of the sewers the streets will be dug up and more or less disturbed, for this reason also we feel that the interest of all demand that we should do only what is necessary to keep the streets in repair, and little new work should be done until this matter of sewers is fully determined upon.

We therefore recommend that the appropriation for streets be made only $12,000 instead of $15,000, which amount under existing circumstances seems all that is needed.

Respectfully submitted,
Finance Committee.

Some effort was made to change the figures—in some cases to increase, in others to decrease, an appropriation. The council split even, however, and each proposed change was defeated by a tie vote. Messrs. Case, Frazee, Johnston, See and Weber united against Messrs. Bird, Erickson, Fisk, Ginna and Marsh. The appropriations recommended in the report were embodied in an ordinance, which was adopted.

Where Are the City's Reformed?

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Last Sunday evening there was no meeting in Reform Hall, owing to the absence of a speaker. Why is it that such an institution for the uplifting of humanity is allowed to be closed on the best night for meeting? Where are the reformed men of this city who attracted such large audiences laboring elsewhere because some of the executive committee wanted more prominent speakers? Why do n't they get them so we can have our meetings, is what puzzles some of the members.

I FEEL it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hop d for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

Plainfield, N. J., April 12, 1892.

AN ORDINANCE

For the assessment of taxes for the year 1892.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That pursuant to the statutes and ordinances in such case made and provided, there shall be assessed and raised by tax for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two for the general purposes of said city exclusive of Poor, Library, School, Fire and State and County taxes, the sum of Thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars, included in which last named sum shall be the sum of Fourteen thousand ($14,000) dollars to be raised by taxes for the improvement of streets; for the support of the city poor, the sum of Thirty-five hundred ($3,500) dollars; for the maintenance of the Public Library and Reading Room, the sum of Three thousand ($3,000) dollars; for the maintenance of a Fire Department to be under the control and government of said city, the sum of Thirteen thousand ($13,000) dollars.

Plainfield, N. J., April 12, 1892.

Notice is hereby given that Wallace V. Miller has applied to the Common Council of the City of Plainfield for a license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at Nos. 7, 9 and 11 North avenue, in the First ward, which application is signed by

I. S. Pocock,	Henry H. Corey,
C. W. Runyon,	James T. Murphy,
Charles C. Lister,	H. W. Marshall,
George O. Leidy,	L. C. Beckman,
John H. Blimm,	F. B. Randolph,

citizens and freeholders. All persons knowing of any reason why such license should not be granted are requested to make known the same in writing to the city clerk on or before the second day of May.

Done in accordance with the requirements of the "Ordinance to license inns and taverns and to regulate and prohibit the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors".

F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.

Decorated Dinner Sets at Half Price!

Make up your own set from this beautiful open stock pattern and save just one half. The style is "Decorated Virginia Creeper, on Parisian Granite Body, illuminated with Gold, Gold Decorated Handles and Knobs. A new rich and delicate pattern that is very much admired."

This pattern can be had in open stock for the next ten years, so broken pieces can be replaced by new ones at any time. A complete set of dishes usually costs from $12 to $20. We have marked these wares at N. Y. prices, and a set can be made from this pattern costing as low as $6, and the set can be enlarged at any time. Don't buy till you have seen this ware, when you are sure to take no other.

Decorated Toilet Sets at $2.50, worth $3.50. We will give a genuine discount of 20 per cent. on all our Decorated Vase and Hanging Lamps. Lamp fixings and chimneys in endless variety, and our prices secure you for all time as customers on these. Examine and price our Common Crockery; we can save you money. If we can't show the most complete line of Tinware in town at prices the lowest, we remain silent hereafter. We can supply the largest portion of your House-furnishings this Spring, and sell them for less than what they would cost in New York. Remember, you get your bargains on 5 and 10-cent counters, and we have six of them. Royal Tooth Powder at 10 cents equals anything sold for 25 or 50c. Thousands are using it in Plainfield, and all over the land.

ONE HUNDRED MILES AN HOUR.

Railway Talk as to the Feasibility of Attaining that Speed on the Iron Track.

The recent performance of engine No. 385, that runs through this city every day, in making a mile in the remarkable time of 39½ seconds, which means a speed of 91.7 miles an hour, has excited renewed interest among railroad men in the question whether a speed of 100 miles an hour is feasible on the railroads of the present day. The concensus of opinion appears to be that such a speed will be achieved before long, and that the difficulties in the way pertain rather to the track than to the motive power capable of snatching a train along at such a tremendous velocity.

This belief seems to be borne out by the performance of engine No. 385 and by a certain other wonderful achievement on a railroad running into Philadelphia, which is fully authenticated, but which has never been made public because it was feared that it might actually frighten away travel. In this instance an engine hauling four cars and engaged in making up lost time made the amazing run of 4.1 miles in 2½ minutes, which is equivalent to a speed of 98.4 miles an hour, or a mile in 36 seconds. It is not recorded that the passengers on the train suffered any discomfort from this cannon-ball speed, or that the engine or roadway were in any way injuriously affected by the tremendous rush. The run has never been repeated, however, though engine No. 385 came pretty near it when it reeled off a mile in 39½ seconds.

If an engine of the ordinary type could haul a train at the rate of 98 4 miles an hour, it would certainly seem that one of the big compound locomotives, built especially for high speed, could make up the 1 6 miles necessary to make up the even 100 miles.

Superintendent S. M. Vauclain of the Baldwin Locomotive works, who designed the type of compound engine of which No. 385 is so good an example, says there is not the slightest doubt that she can pull a train of three cars 100 miles an hour, and that with four cars she can make 90 miles. With a good headway he believes she can haul four cars 100 miles an hour. Not only is No. 385 a wonder in speed, but she is equally powerful. The other day she pulled 13 loaded coaches from Jersey City to Philadelphia in the actual running time of two hours and eight minutes, and she has taken eight cars the same distance in an hour and fifty-two minutes.

Mr. Vauclain disagrees with the views of Theodore N. Ely of the Pennsylvania railroad, as expressed in an article on "Speed in Locomotives" in the March Scribner's, that the chief obstacle to a speed of 100 miles an hour is the difficulty of getting a perfectly safe and unobstructed track. The tracks of a first-class railroad, such as the Pennsylvania and Reading between there and New York, are fully equal to the requirements of such a speed, Mr. Vauclain holds, and the real problem is to get an engine that can make such time. This problem seems to have been solved by the compound engines, and there is accordingly nothing to prevent bursts of 100 miles an hour on first-class tracks, if emergency should require it and an engineer can be found with sufficient nerve to force his machine to such a terrific speed.

Evangelist Murphy Begins His Work.

There were 200 present in Mt. Olive Baptist church, last evening, to welcome Evangelist Murphy and take part in the opening of his series of proposed revival meetings in Plainfield. The services were impressive throughout. Four came forward for prayer, and over 100 arose and testified their love of Christ.

Evangelist Murphy is a man of striking appearance and at once impresses one with interest. He has an easy, plain and pointed manner in speaking, and at the same time he interests and fastens the truth upon the hearts of his hearers. He is the most successful evangelist ever known among the colored people, and a man born to lead. The fact of his laboring here insures a harvest of souls among the Rev. Mr. Warnick's people and others.

Meetings will be held every afternoon from 4 to 5, and every evening. Mr. Murphy extends a special invitation to the unsaved.

Moore Wants Back His $6,000.

The following communication was received by the Plainfield common council last night and referred to the corporation counsel:

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Plainfield:

SIRS:—We have been instructed by our clients, the Water-works Company of Plainfield, and Charles K. Moore, to insist upon the return to said Charles K. Moore of the sum of $6,000 heretofore deposited by said Moore with your city in connection with the water contract made with said company on Dec. 27, 1889.

We are informed that a contract has been made between the city and another company, purporting to supercede the contract of Dec. 27, 1889. Under the present status of affairs our clients are entitled to the return of said deposit. We trust that a settlement can be affected without suit.

Yours respectfully,
WALLIS, EDWARDS & BUMSTED.

THE "MILLER"ITE ANSWERED.

A Maiden's Response to a Lawyer's Demand for His Fee.

The story is told that one morning recently a number of Plainfield men while on a Jersey Central ferry-boat on their way to business in New York, were discussing a certain question, and as they were not all of the same mind one of the party asked a well-known lawyer resident in this city who was standing near, what his opinion was, stating to him the subject of the discussion. The lawyer answered giving his view of the law on the subject, and then the conversation became general and drifted upon other topics. Imagine the surprise of the gentleman who brought the lawyer into the discussion to receive from the latter a bill for a small amount for his opinion.

Well, one evening a number of ladies and gentlemen were in conversation and one of the ladies, a bright daughter of Plainfield, asked a young lawyer present what he thought of a certain incident, which involved a question of law. Then the story above related was told, and the absurdity and narrowness of the action of the well-known lawyer struck the young man so forcibly that in sport he told the fair questioner he would consider the matter, examine the authorities and give her a written opinion. He did so and sent the opinion to her, stating that his charge for services was one hundred and fifty dollars. The following is the young woman's clever reply to the lawyer's demand for his fee:

As legal adviser let me recommend you
To all this vast region around;
So true to the letter, few there are better;
May your praises forever resound.

But as you ascend on Fame's tipsy ladder
Grow not dizzy, lest downward you fall;
Oh, what a horror! to find on the morro'
Your wrecked hopes, your prospects, your all.

With no "Nods of the head or winks of the eye,"
But humbly your course do pursue;
No tricks and no dodges, begin with low charges—
Gratis, I send you this cue.

That hundred and fifty you claim as you due—
What think you of this little plan;
My note to your order, or you be our boarder
And eat it all out, if you can.

Your charges, I own, are a little bit steep,
But then your research was so vast
That I'd give so willing my very last shilling
Though I were in poverty cast.

With no "Nods of the head or winks of the eye"
My pathway through life I'll now tread,
So that no one I'll smother, or worry, or bother,
Though the lawyer himself be not fed.

THE LAST BATCH.

Ten Assembly and Three Senate Bills Signed by the Governor Saturday Morning—The Numbers, Authors and Titles.

Assembly bill 51, by Mr. F. D. Smith, repeals the old Union Turnpike company's charter.

Assembly bill 108, by Mr. Moylan, provides that the boundary lines of Bergen, Hudson, Union, Middlesex and Monmouth counties shall be as fixed by the Joint Boundary Commission of New York and New Jersey.

Assembly bill 175, by Mr. Beekman, authorizes third-class cities to lay out, improve, alter and repair streets.

Assembly bill 181, by Mr. Beekman, authorizes towns, villages and other municipalities to acquire lands to be used as sewage receptacles.

Assembly bill 129, by Mr. Smith, authorizes trustees to sell and convey lands.

Assembly bill 219, by Mr. Potts, authorizes executors, etc., to invest trust funds in municipal bonds, provided that the act shall not apply where wills or court orders specially direct otherwise.

Assembly bill 254, by Mr. Tumility, increases the amount that cities may raise by bonds for armories to $40,000.

Assembly bill 297, by Mr. Moylan, amends the act relative to laying out streets in towns.

Assembly bills 454 and 457 were also signed. The latter was approved on April 8.

The Senate bills signed were:

Senate bill 44, by Mr. Fowler, provides that assessors in first-class boroughs shall be elected instead of appointed by mayor or council as now.

Senate bill 139, by Mr. Hinchcliffe, provides that $300,000 road bonds may be issued by second-class counties.

Senate bill 155, by Mr. Keys, extends the time for reclaiming swamps and marshes near New Brunswick

This batch is the last of the bills which can be signed within the prescribed thirty days. Any that are not signed now are considered as dead, and if there is is any desire to make them laws, they will have to be revived and passed next year.

Harrison	8,338	27.67

It Does Not Affect Elizabeth, Either.

[From The Elizabeth Journal.]

Gov. Abbett's refusal to sign the electric railroad bill prevents the building of electric roads in Trenton and in Newark, but it does not, it is said, affect the traction company that seeks a franchise from the Elizabeth city council.

Base-Ball Notes.

It is said that Kennedy and Farrell, of the Somerville team, have signed to play in the Eastern league.

The Plainfield friends of the New Jersey Athletic club's base-ball team will miss Archie Smith, the club's tall, bewhiskered first baseman, from the team this season. Archie is one of Bayonne's most successful local tradesmen, and as his business demands considerable attention, he has resolved to retire upon the laurels he won during a dozen seasons of activity on the diamond. His retirement leaves "old reliable Dan" Chauncey, also of the New Jerseys, the only prominent bewhiskered amateur ball tosser of the State, as Arthur Moore of the Staten Island Athletic club's team no longer wears a beard.

—Plainfield has 2,172 families, and 1,963 dwellings.

SPECIAL REAL ESTATE SALES FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL ONLY.
THE CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY offer its houses and lots at greatly reduced prices and on very easy terms, in the following Cities and Towns:

	Population.	Time from New York.	Commutation.
ELIZABETH	40,000	20 minutes	20c per day
BAYONNE	20,000	23 "	17c "
NEWARK	175,000	30 "	17c "
PLAINFIELD	20,000	45 "	27c "
RARITAN	3,000	55 "	35c "

The CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, after an existence of twenty years, during which time it has sold thousands of lots and been instrumental in the rapid growth of the towns and villages along the Central Railroad of New Jersey, has decided to dispose of its remaining properties at such prices as will prove attractive to home seekers, investors and speculators. Don't invest in the many mushroom paper towns when here is a chance to buy lots in prosperous, healthy cities, with good schools, churches, electric light, low taxes and city charges paid for, all improvements made, such as sewers, curbing, paving, etc. Many $400.00 lots reduced to $200.00, and large reductions throughout. In many instances city improvements have cost close to $200.00. A rare chance, and present prices will hold good DURING APRIL ONLY.

SOME FAMOUS HYMNS.

When and Where the Inspiration Came to Their Authors.

"Tell Me the Old, Old Story" Was Written on Top of a Stage Coach and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" on a Train.

[COPYRIGHT, 1892.]

Everybody has heard that famous hymn, "Shall We Gather at the River?" "I would rather be the author of that hymn than the preacher of all the sermons that were ever delivered," said Dr. Dickinson, of Richmond, some years ago, addressing a great Sunday-school mass meeting.

Its author is Dr. Robert Lowry, and if all the hymns he has written, save that one, were blotted out forever, the name of Robert Lowry would live as the author of that melody.

"I cannot recall just the circumstances under which 'The Beautiful River' was written," said Dr. Lowry. "I have no method of composition. Sometimes the music comes first and words follow, fitted insensibly to the melody. I watch my moods and make note of anything that strikes me as being good. My brain is a sort of spinning machine, as music is running through it all the time."

In appearance Dr. Robert Lowry is of medium height, with full beard, dark, expressive eyes and long dark hair, combed carelessly back from a low, broad forehead. He is at present, and has been for a number of years, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, at Plainfield, N. J. He is a fine conversationalist, ever willing to give anecdotes from his past in connection with his work, as a Sunday-school writer. His hearing is defective, and in talking with me he leaned slightly forward, with one hand behind his ear to concentrate the sound of his visitor's voice. Though his impaired hearing affects him unpleasantly in other affairs of life he finds it no impediment to his work as a composer. "I could write hymns if I were totally deaf," he said, "for with music running through my brain I have only to get it on paper."

"Weeping Will Not Save Me" is his favorite of all. He regards it as the most evangelical hymn he ever has written. A few of the many of his most celebrated productions are: "The Mistakes of My Life," "Saviour, Thy Dying Love," "We Are Marching to Zion," "One More Day's Work for Jesus," "I Need Thee Every Hour," "Where Is My Wandering Boy To-Night?" and hundreds more as familiar and popular as these.

Dr. Lowry lives in a beautiful home on Madison avenue, Plainfield, N. J., and possesses one of the finest musical libraries in the country.

The most striking event in Dr. Lowry's life in connection with his song writing occurred while he was in London some years ago. Of this pleasing incident he says: "It was during the Robert Raikes centennial. I was in London, and had gone to a meeting in the Old Bailey to see some of the most famous Sunday-school workers in the world. They were present from Europe, Asia and America. I sat in a rear seat alone. After there had been a number of addresses delivered in various languages I was preparing to leave, when the chairman of the meeting announced that the author of 'Shall We Gather at the River' was present, and I was requested by name to come forward. Men applauded and women waved their handkerchiefs, and the great audience rose as I went to the platform. It was a tribute to the hymn, but I felt after it was over that perhaps I had done some little good in the world, and I felt more than content to die when God called."

When Dr. Lowry was asked to add more to the story of his life he answered:

"I would rather not write about myself."

HOW DR. DOANE COMPOSES.

The five authors whose hymns have attracted worldwide popularity are Robert Lowry, P. P. Bliss, W. H. Doane, James McGranahan and Ira D. Sankey. How generally they are used in civilized and uncivilized countries can be more easily understood when it is stated that letters from the four corners of the globe have been received by some of them saying how their hymns have gone on and on in many languages, preaching to and comforting thousands upon thousands.

Dr. W. H. Doane as a writer of sacred music has contributed some of the best of the Sunday-school hymns now in use. His home is at Mount Auburn, Cincinnati, and his life has been devoted to music in its many phases. He is a scholarly gentleman and a most entertaining talker. An enthusiast in music, he is brimful of many bright recollections of his early work as a writer. I asked Dr. Doane which of his songs were best known.

"That," he answered, "would be very difficult to say. 'The Old, Old Story,' 'Safe in the Arms of Jesus,' 'Rescue the Perishing,' 'More Love to Thee,' 'Tell It with Joy,' 'Nearer the Cross,' 'Come, Great Deliverer' and 'Though Your Sins Be as Scarlet' have all been popular, and are very generally used throughout the world. A large number have been translated. Each song has an interesting history, and oftentimes has been inspired by or written under most peculiar circumstances.

"It was while on my way to New York to attend a Sunday-school convention many years ago that the music of 'Safe in the Arms of Jesus' came ringing through my brain, and, through the noise and rush of the railroad train, I jotted down the hymn which has proved one of my best efforts.

"Often, under apparently the most inauspicious circumstances, melodies come to me which I had never dreamed of before," continued Dr. Doane. "One of these was 'The Old, Old Story.' I was having a summer outing in New England, and it was while there, one hot June afternoon in the year 1866 or 1867—I have forgotten the exact date—while I was riding on the top of a stage coach going from the Glen to the Crawford house in the White mountains, that the hymn was written. Perhaps it was the grandeur of the rugged landscape that gave me the inspiration in this case.

"'Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour!' was was written for a special service held in the Mount Auburn church, near my home in Cincinnati."

A LETTER FROM DR. DOANE.

In regard to the hymnology of the Sabbath-school Dr. Doane writes to me as follows: "One only has to glance over the hymns formerly put into Sunday-school singing books and compare them with those in the books made today to see the marked improvement. I have labored long and diligently to improve the hymnology of the Sunday-school and I feel sure the tendency is for a higher, purer style. Of course there are and always will be authors and bookmakers who have little idea of what a hymn should be and whose efforts are more easily satisfied with a jingling rhyme than a solid, good Gospel or spiritual hymn that will itself teach a good sermon and leave an impression on the mind and conscience."

M'GRANAHAN'S GOSPEL SONGS.

McGranahan's Gospel songs are not many in number but they are full of spiritual truth. He has a fine character and his life work has consisted in doing good. His home is at Kinsman, O., and it is from there he writes concerning his hymns.

"'I Will Sing of My Redeemer' is, perhaps, the most widely known of my Sunday school pieces, it being one of my earliest in that line. The late P. P. Bliss, whose name lives on as the composer of so many of the sweetest of Gospel hymns, wrote the words a short time before his death. The music was written soon after, in 1877, and it came through reading the hymn, almost without my seeking. It has been translated and sung in all lands and tongues where the Adorable Redeemer is known.

"Some of my later hymns are: 'Behold What Love,' 'The Crowning Day,' 'If God Be for Us' and 'Be Ye Also Ready.'

"I think there has been some progress made—more of Scripture truth and less of human sentiment, more wheat and less chaff—but there is still use for the sieve and the fan."

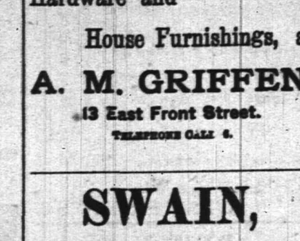
ASTONISHED NO ONE.

Wonder Was He Held Out So Long.

A clerk fainted from nervous exhaustion on returning home. Overwork and nervous strain broke him down, with the addition of Spring Debility so prevalent at this season of the year. The same applies to thousands of overworked clerks, mechanics, shop girls and others who see themselves growing thin in flesh, pale and sallow, and find themselves losing their physical strength and strong nerve. They grow weak, nervous, tire easily, have dull feeling head, wake tired mornings, lose their appetite, become constipated, feel miserable, old. They They are rapidly breaking down, and should use immediately the great nerve strengthener and blood invigorator, Dr. Green's Nervura. It is the best Spring medicine in the world, and will give a clear head, strong and steady nerves, vigorous strength of body, and thus enable them to keep up to their work.

The Grip also, has left in its train thousands of weak, nervous and debilitated sufferers who should use this great strengthener and restorative tonic if they desire to recover their former health and strength.



"I had indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation, cold feet and hands, sleepless nights and was very nervous. I used Dr. Green's Nervura, and now have no more indigestion or dyspepsia. My nerves are strong, have no more palpitation, no cold feet or hands. I sleep well and get up refreshed. In fact, I feel I am myself again, all due to Dr. Green's Nervura. I am positive everybody will be benefitted by it.

Growing More Liberal

That's what the human race is doing—particularly the American part of it.

There are a few left who are satisfied with ancient history. But most people are ready to apply modern progress and common-sense to the treatment of the human stomach—an organ that demands its rights whether or no; that resents the insults of worn-out methods. All this is to emphasize the facts about

COTTOLENE

There was once a prejudice against Cottonseed oil. But people who are alive, who investigate, who have no bigotry in their composition, have found that pure, refined cottonseed oil combined with selected beef suet is a better article in every conceivable way than hog's lard. And so they wisely use it for cooking—and are correspondingly healthy and happy. The sales of COTTOLENE are enormous and constantly increasing; a proof that it is appreciated by appreciative persons.

THE SEASON OPENS

Baseball Enthusiasts Turn Out in Large Numbers.

NEARLY 40,000 AT THE GAMES.

The Day Was Cold, but the Spectators Enjoyed the Many Fine Plays.

Russie's Curves Were too Much for the Phillies—Washington Wasn't in it With Boston—Capt. Ward's Men Won With Ease—John L. Witnessed the Chicago-St. Louis Game—Close Games at Cincinnati and Louisville.

NEW YORK, April 13.—At last the baseball season is open. The six games played by the professional clubs were attended by 38,468 people, an average of 6,441. This shows how popular the sport is and how profitable it is to the managers when it is properly conducted. It shows that, notwithstanding the black eyes given the game by the Brotherhood in 1890, and the Association last year, the people will support the magnates. Therefore, it behooves the magnates to consult the best interests of the people. Give them "good ball" and keep the game free from any suspicion of jockeying, and all will go well.

At Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The opening baseball game of the spring series for the National League championship was played here between the Boston and Washington teams. Although the weather was bitter cold, between 6,000 and 7,000 people filled the grand stands and "bleachers," and many were compelled to witness the game from the outfield. Boston backed up Clarkson's effective pitching in an almost faultless manner, and hit the ball hard toward the latter part of the game. The Washington team in some respects showed great improvement over the previous clubs that have represented this city. After the sixth inning the home team had no chance in the game. Richardson for Washington and Long for Boston did the best work in the field, while Clarkson led the batting. The score; Washington, 4; Boston, 18.

At Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., April 13.—The weather was too cold to watch a baseball game with comfort, but in spite of the temperature there were 7,468 people out to see the opening contest between the Cincinnatis and Pittsburgs. The Smoky City team had it all their own way until the ninth inning, when the Reds made a great rally, but could not quite reach. Baldwin's pitching was an enigma that the Reds could not solve. A home run by Beckley and three baggers by Holliday and Miller were the features of the game. The score: Pittsburg, 7; Cincinnati, 5.

At St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 13.—In the presence of 10,000 people Captain Anson's Chicago Colts annihilated the St. Louis Browns at Sportsman's Park. John L. Sullivan, Lillian Russell and Mayor Noonan were among those in President Chris Von der Ahe's box. The visitors showed better team work and outplayed St. Louis in every particular. Ad Gumbert had his finger injured in the third inning stopping a hot hit ball, and gave way to Hutchinson. The score: St. Louis, 10; Chicago, 14.

At Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 13.—The opening of the League championship season here could hardly be called a glittering success. Owing to the blustering weather the attendance was kept down to less than 5,000 people, and to intensify the depression, the Phillies lost through two errors by Hallman. The New Yorkers fielded superbly and were in the game from start to finish. The score: Philadelphia 4, New York 8.

At Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, April 13.—The championship of the new League was inaugurated here in the presence of over 5,000 people. The weather was disagreeably cold. The Orioles lost the contest because of the timely batting on the part of the visitors and the wildness of McMahon. Outside of Whistler none of the home team was able to bat Fouts. The Baltimore's put up a poor fielding game, while the visitors fielded brilliantly. The score: Baltimore 3, Brooklyn 13.

At Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, April 13.—The baseball season opened here with a parade through the city to the ball park. Both clubs played brilliantly. Pfeffer put up a wonderful game. The attendance was about 4,000. The weather was chilly. The score: Louisville 5, Cleveland 2.

THE GOLD RESERVE.

Secretary Foster Says He Can Use Half of It for Current Expenses.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Secretary Foster was before the House Committee on the Judiciary yesterday. He went to set forth his views on the powers possessed by the Secretary of the Treasury to use the $100,000,000 legal tender gold reserve, or any part of it, for current expenses, as he was reported in an interview as saying could be done.

A resolution was introduced in the House authorizing the committee to investigate and report upon the legal features of the case, and Secretary Foster was asked to present his views. He did so at length, asserting that under the law regulating the Treasury the Secretary could use at least half the reserve to meet current expenses.

Anita is Forgiven.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—Lucky Baldwin, the millionaire, has forgiven his pretty daughter Anita for eloping with her cousin. The old millionaire is ill and the girl has gone to nurse him. The reconciliation is said to be complete.

SHE WAS TOO CONFIDING.

Without Friends, a Pretty Young Woman Attempts Suicide.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The attempted suicide yesterday afternoon, by shooting, of a pretty young woman known as Mrs. Lawrence, in this city, brings to light another of those stories in which a too confiding woman deserts home, friends and everything dear, and places her life and her honor in the hands of a conscienceless villian with the usual result, desertion.

Mrs. Lawrence's real name is Rose Hess, and she is a native of Cincinnati. Her family is a most respectable one. She had an excellent education and is an accomplished musician. A little more than two years ago she met in Cincinnati, E. O. Goodwin, a commercial traveler in the employ of V. Henry Rothschild, of this city.

She became infatuated with the gay New Yorker and, it is said, he persuaded her to leave her home and friends and accompany him to New York. He installed her in a pretty little flat on upper Sixth avenue, which Goodwin made his home when in town. About 10 weeks ago Goodwin went West on one of his long business tours.

For several weeks he sent her remittances, but about four weeks ago they suddenly ceased coming, and she received no word from him. She telegraphed him for money, and received a heartless reply to the effect that he did not wish her to bother him.

Deserted and penniless among strangers, the young woman's mind probably became affected and she attempted to end her sorrows by shooting herself in the breast.

FOUR MILLION ACRES.

The Cheyenne and Arapahoe Reservation to be Opened.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The President yesterday signed the proclamation opening to settlement on Tuesday, April 19, at noon, the unallotted portion of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indian Reservation in Oklahoma, embracing 4,000,000 acres of land.

This land was ceded by the Indians to the United States in 1890. Every member of the tribes has been given an allottment of 160 acres selected from any part of the reservation except the land now occupied for military purposes, agency, school, school farm, religious or public uses, or in section 16 or 36 in each Congressional township.

Each settler on the land opened, before making a final proof and receiving a certificate of entry, must say $1.50 per acre, one-half of which must be paid within two years.

The proclamation gives notice that no person will be permitted to enter upon the land, previous to its opening, under penalty of arrest and relinquishment of all rights to make entry.

An Immense Grain Fleet.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 13.—The biggest grain fleet ever consigned to this port is on its way from Chicago. Over 100 wheat and corn laden vessels are afloat, and it is estimated that the fleet carries 6,000,000 bushels of grain. Another fleet is expected from Duluth next week bringing 3,000,000 bushels more. The April record in the lake grain trade has never approached the promise of the present month. At least 10,000,000 bushels of grain is expected here by lake before May 1.

"Little Dot" Bitten by a Lizard.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 13.—While giving an exhibition with her lizards and snakes at a musee yesterday, Little Dot, the well known young snake charmer, recently from New York, was bitten on the right hand by an ugly and venomous lizard. The hand immediately commenced to swell up, and the snake charmer went into the most horrible convulsions. She was removed to the Fitch Hospital. The physicians say she will probably die.

Rev. Dr. Hale to be Dined.

BOSTON, April 13.—Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale has accepted an invitation to a reception and dinner at the Hotel Vendome on Monday, April 18, tendered by a large number of the most distinguished people in the State. The letter of invitation is signed, among others, by Governor Russell, Senator Hoar, Gen. Butler, Dr. Holmes, John G. Whittier, Bishop Brooks and George William Curtis.

Still Doing Business.

BOSTON, April 13.—Liquor dealers here say that the Whiskey Trust is still doing business in this State despite the recent indictments. The rebate checks, it is said, are being sent out the same as ever, and there appears to be no disposition to stop that part of the operations. Dealers expected that the trust would stop the rebate business, at least until the case in the District Court was decided.

Big Lithograph House Burned.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, April 13.—The entire plant of the Winter's Art Lithograph Company of Chicago in this city and $60,000 worth of finished lithographs were destroyed by fire which started about midnight. The total loss is about $60,000; insurance, $50,000. They were printing the advertisements for the World's Fair.

WILL BE RELEASED

Mrs. Osborne's Child Will Not Be Disgraced.

WAS ILL-TREATED IN PRISON.

Refused a Tooth Brush Because There Was No Provision in the Rules for Them.

All the Daily Papers Pleaded With Home Secretary Matthews in Behalf of the Child—Other Women Had Been Liberated Under Similar Circumstances—Capt. Osborne Has Received an Intimation That His Wife Will be Given Her Freedom.

LONDON, April 13.—Captain Osborne has received an intimation from the Home Office that his wife will be released from prison before her accouchement, probably within the next three weeks.

The decision of the Home Secretary is due undoubtedly to political reasons, as for some time after Mrs. Osborne's incarceration he answered negatively the inquiries of Radical and Liberal members whether provision had been made to liberate Mrs. Osborne for the sake of her child.

The Liberal and Radical dailies have published columns of letters protesting against allowing the child to be disgraced by birth in prison, and within the last few days have contended that during the last fourteen months sixty-six women in a delicate condition have been released from English prisons to give birth to children.

The defenders of the Home Secretary have not strengthened their case by replying that these figures were exaggerated as only 12 women had been released under such circumstances.

The "Star" has printed daily for weeks a column of letters on "Inherited disgrace" from persons contending that the Government had no right to attach to a child at its birth the stigma of prison life.

Even the British "Medical Journal" has pleaded for mercy on behalf of the child, and has printed expert opinions by the dozen against the continuance of her incarceration. Several newspapers have received letters from Americans and from Paris and Vienna upon the subject.

The bitterness of the agitation has been aggravated by reports that Mrs. Osborne has been ill-treated in prison and that the prison officials have even refused to give her a tooth brush because there was no provision in the rules and regulations for tooth brushes for prisoners.

In the face of such a strong movement the Government feared to add to the odium incurred by it through the recent execution of the poacher, and Mr. Matthews' persuaded him to have Mrs. Osborne released.

PRINT ENGRAVERS IDLE.

Intended to Strike for Shorter Hours, But Were Discharged.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 13.—The engravers of the Pacific Mills Print Works are all idle. They asked for a reduction in working hours, and being refused, said they would strike, and all were forthwith discharged by Agent Barlow.

This is not simply a local affair, but of general importance.

Some months ago the organized engravers of the country decided to ask for shorter hours after April 1. They desired a half holiday on Sundays in the winter, and in the summer wanted three hours less work every week and no reduction in pay. The request was simultaneously made and in some places it was granted, but the Pacific abruptly refused.

The engravers are confident of winning, as all over the country they are organized and all the works are concerned in their request. There is no fear of scab labor, as the engravers are few in number and are always in demand.

Lottery Suit Compromised.

EL PASO, TEX., April 13.—The case of the United States against the Grand Lottery of Juares for using the mails for promoting the interests of the lottery has resulted in a compromise, the lottery company paying a fine and costs amounting to $5,700 and signing an affidavit never to use the mails again.

Equal to the President's Salary.

CHICAGO, April 13.—It is rumored that Prof. John F. Barrett, city electrician and chief of the electrical department of the World's Fair, is about to resign both positions, the National Board of Underwriters of New York having offered him $50,000 to become director-general of that institution.

Mr. Holman's Eighteenth Term.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Mr. Holman, the veteran Congressman from Indiana, has received a dispatch announcing that he had been renominated for the eighteenth time, his service thus covering a period of thirty-six years. He was the recipient of numerous congratulations from his colleagues.

WANSER ELECTED.

The Republican Candidate Has About 3,000 Majority.

JERSEY CITY, April 13.—Jersey City's election yesterday resulted in an overwhelming defeat for the Democrats. Allan L. McDermott, their candidate for Mayor, was defeated by his Republican opponent, Col. Peter F. Wanser, by nearly 3,000 votes. It was the first defeat of the Democratic ticket in a municipal campaign in years.

The Republicans made uniform gains all over the city, and as early as 10 o'clock, when half the returns were in, the Democratic Central Committee had given up the fight and conceded a victory to their opponents.

There are six Aldermanic precincts in the city. In those which were relied upon to give substantial pluralities the total number of votes cast was comparatively light, while in the Sixth District, which is overwhelmingly Republican, the vote was heavy. The total vote in the city was about 28,000.

ENDED IN A RIOT.

Ballot Boxes in Cohoes, N. Y., Seized by Special Police.

COHOES, N. Y., April 13.—The election here yesterday ended in a riot. The police have seized the ballot boxes and refuse to permit a count.

One hundred "special police" appointed by the sheriff, seized the ballot boxes of Fourth Ward, which is heavily Republican, before the polls closed, and rushed them into the police station, under the protection of the police, and in the interest of John T. Gorman, candidate on the Cleveland-Herrick ticket.

The city is wild with excitement. Hundreds of citizens have been clubbed by strangers under the guise of special officers.

The First, Second, Third and Fifth Wards give a Republican majority of 288.

This would mean the election of the Republican candidate for Mayor, Strong, over both Garside, the Murphy Democrat, and Gorman, the Cleveland-Herrick candidate.

First Time in Fourteen Years.

RAHWAY, N. J., April 13.—The Republicans have elected their full city ticket for the first time in fourteen years. The election passed off very quietly.

The Shoe and Leather Exhibit at the Fair.

NEW YORK, April 13.—At a meeting of the shoe and leather dealers of this city to take action in reference to securing a building for exhibits at the Chicago Fair, Mr. Rice, of Boston, said that the Director-General of the Exposition had promised to provide a suitable building if the trade would subscribe for $100,000 worth of Exposition stock. He proposed that the New England and New York Associations should raise $50,000 of this amount and the other parts of the country the balance. The chairman appointed a committee of five to carry out the object of the meeting in getting subscriptions to the building fund.

Canadians Destroy Fisheries.

NEW YORK, April 13.—John W. Titcomb, secretary of the Fishery Commission of Vermont, wrote the Fish Commissioners in New York, at their meeting yesterday, to the effect that Canadians were destroying large quantities of fish in Lake Champlain with seines and dynamite. Americans are not allowed to use even hook and line at this season. Titcomb advocated severe protective measures, including the manning of a cruiser on the lake. No action was taken.

President Harrison May Buy an Estate.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—A despatch from City Point, Va., states that President Harrison is contemplating the purchase of the Berkely estate near that place on the James River. This is the old Harrison homestead, and for this reason it is thought the President would like to have it in the family. The rumor of the prospective purchase, however, could not be authenticated at the Executive Mansion. The estate is now owned by New Yorkers.

A Disastrous Conflagration in Tokio.

LONDON, April 13.—Advices from Japan report that Tokio, the capital of the Japanese Empire, has been visited by a most disastrous conflagration, involving great loss of life. It appears to have spread with great rapidity in the older and more poorly built section of the city, and did not cease until about eight thousand houses were destroyed, making many thousands of people homeless. The loss of life was chiefly due to the efforts of natives to save their effects. The number of dead is probably one hundred.

The Flour Blessed.

NEW YORK, April 13.—About 500 persons, in response to the invitation of Dr. Talmage, gathered on Pier 42, North River, to ask God's blessing on the consignment of 280,000 pounds of flour, representing the first instalment of the 1,000,000 pounds which the "Christian Herald" has promised to send to the famine stricken peasants of Russia. Among those present at the exercises, which lasted an hour, was the Russian consul.

An Eight Hundred Years' Lease.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 13.—A lease given by the Sixth Avenue Railroad Company of New York city of its property and lines to the Houston, West Street & Pavonia Ferry Railroad Company, for a term of 800 years was filed with the Secretary of State yesterday.

Terrible Tornado in Indian Territory.

CADDO, I. T., April 13.—A terrible cyclone struck Caddo about midnight Monday sweeping houses and everything else in front of it, but luckily no one was killed.

A Mill Blown to Atoms.

ASHLAND, Pa., April 13.—One of the Chaser Mills at Cressona was blown to atoms by an explosion Monday night. No one was injured. Loss, $500.

TO FIGHT A DUEL

The Chilian Minister Challenged by an Editor.

LOVE LETTERS INSTEAD OF RENT

Col. Coehlo Says He Was Called a Negro and Blackmailed.

The Minister Will Have to Eat His Words or be Killed—His Official Position Will Not Avail—The Colonel Says He Will Go to Washington, if Necessary, and Tweak His Nose—Must Answer in Twenty-four Hours.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Col. Antonio Hilario de Coehlo, editor of the "O Brazile os Estados Unidos," a Spanish-American publication, who gained celebrity as an opponent of Dom Pedro, has challenged the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Brazilian Republic to a duel.

Senor de Coehlo, who has an office in Temple Court, when seen, was most indignant at his treatment at the hands of the Minister, Senor Salvador da Mendonca. He alleges that the Brazilian Minister has treated him most shamefully.

"When I came back from Paris," he said, "I bought a house in Fordham and rented it to Mrs. Florence Jones, who lived there a long time without paying me any rent. She wrote me many tender letters, but would not pay her rent.

"One day she came to my office and demanded her letters. She had a key to my apartments on Murray Hill, and when I demanded its return she refused to surrender it until she got possession of her correspondence. I subsequently sent her the love letters in question, and on April 7 went to her house on West Twenty-fifth street and asked for my key. I was not given the key, but was abused by both her and her mother, who was present. To avoid a scene I left.

"The entire matter is one of blackmail, behind which the Brazilian Minister is. While I cannot fight a woman I can fight him. He has called me a negro, and I will compel him to eat his words or kill him. He cannot avail himself of his official position to refuse me, for, if necessary, I will go to Washington and tweak his nose in the street. My second, Col. Tom Wilkinson, has carried the challenge to him, and has been instructed by me to return with his answer in twenty-four hours."

THE SOUTHERN FOODS.

Sixty-one Bodies of Both Sexes Have Been Recovered.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 13.—The horrible loss of life across the Mississippi State line grows more appalling, and the death list is constantly increasing. The waters now cover the land for seventy miles south of here.

Scores of houses, bodies of men, women and children, together with those of of dumb beasts, are floating on the muddy waters. Over 1,200 people are homeless.

The flood is caused by the sudden rising of sixteen rivers, which form a network over North Mississippi. Rafts, small boats and canoes were built by the score and stocked with provisions.

Daring rescuers have started out to carry aid to the sufferers. One rafteman rowed thirty-three miles in the night with twenty-six bodies piled on his raft, with no light but an oil lamp to guide him.

Every hour or so a boatman or rafteman comes into one of the many landings with from one to ten bodies, swollen, discolored and some of them beginning to decay.

Sixty-one bodies of both sexes have been recovered so far.

The flood is beginning to recede slowly. It is estimated that the damage will amount to over $10,000,000.

P. C. C. & St. L. Stockholders Meeting.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 13.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the P. C. C. & St. L. Railway Company held in this city, the annual report was presented and shows gross earnings decreased over 1890, $557,341; operating expenses decreased over 1890, $525,680; total net earnings for 1891, $3,951,946; net profit for 1891, $937,631, an increase for the year of $362,097 over 1890. The Board of Directors having been classified, only three were elected to-day, viz.: H. H. Houston of Philadelphia, who takes the place of W. L. Scott; Briggs S. Cunningham of Cincinnati and George Willard of Chicago.

Solid for Cleveland.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 13.—It has been decided by the Democratic State Central Committee to issue a call for a State Convention at Dover on May 17, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the National Convention at Chicago. A canvass of the committee showed it to be seemingly solid for Cleveland, "unless," as one said, "there should be a chance for Bayard or Senator Gray."

Poisoned By a Former Employe.

DEDHAM, Mass., April 13.—In the case of the death of Mrs. Sarah Bradburg, of Dover, Mass., Judge Emery finds that it was caused by repeated doses of paris green mixed with water and given her as a medicine by Eugene Clayton, a workman in her employ. He also finds that Clayton knew paris green to be a deadly poison and administered it with intent to kill and murder.

Death of a Murder Trial Juror.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—James W. Cooper, one of the colored jurors in the celebrated murder trial of Howard J. Schneider, died suddenly yesterday. Mr. Cooper was greatly worn out by the mental strain he endured through the four weeks of the trial, and this is supposed to have been the cause of his death.

WAR ON THE FRONTIER.

A Battle Reported Between Rustlers and Deputy Sheriffs.

DOUGLASS, Wyo., April 13.—Kid Donnelly of Powder River Crossing has just arrived at Antelope Springs, twenty miles north of Douglass, and reports that the stockmen were camped on the Casper road on North Powder River, sixty miles north of Casper. Two men, named Nate Champion and Ray, are reported to have been killed Sunday on Powder River. Donnelly reports that the rustlers are flying in every direction, and attempting to escape from the country. Three of them passed through Antelope Springs yesterday. When Donnelly left Powder River Crossing there had been no casualties in the stockmen's party.

Sheriff Angus of Johnson County has wired the Sheriff of Converse County saying there has been a fight and directing him to arrest all fugitives. Yesterday two horsemen came to a ranch near Douglass and tried to exchange their jaded horses for fresh ones. They said they had been with the stockmen's expedition which went North. One of the men had a bullet wound in the arm. They were refused fresh horses and pushed on. Two deputy sheriffs followed, but the trail was lost where the men forded the Platte River. The authorities are now guarding all the bridges and fords on the Platte River west and north of Douglass.

CASPER, Wyo., April 13.—A man from Riverside reports that the 150 deputies of Sheriff Angus attempted to arrest the invading army and killed 28 of them and lost 18 of their own men.

Died of Fever and Buried at Sea.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Mrs. Laura V. Appleton of 268 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, has received word that her eldest son, Howard F. Appleton, aged 22, had died of yellow fever and been buried at sea somewhere off the coast of Brazil. Young Appleton's love of adventure led him to accept a position, much against his parents' wishes, as assistant purser on the steamer Alliance of the Brazilian line. He was on the return trip of his second voyage when seized with the fever and died. Mrs. Appleton is a daughter of old John Anderson, the tobacconist, who died and left a fortune of $9,000,000.

Big Rolling Mills to Shut Down.

I FEEL it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hop d for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even b at. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 48 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

TAR AND FEATHERS FOR ELIAS.

He Made Love to His Pretty Cousin, Though He Had a Bad Record and a Wife and Family of His Own.

Elias Barrick, who used to be principal of the North Plainfield public school, has left the town of Pottersville to escape a tarring and feathering from the indignant people. He is accused of making love to Emma Barrick, his pretty cousin, and of inveigling her into secret meetings and intrigues at Black River Falls Park, despite the fact that he himself was a married man.

Elias Barrick is fifty years old. Emma Barrick, his uncle's daughter, is twenty-two. Emma Barrick is acknowledged to be the belle of the section. Her eyes are dark, her hair light brown, and she is pretty. She had many admirers among the plain country lads, but they had little chance against the experienced, insinuating cousin.

Barrick and his family are known throughout this part of the State. In his younger days he was a music teacher of considerable local reputation and superintendent of public schools of Somerset county. He was also the village schoolmaster of Peapack, near Pottersville, where he was born, and about the same time he acted as superintendent of the Reformed church Sunday-school.

Barrick's first love-making to his pretty cousin was done in his uncle's home, at Hacklebarney, two miles north of Pottersville, to which place he returned after his father's sad death from the shock of learning of the suicide of Grace Henderson, a girl who accused Barrick of being the author of her ruin.

Later Elias and Emma had a rendezvous in Black River Glen, a patch of rocky woodland midway between Pottersville and Hacklebarney. To reach it Barrick walked about two miles and the girl traversed the same distance across fields and through the wildest section in that part of the State. Their meeting-place was between two great walls of stone, on one side of which runs the Black river and on the other ripples the Pottersville creek. On an average of three times a week they met in this secluded and romantic spot and Barrick concluded his work of winning the girl's confidence and affection. Barrick carried wood to the trysting-place and also a large can of kerosene, so the severity of the weather did not materially interfere with the courtship in Black River Glen.

The frequent visits of Barrick to the glen attracted the attention of the villagers, who became greatly incensed at the disclosures, and soon the girl's father and brother heard of them. Satisfied the reports were true, both father and son announced that they would shoot Barrick on sight. The son came upon Barrick one day last week. They were on opposite sides of a field, but the young man blazed away with a two-barrelled pistol and emptied both charges. Barrick took to his heels.

The shooting was witnessed by several persons who were on their way home from a funeral in Pottersville. The next night Barrick left the place to escape the tarring and feathering that had been planned for him

Barrick's first wife was Miss Piomafelt, by whom he had two daughters. After he deserted his little family his wife returned to her relatives and the two children grew up to be beautiful women. The elder is now about twenty-five years of age. Both girls were married last winter in New York. The father was not invited to the weddings.

Barrick's life was apparently a righteous one until after his marriage. While traveling through Maine selling organs he became infatuated with the daughter of a resident of Skowhegan. He represented himself as a single man, and after a brief courtship received the consent of the girl's parents to their marriage. The wedding was a swell affair, and he took his supposed bride to Montreal, Canada. There he hired rooms, but in a short time the girl became suspicious of her surroundings, and, it is alleged, discovered that she was in a questionable place. She immediately wrote to her father, who went for her and took her home. The father then made an investigation and found that Barrick had a wife and two little children still living in North Plainfield. The girl's mother was so affected by the exposure that she became insane and has since died in an asylum.

When a reporter reached the town yesterday he found citizens discussing the sensation. One citizen said:

"Barrick simply imposed on that unfortunate girl. She was one of the best and prettiest girls in this section and everybody liked her. The fellow worked his points well, however, and now she is fairly mad over him, though she knows full well the desolation he has already caused. If he comes back here you need n't be surprised if you hear of a hanging or something of that kind."

The Melopoia Will Join the Chorus.

Two operatic festival concerts are to be given at the Madison Square Garden on May 10 and 12, under direction of Messrs. Abbey & Grau. Mme. Patti will sing, assisted by her own opera company, together with a chorus of 1,000 voices and an orchestra of 100 musicians. Signor Arditi will be the conductor for Mme. Patti, and William R. Chapman will conduct a chorus, including the Metropolitan Musical society, the Rubinstein and Musurgia clubs, the Melopoia of Plainfield, the Kingston Philharmonic, the Rubinstein of Poughkeepsie.

—A meeting of the young men's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will be held this evening.

HARRIOTT HANGED.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

FREEHOLD, N. J., April 13.—Louis Harriott, who murdered Mrs. Annie Leonard of Atlantic Highlands, was hanged this morning in the Monmouth County Jail at 10:20. He is said to have made a full confession to the priest who attended him. There was no trouble at the scene of death.

The crime for which Harriott paid the death penalty was one of the most fiendish ever committed in this State. The miserable wretch brutally murdered in cold blood a mother and wife during the absence of her family.

PARTICULAR MENTION

William Underhill will sail for Europe next week.

Charles Brown has removed from Fourth street and Madison avenue to the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. Hedges, at 44 East Front street.

Abner Wade died at his home at Scotch Plains, yesterday morning, at the age of 77 years. Funeral services will be held at his late residence Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Neighbour have been blessed with a little girl, born April 2, and weighing 8 pounds. The family are all at the home of Mrs. Neighbour's mother, 96 Wright street, Newark, but will shortly move into the new home Mr. Neighbour has built for his wife in Bayonne, where his hosts of friends in this city and elsewhere expect to give him a house warming.

Want Pastor Dill Back Again.

A delegation from Stirling attended the session of the presbytery of Morris and Orange at East Orange Monday with the object of presenting a request to the Presbytery to permit the 276 signers to a petition to the Presbytery to extend a call to the Rev Arthur Cushing Dill to become again pastor of the Stirling church. Mr. Dill was present, conspicuous by his customary boutonniere. He smiled through a new growth of whiskers, the successors of the hirsute adornment destroyed by the explosion of a gasoline stove last winter.

"There are millions in it!" said a dealer when asked about Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

For some time past I've been a rheumatic. I recently tried Salvation Oil, which gave me almost instant relief. I sincerely recommend it.

Will Resist a Reduction of Wages.

BOSTON, April 13.—It is said that a general tie-up of the New York and New England Railroad will follow any attempt to apply to the engineers and firemen the 10 per cent. reduction in salaries which goes into effect next Monday for most of the men.

It's an insult to your intelligence, but some unscrupulous dealers try it. For instance: you're suffering from some Skin, Scalp or Scrofulous affection, or are feeling "run-down" or "used-up." There's a torpid liver, impure blood, and all that may come from it.

You've decided, wisely, that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the medicine to help you. You know that it's guaranteed to do so, as no other blood purifier is.

If it doesn't benefit or cure, you get your money back.

Can you ask more?

But what is best for you to take isn't always best for the dealer to sell. He offers something that's "just as good." Is it likely? If the makers of a medicine can't trust it, can you?

If they can trust it, then why not guarantee it, as the makers of the "Discovery" do?

The genuine sold only through authorized agents, at the uniform price of $1.00.

Beware of spurious imitations or substitutes offered at less prices.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

Small Expectations.

The Princeton Tiger prints what purports to be a conversation between an undergraduate and his cousin, a young lady.

She—Will you write to me on your return to college?

He—Why—er—, you know I can't write.

She—Oh, I don't expect you to write brilliantly or amusingly; just write as you talk.

Learning Appreciated.

Cultivated Stranger—You advertise for a man who can speak twenty-six languages?

Mr. Gotham—Yes, sir. The position is still open.

"May I ask concerning the matter of its duties?"

"Certainly. I own considerable property in New York, and I want a man to collect the rents.—N. Y. Weekly.

The More the Merrier.

Marie—So you are engaged to Charlie Chester?

Claire (carelessly)—Yes.

Marie—Isn't he the fourth Charlie to whom you are engaged?

Claire (listlessly)—I believe so.

Marie—Good gracious, Claire, how do you tell them apart?

Claire (sweetly)—I don't.—Detroit Free Press.

Hospitable People.

"Those Higginses are very hospitable people," said one department clerk to another.

"Yes," was the reply. "I suppose they tried to make you feel like one of the family while you were there."

"They did their best. Miss Higgins said she would be a sister to me."—Washington Star.

VAN EMBURGH & WHITE SAY:

You are out for bargains and there is no store in the county that offer as many as we do. We buy goods in the auction rooms or anywhere else, little difference does it make to us, as long as we underbuy and undersell others. That wail of auction goods remnants and seconds only swells the crowd at our busy store. We are out for the business and will make it to your advantage to come here and buy your goods.

Decorated Dinner Sets at Half Price!

Make up your own set from this beautiful open stock pattern and save just one half. The style is "Decorated Virginia Creeper, on Parisian Granite Body, illuminated with Gold, Gold Decorated Handles and Knobs. A new rich and delicate pattern that is very much admired."

This pattern can be had in open stock for the next ten years, so broken pieces can be replaced by new ones at any time. A complete set of dishes usually costs from $12 to $20. We have marked these wares at N. Y. prices, and a set can be made from this pattern costing as low as $6; and the set can be enlarged at any time. Don't buy till you have seen this ware, when you are sure to take no other.

Decorated Toilet Sets at $2.50, worth $3.50. We will give a genuine discount of 20 per cent. on all our Decorated Vase and Hanging Lamps. Lamp fixings and chimneys in endless variety, and our prices secure you for all time as customers on these. Examine and price our Common Crockery; we can save you money. If we can't show the most complete line of Tinware in town at prices the lowest, we remain silent hereafter. We can supply the largest portion of your House-furnishings this Spring, and sell them for less than what they would cost in New York. Remember, you get your bargains on 5 and 10-cent counters, and we have six of them. Royal Tooth Powder at 10 cents equals anything sold for 25 or 50c. Thousands are using it in Plainfield, and all over the land.

THE YOUNG MAN.

He Receives Much Attention from Plainfield's Mayor and Prominent Citizens.

The rooms of the Young Men's Christian association were well filled by the members last evening, the occasion being the reception given in the interest of extension work. After a most bounteous luncheon provided by the ladies' nine, the different speakers were presented by president Murray, who acted as toastmaster.

He first introduced David E. Titsworth, who spoke on "The Young Man in Politics". In his well-known, off-hand manner he told of the young man's position therein as one of duty to himself and an obligation to his citizenship.

Mr. Kissam followed, to the toast, "The Young Man in Business", showing that the business world is looking for just such young men as the association is trying to develop into manhood—"one who needeth not to be ashamed".

E. B. Clark spoke to the toast, "The Young Man in Religion". He said the best way to get a young man in religion was to get religion first into the young man.

The first president of the association, mayor Alex. Gilbert, was called on to speak on "The Young Man in Relation to the Development of Character". His honor spoke with earnestness to the young men present, urging them to the preservation of health as a good foundation on which to build a peerless character. Two points he emphasized were the realization of the value of time and the application of studious efforts to the achievement of some good purpose.

Mr. Andrews spoke on "The Young Man in Love", with the preface that most every man was affected that way. He took a model young girl, told of the little brown-eyed, brown-haired girl who afterward became a young woman and who eventually became the young man's wife, and after all the young man was better off by being in love.

Mr. Taggart of the international committee spoke on "Extension Work: Its Needs and Its Possibilities; Its Use and Its Claims on Members".- He told of his visit to the association 20 years ago and the growth of the association since. His address was highly interesting.

Altogether the evening was a most delightful and profitable one, and all were sorry when came the parting hour.

The young men seated at the tables during the evening numbered seventy-five. The dainty arrangement of the tables and of the floral decorations was admired by all. As the supper neared its end it became apparent that a greater treat than the mere pleasure of eating was in store. Gathered around the head of the table was a group of men noted not alone for their success in business and social life, but more for their devotion to the work of the Divine Master and the welfare of their fellow men. These made the occasion memorable by the wit and sound sense expressed in response to the toasts suggested by president Murray. D. E. Titsworth on the "Young Man in Politics" said that young men were greatly needed in politics, bringing with them unbiased opinions and receptive minds, willing to consider the welfare of the State unprejudiced and not tied down by old established precedent. But more than freshness was needed integrity and uprightness which the young men active members of this association are qualified to give. Mr. Kissam for "The Young Man in Business" spoke of the distinguishing work of the Christian young man in the mercantile life, saying "he is the one to whom his employer's interest is paramount; each effort is his best, yet he still works for something better". In both this and the preceding address the character of Joseph was taken as an illustration from Bible history of a Christian prime minister and a Christian financier.

Mr. Murray said he felt some hesitation in introducing the toast of "The Young in Love", for fear that no one would undertake it, that if anyone should take it he feared they might break down, but he said the general secretary insisted that this subject should be considered, therefore F. H. Andrews had kindly consented to treat this subject. Mr. Andrews spoke of the young man at this critical point of his life, of the set-backs he received, such as the paternal boot, the dog so innocent looking, the sharp picket fence, but the mother with the seven marriageable daughters was a mightier foe than all the forces the opposition would muster against him, but none regretted the efforts he had put forth to win the pretty little brown-eyed dark-haired lassie, the playmate of his school days, the bosom friend of his young manhood and his lifelong companion. E. B. Clark spoke briefly and pointedly of "The Young Man in Religion", the class of men which the Christian young man could reach which older men could not, of the influence they could exert. A young Christian is nothing in religion—he said—unless the unselfish, self-forgetful religion of Christ were in him.

In calling on Mayor Alexander Gilbert, Mr. Murray spoke of him as an ex-president and one of the two gentlemen most instrumental in the founding of Y. M. C. A. work in Plainfield, the other being its treasurer for many years. Mr. Gilbert urged upon young men the necessity of the formation of habits in youth which instead of impairing health and bringing premature old age, would, when time for action came, fit him with a vigorous physique and active brain, fully qualified to enter upon his life work. But the brain should not be neglected. An hour a day of study of a practical subject if persistently carried on would greatly develop and transform a man's mind. Of the secrets of success two of the greatest are "proper appreciation of the value of time" and "application to the matter we have in hand". At the conclusion of Mr. Gilbert's talk Mr. Murray said the object of the calling together of the members of the association was to consider the matter of Y. M. C. A. extension in our own land and foreign lands, and the idea of systematic giving in a small way to aid this work. He introduced Mr. Taggart of Pittsburgh, State Secretary of Pennsylvania and member of the International committee of association extension, who spoke at considerable length in regard to the extension work of the Y. M. C. A. The need—he said—is very great, for associations of this kind all over this country, and not only here but in India, Japan, Brazil and throughout the entire civilized land, but money is needed to carry the work on, and it must be had so that the work of saving and aiding young men throughout the world can be pursued. No one alone could do very much, but by the united systematic giving of a thousand or of ten thousand young men the needed funds could be realized. A considerable amount was pledged by those present on the "systematic giving" basis, for this work.

IN MEMORIAM.

Robert L. Livingston.

At the semi-monthly meeting of the Royal Arcanum council of this city, held last Monday evening, the following minute on the death of the Hon. Robert L. Livingston was adopted:

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, has learned with deep regret of the sudden death, on March 30, 1892, of brother Robert L. Livingston, and desires to place upon record a memorial of its appreciation of his manly and generous character.

He was one of the early members of this Council, having joined it nine years ago, and was a loyal advocate of its beneficent aims and purposes.

He was not only an esteemed member of this Council but was an honored member of the community, entrusted by his fellow-citizens with high public positions. He was elected a member of the common council of Plainfield and, subsequently, a member of the Senate of New Jersey, and held other places of public trust—all of which positions he filled with honor and integrity.

He was uniformly kind and generous. To the demands of charity he always responded with a willing heart. In all the activities of life he exemplified the principles of virtue mercy and charity, the chosen motto of our association. In the home circle, in public office and in private life he was always the same genial companion and trusted friend.

We, therefore, bear our testimony that he was an affectionate husband, a devoted father, a good citizen and an honest man, and we cast upon his new-made grave this little wildflower, watered by our tears and consecrated by our loving remembrance.

Resolved, That the foregoing memorial be adopted by this Council, and that a copy thereof be sent to the family of our deceased brother and be published in the daily papers of the city of Plainfield.

The Park Club Beats Everything.

The series of bowling games between the Netherwood Bowling club and the Park club was completed last evening, when the Park club won two straight—one by a single pin, the other by an abundant margin. The scores:

PARK CLUB.		NETHERWOOD CLUB.
Matthews	119	VanDeventer	132
Bartling	125	Darling	133
Reed	151	Anthony	134
Thiers	166	Brown	137
Lyman	124	Holly	148
	685		684
SECOND GAME.
Matthews	181	VanDeventer	160
Bartling	144	Darling	131
Reed	179	Anthony	129
Thiers	159	Brown	155
	813		730

This completes the series, the Park club having won three games out of four, and as a trophy of the victory the Park club finds itself the possessor of a handsome punch bowl and ladle. It will be remembered that the Park club won all the games of the recent series with the Union County Country club.

Medical Testimony.

W. Thornton Parker, M. D., Recorder, Association of Acting Assistant Surgeons of the U. S. Army, writes:

"SALEM, MASS., March 23, 1891.

"When at Stuttgart, Germany, during the Winter of 1881-82, I was suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis, which seemed to threaten pneumonia. I met, at the Hotel Marquardt, Commander Beardslee, of the United States Navy. In speaking of my sickness, he remarked: 'Doctor, you can cure that chest trouble of yours by using an ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER.' 'That may be true,' I answered, 'but where can I get the plaster?' 'Anywhere in the civilized world, and surely here in Stuttgart. Whenever I have a cold, I always use one and find relief.' I sent to the drug store for the plaster, and it did all that my friend had promised. Ever since then I have used it whenever suffering from a cold, and I have many times prescribed it for patients.

"The ALLCOCK'S PLASTER is the best to be had, and has saved many from severe illness, and undoubtedly, if used promptly will save many valuable lives. Whenever one has a severe cold they should put on an ALLCOCK'S PLASTER as soon as possible. It should be placed across the chest, the upper margin just below the neck; some hot beef tea, or milk, will aid in the treatment.

"This is not a patent remedy in the objectionable sense of the term, but a standard preparation of value. The Government supplies for the U. S. Army and Indian Hospital Stores contains ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS, and the medical profession throughout the world are well aware of their reliability and excellence. I shall always recommend it, not only to break up colds, but as useful in allaying pains in the chest and in the back. It is a preparation worthy of general confidence."

TO WATER THE COUNTY.

Plainfield's Wells to Supply Big Suter Elizabeth and Other Neighbors.

A large and enthusiastic gathering of representative citizens of Roselle met at Trimmer's Hall Monday evening to consider the question of water supply.

The meeting was organized by the selection of H. P. Baldwin as chairman and Dewitt C. Smith secretary. Among those present were Wm. H. Peddle, superintendent of the Jersey Central, Miller F. Moore, Col. Fogg, Freeholder W. T. West, and many other well-known residents.

The Hon. John Kean, jr., president of the Union Water company, and Frank Bergen, the company's counsel, were in attendance, and Mr. Kean explained the plans and purposes of the company. The supply of water is that drawn from Netherwood. A twelve-inch pipe will be laid to Cranford and from Cranford down a fourteen-inch main. Mr. Kean said that the company asked a guarantee of $1,000 of subscriptions and the pipes would be immediately laid so that the supply could be given to Roselle on July 1.

The chairman appointed Freeholder West and Messrs. W. P. Stevenson and W. H. Peddle a committee to solicit subscribers. Those present subscribed $660 and the balance of the guarantee will be immediately subscribed, as the people are enthusiastic in the matter and greatly pleased with the progress made.

THE PRESS can confidently predict that within a short time the mains of the Water Supply company will be extended to Elizabeth, and that city as well as all places along the line will be supplied with water from the inexhaustible wells at Netherwood.

Next Monday the Westfield people will meet to join in the project.

Those Big Appropriations.

The tax appropriation figures published in yesterday's report of the Plainfield common council meeting were procured from the office of the city clerk, who seems to have been in error concerning what was done at the meeting. As a matter of fact, that portion of the finance committee's recommendation favoring the construction of a poor-house was defeated. Those finally voting in favor of the project, which was urgently recommended by Mayor Gilbert, were only Messrs. Bird, Erickson and Fisk. Thus the poor fund appropriation was cut down from $8,000, as proposed, to $3,500. The general fund appropriation was fixed at $30,000, included in which is an appropriation of $14,000 for streets. The fire department appropriation was left at $13,000. The correct amounts were stated in the ordinance published exclusively in these columns yesterday.

Bicyclists and Their Doings.

Captain Frank L. C. Martin of the Plainfield Bicycle club has just appointed the following aids:

First lieutenant—George Mahon.
Second lieutenant—E. V. French.
Bugler—A. T. Hinrichs.
Color-bearer—George W. Moreton.

The club has not, as previously reported, changed the age of admission for members, nor has it changed the color of its uniform. The election of officers recently credited to the Plainfield Bicycle club was in reality that of the bicycle club of the Crescent League. The Crescent League club has adopted a black uniform with braid trimmings.

Boomers Rejoicing.

WATERTOWN, S. D., April 13.—The boomers are rejoicing greatly over the President's proclamation opening the Sisseton reservation April 15 at noon. The line has been formed and the boomers who so far compose it say that they intend to stay where they are until they make the filing. The Governor is here and will remain until after the opening so as to personally direct matters if any of the boomers become too ambitious with their fists or evince a desire to use more deadly weapons.

Protest Against the G. A. R. Appropriation

LINCOLN, Neb., April 13.—The mass meeting held here to protest against the passage by Congress of the bill appropriating $100,000 to defray the expenses of the next encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic to be held in the city of Washington, resulted in the passage of resolutions instructing the Nebraska Congressmen not to vote for the bill. A protest will be laid before the Appropriation Committee.

Free Fights at a Negro Meeting.

BURLINGTON, N. J., April 13.—Because Miss Sophia Halstead stepped upon Miss Lena Shaw's corn in the Zion Wesley African Methodist Episcpal Church last night a free fight ensued just as the presiding was pronouncing the benediction. The young women, when arraigned before Mayor Silpath, were allowed to depart upon promising to do better.

Fitzsimmons and Hall Matched.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Two claimants of the middle-weight championship of the world, ex-Antipodeans Robert Fitzsimmons, of San Francisco, Cal., and James Hall, of Chicago, Ill., completed the preliminary arrangements yesterday to fight to a finish before December 31, 1892, for a purse of not less than $12,000 and a side bet of $5,000 each.

Ireland May Get a World's Fair Grant.

LONDON, April 13.—In reply to Sir Thomas Esmonde, M. P. for Dublin, Sir John E. Gorst, Parliamentary Under Secretary for the Treasury, said that the government would doubtless consider the question of a grant for Ireland for the Chicago World's Fair.

Over a Million Appropriated.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The House has passed an Urgent Deficiency bill, appropriating $1,012,636 for various deficiencies in the Government service, including $450,000 to defray the expenses of collecting customs, and $100,000 for the Census Office

Rhode Island's Legislature.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 13.—The result of yesterday's election in Newport makes the complexion of the next Legislature 66 Republicans, 31 Democrats, with 11 Assemblymen to be chosen.

POLYANDRY IN TIBET.

A Country Where Women Have Several Husbands Apiece.

Financial Considerations Rule All Matrimonial Questions in the Land of the Lama, But Jealousy Is Not Popular.

A little northeast of Lhassa, among the mountains that cover that part of the great plateau of Tibet, the explorer Bonvalot found a large population. It is in these valleys that some of the rivers of India have their headquarters. This region, says the New York Sun, is peculiar as the part of Tibet where polyandry is the custom, and this feature of social life has given Tibet some notoriety, because there are very few parts of the world in which polyandry is practised. Bonvalot thus describes the custom as it exists in Tibet.

A family has a daughter. A young man wishes to enter the family, to live under its roof, and become the husband of the daughter. He consults with the parents, and if they arrive at an agreement in regard to the amount of property he is to turn over to them, he takes up his abode in the hut and becomes the husband of the daughter. It may be that there are other young men desirous of partaking of the same good fortune. They are not at all deterred by the fact that the girl is already provided with a husband. They present themselves at the hut, make offers of certain property, and, unless the first husband has paid what is regarded in Tibet as a very large sum in order to secure the young woman as his exclusive possession, she becomes likewise the wife of these other claimants for her hand, and the whole family live together in the same hut and in the utmost harmony.

It rarely happens that a young man thinks so much of the girl he weds in this peculiar fashion as to be jealous of others who also desire to be her husband. Now and then, however, such a case arises, and then there is likely to be bloodshed. He is a happy young man who is wealthy enough to become the sole lord and master of his wife. It is a question entirely of money. If the young Tibetan is rich enough he buys a wife and remains the only master of the household. Sometimes, also, the husband acquires sufficient property to buy out the interests of the other husbands and then they retire from the field. They are generally content if they receive back a little more money than they paid for their interest in the young woman. The children are always regarded as belonging to the woman, and the fathers lay no claims upon them.

Polyandry is not established by law, but it is a custom which probably arose at some time when the female population was less numerous than the male, and it has been continued largely on account of the poverty of the people. Polygamy is practiced as well as polyandry. While the poorest men have only a fractional interest in one wife, the rich men of the community have several wives. The chiefs have as many as they can buy. Financial considerations, therefore, have all to do with questions of matrimony.

A Year's Drinking in Great Britain.

The United Kingdon Alliance has, according to its annual custom, published a statement of the amount of wines, spirituous liquors and beer consumed in Great Britain and Ireland during the year 1891, and it shows the bill for intoxicants to be a pretty stiff one. The total spent in intoxicating drinks during the twelve months was considerably over $700,000,000—an average of $18 for every man, woman and child in the country, or $90 for every family in the course of the year. The bill for 1891 was nearly $9,000,000 greater than the bill for 1890, but this increase was not more than what would naturally arise from the increase of population.

To See a Bullet's Flight.

A late scientific authority states that by saturating a bullet with vaseline its flight may be easily followed with the eye from the time it leaves the muzzle of the rifle until it strikes the target. The course of the flight is marked by a beautiful ring of smoke, caused by the vaseline being ignited on leaving the muzzle of the gun. This smoke ring will remain suspended in the air for some little time after the bullet strikes if the day is not too windy.

Good Work of the Chinese Empress.

The empress of China takes a great interest in the working girls of the Flowery Kingdom. A few months ago she established a cloth and silk factory in the grounds of the imperial palace in Pekin, for the express purpose of giving employment to women and girls who had no work. The empress is not allowed by court regulations to leave the palace grounds, and she therefore decided to have the factory where she could watch its progress.

Blood Travels Fast.

Blood travels from the heart through the arteries ordinarily at the rate of about twelve inches per second; its speed through the capillaries is at the rate of three-hundredths of an inch per second.

DON'T BE A SLAVE TO DOCTORS.

Tattered Timothy—I've been trampin four years, ma'am; an' it's all 'cause I heard dat der doctors recommended walkin' as der best exercise.
Mrs. Prim—Well, the doctors are right. Walk along!—Puck.

Sought and Found.

They rode together, nicely paired,
And, bolder grown, at last he dared
To place his arm around her waist.
Angry, she cried: "Your arm's misplaced!
I can support myself." "You can?"
Said he, with joy. "Then I'm your man.
For years I've sought for such as you.
Pray set the wedding-day, dear, do."
—Judge.

Can't Be Discovered.

"There seems to be something the matter with my bwain," said Cholly.
"Wheah is youah bwain, deah boy?" asked his bosom friend, Dicky.
"I can't find out—that's what the doctah said was the matter with it."—Life.

O'Hooligan's Plurality.

Mrs. O'Toole—Good marnin' to ye, Misther O'Hooligan, an' jye be wid ye, for it's a father I hear ye are.
Mr. O'Hooligan—Faix, but the harruf hasn't been tould ye, Missus O'Toole, an' it's more than wan father I am whin it's thriplets, bedad.—Life.

One Way to Manage.

Mrs. Joblots—My husband never fails to come home to dinner.
Mrs. Topflat—I suppose you always try to have something good for him.
Mrs. Joblots—O, no; that would spoil all the pleasure he takes in kicking.—N. Y. Herald.

He Knew.

"Johnny, do you know your alphabet?"
"Yessuh."
"What comes after T?"
"Evening prayers, ma'am."—Harper's Young People.

A Soliloquy.

A Family Affair
Health for the Baby,
Pleasure for the Parents,
New Life for the Old Folks.
Hires Root Beer
THE GREAT TEMPERANCE DRINK
is a family affair—a requisite of the home. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of a delicious, strengthening, effervescent beverage.
Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

What is It?
A substitute for lard? Upsetting the customs, habits, and prejudices of centuries? Yes, all this and more. Cottolene is a new cooking product—it is better than lard or butter for cooking, so say such noted housekeepers as Marion Harland,
Catharine Owen,
Christine Terhune Herrick,
Emma P. Ewing,
Mrs. S. T. Rorer,
Mrs. F. A. Benson,
Amy Barnes,
Margaret Wister,
and many others; it is healthier—so says every thoughtful physician; and it is cheaper as every housekeeper knows when she finds that one-half the quantity answers every purpose.
COTTOLENE
is the purest clarified cottonseed oil mixed with pure beef fat. It is the best cooking material ever devised for frying anything and everything—easily digested and highly nutritious.
Beware of imitations. Ask your grocer for the genuine Cottolene.

BORROWE GLOOMY

The Would-be Duelist and Millbank In England.

MET BY OCHILTREE AND FOX.

Borrowe Says that He Was Hounded to Death in New York.

Passengers on the City of Paris Say If the Couple Had Made Themselves Familiar They Would Have Been Snubbed—The Scandal Was Discussed Openly and Freely During the Voyage—Borrowe Reiterates Statements Made by Him.

LIVERPOOL, April 14.—Hallett Alsop Borrowe and his doughty would-be second, Harry Vane Millbank, arrived on the City of Paris, though low water prevented them getting ashore until 9 o'clock in the evening. They took the midnight train for London, where Col. Ochiltree and Mr. Fox awaited them.

Mr. Millbank was cheerful, apparently, but Mr. Borrowe had a careworn and hunted expression. He declared that he had been hounded to death in New York, and he had the appearance of a man who had lost friends and position. The passengers on the steamship say that Borrowe and Millbank kept aloof throughout the entire voyage. Some of the passengers frankly declared that if Messrs. Borrowe and Millbank had tried to make themselves familiar they would have received a very cold shoulder, as the stories of the Drayton affair had not created a favorable impression regarding either.

The couple frequented one corner of the smoking room, and that corner was avoided by the other passengers. They sat at the purser's table, and common politeness made it impossible for their fellow voyagers and messmates at such a time to entirely ignore them. The passengers discussed openly and frequently the developments of the scandal, and the general verdict was adverse to the men, especially among the ladies.

Mr. Borrowe is said to have come back on business which has no connection with the Drayton affair.

He reiterated the statements which he made in New York that he did not know that the correspondence between himself, Mr. Drayton and the seconds was going to be published, but avoided saying that he had not authorized it. The matter now rests between Mr. Borrowe, Colonel Ochiltree and Mr. Fox.

MISTAKEN FOR AN ASSASSIN.

An American Arrested in Nice and Chained.

NICE, April 14. — Harry Phyfe, an American, was arrested here by the police as he was walking the street. He could speak no French, and the officers did not attempt to explain their reasons. He showed letters to the police to establish his identity, but they ignored them, chained him and marched him to the station house.

Shortly afterward he was released, and the police through an interpreter explained to him that he had been mistaken for an Italian assassin whose description had been sent to them.

Mr. Phyfe has appealed to the American Embassy in Paris.

Gen. Crespo Reinforced.

PANAMA, April 14.—The latest advices from Venezuela are to the effect that the main force of President Palacio is at Maracay on the way to meet General Crespo at Valencia. The reinforcements from Guzman have reached Crespo, who now feels himself strong enough to do open battle with the enemy. Recruits continue to throng from all sides to the standard of the revolution, and many of the insurgent soldiers and citizens have escaped from Caracas. It is said that the revolutionists have agents in the capital, and that at the first sign of flight an attempt would be made to seize the President.

Growing Darker for "Prince Michael."

DETROIT, April 14.—The toils are fastening around Prince Michael and his associate in crime, Eliza Courts, and there is a good prospect now that both of them will spend the balance of their lives behind prison walls. Helen Rawlinson, aged 15, who represented "temperance" at the "Godhead," but who deserted them and returned to Toronto with her parents, has come back and made charges of the most atrocious nature against both of the people.

Floods in Manitoba.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 14.—The Red and Assinaboine Rivers here are just about bursting over their confines. The water is only thirteen feet below the highest point of the business center of the city.

The ice is still solid and if a jam occurs when it breaks up there will be a big flood.

Parts of the Northern Pacific transfer railway are now under water and five big bridges are in imminent danger of being swept away.

Goods are being removed from warehouses on the river front.

The basements of the Northern Pacific Hotel and other buildings are flooded.

Tents for the Sufferers.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Secretary Elkins has directed that 300 army tents be furnished for the use of the flood sufferers in the Mississippi Valley. The tents will be sent from St. Louis in charge of an army officer.

Fast Day Collections.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Russian Famine Relief Committee of the United States have suggested that all proceeds of Fast Day collections throughout the country be given to the famine relief fund. Vermont has already arranged to do this by proclamation of the Governor.

COEHLO-MENDOCA DUEL.

It Is Not Likely to Take Place, as the Minister is Almost Blind.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—A call at the Brazilian Legation, which is located in the Minister's private residence, was unproductive of any news. The colored butler stated to the reporter that neither Minister Mendoca nor Secretary Mario de Meudoca was in; nor could he say when they would be. They were in the city, however, he said.

A friend of Minister Mendoca to whom the reporter talked about Coehlo's reputed challenge said:

"I don't know whether or not Coehlo has sent a challenge as stated but in my opinion it would make no difference. Senor Mendoca cannot recognize him in any such manner as that. And then, if there were no other reasons for ignoring or declining a challenge, if one were sent, Senor Mendoca is almost blind and for him to go out on the duelling ground would be to invite simple murder. For months he has not been able to use his eyes for reading or writing. He sings only the most important official papers. There have been operations performed on his eyes, and another one will be made two or three months hence. If that should be successful, he expects, in the course of time to be able to read again. That is the extent of his hope at the present time."

A NEW COALING STATION.

Looks Like a Combination Against Great Britain.

BERLIN, April 14.—The "National Zeitung" comments upon the reported intention of the Russian Government to establish a coaling station in South America. This coaling station, the "Zeitung" says, would be necessary in the event of war involving Russia and England. In such a case Russian war ships could only reach Vladivostock, Russia's naval depot in the North Pacific by the way of Cape Horn, and a coaling station in that neighborhood would be necessary.

The "National Zeitung" comments on the story that the United States is just at this time negotiating for an acquisition of a coaling station at Uruguay, and considers the reported simultaneous action of the two governments, Russia and the United States, indicates a concert of understanding and an intended protective combination against Great Britain.

SIX BODIES RECOVERED.

The Hero of the Hill Farm Disaster and Five Miners Buried.

DUNBAR, Pa., April 14 —The six bodies remaining in the Hill Farm mine have been recovered. Coroner Holbert and his jury were lowered into the mine yesterday morning. The bodies had all been coffined in the mine during the night. After viewing the remains and the places in which they were found, the jury ordered the remains taken out. This was accomplished at noon and the bodies were buried immediately.

The names of the six men were: Barney Maust, Joseph Bigeley, Milton Turner, Peter Egan, John McCune and Willie A. Hauter, the hero of the disaster, who, in his attempt to warn the miners of their danger, fired the escaping gas and lost his own life.

Attempted to Kill His Wife.

BOSTON, April 14.—George Gerry, a variety actor at the World's Theater attempted to kill his wife yesterday morning at their boarding house, by shooting her in the back and as a result she is in a dying condition at the city hospital. She is about 18 years old and was engaged at the same place. Jealousy was the cause of the shooting. Gerry left the house after the shooting.

Snow in Great Britain.

LONDON, April 14.—The balmy weather of the past few days has been followed by a sudden drop in the thermometer of not less than thirty degrees. The atmosphere is again wintry and snow has fallen in several parts of Great Britain. It is feared that the buds in many places are frostbitten, and that the severe chill will do much damage.

Large Paper Mill Burned.

KENNET SQUARE, Pa., April 14.—The large paper mill near here, belonging to William Phillips, has been destroyed by fire, together with all the machinery and contents, including many tons of manufactured paper. Mr. Phillips was seriously burned about the head. The loss is heavy, as the machinery was new.

Will be Dry for Two Years.

MEDINA, N. Y., April 14.—The village election at Middleport was highly exciting, the interest centering on the license question. The non-license people carried the day by 120, and as there was already one non-license commissioner, Middleport will be dry for two years at least.

Drug Clerks Arrested.

BIDDEFORD, Me., April 14.—The clerks in all the drug stores in the city were arraigned yesterday charged with selling liquor, and were bound over to the May term of the Supreme Court.

DEATH AND MISERY

Pitiful Scenes Witnessed in the Flooded Country.

LOSS OF LIFE ONLY GUESSED AT

Places that Were Once Called Homes Will Be Mudholes.

No Deaths Reported Yet Among the Whites—They Have Good Boats to Use in Case of Danger—Meetings Being Held to Devise Means for the Relief of the Suffering People—Three Hundred Tents from the War Department.

NEW ORLEANS, April 14.—The death and desolation caused by the flood have so demoralized the entire population that the days are as quiet and business as idle as any Sabbath.

While communication has been resumed with the northwestern part of the country, still the city is waterbound from every other direction.

Later reports rather enlarge than diminish previous estimates of the loss of life and destruction of property.

A general idea of the effects of the flood can be stated in this way:

A belt of country ranging from five to fifteen miles wide, running north and south, is one stretch of debris made up of ruins of houses, fences and carcasses of animals, and it is doubtful whether there is left standing in that belt a dozen houses.

The pitiful scenes of the past few days have opened the houses of all, and public and private charity prevents the cruel suffering of those who were rescued.

When the water subsides there will be left in this place 1,000 to 1,200 negroes who have not one cent and no credit, and the places that were their homes nothing but mudholes.

The landlords of the tenants are in no condition to replace these destroyed farms, and this is the future of the negro subsisting now on public charity.

The impoverished condition of the white people prevents them from maintaining the colored people long by charity, and it is too late in the season to give them work. The board of supervisors of the county are deliberating as to whether to put in operation the stock law in the overflowed districts, without which it is impossible to make any crop whatever, as in the entire district there is not the vestige of a fence, and in many places it is so badly washed it will be impossible to locate where the fence line was.

At the present time any estimate of the loss of life is purely guesswork, but the death list is a long one. As yet no death is reported among the whites, as those low lying lands are inhabited almost exclusively by the negroes, and such whites as lived there were always kept well protected by keeping good boats.

The old mound builders built wiser than they knew, as these old Indian relics saved the lives of hundreds of negroes, besides countless numbers of stock.

A mass meeting of citizens has been held here to devise ways and means to help the poor in this hour of their need. The Mayor was authorized to ask of the Federal Government the loan of 1,000 tents to give them shelter.

The students of the State Industrial Institute at this place gladly joined the citizens in making such contributions as they could. By common consent they agreed to go without their usual Sunday dinner that it might be given to the sufferers.

By the combined efforts of the Georgia Pacific and Mobile and Ohio railways it is thought that a temporary track will be completed on the latter road along its lines between this place and West Point in a few days.

The Georgia Pacific is running trains from here to Birmingham. The waters are going down slowly, having fallen only about nine feet in the last four days.

RAILROADS UNDER WATER.

Miles of Track Have Been Swept Bodily Away.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 14.—Miles of railroad track have been swept bodily away. No losses of life beyond those reported have been ascertained, but the search has been very limited, covering only a small radius around the city.

Some planters have lost as much as $5,000, while hundreds of colored tenant farmers have lost everything.

On Dr. Hutchinson's place fifty families lost everything and two people were drowned. The merchants had all been advancing the tenant population, and the advances already made are gone with the stock on which their mortgages had rested.

The decrease in the cotton crop in the valley of the Bigbee will be at least 30 per cent.

The high waters are raging along the rivers in lower Alabama.

The Alabama Great Southern track is under water below Akron, causing a wide detour of trains by way of East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia lines.

RUSTLERS SURRENDER.

The Invading Stockmen Captured by United States Troops.

FORT MCKINNEY, Wyo., April 14.—Col. J. J. Van Horn of the Eighth Infantry, at the head of three troops of United States Cavalry from this point, has compelled the regulators intrenched at "T" Ranch to surrender.

The troops were ordered out by Gen. Brooke, commanding the Department of Dakota, in accordance with instructions sent out from Washington at the request of the acting Governor of Wyoming.

Since the murder of Nate Champion and Nick Ray near Buffalo Wednesday by the regulators, there have been no further reports of bloodshed. The expedition of stockmens' agents, known as the regulators, was officered by Major Wolcott, Frank Cantor and Fred Hesse. There were a State Senator and two Representatives in the party.

IN THE PENITENTIARY.

Ex-Bank President Classen Has Donned the Prison Garb.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 14.—Gen. Peter J. Classen, the New York bank wrecker, arrived here yesterday morning and was conveyed to the county penitentiary, where he will serve a six years' sentence unless pardoned in the meantime.

Classen was assigned to a cell on the second tier, to which he retired after the customary formalities of registering, etc., had been gone through. He expressed himself as greatly fatigued, and appeared very nervous.

He declined to talk to a reporter, saying that notoriety would do him no good and might prejudice his case and that he had not got through fighting yet. "The newspapers have said too much about me already," he added.

Classen has donned prison garb. He said that he was in good health considering what he had gone through.

PENNSYLVANIA CONVENTION.

A Harrity Delegation Elected to the Chicago Convention.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 14.—The Cleveland-Pattison delegates had things their own way in the Democratic State Convention yesterday. In fact, the principal leaders of the opposition, Wallace and Guffey, weren't "in it" at all.

Secretary Harrity and his followers elected a delegation to the Chicago Convention bound by the unit rule and uninstructed, although an effort was made to pledge the delegates to support Grover Cleveland so long as he shall be a candidate before the convention, and then permit them to vote for whomsoever they please.

He Suffered from Dyspepsia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—Elijah Haley cut his throat from ear to ear yesterday and almost severed his head from his body. Haley was only 31 years of age, but for a number of years he had been a sufferer from dyspepsia. At times the pain which he endured was almost unbearable. He was compelled to walk the floor at nights, being unable to sleep, and when reading accounts of the suicide of others, he would remark to his wife that "There's more dyspepsia. Poor devils, I don't blame them."

Lost Both Eyes While Experimenting.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 14.—Dr. Edward Campbell, Professor of Chemistry, while making some investigatings Monday afternoon in quantative analysis had both eyes put out by the explosion of two bottles filled with gas. It was necessary to remove one eye and the other is despaired of. Dr. Campell is one of the greatest scientists in the University and it is feared that the loss of his eyes will blast his career.

Awarded $18,500 for a Hand.

BOSTON, April 14. — Moses Farnum, formerly cashier of the Franklin Savings Bank, was awarded a verdict of $18,500 against the Old Colony Railroad. Farnum was a passenger on the train that was wrecked at Quincy Aug. 19, 1890, and received an injury to his hand, so that he has not since been able to use it.

$35,000 Awarded.

NEW YORK, April 14.—The "Progresso Italo-Americano" publishes to-day the following special from Washington: "The New Orleans affair was finally and satisfactorily settled yesterday. The United States Government will pay to the families of the victims the sum of $35,000. The diplomatic relations between Italy and America are restored."

Boston Democrats Celebrate.

BOSTON, April 14.—The Young Men's Democratic Club celebrated the anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birth with a banquet. Gen. John W. Corcoran presided and made a speech. Other speakers were Governor Russell, Congressman Harter, of Ohio, and John S. Russell. References to President Cleveland were warmly cheered.

Must be Abandoned.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 14.—In a suit brought by the attorney-general, Judge McPherson, in the Dauphin County Court, has decided that the accident insurance scheme of the Philadelphia "Enquirer" did not come within the provisions of its charter and will have to be abandoned.

An American Woman's Fortune.

LONDON, April 14.—A wealthy American lady named Bennett, who died recently in Florence, Italy, left the bulk of her fortune to Victor Paget, son and heir of the Right Hon. Sir Augustus Paget, the British Ambassador at Vienna.

Congratulated by the Emperor.

LONDON, April 14.—Emperor William has sent, through Prof. Max Muller, of Oxford University, a telegram to the Oxford University boat crew, congratulating them upon their defeat of the Cambridge crew last Saturday.

HORRIBLY MANGLED

Seven Men Killed by a Powder Explosion.

FOUR OTHERS BADLY BURNED.

The Bodies of the Victims Scattered in All Directions.

One Man Hurled Four Hundred Yards—Hands and Legs Burned Off—The Remains Gathered Together and Placed in Boxes—The Mill Contained Six Hundred Kegs of Powder—David Billington's Story.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 14.—The glazing mill of the Moosic Powder Company, located on the outskirts of the village of Moosic, five miles south of this city, exploded with terrific force shortly before 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Seven men were hurled to instant death, horribly mangled and charred, and four others badly injured. The victims are:

Killed—David Parry, aged 38, married; Aaron Coolbaugh, aged 30, single; Moses Tucker, aged 31, single; Allen Schmale, aged 30, leaves a wife and four children; Caradois Reese, aged 30, single, John Gibbons, aged 38, single, Edward Vanderburgh, aged 35.

Injured—George Ellis, badly burned from head to foot, not expected to live; David Billinggon, burned on body and feet charred; John Green, feet and legs burned; William Green, hurt on shoulder and back.

The victims of the explosion met with terrible deaths. Their bodies, excepting that of Reese, were found within the enclosed yard of the powder works.

Their bodies were quickly recovered by the villagers, who were on the scene within a few minutes after the explosion.

The body of Reese was not found until after 12 o'clock. It had been hurled fully 400 yards away, and nothing remained of it but the limbless trunk.

The corning mill, about 400 away from the glazing factory, was shattered by the first explosion, and some of the burning timbers hurled from the glazing mill caused fifty kegs of powder to explode.

Four men were in the Corning mill and three of these were blown out of one door, the other man, William Green, was hurled into Spring Brook. David Billington, one of the men in the Corning mill, gives the following story of his experience:

"I was at work at the press with Theron Coolbaugh. We heard the report from the glazing mill and we ran out. Then the Corning Mill blew up. We dashed wildly into the woods, expecting that the press would go next. There we saw George Ellis all on fire. He was running around, and when he saw me he shouted: 'Dave, pull off my clothes. Oh, hurry and help me.' I ran up to him, and in an instant my clothes were ablaze, too. They were my powder clothes. Whether the caught fire by my placing my hands on Ellis, or whether the burning grass did it, I cannot tell. I tried to tear my clothes off and fought the fire as hard as I could. Then William Weir, who was washing in the wash shanty, came running out with two coats that had been soaking in the trough. He said: 'Lie down quick, Dave.' I did so, and he threw the wet coats over me. This put the fire out and I was saved except as to my feet. My work in the press was to shovel powder, and my shoes for that reason easy to be set afire. The flames were worst about them, and that is the reason my toes are so badly burned. Weir and Coolbaugh also succeeded in helping Ellis, but he was badly burned."

Billington has a wife and family.

Caradois Reese's arms had been burned off to the elbows and his face greatly disfigured. His appearance was still more terrible on account of the fact that the culm into which he had fallen made him still more blacker than the devastating powder had originally made him. His body was nearly burned in two at abdomen.

All the victims were drawn up, and the frightful scorching through which they passed was apparent all over them. The hands of some and the legs of others had been burned off. One hand lay beside the body of Allen Schmale, and it is supposed that it was his.

Whatever of the remains of the victims could be found were gathered together and placed in rough wooden boxes.

The mill in which the first explosion occurred contained 600 kegs of powder. The loss to the company will not exceed $10,000.

The Cohoes Election.

COHOES, N. Y., April 14.—The excitement over the election here has somewhat cooled down, but there are still signs of bitterness on all sides. It was undoubtedly one of the most bitter and hard fought contests ever witnessed in this section. It was a three cornered fight between the Republicans, and Cleveland and Hill and Murphy and Herrick, represented by Strong, Garside and Gorman respectively. The Murphy men were outwitted, and although there was an immense number of repeaters in the city very little repeating was done. Garside had the inspectors, while Gorman had the police, and 180 special officers were appointed.

New York Reapportionment Bill.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 14.—The Congressional reapportionment bill has been ordered to a third reading in the Assembly, exactly as it passed the Senate—69 to 57—a party vote. The bill will pass by the same vote.

The Republican National League.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 14.—J. S. Clarkson said yesterday that the Republican National League Convention would probably be held at Buffalo, N. Y., the last week in June.

TO SAVE MAHER.

Parson Davies Hammered Fighter Connors With a Wine Bottle.

NEW YORK, April 14.—There was a lively time in the cafe of Niblo's Garden shortly after midnight this morning. Parson Davies, Joe Choynski, Gus Tuthill, Billy Madden, Peter Maher, and several other persons well-known in pugilistic circles were talking together when Eddie Connors, the boxer, entered the room. He was under the influence of liquor.

It is said that he feels very hostile to Peter Maher, and that he made an attempt to stab him. Parson Davies frustrated his attempt by hitting him on the head with a bottle. The bottle cut Connors head open and he sank to the floor. Connors, it is said, was taken to an hospital, and his condition is dangerous.

All the parties to the affair are very taciturn in regard to the matter, but declare that Davies only interfered to save Maher.

Charges Against a Cordage Company.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Grave charges are made against the officials of the National Cordage Company by Ernest Berkeley Balch, a stockholder of the concern, who alleges that in order to hold up the stock dividends have been paid which were not earned. The directors of the Company have been served with orders to appear before the Chancellor of New Jersey, April 18, and show cause why they should not be enjoined from paying further dividends on the stock of the Company, and also why a decree should not be issued compelling them to bring their books into New Jersey to give one of the stockholders there an opportunity to inspect them.

As His Wife's Murderer's Execution.

FREEHOLD, N. J., April 14.—Louis Harriott, who murdered Mrs. Annie Leonard of Atlantic Highlands, was hanged in the Monmouth County Jail, the drop falling at 10:20 a. m. yesterday. Harriott's last night in jail was passed very quietly. He retired to his cot shortly after 11 o'clock and in less than ten minutes he was sleeping soundly. When about to be led to the scaffold Harriott shook hands with the sheriff and said: "Good bye, old man, you've been good to me." He then burst into tears and had to be supported while his hands were being tied and the noose adjusted. Mr. Leonard, the husband of the murdered woman, was present at the hanging.

Suicide in a Restaurant.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 14.—Mrs. Collins, of No. 610 Master street, Philadelphia, committed suicide by taking poison in a restaurant in this city. She was 45 years of age, and was respectably dressed. She entered the restaurant and after seating herself at the table became ill. Dr. Armstrong who was summoned, found that she had swallowed Paris green. He did all he could to save her life, but without success. She died in great agony.

An Old Woman Commits Suicide.

ITHACA, N. Y., April 14.—Mrs. Alfred McKinney, aged 61 years, committed suicide Tuesday night by drowning. Her husband awoke at 2 a. m., and, missing her, aroused the house. After a search her body was found in Fall Creek. About two years ago deceased had an attack of the grip, which left her mind unbalanced.

Will Give a $10,000 Purse.

NEW ORLEANS, April 14.—President Noel, of the Olympic Club of this city, says that the club will hang up a purse of $10,000 for the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight, providing it takes place in the same week as the Sullivan-Corbett fight. It is generally understood that the above offer is as high as the club will go.

Women Put Out a Fire.

DANBURY, Conn., April 14.—A spark from an engine on the New England road set fire to the big dog-grass pastures near Old Mill Pond. As there were no men in the neighborhood at the time, the women turned out and extinguished the fire, which had communicated to a row of houses on Park avenue.

Heffelfinger Leaves Yale.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 14.—W. W. Heffelfinger, Yale's giant football rusher, has left college permanently. He will enter the service of the Union Pacific Railroad as a civil engineer. He is the greatest football player who ever wore a Yale uniform, and many predict that he will return to Yale for a post-graduate course next year.

Only Slightly Damaged.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—A telegram was received at the Navy Department from Commander Bottom of the U. S. S. Mohican stating that the damages sustained by the Mohican are slight and that she has been placed in dry dock at Esquimault. It will take, he says, about eight days to make the necessary repairs, and the work will be done principally by the ship's own carpenters.

Reed in Vermont.

BURLINGTON, Vt., April 14. — Hon. Thomas B. Reed addressed a large audience in the Howard Opera House last evening, receiving an ovation. The work of the Republican party was reviewed, the effects of the McKinley tariff bill shown, and the silver question touched on.

Death from Thirst.

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 14.—Two of a party of three prospectors have returned from a trip on the Colorado desert and report the death from thirst of their companion named McBride.

Laid the First Rail.

ERIE, Pa., April 14.—Andrew Van Valkenburg, who fifty-two years ago laid the first rail of the Erie & Northeast Railroad, now a part of the Lake Shore system, died in this city yesterday.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Friday, Rain, Followed by Clearing Weather in the Evening—For Saturday, Fair, Cooler.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Good Friday services will be held in Holy Innocents church, Dunellen, to-morrow evening at 7:30. All are invited.

—Hackmen McCormick and Kilbride will be tried to-morrow morning, before judge Codington, for fighting on North avenue.

—Your foot has not known true comfort until it has worn one of those Stacy & Adams shoes that John J. Kenney is making a specialty of.

—The daintiest of cards and booklets for Easter favors may be found at Estil's book store. Make your selections now for remembrances of friends at a distance.

—A fine display of Easter hats and bonnets will be made at the millinery parlors of Mrs. L. Adams, 5 East Front street, opposite Park avenue, this week Saturday.

—A delightful journey will be the trip to Venice, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Hurlbut in the Plainfield M. E. church to-night. The illustrations will be by stereopticon.

—Lovers of good music will enjoy the organ recital of Mr. MacClymont at the First Baptist church to-night. Everybody will be welcome, whether possessing tickets of admission or not.

—The century run between Newark and Philadelphia, which is to take place June 11, will be in charge of the Metropolitan Association of Cycling clubs of New York and the Captains' association of Philadelphia.

—Young men who heard free-hand drawing graphically described by John Dalziel at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last February will have an opportunity to hear a continuation of that talk at the rooms this evening. The admission will be free.

—By order of H. G. Runkle, the electric light current will be turned on at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, for the benefit of the Monday Afternoon club, who wish to enhance with electric illumination the beauty of their decorations at their anniversary banquet at the Casino.

—Plainfield is to have a great treat in the person of Nellie McHenry and "A Night at the Circus". New York is just now wild over the clever soubrette and her comedy, with its real circus act—sawdust and all—and the management of Music Hall is very fortunate in securing her for Thursday evening of next week. If the people do not show their appreciation of it, they will never deserve anything of the kind again.

He said: "My love I am sorry to disappoint you about the picnic, but my trotter has a lame foot." That's nothing! We've got plenty of salvation Oil.

FOUGHT WITH A MADMAN.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW YORK, April 14.—A furious lunatic attacked the doorman in the Elizabeth street station-house at 1:30 this morning, and a hot battle resulted. It took six policemen to get the madman under. He entered peacefully with a prayer-book in his hand, and straightway began to froth at the mouth. Without a moment's warning he sprang upon the doorman, Thomas Kavanagh, like a wild beast. When Sergeant Langdon looked up again both men were rolling and struggling on the floor. The sergeant ran to the doorman's assistance, at the same time calling for help. The stranger threw the sergeant aside, and again attacked the doorman. When the policemen who heard the struggle came to the rescue, it took the united strength of six of them to hold the infuriated madman. He was handcuffed and bound before it was safe to let go of him. Kavanagh's clothing had been torn to rags, and he was bleeding profusely from wounds on his arms and legs, where the maniac had bitten him. His right leg was terribly lacerated. An ambulance call was sent out and both men were taken to Bellevue Hospital, the madman to the insane pavilion, and the doorman to have his wounds cauterized.

The insane man was recognized as James Malloy, thirty-six years old, who lived with his mother, brother, and two sisters at 196 South street.

LYDIA'S HUSBAND MAY DIE.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW YORK, April 14.—Ernest Hutchinson, the husband and manager of Lydia Thompson, now playing at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, who was assaulted in the lobby of the theatre last night by Charles DeForest, an actor, may not recover from the injuries he received. A certificate to that effect from Hutchinson's physician, Dr. Walter Fleming of 240 Fifth avenue, was presented to Justice Grady at Jefferson Market court this morning. Hutchinson had refused admission to DeForest, and was clubbed into insensibility. DeForest and his friend who assisted him were held in $3,000 bail each for felonious assault.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

The Rev. Dr. A. H Lewis will preach at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Mrs. George L. VanEmburgh is enjoying a family reunion at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edmund Miller, at Greenwood Lake.

W. H. Moore, for many years, and until last Saturday, general superintendent of the Plainfield Electric Light company, is now with the northwest branch of the Thomson-Houston Electric Light company at St. Paul.

John M. Bettman has made his selections for the new choir of the First Presbyterian church, and announces them through THE PRESS as follows: Soprano—Mrs. F. E Knight; contralto—Miss A. M. Stacy; tenor—F. E. Knight; basso—Robert Gorton.

In another column is published a charming and graceful poem from the pen of Miss Florence Keith of this city. It is a bit of verse unusually full of sweetness and tenderness even for its kind, and visibly reflects the heart of a noble young woman and the brain of a genius.

An interesting critique on "The History of David Grieve", was read last evening in the Unitarian rooms by the Rev. Hobart Clark. It was followed by a spirited discussion. This was the second paper of a semi-monthly series of essays planned under the head of Review Nights.

The marriage of Miss Emily Putnam, of this city, and Charles C. Lester, the popular foreman of the Pond Tool company's planer hands, took place last evening at the home of the bride. The Rev. C. B. Mitchell performed the ceremony. The bride and groom took a late train for New York.

In the person of James Nolan, the board of trustees of Hillside cemetery possess an invaluable auxiliary. Not only is he entirely wrapped up in their interests, and thoroughly faithful in their service, but he can bring to bear in his utility and labor, the benefit of a long experience. Mr. Nolan has endeared himself in the hearts of all who have loved ones at rest in Hillside.

—E. C. Morse, painter, paper hanger and decorator, to-day makes an interesting announcement in the advertising columns of THE PRESS.

—The committees appointed by the city and the borough, in relation to the widening and opening of Broadway into North Plainfield, have completed their labors and sent their instructions to city-engineer Dunham as to the making of the necessary map. As soon as that is finished final action in the matter will be taken. The street will undoubtedly be opened.

TO OPEN THE NEW CHURCH.

Interesting Features of the Coming Dedication of the Park Avenue Building of the Unitarians.

Great preparations have been made for the "outing sale" to be given by the women of the First Unitarian society, at the new church building, Park avenue, near Eighth street, the afternoon and evening of April 19, 20 and 21. The sale bears a novel name, which indicates that among the specialties will be a large assortment of articles suitable for outing life. The women will display such a collection of goods as will deserve the inspection of all, and will offer them at fair prices. Every day of the sale will be a "bargain day". A glance at the list of committees having in charge the different departments, which is given below, will indicate the scope of the sale:

Executive—Mrs. Osgood, chairman; Mrs. Buckle, treasurer; Miss Leonard, secretary; Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Draper.

Reception—Mrs. Hobart Clark, Mrs. R. C. Leonard.

Entertainment—Mrs. W. J. Leonard, Mrs. D. W. Pond.

Supper—Mrs. Osgood, Mrs. Buckle, Mrs. Corey.

Ice Cream—Miss Pierce, Mrs. Harned.

Candy—Miss Leonard, Ellery Leonard, Stanley Krom, Robert Shaen.

Dolls and Toys—Miss Shaen, Miss Wells, Miss Conklin, Miss Nichols.

For the Piazza—Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Woolston, Mrs. Nichols, Miss Southard, Miss Barber.

For the Journey—Mrs. Pond, Mrs. Conklin, Mrs. Warren.

For the End of the Journey—Mrs. Broadway, Mrs. Draper, Mrs. Hedge, Miss Lawrence.

For the Home—Miss Reynolds, Miss Browne, Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Harte.

Decoration—Mr. Clark, Mr. Broadway, Mr. Adams, Mr. A. Lawrence, Mr. Wieland.

Table Girls—Ellen Osgood, Mamie Buckle, Emma Buckle, Ada Woolston, Winnie Sprague, May Shaen, Sadie Hedge, Jennie Nichols, Edna Leonard.

Cashier of Supper Room—Philip Wells.

One of the novelties of the sale will be an original entertainment of "spring flowers", prepared by a Plainfield woman. The characters will be taken by the young people, who will greet the audience with floral messages and songs. The participants will be:

Spring Beauty	Christine Nichols
Little Crocuses	Marguerita and Horace Harned, Helen Robie, Dorthy Knight, Roger Nichols.
Violet Blue	Clara Buckle
Daffy Dill	Helen Hall
Jolly Pansies	Dorothea Wells, Grace Osgood
Miss Tulip	Sophie Hedge
Miss Daisy	Eleanor Williams
Sunny Buttercup	Edna Williams
Lily, of the Valley	Laura Osgood
Master Dandy Lion	Charlie Woolston, Afternoon; Harold Shaen, Evening

On the table "For the Journey" will be found a collection of good books with the authograph of the author on the fly-leaf of each. This is a new idea which the admirers of famous writers will appreciate.

The Unitarian society has been in existence less than three years, yet its growth has been strong and steady. The work of erecting a new house of worship has been consummated with commendable prudence and energy. The Easter "outing sale" will be the opening of the new building. The present admirable organization of the church is as follows:

Pastor—The Rev. Hobart Clark.
President—Henry B. Wells.
Secretary—Harley B. Nichols.
Treasurer—George D. Patten.

Board of Trustees—Henry B. Wells, president; H. B. Nichols, clerk; G. D. Patten, treasurer; David W. Pond, Wm. T. Broadway, Stephen R. Krom, Sam'l Huntington.

COMMITTEES.

Executive—H. B. Wells, W. T. Broadway, S. Huntington.

Music—S. Huntington, Mrs. D. W. Pond, F. G. Wieland.

Hospitality—Mrs. S. R. Krom, Mrs. Joseph Osgood, Mrs. W. T. Broadway.

Wednesday Evening—Mrs. E. W. Conklin, Mrs. N. D. C. Hodges, Miss E. R. Leonard.

Flowers—Miss M. B. Browne, Miss E. R. Leonard, Miss Ellen Osgood, Miss Winifred Sprague.

Charity—Mrs. W. F. Adams, Mrs. S. R. Krom, James T. Buckle.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Superintendent—Henry B. Wells.
Secretary—Robert Shaen.

All gone—woman's suffering and woman's weakness. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription puts a stop to it. It's a remedy for all the delicate derangements and disorders that make her suffer, and a cure for all the diseases and disturbances that make her weak. It's a legitimate medicine, that corrects and cures; a tonic that invigorates and builds up; a nervine that soothes and strengthens. For bearing-down pains, displacements, and all the functional irregularities peculiar to the sex, it's a safe and certain remedy.

Other medicines claim to cure!

That's true. But they don't claim to do this: if the "Favorite Prescription" fails to benefit or cure, in any case for which it's recommended, the money paid for it is refunded.

Judge for yourself which is likely to be the better medicine.

And think whether something else offered by the dealer "is likely to be" just as good.

You pay only for the good you get. On these terms it's the cheapest.

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

QUARTS—25 Cents. PER GALLON—75 Cents.

Skipped the Thirteenth Child.

In conversation with Director Hubbard and a PRESS reporter, the other day, freeholder Debbie told of his anxiety a few weeks ago when he, already the father of 12 children, was presented by his wife with "another". He feared all kinds of ill luck for a thirteenth child, so his relief may be imagined when he learned that the thirteenth "was" twins.

The conversation thus drifting to the subject of large families, Captain Hubbard confessed that he was his mother's twentieth child.

Job Male's Land is Now the Church's.

When Job Male gave land on Park avenue to the Unitarians it was with the proviso that the deed would not stand unless the society should erect and pay for a church building on the property. Now the church has been completed and paid for in every detail, and to-day the deed was placed on record with a full statement showing that the provisions of the transfer had been fully complied with.

—Charles Manning, for intoxication and disorderly conduct, on East Second street, was sent to jail for 20 days, by judge Codington, this morning.

Decorated Dinner Sets at Half Price!

Make up your own set from this beautiful open stock pattern and save just one half. The style is "Decorated Virginia Creeper, on Parisian Granite Body, illuminated with Gold, Gold Decorated Handles and Knobs. A new rich and delicate pattern that is very much admired."

This pattern can be had in open stock for the next ten years, so broken pieces can be replaced by new ones at any time. A complete set of dishes usually costs from $12 to $20. We have marked these wares at N. Y. prices, and a set can be made from this pattern costing as low as $6, and the set can be enlarged at any time. Don't buy till you have seen this ware, when you are sure to take no other.

Decorated Toilet Sets at $2.50, worth $3.50. We will give a genuine discount of 20 per cent. on all our Decorated Vase and Hanging Lamps. Lamp fixings and chimneys in endless variety, and our prices secure you for all time as customers on these. Examine and price our Common Crockery; we can save you money. If we can't show the most complete line of Tinware in town at prices the lowest, we remain silent hereafter. We can supply the largest portion of your House-furnishings this Spring, and sell them for less than what they would cost in New York. Remember, you get your bargains on 5 and 10-cent counters, and we have six of them. Royal Tooth Powder at 10 cents equals anything sold for 25 or 50c. Thousands are using it in Plainfield, and all over the land.

DOROTHY.

Stanzas Written on a Plainfield Cherub Asleep.

[Florence Frances Kaith, in The Worcester Light.]

Asleep she lies, the fairest flower unblown;
Grave Rest has claimed my wee one for his own,
And in his halls of harmony divine,
The courtliest dreams shall bend at her sweet shrine.

For her eyes are mirrors, clear as perfect day,
Which reflect the blueness of violets in May,
And the light of Innocence, that dearest grace
Of all that childhood's cherished years embrace.

And Dorothy is fair; her baby glance
Is like unto the star-gleam, that plays askance
O'er the petals of a rose; and her silken hair
Has all the burnished gold of the sun-lit air.

And her voice is sweeter far, than the thrush's note,
Or even blue-bell chimes, o'er the lea afloat,
And darkest clouds are powerless to chill
Her heart's warm glow, or shadow joy with ill.

But now, so hushed, I wonder what will be
Your life's long dream, my babe, my Dorothy.
Will homage yet be thine, in after-time?
Will years roll by a sweet, unbroken rhyme?

No voice replies, but a robin lingering near
My window, sings in tones so blithe and clear,
That my dreaming one awakes, and I murmur low,
The dearest truth that heart can ever know,
"You are my love."

John Carney and Other Artists at Reform Hall, To-night.

The entertainment this evening at Reform Hall, under the direction of John H. Carney of this city, will include the efforts of a number of New York artists of whom the Mail and Express says:

Mr. George Reehill gave some enjoyable comic songs and received an encore.

Miss Ollie Blanchard sang several ballads, and won considerable applause.

Mr. Robert McDonald, the celebrated humorist, gave two recitals, for which he received the hearty plaudits of the audience.

Mr. Charles Smith in his rich tenor voice sang a solo, and for an encore sang "Sally in Our Alley".

Mr. J. Leslie Gossin, the dramatic artist, recited "Sheridan's Ride", showing marvelous talent in the regulation and modulation of the voice.

Doors open at 7:30, and the entertainment will begin at 8:15.

Opening the New Grace Church.

Court Cases at Somerville.

Last Friday Judge Bartine sentenced Wm. Brady, who stole Isaac V. Stryker's horse, to two years in State prison.

John Bremman, who became too familiar with Jonathan Higgins's eggs and poultry at South Branch, was given the benefit of a 3-months' sojourn with jailkeeper Kenney.

A beer-bottling license was granted to James Duval of Bernards township.

The Oliver Dunster will case was taken up Saturday and prosecuted until adjournment, and then laid over until yesterday, when it was set aside. J. B. Vreeland was appointed administrator, with the 1885 will annexed. The Court allowed counsel $500 each.

The April term will open next Tuesday. The following cases are noticed for trial:

Republican Gatherings.

The Republican national convention will meet in Minneapolis June 7. The State convention to select delegates thereto will meet in Trenton April 27, and the primaries in the various townships to select delegates to attend the State convention will meet Tuesday, April 19. The hour of meeting will be 3 p. m., except in North Plainfield, where the meeting will be at 8. Below are places, and also the number of delegates to which each township is entitled:

Bedminster—Bedminster hotel Bedminster.. 1
Bernards—Moore's hotel, Basking Ridge..... 1
Branchburg—Codington's hotel, N. Branch.. 1
Bridgewater—Commercial hotel, Somerville. 4
Franklin—Huisizer's hotel, East Millstone... 3
Hillsborough—Devender's store, Frankfort.. 2
Montgomery—Harlingen hotel, Harlingen... 1
N. Plainfield—Basement of new school-house 2
Warren—Mt. Bethel hotel, Mt. Bethel..... 1

By order of the executive committee, through J. B. Coward, secretary, and Charles J. Fisk, chairman, the Republican voters of the city of Plainfield are requested to meet at the Republican association rooms, East Front street, over the City National bank, on the following dates, for the election of delegates to the State and Congressional convention to be held at Trenton Wednesday, April 27, 1892. Each ward will be entitled to one delegate to each convention.

First ward—Wednesday evening, April 20, at 8.
Fourth ward—Wednesday evening, April 20, at 8:30.
Second ward—Thursday evening, April 21, at 8.
Third ward—Thursday evening, April 21, at 8:30.

In Memory of Theodore De Groot Jones.

A beautifully executed memorial window—a tribute to the noble qualities of Theodore De Groot Jones—will be unveiled on Easter morning in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue and Fourth street.

The glass in the window is opalescent and the design is a cross resting on rocks that are partly hidden by clinging passion vine and many flowers. The cross is surmounted by a dove, and the colors of the whole, while very rich, are subdued in tone. It was in the Church of the Heavenly Rest that Mr. Jones labored for many years, and his noble qualities are remembered by every member of the congregation.

—Pastor Dill cannot go back to Stirling. The Presbytery unanimously refuses to reinstate him.

—Sunday's World printed a pretty fair portrait of one of Somerville's most distinguished citizens—Hon. James J. Bergen, Speaker of the House of Assembly. The accompanying article is headed “He May Be Governor”. Stranger things than that have happened. Mr. Bergen has made a good record, and he is a straight-out Democrat. Should he not receive the Gubernatorial nomination this year, it need not follow that he never will. He is a young man, and public honors are likely to be put upon him for years to come.—Somerville Messenger.

A Valuable Remedy.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS purify the Blood, stimulate the Liver, strengthen the Kidneys, regulate the Bowels. They were introduced in the United States in 1835. Since that time over sixty millions of boxes of BRANDRETH'S PILLS have been used.

This, together with thousands of convincing testimonials from all parts of the world, is positive evidence of their value.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

THAT MEMORIAL DAY APPROPRIATION.

Why the Major Anderson Post Demands It Should be Divided.

For years past Winfield Scott Post, G. A. R., has had charge of the making and the carrying out of all arrangements and services for Memorial Day, but Major Anderson Post last year submitted with the understanding that it should have the control of affairs this year itself.

Now the former Post is said to have again laid out the programme, and applied to the council for a $100 appropriation. So the Major Anderson Post has explained the situation as outlined above, to the mayor and councilmen, with a request that half of the appropriation be given it for use by its 67 members in decorating the soldiers' graves and hiring a hall for memorial services.

The Major Anderson Post, it is understood, is willing and ready to enter into a joint detail with the Winfield Scott Post, but will not accept and carry out the programme which has been arranged by the latter without consultation with the former. This programme includes among other things that the Major Anderson Post objects to, what some of the members of the latter organization describe as “Parading all over the country behind a brass band.”

Doomsday at Elizabeth.

The attention of the Union county court at Elizabeth was occupied by several important criminal matters yesterday morning.

John P. Goble, age 12 years, who is charged with attempting to burn the residence of Miss Oliver, in Rahway, on April 5, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

Prosecutor Marsh informed the court that he did not believe the boy guilty of the crime and asked that trial be deferred for one week. The court postponed trial until Wednesday next and ordered the prisoner be admitted to bail, his mother going his security for $500.

John Haegle, son of Mrs. Barbara Haegle, charged with making an atrocious assault on John Spokowosky, proprietor of an Elizabeth saloon, was next arraigned. Haegle pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to three months in the county jail.

The trial of John Hass, charged with stealing a boiler from the residence of Benjamin Hamm in Cranford, was next proceeded with. Ferdinand Ditzel and Charles Durney, witnesses on behalf of the State, swore that they saw Hass put the boiler on a wagon, when they captured the prisoner.

Hass on his own behalf made a general denial and swore that he was not guilty of the charge.

The court, after holding a consulation, adjudged the prisoner guilty and sentenced him to the county jail for five months.

The Easter Programme at St. Mary's Church.

The priest and acolytes kneel at the altar. The priest, the celebrant, sings the Alleluja three times, ascending a tone each time. The choir answering the same; then the complete mass in G., by the celebrated composer Carl Maria von Weber, is given as follows: At the blessing, the Vidi Aquam by Lyendecker; Veni Creator, a trio for soprano, tenor and bass, by LaHache; the offertory, Regina Coeli, by Foepple, soprano and bass solo and chorus; at the end of the mass The Halleluja chorus, by Handel. The choir consists of twenty-five members in the chorus, and a solo quintette, namely: Miss May Flanigan and Miss Josie Schaeffer, soprano; Miss Maggie Conway, alto; Thos. Commerford, tenor; and Louis Kreutz of New York, basso. The latter is the brother-in-law of Prof. Guntzer, who will sing in place of the bass soloist, who has taken a trip south and will not return for this occasion.

Evening services will begin at 8, as follows: Vespers by Mercadante and Magnificat by Rossi, which was performed at the cathedral in New York last Easter. At the benediction, the O Salutaris, a soprano solo, by Miss Josie Schaeffer; and Tantum Ergo, a chorus by Leuk; at the close, the TeDeum. Prof. Guntzer will preside at the organ.

New Jersey's Railway Property.

The State board of assessors have completed their valuations and in the report state that the railroad property in New Jersey is assessed at $202,106,027. The tax on this will be $1,349,082, of which $338,552 is collected and then returned to the local taxing districts. This assessment is $6,869,430 more than last year, and an increase of $47,241. There are now 4,146 miles of road in the State. The gross earnings of the roads are $39,476,731.36, against $37,835,969 last year. The board also assessed 2,371 miscellaneous corporations and the tax amounts to $629,659.62, which is an increase of $55,611.46 over the tax raised last year.

Cut Open His Head With a Sugar-Bowl.

George Baker and Sheff Bobbin had a family quarrel at the table, yesterday, over the question of board, at their home on Cottage place. Baker married into Bobbin's family. The result of the quarrel was that Baker threw the sugar-bowl at Bobbin and cut open his head. Bobbin is a very sick man, but was able to swear out a warrant before justice Nash. Baker was arrested by constable Moffett and languishes in jail awaiting trial.

For some time past I've been a rheumatic. I recently tried Salvation Oil, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cerely recommend it.

THE MAN OF FASHION.

His Fads and Fancies in Spring Traps and Roundabouts.

The Handsome Phæton Built for J. S. T. Stranahan—Dr. Tayler's Splendid Carriages—A Brougham Fit for a Prince.

[COPYRIGHT, 1892.]

The latest is out! I refer to the spring styles in traps and driving outfits generally, and remark that the sleek-looking speeders seem to enjoy the first trial of the newly-designed rigs as much as the finely-dressed owners whose hands guide them through the mazes of the drives in Central or Prospect park.

The very prettiest phaeton I saw during the week was one which attracted special attention in Brooklyn. It was that just built for J. S. T. Stranahan, and I caught a glimpse of it just as that fine old gentleman was driving his rather quiet animal past the stone presentment of himself in Prospect park. The brougham was trimmed in drab cloth, painted in three shades of blue, the striping being in light blue. The harness was built especially for the carriage, with a view to complete harmony. The mountings were brass and hand chased from original designs.

Dr. James Ridley Taylor, the well-known Lotus club member, who is as familiar to Central park visitors as the statues on the Mall, has blossomed out in a new rig this spring. It is a finely-designed Stanhope of English make and built on the lines of that of the duke of

A DRIVING PHAETON.

Devonshire. By the way, the doctor is one of the few men who make a fad of new riding outfits. During the past winter he surprised his friends by coming out in a Russian sleigh designed after that in which the czar takes his daily outing. On a rainy day this spring you will catch a glimpse of him in a brougham, which I believe is the finest thing of its kind in this country. It is built on the lines of the "Banker" style of London. The brougham is deep-paneled, with double windows in front. The colors are maroon, with black quarter panels. The stable shutters in the almost square door windows are of quarter sawed oak, with black finish and divided into four panels. The trimmings of the carriage are all mounted silver. A decided novelty is in the manner in which the dickey box is made. The gearing is treated in light maroon, in harmonizing contrast with the dark maroon of the body of the carriage.

That veteran American driver, known as "The Father of the Road," Frank Work, was out in a new and very neat trap. It was not particularly pretty, for Mr. Work has his outfits made for speed, and necessarily sacrifices much in the way of beauty to attain that end. George, his son, can be seen in the park daily driving a clipped team of bay and gray. George's horses always have their manes pulled and their tails docked, the father's never.

Col. Dan Appleton can be seen any day accompanied by several ladies, in a victoria of late style, behind a team of bays.

The man who is looking for the ideal roadster and the ideal driver cannot afford to miss a good view of Col. Kip and his blue-ribbon animals, Fastrada and Mona. I asked the colonel for a pointer or two on his pet topic, and this is what he said: "For a roadster beauty is an element that must not be ignored by the man of fashion who desires to shine in the park pageant during spring or fall. Speed is a necessary requirement, but there are horses that combine both elements, and these are to be selected. The roadster should not pull, should not shy at any of the sights and sounds that annoy an ordinary horse, and should not be expected to wear boots of any character." The colonel holds that a single wagon not one person only should be drawn by a single horse. For a team there should be a double seat wagon. Colors in robes, lining of wagon, etc., should always match. This is certainly the ideal way of driving, and the colonel, while he has many imitators in the park, has few equals. He shows a rare judgment in combining all the elements that go to make a splendid display, and ranks first in New York's fashionable driving set. I should contrast him with Frank Work, with whom speed alone is the desideratum in the roadster. Col. Kip, it may be mentioned by the way, is the originator of the "road gig" class at the horse shows in New York. For three years he has captured the prizes in this class.

Col. Jacobus Kip's Roadster.

Charles A. Baudouine, Jr.'s Tandem.

Clinton Elliott usually drives out in a single light trap with yellow gear and brown horse.

There is one mooted question which the man of fashion can get diverse opinions upon. This is on which side of the lady should a gentleman ride. Many, and they include most riding masters, have given the left side the preference. They assert that the right hand of the gentleman should always be nearest the lady; that he should be in a position to render immediate assistance in case of need, for passing riders and wagons are liable at any moment to create an occasion for interference. Now then, says the lady, if he is on the left there is a continual contact, and the gentleman's horse by crowding against the other, invariably hurts the lady's limbs. This, in my opinion, is the fault of the gentleman. He should have complete control of his animal, and what one lady has termed the "impropriety of conduct" must be impossible. It is the left side on which the gentleman should ride, for his presence on any occasion presupposes protection, and it is on the side only where his right hand is ready to render immediate aid that he can be supposed to gain strength and lightness.

One of the handiest whips who is seen daily in the park is that young driver, Thomas Pearsall Field. There is nothing very pretty about his "run-about," but he can do some speedy and excellent driving in it.

Frank Ferguson can be seen daily behind a pair of spirited bays in a red-geared light wagon, which seems to be all the style. I saw Frank Ehret in a similar outfit in the park, and George C. Clausen with one not much different from it.

One of the latest things is the "four-in-hand break," of which fully a dozen have been built—one for that prince of entertainers, S. J. Baudouine, Jr. It is made to carry ten people, with a double lining, in which there are buffet arrangements. In a jiffy the linings can be unloaded of their silverware and dainties and a table can be attached, at which the driving party can regale itself. The table section is carried underneath.

The latest in cabriolet is built with a wider and higher top this year.

Isidor Wormser has ten traps, all designed for beauty, strength and lightness. He uses a different one daily.

Cornelius Vanderbilt has given orders, through his brothers, William K. and Fred, now abroad, for five of the very finest spring riding outfits sent out of English shops. Two are "Barker" carriages, one is a "Peters" victoria, and the others are light traps. All will be seen in the park this spring. Mr. Vanderbilt is enlarging his stables at Oakland farm, Long Island, and it is understood that a number of English hackneys will be sent over with the driving gear.

One of the most stylish traps I have seen this year was that of Charles A. Baudouine, Sr. You will always find him behind a high-stepping chestnut.

Perhaps, I might add a word concerning the growth of the hackney into favor in New York. Hackneys are altogether in style, and I understand that this spring will witness a number of purchases abroad, which will attract as much, if not more, attention than the acquisition of Beau Lyons and Matchless of Londesboro, by Dr. Webb from Mr. Fairfax.

Kitchen Extension.
University Extension is good, but Kitchen Extension is better. Wider knowledge of better cooking processes means better health and comfort for everybody. Science can never do us better service than by the multiplication of the cooking schools which make healthful means and methods available for even the most modest home.

WRECK AND RUIN

The Terrible Destruction in the Mississippi Bottoms.

FLOODS SLOWLY SUBSIDING.

Not Likely that Government Aid Will be Asked for the Sufferers.

The Total Loss of Life Not Yet Ascertained — Bodies of Horses and Cattle Found in All Directions — The City of Columbia Taking Care of Five Hundred Refugees.

JACKSON, Miss., April 16.—The latest reports from the flood-stricken regions confirm all heretofore said, and as the waters in the Tombigbee and its tributaries' bottoms recede the destruction is more fully realized.

Deputy Sheriff Crocker, of Lee county, states that he was a passenger on the first Mobile & Ohio train that crossed the Tombigbee River in eight days. At that point a half mile of track had been washed up and carried a mile, where it lodged against trees.

Captain Crocker says the published reports do not give half an idea of the wreck and ruin to be seen in Lowndes, Clay and Munroe counties.

Houses, fences and bridges are all gone. Thousands of dead horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, poultry and the body of an occasional negro can be seen in every direction.

The Warrior River in Alabama, just across the line, rose forty-seven feet in four hours.

He relates many incidents of personal suffering among the negroes, with whom these bottoms were thickly settled, and upon whom the mad torrents descended with terrible fury, wiping homes and families out of existence.

The city of Columbia is feeding 500 refugees, but telegraphs Gov. Stone that they doubt the wisdom of asking Government aid, though they would like a few hundred tents for shelter.

The water is falling in the Yazoo and Big Black rivers in the western portion of the State, and the danger of immediate serious overflow is about over and trains are running through on time.

The stories of damage done by the floods in Greene and Sumter Counties are still coming in. Near Gainesville, John Langstone, an old farmer, and his wife and twelve children, while attempting to cross the Tombigbee in a skiff, were drowned by the capsizing of the boat. Around Demopolis great damage has been done, and the cotton crop in the valley of the Tombigbee has been cut off fully one-half. The river is slowly falling. Near Epes four hundred head of cattle were drowned.

Eloper Holcombe in San Francisco.

JERSEY CITY, April 16.—A special from San Francisco says that Dr. A. J. Holcombe of this city, who eloped six weeks ago with Mrs. F. A. Wylie, the wife of the superintendent of the Greenwood Lake Ice Company of New Jersey, has arrived there from Panama on the steamer City of New York. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wylie and her 10-year old son. On the steamer they were known as Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Williams and son. The doctor denied his identity but he answered the description in every particular. The doctor, with Mrs. Wylie and the child, is stopping at some minor hotel. Lawyer Cook, who is believed to be acting for Mrs. Holcombe, knows the whereabouts of the fugitives, but he will not say anything regarding the case.

Pennsylvania's Republican Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, April 16.—Preprrations for the Republican State Convention at Harrisburg next week are about completed. The city leaders are silent as to their preferences for candidates with the exception of Congressman at Large from the eastern end of the State. They favor the nomination of George A. Castor, and the chances for securing his nomination are encouraging. It is believed that Philadelphia will secure two delegates at large and that they will be William L. Elkins and William B. Ahern.

To Storm the Desperadoes' Fort.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 16.—Reports come from Monroe county that the mountain feud there is not at an end, although four men have been killed and half a dozen wounded. The warring factions are still in arms. The Murphy brothers, originators of all the trouble, are enlisting mountain outlaws to defend them, and are building a fort in the Smoky Mountains. The sheriff of the county left last night with fifty men, heavily armed, for the habitation of the desperadoes.

Umra Khan's Defeat.

LONDON, April 16.—A Lahore newspaper says that Gholah Haider Khan, Commander-in-Chief for the Ameer, has defeated Umra Khan and has captured the town of Asmar. Thereby the Ameer has secured command of the Dora Pass leading into the Pamirs. The British hold the only other pass.

The Postal Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The House Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads has completed its appropriation bill for the next fiscal year. The bill carries an appropriation of about $80,000,000 against $77,921,223 for the current year. This is about $323,400 less than the estimates submitted.

A Father at Eighty.

WOODBURY, N. J., April 16.—The wife William Hale, an octogenarian farmer, ing near here, gave birth to-day to a twelve-pound boy. The delighted father knocked off work and devoted the day to celebrating. The youngster's name is Grover Cleveland Hale.

THE SISSETON LANDS.

Over Five Thousand Settlers Already on the Reservation.

BROWN'S VALLEY, Minn., April 16.—There are now fully 5,000 settlers on the Sisseton reservation. These are pretty well divided between the Northern and Eastern borders. The squatter is monarch of all he surveys. The filer is literally out of the running. Gov. Mellette had 250 deputy sheriffs on the reserve heavily armed and instructed to maintain order; peaceably, if possible, forcibly, if necessary. They checked several rows before serious results ensued.

Wells are being dug everywhere, and all the squatters apparently intend to live on their land. In a couple of weeks breaking plows will be at work everywhere. There will be good lands open to settlement for weeks, as not half the land has been taken up at this hour. Col. Bernard has received orders to hold the troops here until Monday, but they are not needed.

The reservation is the source of the Red River of the North, which flow s ultimately into Hudson's Bay; of the Minnesota River which crosses the State and empties into the Mississippi near this city, and of the Big Sioux River, which flows south and joins the Missouri River.

The lands are rich an numerous lakes cover the entire extent of the reservation, a good portion of which is wooded and of a hilly character. In fact, the character of the land reflects much credit on the judgment of the Sisseton Indians, who chose this land as their reward for their help to the settlers in the Indian War of 1862.

For nearly 30 years they held the reservation intact, but finally concluded they would prefer to have their lands in severalty and live like whites, so the matter was soon arranged with the aid of a Commission, and the present scramble for lands is the result.

This reservation is right in the heart of a well-settled country and small towns and cities are within easy reach of the settler on whatever part of the reservation he may make his home. The Great Northern and the Milwaukee Railroads run all around the reservation, while other roads are within easy reach, running to some of the many near-by towns.

OUR RELATIONS WITH CHILI.

Conflicting Reports In Connection With the Return of Egan and McCreary.

NEW YORK, April 16.—A despatch from Washington to the "Commercial Advertiser says that notwithstanding the reports published denying that the United States Government proposes suspending diplomatic relations with Chili, the fact remains that such is the intention.

Every possible precaution is being taken by the officials here to prevent the true state of affairs from leaking out. The fact, however, that Minister Egan and Consul McCreary have both been granted leave of absence at the same time is in itself significant, and it has been decided beyond a doubt that neither of them will return in an official capacity to the little Southern Republic.

The Charges Against Ravachol.

PARIS, April 16.—The indictment of the public prosecutor against Ravachol and his accomplices in the dynamite outrages sets forth that there was an Anarchist conspiracy against public authority and order, and the lives and property both of officials and private citizens, and that it had its origin in April, 1891, when an Anarchist named Decamp was convicted of wounding a policeman. After the conviction of Decamp, his friend and fellow Anarchist, Chaumartin, urged others of the same stripe to take revenge on the counts and police. Ravachol was the leading spirit in the plans then laid for vengeance, and led in carrying them out.

The Railroad Rate War.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 16.—A dispatch from Chicago says that the Pennsylvania, Monon and Big Four rate war is growing hotter every day and spreading rapidly all over the Southeastern country. It promises to disturb rates to every point in Ohio and western Pennsylvania. The Monon and its Cincinnati connection has announced a reduction of 50 cents in the rate from Chicago to Lima, Piqua, Troy, Dobler and Sydney, by way of Cincinnati, thus hitting directly at Pennsylvania interests and at the same time bringing other roads into the fight. The Erie, for instance, is a direct line to Lima and consequently is forced to meet the Monon's action.

"Joe" Prichard Under Arrest.

ST. LOUIS, April 16.—Joe Prichard, the correspondent, who was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Sims two weeks ago and who was confronted by another woman who claimed to be his first wife and whom he laughed to scorn when she threatened proceedings, is under arrest on a warrant issued on the complaint. The woman secured the warrant on exhibiting to the assistant prosecuting attorney a certified copy of their marriage record. From this it appears that the marriage was performed at Milwaukee, Wis., on September 14 by Rev. Sabin Halsey.

A MURDER MYSTERY

Another Strange Tragedy at Rahway, N. J.

TWO DEAD MEN DISCOVERED.

One Had a Bullet Wound in the Side of the Head.

He Has Been Identified as a Rough Named Purry—Various Theories as to the Explanation of the Mystery—The Men Supposed to Have Belonged to a Gang of Tramps Who Had a Fracas With Officers.

RAHWAY, N. J., April 16.—This city has another murder mystery which, from the present outlook, will remain unravelled. The bodies of two men were found in a patch of bushes half a mile east of the city, yesterday by an officer. One of the bodies had a bullet wound in the side of the head, but the other showed no external signs of violence.

The bodies, when found lay some distance apart. One was that of a man about six feet tall, weighing about 150 pounds. He had worn a brown moustache and his hair was thin and partially bald on the top. He was roughly and poorly clad. This was the body of the man who had a bullet wound in the side of the head.

The other man weighed about 140 pounds, was five feet five inches in height and wore thick curly hair and a brown moustache. The man who was shot has been recognized as a rough named Purry, who has been around the city for some time past. A theory advanced as to the cause of the deaths of the men is that Purry was shot by his companion while both were intoxicated. The murderer then, it is supposed, wandered off a little distance, lay down to sleep off the effects of his potations, and perished from cold and exposure.

The most plausible theory is that the dead men were members of the gang of tramps which gave the police of Newark a hot battle on Wednesday night last. Word was received at the Newark Police Headquarters that tramps were breaking open freight cars at Waverly, and a number of officers surprised them at a camp fire drinking beer they had stolen from the cars.

One of the tramps blazed away at the officers with a pistol, and they returned the fire. One of the tramps was shot in the wrist and nine others were captured. Some made their escape, and it is thought Purry was one of the tramps and received a bullet in the head during the firing. He and his companion may have walked on to Rahway, where Purry, finding he could go no farther, lay down to die. His companion remained by him, and cold and exposure caused his death.

TRAILING WITH BLOODHOUNDS.

Officials Using Every Effort to Capture the Illinois Central Robbers.

NEW ORLEANS, April 16.—Illinois Central officials here are in constant communication with agents and sheriffs at various points along their line and are using every effort to capture the armed men who robbed Thursday night's train just after it left the city.

The topography of the country gives only good reason for hoping that the bloodhounds and the posse who are following C. B. Jackson, who has run down several train robbers in these parts, and who is a cool and daring man.

There were five men in the party who robbed the train. One of them boarded the train at Hammond and covered the engineer, and at Arcola ordered him to stop. The other highwaymen boarded the train there.

Then the masked men forced the engineer and fireman to go to the express car to order the messenger to open the doors. This the messenger would not do so an entrance was effected from the west side of the car.

The messenger, after hiding several valuable packages in the stove, made his escape.

The robbers kept every one inside of the coaches and sleepers until their work was completed.

The passengers and United States mail were not disturbed.

After they finished the job they made the engineer cover his headlight and back up about 200 yards, when they ordered him to go ahead.

The robbers secured about $2,000.

Powderly Thinks He Wouldn't Draw.

MILWAUKEE, April 16.—T. V. Powderly has written to Secretary Robert Schilling of the People's party asking him to put a stop to the "nonsense" of the use of his (Powderly's) name as a candidate for President, as "for certain reasons" he does not believe his name would draw as well as that of some others.

Poor Health Led to Suicide.

CHESTNUT HILL, Conn., April 16.—The Hon. Frederick Mott, who shot himself at his son's residence with suicidal intent, was 82 years old and a life-long resident of this place, having held many town and county offices. Poor health appears to be the motive.

HUNGARIAN STRIKERS.

They Attack an Oil Company's Works at Bayonne, N. J.

BAYONNE, N.J., April 16.—There was a battle between strikers and watchmen here in the afternoon in which there were many heads broken. The strikers, who are Hungarians, attacked the Tide Water Oil Company's Works, trying to force their way into the yard and compel the laborers working inside to quit work.

The company had provided against violence by engaging a strong force of special officers, who defended themselves with stout clubs and iron bars. The strikers were armed with sticks, and hurled stones at the men who guarded the gate. They were repulsed without any of the watchmen sustaining serious injury.

One of the watchmen was afterward arrested and taken before the Recorder, John H. Besher, for laying open a striker's head with an iron bar. The Recorder discharged him, telling the complainants that they were trespassers and deserved all they got. He advised the watchmen to club any one trying to force an entrance into the yard. The strikers are wild with rage, and threats to murder the watchmen and the laborers who refuse to join the strikers are heard on all sides.

The men went out on a question of wages growing out of a new scale of rates.

NOT AFRAID OF THE BARON.

Zoborosky and His Wife Going Abroad—A Possible Duel.

CHICAGO, April 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Zborosky are going abroad despite the fact that Baron de Steurs is supposed to be in Paris awaiting just such an opportunity to meet Mr. Zborosky. Mr. Zborosky, who has been living at the Auditorium ever since his wife secured her divorce in Sioux Falls from the baron, has made application for passports for himself and wife to go to Europe.

Mr. Zborosky is said to be a fighter and to entertain a desire to meet the baron on the field of honor if the baron so pleases. It is also said that he and his wife are going abroad just to show the baron that they are not afraid of him and are indifferent to his efforts to secure a rehearing in the divorce case.

However, if the Zboroskys places foot upon the soil of the Baron's native land he can, under the laws of his country, compel his wife to return to him. The laws in the Netherlands do not recognize divorces obtained in foreign countries, and the Zboroskys might be compelled to face a charge of bigamy if they went into the Baron's territory.

The Wyoming Cattle Trouble.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 16.—Reports from the scene of the cattle war indicate that the trouble has by no means been ended by the arrival of United States troops. The feeling stirred up by the killing of Champion and Ray is extremely bitter, and as soon as the soldiers are taken away hostilities will probably be resumed. The worst of the situation is that guerilla warfare is likely to be the result and men picked off singly by concealed marksmen as they ride along lonely trails. The prisoners charged with the killing of Ray and Champion are to be taken to Douglas to await the action of the grand jury, and there is a probability of an attempt to lynch them with a general fight in consequence.

Bulgaria's Complaint.

VIENNA, April 16.—The gravest apprehensions have been aroused here by the announcement that Bulgaria has sent a note to the powers complaining that the Sultan has ceased to protect Bulgaria's interests and that the Turkish government protects Russia's proteges, who have entered upon a campaign of assassination, from Prince Ferdinand down. The note demands that Turkey be compelled to expel the assassins whom Russia supports on her soil. The note is supposed to be the precursor of a proclamation of Bulgaria's independence from Turkey, and such a proclamation would inevitably result in an European war.

Extra Session, N. Y. Legislature.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 16 — Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan, when asked regarding the time of holding the extra session to consider the reapportionment of Senate and Assembly districts, said he had not as yet consulted with Gov. Flower on the subject, but he favored the calling of an extra session immediately on the final adjournment next Thursday. Senator Cantor said he favored the calling of an extra session right away after final adjournment, and that the census tabulations, on which reapportionments will be based, will be ready by that time.

News From Seal Poachers.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The Department of State has received further advices from Victoria as to the seal poachers. The steamer Mystery, which was engaged to take off the skins secured by the vessels now at sea, has returned, and the total catch to date is reported to be 4,560. This is regarded as a light catch, owing to the fact that the seals are less numerous than in former years. Two more vessels of the Nova Scotia fleet have arrived at Victoria.

A Chinese Embezzling Plot.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 16.—The Minister of Customs has discovered a plot by which an organization in China is smuggling Chinese into Canada on bogus certificates. A large number of fraudulent certificates have been captured and are in the Customs Department here. It is believed that a large number of Chinamen have been run into the United States in the same way.

Three Years for Manslaughter.

DEDHAM, Mass., April 16.—In the Superior Court John Ryan, of Brookline, who was found guilty of manslaughter in killing his child, was sentenced to State prison for three years.

SOLONS HAVE A MILL

Hot Time in the Ohio House of Representatives.

SUDDEN END TO THE SESSION.

All on Account of a Prize Fight at an Athletic Club.

A Number of the Legislators Wished to Attend, and Tried to Cut the Night Session Short—Objection on the Part of the Stay-Aways Precipitates a Row—Scenes of Wild Confusion.

COLUMBUS, O., April 16.—The night session of the House of Representatives held to consider local measures broke up in a row at 10 o'clock. There was a prize-fight at the Athletic club-rooms and as many members had tickets there was considerable objection to holding the night session, but the objections were voted down.

At 10 o'clock a member who had been active in securing the night session moved to adjourn. He was opposed by those who still had bills to be considered. Representative Dougherty, who was in the Chair, put the motion, and, ignoring Representative Taylor's demand for the yeas and nays, declared the House adjourned.

Taylor leaped to his chair and made an impassioned speech denouncing the action of the Chair as a high-handed outrage.

Although the House was declared adjourned most of the members remained in their seats listening to the speech. When he had finished there was a scene of wild confusion.

"Take the scoundrel out of the chair!" yelled Representative Beaumont, and there was a movement toward the rostrum. But Dougherty anticipated it and got away.

Representative Griffin, who had helped secure the adjournment approached Mr. Taylor, who had begun to speak again and whose face was livid with rage, and attempted to pacify him.

With a blow Taylor sent Griffin's hat sailing across the room and continued denouncing the action of Chairman Dougherty. Soon most of the members left for the prize-fight and Taylor and his friends held a confab, pledging themselves to oppose every measure Dougherty proposes the rest of the session.

RUSSIAN PREPARATIONS.

Adoption of Severe Measures Showing That War is Contemplated.

LONDON, April 16.—Advices received here from St. Petersburg state that the Council of the Empire has adopted a series of drastic measures which indicate that preparations are being made for war.

A plan has been approved by which all private railways and steamers will be turned over to the Government in the event of a mobilization of the forces being ordered.

The severest penalties are provided for any one who shall communicate abroad any of the plans of the Government or any document containing information which, because of considerations of external security, should be kept secret.

The authorities will also punish without trial such persons as shall be discovered to be secretly teaching in the Polish language.

For the Great Naval Review.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—After conference with the various parties interested in the great international review to be held in Hampton Roads and New York Harbor in April 1893, Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, will on Monday introduce in the Senate an amendment to the Naval Appropriation bill appropriating $300,000 for the expenses of said review, and the entertainment of the official guests of the nation who will accompany the foreign fleets. The President will, as directed by the existing law, extend to foreign nations a formal invitation to participate in the review as soon as Congress provides the necessary appropriation.

Saratoga's New Convention Hall.

SARATOGA, N. Y.—April 16.—The village hall commission have accepted plans for the new convention hall. The plans of Fuller & Wheeler, of Albany, were accepted. The hall is to seat 5,000 persons and cost $85,000. It is expected to be completed in time for the National Educational Convention, which meets here in July.

Minister Porter to Return at Once.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 16.—Hon. Albert G. Porter, Minister to Italy, will leave for Washington to-morrow afternoon, a telegram from Mr. Blaine having directed him to report there. Minister Porter expresses satisfaction at the settlement of the Italian difficulty, and says that it means the return of Baron Fava. He will return to Rome immediately.

No Guardian for Millionaire Brown.

BOSTON, Mass., April 16.— Judge Forbes, in the Suffolk County Probate Court, has dismissed the proceedings instituted to have John Brown, the West End millionaire, put under guardianship as an insane person incapable of taking care of his property. A settlement has been reached between Brown and his heirs, Brown having agreed to put a large amount of his p roperty in trust.

Arrested for Attempted Murder.

PROVIDENCE, April 16.—George G. Merry, 29 years of age and a native of Pawtucket, who is wanted by Boston authorities for the attempted murder of Ethel Beaumont in that city Wednesday morning, has been arrested here. The prisoner admits that he did the shooting but claims that his mind was affected. Boston authorities were notified and he was taken to that city.

BAD BILL MURPHY.

He Has Killed His Fifth Man—Hiding in the Mountains.

MURPHY, N. C., April 16.—Bill Murphy, the half-breed desperado who murdered his brother and three other persons, has killed a deputy sheriff and is now hiding in the Nantahala Mountains, where he defies arrest.

After killing his brother he sent the sheriff of Monroe county word that he didn't want to hurt him, but that the sheriff must not try to arrest him. The sheriff did not try until a warrant was sworn out. He then summoned a posse of 15 men, and with Charley Ray, his deputy, went to Jellico. It was after dark as they approached Jim Miller's house, where Murphy and his brothers, Arch and Jim, were. They heard the crowd approaching and got out of the house.

Sheriff McKean ordered them to surrender and they opened fire on the posse with Winchesters. A hot fire from both sides was kept up for a few minutes, and Ray, the deputy, fell with a bullet in his brain. Then the sheriff's posse, except Dan Murphy, the uncle of Bill, ran. The sheriff was shot in the shoulder, but fortunately the ball had struck the breech of his gun first, which saved his life. The Murphys made a dash for the house again, which is built of logs, with only one door, and began firing through the cracks. The whole posse then fled, leaving the body of Ray.

A messenger was sent to Sweetwater for medical aid for the sheriff and to telegraph the Governor of Tennessee for troops.

Murphy had staked off his grave by the side of his dead brothers. Last night, fearing that the authorities would prove too much for him, he crossed into North Carolina into Nantahala, where it will be impossible to follow him.

Embezzled for Three Years.

NEW YORK, April 16.—Thomas Vigus, cashier of the National Board of Underwriters for about three years, has proved an embezzler of about $3,500 of the concern's money. His irregularities were never suspected until he absented himself from the office on the plea that his invalid mother needed his attention. He was given a few days leave of absence, but not reporting at the end of a week, suspicion was aroused and an investigation of his books ordered. It resulted in the discovery of his peculations and falsified accounts. Virgus has not been arrested, but is still at his home in 10th street, Brooklyn. From this fact it is concluded that a restitution will be made.

Indignation at Wissig's Conduct.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 16.—The disgusting speech of Assemblyman Philip Wissig of New York in the House on the Woman's Suffrage bill is a general cause of comment. There were fully twenty women present at the time and they were compelled to hear what was said. The stenographer refuses to give any transcript of remarks because, by order of the Assembly, they had been expunged from the minutes and are not now public property. Wissig is a member of Tammany, but the representatives in the Assembly who come from that organization are highly indignant at his conduct.

To Prevent Fish Destruction.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 16.—Thomas S. Hargest has submitted to Attorney-General Hensel a communication from the State Fishery Commissioners with a request for his official opinion upon the legal means available to prevent the destruction of food fish in the streams of the State by coal operators, manufacturers and others. The Attorney-General will give an early opinion.

Costa Rica "Hard Up For Change."

WASHINGTON, April 16.—The Government of Costa Rica has issued a decree prohibiting the exportation of Costa Rican coins and bullion. It alleges, in justification, that the gold coin has almost absolutely disappeared, and the silver coin is only found in small quantities, scarcely sufficient to meet the necessities of retail traffic.

Denied by His Friends.

PHILADELPHIA, April 16.—The report that Dr. Charles B. Penrose was arrested as a member of the Wyoming gang of cattle thieves is denied by his friends here. They assert that the doctor went to Wyoming for his health and was induced by the cattle men to join in their crusade against the rustlers as a surgeon. He is a member of a prominent family, his father being Dr. Richard A. H. Penrose and his brother State Senator Boies Penrose.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Peter Schultz, of C. Schepflin & Co., has returned from an extended Southern trip.

Supt. W. H. Peddle of the Central railroad, assures a PRESS representative that the removal of the freight house "is coming". Then the people will arise and call him "blessed".

Cannon-Ball Tuck, who has been laid up for the past ten days, to-day resumed his trips on his regular train, much to the relief of his admiring patrons, although little Freeman did first-rate.

The Highlanders' club of Fanwood met yesterday afternoon at the residence of L J. Briggs. The result of the game made a total of 696 points for the Captain and the Knight, to 687 to the Colonel and the General.

Miss Ollie Blanchard will positively appear at the concert in Reform Hall, Monday evening, although on the programme of a Brooklyn concert the same night. She will sing in Plainfield first and take a train at once for Brooklyn.

The Rev. Dr. Fitch of Brooklyn will officiate at All Saints' church, Fanwood, tomorrow. The church will be beautifully decorated by the women of the church. The flowers for the chancel are given in memoriam of Anna Reynolds Moore.

Mrs. Simon Mantz, formerly Mrs. M. M. Walker of this city, is about to erect a handsome home on Craig place, next to the German Reformed church. Ground was broken this morning. Pearson & Gayle have the carpentry contract which is an assurance that the work will be well done.

The Rev. J. P. Taylor, having recently resigned from the pulpit of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Evona, it is not positively known who will officiate there tomorrow. It is confidently hoped, however, that the Rev. E. J. Knight of New York will be able to be present and conduct the Easter services.

BY THE WAY.

—An important meeting of the Park club will be held in the club building next Tuesday, April 19, at 8 p. m.

—A fair will be given by the Friendship Rebecca Degree lodge, No. 4, at 42 West Front street, beginning Monday evening, April 18, and continuing for one week.

—George W. Cole, of the firm of Terrill & Cole, is now the proud father of both a brave little boy and a sweet little girl. The latter arrived yesterday afternoon.

—The finest of wines and liquors for family use, including the celebrated Wiener table beer, are delivered to order by F. Linke, 43 West Front street, telephone call 157.

—The next auction sale of horses at Thompson's Metropolitan stables, North avenue, will occur Wednesday of next week. Honest, reliable dealing is a feature of these sales.

—Union Good Friday services were held last night in the Trinity Reformed church in accordance with the programme published exclusively in these columns yesterday. The attendance was very large.

—The sidewalks under the railroad bridge at Grant avenue, complained of by a correspondent in THE PRESS, recently, have been viewed by Superintendent Peddle of the Jersey Central, and the nuisance is now abated.

—Persons holding invitation tickets for the Odd Fellows' anniversary entertainment, of the 29th inst., can exchange them on Monday for reserved seats, at Reynolds's Central pharmacy, Front street and Park avenue.

—The members of the Union County Country club will give a "Fantasie in Cork", Saturday evening, May 7, at the Casino. The tickets of admission will be $1, which is just $99 less than the real worth of the entertainment.

—The new uniforms for the Plainfield Bicycle club, are to be made by the Acme Tailoring company, 12 West Front street. The custom work of this establishment is fast taking the lead among fashionable men of this city and the borough.

—Next Monday and Tuesday there will be Holy Communion at 10 a. m., at Grace church. The annual meeting of the parish will be held Monday evening at 7:30. The Confirmation class will meet at the rectory Friday at 5 p. m. There will be evening prayer every day at 5.

Smalley Bros. Get the Contract.

The borough council of North Plainfield last night considered bids for crushed stone for the year. The bid of Smalley Bros. was accepted, and they will furnish all sizes of stone at 95 cents a ton, delivered. Alfred C. Johnson put in a lower old, but it was said that his crusher could not be put into operation in time to give the borough its spring supply. During the evening some warm discussion arose over the old trouble the council and Smalley Bros. had last year. Charges of broken faith were freely made and as freely refuted. The dragging forth of the old skeleton was regarded as unfortunate, and by common consent the matter was dropped so that pleasant relations with the contractors might be resumed.

Conjecture and Fact.

The trout is said to be more keen of vision than any other fish, and some wags have attributed this to his "specks". Be this as it may, it is nevertheless certain that the near-sighted angler can enjoy his sport better if he wears "specs" scientifically adjusted to his vision. At Collier's a practical optician will insure him this result.

PURE WATER IN THE SCHOOLS.

An Analysis by H. P. Reynolds Removes All Doubts of the Board of Education.

Owing to a rumor which has been in circulation to some extent in our city that the well-water used by the teachers and scholars of the High and Franklin schools is polluted and unfit, as well as dangerous to use, and has in some instances made the scholars sick so that they and the teachers were unwilling, and could not possibly drink it, the board of education desire to state through THE PRESS that great care has been used in the construction of the well, that the best possible drinking water might be furnished to those who desired it. The well is a combination of a dug and drilled well having an excavation of seventy-five feet and a pipe driven or drilled twenty-five feet in the earth from the bottom of the well.

Desiring to use every sanitary measure and precaution to preserve the health of those attending or in any way connected with our schools, the board of education have thought it advisable to have a thorough and careful chemical analysis made of the well-water used by the teachers and schollars of the High and Franklin schools, and, herewith submit the following analysis and statement as made by H. P. Reynolds:

Board of Education, Plainfield, N. J.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with your request, I have made a qualitative chemical examination of a sample of water taken from the well in the yard of the High School house located between Fifth and Fourth streets near the line of Arlington avenue, and I beg to submit the following report:

FIRST—General appearance and condition—The sample is free from taste, odor or color. It is not, however, free from particles of scale and rust of iron, serving to give it a noticeable degree of turbidity. This condition is probably due to the great length of the well-tube, (125 feet), and to the fact that more than half of this tube stands in a dug well, unsupported by the earth, and hence is unusually subject to vibrations caused by the action of pumping.

SECOND—Application of Tests—For Organic Matters—These are present only in minute proportions—in fact, are scarcely to be noticed.

FOR FREE AMMONIA—The tests indicate the entire absence of free ammonia; and this, in turn, indicates the absence of impurities of animal origin.

FOR CHLORIDES—It is hardly expected to find—at this small distance from the sea—a natural water absolutely free from any trace of chlorine, and it is generally agreed that a proportion of chlorine equal to one grain per gallon does not imply pollution. In the present instance my tests for chlorine indicate the presence of less than one-half of a grain—probably not more than one-quarter of a grain—per gallon.

FOR NITRITES—The tests used are said to indicate the presence of these substances in so small a proportion as one to one-million. Applied to this sample they give a negative result, leading to the conclusion that the water is free from nitrites.

It will be understood that the healthfulness of water as a beverage is not affected by the presence or absence of ammonia of chlorides or of nitrites in the usual small proportions. But these things are important if found in sufficent proportion to indicate pollution from drains or vaults.

In the present instance we find the quality of the water comes within the requirements of our State and city boards of health, and within the average of Plainfield well-water as to purity; and we are justified in classing the sample as a wholesome drinking water, so far as can be determined by the most recent methods of QUALITATIVE examination.

I remain, with great respect,
Very truly yours,
H. P. REYNOLDS.

Alcohol Killed Him.

The traveling tinker whose death in a hut at Netherwood was recorded exclusively in these columns yesterday seems to have died of alcoholic poisoning. It transpires that he bought a quantity of wood alcohol at a local paint store, and went to the hut and drank most of it. The balance was drunk by his negro companion who was held by the police as a witness. The negro is now a very sick man, at Muhlenberg Hospital.

Wood alcohol contains fusel-oil, and though much liked as a beverage by the tramp fraternity is a fatal poison when used in excess.

Dr. Westcott, the county physician, has made an investigation and decided that no inquest was necessary.

The dead tinker will be buried at the expense of the county.

Easter at the Church of the Heavenly Rest.

The Easter morning service at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Evona, will be held at the usual hour, 11, and Sunday-school at 3. p. m.

Worth five dollars a bottle, but sold for only one dollar, and guaranteed to benefit or cure, or money refunded—the genuine Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Fraudulent imitations of this medicine are sometimes offered and sold at 50 and 70 cents.

To protect the public from such imposition, the genuine is now sold only through druggists, regularly authorized as agents, and at the uniform and long-established price of $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.10.

But each bottle of the genuine Golden Medical Discovery carries with it something that makes it the cheapest blood-purifier and liver-invigorator that you can buy. It's the printed guarantee of its makers that, if it fails to benefit or cure you, they'll return the money. You pay only for the good you get, with this and with all of Dr. Pierce's medicines. You pay the one fixed price—but if there's no help, there's no pay. It's "value received, or your money back."

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "nastiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

That G. A. R. Fight.

That G. A. R. trouble was brought to the front again at last night's meeting of the North Plainfield borough council. The matter of making an appropriation for Memorial Day observance came up, and considerable discussion arose as to whether it ought to be given to Winfield Scott post or divided with Major Anderson post. Wm. Smith of Winfield Scott was present and said that his post was the only one that held memorial exercises. The Major Andersons, he said, only shared by invitation in the celebration which his post arranged and paid for.

Inasmuch as there seemed to be a disagreement between the posts, and as it was stated that the Major Anderson post was arranging for a celebration of its own, the matter was left for the mayor to adjust, and the sum of $25 was appropriated to be applied by him to Memorial Day observance.

Plainfield's New Hotel.

Plainfield in a few weeks will be boasting with pride of her Hotel Vendome. That is to be the name of what was first Flagg's hotel and more recently Force's hotel on North avenue adjoining THE PRESS building. The new name will be painted on the face of the building, set in cement in the sidewalk and flung to the breeze from the flag staff.

The new proprietors are spending time and money to make the hotel the equal of any in the State. A new dining room will be provided down stairs and other very desirable changes made.

A COUPLE OF INNOCENT STORIES.

One Little Whisper From Society's Realm and Another From a Future Debutante.

Plodding my weary way homeward the other night, I turned into Broadway just behind two of our very finest young people—he a P. Bl. C. man, I believe, and she a Monday Afternoon divinity, I am sure—and their harmless chatter amused me immensely. The dear girl was telling about one of her friends whose name I could not catch, try as I would, but who, I judged, was someone I must know very well indeed. But I failed to recognize the description, just the same; perhaps, however, you will read between the lines. Here is what I got of the narrative:

"Well,"—said she—"I do think it's just too funny for anything: don't you?"

The young man said he did.

"And then"—she went on—"what do you suppose her mother told me?"

The young man didn't suppose anything.

"Well,"—she continued—"her mother says that not only did he propose to (I missed the name) but he actually wrote to Mrs. (and I muffed again) asking if she thought $500 a year would be sufficient to allow for her daugher's carriage hire! Perfectly absurd, was n't it?"

The young man said it was.

* * * * *

I heard a good story one night this week that would be sacreligious, I fear, if it were otherwise than absolutely true. Children will say things, you know, and do things, that their elders might never say or do without forfeiting their social position; but enough of introduction.

There resided until very recently at the west end of this municipality a man and his wife and two children—wee girls boasting ages of five and three years respectively. The peculiar thing about the family was the fact that pretty nearly everybody connected with it bore in one way or another the patronymic of Delafield. The father's name was Charles Delafield W———; the children were Katherine Delafield W——— and Muriel Delafield W———; and every paternal ancestor away back as far as the eye could reach carried to the grave the appellation of Delafield. Mrs. W———, of course, escaped the general nomenclature, but it was not her fault, for she liked the omnipresent name very much, as is evidenced by the christening of her children. The young ones, Katherine and Muriel, more than ordinarily intelligent children, caught onto the way in which the Delafield feature was being overdone, and thus came about the following:

One day just before Christmas Mrs. W——— was giving a comprehensive discourse for the edification of the little W———s, having for its subject the first Christmas morn. The young ones listened with eager attention as she narrated the story of the magi, the vision of the shepherds, the message of the angels, the star in the east, and all the rest of that wonderful tale. At length the good mother came to tell of the humble manger at Bethlehem, of that other loving mother who knelt beside it in the dim early light of the breaking day, and then, wishing to test the perspicacity of her little ones, she ended:

"And there in the rude manger, there on the rough straw and the cold boards, lay a little child, and that little child was —can either of you tell me whom?"

And Miss Katherine promptly answered: "I know, mamma; it was Baby Delafield Jesus!" THE CENSOR.

They Like Our Senator.

The following complimentary notice of Senator Keys is from a recent issue of the Hoboken Evening News:

The State senator from Somerset county, the Hon. William J. Keys, visited this city yesterday. Under escort of A. C. Young, a bright young law student connected with the firm of Russ & Heppenheimer, he made a tour of the city and was favorably impressed with the business-like aspect of its surroundings. He marvelled at the evidence of prosperity as illustrated by the handsome bank buildings, substantial city hall, large steamship industry, and great success of newspaper enterprise as shown in the Evening News building. The senator renewed the acquaintance he formed with our assemblymen, Coyle and Tahen, and with them visited mayor Stanton at his cosy office in the city hall, where he whiled away a couple of hours relating pleasant reminiscences of a legislator, and recounting incidents and experiences of residents of Somerset county, friends of secretary Lavezty. Senator Keys is an attractive and interesting conversationalist, a man of pleasing and commanding presence, a popular and sterling Democrat, and is said to be destined to represent his Congressional district in Washington, D. C.

Tribute to a Modest and Worthy Life.

The Plainfield Medical association has adopted the following tribute to the late Dr. John H. Griffen:

WHEREAS, By a sudden Providence Dr. John H. Griffen has been removed from our midst;

Resolved, That by his death the Plainfield Medical association has lost one of its oldest and most honored members—one who but a few days ago presided at its last meeting, and one who was respected by the profession and the public alike for his gentlemanly and modest life.

Resolved, That we extend to the family our sympathy in this hour of trial, and that we attend the funeral in a body.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and also published in the daily papers. J. H. CARMAN,
President Plainfield, Med. Asso.
D. C. ADAMS, Sec'y.

A Valuable Remedy.

BRANDETH'S PILLS purify the Blood, stimulate the Liver, strengthen the Kidneys, regulate the Bowels. They were introduced in the United States in 1835. Since that time over sixty millions of boxes of BRANDETH'S PILLS have been used.

This, together with thousands of convincing testimonials from all parts of the world, is positive evidence of their value.

BRANDETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

Independents Again Winners.

The third contest in the New Jersey Trap Shooters' League for valuable trophies took place at New Brunswick, yesterday, on the grounds of the New Brunswick Gun club, and for the third consecutive time the Independent Gun club of this city were the victors with a score of 114 broken blue rocks out of a possible 125. Their previous scores were 109 and 112. The Boiling Springs Gun club came second yesterday with a score of 109 out of 125. Charley Smith of this city, or "Dutchy" as he is so well known, made the high record of the day by breaking 25 straight blue rocks in the team race, for which he was loudly applauded and congratulated. There were ten entries in the team race, each team of five men to shoot at 25 blue rocks each from known angles The New Brunswick Gun club have fine grounds and all the preparations for the occasion were admirable. The club is composed of some of New Brunswick's best-known citizens, and a more courteous set of sportsmen are seldom to be found. A number of ladies were present and enjoyed the day's outing. All Heritage, of the Jersey City Heights Gun club, imbued with the idea inaugurated at Wilmington, Del., by T. H. Keller, suggested a "memorial shoot" to assist in the erection of a monument to the memory of deceased All Bandle. There were 39 entries at $1 each. Every person shot at one blue rock each, sprung from ten traps at one signal. The reports of the guns that followed resembled a musketry volley in a battle. The Boiling Springs Gun club drew by lot the next place of contest, which will be on their grounds at Rutherford, N. J., about the middle of May.

The officers of the New Brunswick Gun club are: Joseph Fisher, president; W. E. Sperling, vice-president, Dr. H. Iredell, treasurer; C. S. VanNius, secretary; V. S. Voorhees, captain of field.

The following is the score made by the winning team with their alias added:

Charles Smith (Dutchy)	25
Enoch D. Miller (Farmer)	24
Thos. Brantingham (Goosey)	22
Wm. Sigler (Reliable)	22
Ali Soper (Coal Burner)	21

Grace Church and Its Dedication.

The chief feature of to-morrow's Easter services in this city will be the dedication of the new Grace church by Bishop Scarborough. The parish of this church was formed about the year 1852, when it was known as St. Mary's. This name being unsatisfactory it was changed to Grace church in 1853.

The corner-stone of the church building was laid by Bishop Doane July 12, 1854. The location of the church then was on East Front beyond Richmond street In 1868 efforts were made to change the location to one more desirable, but without success. The church was enlarged, however, by the addition of a recess for the chancel and transept.

In October, 1875, property was purchased on Sixth and Sycamore streets, and the following summer the edifice was removed to that site, rebuilt and enlarged. Now it is replaced by the handsome new structure on the Seventh street end of the lot.

Among the rectors who have served this parish were the Rev. Philander E. Coe, the Rev. R. G. Quenneli, the Rev. Dr. Thrall, and the Rev. Dr. Fox. The present rector, the Rev. E. M. Rodman, has been in charge since Nov. 1, 1870.

A Brave Little Woman to Speak in Plainfield.

Concerning Mrs. Mary Clement Leavitt, who is to speak in Plainfield under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., May 31, that other famous woman, lady Henry Somerset, writes as follows:

"I shall not easily forget the impression made on my mind when I first heard of Mrs. Mary Clement Leavitt and her arrival in England. I longed with a great desire to see that woman who had passed from land to land, raising Christ's standard of temperance and purity. When I saw her delicate, frail form, and heard how she had braved the burning heat of the tropical sun, the long journeys, the loneliness and the privations in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and in thirst, in fasting often, I knew that her strength had been sustained because to her had come the whispered promise: 'My grace is sufficient for thee, My strength is made perfect in strengthlessness', and I knew and understood the secret of her power."

The Easter Choir and Music at the First Baptist Church.

The First Baptist church choir will have the following order of service to-morrow under the direction of C. W. McCutchen, choirmaster, W. E. MacClymont, organist, and a chorus of 19 voices as follows:

Where Sweet-Toned Music Reigns Supreme.

Plainfield has at last a genuine attraction for music-lovers in the fine new store of F. M. Hulett at 74 West Front street This large store in the Schepflin block has been completely renovated and re-decorated, and stocked with a complete line of choice pianos, organs, stringed instruments, and everything pertaining to the music world. It is a most attractive place, being richly furnished and carpeted, and Mr. Hulett and his charming wife are constantly in charge to bestow cordial attention on all visitors. The large show windows at the front of the store are beautifully fitted up, and in addition to the large wareroom there is a snug private office and cosy waiting room. At the rear is a working room where skilled mechanics will be kept busy repairing and polishing instruments that have become damaged through use or removal Competent tuners will also be employed, and thus in every way Mr. Hulett will provide for the public the best service obtainable. In the wareroom will always be kept a large variety of high-class instruments, and it will be a delightful way to pass an hour for Plainfielders to step in and listen to the sweet music that will constantly fill the air. Mr. Hulett's principle is to give everyone the full service paid for, and he guarantees to refund money in every case where complete satisfaction is not given. He has had a long experience in musical matters, and his good taste and judgment can be relied on. He and his wife are courteous, refined, entertaining and obliging, and hundreds have already enjoyed the pleasure of making their acquaintance. The new music store certainly deserves liberal patronage, and if you have n't yet given it a call drop in at your earliest opportunity and receive a free subscription to an excellent musical journal, besides enjoying the artistic and musical feast that the new venture affords.

THE WORLD DON'T W.

Only Women Realize the Truth.

"She fell exhausted from nervous weakness while returning from work."

Ah women, you only can understand this. You women, saleslgirls, and you who are confined in offices, mills and factories, how heavy is your drudgery, how wearing upon your nerves, how exhausting to your strength, how blighting to your beauty. You are often nervous, generally weak, and always tired.

You feel languid, low spirited, lifeless and miserable, experience a faintness, sense of fullness or bloating after meals, irregular appetite, constipation, headache, wake unrefreshed from sleep, have weak back, back-ache, bearing down pains, irregularities. And during Spring you always feel worse.

Thousands also have had the Grip which has left them with weak nerves and debilitated bodies. The great nerve strengthener and female restorative is Dr. Green's Nervura No remedy in the world is so sure to restore strength to the weakened and worn-out nerves, bring the bloom of health to the cheeks, strength to the limbs and vigor to the whole system. Use it and it will give you strength for your work. It is the best of all Spring medicines Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists, $1 00

"It is with great gratitude . . . I say Dr. Greene's Nervura has done wonders for me. My nerves had become so weak as to render me incapable of fulfilling my duties. I had no confidence in myself. I would at times grow so weak that it seemed as if I should never be able to move again. I could not remember anything. Dreadful shooting pains occurred frequently all through my eyes and head; often severe headache would follow which would prostrate me for hours. Physicians said no help was possible.

"I began taking Dr. Greene's Nervura and found by the time I had taken the first bottle that I had been greatly benefited. I continued its use and am now doing my work and have gained my original health again.

ANNA KING,
136 Diamond st., Philadelphia, Pa."

N. B. Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th St., New York, can be consulted, free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free. 2 2 1d tuth

OFFICE WORLD'S FAIR
Sept. 15, 1893

BLACKWELL'S DURHAM TOBACCO CO.,
Durham, N. C

Gentlemen:

We have Smoked up all the Tobacco at the World's Fair, and have unanimously awarded the Gold Medal for Smoking Tobacco to

BLACKWELL'S

Bull Durham

Congratulating you on your success, we remain Yours truly,

COMMITTEE.

Blackwell's Bull Durham

Has been the recognized standard of Smoking Tobacco for over 25 years. Uniformly good and uniformly first. Bright, sweet and fragant—we invite the most fastidious to test its peculiar excellence.

Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co., Durham, N. C.

He Ought to Be.

Merchant (to applicant for position of bookkeeper)—Are you good at figures?

Applicant—Well, I ought to be; I kept books in a dressmaking establishment for five years.—Detroit Free Press.

A Gloomy View.

"The total output of this country exceeds a million tons," remarked the optimist.

"Yes," repled the pessimist, "but it all goes up in smoke."—Judge.

Woman and Burglar.

Mrs. Winks (looking up from the paper)—A woman out west shot a burglar and killed him.

Mr. Winks—Well! Well! What was she aiming at?—N. Y. Weekly.

The Worst Way.

"Miss Williams is gone on me, I guess. She asked me to take her to a dance. Said she wanted to go the worst way."

"Well, I guess if you take her that will be the worst way."—Referee.

Where There's a Will There's a Way.

"This," said Willie, as he softly closed the door of the little closet behind him and reached up for a jar of blackberry jam, "will exactly fill the Bill."—Chicago Tribune.

The Other Side of It.

Mrs. Prim (of Boston)—Divorce is an unpleasant subject.

Mrs. Weetpit (of Chicago)—Yes, but it frees us from an unpleasant master!—Puck.

The Visionary.

Although he seems so lucky starred
His riches yet take wings,
Because he always works so hard
A-doing useless things.

—Judge.

His Wish May Be Realized.

Young Mr. Billington—Amy, my love, I wish we lived in the good old days, when a knight could fight for his lady love.

Miss Coonington—Why, George, dear; as for that, you haven't asked papa's consent to our engagement yet, you know.—Puck.

Kept Quiet.

"I hope you were not impudent in return," said mamma, after Willie had told her of some mean things a playmate had said.

"No. I just kept still," said Willie. "I couldn't think of anything to say that would make him mad."—Harper's Young People.

The Family Cake.

"You can't eat your cake and have it," said the wife to her complaining husband.

"And I can't eat yours and get rid of it," he replied, branching off into another division of domestic infelicity.—Detroit Free Press.

Explained.

Jones—What has made the telephone so successful, do you imagine?

Brown—I presume it is owing to the fact that it is run on sound principles.—Detroit Free Press.

On the Same Subject.

Boston Girl (in Chicago)—Have you "A Cigarette Maker's Romance?"

Bookseller—No; but perhaps "My Lady Nicotine" would do instead.—Puck.

Well Named.

The telephone, it seems to me,
Is named exceeding well;
For what folks say to it, you see,
The 'Phone doth straightway Tel.

—Harper's Young People.

WASHING DAY

"Ephum!"

"Yethum!"

"Come a-humpin' yere an' git yo' barf. Yo' mammy ain't got no time ter fool."—Judge.

A Simple Test.

Mrs. Sharptong—I fear my husband's mind is affected. Is there any sure test?

Doctor—Tell him you'll never speak to him again. If he laughs, he's sane.—N. Y. Weekly.

"We always fry ours in Cottolene."

Our Meat, Fish, Oysters, Saratoga Chips, Eggs, Doughnuts, Vegetables, etc.

Like most other people, our folks formerly used lard for all such purposes. When it disagreed with any of the family (which it often did,) we said it was "too rich." We finally tried and not one of us has had an attack of "richness" since. We further found that, unlike lard, Cottolene had no unpleasant odor when cooking, and lastly Mother's favorite and conservative cooking authority came out and gave it a big recommendation which clinched the matter. So that's why we always fry ours in Cottolene.

Sold by all grocers.

WAS THIS DEEMING?

Believed in Los Angeles, Cal., that He Lived There.

HE CALLED HIMSELF WILLIAMS.

His Resemblance to the Australian Murderer Said to be Striking.

Married a Rich Widow, Robbed Her, and Then Fled—Told Her of His Australian Doings—Deeming Pronounced Sane by the Melbourne Medical Board—Says He is Innocent, and Can Prove It—Doesn't Care for Religion.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 18.—From facts recently elicited it appears that the Australian murderer Deeming visited this city in 1887 and married, soon afterward decamping with $3,000 of the woman's money. He went under the assumed name of Charles H. Williams, and came from San Francisco. In a short time he succeeded in marrying Mrs. Nanni Catithsing, who authorized him to draw her savings, amounting to several thousand dollars, with which he fled.

He was confessedly an Australian, was a Free Mason, a member of St. George's Society, and in many other respects, such as disposition and habits, is strikingly like Deeming, if not the same individual. He also showed great aversion to being photographed, a likeness being secured purely by chance. These portraits bear striking resemblance to those published of Deeming.

He confessed to Mrs. Catithsing an Australian marriage with issue, but told her this previous wife had died, brutally describing the joyous dance he executed on her grave.

Williams' departure from Los Angeles was hastened by the accidental meeting with an Ohio lady who recognized him, and this circumstance, coupled with the finding in Australia of his photograph, bearing the name of an Ohio photographer, strengthens the theory that Williams and Deeming are one and the same man.

Deeming Not Insane.

MELBOURNE, April 18.—The Medical Board who have examined the murderer, Deeming, as to his sanity, pronounce him to be mentally sound and perfectly responsible for all his actions. The statement that Deeming was mad when a boy and committed the murders at Rainhill and Windsor while suffering from instinctive insanity, received no credence from the Board.

Deeming maintains his nonchalance and continues to talk of what he will do when he goes back to England. He said yesterday that without the help of a lawyer he could convince any jury if he tried that he was an innocent man. He eats heartily, saying that he does not intend to go into a decline because the authorities keep him in jail for a few weeks.

A chaplain was admitted to him on Friday and Deeming talked with him on religious subjects. He remarked, however, that he did not care much for religion, as the woman who got him in trouble by her unfaithfulness (Miss Mather) was always reading her prayer book.

PENSION CERTIFICATES.

Statement of Number Issued by the Bureau for the Past Nine Months.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Pension Bureau has issued a statement showing that for the nine months from July 1, 1891, to March 31, 1892, there were issued 232,021 certificates of which 54,714 were under the General law, and 177,307 under the Act of June 27, 1890. The statement also shows:

Number of pensioners on rolls, June 30, 1891, 676,160; number of pensioners on rolls, February 29, 1892, 807,029. Average first payment during fiscal year 1891, $173.70. Average first payment during nine months, fiscal year 1892, $138.82. Total number of original cases allowed, 174,429. Total number of increase, etc., allowed, 56,849. Total number of restoration cases allowed, 743.

Charged With Criminal Libel.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 18.—Levy Crasper, editor and publisher of a small Sunday paper here called the "Sunday Sun," was arrested yesterday on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Chief of Police McCabe of this city. Crasper published in his paper yesterday a statement that the chief of police was an ex-convict. The arrest followed in a few hours after the publication of the statement. At the County Court, which begins here to-day, Crasper will be tried on a charge of criminal libel on ex-Alderman Downey of this city, having been indicted by the last grand jury on two charges, one of which was also preferred by Chief McCabe.

Wants $5,000 Damages.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 18.—Miss Crosby, of Pine Hill, has begun suit against James Best, of this city, for $5,000 damages. She claims that Best wronged her under promise of marriage. Best's father died some months ago, leaving an estate valued at $70,000. Miss Crosby visited Best's store a short time ago and pleaded with him to marry her. He denied her statements, and when she upbraided him she was ejected. A few days later Best disappeared. The executor of the Best estate has taken possession of the store.

Ex-Senator O'Connor Sued.

NEW YORK, April 18.—A suit has been begun in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn by Mrs. Ruth A. Johnston against her brother, ex-Senator Eugene F. O'Connor, who ran for Secretary of State on the Republican ticket last year, asking for a division of more than $400,000 in their father's estate and an accounting for rents and other things for nearly ten years. Mrs. Johnstone makes charges of fraud and misrepresentation against her brother.

HON. ALEXANDER M'KENZIE.

Death of Canada's Ex-Premier—Sketch of His Life.

TORONTO, Ont., April 18.—Hon. Alexander McKenzie, ex-Premier of Canada, died at 12:40 yesterday.

He was born in Perthshire, Scotland, on January 28, 1822. His father was an architect and contractor, and intended his son to follow the same vocation. The lad acquired a common school education but was not content with that and continued his studies at the old cathedral city of Dunkeld and at Perth. In 1842 he emigrated to Canada, settling in Kingston, Ont., the home then of a trio of men who have likewise distinguished themselves in Canadian politics. These were Sir John A. MacDonald, Sir Alexander Campbell and the Hon. Oliver Mowat.

After a short time Mr. McKenzie removed to Sarnia, Ont., and set up in business as a contractor. Later, in 1852, he was the editor of the Lambton "Shield," and was elected to Parliament in 1861 for Lambton County. From 1867 to 1873 he was the leader of the reform party in the House of Commons, and when the Pacific Railway scandals, in November, 1873, forced Sir John MacDonald to resign, the Liberal leader was called upon to form a new ministry.

Parliament was dissolved, and in the elections of 1874 the new Government was sustained by a large majority. The Conservatives then began their famous campaign for a "national policy" and higher duties upon imports, and upon this issue in the general elections of August, 1878, the Liberal Government was defeated and Sir John Macdonald returned to power. Mr. MacKenzie continued at the head of his party for a few years more and then retired.

The dead statesman was regarded generally as one of the ablest and most upright of the many political leaders in Canada's history, and during his long illness was the object of widespread sympathy.

A BOY SWINDLER.

Held in Boston for Working the Mails for Fraudulent Exchanges.

BOSTON, Mass., April 18.—Wm. H. Cozzens, whose father said he was but 16 years old, has been held for trial by United States Commissioner Hellet. He is charged with having worked the mails for fraudulent exchanges in all classes of goods, principally stamps and bicycles.

The young prisoner has been a very skilful operator in four different towns. He advertised in boys papers as B. W. King at Framingham, E. B. Atwood at Medfield, Charles B. Purdy at Natick and Henry Hartzon at South Framingham, and offered to exchange all kinds of articles for stamps from $1 to $6 in value, or for other goods. He received remittances from all over the country, some of them as far west as Iowa and from North to South, even to the gulf states.

When he got the stamps, it is charged that he did not remit the articles he

To Protect American Interests.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Government is moving in the Behring Sea matter with considerable rapidity, and by May 1 a formidable fleet of vessels will be on the outskirts of Behring Sea ready to protect American interests. The four revenue cutters, Rush, Bear, Corwin and Albatross, are now on their way north or are preparing at San Francisco. The men-of-war Adams and Mohican are now in the northern waters, while the Baltimore and Yorktown have been ordered to the Columbus River. All United States vessels ordered to Behring Sea are instructed to stop at Port Townsend, where most of them will receive their final instructions.

Thieves Pillaging a Village.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 18.—Thieves are pillaging the village of Wappingers Falls, Dutchess County. A week ago they entered the Episcopal Church while the Knights of Temperance were practicing for an entertainment and took $10 in cash from the rector's room. A silk muffler and a pair of shoes were also taken. The next night two men were seen trying to force open the shutters of the house of J. A. Reddell. They escaped. Later they entered the residence of Thomas Stevenson and stole some wine.

Will Not Rescind the Decree.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 18.—The Ministers of War and the Interior have refused their consent to the rescinding of the decree which prohibits the export of grain. Many failures are expected to result from their decision. London firms will probably lose heavily on advances made by them to Russian dealers. Gen. Gourko has ordered all German colonists who have not passes to return to Samara.

Delegates Assembling at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 18.—Delegates to the Republican State Convention to be held here Wednesday began arriving here last night. Senator Quay will be here to-day. The Lochiel Hotel will be the headquarters of the party and here will be found all the leaders.

SHE TAKES HIM BACK

Bigamist Abbott Has a Very Forgiving Wife,

AND SIX OTHERS BESIDES.

Not an Adonis, and Yet He Is Seven Times Married.

His Legal Wife Will Forgive Him Again When He Gets Out of Prison—She Was Used to Hearing of His Weddings, and Had Often Testified Against Him—He Was Kind to Her and Called Her "Doll."

NEWARK, N. J., April 18.—James Abbott, 42 years old, who yesterday committed to jail here on a charge of bigamy. He has served two years in Sing Sing for the same offence, and according to the testimony of his legal wife, has been married seven times, and is decidedly plain looking. He has pleaded guilty and asked to be sentenced as soon as possible.

Abbott about four months ago met Mrs. Katie Romp, a young widow, at a social gathering in Newark. She permitted him to call, and he made such a favorable impression on her that she consented to marry him. The marriage took place on March 20, and the couple lived together two weeks. Then he disappeared. A diamond pin and other jewelry belonging to his wife and an overcoat of her brother's were missed at the same time.

Soon after Abbott wrote to his wife. The letter gave the police a clew to his whereabouts. A decoy letter induced him to go to Jersey City from Brooklyn, where he was, and he was arrested. He denied the thefts, but the overcoat was found in a Brooklyn pawnshop.

In trying to locate him in Brooklyn the detectives discovered that he was a bigamist. They found his legal wife in Ninth street, Brooklyn. She is about forty-five years old. She did not appear to be surprised when told that her husband had lately been married in Newark. She was used to hearing such things, she said. She willingly went to Newark to testify against him. That was not a novelty to her either.

Her story, as told to the police, was that she was married to Abbott nineteen years ago, after the death of his first wife, who was, she declares, Emily Havemeyer, a member of the wealthy New York family of that name, and who had married him at the age of fifteen. He married Hannah Roach in this city in 1876, and for that offence was sent to Sing Sing for four years. Hannah Roach drowned herself while he was in prison. His wife forgave him when he was released and he lived with her a year.

Then he married Mary Moulton of this city, who had secured a divorce from her husband for that purpose. When she learned that he already had a wife she caused his arrest for bigamy, and he went to Sing Sing for five years.

His lawful wife appeared against him in both cases as a witness, but after his second liberation she took him back and they moved to South Norwalk, Conn. Then he met Glory Ann Bailey, and married her. His wife returned to Brooklyn, and in a few months Abbott followed her and was again forgiven. He joined the Salvation Army, and married a member of it named Lena Parks. That was but a few months ago. The Newark woman makes the seventh.

Mrs. Romp is greatly shocked by the discovery that has been made. Her family is a very respectable one. Mrs. Abbott has not yet lost her forgiving spirit. She will take her husband back again once more, she says, when his term of imprisonment is ended. She admits that he never worked for her, but thinks that his constantly kind manner and his pretty way of calling her "Doll" should cover a multitude of sins.

General Alger Will Not Withdraw.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—General Russel A. Alger is in Washington in attendance upon the sessions of the Commission to arrange for statues of Generals Hancock, Sheridan and Logan in this city. His presence here has given rise to reports that he would soon withdraw from the race for the Republican nomination for President. Since his arrival he has called on both President Harrison and Secretary Blaine. He said last night that the rumor had no foundation; that he was as much in it now as ever, and expected his name to be presented at Minneapolis.

Cashier Percival's Defense.

LEWISTON, Me., April 18.—The defaulting cashier of the Auburn Shoe and Leather Bank, M. C. Percival, who is now in State prison, has made a deposition to be used in the case of the bank against his bondsmen. It is said that he declares that the directors of the bank knew of its condition two years before Percival's arrest. Percival's father and father-in-law are both on his bond. When he was elected cashier his bond was placed at $20,000. Unknown to the bondsmen, the capital stock was increased, and for this reason the bondsmen claim they are not liable.

EASTER IN NEW YORK.

Unusually Elaborate Floral Decorations and Musical Programmes.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Never before in the history of church music in this city have such full programmes been carried through by the organists as for this Eastertide. Fine music was not confined to the Roman Catholic or Episcopal churches, but all denominations made a special effort to make their Easter services as bright as possible. Even the Presbyterians, the majority of whom are opposed to a musical service on the ground that it is unchurchy, became liberal this year at the season which commemorates the resurrection of the Saviour and contributed their quota.

Church music has made tremendously rapid strides, and where a few years ago the service was entirely plain, with the exception of a few hymns which were sung congregationally, there was an elaborate programme prepared and the singers were this year of the professional class.

The floral decorations in all the churches of the city were extremely elaborate this Easter and in a few the cost for the display amounted to $1,500 and over.

Trinity chapel was one among the most elaborately decorated and the display at St. Thomas' was very pleasing.

Among the other churches whose decorations this Easter surpassed anything previously attempted in the floral line for churches were those of Calvary, Old Trinity and the Church of the Transfiguration.

People's Party Call.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., April 18.—The New York State Committee of the People's party to-day issued its call for the election of delegates to the National Convention to be held at Omaha on July 4, 1892. Assembly district conventions will be held to elect one delegate each and one alternate. The caucuses are not to be held later than Thursday, May 26. Congress conventions will also be held to nominate members of Congress not later than June 2.

Says Blaine Will Run.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Mr. William H. Grace, president of the Home and Country Protection Brotherhood of Workingmen says: "James G. Blaine will accept the nomination of the Minneapolis Convention as promptly as would President Harrison or any other candidate. In doing so he can act in perfect harmony with his letter of declination to be a candidate and in perfect honor and fidelity to his chief."

Double Murder at Hazleton, Pa.

HAZLETON, Pa., April 18.—At 6 o'clock last evening John Cusate, Andro Repshak, Jos. Mellow and Joe Oldish went into Takatsch's boarding house at Stockton, four miles from here, and attacked Steve Tahatsch and Andrew Vargo with knives and clubs. Takatsch was killed and Vargo fatally wounded. The four murderers succeeded in escaping to the mountains and have not been captured.

Searching for Evidence of Insanity.

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 18.—An attorney, representing Miss Alice Mitchell, now in jail in Memphis charged with the murder of Miss Freda Ward, is here to ascertain whether any insanity exists among the relatives of Miss Mitchell in this section. The results of the examination have been kept secret.

Dr. Graves's Case.

A ROUGH PASSAGE

The Steamship Bermuda Narrowly Escapes Foundering.

BATTLING WITH A CYCLONE.

The Vessel Boarded by Huge Waves, Carrying Away the Boats.

The Cabin Flooded, and the Terrified Passengers Expected the Ship to Go Down Every Moment—Bulwarks Broken and Skylights Smashed—Twenty-Four Hours of Awful Suspense—Capt. Fraser's Action Saves Several Lives.

NEW YORK, April 18.—There were 27 passengers on board the steamship Bermuda when she arrived at this port yesterday who had had a taste of life at sea which seldom befalls even a mariner. When they embarked at Barbados on April 8 they expected a moderately rough voyage past Cape Hatteras, but instead they were almost compelled to swim from their staterooms to the main saloon.

The Bermuda is commanded by Capt. Fraser, who has had many experiences at sea, but none like the one which overtook his vessel on April 13. The steamship sailed from St. Kitts on April 8 with a cargo of sugar and limes. Fair weather was encountered on the first part of the voyage until the Gulf Stream was reached. Then a gale commenced which speedily developed into a terrific cyclone.

In latitude 34, longitude 70, the wind blew from the four quarters of the compass. Heavy, irregular seas buffeted the little vessel about as if she were a feather. A succession of waves boarded the vessel over the stern, carrying the port life boat from the chocks, causing it to fall on the after cabin sky light, smashing it. Water poured down the opening, flooding the cabin to a depth of nearly two feet. The stewards were put to work bailing it out, while the terrified passengers crowded around the companion way in efforts to gain the deck. Captain Fraser had the storm doors closed and locked. Had it not been for that precaution some of the passengers might have been carried overboard.

The vessel was then hove to. For 12 hours the storm raged. The bulwarks were smashed, while the iron storm doors were wrenched until almost ready to fall apart. Twenty-four hours later the storm subsided, when the damage wrought by the sea was temporarily repaired. The vessel reached her berth at the foot of Congress street, Brooklyn, yesterday and her passengers sighed with relief on stepping upon terra firma once more.

THE RAHWAY MYSTERY.

Believed Now That Both the Dead Men Were Murdered.

RAHWAY, N. J., April 18.—The tramps arrested in connection with the mysterious finding of the bodies of two dead men in the woods near this city, have been held pending an investigation.

The men under arrest identify the bodies as those of Thomas Walsh and John Davis. They assert that the men came into their camp intoxicated and carried a bottle of wood alcohol, for the possession of which a fight ensued. The men were driven from the camp, retaining, however, their alcohol. A number of the men followed the two, but all the prisoners deny having been in the following party. The say that they heard shots and that the party returned soon afterward with the spirits.

The police believe that both men were murdered and that at least one of the murderers has been captured. They base this belief on the fact that while one of the prisoners was being conducted to the lock-up and while crossing the bridge which spans the river the prisoner threw something in the water. Subsequent search near the spot led to the finding of a revolver containing six cartridges, three of which had been discharged.

Pension Petition Forgers Arrested.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 18.—Louis Van Houten of Auburn Centre, and an accomplice, Emma Bulton of Wyoming county, have been arrested for forging the names of 17 prominent people of Wyoming county to petitions for pensions. They would likely have succeeded in defrauding the Government out of $20,000, but for a mistake made in making out the applications, which resulted in the discovery of the forgeries.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—"Seeking the Best Things" is to be the subject of the "Y" devotional meeting to-morrow afternoon.

—The camping-fund entertainment at Holy Cross church is postponed from this week Wednesday to next week Thursday.

—Butter still lower is the announcement made by the United Tea and Coffee Growers' association in THE PRESS to-day.

—The New York Sun says that the "Jeffersons" of Brooklyn would like to hear from the Crescent base-ball team of this city.

—The Rev. E. L. Hyde preached a powerful sermon on "A Woman's Easter Offering", at the Washingtonville chapel last evening.

—Ice-cream soda and banana ice cream, both delicious, may be found at Tier's, 16 Park avenue; also pure candies, made on the premises.

—Dr. D. C. Adams will exhibit and describe a skeleton, under the auspices of the Young Men's auxiliary at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, to-morrow evening. Boys over 14 years of age are invited.

—Any woman in Plainfield may have a pair of the celebrated "Lily" dress shields free of charge, by clipping out "an offer" made by the Brooklyn Shield company in another column, and mailing the same to them.

—A special public meeting will be held to-night at the Salvation Army barracks on West Second street, beginning at 8. It will be led by major and Mrs. Evans, assisted by adjutants Dunham and Hunter. Everybody will be welcome.

—George Belcher, of 75 Broadway, was painfully injured, and his carriage was wrecked, in a runaway on Leland avenue, Saturday afternoon. The horse was frightened by the shrieking of a locomotive whistle as it went under the railroad bridge.

—The officers and members of the Children's Home association are asked to attend on Wednesday afternoon, April 22, 12:30 p. m., at the Home, 146 Jackson avenue, the funeral services of Miss Kitty Hendrickson. Interment will be made at Somerville.

—Easter Sunday was beautifully observed at the Plainfield churches yesterday, in accordance with the programmes published in these columns. At the Church of the Heavenly Rest a beautiful memorial window was unveiled, a tribute to Theodore DeGroot Jones.

—A new dealer in bicycles offers in to-day's PRESS the choice of a number of high-class wheels at prices that demand attention. Mr. Fountain, at 6 Park avenue, represents Henry C. Squires, of New York, whose name guarantees fair dealing and fair prices, but goods above proof.

—"Mr. Wilkinson's Widows", Gillette's brilliant comedy success, was removed from New York long before its course had been run, and its return at Herrmann's theatre, New York, to night, will be welcomed by those who failed to see it upon its first presentation. It is on a par with "Gloriana", and as diverting, so that the merriment that has prevailed at Herrmann's will be kept up without interruption. The cast includes Wilton Lackaye, who, although engaged in Philadelphia the past week, has come to New York daily to rehearse his part.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Harry Yarnall spent Saturday among his Plainfield friends.

The Misses Thorn of Elizabeth spent Easter with relatives in town.

Miss Minnie Force of Bound Brook visited Plainfield relatives yesterday.

W. B. Hamilton, of Elizabeth, county secretary of the Union county Y. P. S. C. E., will be at the young people's meeting to-night in the Trinity Reformed church and make an address. Everybody will be welcome.

Special Music and a Good Sermon.

At the Congregational church yesterday everything had an Eastertint. The display of flowers was not large or imposing, but no more exquisite taste in arrangement was displayed anywhere in the city. They were arranged by Mrs. W. H. Brower and Mrs. Waldron. The choir consisted of H. J. Martin, tenor, Mrs. Collier, soprano, Miss Julia Ketcham, alto, and Robert Gorton, bass. The service was opened by the anthem, "Awake up My Glory", by Barnby, beautifully rendered. At appropriate intervals the choir also sang a TeDeum by Schnecker and an anthem "As Sleep Takes Flight", by Shelley; and Mrs. Collier sang a solo.

Mr. Goodrich spoke from the text "The power of an endless life."—Heb. vii: 16, to a large audience.

BLESSED BY THE BISHOP.

THE NEW GRACE CHURCH FORMALLY OPENED FOR WORSHIP.

Beautiful Easter Services, With Sermon by Bishop Scarborough—A Basket Contribution of $1,300 for the Building Fund—A Floral Butterfly at the Children's Festival.

RAISES to God resounded for the first time yesterday in the handsome new house of worship of Grace church parish. The building was then thrown open for public worship, and throngs of people attended. The interior of the church was beautifully decorated with flowers. The services of the day were in accordance with the programme previously published in these columns. The feature of the morning service was the dedication by Bishop Scarborough, assisted by the rector, the Rev. Dr. E. M. Rodman. The Bishop consecrated the church as a whole and made special consecration of the lectern, the font, the pulpit and the altar. The Bishop's dedicatory sermon was in part as follows:

"In the name of the Divine Trinity, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, I give you this morning, dear brethren, the Easter greeting: 'The Lord is risen indeed.' This is the thought uppermost today in the mind of Christendom. But there is in your minds another great thought side by side with it—the giving to God of this beautiful temple. No one, however, should lose sight of the Easter thought. Do not let that be forgotten or neglected for a moment.

"My text is written in the 96th Psalm, 9th verse: 'O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.' The poet-king had before his mind a vision of the form and beauty of that glorious sanctuary which he was not permitted to build. The magnificent building of marble and oak which crowned the holy mount in the future years was to him a present reality; and as by anticipation he saw all this, the vision filled his soul with rapture, and his thought formulated itself in the glowing exultation of this morning's text addressed to those whose eyes one day should be privileged to see in solid outline what he saw now by faith—'O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness'; or, as the margin has it, 'in the glorious sanctuary'.

"We take up the words of the Psalmist to-day, dear brethren, and repeat them to you with added emphasis. You have built to the Lord a glorious sanctuary. You are giving to-day of your best. The text has a new meaning to-day as, for the first time, you worship the Lord in this glorious sanctuary that you have builded. You have embodied here in wood and stone the soul's thought, and hence the occasion seems most fitting for presenting some considerations touching the uses and benefits of the beautiful, whether in architecture or in the public worship of the church, as moulding and shaping our life and thought.

"And, first, I do not of course question or deny the fact that God may be worshiped anywhere with acceptable service in spirit and in truth, without regard to the surroundings or the seeming fitness of time and place. If a cabin be the best place our means will allow, God will make the humble place glorious by His divine presence. But His house should be the very best that we can afford—the best house in the hamlet or the village or the city should be God's house."

The Bishop then spoke of the way in which the forms of service in the church had been beautified and the undoubted influence which the church's commemoration of the great events in the life of Christ had upon the religious observances of other denominations. In closing he said:

"My dear brethren of Grace church, men and women, all, I bring you to-day no ordinary, no commonplace greeting. You know how near my heart is to you; how at the risk of giving offence I have reminded the congregation from time to time of their duty to the diocese, of their duty to the city, of their duty to themselves, in raising a more seemly temple for the worship of Almighty God. I have looked forward to this day with longing, and I hail to-day with gladness. I assure you nothing has come to me in all my episcopate that has brought me more real pleasure than this service in which we have joined to day. I congratulate you very much on what you have accomplished, what some thought well nigh impossible. You have won success because you have deserved to succeed. And for you, my brother [turning to Dr. Rodman], I bring you the greetings of your Bishop. Through long years patiently you have waited, hopefully you have struggled, cheering the people on. Twenty-two years of service in this parish of Grace church entitles you to-day to the joy that I know is in your heart; the joy and the blessing of seeing the crown of your ministry worthy of your zeal and worthy of your place in the church and in the diocese.

"One year ago, when the convention assembled here, you, my brethren, joined in the service of laying the corner-stone of this glorious sanctuary, and when I think to-day of what the year has brought to pass, I exclaim from my heart, 'What hath God wrought!'"

In the afternoon a children's festival was held, which was greatly enjoyed. A unique idea of the festival was this: A butterfly frame was put at the head of the aisles and as each class was called a child took up an appropriate verse of Scripture, which was read by the rector, and a small bunch of flowers, which was put in the butterfly's wing, the whole forming a very pretty emblem of the day.

In the evening a missionary sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Langford, and, contrary to the usual experience of missionary meetings, the church was so crowded that many had to stand.

It was a delightful day in Grace church annals. During the morning a basket collection of $1,300 was taken for the building fund.

Tropical Flowers, and a Pastor's Resignation.

The Easter services at the Park Avenue Baptist church were very interesting and profitable to the large numbers present morning and evening. The Rev. Asa Reed Dilts took for his morning theme "Results Consequent on a Dead Christ". The evening subject was "An Open Tomb". Many useful lessons of hope and encouragements were draw from these subjects. At the close of the morning service his letter of resignation as pastor was read, to take effect the last Sunday in April. The choir, ably led by Albert S. Roe, rendered special music at both morning and evening services. Miss Adelia Runyon sang the contralto solo "But the Lord is Mindful of His Own", and Albert S Roe sang the tenor solo "Be Thou Faithful Unto Death". These selections, among the finest in the oratorio of "St. Paul", were effectively rendered. Anthems by Wiegand, Steele, Stainer, Beethoven and Somerset were tuneful and pleasing as rendered by the full choir, while the services of the day were fittingly closed with the two-part song for female voices, "Evening Prayer", by Little. Miss Alice Coard at the organ contributed much to the charm of the day's music. Great credit is due to the decorating committee for an elaborate display of tropical and native plants and flowers very tastefully arranged.

Costly Flowers at Holy Cross.

Three services were held at Holy Cross church yesterday, and all were generously attended. A communion service, with singing by a choir of men, took place at 8 in the morning, and was followed at 11 by morning prayer, and a second communion. The rector, the Rev. T. Logan Murphy, preached an able and appropriate sermon, and an elaborate choral programme was well rendered by the choir of men and boys, the singing of Gounod's Sanctus and Benedictus during the communion service, with solos by Masters Herbert Schutt and Fred Tallamy, being especially enjoyable. At 4:30 p. m. the annual festival of the Sunday-school took place, at which carols were sung in the church and the school was addressed by the rector.

The floral decorations, as usual, were among the handsomest and costliest in the city. High banks of flowers framed the altar, and graceful callas shot out from the brazen candelabra. A profusion of fragrant Easter lilies rose from the floral mounds and ornamented the altar, filling the church with their sweet perfume. Handsome floral memorials graced the pulpit, lectern and font.

The annual parish meeting is to take place in the church at 7:30 this evening.

The Circus Coming to Plainfield

"The circus season is upon us"—shouts the editor of the Longlane Light. Yes, and if signs are to be believed it will be a continuous season in future. Nellie McHenry has determined to fill the void left by Barnum not coming to Plainfield, and judging from what is heard of her new play, "A Night at the Circus", to be given at Music Hall, she will occupy no small place in the hearts of the lover of the sawdust ring in this city after Thursday evening.

DOCTOR'S FEES AND FREE ADVERTISING.

According to newspaper reports, a celebrated American surgeon received $5,000 for removing a little wen from a wealthy lady's scalp. The papers fail to state the exact amount of free advertising the doctor managed to obtain.—National Advertiser.

Let's reason together.

Here's a firm, one of the largest the country over, the world over; it has grown, step by step, through many years to greatness.

This firm pays the newspapers good money (expensive work, this advertising!) to tell the people that they have faith in what they sell, so much faith that if they can't benefit or cure they don't want your money.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is sold on this liberal plan. If it doesn't benefit or cure, it costs nothing. It cures Skin, Scalp and Scrofulous affections, as Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Fever-sores, White Swellings, Hip-joint disease and kindred ailments.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier sold, through druggists, no matter how many hundred doses are offered for its price ($1.00 a bottle), since you pay only for the good you get.

Can you ask more?

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS. which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at FAIR WOMAN CELEBRATES.

NOTABLE ANNIVERSARY OF THE MONDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

Prominent Society Women Present from Many Other Places—Literary Exercises at the Congregational Church, and a Brilliant Banquet at the Casino—Fiction Has Tabooed—Bright and Shining Lights Who Participated.

WOMAN, fair woman, has taken possession of the town to-day, and the town is glad of it. Notable representatives of the sex from many other places have gathered in Plainfield, to join in the festivities which the good women of the Monday Afternoon club have so long been planning, in connection with their fourth anniversary celebration.

Bright and beautiful was the gathering of the gentler sex at the Congregational church this morning, when the literary exercises of the day were held. The exercises began at 10:30, and admission was strictly by invitation.

A charming greeting was given to the assembled guests, by Mrs. David Prescott Hall, president of the Monday afternoon club. She was followed by Mrs. Charlotte Emerson Brown, President of the General Federation of Woman's clubs, who told interestingly of the benefits of federation, and described the best ways to extend those benefits to the individual members of individual clubs.

The next paper was to have been by Mrs. Jennie de la M. Lozier, President of Sorosis, New York, but in her absence the Rev. Mrs. Phœbe Hannaford, the famous clergyman, read her paper, telling what the members should gain collectively and individually from club life.

Mrs. G. W. Nields gave an entertaining description of the Wilmington club and its work; and Miss Charlotte E. Clarke, recording secretary of the Monday Afternoon club, gave a history of the home organization.

Miss Clarke's paper was a bright and original treatment of the career of the club, the various questions that have come up for consideration, the club's attitude on national problems, and similar interesting matters. The vein of thought was a pleasant one, and the paper was heartily applauded by the appreciative audience.

"Organization Among Women" was the title of a valuable paper by Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, president of the New England Woman's club; and Mrs. Mary E. Mumford, president of the New Century club of Philadelphia, gave an excellent homily on the subject of extending the benefits of literary club life to working-women.

Mrs. Mumford also aptly described the many advantages of each club having its own building, and told of the best methods of meeting the expenses involved in their construction and maintenance. Then came an address on the comparative advantages of large and small clubs, and of limited and unlimited membership, by Miss Adeline Thompson, of the Woman's club of Orange.

Mrs. Helen H. Bachens, president of the Brooklyn Woman's club, spoke pleasantly of the desirability of providing reasonable penalties for absence from club meetings, and the exercises closed with a spirited debate on the desirability of women's clubs engaging in philanthropic work. The affirmative of this was ably taken by Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, and the negative was stoutly maintained by Mrs. Isaac L. Miller, vice-president of the Monday Afternoon club.

The luncheon, to which the gentler sex only was admitted, man being rigidly excluded, began at the Casino at one o'clock this afternoon. The Union County Country club had gallantly tendered the entire club-house to the Monday Afternoon club for the day, and right well did the queens preside over their new dominion. The decorations were very lavish and beautiful, and were enhanced by electric illumination. The tables were arranged so that the president constantly held the eye of each of her two hundred and fifty fair subjects. The effect was very beautiful and artistic. The costumes of the women were unusually becoming, and the event was in every way a most delightful one.

Presiding at the head of each of the eleven tables were Mrs. D. P. Hall, Mrs. I. L. Miller, Mrs. C. E. Ryder, Miss A. P. Newton, Mrs. G. W. Edwards, Mrs. E. H. Hatch, Miss C. E. Clarke, Miss E. E. Kenyon, Mrs. J. K. Myers, Mrs. C. D. Wadsworth and Mrs. W. L. Saunders, respectively; and several of Plainfield's society buds and belles acted as ushers, namely: Miss Stewart, Miss Erskine, Miss Tracy, Miss Murphy, the Misses VanBoskerck, Miss Hunter, Miss Yates, Miss Marsh, Miss Munger and Miss White.

The table presided over by Mrs. Edwards was composed entirely of young ladies. The toast cards were very tasteful and original, being designed by George Wharton Edwards especially for the occasion. The list of toasts, which were given delightful responses, was as follows:

THE QUEEN OF CLUBS.
"If you debase the sex to elevate
One of like soul and temper with the rest,
You do but wrong a thousand fervent hearts
To pay full tribute to one generous breast."
—Julia Ward Howe.
MRS. JULIA WARD HOWE,
Pres. New England Woman's Club, Boston.

SOROSIS.
"The Club on whose empire the sun never sets."
MRS. JENNIE DE LA M. LOZIER,
Pres. Sorosis, New York.

THE FEDERATION.
"United yet divided."—Cowper.
MRS. CHARLOTTE EMERSON BROWN,
Pres. General Federation of Woman's Clubs.

OUR GUESTS.
"Welcome ever smiles,
And farewell goes out sighing."—Shakespeare.
MRS. MARY E. MUMFORD,
Pres. New Century Club, Philadelphia.

THE SILENT MEMBER.
"Do n't view me with a critic's eye
But pass my imperfections by."—Everett.
MRS. KATE UPSON CLARK,
Pres. Wheaton Alumnæ Association,
New York.

OUR FATHERS, HUSBANDS, BROTHERS AND SONS.
"Are you good men and true ?"—Shakespeare.
MRS. ELLA DIETZ CLYMER,
Sorosis, New York.

THE WOMEN OF THE PRESS.
"I'll put a girdle round about the earth in forty minutes."—Shakespeare.
MRS. J. C. CROLY (Jennie June),
Pres. New York Woman's Press Club.

THE WOMEN of 1692.
"O days endeared to every muse,
When nobody had any views."—Lowell.
MISS HELEN W. CLARKSON,
New Century Club, Wilmington, Del.

THE WOMEN OF THE PRESENT.
"Pealing, the clock of Time,
Has struck the woman's hour."—
Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward.
MRS. AMELIA D. POPE,
Pres. Literary and Social Club, El Mora, N. J.

THE WOMEN OF THE FUTURE.
"Shall show us how divine a thing
A woman may be made."—Wordsworth.
MRS. THEODORE F. SEWARD,
Pres. Woman's Club, Orange, N. J.

OUR OWN CLUB.
"Hospitality sitting with gladness."
MISS ELIZA ELVIRA KENYON,
Monday Afternoon Club, Plainfield.

Mrs. Lozier and Mrs. Clymer, of the New York Sorosis, regretted that on account of illness they could not attend, but Mrs. Hannaford and Mrs. M. L. Ritter the poet came instead.

Altogether the affair was a most glowing success, and reflected great credit on the resources, planning and managing of the committees, who were:

Committee on Literary Exercises—Mrs. D. P. Hall, Mrs. George Wharton Edwards, Mrs. Tweedy.

Committee on Entertainment—Mrs. J. Kirtland Myers, Mrs. C. D. Wadsworth, Mrs. W. L. Saunders.

The banquet was the finest that steward Holmes of the Country club could furnish, and was most delightfully served.

A Card to the Public.

The Plainfield Reform club desires to respectfully notify its numerous friends and patrons that those who think that the entertainment of to-night, and others to follow, are inferior or second-class, make a serious mistake. We believe Reform Hall can and should be profitably devoted, in part, to the amusement, instruction and elevation of our citizens, mentally, morally and religiously, and that clean amusements ought to and will be popular at low prices, permitting those of moderate means to enjoy such advantages away from evil associations. We hope it can be shown that our club and its friends are capable of genuine Christian, philanthropic work for which the club was organized and chartered, and that Reform Hall may be devoted in every way possible to the promotion of temperance and total abstinence. We solicit the active patronage and assistance of Christians and philanthropists who may by precept and example be willing to help, uplift the fallen, save the perishing, and, what is a thousand times more important, preserve our young men and women from the contaminating influences which corrupt them wherever intoxicating liquors are tolerated, alike in the palace of the rich and the hut of the beggar. Our entertainments are worthy of your personal attendance, and it is hoped that many who have musical, literary or dramatic talent will volenteer to help make these entertainments in the highest degree useful and beneficial to themselves and neighbors. More books and other attractions are greatly needed in the parlors of the hall, and we assure our patrons that the profits, if any, will be conscientiously devoted to the uses clearly defined by charter and deed of the club. H. N. SPENCER,
President P. R. C.

To Open the Day Nursery This Week.

The Creche, or Day Nursery for Babies and Children, will be opened Thursday morning, April 21, at 7, under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance union. The W. C. T. U. is not to be responsible for the expenses of the nursery, therefore it will be supportable entirely by subscriptions and donations. Gifts of table-cloths, towels, soap, bedding, cribs, and furnishings of all kinds necessary to the care of children during the day, will be acceptable, and may be left at any time with the matron. Everyone interested in this work, thus to be started for the first time in Plainfield, is cordially invited to visit the rooms and to give any assistance he may feel inclined to render. "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these My brethren, ye did it unto Me."

I FEEL it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

Every one who has once used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup invariably resorts to it again for colds, etc.

"When vice prevails and impious men bear sway." When cuts, sprains, bruises torment all the day; then ease from pain —from care and hurt are sent, by Salvation Oil, the liniment.

CHURCH HARMONY RESTORED.

Excellent Results of Evangelist Murphy's Work Among the Colored People.

The revival meetings at the Mt. Olive Baptist church conducted by the eminent evangelist, the Rev. Joseph Murphy, increase in interest. Every afternoon and evening of last week the meetings were largely attended. Seven have accepted Christ, and several have been restored to the fellowship of the church.

On Saturday deep interest was manifested. The evening meeting was one to be long remembered by those who were present.

On Sunday about forty-five attended the sunrise prayer meeting. Throughout the day congregations were quite large, and at night there were six hundred in attendance and the house was filled, including the aisles. Very many have requested prayer during the meetings.

The evangelist is an excellent singer and a gospel preacher. There is nothing exciting in his manner, but his words are with power. This is the first time for years there has been so much interest manifested among the colored people, and the first time such a prominent evangelist has labored among this race in Plainfield.

Through the untiring efforts of pastor Warnick of the Mt. Olive church, complete harmony has been effected between this and the Emmanuel Baptist church, of which the Rev. J. W. Mitchell is pastor. Mr. Mitchell and his people have postponed their coming entertainment out of sympathy for the same.

The meetings still continue, and excellent results are expected. The baptism will take place next Sabbath and will be announced in these columns.

BASE-BALL CHATTER.

Bits of Local Gossip that Will Interest the Kranks.

Permission has been given to the Crescent League to place a handsome bulletin board at the North avenue railroad station.

The game with the Tigers scheduled for May 11 has been cancelled, and the Brighton Athletic club of Brooklyn substituted.

The series of games between the Plainfield Bicycle club and the Somerville amateurs promise to cause as much rivalry as the games of the league.

Gentle Willie Murphy played in Willimantic, Conn., Friday and Saturday of last week. He is expected to report here next week.

Manager Keller will sign a pitcher within a day or two, but does not expect to land his catcher before next week.

The members of the Ancient and Improved Order of Rooters are "laying low" at present, but an outbreak is looked for at any moment. Most Persistent Krank Lyman and Supreme Krank Kenney are hustling with the subscription paper, and the necessary amount to purchase the new uniforms will soon be raised.

It is rumored that Billy Lee is to play third, and Martin short, for Elizabeth. It is hardly probable that Martin will play, as they have a good man in Tommy Murry.

It is old Doc Kennedy of Albany and Charles Farrel of Lowell who have signed with the Eastern league, and not the Somerville stars as was reported last week.

Coogan of Newark is to play in the outfield for Elizabeth. He wrote for an opening in Plainfield, but there was no room for him. He is a good hitter.

Amateur Base-ball.

The Busy Bees defeated C. Smith's nine in a game of base-ball Saturday by the score of 21 to 18. The battery for the Busy Bees was Fred Firstbrook, W. Stewart and H. Pearce. The battery for C. Smith's nine was C. Smith, G. Cose and C. Hartfelder. Score-keeper, F. Sprague.

The Stars and the Star Athletics played a game of base-ball Saturday. The score was tie, 24 to 24. The battery for the Stars was Will Thorn, pitcher, and George Scribner, catcher; for the Star Athletics, Frank Vail, pitcher, and Will Ross, catcher.

An interesting game of base-ball was played between the Pond Juniors of Pondville and the Dunellen team on the latter's grounds Saturday afternoon. The playing of the game was very good throughout. The catching of Foose for the Juniors was fine, but he had to retire on account of a sore leg, when Malone took his place and played an excellent game. The score in the last inning stood in favor of the Dunellens, when McComas got to the bat and made a two-bagger, bringing in two men, thus making the score 14 to 13 in favor of the Juniors.

SOLD AND ENJOYED EVERYWHERE.

GREETING.

TO THE MEMBERS AND GUESTS OF THE MONDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.

Hail to the coming of Eve's fairest daughters—
Women of beauty, of wisdom, of heart:
Quaff to their charms, in the sweetest of waters;
Exult in the life of which they are chief part.

Welcome the rulers of Man's wide dominions—
Music their voices, their presence a joy:
Lofty their flight in the realm of strong pinions—
Precious their metal, with little alloy.

Nature with verdure the broad earth is thrumming,
Outpouring homage to Woman's vast means;
Proudly the servant, Man, hails to her coming—
Glad at the sight of the town full of queens.
—Nathaniel Fairfield.

A Double Quartette at Trinity.

At the Trinity Reformed church yesterday there was a very large attendance both morning and evening. At the morning service the pastor, the Rev. Cornelius Schenck, delivered a carefully prepared sermon from the text "Mary Magdelene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre" Matt. XXVII: 61. The singing of the double quartette choir, under the leadership of T. E. Hazell, was also greatly enjoyed, and Mr. Hazell and his choir received many congratulations on their proficiency. The floral display, arranged to Mrs. W. A. Woodruff, Mrs. P. A. Emmons and Mrs. C. Frank French, was particularly fine, and many remained after the services to enjoy the beautiful sight and to congratulate the ladies on the taste displayed in their arrangement. A. L. Titsworth was the entertaining and efficient organist.

Oregon at the Freight-house.

Oregon on Wheels is the designation of a fine car of the Northern Pacific road sent out under the auspices of the Oregon board of immigration. It is filled with a valuable exhibit of the products of that State, and has been on the road since last October, visiting twenty-one States, traveling 7,433 miles, and been seen by 217,150 persons. Last evening and to-day it was visited by many Plainfield citizens, at the North avenue station, and will be open this evening from 6:30 to 9, leaving in the morning for Newark. Major E. A. Weed, of the editorial staff of the Portland Telegram, is manager, and has two assistants. The exhibit is valued at $30,000, and consists of minerals, woods, wool, fruit, grain, grasses, vegetables and other products, very tastily arranged in an elegantly painted car. It is free to all.

—Be sure and hear that charming vocalist, Miss Allie Blanchard, at Reform Hall to-night, and the popular humorist Robert McDonald in his droll Irish sketches, and the favorite dramatic artist J. Leslie Gossin, and the only George Rechill the great serio-comic vocalist.

"CONFIDENCE BEGETS LOVE."

CHILD. "Gran'ma, kiss me good-night. Sister is asleep, but we so love to hear you tell of all the ladies that call you Mother."
Mrs. PINKHAM. "Yes, darling, when you are older perhaps you may do as I have done."
CHILD. "Everybody loves you, gran'ma; I wish everybody would love me."
Mrs. PINKHAM. "Everyone will love you, my child, if they can confide in you."

The above dialogue tells its own story; even the little child, without knowing why her grandmother is so universally loved, sees in her face a light of intellectual sympathy that satisfies her. That sympathy has extended itself all over the world, for wherever civilized women exist, Mrs. Pinkham is known and reverenced.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Is the only Positive Cure and Legitimate Remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It cures the worst forms of Female Complaints, that Bearing-down Feeling, Weak Back, Falling and Displacement of the Womb, Inflammation, Ovarian Troubles, and all Organic Diseases of the Uterus or Womb, and is invaluable to the Change of Life. Dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus at an early stage, and checks any tendency to Cancerous Humor. Subdues Faintness, Excitability, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, etc., and invigorates the whole system. For the cure of Kidney Complaints of either sex, the Compound has no rival.

All Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00. LYDIA E. PINKHAM MED. CO., LYNN, MASS.

An illustrated book, entitled "Guide to Health and Etiquette," by Lydia E. Pinkham, is of great value to ladies. We will present a copy to anyone addressing us with two 2-cent stamps.

She Envied Him.

"I hate being alone," said Ethel, as she sat conversing with Chollie; "I like company."

"Indeed," said Chollie, removing his cane-knob from his mouth to enable himself to talk, "you surpwise me. I never feel bored when I'm alone. I am satisfied with my own society."

"Then you are more easily pleased than anybody I ever met," she said. "How I envy you!"—N. Y. Press.

Too Nervous.

Golightly—Girls make me weary!

Quidnunc—Why, what's the matter?

Golightly — They're so nervous and excitable.

Quidnunc—How do you mean?

Golightly—Why, I was engaged to a girl awhile ago, and the night before the wedding I went around and told her I guessed we'd better let it drop, and hang me if the girl didn't get positively fidgety.—Boston Courier.

A Fair Verdict.

Great Lawyer—I'm glad to see you The verdict is in.

Client—Already?

"Yes, sir; I knew I would get it. You receive $5,000, but you are to pay half the costs."

"Fair enough, I am sure. What are the costs?"

"Ten thousand dollars."—Texas Siftings.

Flat Prices.

Lady—So you have no objection to children here?

Janitor (city flat)—No, mum.

"What do you charge for this flat?"

"How many kids have ye?"

"I have three children."

"Sixty dollars a month."

"That's rather high."

"Our reg'lar terms, mum. Twenty dollars a kid."—Good News.

Made an Impression.

Mr. Saphead (sighing)—I wish you could find something about me to like.

Miss Beauti (kindly)—Well, Mr. Saphead, there is one thing about you I like very much.

"I am glad to hear you say so. What is it?"

"You make short calls." — N. Y. Weekly.

Hardened.

Physician—I think I can cure you if you will follow directions, but I shall have to prescribe what is known as the the Indiana remedy.

Consumptive—You mean eating dog's flesh? That won't scare me at all. I have often dined at a fifteen-cent restaurant.—Chicago Tribune.

Don't Always Rise.

Traveling Journalist (in Dugout City)—I presume an editor of a paper in a booming western town is pretty apt to rise, isn't he?

Editor Daily Boomer—N-o, not always. Sometimes, the lynchers don't have any rope, and just shoot.—N. Y. Weekly.

The Lah-de-Dah.

There were creaselets in his pantlets,
There was English in his speech;
But there wasn't fifty centlets
Anywhere that he could reach.
—Farm and Fireside.

Well Matched.

He—Oh, it's just his money! I don't see how you can stand a man with a nose as red as a danger signal.

She—It's not. Besides—it would be different if I were a blonde; but any shade of red goes very nicely with my complexion.—Life.

Skillfully Evaded.

She (single, of course)—Even the birds seem to be happier running in couples.

He (a bachelor, suddenly remembering it is leap year)—Yes, miss, but they are geese, and know no better.—Tansill's Punch.

SEVEN WERE KILLED

A New Jersey Powder Co.'s Works Blown Up.

SEVERAL OTHERS ARE HURT.

A Heap of Flesh and Bones All that Remains of the Dead Men.

The Report Terrific and Heard for Many Miles — The Wrecked Buildings Caught Fire and Came Near Communicating With the Storehouses of Powder — The Search for the Victims — Cause of the Explosion Unknown.

NEWARK, N. J., April 19.—The works of the American Forcite Powder Company, a short distance from the landing station at Lake Hopatcong, on the Morris and Essex Railway, blew up shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and seven men were blown to atoms. The killed are:

J. D. SMITH, superintendent of the works.
JACOB GARLSON.
WILLIAM PIERCE.
JAMES VAGH.
A. JOHNSON.
GODFREY WATER.
An unknown Swede.

Besides these, two men were injured. One of them, Benjamin Cassimore, will probably die.

The works of the company consisted of a number of small buildings, scattered at a distance of about 300 feet from each other. The nitro-glycerine mill was the first building to go up, and the shock of this explosion caused six other buildings to be rent asunder by their dangerous contents exploding.

The report was terrific and was heard in the surrounding country for many miles. Buildings in the vicinity rocked as if on a stormy sea and in some instances appeared as if about to topple over. The startled residents rushed from their houses and saw a cloud of dust and smoke flying through the air, near the lower part of the company's works.

They knew instinctively what had happened and ran for the mountain side, fearful that some of the large storage houses of the company, in which there were tons of the highest and deadliest explosives, might go up at any moment. When several minutes had passed without their fears being realized, the people advanced cautiously to to the scene of the explosion.

The wreckage was found to be on fire and burning fiercely. The most timid of those present, seeing in this a new danger, —there being a possibility that the flames might spread to the storage houses—again fled. The others, however, ran out the company's fire apparatus and water from the lake was used to fight the fire.

In a short time the flames were under control, and then the wreckage scattered about was overhauled for the purpose of finding the men who had been at workin the buildings. Within a few minutes two men were found, both badly injured. The roll of the company's employes was then called, and it was found that seven men were missing.

These men were undoubtedly dead, and a search was begun for their bodies. The searchers were mostly old employes of the company, and knew that in a case like the present one it was useless to search among the ruins that still remained where the buildings had stood.

The searchers have succeeded in gathering about 150 pounds of mangled flesh and bone, which is all that remains of the dead men.

The cause of the explosion is unknown, and a representative of the company on the scene says it will be impossible to ascertain it.

Seamen in Session at Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Delegates representing the different seamen's organizations of America convened here yesterday for the purpose of organizing all American sailors into one might society. All the seamen's unions of the Gulf, Atlantic, Pacific and great lake ports are represented at the convention, and when the organization is perfected more than 25,000 sailors will be banded together for mutual protection and advancement. The delegates will be in session several days, and when the organization is completed all connections with the Knights of Labor, the American Federation and other labor societies will be severed.

Fire in Boston State Prison.

BOSTON, April 19.—The shop and part of the gilding shop at the State prison were burned last night. Loss, $15,000. There was considerable excitement among the prisoners, but as they were confined in the prison building opposite the building where the fired occurred, their lives were at no time in danger. A large detail of police was sent to the prison to guard against any possible emergency, but their services were only needed to keep the large crowd of sightseers in check.

Divorced, Then Remarried.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—A remarriage of a couple recently divorced took place here yesterday, at the residence of J. S. Sutherland, 300 Sixth street. The parties were Richard Carroll, the comedian of the Duff Opera Company, and Josie Sutherland, neice of the host. Miss Sutherland was but recently divorced from Mr. Carroll, and the marriage was the consummation of a reconciliation that took place last week.

Manager Barnie Released.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Manager Barnie was released yesterday by the Washington Baseball Club. The owners of the club have been dissatisfied with their manager for some time, and their action, therefore, creates little surprise. It is the impression that Arthur Irwin will be asked to manage the Washingtons.

THE TROUBLE IN WYOMING.

Nothing Heard from Col. Van Horn—His Troops May Have Been Attacked.

GILLETTE, Wyo., April 19.—Col. Van Horne of the Sixth Cavalry, was to have left McKinney Sunday, with his three cattle prisoners—Hesse, Ford and Elliott—and it is supposed he did, but nothing has been heard from him.

He had three troops of cavalry and his destination was Fort Dondo, near Salt Lake City. It is feared he will not get there without trouble.

A thousand well armed rustlers, under command of M. A. Ryder, a young Methodist preacher, are lying in wait for the troops and swear they will get possession of the prisoners and hang them if they have to kill Van Horne and all his men to do so.

It is thought by some that Van Horne will change his course and take his prisoners to Fort Russell near Cheyenne, where the Seventeeth Infantry is stationed, evidently being under the impression that he can make this post without being intercepted by the rustlers.

It is considered ominous that no word has been received from the troops.

Many wires have been down for several hours and this is thought to have been the work of rustlers who have met and fought the troops and want the news kept from the military authorities as long as possible.

DISSATISFIED RAILROADERS.

Reading Men Feel Agrieved at the Many Recent Discharges.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The dissatisfaction among the employes of the Reading system is still growing, and the Hudson River division of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has called a meeting for next Wednesday to discuss the matter.

The trouble is mostly confined to the Lehigh Valley division, and the chief cause of complaint is the laying off of men without apparent reason. A prominent member of the Brotherhood said yesterday:

"Since the coal combination was formed the mine owners have been restricting the output of coal and the railroad company has been compelled to take off a large number of trains and discharge many men. In the machine shops at Easton, Pa., they are only working three days a week. In all of these cases the men blame the company, which in my opinion is not just."

Trouble Feared at Sisseton.

BROWN'S VALLEY, Minn., April 19.—There are indications of serious trouble on the Sisseton Reservation in regard to the filing of claims. A large party of men from Watertown passed through this village last night and went on to the northwestern part of the reservation. They had filed claims at Watertown and are determined to have the lands they selected, and if the squatters on the lands do not depart there will be a fight. The authorities think the situation looks serious, but they will do all that is possible to prevent a conflict. The new town has had its name changed from Sisseton to Effington in honor of Miss Effie Stauffer, a school teacher, who was the first woman to reach the place.

Patent Medicines Excluded From Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.—Quite a panic has been caused by an order which the Turkish government has issued prohibiting the importation into Turkey of all patent medicines, chloroforms, etc. Nobody knows why this astonishing decree has gone forth. It has caused consternation, especially among foreign residents. There has been quite a run on the chemists' shops, and the small stocks on hand of these medicines have been quickly cleared out at considerably enhanced prices.

Winter Weather in Northern France.

PARIS, April 19.—Northern France is being visited by the sharp weather that has turned England back to midwinter. Easter was chilly, and it is feared that there will be much sickness on account of the exposure of women in the new fashions and light attire of that day.

Wanted the Dog to Eat.

STONEHAM, Mass., April 19.—John Carney, an itinerant umbrella vender, who was arrested for shooting a neighbor's dog, said in court that he wanted the dog to eat, as he had not tasted food for several days. He was sent to jail. He has served time for burglary.

Death of a Coal Pioneer.

DUDLEY, N. J., April 19.—Jacob Glover, a former resident of this place, a pioneer coal operator of national reputation in coal circles, and at one time one of the proprietors of the Kohinoor Colliery at this place, is dead.

Found No Trace of the Crew.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The Boston arrived at Mazatalan, Mex., having returned from a cruise to the Revella Islands in search of the crew of the American ship Tahiti. The Boston heard nothing of the missing crew.

She Strangles Her Young Daughter to Death.

CHOKED THE CHILD WITH ROPE.

Mrs. Louisa Schockley's Atrocious Deed a Mount Holly, N. J.

Her Elder Daughter Saw the Murder and Was Threatened With Death if She Breathed a Word—The Mother Said the Child Died from Fits, but When Burial Time Came the Daughter Could Keep Silent No Longer.

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., April 19.—Mrs. Louisa Shockley is under arrest here charged with the murder of her 9-year old daughter, Mattie. The crime was committed on Friday, but was not discovered until yesterday. For some reason Mrs. Shockley had always displayed a violent dislike for her child. She beat and abused her constantly and kept the little one in constant terror.

On Friday she ordered the child to get her some water. As Mattie did not obey quickly enough Mrs. Shockley took a rope and tied both of the child's hands and feet.

She then put a loop in the rope, passed it around the child's neck, and winding the free end about the leg of the stove, pulled on the rope, forcing the child to the floor. She then began to beat her, but the child did not feel it, as she was already dead from strangulation.

Mrs. Shockley's elder daughter, Rachel, saw the occurrence and was threatened with death if she told any one of the matter. Mrs. Shockley then hid the body until yesterday, when she laid it out for burial. In the afternoon the woman's brother called and she told him the child had died from fits. Rachel, however, told the whole story and the woman's arrest followed.

OKLAHOMA BOOMERS.

The Great Race for Homes in the Reservation Just Thrown Open.

KINGFISHER, Oklahoma, April 19.—The opening of the Indian reservation lands to-day is anxiously awaited by thousands of people, who are taking the best positions they can find and making everything ready for the great race when the signal is given. The line formed at the land office four weeks ago was recently declared by the United States officials to have no legal status, but now it is given out that the Marshal will recognize the "sooners," as they are called. Some persons are holding places in the line as they wage, and others are known to be regular Oklahoma boomers, who mean to claim some of the best lands.

The United States troops are clearing the reservation of all persons, and have brought in a large number of boomers who had secreted themselves in the Indian country. Hundreds of horses have been engaged for the race, and every available team will be used to take parties to the reservation.

Among the parties to arrive yesterday were a number of old soldiers. They could not secure good positions, and are disgusted at their failure to fare as well as some of the boomers who intend to make the obtaining of land a matter of profitable speculation. The soldiers are after homes, and are greatly enraged at the slight prospect of obtaining them. They threaten that they will be heard from next November, not alone in Oklahoma, but in various other States.

To Attack Dahomey.

PARIS, April 19.—The Government is making energetic preparations for the attack on Dahomey. Whether the expedition will go as far as Abomey is yet unsettled, but Whydah will be seized and held permanently by the French, thus cutting the Dahomeyans off altogether from the sea. The payment of the tribute or allowance to King Behanzin has, of course, been discontinued. It is believed that there will be little difficulty in reducing Whydah by means of the fleet, although landing there is very difficult.

Famine Imminent in Mississippi.

CINCINNATI, April 19.—A gentleman connected with a firm in this city interested in the cotton business has just returned from Greenville, Miss. He says that the situation in that country will soon be the Russian famine districts over again on a small scale. The failure of the Goldsmith Cotton and Provision Company, of William Moyes and the death of Jonas Goodman has completely ruined about 1,500 blacks, representing a population of 10,000.

Miss Annie E. Brewster.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—Private letters received announce the death, on April 9, at a villa near Rome, of Miss Anne Hampton Brewster, sister of ex-Attorney-General Benjamin Harris Brewster. She was born in 1818 and went to Rome about thirty years ago, where she settled down permanently and engaged in literary pursuits.

THE MAYNARD MATTER.

Judiciary Committee's Majority Report Declares in His Favor.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 19.—In the Senate last night Mr. Roesch presented the majority report on the Maynard matter and Mr. Saxton the minority report, and they were laid on the table for printing. One hour is to be consumed for discussion.

The minority report is six columns long and reviews the testimony at great length. It finds that the testimony in every case justifies the charges and demands the resignation of Judge Maynard.

The majority report is just as long as the minority and concludes that the witnesses were all prejudiced against the judge prior to the time they sought to investigate him.

The evening session of the Assembly opened with one or two sensations. The first was the veto the of State Printing bill.

Mr. Haley, by unanimous consent, said that the hopes of organized labor throughout the State had been dashed by this veto.

Mr. Wissig rose to a question of privilege in relation to what had been in the newspapers about his speech on the Woman Suffrage bill. He said his language had been misconstrued.

The Speaker said that debate of those in defense of Wissig and those opposing him was out of order. There was no record of what Mr. Wissig said the other day except the stenographers minute's and those the stenographer had destroyed at the Speaker's request.

APPEALS TO THE SENATE.

Late Executive Clerk Young Asks for an Investigation—Watterson's Letter.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—At the opening of the Senate the Vice-President stated that he had received a communication from Mr. James R. Young, late Chief Executive Clerk, with a request that it be laid before the Senate, and he accordingly presented it, and it would lie on the table.

The communication was lengthy and was addressed to Vice-President Morton. In it Mr. Young reviews the circumstances of his dismissal from the office of Executive Clerk. He takes occasion to deny in the most emphatic way that he ever in any manner betrayed any executive proceedings of the Senate. He also cites his letter to Senator Cameron, in which he refuses to resign and asks for an investigation by the Senate of what he understands he is charged with.

Mr. Young says that his resignation would have been an admission of guilt; hence his refusal to resign.

Vice-President Morton also laid before the Senate a letter received by him from Hon. Henry Watterson, who is now in Washington, concerning the removal of Executive Clerk Young without investigation of the charge against him. The friends of Mr. Young took occasion to make the letter a basis for a renewal of their request that Mr. Young be given a hearing, but there was no agreement on the subject and the letter was allowed to lie on the table.

Edward Everett Hale's Birthday.

BOSTON, April 19.—The 70th birthday of Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale was observed yesterday afternoon by a reception in the Hotel Vendome parlors, Boston, followed by a banquet last evening. The reception was marked by a typical Boston gathering, Dr. Hale being assisted in receiving by his sister, Miss Susan Hale, Mrs. Hale being unable to be out on account of illness. Prominent among those who paid their respects were Gov. Russell, Bishop Philips Brooks, Gen. B. F. Butler, Hon. Rufus S. Frost and Edward Atkinson.

She is Wanted in Boston.

BOSTON, April 19.—Dispatches received here from Cleveland report the arrest at that place of a woman known by such names as Mrs. Dr. Warren, Mrs. Hall, Madame DeForest and Madame Prescott. This woman, who was formerly an actress in the Dark Secret Company, is wanted by the police of Boston on the charge of embezzling a quantity of valuable goods from installment houses of this city. She is also charged with obtaining money under false pretences.

Strike at a Thread Works.

NEW YORK, April 19.—A portion of the employes in the Linq Thread Company's works at Greenville, N. J., have been on strike. The strikers say they have been compelled to comply with tyrannical shop rules, that they are underpaid, and that the company has refused to comply with their request concerning the discharge of two men employed in the works.

Mrs. Fredericks Still Alive.

PATERSON, N. J., April 19.—Joseph Fredericks, the Italian, who stabbed his sick wife at a late hour Sunday night in a house in Sussex street, this city, has not yet been arrested. The woman, who was soon to become a mother, is lying at the hospital in a critical condition. She has an ugly stab wound in the abdomen, and her recovery is doubtful.

Conemaugh to Sail Saturday.

PHILADELPHIA, April 19.—At the meeting of the Citizens Relief Committee, held at the Mayor's office, the chairman of the Finance Committee and the chairman of the Transportation Committee reported that they had nothing new to submit. It was arranged that the Conemaugh should sail Saturday.

Manager of New York's Exhibit.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 19.—Governor Flower has appointed Donald McNaughton of Mumford, Monroe county, ex-State Senator, to the position of Chief Executive Officer of the Board of General Managers of the exhibit of the State of New York at the World's Columbian Exposition.

THE MODUS SIGNED

Blaine and Pauncefote Come to Terms.

SYNOPSIS OF THE AGREEMENT.

It is Like That of 1891, With a Damage Clause Added.

If the Arbitration Goes Against the United States Canadian Sealers May Recover—The Document Considered by the Senate in Executive Session—Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations—General Business of Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—An agreement between the United States and Great Britain for a modus vivendi in relation to the fur seal fisheries in Behring Sea for the present season was signed yesterday morning by Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister, representing the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, and by James G. Blaine, Secretary of State, representing the Government of the United States.

This important agreement was signed at 11 o'clock at the residence of Secretary Blaine, who, owing to the inclement weather, did not go to the Department. He at once took it over to the Executive Mansion and laid it before the President, who in the afternoon transmitted it to the Senate for its action.

The modus is in the form of a supplemental convention to the treaty of arbitration recently negotiated and ratified. The modus vivendi states that both governments will prohibit during the sealing season the killing of seal in that part of the Behring Sea lying eastward of the line of demarcation described in the act of 1861.

The United States, it is understood, is allowed to kill for the subsistence of the natives on the islands of St. Paul and St. George 7,500 seals, the same restriction as was made last year, and the United States binds itself to observe this prohibition.

The vessels of either the United States or Great Britain, or citizens of either country, offending against this agreement may be seized by either of the high contracting parties, but as soon as practicable should be handed over to the authorities of the nation to which they belong, who shall have sole jurisdiction to try the offense and impose the penalties for the same.

In general it may be said that the document is a renewal of the agreement of 1891, with the addition of a clause providing for the settlement of damages sustained by the Canadian sealers through the interruption of their business in case the arbitration goes against the United States.

Under this clause, owners of Canadian sealing vessels have already begun to file their claims with a commission appointed to receive and present them. But Gen. Foster, the agent of the United States, who is preparing the case for this government, and Hon. E. J. Phelps, counsel, are leaving no point uncovered, and will be fully prepared to meet the claims on this score in the event that they shall ever be pressed for payment.

Doings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The Senate passed the two court bills laid over from Thursday and spent most of the remainder of the day in executive session over the modus vivendi in Behring Sea and other matters. The session of the House yesterday was without interest or incident, the entire day being devoted to the consideration of the Naval Appropriation bill, which was finally passed as it came from the Committee with the exception of the dry dock at Algiers (La.) which was stricken out on a point of order.

Editor Cropper Found Guilty.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 19.—Levy Cropper, editor and publisher of the Poughkeepsie Sunday "Sun," was yesterday tried on a charge of criminal libel preferred by ex-Alderman M. J. Downey, and found guilty by a jury in the regular session of the Dutchess County Court. Judge Guernsey will sentence him to-day. Cropper has persistently assailed prominent citizens in his paper for almost a year, and another indictment for criminal libel hangs over his head which was procured by Chief of Police McCabe.

Quay May Challenge Dalzell to Debate.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 19.—Walter N. Lyon, United States District-Attorney, states that Senator Quay will challenge Congressman Dalzell to a joint debate on "National Politics" or "National Statesmanship." While the statement is not generally credited here, Lyon, who is an intimate friend of Senator Quay, claims to derive his information from authentic sources. The event, should it take place, would prove one of national interest.

Champion Sprinter Wells Dead.

NEW YORK, April 19.—A dispatch from Amherst College announces that Charles Otis Wells, the American inter-collegiate champion one-mile runner, died of typhus fever in Cleveland on April 9. He was a graduate of Amherst in the class of '91, and since graduation had been with the Cleveland "Plaindealer." Wells began his athletic career in the fall of 1887, when he played with the freshmen football team, on which he made a good record.

Mrs. Schmidt Has Become Insane.

CHESTER, Pa., April 19.—Mrs. Caroline Schmidt, the defendant in the celebrated Pfitzenmaier murder case, has become insane. Her attending physician has advised her removal to the Norristown Insane Asylum. The necessary commitment papers have been made out. The case is made peculiarly sad from the fact that the woman is liable to become a mother at any moment.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The popular entertainment at Reform Hall last night was a great success.

—The entertainment recently given by New Market women for the benefit of the local Jr. O. U. A. M. council netted about $50.

—John Mullen and Patrick McGrath were arrested late last night for intoxication. This morning judge Codington fined them $5 each.

—The Staten Island Dye works at West New Brighton were burned at 4 this morning. The loss was $100,000; insurance, $40,000.

—It's the thing now to have city water in your house, and the man to make connections with the mains for you is I. L. McVoy, 95 East Front street.

—An explosion of powder at Lake Hopatcong yesterday afternoon at 3, was distinctly heard and felt by residents of Washington Park, North Plainfield.

—Ralph Hedley, an Elizabeth young man, was arrested at Dunellen yesterday for stealing chickens at Elizabeth. He repines in the Union county jail, awaiting trial.

—The colored companion of the tramp recently found dead at Netherwood from an overdose of wood alcohol is now recovering at the hospital from his dose of the stuff.

—Jacob Broch, a workman for Mrs. Walker, on North avenue, got intoxicated yesterday and abused his employer. He was arrested and fined $10, and is now out of a job.

—It is very important that every member of the Melopola should be present at this evening's rehearsal at the Casino, as there are but three more rehearsals before the concert.

—Dr. D. C. Adams will exhibit and describe a skeleton, under the auspices of the Young Men's auxiliary, at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, this evening. Boys over 14 years of age are invited.

—Judge Codington has decided to suspend sentence in the case of W. W. Coriell, who was arrested for abusing street commissioner Meeker and refusing to obey that official's orders to clear his sidewalk of obstructing merchandise. The court told Coriell that the sidewalk must be kept clear in the future.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

J. J. H. Pollion is home again from the South.

Miss Mary P. Thompson spent Easter at her home, Rockview Terrace.

The Rev. C. L. Goodrich of this city and the Rev. C. H. Patton of Westfield are to take prominent part in the Congregational church convention at Jersey City this week Wednesday and Thursday.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Alice Cudlipp, daughter of Judge Reuben H. Cudlipp of East Ninth street, to William Smith Walsh of Metuchen, is to take place in Grace church to-morrow evening. It will be the first wedding in the handsome new edifice.

North Plainfield Liquor Licenses.

The applications of George Demler and Frank Linke, for saloon-licenses in North Plainfield, were granted by the court at Somerville this morning. The wholesale license application of August Sutterlein was also granted. Rudolph C. Spergel's application to keep a saloon at Blatz's old hotel, corner of Somerset street and Greenbrook road, was with all other applications laid over till Friday morning.

Much of the morning was taken up by a contested election in Hillsborough. Mr. Schenck appeared for the Republicans, and the Hon. James Bergen for the Democrats. The court directed each counsel to appoint two men to count the returns, and said that when they could not agree to come to him and he would decide.

Graveyard Thieves the Meanest Kind.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—After complaining last fall to those in charge of the cemetery on Chatham street, in regard to having the flowers stolen from my baby's grave, and seeing they do not try to do anything to prevent the same thing from occurring again, I appeal to your valuable paper, knowing that you are always willing to uphold what is right and just. I hope you will spare me a little space for this. You can imagine, when going over, Easter morning, fully expecting to see the little grave in bloom, what was my grief to find that what they had not stolen altogether was maliciously broken off and thrown on the ground. I will say in conclusion that I hardly think a graveyard a fit play-ground for children and baby carriages, but that this is made one I have often witnessed.

SUING FOR DEBTS FOR 25 YEARS.

Peter Brunson Was Left Nothing by Jeremiah VanDeventer's Will, and Now Sues to Recover for Loans and Services.

When the case of Peter Brunson vs. Augustus Brunson and Caroline Brunson, executors of the estate of the late J. R. VanDeventer, was called at Somerville this morning, there was a lively discussion between counselors Richard V. Lindabury and Craig A. Marsh, as may always be expected when those two counselors are pitted against each other.

The suit was brought by Peter Brunson to recover for services rendered from 1867 down to 1889. Mr. Lindabury moved to amend his pleadings by adding a plea that the claim was barred by the statute of limitations—in other words, that it was outlawed. He said that he had ordered his clerk to file such a plea, but that the latter had neglected to do so.

Mr. Marsh opposed the motion and cited a recent case decided by the Supreme court in which it was held that the statute of limitation was a strict defense, and if the party lets it slip the court will not help him. The case was produced, and examined by Mr. Lindabury and the court, after which the court remarked that it seemed to cover the case in hand, and that he would deny Mr. Lindabury's motion, with leave to renew it for further argument if desired. Later, counsel agreed that the case should go off for the term, and the judge said he would refer the point to the Supreme court.

The importance of the point will be seen when it is remembered that unless the statute of limitations is pleaded, Peter Brunson is at liberty to go back in his account twenty-five years, whereas if the statute is pleaded, he can only go back six years. Jackson & Codington brought the suit for Mr. Brunson.

It is understood that the reason that Peter Brunson is now suing for his services and to recover loans is because he was omitted from the list of beneficiaries under Mr. VanDeventer's will. He had expected to be a legatee, and hence never rendered an account of what was due him till he found that he had not been remembered.

—The Overland Monthly for May contains some rare portraits of San Francisco's famous street characters of past and present, prominent among whom are emperor Norton, father Elphick the vegetarian, and captain Kentsell, drawn by Solly Walters and Peixotto. To many people contemplating a move to California, as well as to fruit-growers in general, an able article by James T. Goodman, fully illustrated by photographs, will be of interest. The issue abounds in attractive features, and is a most handsome number.

DEATH OF ROSWELL SMITH.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW YORK, April 19.—Roswell Smith, president of the Century Publishing company, died at 7:10 this morning at his home, 24 East Fifty-first street. Mr. Smith had been ill for the last three years of chronic Bright's disease, and during that time had three paralytic strokes, the last of these occurring at the Century office last winter. For the past month he has been unconscious, and last evening his physician, Dr. Timothy F. Allen, gave up all hope of his recovery.

It is nearly a quarter of a century since Roswell Smith, Dr. J. G. Holland, and the firm of Charles Scribner & Co., founded the magazine corporation which in 1881, after the purchase by Mr. Smith of the Scribners' interest, became the Century company. Roswell Smith's best years were given to his work as business manager and president of that company, and the history of its success is the story of his life.

He was born at Lebanon, Conn., March 30, 1829. He leaves a widow and one child—Mrs. George Inness, jr., the wife of the artist. The business which he did so much to build up will go on as before.

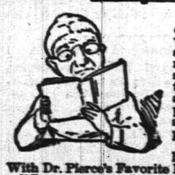
An Easter Hunt at Sans Souci Villa.

A charming Easter celebration was given by Mrs. George Lissignolo at her home, Sans Souci Villa, East Front street, Saturday. The forenoon was devoted to an Easter hunt by a throng of young people, who had much merry sport searching for hidden treasures in the shrubbery and other nooks about the grounds. Games and a donkey party also occupied a portion of the afternoon, and an excellent luncheon was served to all the guests. A number of the elder people present with the children were from New York, Brooklyn, Westfield, Easton, Nazareth, and other places, besides the many from Plainfield. It was a most delightful gathering of congenial spirits. The generous-hearted hostess distributed many choice favors among her guests, all of whom had a very happy day.

—The Union County roadsters and the Rahway Athletic association will give an entertainment at Rahway the evening of April 22, to raise money for their new quarter-mile bicycle track. Clarence L. Eick, until recently organist of the First Presbyterian church of this city, is among the talent engaged.



Doesn't "look" as she ought—the weak, nervous and ailing woman. As long as she suffers from the aches, pains, and derangements peculiar to her sex, she can't expect to.

But there's only herself to blame.

With Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, she's a different woman. And it's a change that can be seen as well as felt. The system is invigorated, the blood enriched, digestion improved, melancholy and nervousness dispelled.

With the "Favorite Prescription," all the proper functions are restored to healthy action. Periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, all "female complaints" are cured by it. It's the only medicine for woman's weaknesses and ailments that's guaranteed to do what is claimed for it. If it doesn't give satisfaction, in every case for which it's recommended, the money is returned.

Can something else offered by the dealer, though it may pay him better, be "just as good"?

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

BRIGHT GLIMPSES OF THE PAST.

A Graceful and Entertaining History Read by Miss Clarke at the Monday Afternoon Club Celebration.

The anniversary celebration of the Monday afternoon club, held in this city yesterday as fully described in these columns last evening, was altogether one of the most delightful events in the history of Plainfield society, and will long be remembered with joyous feelings by those who participated. Not the least of the pleasant events of the day was the paper on the history of the club, written and read by the recording secretary, Miss Charlotte E. Clarke. This paper was heartily enjoyed by all the notable women present, and is eminently deserving of reproduction in full. It is as follows:

In the presence of those whose voices we are longing to hear, I am sure you will not ask for a very prolonged history of the Monday Afternoon club. Indeed, an organization which is but four years old can scarcely be expected to contribute a very large fund to the historical page, and I am fearful that in the eyes of our distinguished visitors it will appear but the "Short and Simple Annals of the Poor"!

I think it must be largely the mission of club reunions to remove intellectual near-sightedness, for they train our gaze to reach beyond our own horizon and to seek the records of the progress of others, rather than of our own. Even now our eyes are turned toward our sister clubs, and we wait for the reports of their prosperity and advancement, with an interest that can hardly be repressed.

I have been wishing for some sort of a magic mirror to hold up before you in which might be reflected a series of pictures, illustrating the events of the four years which at present form the boundary of our existence as a club.

In such a collection of sketches we should surely find whole rows of empty ink-bottles, and at least one hundred fleet-winged pens; and all the toilers Millet ever painted, the Spinners, the Sowers, the Reapers, the Woodchoppers, and the Old Woman Shelling Beans, could not equal the various emblems of industry that would be required to represent the executive board.

In such a magic mirror we might not be able to discern the traditional "midnight lamp", nor any other of the orthodox paraphernalia of the student; but I think we could point to four years of very earnest work; to some gratifying results in the way of carefully prepared essays; to an ever-deepening interest in the study of literature; to ever-widening views of current events; to an enlarged average of attendance at club meetings, and to a steady growth of affection for our club and its interests.

We have paused now to shake hands with the past, and a brief backward glance over our own History may not be without some fruitful hints for the future, even if it only serve to show us what we have left undone.

During our four years of club life, we have drunk at the well-springs of literature, we have made our bow to art, we have set foot within the sacred precincts of science, and each year we have encouraged social culture to the extent of a frugal cup of tea together.

We have listened to the voice of authority, and indulged in our own speculations; we have sat at the feet of the learned, and timidly tried our wings in maiden-speeches; we have fearlessly followed Stanley through the forests of Africa, and gasped with the effort to get our voices and our legs at the same time upon the club floor; we have invoked the wisdom of the most exalted advisers, and then acted with the courage of our convictions in defining by-law VI.

It would seem rather a work of supererogation for me to go back to our starting-point, and try to give an account of the forming of the Monday Afternoon club. It was a great event. But it begins to seem a good way off—that time when we ventured our first, trembling, and very low-voiced opinion of Matthew Arnold!

The day is long since gone by, when we were so terribly afraid we should be cast to write a paper! Now, when there is a paper to be written, we all speak at once. It would be utterly impossible in the time allowed me to review all the work of four years, therefore I will briefly recount the subjects taken up during a certain period, which may serve to show, to some extent, our method of study.

The club year of 1890-'91 found us analyzing the "Origin and Aims of the American Commonwealth", and the "Nature and Principles of the Constitution". Sub-divisions for discussion included "The Relations between the Federal and State Governments," "State Rights", "The Calhoun Doctrine", etc. Nothing daunted by our wanderings in this field, we proceeded to dissect the subject of the "English Commonwealth".

"The Life and Writings of John Ruskin" furnished our next theme, followed by "Henry M. Stanley", and the "Value of Missionary Effort in Africa". As a succeeding topic, "The Comparative Merits of Realism and Idealism in Fiction" were discussed with much ardor during several meetings.

The programme next tempted us to enter the fantastic mazes of "Folk Lore", wherein we strayed for many a day. Learned papers with hard names sent us knocking at the gates of Greece, India, Germany, Finland and France, demanding that they give us of their "Folk Songs and Stories"; while shorter essays upon "Fairy Tales", "Children's Games", and "Jingle Rhymes", recalled the music of yesterday, and made us feel as though we had come within hailing distance of our childhood, across the chasm of years.

"Etching and Etchers" furnished our next field of exploration, and at present "James Russell Lowell" considered as a type of American culture is still providing for us frequent intellectual repasts.

This meagre summing up of main subjects is quite inadequate to express the interest they awaken among us, when discussed in their various sub-divisions—especially when some able member takes up the adverse side of a question, possibly repugnant even to herself, and handles it with lawyer-like skill—such, for instance, as "Objections to the Higher Education of Women", and the negative side of "Missionary Work in Africa".

During the year 1890, the Monday Afternoon club made an earnest attempt to introduce manual training into the Plainfield public schools, as a factor of education. I think I may say that they have not dropped the matter, but are still sowing the seed, and trusting to a kinder future to ripen the fruit of their efforts. This leads me to say that in time to come we hope to stretch out a wider hand to philanthropy, and to give more thought to topics of the time.

While considering a plan of work for another year, we have already set aside a greater allowance of time for the study of those problems of the day which touch upon the welfare of humanity, and tend toward the greatest good of the greatest number.

During each club year we have listened to not less than six lectures, appropriate to our plan of work, and found them very helpful.

Doubtless the experience of other clubs has been similar to our own in one respect—that we have found club work to be a developer of much unknown talent, and in days to come if we indulge in "Looking Backward" we shall undoubtedly realize that a large amount of contemporaneous feminine literature might safely own its parentage in the impetus given by club study in 1892.

Trees, whether of slow or rapid growth, flourish best where they can strike their roots the deepest, and we hope the happy day will dawn when the Monday Afternoon club will have a club-house of its own, which shall become in a real sense a continuous, hereditary home, in which we can feel a settled security, and be free to form that warm local attachment, which shall speak more deeply and touchingly than I can do of our affection for our club as an institution. Upon such a home, each year would set its stamp in some fulfillment of ambition, some responsive chord of human sympathy, some change, some improvement, until, like the seasoned wood of a musical instrument, it would give forth a fuller tone and a more powerful influence.

And now let me say, I only wish I had been bidden to speak of our dear founder and our sweet president. How gladly, then, I would have lifted up the tribute of my voice.

"For theirs hath been the honest tongue
To urge, to praise, to criticise
Plain words made fair by their kind eyes
When tales were told or songs were sung."

The mere lapse of years would of itself make the name of the Monday Afternoon club venerable, but its noble and kindly women alone can make it a memorial of happiness and an incentive to excellence.

The older it grows the sweeter and richer garden may it become, of human charity and heavenly grace!

Entertaining "Colonel Carter".

Manager A. M. Palmer has never presented a play more to the liking of his patrons than "Colonel Carter of Cartersville", now running so successfully at Palmer's Theatre, Broadway and Thirtieth street. The accurate reproduction of a certain phase of American life and the portrayal of the Southern character have not been accomplished more successfully even in that gem of plays "Alabama". An understanding of the many-sidedness of the character of Col. Carter furnishes the key to the characteristics of the best elements of our Southern population. The predominating traits of the nightly assemblages at Palmer's are keen intelligence and manifest refinement. The humor of the play is so delicate, so subtle, that anything but the finest treatment would destroy it. It is an encouraging sign of the times that both the play and its presentation are so thoroughly appreciated by a large proportion of habitual theatregoers.

E. M. Holland is simply perfection in the title role, and Miss Adelaide Rowe, as Ann Carter, the colonel's aunt, is a sweet and lovely character. Everyone envies the colonel the wardship of that beautiful young woman, Miss Agnes Miller, who makes a most fascinating Light Barbour. The part of Chad, so ably filled by Charles L. Harris, is one of the finest negro interpretations in histrionic annals. The entire story is one of the most charming things ever seen on the stage. Its tone is distinctly pure and literary, and the humor, which abounds, is dainty and refined. The season at Palmer's will close next week, and theatregoers will always be sorry if they miss this beautiful play that has won so many hearts. The evening performances are over in time for the theatre train to Plainfield, and a matinee is given Saturdays.

Special Features of the Outing Sale.

The outing sale in the new Unitarian church will open to-day at 6 p. m. The leading features of the sale have already been noted in these columns. One of the novelties will be an assortment of good books contributed by well-known authors who have furnished their autograph with each copy. Among these contributors appear the names of E. E Hale, D. D., F. W. Higginson, M. J. Savage, A. P. Peabody, D. D., J. W. Chadwick and Clinton Scollard, the last named having inscribed in his book a stanza composed for the occasion. There is a curious book in the collection sent by Mr. Hale, and, in fact, edited by him. It is a tale by the famous old storywriter, Daniel DeFoe, author of Robinson Crusoe", the scene of which is laid near the site of the National capital. It is a picture of white slavery in Virginia. Other autographic works on sale are by Mary E. Wilkins, Edward Eggleston, Frank R. Stockton, George William Curtis, John W. Chadwick and Samuel May. Mr. Chadwick has inscribed a very pretty sentiment "To my unknown friend".

"She" Baffles Explanation.

The new and varied programme at the Eden Musee is one of the most attractive ever given at this pleasing resort, and has become a success from the start. Powell's Wonders are an enjoyable entertainment in themselves, and arouse the curiosity and admiration of the audience. A sensation is created by the introduction of the startling and magnificent illusion called "She", which is derived from one of the most thrilling features of Rider Haggard's famous story. It baffles explanation, and must be seen to be fully appreciated. "Frank Mojilton", one of the noted members of the family of acrobats, has been received with favor in his fantastic and enjoyable specialty called "Japanese Pastimes". With the Hungarian band, led by Munczi Lajos, and many new groups in wax, the entertainment is a remarkable one.

A Valuable Remedy

BRANDETH'S PILLS purify the Blood, stimulate the Liver, strengthen the Kidneys, regulate the Bowels. They were introduced in the United States in 1835. Since that time over sixty millions of boxes of BRANDETH'S PILLS have been used.

This, together with thousands of convincing testimonials from all parts of the world, is positive evidence of their value.

BRANDETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

DUNELLEN DOINGS.

Interesting Items from a Thriving Borough, by Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. G. W Day has been very ill during the past two weks.

Miss Eva Bodine is spending the Easter holidays with her parents.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Mrs. W. B. Roelofsen Saturday morning at 10, at her late residence. The Rev. A. J. Martine officiated. The interment was at Washington, Warren county.

Friendship council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of New Market, held a formal initiatory meeting in their new hall at New Market last night. A large number of brethren attended from Plainfield and other neighboring councils.

A mum sociable is to be held at the residence of Mrs. James V. Dunham on Church street next Thursday evening. It will cost 5 cents for each offence to those who can't be mum.

Dunellen's dudes and dudesses were out in great style Sunday. Everybody had something new.

Peter Staats was seized with a serious illness again last Friday evening. He was very much out of his mind, and it took the united efforts of a number of his friends to keep him in bed. The physician found it necessary to perform another operation, which was done Saturday. He now rests easier. Mr. Staats has been ill for a long time, and has been on the verge of recovery several times, but when his hopes are the brightest he is thrown back again.

The Easter services held in the Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Y. P. S. of C. E., were very interesting and profitable. A number of out-of-town representatives from different societies were present and addressed the meeting, among them being several from Plainfield. The programme included "Easter Lessons" by J. A. Robinson of the Plainfield Congregational church; "Easter Joy", by A. Vars, of the New Market Seventh-day Baptist church; solos by Miss Florence Stevens; an "Easter Message", by Miss Alice Spangenberg, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, Plainfield; "Opportunities for Work", by E. Blackford, of the First Baptist church, New Market; and "Aftermath", by W. J. Hamilton, sr., of the First Presbyterian church, Dunellen.

A very interesting game of base-ball was played Saturday between the Plainfield and Dunellen clubs, the result of which was 14 to 13 in favor of the Plainfields. This was the first of the season, and was a very close and exciting game.

What Dan Rice Says About It.

Talk about "realism" on the stage. The scene of the first act in "A Night at the Circus" is a lawyer's office. Therein everybody kisses the pretty typewriter. The clerk, the office boy, the partners and their clients—all kiss the pretty typewriter, Miss Remi Riter, and she stands up and submits as though it was part of her duty.

Dan Rice, the oldest circus clown alive, and probably the only one who occupies much space in the heart of the small boy, has not yet lost all desire to wear the pyramidal hat and variegated pants. The jolly old soul recently attended at New York a performance of the play Nellie McHenry is to give at Music Hall, Thursday evening, and declared that he could no longer resist the temptation to revive the good old one-ring circus of other days where people could see the show with one pair of eyes without breaking their necks. Uncle Dan said he'd have to take off his hat to Nellie McHenry. "That's something like it"—said he.—"That's the best show I've seen since Dan Rice quit the business."

Trouble Brewing at Panama.

PANAMA, April 19.—Trouble is coming between the government and the Canal Company on account of the latter's arbitrary closing of the canal to traffic and the consequent order of the government for the removal of the obstructions.

Secretary Tracy Ill.

The Silver Question.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 19.—In an interview Gen. A. J. Warner, the Ohio representative on the Executive Committee of the National Silver Association, while here on his way to Washington to attend a meeting of the committee in that city, said that it was the intention of the association to have the silver question before both national conventions. He said that both parties would be forced to define their position on this question.

Collision on the New England.

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., April 19.—A collision occurred at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the New England Railroad at Black Rock between the Long Island express and a west-bound passenger train. Both engines were badly smashed. Engineer Mitchell of the express had his foot cut off, and his fireman was injured about the head. The failure of Engineer Havens to notice a signal to stop is believed to have caused the accident.

WHAT IS IT?

An Overdose of Morphine—And Why?

A lady was found dead upon her bed. Investigation showed that she had been a terrible sufferer from nervous weakness and prostration, probably aggravated by Spring Debility which so weakens us all at this season of the year. For months she had complained of being tired and nervous, her stomach and bowels troubled her, there was palpitation, headache, strange, faint feelings, and for the last week she had felt discouraged, depressed in mind, miserable. In a fit of desperation she took her own life by an overdose of morphine

A peculiar after-effect of the Grip is that, owing to its extreme weakening effects upon the nerves, it makes people feel blue, depressed and discouraged and without their former joyous feelings.

It is strange that such foolish acts as suicides can take place when at the present day it is well known that these weakening nervous diseases can be easily cured by using that great discovery for the nerves, Dr. Greene's Nervura. Its effects are sure in all such cases, and it is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Druggists $1.

"I employed 23 doctors for my wife. Many pronounced her incurable, some advised placing her in an asylum, while others did her no good. She had poor blood, was weak, nervous, depilitated and half crazy. She had female weakness, and her kidneys were very bad. Dr. Greene's Nervura has completely cured her. She thanks God that I bought Dr. Greene's Nervura. N. B. KING, Danvers, Mass.

N. B. Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th St., New York, can be consulted, free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free. 2 2 tu th sas

SPECIAL REAL ESTATE SALES FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL ONLY.

THE CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY offer its houses and lots at greatly reduced prices and on very easy terms, in the following Cities and Towns:

	Population.	Time from New York.	Commutation.
ELIZABETH	40,000	30 minutes	20c per day
BAYONNE	20,000	30 "	15c "
NEWARK	175,000	30 "	17c "
PLAINFIELD	20,000	45 "	27c "
E RITAN	3 000	55 "	35c "

The CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, after an existence of twenty years, during which time it has sold thousands of lots and been instrumental in the rapid growth of the towns and villages along the Central Railroad of New Jersey, has decided to dispose of its remaining properties at such prices as will prove attractive to home seekers, investors and speculators. Don't invest in the many mushroom paper towns when here is a chance to buy lots in prosperous, healthy cities, with good schools, churches, electric light, low taxes and city charges all paid for, all improvements made, such as sewers, curbing, paving, etc. Many $400.00 lots reduced to $200 00, and large reductions throughout. In many instances city improvements have cost close to $200 00. A rare chance, and present prices will hold good DURING APRIL ONLY.

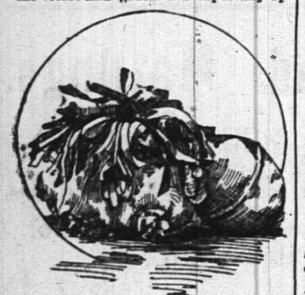
PERFUME ATOMIZER.

A Pretty Novelty That Will Be Found an Acceptable Gift.

The bottle of perfume and atomizer can be bought at any drug store. Take a piece of lavender-colored India silk, about three inches wider than the bottle is high, and eighteen inches long, join the ends, and turn down one edge and gather around the neck of the bottle, leaving a ruffle an inch and a half wide. If an elastic be inserted at the bottom of the hem, the silk cover can be removed at will. On the inner side of the ruffle, so the ends will be hidden, sew loops of apple-green "baby" ribbon interspersed with some ends cut off slanting; about fifty-three of these will be needed, from four to five inches long. Then cut a piece of silk a little larger than the bottom of the bottle, and gather the lower edge of the other piece of silk to it; put a thick roll of cotton around the bottle and slip the silk cover over it, tying around the neck with green ribbon. Sew violets, some light and some dark, at irregular intervals on the silk; about fifteen will be necessary.

Of course, any combination of colors can be used; but with violet perfume the violet and green are especially appropriate. Pink with apple blossoms and green ribbon, or pale yellow with buttercups and green ribbon; in fact, any colors that fancy may suggest, can be combined in this useful and dainty little article. If the bulb of the atomiser be considered unsightly, a little cover of silk can be slipped over it, or a second cover exactly like the first can be used.—Demorest's Monthly.



DECORATED PERFUME ATOMIZER.

HOUSEHOLD MARKETING.

Stick to One Dealer Provided He Treats You Fairly.

It is best to keep to one dealer, after you have decided which is best, to have your butcher, your poulterer, and your vegetable and fruit man. They will all take greater interest in supplying a regular customer at reasonable rates than one who only buys of them occasionally, especially if you always pay ready money. In buying beef there are a few rules to remember: Bullock beef is the best to buy. It should be fine-grained, the lean with streaks of clean, white-looking fat running through it and of a bright red color. Unless there is enough fat the meat will be tough. Cow beef is paler than ox beef, so you can tell it in that way; it is not so nutritious; but if the meat is of a very dark red it is too old. To test beef, press it down with the thumb; if it rises quickly the meat is good. For soup meat get the shin-bone and a few pounds of the round. Soup meat should have as little fat as possible. The best beef for beef tea is from the round. Mutton should be dark colored and have plenty of fat.

In choosing poultry see that they have smooth legs and short spurs; the male birds are best. The feet should always bend easily and the eyes should be bright. If a fowl has begun to turn blue, or if it has stiff legs, it is not good. In selecting fish the body should be stiff and the gills red; if not, it is not fresh. In buying vegetables get a good dealer and have them fresh, as stale vegetables are unhealthy. Asparagus and peas, and also green beans, should be eaten on the day they are bought, and for the following day use those more easily kept, such as onions, cauliflower, cabbage, etc.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Rival's Indorsement.

Mr. Richfello (who has fallen desperately in love with Miss Beauti)—What a charming girl Miss Beauti is!

Rival Belle—Yes, indeed, she's a perfect angel; she's so self-sacrificing. What do you think she did last spring?

"Really I don't know; something lovely, no doubt."

"Just heavenly! She melted up all her old engagement rings and gave the money to the poor."—Good News.

The Result Would Tell.

Jack White—Hello, Sam! What are you doing in this race?

Sam Black—Dunno yet. But I s'pects I is de dark hoss, sah, dey's always talkin' 'bout.—Bearings.

"The Judgment of Paris."

She gave the boy an apple—
And she was one of three—
And said: "Give this to her of us
Most beautiful to thee."
The boy gazed at each lovely elf—
Then ate the apple up himself.
—Judge.

One View of It.

"I don't think it's exactly fair for my teacher to keep me in because she can't read my writing," said Willie. "It isn't my fault if she doesn't know how to read."—Harper's Bazar.

Matrimonial Note.

Wife—What do you suppose is the reason there are no marriages in heaven?

Husband—You stupid goose, it is to offset the fact that there is no heaven in marriage.—Texas Siftings.

Justifiable Pride.

Gus De Smith—You are looking bright and happy this morning, Gilhooly.

Gilhooly—Yes; I'm out of debt at last. Every bill I owed was outlawed yesterday by the statute of limitations. I tell you, Gus, a man feels like a man when he is square with the world.—Texas Siftings.

No Time to Lose.

First Hospital Surgeon—Will it be necessary to set that man's arm over again?

Second Hospital Surgeon—Well, I should say so. Why, the man will be well in a week if we don't.—Life.

Ready for Inspection.

New Boarder—Where is your mother, Bubby? She said she was going to show me a room.

Bubby—Mom will be here soon. She's up in that room now a-warmin' the thermometer.—Good News.

Schedule Time.

Hungry Traveler (at railway dining station)—How soon will the train start, conductor?

Conductor—It'll start on time to-day. I ain't got much appetite.—N. Y. Weekly.

FOSTER IS ELECTED

Anti-Lottery Democrats Win in Louisiana.

HIS PLURALITY ABOUT 11,000.

The Election One of the Quietest in the State's History.

Returns Coming in Slowly—The McEnery Nominee for Mayor of New Orleans Elected—Republicans Carry Six Parishes—A Very Heavy Vote Polled—The Big Negro Parishes in the North Help Foster to Victory.

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.—The latest returns indicate that Foster, the anti-lottery Democratic nominee, has carried the State by about 10,000 plurality. The Republicans have carried about six parishes, claiming Concordia among them, but McEnery, the rival Democratice candidate, will be second in point of votes. The McEnery majority in this city has been reduced, but John Fitzpatrick, the McEnery nominee for Mayor, is elected by from 4,000 to 5,000 plurality over Shakespeare, the present incumbent.

The election was quiet and the scratching in the city was unprecedented.

There were five complete and distinct State tickets in the field. The first was the regular Democratic ticket, with Judge D. S. McEnery, for Governor and Robert C. Wickliff for Lieut.-Governor. A majority of the delegates elected to the State Convention favored McEnery and the ticket headed by him at the recent election received a majority of votes cast. The second ticket, or the one named by the anti-lottery faction, was headed by Murphy J. Foster, ex-State Senator from St. Mary's parish, with Charles Parlange, ex-United States District-Attorney, for Lieut.-Governor, and Thomas Scott Adams, of the Farmers' Alliance, for Secretary of State.

This ticket, by the recent decision of Col. J. S. Young, of the second Louisiana Returning Board, was declared the regularly nominated Democratic ticket. The regular Republican ticket was headed by A. H. Leonard, of Shreveport, who was formerly United States Attorney.

Another Republican ticket was headed by John Ebreaux, of Point Coupee parish, for Governor. This ticket was supported by ex-Gov. Warmouth and nearly all the Federal officials in the State.

The People's party named for Governor R. L. Tannehill of Wynne parish.

No campaign in this State has been so hotly contested, and the election of the Foster Democratic ticket is conceded to be an anti-lottery victory.

TWO BURNED TO DEATH.

Explosion in a New Jersey Fireworks Factory—Five Other Workmen Hurt.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 20.—A shop of Detweller, Street & Company's pyrotechnic works on West Side Avenue was blown up at 10 o'clock last night. John Bettinger of Fulton avenue and Alfred Coltie of Walker avenue were burned to death, and Edward Polison of 155 Runyan avenue was fearfully burned, narrowly escaping death. The four other inmates of the shop escaped with less serious injuries.

The fire department soon had the flames under control. The shop, which was one of the 30 small frame buildings which comprise the works, was damaged about $500.

New Jersey Prisoners Liberated.

TRENTON, N. J., April 20.—Gustavus Willinghaus, 43 years of age, who killed James Daly in Newark in 1889, was liberated yesterday by the Board of Pardons. He was under a 10 year sentence. The Board also liberated Edward Flanigan of Hudson county, sentenced to 20 years for murder in the second degree in October, 1886. He killed a man named Philguist who mixed in a barroom altercation, was knocked down and struck his head in falling so as to cause death. The argument used was that there were three men engaged in the brawl, and it was never clearly proved who made the assault.

Justice Lamar Much Better.

WASHINGTON, April 20. — Justice Lamar of the Supreme Court, who has been so closely confined to his room during the past two months by sickness, has gained sufficient strength to enable him to leave his room, and yesterday was down stairs for the first time since his illness. He was cheerful and bright and partook of a hearty meal with the rest of his family. It is expected that the Justice will soon be able to go out for a ride.

Opening of the New Oklahoma.

GUTHRIE, Oklahoma, April 20.—Dispatches from all along the line of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe reservation report that the stars for the newly opened territory was effected promptly at noon yesterday without any trouble. There were some trifling accidents owing to horses stumbling, and the breaking down of vehicles in the heavy ground, but no fights or disturbances have been reported so far.

Insurance in Massachusetts.

BOSTON, April 20.—Insurance Commissioner Merrill's report shows the fire waste in Massachusetts in 1891 amounted to $6,681,379, upon which there was $3,167,916 insurance. The loss is against an average loss of $5,170,00 for 14 years, and the average number of fires increased 800.

Rig Yarn Factory Burned.

UTICA, N. Y., April 20.—The yarn factory of F. E. Woolworth & Co. at Oriskaney Falls, this county, was destroyed by fire shortly after noon. The factory was a three set mill and had a capacity of from 500 to 800 pounds of yarn per day. Loss, $50,000; partially insured.

A LONDON SENSATION.

Hon. Patrick Nugent Accused of Assaulting a Lady in a Railroad Carriage.

LONDON, April 20.—A tremendous sensation has been caused by the accusation against the Hon. Patrick Emilius John Greville Nugent, brother of Baron Greville, and Deputy Lieutenant and High Sheriff of the County of Westmeath, Ireland, of having indecently assaulted a lady in a first class carriage on the Brighton railway.

The Grevilles stand high in the nobility, and the Hon. Patrick has been considered the most promising member of the family. He was born in 1853, and is married to Lady Ermengarda, daughter and heiress of Augustus Ogilvy, esq., of Dumfries, Scotland, and they have one child, named Rosemary Ermengarda.

The Honorable Patrick was an early subject of favor on the part of the government, as shown by his promotion to the distinguished office of deputy-lieutenant. He is considered a handsome man, and rather a favorite with the ladies. He has for this reason, it is said, somewhat aroused the jealousy of his high-tempered Scottish wife, who holds the purse of the family, the Honorable Patrick himself bringing nothing to the marriage more than a distinguished name.

The lady in the case is Miss Marion Price.

The evidence at the Westminster Police Court was of a very strong character against the defendant, who, if the story told not only by Miss Price herself but by the guard is true, deliberately pursued the woman, and changed carriages for the purpose of assault.

Bail was required and furnished in the sum of four hundred pounds.

FORMING ANOTHER TRUST.

Standard Oil Nabobs Trying to Absorb Pennsylvania Natural Gas Companies.

PITTSBURG, April 20.—The Standard Oil Company, it is said, is trying to absorb the leading natural gas companies of Western Pennsylvania with the idea of amalgamating them into a gigantic trust so as to supply a manufactured fuel gas. The Standard Company is said to be the owner of a process that has been fully tested and pronounced a success.

The scheme is to make the Philadelphia—the original natural gas company of the world—the nucleus of the trust, and double its stock, making a total capitalization of $15,000,000, which, it is said, will be more than enough to carry the scheme through.

The Standard Company is also trying to buy a big independent oil pipe line to the seaboard. This pipe line is almost completed from the McDonald oil field, in this county, to Linwood, on the Delaware, a few miles below Philadelphia. It is owned by W. L. Mellen, the millionaire producer, and will be the only independent oil pipe line in existence.

The Standard, in its endeavors to secure this line, has forced the price of crude petroleum down to such a low point, 59 cents a barrel, that the independent producers are talking of a shut down for five months beginning May 1.

English Miners Will Continue the Strike.

LONDON, April 20.—The result of the ballot taken by the Durham miners as to whether the strike could be dropped or continued, resulted: In favor of continuing, 28,151; against, 17,698. The Durham coalowners have issued a manifesto. They maintain that events fully justify the position they took up months ago, and still maintain. Nor do there exist any signs encouraging hope that the present condition of things will alter for the better. On the contrary, the owners observed with regret and alarm circumstances which point to a deepening depression of trade rather than speedy improvements. The women are taking an active part and are generally in favor of the strike.

The Astor Family to Unite Abroad.

NEW YORK, April 20.—There are some new developments in the Drayton-Borrowe affair. Mrs. Astor has seen her daughter, Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton, and it is said arrangements have been made to unite the whole Astor family abroad. Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor will sail for Europe in the very near future. Mr. James R. Roosevelt and wife, nee Astor, will sail at the same time, and, it is said on good authority, that J. Coleman Drayton will return to England, if not with the Astors and the Roosevelts, shortly before or after. Mr. William Astor is now in London, and Mr. and Mrs. William Waldorf Astor are in Paris.

11 Years for Assaulting a Girl.

POUGHKEEPSIE, April 20.—Frank Ross, an Italian, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Guernsey to 11 years and three months in Sing Sing prison for criminal assault. His victim was Marie Worroneck, 13 years old. The parents of the girl are now in the Albany penitentiary for complicity in the crime. The case was prosecuted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Massachusetts Republican Club.

BOSTON, April 20.—The dinner of the Republican Club of Massachusetts, at Music Hall, yesterday evening, signalized the opening of the National campaign in this State. Nearly 1,000 Republicans sat at the tables, while the balconies were packed with a crowd of persons which included among its number a large number of the fair sex. Among the speakers were Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, Senator Dolph, John S. Dodge, and others.

Censuring Gov. Flower.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 20.—At a meeting of Albany Typographical Union No. 4 last evening action was taken on Gov. Flower's veto of the State Printing House bill. Resolutions were adopted to the effect that Gov. Flower in vetoing the State Printing bill and the Weekly Pay bill, two prefered measures of three State labor conventions lately assembled in this city, has shown that he is unfriendly to organized labor.

CALIFORNIA SHAKEN

The Whole State Jarred by the Earthquake.

LOSS OF PROPERTY VERY GREAT

The Most Severe Shock Since the Disastrous one of 1868.

Vacaville, the Centre of the Disturbance, Almost in Ruins—Serious Damage Reported from Many Other Towns—No Lives Lost, But Many Narrow Escapes Are Chronicled—The Loss Throughout the State Will Exceed Two Millions.

VACAVILLE, Cal., April 20.—This town was the centre of the earthquake shock yesterday, which was felt all over the State and caused serious damage also in Winters, Dixon, Fairfield, Merced and Elmira. The shock is more severe than any that have occurred since the memorable one in 1868.

Main street is blocked with brick, lumber and tangled wires. There is not a brick building on the south side of the street which was not more or less wrecked, and some of them are a total loss.

The shock struck the town at just 2:49 o'clock, and lasted three quarters of a minute. The vibrations were at first from southwest to northeast, and then changed suddenly to north and south. Fronts of buildings tumbled into the streets, chimneys were twisted and torn as if by a Kansas cyclone, and the entire population ran into the streets. There were no fatalities, though there were a number of narrow escapes.

The fronts are out of Odd Fellows' hall, Masonic hall, and many stores. Will Patterson and Tom Rogers were sleeping in a rear room and were buried beneath brick and mortar, and were finally gotten out.

WINTERS, Cal., April 20.—An earthquake visited this section at 2:45 a. m., causing general destruction to property. Every building in town was damaged. The loss will reach $50,000. No lives were lost.

The large new D. V. Bliss Hotel at the junction of Maine street and Railroad avenue suffered considerably, much of the brick front caving into the street. There were about 40 guests asleep when the shock occurred, and men, women and children ran terror-stricken downstairs.

Sixty feet of the fire-wall on the new Chadwick building on Main street toppled westward upon the frame roof of Judy Brothers' stables, and burned six horses in their stalls. A schoolhouse, just finished by Contractor Silas Carle of Sacramento, was badly wrecked. The old schoolhouse is so badly damaged that no school was held yesterday. The loss to the town is estimated at between $70,000 and $100,000.

It is reported that the little town of Monticello, 17 miles from here, is demolished.

It is estimated that the loss throughout the State will exceed two millions.

Two Killed in a Quarry.

BANGOR, Me., April 20.—A cave-in occurred yesterday at the Forrest slate quarry at Monson, by which the lives of two men were lost. It has been considered unsafe some time and no work was done there. Yesterday six men were at work on the shelf opposite the side which was considered unsafe, when a great mass caved in, striking deep water in the quarry, it not having been pumped out recently, and the water was washed up to the shelf where the m[illegible] were at work, carrying them down w[illegible] the flood. Two men, a Swede and Finn, were carried under the mass [illegible] have not since been seen. The ot[illegible] four escaped.

Quicker Mails for the West.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The fast m[illegible] from the East, which now reaches De[illegible] ver, Col., at 6 p. m., will, from the 24[illegible] inst., reach Denver at 7:10 a. m., practically a gain of one day through a large portion of Colorado, and parts of Nebraska. The new schedule will also advance the trans-continental mails for the Pacific slope from two to four hours.

Democrats Carry Niagara Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., April 20.—The new city of Niagara Falls held its first municipal election yesterday. The Democrats almost carried everything before them. George W. Wright was elected Mayor by 539 majority, and the rest of the ticket by almost corresponding majorities. The only Republican elected is William Campbell, for Alderman.

South Carolina Republicans.

COLUMBUS, S. C., April 20.—The regular Republican State Convention was called to order at noon by Hon. E. A. Webster, who said that the sentiment of the gathering was unanimously in favor of the renomination of President Harrison, and a delegation to Minneapolis was chosen in conformity with this sentiment.

LOOKS BAD FOR M'GUIRE.

Damaging Evidence Against Him in the Gregory Murder Trial.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., April 20.—The taking of testimony in the Mrs. Amelia G. Gregory murder case at Middletown continues in the Supreme Court here. Noah Gregory, the husband of the murdered woman, testified that Fred McGuire, the alleged murderer, worked for him about the time of the murder and knew of money being kept in the house and that the house was unprotected during the day.

Sarah Brown, the woman McGuire lived with, detailed at length conversations he had with her concerning the robbery of the Gregory house, and had said that he would kill off the whole family rather than lose the money he was certain was in the house. McGuire figured that there was at least $3,000. She related his arranging for the visit, the preparing of a mask, the putting on of the two coats, one of which he subsequently burned up, the cleaning of the trousers where blood stains were found, and the cutting out of blood stains replaced with patches.

The trousers were shown in Court, as were the revolvers McGuire had, one of which he got at the robbery of the Crystal Run Postoffice, the watch he had stolen at the same time, and other articles. His progress from the time of leaving the McGuire home to the Gregory house and his return home, with his later removal to Pennsylvania, the arrest and confession of Brastington and Mrs. Brown were all shown to agreed in every respect.

The chain of evidence throughout was most complete, and the case could safely go to the jury now. There are over 20 witnesses for the prosecution yet to be sworn, and the case will last at least two days more.

McGuire seems to be confident that when his side of the story is heard the opinion of the court and jury will be changed, but this looks exceedingly doubtful unless he can explain away some powerful evidence.

REPUBLICANS AT HARRISBURG.

The State Convention in Session—Seven Candidates for Judge.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 20.—The Republican State Convention was called to order shortly after noon to-day and Gen. James Latta was made temporary chairman. E. K. Martin of Lancaster will be made permanent chairman.

The auguries for a harmonious Convention are good. Senators Quay, Cameron and Chris Magee all seem bent on unity. The number of candidates for Judge of the Supreme Court has been increased to seven by the announcement by the friends of Judge Ewing of Allegheny county, that his claims will be presented to the convention. The Allegheny counly delegates claim that they particularly desire his nomination, as that portion of Pennsylvania west of the Allegheny Mountains is not represented on the Supreme Court bench.

It has looked as though Judge Dean would lead in the convention with Judge Sadler a close second. But this morning Judge Henderson began to gather strength, particularly among the supporters of Gen. Lilly and Major McDowell, the chief candidates for Congressmen-at-large.

The platform will declare against free trade, endorse the McKinley law, endorse in a hearty manner the Harrison administration, commend Secretary Blaine and declare it the duty of Congress to insure a free ballot and fair count if necessary. There will be no instructions.

TO MURDER A KING

An Anarchist Plot to Kill Spain's Ruler.

CONFESSION OF A CONSPIRATOR.

Lots Were Cast as to Who Should Strike the Blow.

Anarchist Munos Gives Particulars of the Plot to Destroy the Royal Palace and the Chamber of Deputies—It is Thought That He Was Chosen to Kill the King—Statements of the Would-be Bomb-Throwers.

MADRID, April 20.—Public excitement on the Anarchist plots has been renewed by the report that the Anarchist, Philip Munos, has confessed to a plot to kill the King of Spain, who will be six years old on May 17.

Munos was formerly a sergeant of artillery, who has been living abroad and in concealment in Spain since he took an active part in the Republican rebellion in Madrid.

Delboche, the Frenchman arrested for the attempt to blow up the Chamber of Deputies, said that Munos led them on to make the attempt against Congress, and with having provided them with bombs which, they say, he handed them in the street, a few yards from Congress Hall.

Delboche stated that Munos lived in Calle Clavel, Madrid, and had besides another domicile where his mistress lived. The police succeeded in arresting Munos, who has undergone a rigorous examination.

Though the Spanish law does not allow any one to see prisoners during the early part of the judicial investigations, and first examinations of accused persons are always conducted with the greatest secrecy and closed doors, without the presence of counsel or reporters, nevertheless enough details have transpired which tend to confirm the impression that the Anarchists not only in Madrid, but also in Valadolid, Valencia, and Bilbao, were aware that a plot was progressing in the capital at the headquarters of the Anarchists, their Circule dellabajadores, all the principal members of which are now in prison on the charge of complicity in the dynamiters' plot to destroy the Chamber of Deputies, the royal palace, and to commit other outrages.

Whether they knew the full extent of the plot, as now said to have been confessed by Munos, the authorities are not yet convinced.

The confession attributed to Munos is that at a meeting of Anarchists it was determined to murder the King, and that lots were cast as to who should kill him.

The confession does not state upon whom the lot fell, but it is believed that Munos himself was probably the man. There is no doubt now that he was the leading spirit in the plot.

Delboche and Ferreira, the two conspirators who were arrested with bombs intended to blow up the Chamber of Deputies, pretend that they were entirely dominated by Munos.

To Dredge for Sunken Treasure.

LEOMINSTER, Mass., April 20. — The Little Giant Hussar Wrecking Company has just received its charter. This is the company recently organized to get the treasure out of the English ship sunk near Hell Gate, New York, over 100 years ago. Capt. Symonds of this city is the organizer of the company, and the $10,000 capital stock is quoted at $315 per share here. Capt. Symonds has placed a buoy over the wreck, and is now negotiating for a construction of dredges heavy enough to withstand the current of the famous channel where the work is to be done.

Weavers Strike at Fall River.

FALL RIVER, Mass., April 20.—A strike is in progress at Osborne Mill No. 1. Twenty-nine weavers employed on Bedford cords left work because the superintendent refused to pay the regular wages for weaving cloth. The weavers claim that 38 cents is paid in other mills, while the Osborne is giving but 34 cents per cut. The superintendent put two "knobsticks" at work, whereupon 25 more weavers, not employed on Bedfords, quit work.

Bank Wrecker Trumpbour on Trial.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 20.—A jury has not yet been secured in the trial of Matthew T. Trumpbour, one of the wreckers of the Ulster County Savings Institution. The indictment first taken up is for grand larceny in stealing $2,000. Trumpbour was indicted jointly with Ostrander, but demanded a separate trial. The trial will occupy the entire week and some very interesting developments are expected.

Another Defender of Clerk Young.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Gen. H. V. Boynton, the veteran Washington correspondent, prints a letter in defense of Mr. James R. Young, lately removed as Executive Clerk of the Senate, and giving some inside history of the publication of proceedings of the Senate in executive session. He speaks of Mr. Young's long and honorable service and discredits the charge that he betrayed executive secrets.

A Family Down With Trichinosis.

BOSTON, April 20.—The family of Otto J. Roth, consisting of himself, wife and four children, who reside in Roxbury, are ill with trichinosis. These are the first cases of the disease in this vicinity in 15 years. In Roth's case it proved fatal.

Wife Murder at Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 20.—A terrible case of wife murder was discovered here yesterday. Peter Bieber, a lake fireman, 57 years of age, and his wife who was 27 years old, drank heavily all day last Saturday and had frequent rows. On Sunday there was more quarreling, and early in the night there were sounds of a fight heard from the rooms. About 6 o'clock everything became quiet and nothing more was heard of the Biebers until yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Bieber's body was found with her head split open with an axe and her brains battered out. She had evidently been killed by her husband during their last row. Bieber cannot be found. The police are diligently searching for him.

They Deny the Story.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Both Senor Alphonso Ortega, the Venezuelan Consul-General here, and J. M. Laizalde, of the firm of J. M. Laizalde & Co., emphatically deny the published story that they are in complicity with General Crespo, the leader of the revolutionary army, in the rebellion now in progress in Venezuela against president Palacio, by sending him arms and ammunition.

Mrs. Mary A. Blood's Requests.

BOSTON, April 20.—By the will of the late Mary A. Blood the following bequests are made: American Board of Foreign Missions and Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital, $5,000 each; Home for Aged Couples; Home for Aged Men, American College and Educational Society, and American Seamen's Friend Society, $2,000 each.

Samory Defeated by the French.

PARIS, April 20.—Advices just received from Senegal are to the effect that Samory, the powerful native King of the Niger region has been defeated by the French, near Kerouane, on March 14th. This news is all the more important for the reason that the French forces in Senegal may attack Dahomey from the rear.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Drink Moy's soda—none better.

—An electric railroad is projected to connect Newark and Elizabeth.

—John Smith, drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 by judge Codington this morning.

—The subject of the mothers' meeting at the W. C. T. U. rooms to-morrow afternoon will be "Dress and Food".

—All will be welcome free of charge to the cake, candy and apron sale at the Park Place chapel to-morrow afternoon and evening.

—A pneumatic tire's the thing. Bogërs will put one on any wheel. Take down your old machine, have it refitted, and examine the Victor's virtues.

—A most pleasant evening may be spent any day this week at the Rebecca fair now in progress at the old common council chamber, 42 West Front street.

—Mrs. Green, a woman from Brooklyn, was arrested at the North avenue station last night for intoxication. She was locked up over night, and sent home by judge Codington this morning.

—A mothers' meeting will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms, Crescent building, to-morrow afternoon at 3:30. Every one is welcome, but the members especially ask the mothers to come. Mrs. Fernald will preside.

—The soda-water that refreshes and rejuvenates is that sold by Moy, at whose attractive store may be found a full line of toilet and fancy articles, and where prescriptions are carefully compounded of pure drugs.

—"The empress of circo-comedy" is Miss Nellie McHenry's latest title. Nellie gave the public the first comedy of this character, and her great success is now a matter of general knowledge. She has earned the title.

—The members of the kitchen-garden committee will give a "rainbow tea" May 10, at the W. C. T. U. rooms. The kitchen-garden will exhibit their work. An orchestra from Newark will render music during the evening.

—Thomas Lee, aged thirty-eight, of Boston, was thrown from an express train on the Jersey Central, Monday night, at Elizabeth, while passing from one car to another. His collar bone was broken and his head badly cut.

—The Young Crestons of Plainfield would like to arrange base-ball games with any nine whose members are under 17 years of age, and their captain, T. Muldowney, requests THE PRESS to issue a challenge to that effect.

—A tea will be given by the Ladies' Christian Work society of the Trinity Reformed church at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tier, Bank place, to-morrow evening, from 5 to 9, for the benefit of the church debt. A pleasant evening is promised to all who attend.

—The irrepressible small boy is baffled at last. There is no possible way for him to steal under the canvas of Nellie McHenry's "A Night at the Circus", and as the elephant is only used to haul the money from the theatres he is seldom thirsty, and no boys are necessary to carry water.

—The Westfield Musical society will produce Gounod's sacred triology "The Redemption" to-morrow evening, at the Congregational church, under the direction of C. Mortimer Wiske, with the following cast; Mrs. Anna Burg, soprano; Miss Alice Mandelick, contralto; George W. Campbell, tenor; Dr. Carl Martin and G. Lane, bassos. There will be an orchestra of thirty musicians.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Broker Mulford has sold the handsome residence of James L. Anthony, on Belvidere avenue, Netherwood, to Mr. Reinhart, a prominent New York railroad man, who will occupy the place after June 1.

North Plainfield's Delegates.

At the Republican primary held at Spencer's hall last evening Dr. H. K. Carroll acted as chairman and H. N. Spencer as secretary. The Hon. Chas. Place and H. N. Spencer were elected delegates to the State convention, and Capt. W. C. Smith and ex-councilman P. A. Emmons were elected to the Congressional convention, both to be held at Trenton April 28.

Better Sidewalks in the Borough.

William N. Pangborn is proving himself a most wide-awake and efficient borough marshal. Of late he has been very busy inspecting sidewalks throughout the borough, something which previous marshals have neglected. To-night he will make an exhaustive report to the committee, and as a result of his enterprise all disordered walks will be put into good condition.

BRIBERY IN THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW YORK, April 20.—An important arrest was made to-day in connection with recent Custom House frauds. Otto Schneider, of the firm of Carl Pustau & Co. of 134 Pearl street, was arrested at his place of business by United States deputy-marshal Van Buskirk, and brought before United States commissioner Shields. Schneider was admitted to $2,000 bail, which was furnished by William A. Brown & Co. of 124 Pearl street. It was revealed this morning that the man arrested last night was John Fortman, a clerk of the firm of Carl Pustau & Co.

Both arrests were made on complaints that the citizens bribed an assistant United States weigher to pass certain goods at less than their weight. In that way the amount of duty to be paid would be much less.

Among the Books at the Outing Sale.

The Easter "outing sale" in the new Unitarian church opened in excellent style last night, and was liberally patronized. To-night the sale will doubtless attract a throng of people. A delightful feature of the affair is the bevy of young people costumed as early spring flowers, who give a charming entertainment.

One of the many attractive tables is "For the Journey", presided over by Mrs. Pond. Here are those precious autograph books that THE PRESS has already spoken of. Among the autographs on sale are those of Maria L. Child, Edward Eggleston, Oliver W. Holmes, James Russell Lowell, Wendell Phillips, Charles Sumner, Frank R. Stockton and John G. Whittier.

Among the pretty sentiments inscribed in autograph are the following:

Lo! I have fared and fared again,
Far up and down the ways of men,
And found no path I strayed along
As happy as the hills of song.
—Clinton Scollard.

BASE-BALL CHATTER.

Gossipy Paragraphs About the Game that Will Interest the Kranks.

The Young Men's Catholic association base-ball team, of Elizabeth, are preparing for the coming season, and have put the following team in the field: Francis, pitcher; Rafferty, catcher; C. F. Bowes, first base; Leddy, second base; Al Williams, third base; T. Murray, short stop; John Dillon, left field; John F. Coogan, formerly of the Newark club, centre field; August Moran, right field; Thomas Egan, substitute.

The club has joined the Central New Jersey league, composed of clubs from Westfield, Plainfield, Somerville and Elizabeth. They have secured grounds at Elizabethport, opposite the station of the Central railroad. The season opens on May 4, when the Elizabeths play the New Jersey Athletic club. The schedule, so far made up, is as follows: May 7, Seton Hall College team, at Elizabethport; May 14, Plainfield club, at Elizabethport; May 18, New Jersey Athletic club, at Bergen Point. On May 21 a schedule will be begun with the Somerville club.

The Westfield club's battery will be J. O'Neil, pitcher, and Thomas O'Rourke, catcher. Somerville will have John Harkins, pitcher, and "Doc" Kennedy, catcher. Jack Farrell, who is well-known in Newark base-ball circles, will play second base for Somerville.

Wyckware—Laing

The following wedding note is from the Rev. C. L. Goodrich's monthly paper, Our Church:

"The pastor officiated at a quiet home wedding at 11 West Fourth street, last month, and in consequence Miss Lizzie Laing is no longer Miss Lizzie but Mrs. Lizzie Wyckware. It was perhaps something of a surprise to some of the friends, as there had been report of a severed engagement, but from time immemorial it has been the privilege of young lovers to disagree and then agree again. It was thought best, however, to have the wedding a private one. No invitations were issued."

I FEEL it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintance have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

LET IT BE A CHAPEL SOON.

Healthful Progress and Bright Prospects of the Baptists' Third Street Mission.

Most people in Plainfield know that there is a mission in the eastern part of the city, but as to its work in detail very little is known among the majority.

The East Third Street mission, as it is called, was started last August with the tent work, as already told in these columns, under the supervision of the Young People's League of the First Baptist church. The enthusiasm and zeal put into the work by the young people made it a success from the start, and at no time was there any doubt as to results. The meetings have always been characterized by that freedom of spirit which is an assurance of the best results. Those who have attended these meetings know that the work and workers have been wonderfully blessed, and that any expenditure of time and labor has been amply rewarded.

The week previous to giving up the tent and going in the house provided for this work it was thought best to try to start a Sunday-school, which was very much needed in that community. Walter C. Dobbins canvassed the entire neighborhood searching for those who did not attend any school. The result of that week's work was that on the following Sunday 18 had responded to the calls made, and that they were ready for work. The interest shown gave much encouragement, and although Mr. Dobbins and one or two of the other workers had to go in person to some of the houses and bring the children to the school, it was with no other purpose nor aim than to have them learn about the Master, which they endeavored to teach in as simple a manner as possible, so that all could understand.

The school had been fairly organized when L. Warren Randolph was appointed superintendent of the mission. At that time the field was again canvassed, from time to time, and more children were secured to attend the school who had never been in the habit of going anywhere. Steadily the school has been growing, until now the attendants number about 60. The regular meetings have been on the increase, and now the rooms are crowded on Sunday and Thursday evenings with those anxious to hear the Gospel. Some of the city's best Christian workers have led these meetings, and both they and their hearers have received blessings and have always been desirous of coming again. During the past months, entertainments have been held at different times, and it has been a pleasing feature of this work. On one or two occasions popular talks have been given which were thoroughly enjoyed.

W. F. Richards, who recently came to the mission, has shown that he has the true spirit. He at at once started a boys' prayer meeting, which has been one of the most promising features of the work. Mr. Richards is very popular among the boys, and one better adapted to the work could not have been secured. Closely following this, a young women's meeting was organized, in charge of Miss Emma Thorn, who was assisted by Miss Florence Dodge. These two meetings are held each Sunday evening, previous to the regular meeting, and have been well attended. Much interest has been shown, and several conversions have been reported.

There is now a faithful corps of workers in the mission who are laboring earnestly for the Master and for the saving of souls. Those who are teaching at this place are Miss Maggie Rocap, Miss Florence Dodge, H. E. Needham, Irving Brady, and W. F. Richards. L. W. Randolph is the superintendent, and has entire charge of the mission.

It might also be stated that a piano has recently been purchased, funds for which have been raised by those connected with the mission. It is hoped that the time may not be far distant when a handsome chapel will be erected for this most important work.

A Rare Artistic Programme.

The piano recital to be given by Albert Venino at the Casino next week Thursday evening deserves the attendance of every lover of fine music. The high quality of the entertainment may be inferred from the following programme:

You're through with Catarrh, finally and completely,—or you have $500 in cash.

That's what is promised you, no matter how bad your case or of how long standing, by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Catarrh can be cured. Not with the poisonous, irritating snuffs and strong, caustic solutions, that simply palliate for a time, or perhaps, drive the disease to the lungs—but with Dr. Sage's Remedy.

The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. "Cold in the Head," needs but a few applications. Catarrhal Headache, and all the effects of Catarrh in the Head—such as offensive breath, loss or impairment of the senses of taste, smell and hearing, watering or weak eyes—are at once relieved and cured.

In thousands of cases, where everything else has failed, Dr. Sage's Remedy has produced perfect and permanent cures. That gives its proprietors faith to make the offer. It's $500, or a cure. They mean to pay you, if they can't cure you.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

PROGRESS OF THE WATER SCHEME.

Westfield Soon to Have Its Supply from the Netherwood Stand-pipe.

[From The Elizabeth Journal.]

The Hon. John Kean, jr., president of the Union Water company, and Frank Bergen, counsel for the company, met the Township committee at Westfield Monday evening and discussed the plan of the company to extend a water main from Netherwood to Elizabeth, supplying Fanwood, Westfield, Cranford and Roselle on the way. The main has already been laid as far as Fanwood, and the encouragement received from conferences with citizens and officials of the towns has led the company to a decision to proceed at once with the work. The first car-load of pipe arrived at Fanwood Monday morning, and was unloaded during the day. A force of fifteen laborers are already encamped near Fanwood, and will begin work as soon as sufficient pipe arrives to give them steady employment. The actual work of laying the mains will no doubt be commenced during the present week under the supervision of Messrs. Doud & Rice, the energetic contractors who laid thirty miles of mains in Plainfield and North Plainfield last summer, often accomplishing the extraordinary feat of laying half a mile of pipe a day with one gang of men.

The company say that with favorable weather they will be able to lay a mile a week of the principal main, so that after allowing for storms and interruptions the people of Westfield may have the pleasure of seeing the main laid through the town before the first of June.

There seemed to be little difference of opinion between the representatives of the company and the officials of Westfield at the meeting Monday evening. In fact, everyone appeared anxious to promote the work as rapidly as possible.

Jersey Statesmen on a Western Jaunt.

A merry and congenial party of New Jersey statesmen, consisting of senator M. T. Barrett, comptroller James F. Connelly, superintendent B. J. Ford, water commissioner Thomas Harlan, the Hon. John Kennell, senator John Hinchliffe, assemblyman Thomas F. Lane, and world's fair commissioner Peter Hauck, have been enjoying a trip to the celebrated Hot Springs of Arkansas. The trip had been in contemplation for many weeks and had been eagerly looked forward to during the closing weeks of the recent session of the legislature, at which all members of the party had been more or less active. The statesmen have been writing long letters home to their friends, and to the Newark newspapers, describing the delights of the Hot Springs region, and their praise is unbounded of the courtesies and excellent service extended by the management of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railway. They speak in highest terms of the beautiful scenery along the Iron Mountain route, and of the comforts, conveniences, luxuries and pleasures of travel on that road. The Iron Mountain service, they say, is simply superb, and they recommend all who want a royal good time to take the same trip. The Iron Mountain route penetrates a region reached by no other first-class road, and all who contemplate a western trip should arrange with W. E. Hoyt, 391 Broadway, New York, for Iron Mountain passage.

A Choice and Artistic Series.

A most delightful set of literary companions are the volumes of the "Choice Series" issued semi-monthly by Robert Bonner's Sons, corner William and Spruce streets, New York. The books are printed in large, clear type, on fine paper, nicely bound, and handsomely illustrated. Only the best of modern fiction is admitted to the series. Among the charming tales of recent issue are that fascinating problem "Was She Wife or Widow?", by Malcolm Bell; the famous French novel "The Country Doctor", by Honore de Balzac; the entrancing "Floribel's Lover; or, Rival Belles", by the popular authoress Laura Jean Libbey; and the intensely dramatic story from real life, "Lida Campbell", by Jean Kate Ludlum. These are all most excellent books, and are just the sort of companions to while away the lazy spring and summer days. One can always be sure of a superior volume by drawing on the "Choice Series", which will be supplied by the publishers or by any newsdealer.

To the New Lands by Way of Iron Mountain.

Great tracts of free land are being opened up by the government along the famous Iron Mountain route, which runs fast excursion trains daily from St. Louis. Those desiring to enter the race for success in the development of this garden-spot should take a trip without delay over the Iron Mountain railroad, concerning which time-tables, tickets, and full information will be furnished by W. E. Hoyt, general eastern passenger agent, 391 Broadway, New York.

SOMERSET COUNTY COURTS.

Fresh Details of Interesting Cases Now on Trial at Somerville.

The first case called in the Somerset county courts yesterday afternoon was that of the estate of Gaston against Young, who was sued on a promissory note for $2,000 and interest. After hearing the evidence, the counsel, Messrs. Clark and Lindabury, agreed and so informed the court. The judge then instructed the jury to render their verdict for $2,625.

The next case was that of a Mr. Cister, who sold a meat market in New York city to Randolph & King. The consideration was $1,400. Payment was made by a note for nine months of $900, and a check for $500. The business was turned over. Mr. Cister cashed the check, but to use the note he returned it to them for an endorser. Mr. King held the note for a few days and claimed that his brother allowed him to indorse or sign his name to the note.

Mr. Cister, believing the note to be all right, accepted it, and when due presented it for payment. Payment was refused. He neglected to have it protested, and a few days after he sued the firm and was awarded judgment. He now sues the indorser, Mr. King, and the court declared a non-suit.

The third case was that of a school teacher who sued the trustees of district 51, for $650. An agreement was made between the teacher and the trustees, agreeing to hire him to teach, and when he came to the school to teach he was informed that had employed another; hence the suit. The case was in progress when court adjourned.

This morning the first business taken up was the Hillsboro election contest. Mr. Bergen addressed the court in behalf of the Democrats, and held that there was no evidence that the returns were tampered with. He was willing to leave it to the court. Mr. Schenck arose to address the court. The judge held that it would be unnecessary. After a lengthy address he excluded all evidence and said that he would take all necessary steps himself, and suggested that it be put down for Friday morning.

The case of Mr. Lent and the trustees of District 51 was called. Mr. Scully, one of the trustees, was placed on the witness stand, and acknowledged the agreement and his signature as correct. Mr. Carroll, another trustee, was called and acknowledged his signature to the agreement as correct. Jacob V. A. Wilson, district clerk, was placed on the stand and was asked if all the minutes were in his book. He said no. The book was offered in evidence.

Mr. Lent, the teacher, was next called. He stated that at a meeting of the trustees he was informed by the clerk that he was engaged, and was asked to draw up an agreement, which he did. The trustees signed the agreement. Mr. Schenck arose, and informed the court that as no services were rendered he claimed there was no breach of contract. The judge told him to cross-examine the witness.

Mr. Schenck addressed the jury in behalf of School District 51. Mr. Betts was then called as a member of the State board of education. He stated that he had seen the letter which was in evidence. Mr. Wilson, district clerk, was again called, and stated that at the meeting there was no objection offered against Mr. Lent. He said he did not say to Mr. Lent that he could consider himself engaged, and that he only signed the agreement on consideration that the new board would ratify it. After he had taken the census he found that a large majority were opposed to him as teacher, and so informed Mr. Lent.

Francis H. LaBaw, trustee, was called. He said that he told Mr. Lent that he had three months in the old term to act as teacher and if he would build up the school he would agree to hire him for the next term. He had heard so much opposition later that he refused to hire him, and he left the meeting in disgust. While on the stand he made considerable laughing in the court room, by his peculiar method of answering questions in cross-examination.

Mr. Scully was again called, and stated that he told Mr. Lent where he could get a better position.

At this point court adjourned to 2 p. m.

A Prosperous Working-man's Benefit.

The Pond Machine Tool Works Beneficial association at their recent semi-yearly meeting had a large and enthusiastic attendance. After speeches of congratulation and the report by the treasurer, R. B. York, all the old officers were unanimously re-elected as follows:

President—John W. James.
Vice-president—Thomas Fox.
Secretary—Robert Gow.
Treasurer—R. B. York.
Trustees—Lewis Morgan, Charles Quarford, Hiram A. Mears.

H. A. Mears was elected to fill the vacancy of the trustee whose term had expired. The sick visiting committee was chosen as follows: Edwin Lewis, Thomas Reed, John Dayton, Robert McInnis, Reuben Jones, R. Fulton and John Strandberg.

The treasurer reported that since the formation of the society $850 95 had been collected by dues and assessments, and $722.71 expended in death and sick benefits. Early after the society was organized two members died and $100 for each had to be raised, so an assessment of 25 cents was levied on each member for six weeks, and to-day the association is well on its feet. In one week, about New Year's Day, there were 15 on the sick list at once and notwithstanding the drawbacks which have occurred the officers have made a good showing for the first six months of the association's existence.

A Desperado Defying Arrest.

BANGOR, Me., April 20.—George Nadeau, the French-Canadian desperado who shot United States Deputy Sheriff McNally recently, is in St. Francis, on the Northern border where, armed very heavily, he defies arrest. An expedition is being arranged against him, and it is probable that there will be some loss of life before he is captured, as he threatens to shoot himself rather than be taken alive.

Death of Brig.-Gen. Burns.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—A telegram has been received here announcing the sudden death at Beaufort, S. C., of Brig.-Gen. W. W. Burns, retired. Gen. Burns had been spending the winter in the South, where he had business interests, and was accompanied by his eldest daughter. Mrs. Burns has spent the winter in this city. It is expected that the body will be brought here Friday for interment in Arlington cemetery.

New York's Excise Bill Passed.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 20.—The Excise bill as it passed the House has been passed by the Senate without an amendment, by a strict party vote. The Sunday clause is stricken out, but the all-night selling clause for cities of 30,000 is in, and the civil damage act is killed. Saloons are forbid to exist within 200 feet of a church or school entrance. The bill now goes to the Governor.

No Trouble at Cohoes.

COHOES, N. Y., April 20.—At a meeting of the Board of Canvassers last night the entire Republican city ticket was declared elected. There was an immense crowd of excited people in the streets, and 100 citizens were armed ready to preserve order, but no trouble occurred.

Four Negroes Lynched.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 20.—Four negroes were taken from the jail at Inverness, near Ocala, Fla., yesterday by a mob of 100 masked men and lynched. They were suspected of the murder of Stevenson and Payne.

A Threatened Railroad War.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., April 20.—A railroad war is threatened at Lost Creek, where the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad intend making connection with their Lehigh Valley division over an electric road. The Reading yesterday tore up the tracks of the electric road for a hundred feet or more. The electric road will probably retaliate, and lively times are expected.

A Keely Patient Attempts Suicide.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Benjamin Deforest, a dissipated youth, whose family are wealthy, shot himself while in a cab on Fifteenth street, this city, shortly after midnight. He had recently been in the Keely institute at White Plains. He was crazy from the effects of liquor when the shooting occurred. He was not badly hurt.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. That the roadbed of Farragut Road extending from the northwest side of East Front street to Green Brook, be forthwith repaired and spread with broken stone for a width of eight feet on each side of the centre line of said street, and for a depth of six inches, at the general expense of the city to be paid for, after first applying the direct contribution of property owners, out of the money raised by tax for the improvement of streets, as provided by the act of the Legislature entitled "An act to authorize cities to make permanent improvements in the roadbeds of the street at the general expense", approved May 13, 1884.

Sec. 2. That before any work shall be done under this ordinance, the property owners along the line of the proposed improvements shall deposit with the City Treasurer one-half the estimated cost of the same to be determined by the Street Commissioner.

Adopted by the Common Council April 11, 1892.

Approved by the Mayor April 18, 1892.

A. GILBERT, Mayor.

Attest:—F. W. RUNYON, City Clerk.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

TO THOMAS K. EGBERT:—

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein Matilda M. Wood is complainant, and you and others are defendants,

You are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainant, on or before the Seventh Day of June next, or said bill will be taken as confessed against you. The said bill is filed to foreclose a certain mortgage, made by Anna B. Miller and husband to said complainant upon land in Plainfield, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey. And you are made defendant, because you hold or claim to hold a mortgage upon the said property.

VAN EMBURGH & WHITE SAY:

You are out for bargains and there is no store in the county that offer as many as we do. We buy goods in the auction rooms or anywhere else, little difference does it make to us, as long as we underbuy and undersell others. That wall of auction goods remnants and seconds only swells the crowd at our busy store. We are out for the business and will make it to your advantage to come here and buy your goods.

For Ten Cents

You buy Remnants of Gilbert Silesia 2 yard Lengths. Others charge 18c. yard for same goods off of piece.

For Eight Cents

You take your choice of 50 Styles of Fine Dress Ginghams.

Never before have we displayed as fine an assortment of Mattings as we are this Season. And the prices will surprise you. Think of a jointless Matting for 20c. (Bought it at Auction.)

For Two Dollars

You buy Porch Curtains that are handy to have when the Sun shines and you want to sit on your Porch.

For Six Cents.

You buy fine Challies Beautiful. Styles they are.

For Four Cents

You buy Merrimac Shirting Prints.

For Forty-Five Cents.

You buy a 70-in all Linen Cream Damasked Table Linen, that is well worth 60c.

For One Twenty.

You buy One Doz. all Linen Dinner Napkins.

For Twenty-five Cents

You buy Fast Black Ladies, Hose, that others ask 30c for.

SPRING JACKETS.

We are offering Extra Inducements in this department this Season, and it will pay you to visit this department when in the store.

Don't forget us when anything is wanted in Tin-ware, Crockery, Glass and Granite Iron-ware. We keep everything in Housefurnishings.

SELECTION OF MEAT.

A Diagram of a Carcass with the Various Cuts Mapped Out.

"I shall never forget my various blunders when I first began to market," said a veteran housekeeper, "my utter ignorance and consequent mortification when I asked for this and that at the butcher's, accepting whatever they gave me for fear of displaying my ignorance." Perhaps it will help some readers therefore if we give a diagram of a carcass with the various cuts mapped out and labeled. It is also well to remember in this connection that beef should be a bright red with yellowish fat and a somewhat loose grain. When it is poor or too old it is usually dark red with hard, skinny fat. But among the many other wise excellent housekeepers how few there are who do their own marketing; and even if they do, it is confined as a rule to some retail establishment in the neighborhood, which necessarily must be more or less restricted as well as expensive.

Variety of food cannot be too much recommended; not only is it recognized by the faculty as being of great advantage to the human system, but it is instinctive with us all to view the table with a more complaisant spirit when spread with something to break the a, porterhouse steak; b, sirloin; c, middle ribs; d, fore ribs; e, rump; f, mouse buttock; g, chuck ribs; h, round; i, clod; j, shoulder; k, brisket; l, thin flank; m, thick flank; n, leg; o, shin; p, neck.

usual humdrum repetitions. Without a frequent visit to markets, with their ever-changing stores, it is impossible to know of the many good things we might continually have. A novice feels some confusion at first in one of these big places, especially in the hurrying bustle of the morning hours, and it is well to make the maiden trip with some experienced person. But the ropes are quickly learned and when you have established your butcher and poultry dealer (for it is best always to go to the same people, as they will then take an interest in serving you and pick you out better meat) you will find it easy enough, and the result will fully repay you for the little extra trouble it may cost by giving you a far greater variety at considerable less cost.—N. Y. Tribune.

UNIQUE WHISK HOLDER.

It Can Be Made from a Butcher's Cuff and Four Yards of Hemp.

A very useful as well as an ornamental whisk holder is made from a butcher's cuff and four yards of hemp. Loop the hemp around the top of the cuff so as to form a trimming. Make three large loops of the hemp, placing them in the center of the cuff with ends about one-quarter of a yard long. Fringe these ends out, take one and a half yards of No. 16 ribbon and make an Alsatian bow, and twine it in with the loops of the hemp, and use one-half yard of No. 9 ribbon to twine in and out through the loops of the hemp which has formed the trimming at the top. For the handle, take one-half yard of hemp, and sew it to the sides of the cuff. Make a bow of hemp and sew it to the handle, and fringe out the ends one-eighths of a yard. Finish off by sewing a small bow of No. 9 ribbon over the hemp bow, which should be a little larger than the ribbon one.—Ladies' Home Journal.

A Good Washing Fluid.

Dissolve one pound of sal-soda and half a pound of lime in five quarts of water, and boil for a few minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from the fire, and allow it to settle; pour off the clear liquid into a stone jar and cork for use. Half a teacupful of this fluid added to a half boiler of boiling water on wash days will save a great deal of labor.

The Proper Way to Boil Starch.

Always mix starch in cold water until free from lumps; pour on boiling water, stirring well until the proper consistency; boil ten minutes, add a little lard, butter or shavings of spermaceti or prepared gum arabic; then cool.

One Sign of Whooping Cough.

Whooping cough may be recognized in the early stage, sometimes (before the cough has become characteristic), by the patient's dread of light, inability to bear light, and by dilation of the pupil of the eye.

The Medicinal Use of Eggs.

It may not be generally known that there is nothing more soothing for either a burn or a scald than the white of an egg. It is contact with the air which makes a burn so painful, and the egg acts as a varnish and excludes the air completely and also prevents inflammation. An egg beaten up lightly with or without a little sugar is a good remedy in cases of dysentery and diarrhea. It tends by its emollient qualities to lessen the inflammation, and by forming a transient coating for the stomach and intestines gives those organs a chance to rest until nature shall have assumed her healthful sway over the diseased body. Two, or at the most three, eggs a day would be all that would be required in ordinary cases, and since the egg is not only medicine but food the lighter the diet otherwise, and the quieter the patient is kept, the more rapid will be recovery.

Keeping Pastry Fresh.

The question is often asked: "How long will pastry keep?" It can be kept in cold weather for a number of days, providing a damp cloth is laid over it, or in case of puff paste it may be rubbed on the outside with butter and covered closely. This prevents a hard crust forming over the paste, as it is certain to do if it is put away on a plate or in a bowl without a cover.

The Result of Observation.

He—I don't see how a girl can marry a man she's known only two weeks!

She—And I don't see how she can marry one she's known longer.—Life.

Hires' Root Beer.

A perfect thirst quencher.

Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

WHAT TO EAT

is a difficult problem with many people because but few articles of food agree with them. The doctor says and the result is unpalatable food. The reason the physician objects to grease is because lard is the article most used, and every physician knows that hog lard in any shape is unhealthy and indigestible.

Every one interested in pure and healthful food hails with joy the new product which is composed of pure cottonseed oil and pure beef suet—nothing else—not even salt. It is better than either lard or butter for all cooking purposes, and one pound of Cottolene will do as much as two pounds of lard or butter, and it costs less than either.

Every housekeeper that tries Cottolene will find in it just what she wants.

Beware of imitations—get the geniune of your grocer.

STATE CONVENTIONS

Republicans at Harrisburg, Boston and Columbia.

DEMOCRATS AT SALINA, KAN.

Most of the Delegates Elected Favorable to Harrison.

Judge Dean Wins the Nomination for Judge of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court—McDowell and Lilly Nominated for Congressmen-at-Large—Ex-Governor Ames Defeated for Delegate at Boston—Other Convention News.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 21.—When the Republican State Convention reassembled yesterday afternoon the Committee on Permanent Organization recommended E. K. Martin of Lancaster for permanent chairman, and he was accordingly selected.

Nominations for Judge of the Supreme Court were then in order, and the following names were presented: Judge John Dean, of Blair; Judge John G. Henderson, of Crawford county; Judge Thomas Ewing, of Allegheny; R. W. Archbald, of Lackawanna; Judge Wilbur Sadler, of Cumberland; Thomas J. Clayton, of Delaware; Judge Henry White, of Indiana.

The first ballot resulted: Sadler, 61; Dean 40, Henderson 42, White, 39, Archbald, 37, Ewing 30, Clayton 12.

There was great confusion during the progress of the eight ballots taken before a nomination was made. The last ballot stood: Dean 135, Henderson 127, Ewing 7, Sadler 1.

Judge Dean's nomination was made unanimous, and the convention then took a recess until 9 o'clock.

Candidates for Congressmen-at-large were then presented as follows: Gen. William Lilly, Major Alexander McDowell, George A. Castor and Austin L. Taggart.

The ballot resulted: McDowell 195, Lilly 137, Taggart 108, Castor 93. The nominations of McDowell and Lilly were made unanimous.

The following delegates and electors at large were elected:

Electors at Large—B. F. Jones, Pittsburg; William Wood, Philadelphia; J. F. Dunlap, Lancaster; W. H. Sayn, Delaware.

Delegates at Large—William L. Elkins and Hamilton Disston, Philadelphia; General Frank Reeder, Easton; Henry W. Oliver, Pittsburg; Senator William Flynn, Pittsburg; S. A. Davenport, Erie; Henry C. McCormick, Lycoming; Lyman D. Gilbert, Dauphin.

At 9:50 the convention adjourned sine die.

The platform adopted in the morning declared for President Harrison, endorsed the McKinley tariff act, declared against free coinage of silver and protested against undesirable immigration. The services of Secretary Blaine were warmly praised.

BAY STATE REPUBLICANS.

An Enthusiastic Convention Yesterday—Delegates Elected.

BOSTON, April 21.—The Republican State Convention for the election of four delegates at large and four alternates to the National Convention at Minneapolis, June 21, was held in Tremont Temple yesterday. Mr. Rotch seky, the secretary of the Republican State Committee, read the call at 11:15, and Mr. E. S. Draper was made temporary chairman of the convention.

After the appointment of the regular committees the Committee on Permanent Organization made their report, and Hon. William C. Lovering of Taunton, the permanent chairman, was conducted to the chair. Mr. Lovering was greeted with applause, and made a lengthy address.

The platform was then adopted. It declares against free silver; declares that the substitution of a free trade for a protective tariff would be fraught with disaster; commends the system of commercial treaties which seeks the rational expansion of our foreign trade arrangements having regard to the peculiar laws and products of each nation; commends the Civil Service law; denounces the revolutionary acts of the Democrats in Republican States where they have gained control, either by accident or fraud; favors the enactment of a national bankruptcy law, and endorses the administration of President Harrison.

Nominations were then made and the convention, after taking a ballot, adjourned, and upon reconvening the result was announced as follows:

Whole number of ballots, 1,129; necessary to a choice, 565; W. Murray Crane of Dalton, 1,091; William W. Crapo of New Bedford, 1,090; William Cogswell of Salem, 1,087; J. Q. A. Brackett of Arlington, 980; Oliver Ames of Easton, 167; Elmer H. Copen of Somerville, 29; scattering, 18.

Messrs. Crane, Crapo, Cogswell and Brackett were declared elected.

IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Delegates Instructed to Vote for Harrison to the End.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 21.—The State Convention of old line Republicans continued in session until daylight. George W. Murray, a negro from Sumter, was chosen permanent chairman, and the colored portion of the convention saw to it that they had equal share of all of the offices filled.

Resolutions were adopted denouncing the so-called "reform" or white man's Republican party in this State as a fraudulent imposition: endorsing the present National administration, and reiterating loyalty to the principles of National Republicanism.

The following were elected delegates-at-large to the National Republican Convention at Minneapolis:

E. A. Webster, white, present State Chairman and Collector of Internal Revenue; Ellery M. Brayton, ex-State Chairman and ex-Collector; Dr. W. B. Crum of Charleston, a light mulatto and E. H. Bess of Darlington, also colored.

A resolution was adopted instructing the delegation to support the nomination of Harrison for President as long as his name is before the convention.

Indiana Democratic State Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 21.—The Democratic State Convention meets in this city to-day. It will choose four delegates to Chicago and will nominate candidates for Governor, Lieut.-Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor-Treasurer, Attorney-General, Superintendent of Instruction, Statistician, Reporter of the Supreme Court, three Supreme and five Appellate Judges. The indications are that the convention will be one of the most hotly contested in the history of the State.

Kansas Democrats for Cleveland.

SALINA, Kan., April 21.—The Kansas Democratic convention yesterday, after its Committee on Resolutions had spent five hours arguing and wrangling over the silver question adopted its report, declaring for the free bi-metal coinage of both gold and silver, and instructing the delegates to vote for Cleveland, while his name remained before the Chicago convention. The six delegates-at-large are the leaders of the Cleveland movement in the State.

THE MAYNARD REPORT.

That Exculpating the Judge Adopted By the New York Legislature.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 21.—Mr. Husted was very hoarse when he rose in the Assembly yesterday to move the adoption of the minority report in the Maynard case. He commented at length upon the evidence, drawing the conclusion that Judge Maynard should be removed in accordance with the resolution adopted by the Republican members of the investigating committee. He held that Maynard had committed one of the gravest offenses known to the criminal law and that he had done this while a State official, that he had since his elevation to the bench approved and defended his course, and thereby had made himself liable to impeachment and removal.

Mr. Husted occupied about 35 minutes, after which Mr. Sulzer spoke in defense of Judge Maynard, saying that he had been completely justified by the evidence. Mr. Sulzer was severe upon "the little clique of lawyers who had taken up the cry of the Mugwump papers against Judge Maynard."

He closed with a glowing eulogy upon Maynard, pronouncing him one of the grandest figures in the history of the State.

Mr. Sulzer spoke for about half an hour.

Mr. Stranahan spoke at length in support of the minority report.

The majority report was adopted by a party vote.

The Senate also adopted the majority report.

The Legislature adjourns at noon today.

ANNIE WALDEN'S CASE.

Beginning of Her Trial for the Murder of Her Youthful Husband.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Annie Walden, the 21-year-old girl who is charged with the premeditated murder of her 20-year-old husband. James Walden, son of Peter Walden, the horse trainer, on the night of Oct. 31. 1891., on Broadway, has been placed on trial for her life in the Court of Oyer and Terminer.

The girl, it is charged, got young Walden to leave a house of questionable character on the night of the murder in thirty-eight street and shot him. The prisoner is a pretty woman. She is about 5 feet 2 inches tall, has a small, neat figure, and very pretty brown eyes and hair.

In court to-day the frail little creature was dressed in deep mourning, and wore a black vail completely hiding her face.

She seems to have had no girlhood, for she had attained a questionable sort of fame long before she married Jimmie Walden in Camden while both were on a spree last September.

Annie was known to men who frequent the race tracks as Kittie Marshall, who bet her money on the horses just like a man, only more recklessly and with phenomenal luck.

She had been the heroine of at least one liaison before she met Jeter Walden's boy, and once called herself Mrs. Katie Delmar, in honor or otherwise of a Brooklyn man with whom she had lived.

Mrs. Walden was accompanied by three women friends. She was looking much better and brighter than she has since her case was called. She said that she felt much better, too. Her confinement in the Tombs told terribly on her.

Before the case was resumed Judge Ingraham sentenced John Osmond, who was convicted last week of the murder of his wife, to death. Osmond shot and killed his wife Mary and his cousin, John C. Burchell, at 609 Third avenue on October 3, 1891. Jealousy was at the bottom of it.

These Chinese Will Not Be Admitted.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Treasury Department has decided not to admit to the United States as citizens of Great Britain Chinese who come to Canada and take out naturalization papers. In this connection, the Treasury Department was yesterday advised that more than 500 Chinese had arrived on one vessel at Victoria, B. C. Instructions were immediately telegraphed to all United States Chinese inspectors and Customs officials on the border to keep a close look-out for the Chinese, as it is feared that they will endeavor to come into the United States.

Sister Mary Celesta Leaves Convent for Stage.

SENSATION AMONG CATEOLICS

It Is Thought She Will Renounce Both Her Religion and Vow.

Miss Lulu Willcox, a Member of One of Hartford's Most Aristocratic Families, Entered St. Joseph's Convent Fifteen Years Ago—She Was a Convert to Catholicism—No Reason Given for Her Sudden Determination.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 21.—A bombshell has been thrown into the camp of Catholicism in this part of Connecticut by the withdrawal of the most prominent nun in the State from Mount St. Joseph's Convent to become a member of a comic opera company. Hartford people remember the stir occasioned some 15 years ago by the conversion from Protestantism to the Roman Catholic Church of Miss Lulu Willcox, a member of one of the most aristocratic families in the city, and a beautiful, charming and brilliant girl.

It was while pursuing her secular studies that Miss Willcox became imbued with the idea that Catholicity, and that alone, would work out her soul's salvation. With her, to think was to act, and, though bitterly opposed by her people when she formally announced her change of faith, she was not deterred.

Shortly after her conversion she entered the convent as a postulant, and in due time she was regularly received into the Sisterhood of Mercy.

Only the bare fact that Miss Willcox has withdrawn from the order is known. That she left voluntarily, however, is beyond question. During all her years as a sister her conduct had been exemplary. Miss Willcox entered the convent in the full bloom of youth; she leaves with all the charm of gracious young womanhood. Her religious name is Sister Mary Celesta. She was an especial favorite of all the scores of pupils who have attended the seminary since she became a member of the order.

Whatever may be the reason why Miss Willcox left the convent she was led to make that resolve quickly. Only the day before she gave up her garb and ring to the Mother Superior she seemed to be contented with her lot to the extent of extreme happiness.

When she announced her intention of leaving she was prevailed upon to remain until the bishop, who was away, would return, when she could apply for a dispensation; but she declined to do this, saying that she had made up her mind to leave and that it was best that she should go at once. This looks as if she meant to renounce the Roman Catholic religion as well as her vow. She intends to join a comic opera troupe, where her musical accomplishments will be utilized.

Case of Murderer Maguire.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., April 21.—The trial of Fred Maguire, charged with the murder of Mrs. Gregory at Middletown, on Oct. 14, 1891, will go to the jury to-day. The defense made a very strong case. Julia Goldsmith, sister of the murdered woman, testified that she had discovered on the porch of the night of the murder a footprint marked with blood. It was the mark of a woman's shoe. The story of Maguire, backed up by other evidence, leads many prominent attorneys of the city to be of the opinion that no jury will convict him of the crime charged against him.

Hall Cannot Fight in September.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Jim Hall said yesterday that he could not consent to the request of the Olympic Club of New Orleans to fight Fitzsimmons the same week that Sullivan and Corbett fight. He has made arrangements to make a tour of England, and the carrying out of his engagements in that country will not permit him to get ready for a fight in September. He does not expect any trouble in agreeing upon another date.

Incendiary Heal Confesses.

BATH, Me., April 21. — Heal, the young man who confessed yesterday to incendiarism, has given information against an associate named Jack McDonald. Heal claims that they entered into a conspiracy to set the Saturday night fires, Heal setting the barn fire and McDonald setting fire to the buildings in the ship yard. Heal has partly revealed his connection with other incendiary fires. McDonald was arrested and placed under $5,000 bonds.

No Clue to Murderer Bieber.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 21.—No clue has yet been found of the whereabouts of Peter Bierber, the wife murderer. The police think he has shipped on one of lake craft, the police at all the lake ports have been asked to keep a sharp lookout for him. The motive for the crime was jealousy, Mrs. Bierber having become infatuated with a negro named [illegible].

SHOBER HAS A HEARING.

A Committee Investigating the Alleged Drunkenness of the Pastor.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 21.—A committee, constituted by the venerable Archdeacon Ziegenfuss, of Poughkeepsie; Rev. Dr. Wright, of Highland; Rev. Dr. Olmstead, of Rhinebeck; Hon. Robert F. Wilkinson, of Poughkeepsie, and Dr. Langdon of the Hudson River State Hospital, met in the choir room of St. John's Episcopal Church at Barrytown, Dutchess County, yesterday, at the direction of Bishop Potter, for the purpose of hearing testimony as to the intemperate habits of Francis E. Shober who, until recently, was pastor of St. John's Church.

A large number of witnesses were examined, but the hearing was strictly private.

This is the case which caused a great sensation in social and religious circles hereabout last December. Mr. Shober, who was formerly a student at St. Stephen's College, married one of the Aspinwalls, and it was thought that their home, one of the grandest mansions on the Hudson, was a happy one. Suddenly there came a separation and the report from three doctors that the young clergyman had suffered an attack of delerium tremens. His deposition from the ministry followed shortly afterwards and then the separation.

A young student from St. Stephen's named Carver, of Philadelphia, was named as the principal cause of the difficulty.

The hearing was demanded by Mr. Shober, who insists that he has been cruelly wronged, and that the charges of intemperance are without foundation of fact. This being proved, he will ask to be reinstated in the ministry. The evidence adduced will be transmitted to Bishop Potter at once.

Mr. Shober has temporarily entered the newspaper field and is employed on the staff of the Poughkeepsie "News-Press" at the present time.

LADY SOMERSET'S VIEWS.

She Thinks the Temperance Question is the Coming Issue in the United States.

LIVERPOOL, April 21.—Lady Somerset, who has just arrived here from New York, allowed herself to be interviewed at length on American politics. She thinks that the temperance question is the coming issue in the United States and shortly will overshadow the Free Trade and Free Silver question.

She is confident that the Prohibitionists and the Farmers' Alliance people will form a coalition against the other parties, and that they will make Prohibition the test question in Presidential elections a few years hence.

The progress of the temperance people in American politics has been so enormous of late years, she says, that Englishmen who have not visited America recently have no conception of the political power of the Prohibitionists. As soon as the coalition of the two parties shall have been accomplished they will be able to dictate terms in many of the Western States and a few Eastern ones.

The Law Don't Expire Until 1893.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Mr. Sherman who had given notice of an intention to call up for immediate action the Chinese restriction bill, announced in the Senate that at that time the Committee on Foreign Relations had been of the opinion that the present restriction law would expire on the 6th of May next. But on a more careful examination of the amendments made to the act, May, 1893, he became satisfied that the restriction laws did not expire until July, 1894, so that their was no immediate pressure for the passage of the bill reported by the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mrs. Drayton to Re-enter Society.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Interest in the Drayton-Borrowe scandal is revived by the statement made by a connection of the Astor family that Mrs. Drayton has decided to resume her residence in this city and take her former position in society. In that effort, it is said, Mrs. Drayton will have the combined assistance of her parents and all the immediate members of her family. She is expected to spend the summer at Newport, after Mrs. Astor's house is opened for the season.

Bank Robber Dunlap's Case Again.

BOSTON, April 21.—The third hearing before the Pardon Committee of the case of James Dunlap, the Northampton bank robber, was held yesterday. Those present in Dunlap's behalf were President Edwards of the Northampton National Bank, Robert A. Pinkerton of New York, George Abbot James, Mrs. Mary Scott Rawland, ex-Gov. J. D. Long and several other prominent persons, who have been working for Dunlap's release for several years.

Sunol to Go Into Training.

FRANKLIN, Pa., April 21.—Sunol, the holder of the world's record for trotters, has arrived at Miller at Sibley stock farm and placed in charge of Trainer Marvin. Sunol will shortly be taken to the Meadville kite track and will go into training to reduce the record.

A COLLIERY HORROR

Many Miners Drowned Near Pottsville, Pa.

THE OLD WORKINGS GAVE WAY

Twelve Men Known to be Lost, and the List May Be Larger.

No Explanation Given as to the Cause of the Accident—Some One Thought to Have Blundered—The Lytle Coal Company, Which Owns the Mine, Are Tapping the Great Wolf Creek Colliery, Which is Filled With Water.

MINERSVILLE, Pa., April 21.—This town, located about four miles from Pottsville is greatly excited over a horrible accident late yesterday afternoon at the Lytle colliery, whereby ten or twelve have lost their lives by the flooding of the mine with an immense body of water that burst through the old workings. The accident occurred just about the time the shifts were changing. The exact number of men drowned and their names cannot be given.

The place where the accident occurred is a new coal operation that is being opened on an immense scale by the Lytle Coal Company, the principal stockholders of which are the Pennsylvania Railroad officials and Scranton capitalists.

The works are located on Primrose Mountain several miles northwest of Minersville and tap the Great Wolf Creek Colliery, which has laid idle for some years owing to large accumulation of water. About two years ago the present operators with unlimited means commenced the reopening of the tract, and have spent thousands of dollars in opening up new slopes.

Gangways are being pushed out from these slopes on all sides of the new workings. The old water lies in it, and it is the bursting through of one or more of these deposits without warning that caught the unfortunate miners while at work.

Besides the American miners there were a large number of Italians and Hungarian laborers at work inside, and it is thought now that at least six of them are also drowned. The survivors cannot say where the water came from, but they were surrounded suddenly on all sides with water, and whilst their surveyors and bosses were vear careful, somebody evidently has blundered.

There were several score of men inside at the time and some of these swam out, while others are said to have been heard talking as if they had reached a high spot above the water.

Foster's Plurality Over 40,000.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—Corrected election returns from the State at large show that the Foster-Farmer Alliance Combination ticket has a plurality of 40,000. Full returns will not be in for a day or two. New Orleans has gone for McEnery by about 10,000 majority. Fitzpatrick is elected Mayor by 5,000 to 10,000. The Leonard faction of the Republicans beat the Breaux faction in the city apparently two to one. Throughout In the State McEnery will hardly poll more votes than he did in the Democratic white primaries on March 27. It now looks as if the Foster people would control the legislature.

A Wealthy Postmaster Arrested.

NEW YORK, April 21.—P. J. O'Kelly, postmaster at Davis Island, has been arrested on the charge of making false returns of the amount of business done at his postoffice for the purpose of increasing his compensation. He was arraigned before Commissioner Shields, and held in $1,000 bail. O'Kelly is a wealthy citizen of Davis Island. He is reputed to be worth $150,000. He was appointed postmaster at Davis Island twenty-two years ago and has held the office ever since.

Bob Ford Makes Denial.

DENVER, Col., April 21.—A special from Colorado City, says Bob Ford, the slayer of Jesse James arrived there yesterday. He denies that he was run out of Creede for reckless shooting in the streets. He swears that he will return to Creede with a gun in each hand, and there will be bloodshed. Bob has sold his gambling place at the camp, but says he intends opening another one.

O'Brien Must Serve His Term in Prison.

UTICA, N. Y., April 21.—The petition of the bunco steerer Thomas O'Brien to be released from his sentence of ten years' imprisonment in Dannemora Prison, because he was not convicted of the crime for which he was extradited, was decided against O'Brien. Judge Coxe ruled that the conviction was sufficient under the treaty to hold O'Brien, and remanded him to prison.

Bills Signed By Gov. Flower.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 21.—The Governor has signed the following bills: Providing for the celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America at New York city.

Making 12th of October next a legal holiday.

Amending the act of incorporation of the Presbyterian Church of the United States in reference to appointment of trustees.

Desperate Battle With Moonshiners.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 21.—Word comes from Big Bay Siding, Ark., of a desperate fight late yesterday between "moonshiners" and a number of United States Deputy Marshals. The marshals surprised the moonshiners at work in their camp. They resisted arrest and immediately opened fire. A desperate battle then ensued, resulting in the death of two moonshiners. The deputies were not injured.

THE CZAR'S THANKS.

His Acknowledgment to Minister Smith for This Country's Aid.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Secretary of State is in receipt of a dispatch from Mr. Charles Emory Smith, United States Minister at St. Petersburg, recounting a conversation between His Majesty the Emperor and himself, in regard to the dispatch of vessels by the people of this country laden with provisions for the Russian sufferers. Among other things His Majesty said:

"I am very much touched by the interest and kindness which the people of the United States are showing in sending ships of flour to my suffering people. Those offerings are great and generous, they indicate a sympathy and friendship for which we are deeply grateful, and I desire that you will convey to the American people my sincere thanks for this manifestation of their friendly and human sentiments."

In this connection it may also be added that His Majesty has been pleased to present to Capt. K. W. Sargent, commander of the steamer Indiana, an enamelled goblet in recognition of the part he took in bringing to Russia the flour so generously donated by the citizens of Philadelphia for the relief of the people of Russia.

The Oklahoma Rush.

KINGFISHER, O. T., April 21.—Already boomers are returning in great numbers and the land office is besieged with business. Many of these returning are disgusted, but this is a matter of course. There are many tales afloat of casualties but thus far no fatalities are reported. The city of Okarche, 10 miles south of here, on the Rock Island, supposed by many to be the future capital of Oklahoma, has been built in a day. It is nearly two miles square, and the scene of excited activity beggars description. On one claim are 40 men, each one swearing that he is in the order of precedence.

Dr. Parkhurst Eulogized.

ROCKLAND, Me., April 21.—Rev. J. T. Crosby of Ellsworth, preached the Conference Sermon in the East Maine Methodist Conference yesterday afternoon. He eulogized Rev. Dr. Parkhurst of New York, terming him the "Prophet Reformer," and said it was the duty of every minister of God to preach righteousness and overthrow iniquity.

Indicted for Criminal Libel.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 21. — The grand jury of Kent county yesterday found an indictment for criminal libel against J. H. Dilworth, editor of the Delaware City "News." In his paper he called the Rev. J. A. B. Wilson, pastor of the Eighteenth M. E. Church, New York city, a liar, a murderer and a wire puller. He will be tried next month.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Friday, Clearing in the Morning; Stationary Temperature—For Saturday, Fair, Slightly Warmer.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Are you going to the circus this evening?

—There was not a bed vacant at The Albion, last night.

—Robert Peale was fined $10 by judge Codington this morning, for disorderly conduct.

—Two young lads quarreled in Exchange alley this morning, and one drew a knife and stabbed the other in the hand. The wound is not serious.

—The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the First Baptist church will hold a sewing meeting to-morrow afternoon at 2, in the lecture room of the church.

—Want to see an interesting and genuinely amateur base-ball game, by good players? See Leal's nine play the Bi. Club team on the Crescent grounds, Saturday. The admission will be only 10 cents.

—There is but one ring in the great Nellie McHenry's show and but one animal in the menagerie—the wild man of Borneo. Whether he was captured on the isle of Borneo or in the wilds of New Jersey, is not stated.

—A deserving woman who can be depended on for good work advertises in the cent-a-word column of THE PRESS for laundry work. Those in need of a good laundress should address her, at the woman's exchange, 9 East Front street.

—Thirty-five train crews have been discharged along the line of the New Jersey Central railroad recently, and the retained hands have been overloaded with extra work. There has been no corresponding increase of pay, and the disgruntled ones talk of a strike.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Captain Rosa Irving, the bonny Scotch lassie, will take charge of the Salvation Army meetings for one week commencing this evening at 8.

Ex-United States Senator W. J. Sewell, who has been seriously ill at his home in Camden, was able to sit up yesterday and receive visitors.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Mary Ann, wife of David Pangborn, who died yesterday, will be held in the Warren Mission chapel Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

Samuel Moore, Thomas J. Young, Daniel S. Berry, John H. Carney, Abraham P. Voorhees, Philip Swain and Jasper Wilson are the North Plainfielders serving on the present panel of petit jurors in Somerset county.

A number of musical friends of Miss Alice Holmes, who is to become Mrs. Faxon to-night and leave for a new home, gathered in front of her home on East Fifth street last evening and gave her a charming vocal serenade. The songs sounded very sweet on the night air, and the serenade was enjoyed not only by the fair young bride but by all the residents of the neighborhood.

An enjoyable musical was given at the home of Mrs. S. A. Cruikshank, Broadway and Belvidere avenue, last evening, for the benfit of Grace church. The talent included Clarence L. Eick, formerly organist of the First Presbyterian church in this city, Alfred E. Pearsall of Westfield, Miss Voorhees and J. Barker Elmendorf of New York, and the Brunswick Male Quartette.

A very pleasant memorial to the late Mrs. James McGee is the fine new grand piano now in use at the Monroe Avenue chapel, which she presented to the chapel shortly before she passed away. It is eminently fitting that there should be recalled, each meeting day, in the tongue of sweet music, the memory of that good woman whose kind heart and gentle ways won for her so warm a place in the affections of the people.

Grover Cleveland's Brother Was There.

A reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hagan, Prospect avenue, last evening, from 8 to 11, after which dancing was indulged in till 1. An excellent supper was served. The floral decorations were very fine, and choice music was rendered by Andrew G. Carpenter. Among the invited guests were: Gen. and Mrs. Stewart L. Wood and the Misses Wood, of Brooklyn; the Rev. and Mrs. Neil Cleveland, brother of ex-President Grover Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. William L. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kirkner, Miss Kirkner, Lawrence Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. John Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Julius S. Davett, Messrs Emile and Easton Davett, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Abbet and Miss Abbet, Lewis H. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Sarbell, Miss S. Sarbell, Wm. Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Slawson, Mrs. John Grey Foster, Mr. and Mrs. C. VanVleit, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pents, P. Pents, the Rev. Chas. L. Goodrich, Wm. Palmer, Miss C. C. Dewey, Fred Newman, Miss C. C. Dey, Mr. Sandford. Mrs. L. McEwen, Mr. Clinton, Mr. McEwen, Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Polak, Dr. J. Osborne Polak, the Misses Martine, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cresswell, Messrs Frank and Howard Martine and many others.

HYMENEAL.

Walsh—Cudlipp.

The new Grace church building was the scene of its first wedding last evening, when Miss Sarah Alice Cudlipp, daughter of Judge Reuben H. Cudlipp of East Ninth street, was married to William S. Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walsh of Metuchen. The wedding was a very pretty one, and was witnessed by a large number of invited guests.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector of the church. The best man was E. A. Hall of Brooklyn. G. Harry Squires of Plainfield, Charles Kendrick of Nutley, John Joy and Sydney Maddock of Brooklyn, E. L. Erdt of Montclair and G. B. Toucey of Westfield were the ushers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Grace Howard of Plainfield and Miss Smith of Brooklyn. They wore becoming costumes of white, crepe de chine trimmed with chiffon and white ribbons.

The bride was charmingly attired in a rich gown of white satin, trimmed with old point-lace. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she wore handsome diamond ornaments, the gift of the groom.

A Wedding.

The marriage of John Stevens, formerly of Plainfield, and now of Cranford, to Miss Ada Cairncross, formerly of Plainfield, and latterly of Colorado, took place Monday evening at the home of James Whitely, Brooklyn. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Whitely of this city. Miss Kate Moen, Miss Maria Kelly, Miss Flynn of New York, and many others. The happy couple received many valuable gifts, and congratulations were showered on them by their friends. They will reside in Cranford.

White Striving Gallantly to Win.

White is still winning steadily in the Lyceum tournament, and stands an excellent chance of coming out on top of the heap. He has also pulled his average almost up to that of Revell. Some of the other contestants are changing about considerably. Last night's score was as follows:

White	174	Mattox	129
White	157	Owens	122
Mack	136	Mattox	132
Gallagher	145	Lanigan	141

Surprised at Pondville.

A pleasant surprise party was given to Messrs. Thomas Canary and John Hickey, at their residence, 290 South Second street, last evening. The managers of the affair were two feminine friends. The guests numbered about 40 young people. The evening was well spent. Among the features of the occasion were games, vocal and instrumental music, and dancing, which were indulged in until 2 this morning. Refreshments were served in abundance. The music was furnished by three young women, Miss Minnie VanDyke, Miss Fannie Westphal, and Miss Florence Pullan. The committee who had the party in charge were Miss Maggie Bevell and Miss Mamie McKebbie, to whom much credit is due.

Mad Dog on LaGrande Avenue.

A dog owned by B. O. Bowers showed symptoms of the rabies yesterday, and was killed this morning by dog-catcher Frisbie. Mr. Frisbie said he was sure the dog was mad, 'cause its eyes was red, and rolled around, it panted, and its hair was three inches long, and it bit at a piece of cloth. He filled it full of lead from a gun and revolver. Then it cast a reproachful glance at him and expired.

Indians To-Night at Hope Chapel.

George H. Fountain will speak in Hope chapel this evening about the Indians and other early inhabitants of this country. He has made this subject a matter of study and will interest all who hear him. He will exhibit, at the same time, some relics, many of which he has found himself. All will be welcome.

Arbor Day at the Schools.

To-morrow will be observed as a day of mourning at the Plainfield High school, over the loss of the trees that have been cut down in front of the school. At the Irving school a tree will be planted, and at all of the other schools exercises appropriate to Arbor Day will be held.

Sick Headache.

I have used Dr. Dean's Dyspepsia Pills for Headache, and since I have taken them I have been perfectly free from it. I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend them to any and all who suffer from the same. Mrs. M. E. LEES, Stenographer and Typewriter, Room 92, Evening Post Building, New York.

AT TARGETS AND PIGEONS.

Sharp Competition by Independent Gun Club Men.

Under the shadow of the Orange Mountains at Hyde's Woods, North Plainfield, the first regular tournament of the Independent Gun club took place yesterday. The weather was all that could be desired for a day's sport at the traps, and a large number of shooters took advantage of that fact, thus making the events lively in character. Eight events at blue-rock targets were shot from five expert traps in squads of six men at a time. A good supply of live birds was also on hand, and they were a fast-flying lot, much above the general average. The scores:

First Event, 10 Blue Rocks—Sisty and Brantingham, 10 each; Manning, 8; Smith, 7.

Second Event, Same Conditions—Soper, 10; Smith, Brantingham, and Rust, 9 each; Manning, 8.

Third Event, Same Conditions—Manning and Rust, 10 each; Brantingham and Mason, 9 each; Soper, Rothaker, and Sisty, 8 each.

Fourth Event, Same Conditions—Brantingham, 10; Rust and Rothaker, 9 each; Mason and Sisty, 8 each; Soper and Smith, 7 each.

Fifth Event, 15 Blue Rocks—Brantingham and Mason, 15 each; Rust and Soper, 14 each; Smith, 12; Trust, Manning, Pierson, Douglass and Stryker, 11 each.

Sixth Event, 10 Targets—Soper, Rust and Sisty, 10 each; Brantingham, Smith, Mason, Trust, Manning and Rothaker, 9 each; Stryker, 7; Von Hartmann and Douglass, 6 each.

Seventh Event, Same Conditions—Smith, Soper and Rust, 10 each; Brantingham and Trust, 9 each; Hartmann and Pierson, 8 each; Voehl, Stryker, Manning and Rothaker, 7 each.

Eighth Event, 4 Live Birds; Entrance $3; 20 Entries—Rust, Trust, Soper and Richmond divided first money, with 4 each; Hartmann, Sisty, Larry, Dan Terry, Mason, Rothaker, Douglass and Voehl tied for second money; they shot this off in the next sweep, and Mason, Douglass, and Terry divided it; Smith, Force, Brantingham, Lare, and Moore tied, with 2 each, and Pierson, Manning, and Tee Kay each killed 1.

Ninth Event, same conditions—Tee Kay, W. Terry, Rust, Trust, Mason, Douglass, and Dan Terry divided first money, with 4 each; Smith, Lare, Manning, Moore, and Soper divided second, with 3 each; Richmond, Larry, Voehl, Rothaker, and Hartmann each killed 2, and Pierson, Sisty and Force killed 1 each.

A miss-and-out sweep, with 24 entries at $1 each, closed the day's sport. Smith, Hartmann, Rust, Douglass, Rothaker and Brantingham shot all the others out, and after killing 6 each divided the money.

An Excellent Organist.

[From The Elizabeth Daily Leader.]

Clarence L. Eick, who is now filling the position of organist at the Westminster church, and formerly organist of the First Presbyterian church in Plainfield, has few equals as a performer on the organ in this State. Each Sunday since Mr. Eick began his engagement the congregation has increased in numbers and many strangers have been attracted there to listen to the artistic performances on the organ by Mr. Eick. The Easter programme presented by the organist last Sunday was of the highest order, and Mr. Eick has been the recipient of many deserved compliments.

TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION.

A True Story from North Carolina.

Some one has said that "the true and the false speak the same language." But there can be no doubt that this speaks with the true ring to it. Letter from Mrs. J. M. Hollaman, proprietress of "Hotel Hollaman," Apex, N. C.—"My son Harvey had scrofula from the time he was three years old until he was seven. We had the best doctors that the country afforded, yet he was given up to die, several times. Some one recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After taking five bottles he was well enough to get about, and has mended so fast that he is now enjoying good health."

Find a remedy for scrofula—something that purifies the blood, as well as claims to. That, if it's taken in time, will cure Consumption, which is only lung-scrofula.

Dr. Pierce has found it. It's his "Golden Medical Discovery." As a strength-restorer, blood-cleanser, and flesh-builder, nothing like it is known to medical science. For Scrofula, Bronchial, Throat, and Lung affections, Weak Lungs, Severe Coughs, and kindred ailments, it's the only remedy so sure that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

QUARTS—25 Cents. PER GALLON—75 Cents. 3 1 tf

A Queer Fellow That Will Bear Watching.

Under the above heading the New Brunswick Home News has the following to say about an individual whom THE PRESS exposed in this city:

A very peculiar colored individual, who carries along with him an air of deep mystery, has attracted no small attention on the streets within the last few weeks.

He gives his name as "Dr. C. Williams", and claims to be a little of everything. His livelihood he says he makes from the practice of medicine and to his name he attaches the titles of D. D., M. D. and LL. D. That is, he claims to own all the above, but when a HOME NEWS reporter asked him to write his name he laboriously scrawled all over a piece of paper and produced something that closely resembled a Chinese laundry check.

The fact was, he could n't write, but he made an effort to make something, which was a very bad attempt at Williams, however. Rev. Mr. Pierce, of the Mt. Zion M. E. church, says the fellow is a quack and charaltan and deludes confiding patients whom he claims to be able to cure of their ills.

"Dr. Williams" has had advertisements inserted in the newspapers in which he says wild and incoherent things which defy explanation. In appearance he is thin and wiry, walks quickly, wears a weather-beaten high hat, striped pants, and his waistcoat is covered with several mysterious regalias, apparently of no value. He talks but little and will allow no one to question him. He is living with a family on Baldwin street.

NEW JERSEY AND THE FAIR.

Lively Work Being Done by the State's Representatives.

New Jersey is going to make a highly creditable display at the World's Fair in Chicago in 1893. The New Jersey State commission is already hurrying the work of erecting a suitable building. This State commission consists of Stephen J. Meeker, of Newark, president; Walter S. Lenox, of Trenton, secretary and treasurer; Peter Hauck, of Harrison; Millard F. Ross, of New Brunswick; John C. Smock, of Trenton; Edward Bettle, of Camden; Peter E. Swartsweller, of Belvidere, and Garret A. Hobart, of Paterson. The National commissioners from this State are ex-Senator William J. Sewell and Thomas Smith. Plans are solicited for a building to cost $15,000. The best four drafts submitted will be selected, and $500 will be divided as premiums among the authors. One of these four plans will probably be chosen as the design for the State building. This house will be constructed entirely out of New Jersey materials. It is suggested that an excellent way for certain manufacturers, such as those who make tiles, to show their wares would be for them to contribute the goods to be used in the building.

The piece of ground on which the house will stand is happily chosen. It is 200 feet square, and it lies at the end of Jackson Park which is nearest to the centre of Chicago. Within a hundred feet is the shore of the lake and equally close by is a spacious and comfortable pavilion. The spot is as well shaded as it is beautiful and convenient, and Mr. Sewell and Mr. Smith, in common with many others, regard it as one of the most desirable spaces in the park. The adjoining grounds will be arranged in an attractive way and well lighted. The sum of $323,490 has been set apart for landscape gardening, and New Jersey will have her share of the benefit. Other improvements which will cost the State nothing are sewerage and water.

New Jersey is properly expected to excel in exhibits of manufactured articles. Her national commissioners, who wield considerable influence at headquarters, find that the reputation of the State in that direction is the secret of much of their importance. Therefore, especial efforts are being made to enlist the interest and secure the co-operation of owners of factories. Blank forms of application for space are being distributed, and about 200 encouraging replies, both formal and informal, have been received. Newark will probably be credited with fine exhibits of jewelry, celluloid, tinware, brass goods and other lines, while Paterson and Trenton will furnish locomotives, silk and pottery.

Thomas A. Edison will make a magnificent showing with his electric appliances. Although he is not acting with the State commission, his machinery, which is bound to be a marked feature of the fair, will be a source of local fame. James R. Pitcher, of Short Hills, and several wealthy gentlemen residing in Llewellyn Park, are going to send rare and valuable plants to the exposition. These are only a few of the things which time will bring forth. The business is still young, and it may be expected to grow as the great event of 1993 draws nearer.

He Was Ag'in' the Bicycle.

"Bicycles are a nuisance"—he said to the editor, coming up to the desk after the manner of a man with a grievance.

"So?"—inquired the editor, who rode one himself.

"Yes, they are. I've just been waiting for a chance to write them up."

"What's the matter with them?"

"Aw, they take up the street, scare horses, run people down and do all sorts of unexpected things."

"Why don't you write them up, then, with a blast?"

"That's just it. I was coming across Crescent avenue this morning and I saw two coming lickety-split from opposite directions. I was going to get out of the way at first, but I thought I had as much right as they had to the street, so I concluded to stand my ground and just let one of them run into me. I knew it was my opportunity to get ever, and I was n't going to lose it." "And you got run into, and now you want to blast the bicycle, do you?"—inquired the editor, shoving a paper pad and a pencil over to him. "No, I don't"—was the disgusted reply.—"I dodged around there for ten minutes trying to get in the way of one of them, and by Jupiter, six riders sailed by ten feet on either side of me and did n't touch a hair. That's why I say they are a nuisance."

What it Costs to Belong to the Salvation Army.

A member is expected to speak in public. He must attend the numerous meetings, at the risk of being dropped if he does not attend; the army does not carry nominal members. The members are expected to wear the uniform at all times. A collection is made at every service. Some members with only $5 a week give as much as four or five shillings. Every one is expected to give at least a penny at each collection. All the members must be total abstainers; no one who smokes can hold any office. The members must have nothing to do with games; the theatre is strictly forbidden; so is all Sunday travel; officers go to their stations on Saturday. They are not absolutely forbidden marrying outside the rank, but such a step is considered proof that a member is not walking in full light.

SOMERSET COUNTY COURTS.

New Cases on Trial—Verdict for the School Teacher—Death of Mr. Gaston.

Yesterday afternoon, in the Somerset county courts, the case of Lance vs. school district 51 was resumed. After lengthy addresses by Mr. Bergen for the plaintiff and Mr. Schenck for the defendant Judge Magie charged the jury, and they retired at 3:05 p. m.

The next case called was that of Voorhees, plaintiff, vs. Staats, defendant, in reference to a chattel mortgage on a bay mare 6 years old, which was sold to a Mr. Wyckoff, who gave a note for the mare. He afterwards signed an article of agreement that the amount of the note should be paid on the mortgage when the note fell due. This sale was brought to close an estate, and a public auction was held, and goods enumerated in the chattel mortgage were sold, including the bay mare in question. They realized considerably more than was necessary to pay the chattel mortgage, but it was not paid. The parties who held the mortgage were present at the sale and made no objections. Mr. Staats held judgment against the Wyckoffs for $1,000. The sheriff made a levy on buggy, wagons, etc. It was agreed that if Mr. Staats would release the levy he (Wyckoff) would sell the mare. Mr. Staats was willing to give what he gave for the mare and release the levy. Wyckoff would deliver the mare to Staats.

At this time, 4:15, the grand jury entered and presented 13 indictments. There being no further business for them, the court discharged them, and court adjourned for the day.

Later, at 5 p. m., the jury rendered their verdict in the Lance case. The county clerk received their verdict; which was that Lance be allowed two months' salary. The clerk then discharged the jury.

This morning the case of Voorhees vs. Titus was commenced, with Mr. Staats on the witness stand. He stated that he knew nothing about a chattel mortgage being on the mare. He also said that the mare was lame and about 16 years old.

Mr. Coddington, another witness, was called. He stated that as the sheriff of Somerset county he had made a levy. He also stated that he did not sell the goods, as young Wyckoff claimed them.

Wm. H. Cauley was next called. He said that when he owned the mare she was 6 years old. Mr. Voorhees took the stand and stated that he had no copy of the sale, nor had he assisted in drawing up a copy. He said that he recived $500 and a horse for $140, making a total of $640. He did not pay for the goods, but, as he considered, his claim of the mortgage would offset his purchases.

Wm. K. Hope was called as the auctioneer who sold the goods at the sale. He stated that nothing was said in the condition of the sale in reference to the chattel mortgage.

Mr. Bergen then addressed the court, claiming that the chattel mortgage was still unpaid.

Mr. Clark arose and addressed the jury in a most able manner, for at least one hour, in behalf of the defendant, Mr. Staats.

Mr. Bergen then addressed the jury in behalf of the plantiff, for some length of time.

Judge Magie then charged the jury, and they retired at 12:25.

The next case was that of Lent vs. Bowers, which was laid over.

Mr. Bergen then announced the sad death of the Hon. Hugh W. Gaston, and recommended that the court set apart a day for the members of the bar so that suitable resolutions might be drawn and tendered to the bereaved family. The court then excused all jurors excepting those who were on panel in the case of Voorhees vs. Staats, till next Tuesday at 10 a. m.

How Jersey Provides for Pensioners.

It may not be generally known, but it is nevertheless a fact, that Jersey is the only State supporting a bureau for the collection of her citizens' pensons. If pensioners were aware of its existence they would not swallow the bait and run away with the lines set by professional pension agents for such gudgeons. The State investigates every pension claim sent to it, and once a week an experienced man goes to Washington to place the latest cases in the proper Congressional channel. Notwithstanding the immense number of pensions secured by the bureau, cases continue to come in at the rate of twenty-five a week. Penniless claimants, notifying the governor of their lack of means, are called upon by an attache of the bureau; the case, if just, is made up and pressed to payment. Not a penny is charged by this department for the work of obtaining pensions. Fraudulent cases are promptly thrown out, and then fall back on public pension agents to do their work.

His Relatives Are Wealthy.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., April 21. — David Nixon, who says he is from Chicago and has no relations, was found lying on the Boston & Albany track near this city yesterday. His scalp was torn and his skull cracked, and he had evidently been struck by a train. It is learned that he has a brother in Chicago who is a banker and another brother in Washington who is in the employ of the Government. He will probably die.

Rustlers Restrained By the Troops.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 21.—Troops from Fort McKinney are escorting the invading army arrested by them to the railway station. It will take four or five days to complete the journey. Rustlers are following the arrested men, and only fear of the troops prevent them from making an effort to secure the men for private punishment. From Buffalo all is reported quiet.

Georgine Wolters Gets $25,000.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The jury in the $50,000 breach of promise suit, brought by Georgine Wolters against Inventor Schultz, rendered a verdict last night in favor of the plaintiff, giving her $25,000. The court gave her an extra allowance of $1,000, and gave the defendant 60 days to make a case in appeal and 20 days stay of execution.

Forest Fires in Connecticut.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., April 21.—Extensive forest fires are raging in the vicinity of North Windham, four miles from here, and damage to farmers will be very heavy, as hundreds of acres of mowing and woodlands have been burned over.

Worth Knowing.

That ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS are the highest result of medical science and skill, and in ingredients and method have never been equalled.

That they are the original and genuine porous plasters, upon whose reputation imitators trade.

That ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS never fail to perform their remedial work quickly and effectually.

That this fact is attested by thousands of voluntary and unimpeachable testimonials from grateful patients.

That for rheumatism, weak back, sciatica, lung trouble, kidney disease, dyspepsia, malaria and all local pains, they are invaluable.

That when you buy ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS you absolutely obtain the best plasters made.

Some favor a tariff for revenue only, some a tariff with incidental protection, and some a tariff for protection, per se; but a large majority favor the free use of Salvation Oil for bruises, etc.

OH, MY HEAD!

Neuralgia of Head and Face.

Did it ever strike you how many people suffer from headache, neuralgia, pain in back or side? Their numbers are countless.

And they continue to suffer, more especially in the Spring months, when Spring Debility aggravates their troubles. The Grip also, which has been so prevalent, causes more headache, and as an after-effect leaves the nerves in the head in a more weakened and diseased condition than any other known affection. This condition should never be neglected.

And yet, there is an absolutely certain cure within easy reach. Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great remedy for the nerves, is a sure and speedy cure, and will give relief in all such cases. It is also the very best Spring medicine you can take to tone you up, strengthen your nerves, invigorate your blood, and regulate your stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides, it is perfectly safe to use, being purely vegetable and harmless. All druggists keep it. $1.

"I had terrible headaches for 30 years. I felt that I should go insane, and made my husband promise that he would not put me in an asylum. I took Dr. Greene's Nervura, and now I have no headache, can and sleep well, and am not nervous, my kidneys are healthy and blood pure. In short, I was saved from that terrible fate, insanity or prostration, by this wonderful remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura.

MRS JENNIE ANTHONY,

Smoking Tobacco.

There are many other brands, each represented by some interested person to be "just as good as the BULL DURHAM." They are not; but like all counterfeits, they each lack the peculiar and attractive qualities of the genuine.

We attach this tag to every bag of BULL DURHAM for the protection of the smoker.

THE LATEST INVENTION.

An Electrical Device Which Will Revolutionize Stone Carving.

Electricity has now been put to many uses, the very latest being the working of a machine which it is said will revolutionize the art of stone carving. The inventor is a Colorado man, Mr. W. P. Carstarphen, and the invention, we learn from the Denver Sun, is known as the "electrical reciprocating" tool. This tool is provided with a reciprocating plunger, located and moving within the tubular spools of two coils of insulated copper wire through which a direct current of electricity is alternately passed. The current for operating the tool can be supplied from any suitable electrical source, such as an ordinary galvanic battery or a dynamo electric current, which is simultaneously switched from one coil or set of coils to the other by the use of a suitable mechanism located between the two coils, and controlled by the reciprocation of the plunger. The electrical current enters one end of the tool through a revolving swivel, and the rapidity of the strokes made by the plunger is regulated by a button on the side of the tool. In the model, which is a three-pound tool, the stroke can be made to vary from one-eighth of an inch to one inch, with a motion varying from 50 to 300 strokes per minute.

To operate a tool of this size but from four to six volts current are required. Portable storage batteries twelve inches by six inches by six inches have been made, which are incased in a neat box and intended for operating the tool on scaffolds and elsewhere away from the shop. These have operating force sufficient for a day's work, and can be recharged over night at an expense not to exceed one shilling.

With this tool the carver or sculptor, instead of dividing a portion of his attention to striking his chisel, can devote his entire attention to the lines which he is following, thus producing more accurate and rapid work. It is estimated that the machine will produce work in one-fourth the time of hand work, and therefore a material reduction in the cost will be secured.

Old Danger Avoided.

Old Gentleman—What do you hope to be when you grow up?

Small Boy—I want ter be a circus actor.

"Well, I declare! Why do you want to be a circus actor?"

"So I won't have to crawl under the tent."—Good News.

Not at All.

Intelligent Foreigner (to parlor car acquaintance)—I am indebted to you, sir, for a most enjoyable afternoon and much political information. You are in public life, I presume?

Distinguished Looking American—No, sir. I am a lieutenant governor.—Chicago Tribune.

A Difference in Travelers.

"In your travels through Japan, Mr. Allover, did you not often observe things that shocked your—your sense of propriety?"

"Very seldom, Miss De Prewd. I was never on the lookout for things of that kind."—Chicago Tribune.

He Would Try.

"Johnny," said Mrs. Cumso to her son, "I don't like the way you have of saying yep instead of yes. Now tell me, won't you honestly try to break yourself of it?"

"Yep," replied Johnny, with deep sincerity.—Judge.

Nest Hiding.

Examiner of Zoology (to small aspirant)—Can you tell me anything peculiar about the cuckoo in regard to nesting?

Student—Yes, sir. Please, sir, he don't lay his own eggs himself, sir!—Texas Siftings.

Not to Be Caught.

Mild Old Gentleman (peddling tracts)—My dear young friend, will you permit me—

Young Mr. R. Lee Ryzer (just in from Pike)—No you don't, b' gosh! I've read all about these bunko games!—Chicago Tribune.

Lard as a Life-Saver

The school boy's composition asserted that pins had saved the lives of many people by their not having swallowed them; so lard has saved the lives of thousands by their having avoided food of which it forms a part. Hog's lard is responsible for much indigestion and dyspepsia, as any physician will testify, hence has been introduced to take the place of lard. There is no secret as to its composition. It consists only of highly refined Cotton Seed Oil, and Beef Suet. Clean, delicate, healthy and economical. Lard has had its day, and a greasy day it was. When next about to use lard,—Don't, but try Cottolene. At leading grocers.

London Anarchists Becoming Greatly Excited.

URGED TO AVENGE THEMSELVES.

Apprehension Felt That a Reign of Terror May be Inaugurated.

A Great Demonstration to be Made at the Funeral of Mrs. Mowbray, the Anarchist Editor's Wife — The "Commonweal" to Appear as Usual—Attempted Assassination of a Churchman in Posen by the Anarchists.

LONDON, April 22.—The excitement of the Anarchists over the arrest of Mowbray and the seizure of the "Commonweal" is shared by Socialists and many Radicals, and several meetings have been called to protest against the action of the police. The Berner Street International Workers' Club, a Socialistic organization with extreme tendencies, has held a meeting and passed resolutions denouncing the police and Home Office, and expressing sympathy with Mowbray for the brutal treatment he had suffered in being arrested but two hours after his wife's death.

Many Anarchists were present from other organizations, and violent speeches were made against the police and magistrate who figured in the Walsall case and against Mr. Matthews for countenancing the alleged interference with the rights of a free press. Several speakers advised the men to avenge themselves as their colleagues in Spain and France were doing, and to frighten the Government with dynamite into granting the Anarchists of London their rights. Although two detectives were present and a company of policemen stood ready within call, no effort was made to break up the meeting.

The club arranged to co-operate with other Socialistic and Anarchistic organizations in the city to make a great demonstration at Mrs. Mowbray's funeral as a protest against the government's action. It is expected that about 8,000, and perhaps 10,000, men will turn out with society banners and red flags and march behind the body to the grave.

Mowbray remains in custody, as Magistrate Vaughan sanctions the raid on the "Commonweal" and holds that the police did nothing beyond what their duty required. Despite Mowbray's absence, the "Commonweal" will appear as usual to-day.

A new corps of writers were engaged immediately after the seizure and another force of compositors has been set to work. The tone of to-day's publication is expected to be exceedingly violent, and it is not unlikely that this edition, too, will be seized by the police, although many persons are apprehensive that such action might inaugurate a reign of terror such as prevails in Paris and Madrid.

Anarchist Outrage in Posen.

BERLIN, April 22.—Four well-dressed men appeared at the door of Canon Tomeszewski in Tremessen, Posen, yesterday morning and tried to gain admittance. The Canon had been forewarned by the police that they had evidence of a plot against his life, and the men were told that he was not at home. They forced an entrance, however, and were going upstairs to the Canon's room when the maid servant opened a window and screamed for help.

Two policemen had been stationed near the house, and they answered her call. Three of the men escaped through a rear door. The other was caught in the kitchen. He emptied his revolver at the policemen, but did not wound them. Besides the revolver, he had a knife and a small bottle of chloroform in his pockets.

It is regarded as certain that these four men belong to the bands of international cutthroats and Anarchists who live in the suburbs of Berlin and planned the assassination of Dean von Foninsky in Koscielec recently. The prisoner wore a strip of red cloth around his waist under his waistcoat, and in a note book had a list of about 25 of the highest ecclesiastics in the province of Posen. Near the house the police found a card on which was printed:

"The Polish Anarchists need some of your money for their cause. Give to us and escape our vengeance. If you refuse, you will die.

"Central Executive Committee."

In Behalf of Prince Michael.

DETROIT, Mich., April 22.—The Circuit Court was yesterday applied to for a writ of habeas corpus directing the police to release May Webster, one of the detained witnesses in the trial of Prince Michael. The defence is working hard to get the girl out, and if their efforts are successful, the bottom is likely to fall out of some of the cases. In the meantime, citizens of the sections where the Flying Rollites live are growing tired of them, and will hold a meeting tomorrow night to take steps toward getting rid of them.

Mrs. Parnell Sues for Rent.

DUBLIN, April 22. — At the Wicklow Sessions Mrs. Parnell, widow of Charles Stewart Parnell, brought suit against twelve of her tenants for non-payment of rent. Several of the applications were dismissed by the court on the tenants producing receipts showing that their rent was not yet due. In the other cases the tenants refused to pay unless the abatement allowed by Mr. Parnell some time before his death was given to them.

Still Antagonizing Egan.

VALPARAISO, April 22.—The "Heraldo" of this city continues its crusade against Minister Egan. In a recent article it says: "When there is in Chili an impartial representative of the United States, we will again cultivate our friendly relations with the American nation."

INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

They Instruct Their National Delegation for Cleveland—State Ticket.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 22.—One of the largest Democratic conventions in the history of Indiana convened in this city at 10:30 yesterday forenoon. Every county in the State was represented by a full delegation and 3,000 enthusiastic Democrats from throughout the State crowded to galleries and aisles.

After the call of delegations by the secretary the various committees were announced and made their reports. There were loud cheers when the Committee on Permanent Organization reported United States Senator Turpie as chairman of the convention and Senator Voorhees, Hugh Dougherty, Charles L. Jewett and Samuel E. Morse as delegates-at-large to the National Convention.

A platform was then unanimously adopted that affirmed the devotion of the convention to the principles of the Democratic party. Any enlargement or concentration of Federal powers was opposed, and individual rights firmly asserted to be a necessity.

The administration was arraigned for its subserviency to the interests of the money power as illustrated in the appointments of John Wanamaker and William A. Woods.

A radical and comprehensive measure of tariff reform was favored and reciprocity condemned. The circulation of a full and sufficient volume of money was demanded and the election of United States Senators directly by the people was favored, as was the Australian election system. Senators Voorhees and Turpie were endorsed, as were the School Book enactments. Just and liberal pensions were favored, but commission Raum was denounced. A State tax for revenue was endorsed, and Indiana Senators and Representatives were instructed to use their influence in favor of making greenbacks taxable as other property.

The administration of Grover Cleveland was endorsed as wise and patriotic, his message of 1887 on tariff reform was eulogized, and upon this issue Cleveland was endorsed as the logical candidate of the party. Gov. Gray was highly endorsed and the delegation was instructed to place his name before the convention provided the nomination of Cleveland was found inexpedient.

The ticket nominated is as follows: For Governor, Claude Matthews; for Lieutenant-Governor, Mortimer Nye; for Secretary of State, Capt. W. R. Myers.

EXPECTED TO BE SHOT.

Robinson Looked for Death at the Hands of Hetherington.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The mail by the steamship Empress of Japan, has just brought to Vancouver, B. C., the details of the defense submitted in the trial of Lieut. Hetherington before the United States Consular Court in Yokohama. Evidence was produced to show that Robinson, the murdered man, had been guilty of dishonorable conduct, and that Lieut. Hetherington was justified in taking stringent measures to protect the honor of his family. Counsel for the accused said that Hetherington's feelings were so wrought up by the conduct of the dead man that the act was wholly unpremeditated.

Commander Bartlett of the Marion testified that while none of his officers ever heard him swear, he swore at Robinson during an interview he had with the man, called him a scoundrel and villain and said that if he had been in Hetherington's place he would have put a bullet through him at sight.

Robinson replied: "I believe Lieutenant Hetherington is justified in his conduct. I deserve shooting. I deserve anything. I have been expecting Lieut. Hetherington to shoot me."

Wedding Couple and Family Poisoned.

PETALUMA, Cal., April 22. — Daniel Shaw is dying, his affianced bride, Miss Annie Hinkston is very ill, as are also her mother, Mrs. Hinkston, Miss Allie Hinkston, an adopted daughter, and an aunt, Mrs. Carter. Mrs. Carter made tea for supper Tuesday night in which strychnine had been put by some unknown person. All are now out of danger except Shaw and Mrs. Hinkston. Realizing his critical condition Mr. Shaw wished to be married before he died and the ceremony was performed yesterday afternoon.

Chinese Making Their Own Opium.

PITTSBURG, April 22.—Internal Revenue officers here believe they have made an important discovery while making a tour of the Chinese district. They think the Chinese are surreptitously manufacturing their own opium from the crude article, and thus evading the tax thereon. The raw material comes into the country free. The officers say that United States revenue officers are making an investigation into the matter all over the country.

Says It Was in Self-Defense.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 22.—Theodore Warren Long, who was employed by the Ontario & Western Railroad Company as a foreman of bridge builders, and was shot dead Wednesday night by James Davis at the latter's hotel in Summitville Station, was, Davis claims, in an intoxicated condition and started the row. Davis says he fired the shot in self-defense.

A Daughter of Sir Edwin Arnold to Wed.

O'BRIEN GETS AWAY

The King of Buncoers Makes His Escape.

KEEPER BUCK'S CARELESSNESS

He Allowed O'Brien to Remain at a Hotel, Instead of In Jail.

Buck Left the Bunco Man and a Politician Alone in a Room and When He Returned Both Were Gone—Thought that New York Thieves Aided O'Brien in His Flight—He Is Probably in Canada By This Time.

UTICA, N. Y., April 22. — Thomas O'Brien of Albany, who bunco'ed John M. Peck of Albany out of $10,000 and was sentenced to Clinton Prison for 10 years, escaped from Keeper Buck, of the prison here, yesterday.

O'Brien was taken before Judge Cone in the United States Court here a few days ago on a writ of habeas corpus, and argument was heard on the legality of his extradition from England, where he was arrested. The application for his discharge was denied and the prisoner ordered taken back to prison.

About 2 a. m. Buck left O'Brien in a room in Bagg's Hotel. When he returned a few minutes later O'Brien had escaped. No trace of him could be found. Keeper Buck did not report O'Brien's escape until late last night.

A large number of thieves from New York have been in this city the past few days, and it is thought they aided the bunco steerer.

O'Brien was last seen about the hotel shortly before noon. His beard had been removed. It is presumed he took the noon train East.

Keeper Buck says that he left O'Brien and David Dishler, a well-known Utica politician, in a room in the hotel early the morning and when he returned both were gone. Buck is confident that the two are on a spree and will show up soon.

"Doc" Minchon, who has been with O'Brien here, returned to New York, and this strengthens the belief that the prisoner has gone.

Buck treats the matter very indifferently. During his stay here he has been "doing" the town. He had an order from Warden Walter N. Thayer, of Dannemora prison, to give O'Brien all the liberty possible and he allowed O'Brien to go about the city alone.

In all probability O'Brien is now safely over the Canadian line.

INDICTMENTS IN SARATOGA.

Serious Charges Against Police Officials, the Village President and Others.

SARATOGA, N., April 22.—The April Grand Jury has been in session for three days examining into the charges of blackmail and bribery preferred against R. F. Knapp and William H. Gallor, ex-Police Commissioners of this village. The result of the examination is wholesale indictment. Knapp and Gallor are charged with levying blackmail against Albert Spencer, Caleb W. Mitchell, and the proprietor of several club houses, and also Hattie Adams of New York.

They were first charged in an affidavit published by John Webb, an Associate Police Commissioner. They denied his affidavit and invited an investigation by the Board of Trustees. Just before the investigation they resigned from the Police Board and the case was dropped so far as the Board of Trustees were concerned.

Bench warrants were served on the following: Ex-Police Commissioners R. F. Knapp and W. H. Gallor and Police Justice Charles Allen, charged with receiving bribes; Village President Caleb W. Mitchell, Albert Spencer, Charles McMahon, John T. Sweeny, Dennis Sullivan, M. Dwyer, John Soldmore, M. T. McCormick, James Welch and Alexander Trimble, charged with keeping gambling houses. These were arrested and furnished bail. It is expected another large batch of indictments will be handed down to-day.

Caleb W. Mitchell was elected Village President three weeks ago by a large majority on the Democratic ticket.

Muncy Bank Depositors Paid.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., April 22. — The Muncy Bank depositors have received their money at last. Receiver Collins has received from Washington and paid out checks to the extent of $70,000, the depositors whose claims were fully established receiving dollar for dollar. There remains to be paid out about $10,000 on claims of 50 persons whose accounts have not yet been fully straightened out.

Stockmen Declared Guilty of Murder.

DENVER, Col., April 22.—A despatch from Cheyenne is to the effect that the coroner's jury have found a verdict of murder in the first degree against the invading stockmen and their party. The party reached the Cheyenne River last night en route to Douglass. They are in charge of the Sixth Cavalry.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Final Adjournment Yesterday — Special Session Called for Monday Night.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 22.—The closing hours of the session of the Legislature opened promptly and brightly in the Assembly at 9 o'clock, but in the Senate the desk was clear and only waiting for bills to pass.

The first business was the reception of messages from the Senate, and several efforts were made to advance bills by unanimous consent, but scarcely anything was done in that way owing to the storm of objections which arose. The calendar was then taken up.

The Comptroller sent over the bill fixing the annual tax rate. It is 1.98 mills.

This is the lowest rate since 1856, with the exception of last year, when it was 1.37.

The amount called for by the Supply bill as signed by the Governor is $1,645,744. The amount vetoed, which was to have been raised by tax, was $312,225; not to be raised by tax, 115,000; total vetoed, $427,225.

The report of the Secretary of State of the work of the enumeration was submitted.

The totals of population for all the counties of the State foot up to 6,483,632. Of this total 5,763,027 are citizens and 720,605 are aliens.

The total official population accredited to New York County is 1,801,739. Of this total 1,423,984 are citizens, while 377,755 are aliens.

The total population of Kings County is fixed at 968,746, of which 844,237 are citizens and 124,509 are aliens.

Queens County looms up with a population of 141,805, of which 123,974 are citizens and 17,831 are aliens.

Westchester County has a total population of 145,106, with 129,224 citizens and 15,882 aliens.

Richmond County has 53,453, of which 46,592 claim citizenship and 6,860 are recognized as aliens.

At four minutes before 12 the Governor's proclamation was read reconvening the Legislature on Monday night at 8:30.

Then came the usual votes of thanks to the Speaker and Clerk, and several presentations, after which the Assembly adjourned sine die.

It was 10:15 o'clock when the Senate was called to order and prayer delivered by Rev. Mr. Martin.

After the committee appointed to wait upon the Governor and Assembly had returned Mr. Cantor moved that the employes of the Senate be retained for the extra session—adopted.

Mr. Sheehan then addressed the Senate, the members standing. He spoke of the vast amount of work done during the short session and closed by congratulating the members.

There was loud applause, and the Senate adjourned sine die.

IN CONGRESS.

Chinese Question Debated in the Senate—House Doings.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The Chinese question proved as irrepressible as the silver question in the Senate yesterday, notwithstanding the opinion of the Foreign relations Committee that existing laws remain in force till 1894. A general Chinese debate was characterized by vigorous onslaught upon the Geary House bill by Mr. Sherman, and remains the unfinished business for to-day.

An ineffectual attempt was made to arrive at an agreement to take a vote on the question at 5 o'clock to-day. Some rather pointed reference was made in the debate to Senators who now denounce violation of the treaty stipulations, but who did not themselves oppose the Scott Exclusion law of 1888.

The Rockwell-Noyes contested election case occupied the entire time of the House, the debate being exceedingly dry, and but little attention was paid to it. The majority of the members occupied their time in chatting and smoking in the foyer and cloak rooms.

Infantry to Bring in the Stockmen.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 22.—Three companies of the 17th Infantry have left here for Douglas to meet the captured stockmen at that point and escort them to this city. The trip will be made over the Cheyenne & Northern Railroad. What disposition will be made of them when they arrive is not now known. Dr. Penrose, of Philadelphia, who accompanied the invaders for part of the journey as surgeon, will have a hearing before the District Court.

The New Connecticut Railroad.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 22.—The Boston & Inland Railroad Company, which filed its certificate of organization yesterday, has a capital stock of $10,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares. Its principal office will be at Middletown, Conn., where most of the stockholders are, a number being also in Boston.

Three New Edison Patents.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Three patents on what is known as the carbon contact, will be issued on May 3 to Edison, who has assigned them to the Western Union Telegraph Company, which has sold them to the Bell Telephone Company. The patents are regarded as very important.

WED HER AT LAST

Banker de Muriac's Love Endured for Years.

HIS BRIDE ONCE REJECTED HIM.

A Romantic Story of Love, Desertion, Divorce and Matrimony.

Both Married Afterward—The Banker's Wife Died, and the Lady Obtained a Divorce Because of Her Husband's Cruelty —Meeting Her Again, De Muriac's Youthful Love Revived, and He Proposed, This Time Successfully.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Twenty-one years ago E. A. de Muriac, a broker in this city, offered his heart and hand to Miss Laura White, daughter of Judge White of Cooperstown, N. Y. He was rejected and the lady married W. E. Leavitt and went to live at Flushing, L. I. About a year ago she took up her residence in Sioux Falls, S. D., and secured a divorce from her husband on the ground of desertion and non-support.

A year before this she had been on a visit to Cooperstown, and on her return home found that her husband had locked the door against her. She returned to Cooperstown, and finally secured her divorce at Sioux Falls.

DeMauriac had been married, but his wife had died. When his former love was set free he once more appeared as her suitor, and this time was accepted.

The marriage took place yesterday in the presence of a few guests.

DeMauriac is a wealthy banker and stock broker of this city and is a member of the Stock Exchange and a prominent club man.

A STRIKE IMMINENT.

The Dissatisfaction on the Reading System Reaches Serious Proportions.

EASTON, Pa., April 22.—The dissatisfaction of employes in the Reading combine is now said to have reached such serious proportions that a big strike is threatened.

It is understood that the engineers and other employes of the road are much dissatisfied with the way things have been managed since the Lehigh Valley, the Jersey Central and the Reading roads were placed under one management. The chief cause of dissatisfaction seems to be that many trains have been discontinued, thus throwing men out of work, and that in discharging these men, union men have been selected as the victims.

The Brotherhood of Engineers, it is said, are the principal sufferers by the combine, and it is this body that is pushing the matter to the front in an effort to bring the company to terms.

Members of this organization say that the entire system will be tied up unless the matter is amicably settled soon.

It is said that President McLeod has announced his determination to rid the system of all union men and that he would welcome a fight at this time.

Fierce Forest Fire in Maine.

DAMARISCOTTA, Me., April 22.—A fire that started about noon yesterday near John Burks, in Booth Bay, worked into the woods and burned over 600 to 800 acres, including the dwelling of William Merry and the school house in district 5. It swept south to Haggett's ice pond, when a change of wind drove the flames down the east side of Pleasant Cove, covering the land of eleven different owners. The loss is estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000.

A Triple Tragedy.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 22.—James H. Cockerman last night went to the home of his divorced wife, Nancy, near this city, fired through the window, instantly killing William T. Davis, her hired hand. He then pursued Mrs. Cockerman to the road and shot her dead, and reloaded his gun and blew his own head off. Mrs. Cockerman secured a divorce from her husband last year on a showing of 10 years of terrible cruelty.

Mrs. Harrison Better.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Mrs. Harrison's condition is slightly improved, said Dr. Gardner, her physician, this morning, although the present inclement weather has a very depressing effect upon her. A noticeable improvement in her condition is the return of her appetite, and the doctor said with a little good weather his patient would be up and around.

Jaeger May Have Killed Himself.

BERLIN, April 22.—The exact figure of Jaeger's embezzlement from the Rothschilds is said to be 1,700,000 marks. It is thought that he may have committed suicide, as he expressed an intention to that effect in a letter written from Darmstadt to the manager of the Rothschilds house at Frankfort. The police have sent to Darmstadt to try and arrest him.

Prof. Totten to Join His Battery.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 22.—Capt. James S. Pettit, First United States Infantry, has been ordered to relieve Lieut. C. A. L. Totten as Professor of Military Science in Sheffield Scientific School, Yale University. Lieut. Totten is ordered to join his battery of the Fourth United States Artillery. The change goes into effect August 1.

Barnum's Heirs Satisfied.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 22.—There were no objections offered yesterday by the heirs of P. T. Barnum to the report of Executors William F. Hincks and Benjamin Fish. This shows that they are satisfied with the executors' management of the estate. Mrs. Thompson, the showman's oldest daughter, wrote to Judge Beardsley expressing her approval of the administration.

SEARCHING FOR THE BODIES.

Ten Men Still in the Flooded Mine at Minersville, Pa.

MINERSVILLE, Pa., April 22. — There are 10 men still in the Lyttle Coal Company's colliery, all of whom are supposed to be drowned. The names of the unfortunate men are: Thomas Buggy, and John Zerby, both miners, engaged in timbering; Albert Sabella, contractor, and his gang of laborers. They were engaged in driving a gangway in the lower part of the mine. Zerby is married and has several children. Buggy is the son of a widowed mother, and was her only support.

Several immense pumps, each lifting 1,000,000 gallons a day, are rapidly lowering the water in the mine. Up to this morning nothing has been seen or heard of the eight Italians and two Americans who are undoubtedly drowned. It is expected their bodies will not be reached before this evening.

AMES IS SATISFIED.

The Ex-Governor's Reasons For Going Before the Convention.

BOSTON, Mass., April 23.—In an interview ex-Governor Ames said:

"I am well satisfied with my candidacy before the convention as delegate-at-large. I did not desire the honor of representing the State in this capacity, a fact well known previous to the proceedings.

"I was willing to go before the convention to ascertain how large a proportion of the delegates agreed with my views on the tariff. It appears that 167 delegates voted for me as a consequence of this statement. The result has justified me.

"I approve of the platform adopted, especially the paragraph relating to the amendment of the tariff laws."

Mercier's Arrest for Conspiracy.

MONTREAL, Que., April 23.—The arrest of Mr. Mercier, ex-Premier of the Province of Quebec, on a charge of conspiring to defraud the province of $60,000, has caused a sensation here. Mr. Mercier will defend himself. He said to-day: "I never conspired. I never demanded a cent and never touched the money which was deposited. I never knew, till the statements before the Royal Commission, that Langlais had subscribed a cent.

Mississippi River Rising.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Recent heavy rains are causing the rivers to rise rapidly in the Ohio and upper Mississippi valleys. The stages of water in the lower Mississippi River already high and rising will be added to greatly the next two weeks. The situation as regards the possibility of an overflow of the lower Mississippi is critical.

—Fine butter is a specialty at the store of the United Tea and Coffee Growers' association.

—The Unions of Grant avenue will play a game of base-ball against the Merits to-morrow.

—There will be a tennis tournament for members only of the Hillside club, in their new courts on Decoration Day.

—An anniversary entertainment and ball will be given by Plainfield Lodge, 44, I. O. O. F., at Music Hall, April 26. Tickets may be procured at the Central pharmacy.

—The Independent Gun club will hold a shooting tournament on their grounds in North Plainfield, July 21 and 22. It will be open to all, without handicap. Live birds and inanimate targets will be used.

—The name of Miss F. May Grant was unintentionally omitted from yesterday's mention of the musical at Mrs. Cruikshank's. Miss Grant's singing contributed greatly to the enjoyment of that occasion.

—The text for to-morrow morning at the Seventh-day Baptist church will be from Isa. XLII: 3, "A bruised reed he shall not break, and the smoking flax he shall not quench; he shall bring forth judgment in truth".

—VanEmburgh & White advertise a special matting sale, commencing to-day and continuing for one week. This firm have been very large buyers at the late trade sales and they say that they will offer matting at half the usual price.

—Opportunity to secure a valuable bargain in real estate will be afforded in the auction sale of Alex. Thorn's property at 27 Somerset street, next Monday afternoon, at 2, on the premises. This property includes the three-story brick building, with store and flats, stable in the rear, and driveway at the side.

—When you start out to do your Saturday trading, to-morrow, go to Sherwin's and look at the new spring and summer styles of shoes. Sherwin studies to suit your pocket. It pays best to buy good shoes, but everyone can't pay high prices. At his store you will find all kinds, from the cheapest to the best.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Allie DeCamp of Chester is visiting old school friends in the borough.

George H. Babcock gave an interesting exhibition of stereopticon views in the Seventh-day Baptist church, Wednesday evening. The views were taken by himself while abroad, and he explained them with an entertaining talk.

Mrs. George H. Frost, of 119 Broadway, accompanied by her son, Edwin, and her sister, Miss Hunt of Chicago, will sail on the steamship Etruria to-morrow, to be absent about four months, spending most of the time in England.

Charles Brown will conduct the mission of the "Sea and Land", in New York city this evening. This mission is located corner of Market and Henry streets and is in the district in which Joseph A. Goodhue, formerly of Plainfield, conducts his missionary labors.

"A Visit to a Live Volcano and a Dead City" will be the subject of the lecture to be given by the Rev. Charles B. Mitchell under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. next Thursday evening. The lecture will be illustrated with a stereopticon and will be free to all men.

It is n't once a year that a side in whist plays all the way from this city to Communipaw without scoring a point. But there are pairs living whom no combination can win against. That's the reason DeWitte Clinton Ivins and Charles W. Beebe had 0 and Mayor Alex Gilbert and John W. Murray, sr., had 24, the other morning when the train drew up in the Jersey City station.

The tea at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tier, last evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work society of the Trinity Reformed church, was a success, notwithstanding the bad weather. During the evening B. F. LaVere played several solos on the cornet, accompanied by Miss Mary Martin on the piano. Altogether a pleasant evening was spent by all who attended.

Frank O. Herring and Charles C. Burnet represented the Union County Country club at the opening of the Elizabeth Athletic club's new home, Tuesday evening. The event brought together 1,000 guests from the New York A. C., the Jersey City A. C., the Palma, the Plainfield Crescent League, the Manhattan, and other well-known clubs of New Jersey's vicinity. During the reception a match game was bowled on the new alleys by teams of the E. A. C. and the Palma. Fully 500 viewed the game. There are six alleys with seats for spectators arranged like a grand stand. The Elizabeth club's members proved themselves royal hosts.

PLAINFIELD LOSES A BELLE.

John Griffin Faxon, a Prominent Massachusetts Newspaper Man, Wins Miss Alice Holmes and Bears Her Away to Fitchburg.

RESCENT avenue church, at 7:30 last evening, held 500 of Plainfield's representative people gathered to witness the wedding of Miss Alice Holmes, oldest daughter of Captain and Mrs. Augustus D. Holmes, to John Griffin Faxon of Fitchburg, Mass. In spite of the storm everyone of her remarkably large circle of friends was present, and although she was not a bride the sun shone on, she was a bride wedded in the light and warmth of the sincere smiles of regard, and benevolence, and hope of half a thousand admirers.

The bridal party consisted of Miss Augusta Holmes, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor. She wore white crepe and chiffon and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Holmes and Miss Florence Faxon, sisters of the bride and groom. They wore pink crepe and chiffon and carried pink roses. After the bride herself, Miss Ethel Holmes, her younger sister, was the subject, even in such a party, of universal admiration. The groom waited the coming of the bride at the altar with his brother, Harold Faxon. The ushers were: Alfred Holmes, Frank Clawson, William Hubbard, Frank Hubbard and Max Munger of this city, and Edward Spencer of Brooklyn.

The bride's gown was of white bengaline with pointe de Gene lace. Pendant at her throat was a diamond star, the gift of the groom. Her veil of tulle was fastened with arbutus, and she carried long-stemmed white roses loosely tied with white ribbon. She entered the church on the arm of her father.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Richards. Miss Jessie Utter was the organist. The floral decorations were profuse, consisting principally of white lilies. At the close of the service, at least 200 of those who had been favored with invitations to the reception, went to the bride's home, 40 East Fifth street, and overwhelmed her with unfeigned congratulations and real, true wishes for her future. Mr. and Mrs. Faxon received under a bower of smilax. The presents dispayed were countless and costly—evidencing everybody's esteem and the depth of it. Supper was served by Ruse, of Elizabeth. Mr. and Mrs. Faxon left on the 10:12 p. m. train for New York, but will spend part of their honeymoon in Washington. Their home will be in Fitchburg where Mr. Faxon is connected with one of the most prominent local papers, besides being an editorial writer and correspondent for many of the best known journals of Massachusetts.

Among the guests present were: Mrs. J. G. Faxon and Miss Randall of Quincy, the mother and aunt of the groom; Miss Emma Clifford of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. David A. Sayre and Miss Florence Fuller of Fanwood; Mrs. Charles Day of Brooklyn: E. Wood Perry of New York; the Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Hurlbut, ex-councilman and Mrs. Townsend Rushmore, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron M. Powell, assessor and Mrs. Joseph A. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Pierson, ex-councilman and Mrs. J. K. Myers, Mr. and Mrs J. W. Gavett, Mrs. Samuel H. Milliken, Miss Julia Bulkley, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Struthers, captain and Mrs, William B. Ostrom, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gavett, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Baynon, ex-judge and Mrs. John Ulrich, the Misses Green, the Misses Demarest, the Misses Bass, Mrs. and Miss Gregg, the Misses Sutphen, Miss Clark, Miss French, Miss C. C. Dewey, Miss Clara O. Dunn, Lilian Newman, Florence Titsworth, Jessie Utter, and Messrs. J. H. Manning, Fred. Newman, and Harry Patton.

North Plainfield Assessments Reduced.

The meeting of the State board of taxation at Trenton, on Wednesday, was devoted to the consideration of petitions on appeal of William White and John C. Tappin of North Plainfield, from the assessment for the taxation against their respective properties made by the borough and township of North Plainfield.

The decisions of the board were rendered yesterday, and are as follows: Wm. White, assessed $30,000 in 1891, has been reduced to $20,000. In 1890 he was assessed $13,200, and it was reduced to $9,000.

In the Tappin case the assessments were $33,000, which has been reduced to $20,000.

Borough Property Changes Hands.

Mr. Harder Will Tell of the Slums.

During his recent travels through some of the larger cities of the United States, F. C. Harder of Madison avenue, has made it a point to visit the missions in those cities. In this way of personal observation he has had an opportunity of learning much about city mission work.

Mr. Harder has consented to tell what he has seen and heard, in Hope chapel this evening. All who are interested in hearing how the Gospel is being preached in the "slums" of the great cities are invited to be present.

Plainfield's Delegates to Trenton.

The Plainfield Republicans last night finished their selection of delegates to the State and Congressional conventions.

In the Second ward the Hon. John Ulrich was chosen as State delegate, with B. Gray as alternate. Vincent W. Nash was made Congressional delegate, with Mr. Patton alternate.

In the Third ward the delegates chosen were: State—Francis E. Marsh; alternate—Frank W. Runyon. Congressional—John W. Murry; alternate—F. W. Runyon.

J. Fred MacDonald has been chosen as the First ward's delegate to both the State and Congressional conventions, and J. T. McMurray was made alternate.

In the Fourth ward Abrahm Angleman was chosen as delegate to both conventions, and J. F. Millington was made alternate.

Set right—all the proper functions of womanhood. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the remedy. It regulates and promotes their action, and removes the obstructions and suppressions which cause trouble and misery. At the two critical periods in a woman's life—the change from girlhood to womanhood, and, later, the "change of life"—it is a perfectly safe and an especially valuable remedial agent, that can produce only good results.

It's a powerful, invigorating tonic, and a soothing and strengthening nervine; a legitimate medicine—purely vegetable, perfectly harmless—and carefully adapted, by an experienced physician, to woman's delicate needs.

For all the derangements, irregularities, and weaknesses peculiar to the sex, the "Favorite Prescription" is a remedy so certain that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't give satisfaction in every case, the money is returned. No other medicine for women is sold in this way. No other medicine can be.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

THE OLD ALMANAC MAKER.

HIS NAME IS DAVID A. DABOLL, THE SIRE OF PLAINFIELD CITIZENS.

Interesting Biography of the Famous Author of the Farmer's Friend, Which Has Been Issued Annually Since 1772—How He Spends His Days and Calculates His Predictions—He, His Sires, and His Sons, Are a Race of Mathematicians.

By taking the old Providence turnpike at New London, Conn., and following its crooked easterly course through four miles of rock-ribbed country, one arrives at the little Connecticut hamlet of Centre Groton. It consists of a post-office, where the Ledyard road crosses the turnpike, a typical country store, and a scattering of houses along the highway. The third house east of the post office, on the left hand side of the turnpike as one jogs along toward Providence, is a remarkable and aged structure. It is the house of David A. Daboll, the famous old almanac maker, father of Henry E. and Nathan D. Daboll of this city, and it has been the birthplace of almanac makers, mathematicians, and inventors, for more than a century.

Since 1772 the "New England Almanac and Farmer's Friend" has been issued annually by the Dabolls. It was one of the first in the field, and it is the oldest publication of its kind in existence to-day. It is the recognized authority on the vagaries of the weather and the workings of the sun, moon and stars. Every farm-house throughout New England has an almanac, which always hangs at the side of the old-fashioned fireplace in the kitchen; and all steamships and sailing vessels that cruise from New England seaport towns invariably have the "Farmer's Friend" hanging in their cabins. The almanac has an annual circulation of more than 30,000 copies.

There is a tradition among the farmers of New England that the almanac maker's forecasts are infallible, and that tradition has been handed down for more than half a century. It originated in this way: About sixty years ago David A. Daboll's father, Nathan, who was the almanac maker then, prophesied snow on the 4th of July. He did n't do it intentionally, but it was in the book. When the almanac maker discovered the typographical error, he thought the best way would be to bluff it out. The farmers saw the mistake and were pleased. They talked and joked about it until July rolled around. When the morning of the Fourth came the heads of families looked at the sky, so the old grandfathers tell the story to-day, and remarked with a smile:

"Well, I calc'late Nathan's wrong fur onct. Boys, turn out and get at that 'er wheat."

While they were gathering the golden grain, toward noon, the sky became overcast, so the story goes, and suddenly became filled with feathery flakes. For a few minutes the snow fell thick and fast, and then the squall passed away. The good farmers were speechless with surprise. When they recovered, everyone vowed that Nathan was a "right smart man", after all. Ever since then the almanac has not been doubted.

The almanac is used also by the farmers as an expense book. They keep their accounts in it, and at the end of the year figure out just what their annual earning were, as a merchant would with a complete set of books. They use the almanac for a memorandum book, too. In it they jot down opposite the various days in each month the things they wish to remember. Every night, after the chores have been done, it is customary for the old-fashioned New England farmer to take down the "Friend" which holds the next place in his heart to that of his wife, write down the work of the day, fumble over the leaves, and study the sun, moon, and stars for weeks in advance. When weary of that he reads the advertisements and jokes for recreation. The collection of jokes is a source of amusement to the farmer and his family for the entire year. Here are two samples:

Sister Lizzie was to be married in a few months and she was putting in the interval of leisure from preparing for the ceremony in the way of dress, by experimenting on her family in the cooking line. Little John was going to bed, and went through his usual prayers up to the point of saying, "Give us this day our daily bread", when some depressing memory struck him, and he added "But do n't let Lizzie bake it".

A young man led a blushing female into the presence of the Rev. Dr. Carpenter. "We want to get married"—he said—"Are you the Rev. Mr. Carpenter?" "Yes"—responded the genial minister—"Carpenter and joiner".

While the farmers are consulting the book these evenings, and chuckling over the jokes, the old almanac maker is hard at work making his calculations for "Number One Hundred and Twenty-one of the Series", which will appear January 1, 1893. His office is in a wing of the house. It is a unique little den. The furniture is antique, and scattered around are books and pamphlets yellow by age. At a small round table, littered with musty papers, the old almanac maker prefers to do his work. During the summer months he sits far into the night, working out his calculations by the glow of a kerosene lamp and to the music of the chirping crickets. He will be 79 years of age in May. His eye is bright, his brain active, and his memory infallible.

"Almanac making"—he says—"is easy enough when you know how. It's merely a question of mathematics and patience. I make my calculations for this meridian from the 'Nautical Almanac'. That is a work issued by the Royal Observatory of Greenwich several years in advance for the special use of astronomers and navigators. It contains vast information, but only for the meridan of Greenwich. So it is necessary for me to calculate it all over again for the meridian of New London, and that takes me, the way I work, about a year".

The "Farmer's Friend" has all of the astronomical calculations needed on land or sea, as well as a daily forecast of the weather for the entire year.

David A. Daboll is of the third generation of the family that published the "Farmer's Friend". His grandfather, Nathan Daboll, conceived the idea and produced the first number in 1772. He was professor of mathematics at Plainfield Academy, and the author of the famous old Daboll arithmatic, or "Schoolmaster's Assistant", and a work on navigation. He made the calculations until 1818. From then until 1864 his son, also named Nathan, was the almanac maker, and from that time down David A., one of six sons of Nathan the second, has figured out the astronomical problems. Every one of David's brothers was capable of taking up the work at a moment's notice, but it was never necessary. All were mathematicians. One of them invented the fog horn, which warns the mariner of danger when the weather on the coast is thick and keeps the seaside summer boarder awake on foggy nights. The present almanac maker has three sons all prominent mathematicians. David A. Daboll, jr., lives in Centre Groton, and expects to be his father's successor. The other two, as already stated, are Plainfielders. Nathan D., of 54 East Sixth street, is by profession an expert accountant of very high standing. Henry E., of 50 East Sixth street, holds a financial position of eminence with the Continental Trust company of the City of New York, at 18 Wall street. Both have for years been among Plainfield's most esteemed residents.

The house which the almanac maker occupies was built by old Nathan more than a century ago, and it has been the home of a Daboll always. The first number of the almanac was prepared under its low oaken roof, and each succeeding number has been prepared there also. There Nathan arranged his "Schoolmaster's Assistant". The book on navigation was written there. Afterward the little house was used for a nautical school, although four miles from the water, and for years father and son taught navigation. Boys came from many towns of New England to receive instructions, and more than 200 were prepared as midshipmen for the navy. Some of the well-known captains of the present day received their first instructions in navigation in Centre Groton.

It must not be inferred that the sole or even principal occupation of the subject of this sketch, during his long and busy life, had been the preparation of the venerable periodical which from the hands of father, son and grandson has regularly made its appearance for one hundred and twenty consecutive years. In reality, its preparation has been but a kind of rainy-day work for its author, who in his profession of civil engineer and surveyor has earned an honorable reputation both in his own State and outside of it. It may be safely said that few men have laid out more streets and highways, or settled more disputed boundaries, than he. His reputation for painstaking accuracy and conscientious conservatism has become proverbial, and rarely if ever is any survey of his, or any statement made by him in court concerning it, disputed by opposing counsel. In his professional capacity and otherwise he has been called to serve on numberless committees or commissions of town, county and State, during the last forty years. The older generation of Connecticut statesmen all know and honor him, and few citizens of the State enjoy a wider acquaintance with its public men of to-day.

A Democrat by birth and conviction, he began his public life in Washington during the administration of VanBuren, but retired voluntarily after a few years' service. Practical politics, so-called, are not at all to his taste.

Residing in a strong Republican district, he has nevertheless been elected by handsome majorities both to the Assembly and Senate of his State, but the office has always been compelled to seek the man and take the chances of finding him around when called for.

Among his neighbors and townspeople "Squire Daboll", as he is familiarly called, has always been a kind of consulting lawyer—without fee,—in ordinary legal matters touching their interests. Scores of estates have been entrusted to him for settlement, and, as a lawyer once remarked, "almost the only thing about probate law which the old gentleman has never learned, is how to make a proper charge for his services."

I FEEL it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren ave., Chicago, Ill.

Mayor Gilbert and Dr. Carroll May Select the Next President.

[From The Elizabeth Journal.]

The Hon. Alexander Gilbert, mayor of Plainfield, is very prominently spoken of as one of the delegates from the new Eighth congressional district to the Republican national convention at Minneapolis. A better man could not be selected. The other delegate from this district is likely to be the Hon. Elias M. Condit, of West Orange; another good man and thorough republican. Two alternates are to be selected, and quite a number are mentioned for this honor. The delegates from the Fifth district are likely to be the Hon. William Barber, of Paterson, and John E. Miller, of Bergen. Mr. Swayze is talked of as a probable delegate from the Sussex county district, and Dr. H. K. Carroll from North Plainfield, Somerset. Hudson county will probably send Mr. McEwan as one delegate and Essex may choose Alderman Parker. The delegates-at-large that seem to have been very generally agreed upon are the Hon. Garret A. Hobart, the Hon. George A. Halsey, the Hon. William J. Sewell and the Hon. John I. Blair.

Carmencita's Nose Out of Joint.

For more than a year Carmencita—the dark-skinned Castilian—has delighted thousands of people at Koster & Bial's in New York, with her dancing. But now her nose is out of joint. She has been thrown completely in the shade, for New York is wild over a new dance, the "Serpentine". No terpsichorean fad has created such a furore as this latest phase of the skirt dance. Old-timers and blase theatre-goers at last have a novelty to stir the sluggish blood in their veins; and nightly the bloods and dudes crack their kid gloves in applauding the "Serpentine". The principal effect of the dance is the dress, which is made of the fleeciest of China crepe silk, and is twirled by the dancer in all sorts of circles, spirals and graceful figures. This new stage dance is introduced in the second act of the comedy "Tangled Up", to be given at Music Hall, Wednesday evening of next week, by the well-known soubrette and danseuse, Lottie Mortimer, and creates a sensation wherever she appears. The "Serpentine" is indescribable—it must be seen to be appreciated.

How the Organ of 13,000 Masons Will be Cared for in Judge Ulrich's Absence.

(From The New York Journalist.)

The fraternity has been honored in the selection of the Hon. John Ulrich, of Plainfield, editor and ex-assemblyman, by the national management of the Republican party, to take charge of the work of organization throughout the State. He is to have full charge of the New Jersey w rk during the coming presidential campaign, and will be a busy man in politics until after the election.

He will necessarily have to leave in the hands of another his Royal Craftsman, the handsome and thrifty New Jersey organ of the Masonic fraternity, and he has made to his brother Mason, James Alfred Demarest, managing editor of the Plainfield Daily Press, a most flattering offer to take charge of the paper for the balance of the year. Mr. Demarest is already one of the busiest men in the profession, but judge Ulrich hopes to prevail upon him to add to his manifold duties this undertaking also. Through Judge Ulrich's press of legal and political duties the Royal Craftsman has of late suffered neglect. It needs just such a man of executive ability as Mr. Demarest to carry it to the front of the world of fraternity newspapers.

—The four o'clock meeting at Reform Hall Sunday afternoon will be conducted by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Post, active, earnest mission workers from New York.

—The "Temple Builders", an auxiliary of the young ladies missionary society of the First Baptist church, will have a sociable in the church parlors next Tuesday evening.

—Thomas Muldowney of the Young Crescents, writes THE PRESS that he would like to hear from the Crescent League team—to-morrow if possible—to arrange a game.

—James Johnston, superintendent of the Florence Mission, and Wm. Howard Hoople of New York city, will speak to men under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., next Sunday afternoon at 4:15.

Is the only Positive Cure and Legitimate Remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It cures the worst forms of Female Complaints, that Bearing-down Feeling, Weak Back, Falling and Displacement of the Womb, Inflammation, Ovarian Troubles, and all Organic Diseases of the Uterus or Womb, and is invaluable to the Change of Life. Dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus at an early stage, and checks any tendency to Cancerous Humor. Subdues Faintness, Excitability, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, etc., and invigorates the whole system. For the cure of Kidney Complaints of either sex, the Compound has no rival.

All Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00. LYDIA E. PINKHAM MED. CO., LYNN, MASS.

An Illustrated book, entitled "Guide to Health and Etiquette," by Lydia E. Pinkham, is of great value to ladies. We will present a copy to anyone addressing us with two 2-cent stamps.

Flossie's Fancy.

Flossie's grandfather has of late been growing stout, and at the same time his hair has been growing thinner. The other day the youngster was running her hands over his face and head and the changes startled her.

"My, oh!" she exclaimed, "the cracks is all goin' out of grandpa's face and his hair's wearin' out on top."—Detroit Free Press.

Not a Bad Plan.

"My dear old friend, how were you able to acquire such an immense fortune?"

"By a very simple method."

"What is that?"

"When I was poor I made out I was rich, and when I was rich I made out that I was poor."—Texas Siftings.

Tea for Children.

Aunty (to little visitor) — Do you drink tea, pet?

Wee Niece—No'm. Mamma won't let me.

Aunty—What do you drink?

Wee Niece—Oh! mamma mixes me up a mess that looks like tea.—Good News.

Now and Then.

Tramp (reading from a scrap of newspaper around his lunch)—This paper here, pardner, says the time's comin' when men won't be obliged to work.

Pardner—Comin', is it? What's the matter with us right now?—Detroit Free Press.

Poetry and Prose.

Practical Father—So you want to marry my daughter, eh?

Poetical Lover—Yes, sir. I would lie down and die for her!

Practical Father—H'm! Would you get up and work for her?—Harper's Bazar.

A MISFIT APPLICANT.

Applicant—I see you want a man to run the elevator.

Owner of Building—Yes; but I want one who won't occupy all the room himself.—Truth.

But He Was Not a Thief.

Jeeson—Did you ever see a man rob himself?

Gason—No. Did you?

Jeeson—Yes. I just saw a butcher steel his knife before cutting a steak.

And Jeeson smiled wickedly as he vanished round the corner.—Comic.

Discretion.

Caraway—Sad, isn't it, to contemplate the number of great men the grip has carried off?

Hooks—You're right. Next winter I shall go away, I think, to some warm and sunny clime.—Jury.

Still Young.

Teacher—I am surprised that you are not further advanced. You are extremely backward for your age.

Little Girl—Yes'm. Mamma wants to marry again.—Good News.

Disorderly Citizens.

Traveler—Why are those people being sent to Siberia?

Russian Official—They refusivitz to do their starvingivitz in quietivitz.—N. Y. Weekly.

Not the Coffee.

Customer—This coffee tastes like an old tobacco pipe.

Waiter—I'll bring you a basin of water so you can wash y'r mustache.—Good News.

After the Wedding.

"Well, I hope they'll go forever side by side."

"No, they won't. It'll be tandem and she'll lead."—Judge.

In School.

Teacher—What is quickness?

Scholar—Quickness is when a person drops a hot plate.—Judge.

A Put Up Job.

Mother—Get off that table at once!

Boys—Not while two rats are in the room.—Truth.

Fun For Two.

All children enjoy a drink of

Hires' Root Beer.

So does every other member of the family. A 25 cent package makes 5 gallons of this delicious drink. Don't be deceived if a dealer, for the sake of larger profit, tells you some other kind is "just as good"—'tis false. No imitation is as good as the genuine HIRES'.

Good Old Fashioned Gingerbread.

1 cup molasses, 1 teaspoonful soda,
1 " sugar, 1 " cinnamon,
1 " butter, 1 tablespoonful ginger,
1 " sour or butter milk, 2 eggs.

About 5 cups of flour—work in four, then add cautiously. Stir molasses, sugar, molasses and spice together to a light cream. Warm slightly on range. Beat eggs well, then add to the warmed mixture, milk, sugar, soda, and last flour. Beat very hard for 10 minutes and bake at once in loaf or small tins.

USE

Cottolene

THE

NEW SHORTENING,

Instead of BUTTER.

It will make the cake better, and impart a rich, delicate flavor, the same as in our Grandmother's Gingerbread. COTTOLENE is a vegetable product; new to the world, yet already famous as a perfect, wholesome and economical substitute for lard and butter in all kinds of cooking. One trial will convince you of the superior merits of COTTOLENE. Your grocer has it.

BUCK'S STATEMENTS

O'Brien's Keeper is Contradictory in His Stories.

HE DENIES THAT HE WAS BRIBED

Says that He Trusted to Dishler, but Was Duped by Him.

Buck Thinks that O'Brien is Hiding Near Utica, While the Police Are More Than Confident that the Escaped Bunco Man is In New York—The Story that Politicians Interfered With the Prison Officials Denied.

UTICA, N. Y., April 23.—Keeper Buck of Dannemora prison is still at Baggs Hotel with his wife. He is very contradictory in his statements, but says he is responsible for O'Brien's escape, though he hints that he considers that he has been duped by Dishler. On the other hand, Dishler's friends are positive that he is not with O'Brien, and assert that he will be in the city in a short time, having been called away on business.

Buck is besieged by reporters, and evidently enjoys the publicity he is attaining. He has confessed that he did not know much about about O'Brien's movements from Tuesday morning up to the time he made up his mind that he had escaped. Certainly he knows nothing of them since that time. Every police department in the country has been telegraphed a description of O'Brien with a request for his arrest if found; at the same time Buck thinks that he would not be surprised if the missing man was concealed in this vicinity, as he does not believe that he could get out of the country without being recognized.

It is now stated that Sunday evening, on the arrival of the party from Dannemora in this city, Dishler and Minchon, with a United States deputy marshal went to the jail and delivered O'Brien into the care of the keeper. Buck kept in the background and the jailor was told by the marshal that the prisoner would be taken into court in the morning on a writ of habeas corpus and discharged. "It is not much of a case anyway," the marshal is said to have remarked.

The keeper was also instructed to use O'Brien well, as he was a good fellow. Monday he was taken from the jail, the keeper says, and was brought back in the the afternoon and taken out again in the evening and has not been seen there since. This Buck denies, but the evidence is against him.

In an interview Buck said:

"I am alone responsible for the escape of O'Brien, if he has escaped, but I can't help feeling that he is still within 20 miles of Utica. It would be a good deal better for him to be buried here than to endeavor to get further away.

"They say I have received money for my share in this business. I know I have been careless and negligent, almost criminally so, but I can stand up like a man and say truthfully that I never got a cent. Of the charge of bribery I am innocent. I trusted in Dishler's word, and if he lied to me when he told me that he would produce O'Brien when wanted, then I am entirely responsible for his escape.

"I know I will be discharged and severely censured, but I can expect nothing less, though its pretty rough on a new official. I am sorry that it reflects on Warden Thayer, as he does not deserve it."

Buck denies the story he told to the effect that politicians in any way interfered with the prison officials to secure libertien for O'Brien, but it is known that since making this statement he has been cautioned not to repeat it by some gentlemen who are close to the parties he at first implicated.

O'Brien is thought to be in hiding in New York.

Failure of a Hotel Man.

BOSTON, April 23.—Joseph Lee, proprietor of the Hotel Abbotsford, Commonwealth avenue, this city, and of the Woodland Park Hotel, Auburndale, owes about $103,175, of which $75,000 is secured on real estate. The assets consist of equities in real estate and of teams, materials, furnishings of the hotels, and accounts of the face value of $3,800. Mr. Lee has gone into insolvency.

The Penna. Road Agrees to the Advance.

NEW YORK, April 23.—At the meeting of the coal and freight agents of the Trunk lines the concurrence of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in the advance of 25 cents per ton in westbound rates of coal was received. This advance was ordered last week, but the Pennsylvania did not assent until at this meeting.

Deeming's Trial Postponed.

MELBOURNE, April 23. — The trial of Frederick Bailey Deeming for the murder of his wife, called in all the proceedings in Australia Mrs. Williams, that being the name Deeming assumed here, has been adjourned to April 28, in order to permit of witnesses being brought from England.

Increased Its Stock a Million.

PHILADELPHIA, April 23.—The Tacoma Land Company has increased its stock from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. The N. Pacific owns nearly half of the stock. It is stated that Mr. Willard's recent visit to this city was in connection with this increase of stock.

Corrigan Will Not Be Cardinal.

ROME, April 23.—The Pope has definitely refused the request that he elevate Archbishop Corrigan of New York to the Cardinalate. It is thought that this decision is the consequence of the antagonism between the Archbishop and Cardinal Gibbons.

THE APPEAL ANSWERED.

President Harrison Sends a Message to the People of Buffalo, Wyo.

BUFFALO, Wyo., April 23.—The following message in reply to an appeal from the people was received from President Harrison in the evening. The message was circulated among the people and is well received.

They feel better now that they know the President and the public are aware they wish an investigation and justice done to all parties. The local authorities will now prove their self-control and submission to law and order.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, D. C., April 22.
To J. C. Hagerson and others.
Buffalo, Wyo:

"The Governor of your State made a call upon me in conformity with the constitution of the United States for aid in suppressing domestic violence and threatened bloodshed.

"I could know nothing of the situation except as it was stated by him and could not refuse the aid of troops to preserve the peace. The prisoners will, as soon as the State authorities are prepared to receive them, be turned over to the civil authorities and our connection with the matter will end, unless further called upon to aid the State authorities in preserving the peace.

"I do not doubt that the executive and judicial authorities of your State will, without fear or favor, bring to trial and punishment, whose who have violated the law, by orderly methods. Nothing will be done by me to shield any guilty person. My counsel, as your fellow citizen, is to use every effort to allay excitement and to proceed in all things peacefully and upon lawful lines. I will, of course, see any one you send, but you will see that I can do nothing except to act with the State authorities to prevent violence. Everything else rests with the State authorities.

"BENJAMIN HARRISON."

DISCOVERED A LOST ART.

An Inventor Claims to Be Able to Cast Glass Tubes.

ANDERSON, Ind., April 23.—R. G. Guptill, a prominent glass manufacturer, claims to have discovered the lost art of casting glass tubes, which is known to have been practiced by the Egyptians. He has interested capitalists in his invention and has erected a factory at Pendleton, a small town near here, and yesterday made his first cast with success.

The glass tubes are suitable for sewer, gas and water mains and are joined by a glass cement, also the invention of Mr. Guptill.

The factory is a large one, and all operations are conducted with the greatest secrecy.

The Reported Capture of Porto Novo.

PARIS, April 23. — The Government neither denies or affirms the report that Porto Novo has been captured by the Dahomeyans. The statement is made that no official advices have been received upon the subject. The French forces on the Dahomeyan coast had been warned not to take the offensive for the present, and a dispatch repeating this instruction has been sent by the Minister of Marine, who has complete charge of the operations against Dahomey. The sensation regarding the reported fate of Porto Novo continues, and there is the greatest anxiety for facts on the reported capture.

Chicago Longshoremen's Strike.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Shipping interests are suffering on account of the longshoremen's strike, which seems as far from settlement as ever. Half a dozen big steamers have been in port for 10 days without being able to unload any part of their cargoes. Fights between the strikers and non-union men are of daily occurrence, despite the efforts of the police, and the strikers are growing more and more desperate. A fierce battle took place during the morning at the western transit companies dock, in which half a dozen men on each side were badly used up.

Von Der Ahe Claims the "Gladiator."

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 23.—Chris Von der Ahe has filed a protest with President Nick Young against Pete Browning playing ball with Louisville. Von der Ahe claims that negotiations were pending between himself and Browning for the latter to play with the St. Louis Club. Von der Ahe says Louisville lost all rights to Browing by not accepting him when assigned to them by the Indianapolis meeting. President Young has not yet given his decision in the matter.

Two Wooden Blocks Burned.

BIDDEFORD, Me., April 23.—Two wooden blocks on Main street, one owned by Bryant & Garland and the other by the Sweeter estate, were burned in the morning. One was insured for $1,000 and the other for $1,500. Nine tenants lose in the aggregate $6,500.

Crushed to Death by an Avalanche.

TORONTO, Ont., April 23.—Alfred Lucas, Ernest Lucas and Henry Pratzle were crushed to death by a landslide. They were engaged at play at the foot of an embankment when the slide occurred which covered them to a depth of about 10 feet.

RADLOFF IS ALIVE

A Scheme to Beat New York Insurance Companies.

A CONSPIRATOR'S CONFESSION.

The Burned Body Found Was Stolen From the Seattle Cemetery.

Radloff Went to San Francisco, While His Accomplice Stayed Behind—The Would-be Swindlers, Together With Radloff's Wife, Who Had Been Sent Away, Were to Meet in Germany and Share the Spoils.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 23.—The mystery surrounding the burned body found in the house of William Radloff, near this city, is cleared up by the confession of Kostrauch, who was arrested shortly after the fire, charged with the murder of Radloff. He says it was a conspiracy against the three New York insurance companies in which Radloff had his life insured, and that the latter is alive and well.

Kostrauch says that he, Radloff and Mrs. Radloff planned the whole affair. Radloff applied for for insurance in the New York Life, the Mutual and the Equitable, and was passed by the physicians as a first class risk. A few days after the doctors had passed him and the applications had been sent to the home offices for acceptance, Radloff and Kostrauch went by night to the cemetery near their home and dug up the body of R. D. Lewin, a neighbor of about the same age as Radloff, who had died on Feb. 19.

The coffin with the body was buried again in the chicken yard near Radloff's house. Then the conspirators waited for the insurance policies. When everything was ready Mrs. Radloff was sent away, the body dug up, stripped, and some of Radloff's clothing put on instead. The body was laid on Radloff's bed and the house fired. Radloff started the same night for San Francisco, but Kostrauch remained behind. He played a clever part after his arrest in order to divert the officers so that no description of Radloff would be telegraphed abroad. He was prepared, however, to prove an alibi later.

Mrs. Radloff denies any knowledge of the conspiracy, but Kostrauch alleges that they were all to meet in Germany and share the spoils. The police are after Radloff, who will be prosecuted by the insurance companies for conspiracy to defraud.

SUFFERING FOR WATER.

Plight of Homesteaders in the New Oklahoma—Corn Planting Commenced.

KINGFISHER, Okla., April 23.—There are 1,400 men waiting here to file papers, and the office already has 15 days' work in sight, with more coming every hour. The riffraff are going out of town by the hundreds, yet the streets are still thronged.

The new county seats have been settled, city and county governments organized peacefully and all is quiet today. The settlers are already breaking prairie and planting corn and boomers are getting in their work on selling their claims.

In some of the new towns boomers are selling lots for $1 apiece. The homesteaders are suffering from lack of water and unless rain comes soon the settlement of large sections will be delayed for a time.

Major-General Pelly, M. P., Dead.

LONDON, April 23.—Major-General Sir Lewis Pelly, Conservative M. P. for North Hackney, is dead. He was born in 1825 and was educated at Rugby. He entered the army at the age of 15, and secured promotion by distinguished service. In 1851 he was appointed attache to Sir James Outram. He was in the Persian war of 1857, and for some time afterward he was on special service missions to Zanzibar and other places. In 1873 he was appointed, with Sir Bartle Frere, on a mission to the east coast of Africa and Arabia for the suppression of the slave trade. In 1876 he was Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary for Afghan Affairs.

Sickness and Death on Board.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The United States and Brazil Mail Steamship Company's steamer Alliance, just arrived from Rio Janeiro, etc., reports that on March 24th Howard F. Appleton, aged 22 years, freight clerk, was taken sick with yellow fever and died on March 31. He was buried at sea. Mary Jane Monahan, English, a saloon passenger, died of pneumonia on April 4. Two of the crew, sick of yellow fever, were sent ashore at Santos and six at Rio Janeiro. The vessel is detained at Quarantine for fumigation.

Looking Up His Ancestors.

NORWICH, Conn., April 23.—Ex-President Hayes is here looking up data about the Birchards, who were his ancestors. The houses they used to live in and their graves will be visited by him.

ANNIE WALDEN GUILTY.

The Jury Bring in a Verdict of Murder in the Second Degree.

NEW YORK, April 23. — The trial of Mrs. Annie Walden, who shot and killed her husband, James Walden, on the night of October 31 last at Broadway and 45th street, has ended, the jury finding a verdict of murder in the second degree against the defendant.

The case has attracted a good deal of attention among persons of sporting proclivities, in which class of people both the murdered man and his murderess were prominent.

James Walden was the son of Jeter Walden, the well-known owner and trainer of thoroughbreds. He met his wife at the races where she was known as Mrs. Delmar, although she had never been married. Young Walden—he was only 19 years old at the time—became infatuated with the woman, and shortly after their acquaintance they were married at Camden, N. J.

Their married life, according to the tale told by Mrs. Walden, was far from a happy one. Walden remained out late nights, and his wife learned that he was frequently seen in the company of other women. When she upbraided him he accused her of unfaithfulness and often beat her severely.

This condition of affairs continued until Mrs. Walden saw her husband, on the night of Oct. 31 last, come out of the house of a woman whom she had begged her husband to cease visiting.

She reproached him on the street, and he retorted that he would go wherever he pleased. She then drew a revolver which she had concealed in her bosom and fired the fatal shots.

JAEGER'S DEFALCATION.

It Amounts to 2,500,000 Marks—Suicide Theory Abandoned.

BERLIN, April 23.—The total defalcations of Cashier Jaeger of the house of Rothschilds amount to 2,500,000 marks. Two days before absconding Jaeger received for the bank a check for 1,750,000 marks from the Imperial Bank of Germany, drawn in favor of the Rothschilds. Jaeger cashed the check and entered up for the house 53,000 which he deposited.

Part of the balance he used to pay his most pressing debts and the rest he is believed to have with him. The police have been unable to find any trace of him in Darmstadt or elsewhere in Germany, and they are convinced that he is on his way to the United States or Brazil.

Since the discovery that he had taken probably several hundred thousand marks with him, they have abandoned the idea that he may have committed suicide.

Bitten by a Negro.

LEWISTON, N. Y., April 23—Cornelius Solomon, an aged and crippled Tuscarora Indian, was the victim of a terrible outrage two days ago. Solomon lived isolated on Old Mill Lot. He quarreled with Donald Webster, a huge African of Queenstown. Solomon returned home late at night followed by Webster, who was infuriated by drink. He burst open the door, leaped on Solomon, biting him on the face and taking a large piece of flesh out of his lip. Webster escaped to Canada.

International Silver Conference.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—While it is an open secret that the President is endeavoring to secure an international conference on the silver question, the closest reticence in regard to the whole subject is maintained at the White House and the State and Treasury Departments. It is understood that the President has practically completed arrangements for such a conference to be held early next summer, and that invitations will be issued within a few weeks.

Rush for Another Reservation.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 23.—The proposition to open the Colville reservation, which was discussed at a large meeting of the citizens of Stevins county at Kettle Falls, has created a great deal of excitement here. A rush will now be made for the reservation, and it is likely that 200 claims will be filed in less than a week. It is held by good lawyers that the Indians are merely tenants of the reservation by sufferance, and that the whites have a perfect right to the land.

Forged a Pennsylvania Cashier's Name.

TORONTO, Ont., April 23.—Chief Murray of the Ontario detective force has arrested at St. Paul, Minn., E. G. Morton, alias C. H. Phalling, C. C. Cole, etc., a clever swindler, on the charge of obtaining $1,000 from G. W. Scott, a banker of Listowel, Ont., on a forged draft purporting to bear the signature of W. L. Gode, Cashier of the First National Bank at Mahoney City, Pa.

A Trunk Trust This Time.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 23.—News has been received here from Oshkosh and confirmed by local manufacturers of the formation of a national trunk company which practically makes a trust of the business and which will result in the combination of all the large factories of the country. The capital stock will be at least $2,500,000, and the headquarters will be in Chicago.

The Philadelphia Lad Knocked Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Charles Turner (colored) of California, and Jack McCann of Philadelphia, middle-weights, fought for a purse at the Pacific Club, Thursday night. Turner won the fight in eight rounds and had the best of the fight all through.

Cannons to Overawe Anarchists.

PARIS, April 23.—Cavalry and artillery are being sent to Fourmies at the urgent request of the manufacturers there who say that the appearance and noise of cannon passing through the streets will overawe the anarchists and labor agitators.

How They Differ.
In make up: Most baking powders contain ammonia or alum. Cleveland's does not; not a particle.
It is made of pure cream of tartar and bi-carbonate of soda, with a little flour to keep the strength, nothing else. Cleveland's is wholesome.
In strength: A rounded spoonful of Cleveland's does better work than a heaping spoonful of any other.
A large saving on a year's bakings. Cleveland's leavens most.
In results: Cake made with Cleveland's is fine grained, keeps moist and fresh.
Cleveland's leavens best.

WILL FIGHT A DUEL

Borrowe and Fox Want Each Other's Blood.

BOTH HAVE GONE TO FRANCE.

The Publication of the Correspondence by Fox Caused the Trouble.

Borrowe Published a Statement That Fox Was Guilty of a Gross Breach of Faith, and the Latter, It is Said, Issued a Challenge—Millbank is Borrowe's Second, and Col. Ochiltree is Acting in That Capacity for Fox.

LONDON, April 23.—There is a report that Borrowe is to fight a duel with Fox on account of the publication of the letters in the Borrowe-Drayton affair. When Borrowe and Drayton sailed on the Majestic for America after the failure to arrange a satisfactory meeting on the field of honor, Borrowe left all the correspondence relating to the matter in the hands of Mr. Fox, who, with Millbank, was one of his seconds during the negotiations with Drayton.

While they were in midocean the story of the trouble, together with the entire correspondence, was cabled to America by Fox, who, in a later interview, said that he had acted with Borrowe's consent. Borrowe indignantly denied this, and bitter letters passed between him and Fox. When Borrowe and Millbank arrived in London neither of them seemed anxious to meet Fox, but eventually Millbank met him casually, and angry words are said to have passed between them. It is reported that Millbank said he should leave the matter in Borrowe's hands.

Borrowe, on his return to England by the City of Paris, authorized an interviewer to say that in publishing the correspondence as he did Fox was guilty of a gross breach of faith. Fox has been smarting under this censure for some time. He is not a coward by any means. He is an Englishman, but lived some years in the United States, engaged in journalism. He won much notoriety by his famous exploit of interviewing several Indian chiefs during the Modoc War. It was a most daring achievement, and earned for him the title which he has since carried of "Modoc" Fox.

The rumors about a coming duel arise from the fact that Borrowe and Millbank left London early in the morning. Their destination is a secret, but their friends say that there will be a fight very soon. Fox has gone to Calais, where it is expected he will be met by Col. Ochiltree, who was the adviser in the matter of the publication of the letters. If the duel does come off, be the result what it may, it will not put an end to the Borrowe-Drayton scandal, or place either Borrowe or Drayton in any better light since the affair was first made known to the public.

A Difference of Opinion.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The action of the Indiana Democratic convention has provoked considerable discussion at the capital, and there is a wide difference of opinion as to the meaning of the resolutions. The assertion that Mr. Cleveland is made the first choice of the Indiana delegation is denied, and the anti-Cleveland men declare that there is nothing in the resolutions that can be construed into an instruction to vote for Mr. Cleveland at any time. They contend that the only instruction is that they present the name of Mr. Gray, but that in doing so they shall make no fight against Mr. Cleveland so long as he is in the race.

Dedication of the "High Water Mark."

GETTYSBURG, Pa., April 23.—Col. J. B. Paxholder, government historian of the battlefield, is here completing arrangements for dedicating the "high water mark," erected under his supervision by appropriations from the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Michigan and Minnesota. These troops repulsed Pickett's charge where the monument is. A throng of people is expected.

Maguire Sentenced to Death.

NEWBURG, N. Y., April 23.—Judge Bartlett sentenced Fred Maguire, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Amelia Gregory at Middletown last October, to be electrocuted at Sing Sing prison during the week commencing June 6. The case will be appealed.

THE DAILY PRESS.

W. L. & A. L. FORCE, Publishers and Proprietors.

J. A. DEMAREST, - - Managing Editor.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Sunday, Fair, Slightly Warmer—For Monday, Generally Fair; Stationary Temperature.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—A praise service will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms this evening at 8.

—Shareholders of the Plainfield Building and Loan association will meet in Mr. Liefke's room next Monday evening for the payment of monthly dues, etc.

—Mass is celebrated at St. Joseph's church every week day at 7:30 a. m. On holy days occurring on week days mass is celebrated at 5:30 and 8 a. m., and evening service is held at 8.

Clarence S. Johnson has been appointed secretary and treasurer of the Mt. Olive Sunday-school. The school has long needed a young man to take this position, and Mr. Johnson's appointment and acceptance gives much satisfaction to the teachers and scholars of the mission.

—The leaders in foot gear in this city are Doane & VanArsdale. They are leaders in style, quality and moderate prices. A lady's shoe at $2 and $2.50 is a specialty with them, and they also are the agents for the Rex and the Dux shoe, whose makers are advertising so extensively in THE PRESS.

—The annual meeting of the "Temple Builders" will be held in the First Baptist church to-morrow evening at 7:30. Messrs. M. P. Guernsey and W. A. Stanton will make addresses. These young men are at present students at Hamilton, and expect to go out to India in August as missionaries.

—The Crescent League B. B. C. is in for the pennant this year. Kellar says he's got a cluster of jewels that will reflect lustre on the city they represent. They are like the jewels at Collier's; not as high-priced as other places may boast of, but as good as the best and guaranteed to give satisfaction.

—The committee representing the Plainfield local union of the Y. P. S. C. E. will meet in the Y. M. C. A. parlors next Thursday evening to effect the arrangement for the next public meeting which was decided to be held on Thursday evening, May 19. Everything will be done to made the occasion one of profit and interest to all. Eleven societies now represent this union.

—Fred W. Dunn, having purchased the entire business of Barkalew & Dunn at 18 North avenue, will continue at the old stand with a complete line of the choicest teas and coffees, prime butter and cheese, the finest domestic and imported canned goods, fruits, dried and preserved, and the best of everything in the line of groceries. His long experience as a buyer in the New York market enables him to secure the pick of what is offered on such terms that he is always in a position to give his large family trade special advantages in the way of goods and prices.

—Two particularly popular and enterprising young business men of this city—Dudley S. Miller and James A. Bailey—have just perfected a purchase that promises them sure success in the very near future. They have bought the long-established drug business of Joseph G. Miller, opposite the post office, and took possession to-day. Mr. Miller has become well known and well liked as a pharmacist during his long connection with L. W. Randolph, and Mr. Bailey, who was also at one time in the same establishment, is sure to become as great a favorite in a very short time. They are both graduates of the New York college of pharmacy. The firm will be Miller & Bailey. The former is no relation to the proprietor he succeeds.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Maggie B. Anderson and Burel Gibson, both of this city, were married last evening by the Rev. F. G. Warnick at the home of the bride on West Second street.

David Neighbour, father of Calvin Neighbour of 59 East Front street, died at Low Valley, Hunterdon county, Thursday, in his ninety-fifth year. Funeral services will be held Monday, from the Lower Valley Presbyterian church.

Irving G. Stelle has the sympathy of the community in the loss of his wife, Hattie Pauline, who passed away at her home in Dunellen, in her twenty-second year, Thursday. Funeral services will be held from the Dunellen M. E. church to-morrow afternoon at 2.

The Rev. Bush Rhees, a nephew of the Messrs. McCutchen of North Plainfield, and a graduate of the Plainfield High school, will preach in the First Presbyterian church, to-morrow morning and evening. He is at present pastor of a prosperous church in Portsmouth, N. H.

D. M. Bristol, who will exhibit his remarkable horses at Music Hall, next week, is one of the most successful horse trainers in the country. He was born in Flint, Mich., about forty years ago. He was brought up on a farm, and at an early age he showed a strong liking for horses. So strong was his like for equines that he subsequently gave up the study of law to enter upon the training business. For a number of years he traveled and gave lectures and taught a system for the training of horses for practical purposes.

ANNIVERSARY AND BANQUET.

Royal Arcanumites Feast on Good Things at Hotel Albion.

Nearly a hundred congenial spirits gathered about three long tables in the dining room of the Hotel Albion last night, and partook of the bountiful feast of good things provided by Boniface Miller for the members and guests of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum. It was the decennial celebration as well as the annual dinner of the council, and a number of grand officers were on hand to participate in the festivities. Among these were C. E. McDowell of Bloomfield, grand regent; Oliver Charlock of Elizabeth, past grand regent; R. H. Alberts of Hoboken, grand secretary; W. W. Baxter of Jersey City, grand guide; and S. J. Kallman of Jersey City, grand trustee. Others at the main table each side of regent Kleinecke were past regents Rand, Rodman and Leonard.

The dinner was a sumptuous one, served in innumerable courses, and reflected great credit not only on the committee and the order, but on Mr. Miller, who had spared no pains to give his patrons all of the choicest delicacies of the season. 'Twould be a long story to tell of all the sweet morsels and palatable substantials that were served; it took a long time to consume them. Suffice it to say that everything was of the best, elegantly prepared, as is characteristic of proprietor Miller and the Albion. The dinner began soon after 8:30, and the cigars were not reached until midnight.

Besides the good things for the palate there were excellent speeches by grand officers McDowell, Charlock and Alberts, orator Rand, Charles Burnett, James E Martine, the farmer orator, the Rev. E. M. Rodman, W. J. Leonard, and the Rev. Edward Love. The brethren of the fraternity all had a first-rate time, and the outside visitors went home fully convinced that the Royal Arcanum was a most excellent brotherhood of good cheer and fellowship, and an admirable and inexpensive benefit organization.

This year's officers of Plainfield council, which is most excellently conducted, are as follows:

Regent—Augustus W. Kleinecke.
Vice regent—Charles VanWinkle.
Orator—Aaron W. Rand.
Past Regent—Louis M. Stover.
Treasurer—Thomas H. Bartindale.
Secretary—Henry A. Thorne.
Collector—Henry S. Mason.
Chaplain—William J. Leonard.
Guide—Emil Messersmith.
Warden—Charles W. Sargent.
Sentry—Edwin W. Conklin.
Medical Examiner—Geo. W. Endicott, M. D.
Trustees—Alburtus Swalm, Rowland M. Stover, William J. Ford.
Representative to Grand Council—L. M. Stover. Alternate—Edwin W. Conklin.
Past Regents—Wm. H. Lyon, jr., D. E. Titsworth, Rev. E. M. Rodman, S. C. Baker, E. E. Anthony, Wm. J. Leonard, R. M. Stover, E. W. Conklin, A. W. Rand, L. M. Stover.
Committee on Good of the Order—Wm. H. Lyon, jr., Peter A. Emmons, Edward E. Anthony.
Finance Committee—Seymour Marsh, Edwin W. Conklin, Salmon C. Baker.
Auditing Committee—Wm. H. Lyon, jr. Louis M. Stover, Charles VanWinkle.

BY THE WAY.

—Caleb Dickinson, the jeweler, has taken the local agency for the American Rambler bicycle.

—A women's meeting will be held at the First church of Christ next Wednesday afternoon at 3.

—A report is on the streets to-day that a girl was insulted on Second street near Park avenue, last night. The police know nothing about the case.

—When you want any kind of electrical work done, or gas or electric fixtures, call on Joseph Sohl, electrician, at the telephone office, 49 North avenue.

—THE PRESS understands that sergeant Lynch has some money to loan on bond and mortgage. He does n't think that race tracks are such iniquitous things after all.

—A forgetful driver left a team of horses standing on Peace street from 9 a. m. to 7:30 p. m., yesterday. The team was taken by the police to Roberts's stable, where the owner reclaimed them.

—A special rehearsal for sopranos and altos of the Choral society will be held next Monday afternoon at 3:45. The usual full rehearsal will be held at 8. It is desirable that every member be present.

—Maggie Bunworth was adjudged guilty, by judge Codington, yesterday, of keeping a disorderly house. She was given two days in which to pay a $25 fine. Failing of the fine, she will go to jail for 30 days.

—The leap-year sociable which was to have taken place in the Heidloff Hall, Somerset street, April 20 to 21, and which was postponed on account of revival services, will take place Wednesday and Thursday evenings, May 11 and 12.

—Wm. K. McClure, of Plainfield, appears to be the most prominently mentioned for the position of county attorney, under the next board of freeholders. He is a capable and popular lawyer, and a consistent Democrat, and no better man could be selected.—Rahway Democrat

Sick Headache.

I have used Dr. Dean's Dyspepsia Pills for Headache, and since I have taken them I have been perfectly free from it. I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend them to any and all who suffer from the same. Mrs. M. E. LEES, Stenographer and Typewriter, Room 92, Evening Post Building, New York.

Do not consult anybody but invest 25 cents in a bottle of Salvation Oil. It kills pain.

BASE-BALL CHATTER.

Gossipy Paragraphs About the Game that Will Interest the Kranks.

Manager McLaughlin, of the Flushings, complains very bitterly of the treatment of his club in Providence. His team won the game on Wednesday, he says in a letter to a friend here, by 2 to 1, but received no credit for it, and was refused the gurantee that was offered to his club to go to Providence. Plainfield's little short-stop, Keeler, played with the Flushings and made two hits.

One of the longest games of ball ever played took place in Seattle last season between the Seattles and the Tacomas. Keenan, who pitched seventeen of the twenty-two innings for the Seattle club, has just signed to play with the Crescents. When Keenan went into the "box" on the memorable occasion the score stood 3 to 3 and ended by 6 to 5 in favor of the Tacomas. Only 7 hits were made off Keenan.

The New York Telegram says: "Manager Moore is perfectly satisfied with the material at his disposal in the Staten Island Athletic club, and he expects to form a stronger team than ever before played at West Brighton. He is, however, not satisfied with the methods of coaching and intends to get the men down to real work very shortly. When three hits, two of them for three bases each and the other for a double, are made in one inning, without a man being scored, it is evident that the coachers need a little instruction. This they will get during the next few games." The Crescents are scheduled to play the Staten Islanders at West Brighton May 4. The home team will have but little opportunity for team practice, but will undoubtedly make a creditable showing.

Curran Takes a Drop.

Curran lost a game in the Lyceum tournament last night, and as a result is now in third place. Policeman Kiley is therefore leading again, with White a good second.

From the "People's Palace".

The pastor of the Congregational church has long wished his people to have the opportunity of hearing one from the work of the "People's Palace" in connection with the Tabernacle church of Jersey City—a work which has become famous throughout the country and one in which all the Congregational churches of the State are greatly interested. That opportunity will be theirs to-morrow morning, when the Rev. G. Lester Wells, associate pastor of the Tabernacle, will preach from the pulpit of the Plainfield Congregationalists.

Big Matting Sale.

At the great peremptory matting sale in New York, last Thursday, 6,700 rolls of Chinese and Japanese mattings were sold. Edsall says he was a large buyer at this sale, and in a few days he expects to astonish the citizens with the most attractive stock of fine mattings ever offered in this city. The prices, he says, will be much lower than ever known before.

Cut William White's Assessment Down $19,900.

To lawyer Francis E. Marsh, councilman from the third ward of this city, is due the credit of securing from the State board of taxation the reduction in the assessment on the property of William White of North Plainfield, told about in THE PRESS of yesterday. In the matter of last year's assessment, the Board reduced it from $39,900 to $20,000.

It's flying in the face of Nature to take the ordinary pill. Just consider how it acts. There's too much bile and bustle, and not enough real good. And think how it leaves you when it's all over! Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets act naturally. They help Nature to do her own work. They cleanse and renovate, mildly but thoroughly, the whole system. Regulate it, too. The help that they give, lasts.

They're purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, the smallest, easiest, and best to take. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured. One tiny, sugar-coated Pellet for a gentle laxative—three for a cathartic.

They're the cheapest pill you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

You pay only for the good you get.

This is true only of Dr. Pierce's medicines.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and detroys rats. WHAT SHALL THE HARVEST BE?

This is neither a picnic party nor a political parade, Mother Hubbard, accompanied by a few of her numerous progeny, sets forth to have them all arrayed in new suits for Spring wear. "What shall the harvest be?" Well, that depends largely on Mother Hubbard's destination. If she goes to our place, where we are selling off a large line of Suits for all sizes marked with the wholesale price in plain figures, she'll save fifty dollars, at least, and her folks will be the best dressed in town.

CHURCHLY ROOSTERS AND LEAP-YEAR GIRLS.

A Learned Discourse on the Grace Church Crower, and a Timely Tip for Marriageable Maidens.

That contented and peaceful rooster surmounting the tower of the new Grace church has given a heap of trouble to a host of solicitous citizens, some of whom brand the bird as a more appropriate ornament for a barn than a church, others of whom go about alluding to "the Church of the Holy Crower", and still others who only wonder how the good people of Grace church ever came to select so curious a device to crown their beautiful new house of worship.

I can well remember the days when nearly every one of the old-country churches down in New England bore weather-vane cocks, and in old England they occur with still greater frequency. On the continent, observant friends tell me, the same condition prevails. And this is the why of it:

A cock on a church spire is to remind men not to deny their Lord, as Peter did, for when the cock crew he "went out and wept bitterly"; and I read that Peter Le-Neve, whoever he may be, affirms that a cock was the warlike emblem of the Goths and was therefore used in Gothic churches for ornament. Even the Mohammedans go in for the rooster as a sacred symbol, holding that when he ceases to crow the day of judgment is at hand.

Any one who passed along Seventh street Easter morning and observed the cheerful self-satisfaction on the features of the Grace church bird must have felt that he was in his element, and I wish all those who are kicking about him might have seen him then. Obviously, from what I have said, he is both appropriate and loyal, and he is a rather prepossessing bird, too, even if he has lost both of his legs. And still I hear people hurling metaphorical mud at him and calling him names and making fun of him.

What's the matter with him, anyhow?

* * * * * *

I ran across a young man who visits this town occasionally, on a Hudson river boat the other day, and recollecting how in Spring the young man's fancy, etc., and knowing the young person who is not "engaged" in these days is the notable exception, I asked him if he had as yet picked out his future wife.

"Oh dear, no!"—he answered—"You forget that this is leap year. Why man, I've had two proposals myself so far this year!"

"Impossible!"—said I.

"Quite the reverse"—said he.—"I'll show you." He extracted a dainty mauve-tinted, heliotrope-scented envelope from his pocket. "Only promise not to give her name away; I guess you know her." Then he drew from the envelope a pretty oblong card in the four corners and centre of which were five little ribbon bows of bright colors—blue, yellow, pink, green and white. On the back were the name and address of a Plainfield girl whom we all know very well but who would not care to be particularized in this connection.

Beside four of the little bows of ribbon were written by the sweet girl's own pretty hand four appropriate couplets which I took the liberty of copying. Here they are:

If to me you will be true,
Send me back my bow of blue.

If I'm to seek another fellow,
Please return the bow of yellow.

If you abhor the marriage link,
Please send back the bow of pink.

Should you own another queen,
Return to me my bow of green.

And then beneath the centre bow was this:

But if you want a faithful wife,
One who'll love you as her life,
To be your hope, your joy, your light,
Just send me back my bow of white.

"Well,"—said I to my young friend, when I had taken it all in—"which one are you going to return?"

"Oh, none of them"—he replied.—"I'm making a collection of these leap-year trifles, you know. Surprised you haven't received a few yourself, old man."

"Oh, go away,"—said I, shyly.—"What would a middle-aged cynic like me be doing with a"——

"Ah, don't say it"—he put in.—"Wait till the seaside and mountain days set in, and the summer girl flits down from heaven and dances in the mazy twilights—wait till then, old man, wait and hope."

I'm waiting, but I think I shall stay at home this summer. THE CENSOR.

Republican Convention at Trenton April 27.

The Central railroad of New Jersey will sell special excursion tickets to Trenton, April 26 and 27, good to return until April 28, inclusive, for the accommodation of those attending the Republican State convention. The fare for the round trip from Plainfield will be $1.54. 3t

When we reflect that so many human beings die of Consumption, we must come to the conclusion that everybody should be provided with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the consumptive's friend.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signs perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street Plainfield, N. J.

"Tangled Up" at Music Hall.

The De Lange-Rising comedy company in the laughable absurdity entitled "Tangled Up" will be the next attraction at Music Hall.

It is an adaptation from the French, and its plot is ingenious and complicated. Everyone is playing at cross purposes, and the title is justifiable, for a more mixed-up crowd than the characters in this piece were never thrown together in one play by the most designing French playwright. Everyone thinks that everyone else is in love with the object of his affection, and the young married man, Walter Sedgely, is led a merry song and dance in consequence of his having shown mere polite attention to a strange lady one evening. He gets her grip by mistake, and she carries off his, which is filled with important legal documents. He takes her grip home, and when he opens it, thinking it is his own, he gets a glimpse of stockings and sundry other unmentionables. His wife, also, gets a glimpse. And, thereafter everyone misunderstands everyone else. The action is rapid, and the scenes are sharp, concise and varied.

The list of names in the cast show the company to be a strong one. Prominent among them are Will S. Rising, an ever popular artist, Louis De Lange, a comedian of wide experience and rare ability. Lottie Mortimer, the well-known soubrette and danseuse; Agnes Stone, sister of Marie Stone; Alexander Clark, a young comedian of great promise; Gilbert Gregory, formerly with Dixey and Frank Daniels; Bingley Fales, recently with Lizzie Evans. The company recently closed a prosperous engagement at Heuck's, in Cincinnati, and the critics were unanimous in awarding both play and players the highest praise.

His Grandfather Was Alexander Hamilton's Second.

Nathaniel Pendleton Rogers, father-in-law of Mrs. Nathaniel Pendleton Rogers, who was a Miss Wotherspoon of this city, died of pneumonia yesterday at the family residence, 6 West Twenty-second street, New York. Mr. Rogers was past 70 years old and retired from the active practice of the law more than twenty years ago. He was an enthusiastic sportsman and was known particularly as a yachtsman and a salmon fisherman. His paternal grandfather was Moses Rogers, who resided in the house 7 State street, New York, where the son was born. His grandfather on the maternal side was Nathaniel Pendleton, colonel on the staff of Gen. Nathaniel Green of the Revolutionary army, and second to Alexander Hamilton in his fatal duel with Aaron Burr. He studied law under Francis B. Cutting and was associated in practice with Alexander Hamilton, jr., and Francis R. Rives. He leaves a wife and five children: Mrs. Charles D. Fuller of Morristown, N. J.; Henry Pendleton Rogers of Hyde Park; Nathaniel Pendleton Rogers, jr., of Plainfield; J. Bard Rogers, and Miss Elizabeth M. Rogers. The funeral will be held at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning in St. Bartholomew's church. Mr. Rogers had been a member of many clubs, but retained membership only in the Knickerbocker at the time of his death.

Reading Employes Laid Off.

Rumors were again circulated yesterday that trouble was impending on the Reading railroad in consequence of the laying off of a number of trains, together with their engineers and firemen. Some of the railroad employes, however, said that as no persons had been employed to take the places of the union men who had been laid off, the brotherhoods of engineers and firemen had no ground upon which to base a grievance. Many of the men believe the service of the railroad company will soon be increased, and that the men who were laid off will be taken back.

A Burglar and His Plunder Found in a Cistern.

Twenty years ago the store of Isidor Nierel, of Muscatine, Iowa, a jeweler well known to Asa Collier of this city, was one night plundered while the proprietor was at supper, and although a thorough investigation was made the identity of the thief was never discovered.

One day last week several boys, while playing on what is known as the Old Windmill lot, lost a ball in a cistern which was abandoned thirty years ago. A rope was obtained and one of the lads was lowered into the hole, which is about 25 feet deep. On the bottom he discovered the skeleton of a man and a mould covered satchel containing many watches and rings.

It is believed that the skeleton is that of the man who committed the Nierel burglary, and that he fell into the cistern while searching for a hiding place for his plunder.

Worth Knowing.

That ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS are the highest result of medical science and skill, and in ingredients and method have never been equalled.

That they are the original and genuine porous plasters, upon whose reputation imitators trade.

That ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS never fail to perform their remedial work quickly and effectually.

That this fact is attested by thousands of voluntary and unimpeachable testimonials from grateful patients.

That for rheumatism, weak back, sciatica, lung trouble, kidney disease, dyspepsia, malaria and all local pains, they are invaluable.

That when you buy ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS you absolutely obtain the best plasters made.

SHATTERED NERVES.

Fearful Result of Neglecting Weak Nerves.

Great Prevalence of Brain and Nerve Exhaustion at this Season of the Year—A Sure Preventive Against the Terrible Nerve Weakness—Save Your Brain and Nerves in Time.

"Shot himself dead." Why? Brain exhaustion and shattered nerves from overwork, fret, worry. Men and women are straining their brains, exhausting their nervous and physical strength, until sleepless nights, failing strength nervous exhaustion, paralysis, insanity or death follow.

They are warned of their doom by strange sensations, dull, dizzy, bad-feeling head, irritability, nervousness, sleepless nights, tired waking, weak, trembling, cold limbs, languor, some of nervous and physical exhaustion, kidney and liver diseases, or constipation. These are danger signals At this season all these symptoms are made much worse by Spring Debility.

The Grip also has made more suicides than any other known disease, for it always leaves those who have it with weak nerves, exhausted energies, blue and depressed in mind, debilitated in body.

What is to be done? Use Dr. Greene's Nervura and this great nerve, brain and blood invigorator will give you a clear brain, strong nerves and sound health. Purely vegetable and harmless. Sold by druggists, $1.

"I deem it my duty to the public to state the wonderful effects of Dr. Greene's Nervura in my case. As a result of too close confinement to office work, business cares and anxieties, I broke down with nervous prostration. I began the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura. My improvement has been most gratifying, and language cannot describe the change in my feelings and prospects. Where all was gloom and despondency, there is now light and hope. I gained 13 pounds, and am still gaining. Not alone myself, but I know many others who can testify to the merits of Dr. Greene's Nervura.

CHAS. H. HODGDON,
35 Dana st., Somerville, Mass."

N. B. Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th St., New York, can be consulted, free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free. 2 2 1d thas

BLACKWELL'S BULL DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO.

SO SAY WE ALL OF US.

I'm an old smoker, and have at one time or another tried all the different Smoking Tobaccos, but for a good smoke Bull Durham beats 'em all.

A leading characteristic of Bull Durham has always been the hold which it takes on old and fastidious smokers. What its excellence first secured, its uniformity has always retained, and it is, therefore, to-day as twenty-five years ago, the most popular-Smoking Tobacco in the world.

HE WAS NOT AFRAID.

An Instance of Henry Ward Beecher's Disregard of Danger.

I recall one occasion, when a case of most atrocious wickedness had transpired and had occasioned much excitement, that the next Sabbath Mr. Beecher fearlessly alluded to it, and in the most severe terms, writes Mrs. Beecher in the Ladies' Home Journal. The offender was notoriously wicked and the people feared him. His church was greatly excited at their pastor's rebuke, and after service gathered about him exceedingly alarmed. "Why, Mr. Beecher, you risk your life by speaking of ——— in those terms! By to-morrow he will have been told of what you have said and we fear will make trouble, even if he does not resort to violence. It was not wise for you to have expressed your opinions so freely."

"I do not fear him. It was wise for me to do my duty as I see it. It would have been useless for me to have said what I did had I not hoped and intended that he should have known it."

Monday morning, as usual, Mr. Beecher went to the post office, and to do so must pass a large hotel, around which there were always many idle people loitering, and where, if this man intended mischief, he would probably be. Knowing Mr. Beecher's habit of going to the office in the morning, I was very much troubled, but said nothing until he left the house, and then begged two young men who were boarding with us to go with him, but they were afraid. I doubt if he thought of the fears that had been expressed after the sermon. He certainly did not allude to what passed when he returned, but one of our people came in soon after and told me. As usual the veranda of the hotel was filled with loungers. He passed by, went to the post office and returned. This person stepped down and stood before him with a pistol.

"Mr. Beecher, were you alluding to me in your remarks yesterday morning?"

"I was."

"Take it back or I'll shoot you."

Mr. Beecher looked him sternly in the face for a moment and said:

"Shoot away!" and walked on.

The man followed him some rods with the pistol aimed at him, and then, as if ashamed to face the people on the hotel steps, turned down another street and walked away. Mr. Beecher often met and passed him after that, but no other word ever passed between them.

When He Needed Water Most.

Dashaway—The plumbing in my house broke down the other day and we didn't get any water for twenty-four hours.

Cleverton—How did you manage?

Dashaway—I got along all right until the next morning, and then I needed it badly.—Life.

A Word of Encouragement.

Mr. Emerson Bean—Oh, yes. I've written poetry, of course, but I never tried to have any of it published.

Miss Waldonia Hubb—Now, why don't you send it to some of the magazines? I've seen some frightful stuff in them lately.—Wave.

At the Opera.

Mr. Jason (in the balcony)—Just look at Jane Ann Locust puttin' on style, will you? Before they found gas on the old man's farm she hadn't but one dress to her back.

Mrs. Jason—An' now she hain't none.—Indianapolis Journal.

Properties Lacking.

Small Boy—Papa, I wish you'd buy me a goat.

Papa—You haven't any harness, or cart, or—

Small Boy—Don't need none. Us boys is startin' a secret society.—Good News.

No Fault to Find With the Prescription.

Mrs. Billus—John, the doctor says I need a change of climate.

Mr. Billus (absorbed in his newspaper)—That's all right, Maria. It's going to be twenty degrees colder to-morrow.—Chicago Tribune.

The Great American Hog

Is welcome abroad once more, and abroad he may go. As long as Lard was a requisite in every kitchen, the Great American Hog was highly esteemed at home; but now that modern science has introduced the new vegetable substitute for Lard, poor Piggy's occupation's gone.

COTTOLENE

The reason for this is threefold. COTTOLENE is cleaner, healthier and much more economical. A trial has convinced thousands as to this. It will convince any "convincable" person. Will you be convinced?

THAT 'FAKE' DUEL

Borrowe and Fox the Laughing Stock of London.

A CUT AND DRIED AFFAIR.

There Was an Understanding That Nobody Should Be Hurt.

Some Think the Whole Story Was Concocted, and That No Shots Were Fired. Details of the Alleged Combat—No One Believes That a Bullet Cut a Hole Through Fox's Coat—Mrs. Drayton's Friends Disgusted.

LONDON, April 25.—Fox has not yet returned from Belgium, but Borrowe is here assisting the voluble Actor Cleary to air in hotel smoking-rooms amusing details of Fox's bloodless duel.

About a hundred people who got wind of the affair met Actor Cleary at the station when he returned last night and fairly shrieked with laughter when they learned from him that the most fatal result of the encounter was slight damage to Fox's trousers. The story that Borrowe's bullet really cut a hole in Fox's coat nobody takes seriously.

Nobody in the town believes for one moment that any serious harm was intended. The event is generally designated by Americans here as "the fake duel." Some even think the whole story was concocted and that no shots were fired. But it is the general impression that triggers were pulled as the result of a mutual understanding that nobody should be hurt.

Fox was goaded into challenging Borrowe because Borrowe insisted on calling him a coward and a liar.

Borrowe is reported to have said to a friend just after the duel that he could not now call Fox a coward, but he still called him a liar.

It is hard to see how either party has benefited by this duelling fiasco. If the comments made in American circles to-day are any criterion, both of them will be guyed more unmercifully than ever.

No one believes, of course, the statements that Fox and Borrowe were thirsting for each other's blood, and that they are keenly disappointed because their seconds prevented them from firing more than two shots.

Borrowe's conduct on the field gives color to the general belief that no serious harm was intended. He coolly smoked a cigarette just before the first shot and lit another one just before the second shot.

Fox claims the reputation of being a pretty good shot after his alleged experiences in the Modoc war, but there is no indication that either of his bullets went anywhere near Borrowe.

Another interesting theory is: Who notified the Belgium police? The secret was only confided to a few intimates of both parties, and now each accuses the other of blabbing with a view of preventing the fight. But they dared not return to England without at least exchanging shots.

Mrs. Drayton's friends are filled with disgust at this renewed effort on Borrowe's part to expose and degrade her. They feel that after what she has sacrificed for Borrowe the least he might have done was to have borne in silence the reproaches showered upon him of his alleged deal with Fox to make money out of an affair of honor.

Mrs. Drayton has persistently refused to see Borrowe since his return to England, and has fully resolved never to see him again. She has met her parents frequently, and reliable reports point to her returning to New York with them next autumn.

The Bloodless Encounter.

The "Battle of Honor" occurred at Nieuport Bains, a seaside resort near Ostend.

After firing two shots each at twelve paces the men retired without shaking hands as is usual, but Fox raised his hat, and Borrowe acknowledged the courtesy by raising his hat.

Mr. Fox's first shot whistled by Mr. Borrowe's ear, while Mr. Borrowe's last tore through Mr. Fox's frock coat near the hip bone, pierced his coat and grazed the nap of his trousers over the abdomen. It was undoubtedly a close call.

Mr. Fox left London for Antwerp on Thursday night, followed on Friday by Mr. William B. Bacon, jr., of Boston, who acted as his second. Mr. Milbank and Mr. Borrowe went to Brussels on Friday, and all went to Antwerp at midnight, and at 6 o'clock Saturday morning started for Ostend.

The party consisted of Messrs. Borrowe, Fox, Milbank, Bacon, Edwin Cleary and a newspaper correspondent. A long drive was taken over the country road to Nieuport Bains, where the arrangements had been made to fight on private grounds. A hitch occurred here, and the party alighted in the village at the Hotel Provost, where the proprietor, after being made acquainted with the object of the visit, personally conducted the party to the scene of combat.

Before the fight Mr. Fox gave a correspondent a statement, which he wrote at Antwerpt Saturday morning, reiterating the assertion that Mr. Borrowe authorized the publication of the Drayton correspondence. He says that Col. Tom Ochiltree got him into the affair and had persisted in efforts to secure him as a second, and had explained that the parties interested belonged to such well known families in New York that a report of the fight would prove very valuable as a newspaper article, and that he (Fox) would have an exclusive account.

Says She Won't Serve the Sentence.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Mrs. Annie Walden, who was convicted of murder in the second degree for killing her husband, James Walden, says she will never serve the sentence. From her lawyer it is inferred that she will take her life if the chance presents itself.

SOLD ON THE BLOCK.

Negro Vagrants Disposed of to the Highest Bidder—Race War Imminent.

FAYETTE, Mo., April 25.—This town is again on the verge of a race war because of the sale of vagrant negroes which took place here Saturday. About a month ago a good deal of excitement was caused by the sale of three vagrant negroes. This feeling has been intensified by the public sale on the block of three men and one woman because they could offer no visible means of support. Hy Thompson, Wm. Miller and John Wilkins were the men. All are hearty negroes who were never before arrested. The woman was a Mary Whiteside. She was accused of vagrancy.

The colored people were brought into the public square at 11 o'clock, and a great crowd of both colors gathered. The whites made fun of the poor victims and the blacks freely expressed their displeasure at the scene that so cruelly brought to their minds the days of actual slavery.

The woman was put up first. She brought $10 for the sixty days work that the county fined her. The men sold for $10, $12 and $13 respectively, being taken by reliable farmers hereabouts. The woman will work in a good family in town. Negroes declare that this must stop, or that the whites must be sold with the negroes. The sale took place on a block, Sheriff Creiger officiating.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

To Be Convened in Extraordinary Session To-night—The Reapportionment.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 25. — Both branches of the Legislature meet to-night at 8:30 o'clock in extraordinary session, and Governor Flower will send in a proclamation directing it to act upon the new census, and in accordance with its findings to reapportion the State into new Senate and Assembly districts.

It is expected that the census complete will be printed and on every member's desk at that time, and that active debate on the new districts will begin at once. The division of the State into new Assembly and Senate districts is about completed, the leaders having stayed in the city and worked hard on the formulation of the bill to be introduced.

In its present shape, however, the measure is subject to a few changes, because the majority of the political representatives of the counties are in Albany to-day consulting with the leaders to see how they have been apportioned. So far as known, representation will be upon the basis of 180,000 for each Senatorial district, 45,000 to each Assembly district.

The Bourne Will Decision.

NEWPORT, April 25.—The settlement by the Supreme Court of the famous contest over the will of Mary M. Bourne by heirs of Allen Thorndike Rice, has created no little discussion here. The late Mary M. Bourne left to Rice and his issue valuable real and personal property, appointing him principal executor. In several trials here it was shown that Rice never knew of this legacy or referred to it in his own will, and also failed to execute any power of appointment. The decision shuts out Rice's side and orders the whole estate divided, one-third each to Countess Anna De Sartiges of Paris, and Mary A. Barrillios of Madrid, children of Mrs. Bourne, and one-ninth each to three Boston heirs. The property has increased since the execution of the will $133,000.

Dr. De Costa on Municipal Reform.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Rev. Dr. B. F. De Costa delivered a sermon yesterday in the Church of St. John the Evangelist on "The Relation of the White Cross movement to Municipal Reform." He claimed misrepresentation in the articles of the New York "Times," and stated that the majority of the 50,000 vicious women of this city were Roman Catholics. He thought the present system of taxation and land-holding were directly responsible for the present great criminality, and also credited part of the responsibility to our present millionaires who practically were causing and upholding white slavery.

Lawyer Charles H. Reed Dead.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 25.—Chas. W. Reed, who gained wide notoriety as assistant counsel to George Scoville, defending counsel for Guiteau, President Garfield's assassin, is dead. He had lived in Baltimore five years, where he married Miss Fannie Daniels, the daughter of a wealthy brewer. This event was celebrated shortly after Mr. Reed's sensational attempt to commit suicide by jumping from a ferry boat in the East River, New York. He was 58 years old. A family from whom he was divorced survives him in Chicago, and a widow mourns his loss in Baltimore.

Archbishop Corrigan Denies a Report.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Archbishop Corrigan told a reporter of the National Press to-day that the despatch sent from Rome that the Pope had refused the request that he elevate the Archbishop to the Cardinalate was without foundation, because the Pope had not been petitioned to make him a Cardinal.

O'BRIEN IN CHICAGO

The Bunco Man Said to Be Hiding There.

SEEN AT SPORTING RESORTS.

Believed to Have Spent Sunday at a House Near the Stock Yards.

He is Lying Low Now, for All the Detectives in the Windy City Know Him—The Removal of His Beard Said to Have Effected a Startling Change in His Appearance—Watching Out for the Buncoer in Montreal.

CHICAGO, April 25.—The noted bunco man, "Tom" O'Brien, is said to be in Chicago, or at least he was here yesterday, according to reports. It was a matter of surprise that he should come to Chicago, for there are dozens of men here who know him, while all the old members of the detective force are well acquainted with his features.

O'Brien was here twelve or fifteen years ago, when he worked with Post and the notorious "Doc" Baggs and made this city his headquarters, but he never did anything here that entitled him to special consideration.

He was arrested for vagrancy, but as he always worked outside of Chicago the police here never fastened anything upon him. He is wanted, however, for tricking an old farmer living near Springfield out of several thousand dollars, and there are warrants out for him at points further west than this.

After escaping from the New York officers O'Brien must have steered directly for Chicago, if the story of his presence here is true. It is said he got off a Lake Shore train at the Van Buren street station in the morning, being unburdened with baggage, and hurried to a barber shop in the basement of No. 123 Clark street, where his beard was removed and his hair cut close to his head.

The transformation worked by the barber is said to have been startling, for his nearest relative or best friend would not have known him. O'Brien then, it is alleged, visited a Turkish bath establishment near by and remained there an hour or more, after which he entered a cab and drove away.

Where he remained in hiding during the day is not known, but he would have no trouble in finding friends here to shelter him. O'Brien has not been in Chicago much of late years, but he has kept up communication with his friends all the time. The famous bunco man, it is claimed, visited some of his friends in two or three Clark street sporting resorts last night, but kept very close for fear a detective would run across him. It is believed he was kept yesterday at the house of a friend who lives near the stock yards.

Looking for O'Brien in Montreal.

MONTREAL, April 25.—The New York police have asked the authorities here to keep a sharp lookout for O'Brien, the "King of Bunco Men." The police here have what they think is a clue to O'Brien's presence in this city, and are busily engaged in working it up. If captured here the bunco man can be extradited.

Mrs. Harrison Improving.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—"Mrs. Harrison has greatly improved and is convalescing rapidly," said Dr. Gardner, her physician, this morning, "and all reports to the contrary are unfounded. Last night she passed the best night since her illness, and this morning is much better and stronger. Mrs. Harrison has been ill for the last two weeks, and her attack has been a serious one."

Venezuelan Insurgents Defeated.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The following despatch has been received by the Venezuelan Minister here: "Complete triumph for the Government forces in the battles of Tapon and Mocoti. Peace absolutely restored in the State of Los Andes. Urbaneja, Minister of Foreign Affairs."

Capsized Boat, One Drowned.

NEW YORK, April 25.—A small sailboat containing six boys was capsized in Little Hell Gate channel yesterday by striking against a sunken rock, and its occupants were thrown into the water. Five of the boys saved their lives by clinging to the keel of their boat, from which position they were eventually rescued, but the sixth boy, Harry Storer, 19 years old, attempted to swim ashore against the strong and dangerous currents of the much-feared channel and was drowned.

Recognizing Liquor-Selling in Bangor.

BANGOR, Me., April 25.—For the first time in the memory of the younger generation of Bangor, the liquor stores are closed to-day, election day. The city government has so ordered, and the recognition of the traffic is somewhat remarkable in the face of the fact that the laws of Maine say that there shall be no liquor stores open or selling liquor on any day in the year.

DISAPPROVE OF THE MATCH.

The Engagement of Prince William to Princess Margaret Causes Dissatisfaction.

BERLIN, April 25.—The semi-official announcement of the engagement of the Princess Margaret, youngest sister of the Emperor, to Prince William of Luxemburg, is received with little approval in court circles here. Prince William probably is the most dissolute man of his age in continental courts.

During the short periods he has passed in Luxemburg recently he has disgraced himself with the most notorious actress in the place, and has piled up debts that he will not pay and that his father, the Grand Duke Adolf, with a civil list of but 200,000 francs, can not pay.

Prince William, moreover, has a mania for gambling, and now lives at Monaco so that he may indulge his passion constantly. He is the companion of disreputable women there and drinks to excess. To marry the Princess Margaret to such a roue of 40 years, the people here say, is to sacrifice her to the Emperor's ambition.

The Emperor is said to be anxious to get a hold on Luxemburg that he may eventually annex it and thus add materially to the strategic strength of Germany's western frontier. The present time he regards as auspicious for an opening wedge as the whole land is in a revolutionary turmoil, and the Grand Duke and Prince are looking for a strong hand to steady their throne.

The revolt is especially directed against the Prince, whose reckless life at Monaco has moved the citizens to protest not only against the Grand Duke's regime, but also against the Prince's succession to the throne, and to call for a republic. Even the army and officers are reported to be seriously disaffected, and many of the soldiers have deserted.

Didn't Mean to Hurt the Brakemen.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., April 25.—The two boys Kessler and Steeley, under arrest for shooting brakemen Koon and Lutz, refuse to divulge the motive for their crime, other than that they did not intend to hurt the brakemen in any way. Koon and his companion were on top of a box car in the middle of a freight train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad when they discovered two boys near the track, one of whom carried a gun. As the car on which the brakemen stood neared the boys, they took quick aim and fired. Both brakemen fell on top the car. Koon was shot in one eye and his wound is considered fatal. Lutz was shot in the shoulder and side but is not dangerously wounded.

A Murderer Commits Suicide.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 25.—Peter Eno, charged with the murder of his wife Minnie, on April 5, committed suicide yesterday by hanging in his cell at the jail, where he was awaiting the action of the Grand Jury. He committed the deed while the other prisoners were attending divine services. When the deed was committed one of the officers of the jail was stationed within a short distance of the cell door, but noticed nothing unusual. Eno before taking his life removed his shoes to prevent any disturbance. The sheet had been placed over the cell door with a knot about his neck. His feet just reached the floor and he was strangled to death.

The Wyoming Difficulty.

BUFFALO, Wy., April 25.—Because of the talk about invasion and rescue of prisoners, Sheriff Angus has turned the jail over to Col. Van Horne. A home guard of 200 armed men has been organized under the command of Frank Smith of Powder River, and the streets are patrolled every night. All strangers are carefully watched. It is rumored that bands of invaders are coming from Montana to aid the stockmen. The outposts of the home organization will give timely warning of the approach of any such parties. It is feared by many that the attempts of the stockmen will be renewed. The streets are full of people, but good order prevails.

The Engine Jumped the Bridge.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., April 25.—The locomotive attached to a south-bound train on the Central Vermont railroad, plunged into the river from an iron bridge at Des Rivieres, P. Q., 27 miles north of St. Albans, yesterday morning. Brakeman George Jelly was killed, Engineer Babcock fractured his thigh, and Fireman James Minehan was badly bruised. When within about thirty feet of the bridge the engineer noticed an obstruction on the track, the nature of which was indistinguishable in the darkness. He promptly applied the air brakes, but it was too late.

His Hard Skull Was His Salvation.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., April 25.—John Bentley, proprietor of a billiard parlor enjoying a refined patronage, has for some time excluded negroes from his place. Saturday night a gang of colored rowdies broke into the parlors and proceeded to abuse the proprietor, who drew a revolver and shot at the leader, Deane Keith, striking him in the head. The negro's thick skull, however, rendered the shot almost harmless, the bullet flattening against it.

Dillon Answers Parnellite Statements.

DUBLIN, April 25.—In speaking at Slane yesterday, John Dillon answered the recent statements of the Parnellites as regards the National fund for evicted tenants. In the last six months, he said, 13,607 pounds had been paid out to aid families forcibly dispossessed. Michael Davitt advised the holding of a Home Rule convention directly after the Belfast Unionist convention.

Another Cargo For Starving Russians.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25. — On the mizzen-mast of the steamship Conemaugh, which sailed Saturday, laden with 8,000 tons of food for the starving Russians was the flag inscribed "City of Philadelphia," which had done duty on the Indiana, and will bring to mind at Riga the kindly memories of the first relief voyage to Libau.

WASHINGTON TOPICS

Reported Plans of the Free Coinage Men.

MAY ORGANIZE A THIRD PARTY.

Senator Teller for President, and Col. Polk for Vice President.

How it is Figured That This Ticket Would Win—National Silver Committee to Adjourn To-day—Mrs. Harrison Steadily Improving—The Smithsonian Institute at the Fair—Efforts in Behalf of the Penny Postage Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Senators Teller, Morgan, Daniel and Sanders have taken an active part during the past week in the secret proceedings of the National Silver Committee, which has been in session in this city. Twenty States were represented, and it has developed that the meeting was of more than ordinary importance.

It is stated by members of the Committee that a last effort will be made by the free coinage advocates at their convention, which has been called to meet in Washington on May 25, to induce one of the great political parties to incorporate in its platform a free-coinage plank; that if efforts in that direction fail, the free coinage men will take steps to organize a third party, the basis of which will be the Farmers' Alliance and all devoted advocates of free silver; that a convention will be called at which Senator Teller will be nominated for President and Col. Polk, of the Farmers' Alliance, for Vice-President, and a platform advocated containing but a single plank, providing for the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver.

Friends of Senator Teller maintain that he will accept the nomination upon a strictly financial platform, provided the great parties nominate men unfriendly to free coinage.

A gentleman familiar with the movement figures that Messrs. Teller and Polk would certainly be able to carry the States of Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina, South Carolina, Colorado, Nevada, Montana, Nebraska, Kansas, Washington and Idaho; have an equal show with other candidates in Illinois, Missouri, Minnesota, Arkansas and Texas, and if unable to secure election direct that they could at least throw the choice of a President into the House of Representatives, where it is claimed the free coinage candidate would be almost certain of election.

The National Silver committee will probably finally adjourn to-day.

Exports and Imports of Merchandise.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The report of the Bureau of Statistics, Treasury Department, for March shows that the exports of merchandise for March were valued at $85,819,075; imports, $66,549,338; excess of imports over exports, 24,730,263. For 9 months, exports, $819,730,689; imports, $610,327,631; excess of exports over imports, $209,393,058. For twelve months, exports, $1,008,284,506; imports, $637,058,985; excess of exports over imports, $169,225,021. For the preceding twelve months the excess of exports over imports aggregated only $36,347,922, showing a handsome increase during the past year.

To Ask for Custody of Creamer and White

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The arrest of Oscar Creamer and James L. White, Saturday, at Copenhagen, Denmark, for stealing $37,000 from Dix & Phyffe, bankers of New York, has been confirmed by the State Department here. There is no extradition treaty between Denmark and the United States, but Mr. Carr, the American Minister at Copenhagen, has been directed by the authorities here to ask for the custody of the prisoners. He will cable Inspector Steers of New York when the request has been made.

The Smithsonian's Exhibit.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The plan of the exhibit to be made at Chicago by the Smithsonian Institution and National Museum is now complete. It is proposed that the Smithsonian Institution shall send a collection illustrating its own origin and growth, the scope of its work, and the result of its scientific investigations during the forty-seven years of its existence. It will also illustrate the history of American science and exploration from the days of Columbus to the present time.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The Courier had a church notice Saturday night that yesterday would be Palm Sunday. The Courier is just two weeks behind the times.

—Joseph T. Sullivan will give a grand opening at his place of business, 66 West Third street, to-morrow afternoon and evening. A fine lunch will be served free by a celebrated caterer. All are invited.

—Loomis & Rice have torn down the dwelling-house which they erected without the permission of the common council, and it is said that they contemplate erecting a cheap tenement-house in its place.

—By what circumstance, or for what cause, is it that the one who furnishes the proof himself that he knows the least about New Jersey politics, writes the "Gossip of a Great State" in the New Jersey edition of the New-York World?

—"A Visit to a Live Volcano and a Dead City" will be the subject of the lecture to be delivered by the Rev. Charles B. Mitchell at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Thursday evening. The lecture will be illustrated by fine stereopticon views. All men are invited.

—The Theatre Magazine, published in New York, is certainly a credit to the profession whose art it so ably discusses. The April number contains some very handsome engravings, a superb frontispiece portrait of the actor, Joseph K. Emmet, jr., and about fifty pages of exceedingly entertaining reading matter. The price of the magazine is twenty cents, and it is worth it.

—The pupils of the Plainfield high school will probably never forget their Arbor day celebration of '92. The school trustees had caused a number of trees to be cut down in and around the school premises; and the children and teachers held a doleful memorial service over the dead trees. In view of what Arbor day is intended for, this celebration seems to have been singularly appropriate.—Elizabeth Journal.

—Officer Lynch says he has taken offense at what was intended for a harmless jest in Saturday's PRESS. The officer had made a loan to one of the bill-posters in the PRESS office as an act of pure kindness, and it was to this that jocular reference was made. He is too well-known to have anyone believe that he would attend race courses conducted in violation of the law. As a matter of fact, Mr. Lynch went to New York in the interest of a friend who needed his assistance, and had nothing whatever to do with race courses, betting, or any other discreditable thing.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Lissignolo and daughter, of East Front street, have gone to Providence for a week's visit.

Miss Helen Huntsman returned home to-day from a visit at the home of her brother, R. F. B. Huntsman, Westervelt avenue.

The wedding of Miss Clara O. Dunn, of Park avenue, and J. Henry Manning, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will take place in the Crescent Avenue church during June.

C. Forman Smith of Newark played at the First Presbyterian church yesterday and gave great satisfaction. He has been engaged as organist by chairman Bettman of the music committee.

Helen O. Nitsch died at her home on Grove street to-day in her eighteenth year. She was the daughter of Mrs. Nitsch, who was the author, under the name of Catharine Owen, of well-known household books.

Miss Nettie Allison of Somerset street sailed Saturday morning for Europe on the French line steamship La Bretagne. Among her fellow passengers are Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Aronson, Col. and Mrs. Daniel Lamont, and Mme. Sarah Bernhardt and her company.

The engagement is announced of Miss Many of West Seventh street, and George Schoonmaker, a prominent member of the Crescent Avenue church choir, the Melopoia, the Plainfield Choral society, and conductor Chapman's new male chorus of New York, the Apollo.

The entertainment which Holy Cross church choir will give in the parish building, Thursday evening, in aid of their camping fund, will include, besides a well-arranged musical programme, several readings by Miss Maude Agnes Bowers, the popular elocutionist, and a comedy sketch in one scene which has been adapted from the French expressly for George Taggart, and in which he will appear for the first time, assisted by Will Holmes.

The final lecture in the public library course will take place at the Casino on the evening of May 5. The lecture will be by the Rev. Dr. Deems, of New York, on the subject of "Trifles". This lecture will be in lieu of the one which was to have been delivered by bishop Vincent. While it is to be regretted that the people of Plainfield were denied the pleasure of hearing bishop Vincent, it is thought that the lecture by Dr. Deems will be one of unusual interest.

Dr. Charles F. Stillman was brought back to Plainfield this afternoon, from the Battle Creek Sanitarium, Battle Creek, Mich., suffering from hasty consumption. He arrived on the 2:32 train, accompanied by his brother, William M. Stillman, his brother-in-law, J. K. Myers, and a physician from the sanitarium. He was taken to the home of his mother, where he was greeted by his wife and child, and there he will end his days. He is apparently in the last stages of the disease, and is rapidly passing away. A number of his old friends saw him at the station, and were deeply grieved to learn of his condition.

BY THE WAY.

—Pat. Moran, for intoxication and disorderly conduct, was fined $10 by judge Codington this morning.

—John Johnston, of Westfield, acted indecently on the street, and was fined $10 by judge Codington to-day.

—Borough street commissioner Stout has brought out the road scraper and other paraphernalia, and is putting the streets into shape for the summer season.

—Ludwig Wenzel, for intoxication and causing a disturbance on the street, was arrested yesterday by borough marshal Pangborn. Magistrate Crosley fined him $5.

—The interesting studies in the book of Numbers will be continued this evening, by the normal class which meets in the First Baptist church at 8. Any one will be cordially welcome.

—A regular communication of Anchor lodge, F. & A. M., will be held to-morrow evening in Masonic Hall. A candidate will be raised, and as it is probably the last work of that degree for some weeks to come, a full attendance is desired.

—The Union County wheelmen will hold their seventy-five-mile relay race May 21. There will be five elays, as recently printed in these columns. The start will be made at 1 p. m. H. L. Saltonstall of this city is on the committee in charge of the event.

—The meetings at the Baptist mission in East Third street are steadily growing in interest. At last night's services, conducted by Chas. E. Brown, much interest was manifested, and several conversions resulted. The rooms were crowded, and a well attended after-meeting was held.

—A little girl named May Southard was knocked down by a horse on North avenue Saturday evening. Counselor McClure picked her up and carried her into Reynolds's drug store. She was found to be severely bruised, but not seriously injured. The driver whose horse knocked her down was arrested, but later released as blameless.

—Old King Cole was indeed "a merry old soul", but if he had lived in these days and Hillier & Co. had cleaned his suit of clothing for $1 50 he would doubtless have been so much merrier at the thought of saving the expense of a new suit that he would have called for a box of Havanas instead of his pipe, as the story tells us he did on a certain occasion.

A WOMAN'S INSANE FREAK.

She Threatened to Burn the Crescent Avenue Church, But Did not Succeed—False Stories of the Affair Sent Abroad.

James Stewart, assistant sexton of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, was in the church parlors at the rear of the building, last evening, when a woman carrying a kerosene can entered. In response to Mr. Stewart's questions she said that she was going to set fire to the building. He promptly ejected her and summoned the sexton, Henry Angleman, who is a special policeman. The two men then took the woman into custody and had her locked up in the police station. After being put out of the church, and just before sexton Angleman appeared on the scene, the woman poured oil from the can along the sidewalk and around the roots of a tree, and set fire to it. The small blaze thus produced soon burned itself out.

This morning Drs. Fritts and Allis made an examination of the state of the woman's mind. They pronounced her insane, and she will be taken to the asylum at Morris Plains this afternoon. Her name is Maria Mahon, age 30. She was a servant in the employ of Clifton Wharton, jr., 17 Crescent avenue.

The congregation knew nothing about the episode till after the service of the evening, and then it was only casually mentioned among a few.

The girl used to work for the family of pastor Richards. She had been queer for some time, and in her insanity developed a violent hatred against the ringing of the Crescent church bell.

Those are the facts of the case, which were distorted last night by some imaginative individual into the following ridiculous nightmare:

The congregation of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church of Plainfield, N. J., was startled and almost thrown into a wild panic last evening by a young woman running down the aisle in the midst of the services calling loudly for the pastor, the Rev. W. R. Richards. She wore neither hat nor wraps, and her red hair was streaming behind her. A prayer was being delivered at that minute and when the interruption, preceded by the violent throwing open of the front doors, came, the congregation, numbering about 800, looked around in surprise and alarm.

Then from the stairway leading from the vestibule smoke was seen to curl up into the gallery and in almost the same instant a cloud of it poured into the church. Instantly there was great excitement among the congregation, and there was grave danger of a panic, but men who preserved their presence of mind quieted the affrighted women, while others ran to the vestibule.

In the vestibule it was seen that a deliberate attempt had been made to burn the church. Someone had poured oil on the floor and over the rest of the woodwork, soaking it thoroughly, and then had thrown a match on the oil, so that the room was almost instantly in a blaze. When the men who first started for the vestibule reached it, flames filled this room and were rapidly eating their way up the stairs to the gallery. There was a stifling smell of burning kerosene. Water was hastily procured, and after a brisk fight, the flames were extinguished.

This done, attention was given to the woman who rushed in the church to alarm the people. She had been recognized as Marion Mahon, a servant employed by J. Clifford Wharton, who lives in Crescent avenue. It was found that she had left the Wharton house shortly before 9 o'clock, taking with her a can of kerosene oil. Reaching the church she poured the oil around lavishly and lighted it. As soon as it began to burn she threw open the door and burst in upon the startled congregation.

The woman, who is about thirty years old, was arrested. For some time she has been looked upon as being slightly demented, but every one thought that she was harmless. The damage to the church was not great.

This story appeared in the New York Tribune, and was duplicated in substance to many other papers. The members of the Crescent Avenue congregation are greatly incensed at its malicious fabrications, and propose sending a committee to the Tribune office to protest against such gross and wilful misrepresentation.

Mr. Huntsman, the accredited correspondent of the Tribune from this section, and Mr. Clarke, the correspondent for other papers that have been similarly misled, are fully as indignant at the story as are the Crescent Avenue church people. As a matter of self-protection they are taking steps to find out and expose the person responsible for the yarn.

Fire at Westfield.

Three barns were burned in the heart of Westfield's business section, this forenoon. The natives feared for the town's safety, and sent to Plainfield for help. With the assistance of a steam engine and cartload of hose the flames were subdued.

—The Leal school base-ball team defeated the "Bi" club team on the Crescent grounds, Saturday, by the score of 8 to 6. The attendance was small.

A WASHINGTON LETTER.

One Firm in Buffalo Spends More Money at the Buffalo Post-office than all the Banks and Newspapers combined.

A Washington (D. C.) letter says, that the post-office authorities at Washington report that one firm in Buffalo—the World's Dispensary Medical Association—spends annually one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for stamps alone, in carrying on their extensive proprietary business. This is more than all the banks and newspapers of Buffalo combined spend for postage.

Here's a firm which has grown, step by step, through many years to greatness. The reason for this wonderful growth has been that they have faith in what they sell, so much faith that if they can't benefit or cure, they don't want your money.

For many years they have been selling Dr. Pierce's remedies—one, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for regulating and invigorating the liver and purifying the blood; the other, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the hope of weakly womanhood, and they've been sold for years, sold by the million bottles; sold under a positive guarantee of benefiting or curing, or your money will be refunded.

WE put something in a quart bottle and sell it to you for 25 CENTS, which will hunt out and destroy bad smells, "mustiness" and poisonous gases in your house, cellar or barn, as a weasel hunts out and destroys rats. It might astonish you to see how quickly this SOMETHING stops decay and kills the most horrible odor you can imagine; but then you would understand how and why it may purify the atmosphere of your house, and prevent contagion. This SOMETHING is Reynolds's Odorless Disinfectant, made and sold for 10 years at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

AN ORDINANCE

for the repairing and permanent improvement of Farragut Road.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. That the roadbed of Farragut Road extending from the northwest side of East Front street to Green Brook, be forthwith repaired and spread with broken stone for a width of eight feet on each side of the centre line of said street, and for a depth of six inches, at the general expense of the city to be paid for, after first applying the direct contribution of property owners, out of the money raised by tax for the improvement of streets, as provided by the act of the Legislature entitled "An act to authorize cities to make permanent improvements in the roadbeds of the street at the general expense", approved May 13, 1884.

Sec. 2. That before any work shall be done under this ordinance, the property owners along the line of the proposed improvements shall deposit with the City Treasurer one-half the estimated cost of the same to be determined by the Street Commissioner.

Adopted by the Common Council April 11, 1892.

Approved by the Mayor April 18, 1892.
A. GILBERT, Mayor.

WHAT SHALL THE HARVEST BE?

This is neither a picnic party nor a political parade. Mother Hubbard, accompanied by a few of her numerous progeny, sets forth to have them all arrayed in new suits for Spring wear. "What shall the harvest be?" Well, that depends largely on Mother Hubbard's destination. If she goes to our place, where we are selling off a large line of Suits for all sizes marked with the wholesale price in plain figures, she'll save fifty dollars, at least, and her folks will be the best dressed in town.

Now on exhibition at the 5 and 10 cent Store.
Does the work of an hour in five minutes. Come and see it.
We have no competitors in our line. We sell only perfect wares, and always refund money or exchange goods when desired. Don't make the mistake of buying elsewhere until you have got our prices. It is common to hear people say "Why we paid more for that article in New York." Housefurnishings of all kinds in Crockery, Glass, Tin, Wood, Iron, Stone and Yellow Ware. Elegantly decorated Dinner and Tea Sets made up to suit the purchaser and purse. Garden Implements in Hoes, Rakes and Shovels, Light Hardware, Boys' Express Wagons and Velocipedes, Hammocks and Croquet, White Mountain Ice Cream Freezers, Stationery, Mucilage, Inks, Pens, etc., Soaps, Combs and Brushes, Toys, Dolls and Games, Decorated and Plain Lamps, Chimneys and fixings, Brooms, Pails, Mops and Brushes, Doll Carriages, &c., all at prices that others dislike. You get your bargains from 5 and 10 cent counters—ours are loaded. Every purchaser of one dollar's worth receives a household necessity free, worth ten cents. Royal Tooth Powder improves the looks, spares pain and saves dentist's bills—price ten cents—nothing called "tooth powder" superior. Try it.

NOTES FROM THE PASTOR'S PAPER.

Paragraphs of General Interest from the Rev. Mr. Mitchell's Visitor.

That sparkling little monthly, The Visitor, issued by pastor C. B. Mitchell in the interests of the M. E. church, is so prosperous, and has become so important a part of the church work, that the April issue could not be made complete without a supplement. From its columns is extracted the following budget:

Mrs. Roberts, 83 West Front street, is still very ill with heart trouble.

Mrs. Doane is gaining some strength and hopes to be at church again before long.

Mrs. Chas. B. Mitchell is home again after several weeks' absence in Pittsburgh.

That mock trial is to take place at next regular meeting of Epworth League, May 6.

We are glad to welcome Mr. Lucky and family, 20 Westervelt avenue, who come to us from Westfield.

Henry K. Carroll, LL. D., was ordained a deacon by Bishop Bowman at the last session of our Conference.

The Rev. Herbert Welch, son-in-law of James McGee, is now stationed at St. Luke's M. E. church, New York city.

Our congregational singing is improving. The cornetist, Mr. Dale, after long experience in Gilmore's band, is fully competent. Let all the people sing.

Tuesday evening, April 26, in Park Place chapel, Albert Taft will give magic lantern views of Baltimore and Washington, for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid society.

A recent letter from J. W. Jackson brings tidings of the good health of himself and wife, and their delight with the beauties and glories of California. They expect to return about the first of May.

S. E. Birdsall and family have removed from the city, we hope only temporarily. Mr. Birdsall has long been one of our most efficient workers. He and his excellent family have many warm friends in Plainfield.

Thursday evening, April 7, at 202 West 122nd street, New York city, Charles Stuart Sminck and Miss Edith O. Katline were united in marriage by the pastor, assisted by the Rev. J. E. Price, D. D. The young couple received many congratulations and handsome presents. They are boarding at present at 19 Craig place, but will soon begin housekeeping. Mrs. Sminck re-sprained her ankle the other day, and will not be out for a week or two.

The following amounts were raised last year by our church for the various benevolent enterprises and forwarded to the proper boards. Missions, $1,250; church extension, $150; Sunday-school union, $50; tract society, $35; Bible society, $35; freedman's aid, $90; education, 90. About $700 in money and supplies were raised by the women's foreign and home missionary societies, also over $300 for the Brooklyn hospital and other benevolences.

The time must come when our church will have to secure an assistant pastor. He is much needed now; but the church has been at such expense recently in the building of its chapels, that it does not feel able just yet to pay for an assistant pastor. It is due to this fact that we feel compelled to call on our ministerial friends in this city to aid us in supplying the two chapel pulpits. Our own local ministry are very much devoted to the work and are doing all they can; but in addition to their help we must for awhile ask for outside assistance. With deep gratitude we acknowledge our debt to our friends who have thus far so ably preached for us.

Mrs. James McGee passed from labor to reward on Wednesday, March 30. She was taken sick at Monroe Avenue chapel on the preceding Friday evening, was brought home, and never rallied. Her last religious service was attended in the chapel she loved so dearly, and conducted by her husband. Her life was full of good words and works. Her last act of philanthropy was to give her own costly grand piano to Monroe Avenue chapel. The whole community will feel her loss; the poor, whom she so freely helped, speak of her with tearful eyes; the church, of which she was so long a faithful and active member, has not suffered such a loss for years; but the inner family circle feels most keenly the bereavement, and for them a thousand prayers have been offered. Ever hereafter in this community the name of Mrs. James McGee will be "as ointment poured forth".

Republican Convention at Trenton April 27.

The Central railroad of New Jersey will sell special excursion tickets to Trenton, April 26 and 27, good to return until April 28, inclusive, for the accommodation of those attending the Republican State convention. The fare for the round trip from Plainfield will be $1.54. 3t

Shiloh's Cough Cure

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c., 50c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street, Plainfield N.J.

—Drink Moy's soda—none better.

Policeman Kiley Holds His Own.

"Messiah" Music at Holy Cross.

At Holy Cross church yesterday afternoon the choir of men and boys admirably rendered some of the most difficult numbers from Handel's "Messiah". The pretty church was crowded to overflowing, chairs being placed even in the vestibules to accomodate those unable to get within the doors, while many less fortunate stood outside the church and still felt more than repaid for their discomfort. The first selection was the "Hallelujah Chorus" and it was given with a vim and spirit that was most refreshing. The soprano boys sustained the high passages remarkably well and showed the result of a thorough and persistent training. At the offertory Master Schutt sang "I know that My Redeemer Liveth", with sweetness and delicacy, and it was a pleasure to hear this, as well as the other numbers of the oratorio, rendered with a subservient accompaniment and not drowned by an orchestra as they have been on former occasions in this city. A selection of quartettes and short choruses followed and the programme ended with the "Worthy is the Lamb" chorus, perhaps the most difficult piece given. This, too, was capitally sung, however, the fugues being done perfectly, the bass runs sung smoothly and the high tenor carried easily and well. The whole service was the most elaborate ever heard in a Plainfield church and choirmaster Miner deserves great praise for its perfect success.

Death in Dunellen of the Rev. Dr. Tyng's Son-in-Law.

William Ward died on Saturday morning at his home in Dunellen, where he had lived for the last seven years. He was born seventy-one years ago yesterday in a house in Vesey street, New York. His father was an old citizen of New York, and his mother was a daughter of Thomas Walworth, brother of ex-chancellor Walworth. In 1849 he was married to Julia Griswold Tyng, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng. His wife died in 1876. There are two sons, Walworth Ward, of Brooklyn, and Irving Ward, of New York city. Mr. Ward was a man of considerable literary attainments, and occasionally wrote for newspapers, principally upon financial topics. He was an old familiar friend of Horace Greeley. He is also well known as a former broker in Wall street. He had been sick a great deal in the last six months, but his death was caused primarily by paralysis, with which he was stricken about ten days ago.

A New and Jolly Comedy.

Probably the most popular amusement in our country to-day is the theater, and this season's managers of Music Hall have certainly favored Plainfield by bringing here all the best of New York's attractions in that line. There is implanted in every one's nature the faculty of common destiny of mankind to labor from the cradle to the grave, toil and hardship are brightened by and often endured for a slight prospect of pleasure. At the present day the most popular plays are the legitimate comedies that are for laughing purposes only. The coarse and often vulgar farce-comedy—so-called—has had its run, and clever acting and pieces farcical in treatment but ingenious in plot and bright and witty in dialogue are the prominent successes. One of the best examples of this form of plays is the laughable absurdity entitled "Tangled Up" presented by the DeLange-Rising comedy company, an organization composed of ladies and gentlemen who rank high in their profession. "Tangled Up" is an adaptation from the French, and is described as a merry skit in which three couples get "tangled up" by a series of amusing blunders and hilarious situations.

Mayflower Festival at The Crescent.

A Mayflower festival will be held by the Woman's Christian Temperance union, in their rooms in the Crescent building, May 17 and 18. The patronesses will be: Mrs. Alexander Gilbert, Mrs. W. L. Saunders, Mrs. Charles Hyde, Mrs. A. D. Shepard, Mrs. D. W. Pond, Mrs. W. T. Broadway, Mrs. Charles Potter, Mrs. F. A. Hubbard, Mrs. Charles Ryder, Mrs. Jacob Kirkner, Mrs. L. V. F. Randolph, Mrs. J. W. Johnson.

MRS. GARVEY BRINGS HIM UP.

And Judge Codington Orders Mr. Garvey to Pay $5 a Week Towards His Child's Support.

Robert Garvey was arraigned before judge Codington in the city court this morning, charged by his wife with non-support. The judge released him upon his agreement to contribute $3 a week towards keeping his seven-months-old child. Mrs. Garvey, who earns $12 a month in the Creston carpet mills on South avenue, has the baby. Garvey's wages are $8 a week.

Mrs. Garvey was a Miss Mamie Hedden, daughter of Ephraim Hedden of this city. She is still a young and pretty woman, although he has buried one other husband—John Leible, formerly a barber on Somerset street. She married Garvey almost two years ago, claiming that he betrayed her when she was an innocent and unsophisticated young widow. His relatives were opposed to the match, and he left her. Since then, as told above, he has been living in Newark and she here.

Plainfield's Military Organization.

The members of Leal's Cadet Corps, the new military organization at Leal's school, this city, make a very attractive appearance, in their handsome uniforms, on the streets. The corps is fast growing in popularity among the students, and already forty have joined. These are being carefully drilled by George F. Edwards, who is an acknowledged authority on military tactics, by special request of Mr. Leal. The boys are greatly attached to their major, as they call Mr. Edwards, and are enthusiastically preparing a Memorial Day parade, their first public appearance. The officers of the corps are as follows:

Captain—Rowland Cox, jr.
First Lieutenant—C. C. Bull, jr.
Second Lieutenant—Henry Lowe.
Sergeants—First, Coe Thompson; Second DeWight; Third, Lovell.
Corporals—F. VanFleet, Geo. Bull, Francis Frost, Francis Bushnell.

The Resolutes Defeated.

The Arlingtons and the Resolutes played a game of base-ball Saturday morning on the Park avenue grounds. The Arlingtons won the gome very easily by the score of 31 to 6. The Arlingtons had everything their own way all through the game, and at the end of the ninth inning had piled up enough runs to win two or three extra games with. The Resolutes' pitcher was knocked all over the diamond, and but for the fielding of some of his players the Arlingtons would have secured ever more runs than they did. In the second inning the Arlingtons got on a batting streak, and knocked out 13 runs, together with a home-run drive by O. Smith and a three-base hit by C. Sutphen.

Base-Ball Chatter.

The band concert before next Saturday's game should be an attraction.

Jones put some life in the game for the Leal team, Saturday, and the school boys braced up and played ball.

There are lots of good players left out in the cold. Manager Keller is being flooded with applicants for positions.

The Crescent League team will report at the club-house next Saturday morning. The uniforms will be ready, and the boys will probably have a little practice together.

Leidy met with a singular accident Saturday. In running backward to catch a fly ball, he stumbled and fell, the ball striking him squarely in the eye. George will consequently appear in half mourning for a while.

Dunellen Doings.

Taylor's hotel is to be greatly enlarged and improved.

The Dunellen base-ball team defeated the Bound Brook team at base-ball Saturday.

Funeral services were held at the Dunellen M. E. church, yesterday, over the remains of Mrs. Irving G. Stelle. The Rev. W. C. Kinsey officiated. Mrs. Stelle died at the age of 22 years, and is the sixth child buried by her aged mother, Mrs. Johnston. The sympathy of the entire community is with the bereaved family.

Wardner Carpenter Titsworth, son of Isaac D. Titsworth, died at the residence of his father yesterday morning. Mr. Titsworth had studied for a minister and had a church in the west. But the terrible disease consumption set in, and he was brought home one day last week. His age was 43. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

A French Tea on East Front Street.

Miss Hellwig of East Front street gave another of her pleasant French afternoon teas last Friday. It was particularly enjoyed, as some delightful French games with Easter eggs and surprises were introduced. Besides those who usually take part in these teas Miss Hellwig had the great pleasure of welcoming Miss Margaret Simpson of Broadway, after a prolonged absence on account of illness, and Master P. Rodgers, who had returned from a southern trip.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

I suffered for more than ten years with that dreadful disease, catarrh, and used every available medicine which was recommended to me. I cannot thank you enough for the relief which Ely's Cream Balm has afforded me.—Emanuel Meyers, Winfield, L. I., N. Y.

By innumerable cures, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has won for itself a most enviable reputation.

FEASTING AND GOOD CHEER.

Sons of St. George Royally Entertain Plainfield Brothers.

About eighteen members of No Surrender lodge, Sons of St. George of Plainfield, paid a fraternal visit Friday evening to Ivy Leaf lodge of New Brunswick. The visitors found a most cordial welcome and were put down by their hosts as a most jovial lot who appreciated a good time.

The bad condition of the roads did not allow them to reach New Brunswick until shortly after 10, but they went into the festivities in the new lodge room in Goodwill Council hall, with a run that made the evening pass rapidly and most enjoyable.

Songs were rendered in hearty English style by the following from Plainfield: Bros. Thos. and Bert. Winsper, John Odgen, Clement Jolly, Wm. Craig, secretary A. H. Leivers, Chas. Burns. Those participating in the singing from Ivy Leaf lodge were: John Knowles, Joseph Southward, Stephen Goddard, Thos. Hall, George Kenyon, Samuel Goddard, and Jos. Wildgoose, secretary; and past-president Ed. Norminton, who presided, gave his laughable ventriloquial sketch and sang in his fine tenor voice

After the entertainment in the lodge room, all adjourned to Bro. Geo. Leach's "St. George Hotel", on Albany street, where full justice was done to a splendid repast supplied by him at short notice. The visitors departed at an early hour Saturday morning for Plainfield.

—The book-keeping class of the Y. M. C. A. will meet this evening as usual.

—A horse belonging to G. R. Schlereth, of West Second street, ran away this morning when the alarm of fire was sounded. It was caught at the corner of Park avenue and Second street, before doing any damage.

—The regular and annual meeting of the Exempt Firemen's association will be held Wednesday evening in Alert's parlors. The amendment of by-laws deferred from the last meeting, and other important business, will be acted on.

"I AM NOT WELL ENOUGH TO WORK."

This is a daily event in mills, shops, factories, etc. It is the point where Nature can endure no more, and demands a rest. Then the poor sufferer, worn with toil, and broken in health, stands aside to make room for another. "Quick consumption" they called it.

To this class of women and girls we proffer both sympathy and aid. When those distressing weaknesses and derangements assail you, remember that there is a Remedy for all of them. We have on record thousands of such cases, that have been restored to vigorous health and lives of usefulness.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Is the only Positive Cure and Legitimate Remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

It cures the worst forms of Female Complaints, that Bearing-down Feeling, Weak Back, Failing and Displacement of the Womb, Inflammation, Ovarian Troubles, and all Organic Diseases of the Uterus or Womb, and is invaluable to the Change of Life. Dissolves and expels Tumors from the Uterus at an early stage, and checks any tendency to Cancerous Humor. Subdues Faintness, Excitability, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole system. For the cure of Kidney Complaints of either sex, the Compound has no rival.

Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00. LYDIA E. PINKHAM MED. CO., LYNN, MASS.

An illustrated book, entitled "Guide to Health and Etiquette," by Lydia E. Pinkham, is of great value to ladies. We will present a copy to anyone addressing us with two 2-cent stamps.

CHAMPION CHESS PLAYER.

By Beating Tschigorin William Steinitz Secures the Title.

William Steinitz by another victory takes his place as the champion chess player of the world. He has just defeated Tschigorin. Since 1859 Steinitz has been playing chess, but not until 1866 did he command the attention of the world by his achievements in the race for the world's championship. His first playing was done at Prague, where he took instruction from Hampe and Jenal. Before he left their school he had defeated both in match games.

In 1862 Steinitz entered the tournament in London and came out sixth in the game. This was his first international playing. But as a matter of fact it was not until 1866 that he did anything great at chess. He then defeated the champion, Anderssen, of Germany. The same year he took first prize in the handicap tournament of the British Chess association and shortly after won a victory over Player Bird. The following year he defeated G. B. Fraser, of Dundee, Scotland, and took third prize at the Paris tournament.

Anderssen again met Steinitz in 1870, and defeated him. Two years later

WILLIAM STEINITZ.

Steinitz and Zukertort met at the London international tournament. Seven games were played, one of which was won by Zukertort. During the same year a remarkable game was commenced, Steinitz and others representing London and Baron Kolisch conducting the play for Vienna. The game was played by telegraph and lasted twenty months, resulting in favor of London.

A year later Steinitz spent much time studying chess literature, and in 1883 made a tour of this country. In 1886 Steinitz won a tournament under the auspices of the Manhattan Chess club. After that he played innumerable games with the world's great players and was beaten more than once by the Russian, Tschigorin. A year ago he was beaten by the Russian, but now again victory crowns his efforts. Steinitz is something of an American, but is a Bohemian by birth.

The Knout.

Punishment by the knout has been restored in Russia. That cruel punishment has just been abolished in Egypt.

A Professional Opinion.

Householder—I am going to move to the suburbs next Monday, and I'd like you to do the job.

Mover—How many loads?

"I don't know. You moved me once, you may remember."

"Yes; I needed three wagons then to get through; but that was some years ago. Have you moved since?"

"Yes, indeed, half a dozen times."

"Hum! I guess one wagon will carry all you have left."—N. Y. Weekly.

The Economy of Politics.

"Come off," said a ward politician angrily to an opponent, "your candidate don't know the first principles of political economy."

"Don't he?" was the hot retort. "Well, all the samee, he paid fifty cents for a vote this morning that your man had been offering a dollar for, for a week."—Detroit Free Press.

Quoting the Doctors.

Mother—You haven't cleaned your teeth this morning.

Small Boy—Doctor Pullem says the time to clean teeth is at night.

Mother—But you never clean them at night.

Small Boy—No'm. Doctor Fillem says the best time is in the morning.—Good News.

She Need Seek No Further.

Miss Flypp—I want a husband at once handsome, accomplished, patient, enterprising and manly.

Young Hunker—Miss Flypp, allow me to offer myself.—Judge.

GOOD PIE

is much prized, but many people can't eat pie because of dyspepsia or dyspeptic tendency.

Everybody

if it is made with Cottolene, the new pure substitute for lard. Cottolene is simply pure cottonseed oil and pure beef suet, two of the healthiest foods known.

Properly combined they are better than lard for all kinds of shortening, and everyone can eat, digest, and enjoy food cooked with it. Food that was indigestible when cooked with lard is easily digested when cooked with Cottolene, and many of the leading housekeepers of the land say they can make nicer bread, rolls, biscuit, cakes, cookies, ginger bread, pies, patties, tarts, griddle cakes, croquettes with Cottolene than with either lard or butter. Get it of your grocer and try it. Beware of imitations.

BLEW UP HIS SHOP

Ravachol's Friends Succeed in Killing M. Very.

TEN OTHERS SERIOUSLY HURT.

A Dynamite Bomb Exploded in the Doorway With Terrible Effect.

The Wine Shop Completely Wrecked, and Surrounding Buildings Badly Damaged. M. Very, in Whose Place Ravachol Was Arrested, Had Received Scores of Threatening Letters—Ravachol's Trial To-day—Great Anxiety Felt.

PARIS, April 26.—There was a terrific explosion last evening in the entrance of the wineshop of M. Very, 23 Boulevard Magenta, where Ravachol, the Anarchist, was arrested on March 30. The bomb contained at least 12 pounds of dynamite, and completely wrecked the establishment. Ten persons were seriously injuerd and M. Very is dead.

The explosion occurred when the wineshop was half full of guests, and as nearly as can be learned, the bomb was placed just within the outside door of the corridor and at the door leading from the corridor into the wineroom. M. Very was standing in the middle of the room when the shock came. He was thrown against the wall in a heap of shattered tables and chairs. The ceiling fell, and several beams were split and fell to the floor.

A minute after the explosion 10 of the guests recovered their senses and ran into the street shouting and crying "fire." The police who have been stationed near the wineshop since Ravachol's arrest, came up as the uninjured came out, and began bringing out those unable to help themselves.

M. Very was found to be in a pitiful condition. Both of his legs had been crushed by the falling beams, his collarbone was fractured and his right arm was broken. He was bleeding at the mouth and ears, and is supposed to have suffered internal injuries. His little boy was found unconscious in a corner with his collarbone broken. Both were taken to the Saint Lois Hospital, where M. Very's legs were amputated.

Of the other ten persons injured three were taken to the hospital and the others were helped to their homes by the police. Six of them are said to have broken bones and internal injuries, but the particulars are not known.

Half of the front of the wine shop was blown out, the stairs of the lower two stories were smashed to splinters, and not a door or window in the house was left whole. The floor in the corridor was blown away, the chandelier was twisted and hurled into a corner and where the ceiling walls were not split, the plaster was taken off as with a knife.

The building on each side of the wine shop were damaged from top to bottom. Half of the furniture was broken and all glass in them was shattered. The whole block around the wine shop was rocked by the explosion, and the walls were started so that they cracked or bulged. The neighborhood is thickly populated and in five minutes after the explosion the street was crowded with frightened men and women.

An extra force of police was summoned and an effort was made to induce the people to return to their rooms. The effort was fruitless for some time, and women and children blocked the sidewalks, crying and wringing their hands. Later men began carrying out their most valuable possessions and prepared to move their families to other parts of the city.

Much of the patronage of the wine shop was local, and families in the neighborhood fear that Ravachol's friends have marked it for destruction, as a warning to the magistrate and the witnesses at the trial to-day. Police are watching the shop and making house-to-house inquiries along the Boulevard in the hope of getting a clue to the perpetrator of the deed.

M. Very was far beyond giving information to throw light on the outrage, but a waiter who was taking him to the hospital says that his master has received no fewer than 50 or 60 threatening letters from Anarchists since Ravachol was arrested. One of them, found by the police in M. Very's desk at the rear of the shop, said:

"Sir—You have dared to betray Ravachol, beware! You will learn what we can do. Your shop is doomed and your infamous life will be taken before May 1. Your family is no better than you. We will take care of them too.

"Friends of Ravachol."

Three arrests have been made, including a man who, after the explosion in the wineshop shouted at the next corner "Vive L'Anarchie."

A revolver and knife were found on him. He professes to know nothing of the perpetrators of the explosion.

Troops cleared the Boulevard Magenta. Thousands of sightseers had crowded the street near the wrecked wineshop and the police were unable to drive them back. In the confusion, it was feared another outrage might be perpetrated. Four companies of soldiers were called out. They drove the crowds into the side streets and remained on guard until the people had gone home.

Ravachol's trial begins to-day, and the most intense excitement prevails.

The "Eclair" to-day publishes a letter, purporting to be signed by a number of Ravachol's friends, addressed to the jurors who will sit in the case. The letter appeals to the jurors to observe impartial fairness, and declared that Ravachol's acts of vengeance were justified by the criminal attitude of Judge Benoit and Public Prosecutor Bulot at the trial of the Clichy Anarchists.

The "Eclair" also publishes a text of an Anarchist proclamation secretly printed, and appealing to the people in regard to the municipal elections to be held on May 1. The manifesto advocates neutrality in the elections, which are denounced as a bourgeois farce.

The demand for tickets of admission to the courtroom during Ravachol's trial has been very active.

The desire to hear the proceedings has been somewhat dampened, however, by a rumor that friends of Ravachol are plotting to prevent any sentence the court may impose upon him being carried out.

It is not known what course the Anarchists may pursue, but it is feared that some of them may in some way gain admission to the courtroom and throw a bomb.

BROUGHT TO CHEYENNE.

The Invading Stockmen and the Troops Arrive—No Trouble Experienced.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 26.—The train bearing the 17th Infantry and the invading stockmen left Douglass at 7 a. m. and arrived at Fort Russell at 3:45 p. m.

When Deputy Sheriff Rohles attempted to get aboard the stockmen protested and he had to ride on the engine.

In compliance with orders from Gov. Barber, the train was preceded by a pilot engine and caboose. The latter contained a section crew with tools to repair any break in the track.

Two men with field pieces scanned the track and country ahead from the lookout until Bordeaux, one hundred miles from Douglass, was reached, when danger was considered past and the pilot engine was coupled onto the train and helped haul it into Cheyenne.

There was no demonstration along the route. Ranchmen and cowboys gazed at the train with longing eyes, but made do attempt to arrest its progress.

Hundreds of people met the train at Fort Russell, and clean linen was quickly provided for the prisoners. The Texans were the first to alight. They are a hard looking set, and the stockmen seem ashamed of them.

The party were escorted to the fort and will be confined in the guardhouse.

Judge Vandever and Walter R. Stoll have been retained for the defense. The prisoners were not communicative, saying little to their friends.

A MISSING LAWYER.

Feared That Edward Bingham Has Gone Off on a Long Trip.

WESTCHESTER, Pa., April 26.—District Attorney Edward D. Bingham has disappeared and all efforts to find him have thus far proved of no avail. The only traces of him since last Wednesday are a lot of protested checks which are lying at the Farmers' National Bank of Westchester.

He went to Harrisburg and was seen by a friend there at the Republican Convention, since then all traces of him are lost.

It is feared by his friends that he has gone off on a long trip, as did R. Jones Monaghan last September.

The court has appointed Wilmer E. McElree, acting District Attorney, as court is about to convene and some radical measures must be resorted to.

UNRULY INMATES BREAK LOOSE.

The Huntingdon, Pa., State Reformatory the Scene of Much Disorder.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., April 26.—The inmates of the State Reformatory here made a deadly assault upon a monitor named Stilhoim yesterday with their fists and other weapons.

Harry Angel of Philadelphia, and Ed. Williams of Washington, Pa., blinded Guard Hertzler by throwing sand into his eyes, and escaped through the outer gate. They were captured after a hot chase.

Escape of Tenement House Inmates.

WOONSOCKET, Conn., April 26.—The wooden pin-truss bridge across the Blackstone River at St. Paul's street, a half century old, which has been a menace to the traveling public for some years, was burned early yesterday morning. The fire was of incendiary origin. The flames extended to the four-story tenement block owned by Peter Maloney, which contained nearly thirty persons. Frank and Christopher Powell swam the river and aroused the inmates of Maloney's buildings. There would have been great loss of life if the Powell brothers had not taken the cold swim they did.

Will Not Declare a Dividend.

NEW YORK, April 26. — The United States Express Company will not pay any dividend in May. Mr. Thomas C. Platt, the president of the company, readily admitted it to a reporter yesterday morning. "We have already decided," he said, "to pass the dividend again, not because we have not earned one but because we thought it better to increase the surplus." Last November the semi-annual dividend was also passed.

Italy's Rifle is the Best.

LONDON, April 26.—The Rome correspondent of the "Times" says that a great German authority has assured him that the new Italian rifle is the best yet introduced, being superior to the Lebel, Mauser or Mannlicher, and that the Italian army authorities, conscious of this fact, are determined to go on manufacturing the rifle, whatever sacrifice be entailed, even the abandonment of the African colony.

Sligo Iron Mills Suspend Work.

PITTSBURG, April 26.—The 200 workers at the Sligo Iron Mills, South Side, were very much surprised when they reported for work as usual, at a notice posted at the entrance to the mills that the management had ordered an indefinite suspension in all departments. No further explanation has as yet been obtained.

GOVERNOR FLOWER'S MESSAGE.

Reapportionment Bills Presented in Senate and Assembly.

The Republicans Protested Against Any Legislation During the Session, Claiming It is an Unconstitutional One—Some of the Changes that the Bills Provide for—New York to Get 31 Assemblymen and Kings 19.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 26.—When the gavel fell at 8:30 p. m. Lieut.-Governor Sheehan ordered the reading of the Governor's proclamation, and then Senator Cantor offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the regular employes of the Senate be retained. Resolutions were adopted to notify the Governor that the Legislature was ready for business and a like committee to notify the Assembly. Senator Erwin then offered the following, which was laid on the table:

"The undersigned hereby protest against any legislation during this so-called extraordinary session, for the reason that the same is not a valid or constitutional one. The Governor's proclamation does not recommend any subject for consideration. The call is not such as authorized and cannot be construed into an extraordinary session. We therefore protest."

The call is signed by all the Republican Senators.

The Governor's proclamation was then read as follows:

ALBANY, April 25, 1892.

TO THE LEGISLATURE:

You have been convened in extraordinary session pursuant to the power vested in me by article IV., section V. of the Constitution. I commend for your consideration the subject for a reapportionment of members of Assembly among the several counties of the State and an alteration of Senate districts, in conformity with the Constitution.

The organic law of the State, recognizing the right of the people to fair representation in the Legislature, provides for an enumeration of the inhabitants at the end of every ten years, and directs that a reapportionment of Senate and Assembly shall be made "at the first session after the return of every enumeration."

Such an enumeration, although neglected in defiance of Constitutional obligation for seven years, has at last been taken, and the return thereof was made to the Legislature at its recent session. It is now the duty of the law-making power to apportion members of the Assembly among the counties in proportion to the number of their respective inhabitants, excluding aliens, and to so alter the existing Senate districts that each will contain as nearly as may be an equal number of inhabitants.

The performance of that duty in a manner satisfactory to the people of the State is not without difficulty, but personal and political considerations should be subordinated as much as possible to the purpose of securing for each locality its fair proportion of the representation. The task is rendered the more difficult by reason of the fact that the existing apportionment was not only unfair at the time of its enactment, but has become more and more unfair with the changes of population. Under a fair division of members of the Assembly, therefore, some counties must make sacrifices and suffer a reduction in their representation. But such sacrifices should be made willingly, and I trust the Legislature will approach its task with conciliatory disposition, determined to discharge its duty impartially and to heed the demand of the people for a fairer system of legislative representation.

ROSWELL P. FLOWER.

The Senate then took a recess until 11 o'clock.

At the hour appointed for the Senate caucus the Democrats met in the Lieut.-Governor's room, but Senators Parker and Walker refused to go in. The clerk of the Senate was sent to interview Mr. Walker, and later Senator Cantor came out and had a long talk with him. Mr. Parker finally went in, having been assured he could have four Assemblymen, but Mr. Walker sat among the minority member, and refused to be appeased.

It was 11:48 when the caucus adjourned, and Senator Cantor immediately offered the bill which apportions the districts. The Senate then adjourned till 11 a. m.

Assembly.

The Assembly had not been called to order when a committee of the Senate arrived to announce that that body had convened and was ready for business. The proclamation of the Governor issued last week was read, the Senate Committee was received, the roll was called showing 113 members present, and the House was ready for work. Messrs. Guenther and Varney were sent as a committee to the Governor, and Messrs. Webster and Husted to wait upon the Senate. On motion of Mr. Dunn the clerks and employes of the regular session were retained.

Various committees had reported Col. Williams, private secretary of the Governor, brought in the Governor's message, which was read by the clerk. Mr. Bush moved that the message be printed and referred to a committee of the whole House. The resolution was adopted after much discussion, and a recess was taken until 11 o'clock.

It was 11:40 before the gavel fell. Then Mr. Bush offered the Apportionment bill, which was ordered printed and referred to the Committee of the Whole House. An adjournment was then taken till 11 a. m. to-day.

It is figured that there are eighteen sure Democratic districts and four doubtful. New York city practically gains two Senators and Brooklyn will have three more Senators, although one Kings district is bunched with Richmond County. New York gets thirty-one Assemblymen and Kings nineteen. Albany gets four, Monroe three, Queens three, but Steuben only one. Westchester has three, Richmond one and Suffolk one.

Albany, 4; Erie, 6; Onondaga, 3; Oneida, 2; Orange, 2: Rensselaer, 3; Ulster, 2, and all the other counties 1 each.

FOX-BORROWE.

The So-Called Duel Still Being Discussed —A Southerner's Views.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The meeting of Edward Fox and Hallett Alsop Borrowe on the field of honor, which took place in Belgium on Saturday, is still the chief topic of conversation at the uptown clubs, and the opinions expressed as a rule are not complimentary to the principals in the affair.

A Southern man, who formerly lived in South Carolina and was familiar with the rules laid down in the Wilson Code before he was out of knickerbockers, said this morning that the so-called duel was a farce that in the South would make all the participants in the affair objects of ridicule and contempt.

"Judged by the rules that have governed duels in the South for a hundred years, the meeting was in no sense an affair of honor," said the Southerner.

"I cannot understand why Milbank, who has the reputation of a professional duellist, allowed the affair to go on. He certainly ought to know it was against the rules of the code. After this affair no gentleman will recognize any of the parties concerned in it, as principals or seconds, as his equals. In the South a challenge from any of these men to a gentleman would be ignored.

"As to the termination of the affair, that is equally as absurd as the beginning of it. In an affair of honor between gentlemen, unless a certain number of shots be agreed upon by the seconds, the principals shall continue shooting until one or both are hit, or both agree that they are satisfied.

"In the latter event it is the duty of the seconds to see that their principals shake hands and leave the field as friends. Fox is alleged to have repeated his charges on the field after the exchange of shots. This was not only contrary to the code, but unbecoming a gentlemen, and it was the duty of his second to have refused then and there to act further for him, and to apologize to Borrowe and his second for the language of his principal on the field.

"The entire affair was a farce. The Code Duello of France does not differ materially from the American Code, and under neither can this be classed as an affair of honor."

REPUBLICANS AT ALBANY.

The Work of the State Convention Thursday Will Be Brief.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 26.—Secretary John E. Kennedy of the Republican State Committee is in the city completing the local arrangements for the State Republican convention, which meets on Thursday at noon in the Harmanus Bleecker Hall. The majority of the delegates to the convention will arrive to-morrow morning, although some of the special trains from the large cities will arrive to-morrow night.

The State Committee will meet on Thursday morning at the Stanwix, and will decide any contested cases that may come up, although at present the secretary has not been notified that there will be any.

The work of the convention will be quite brief, because the greater part of the work either has been or will be laid out by the State Committee. The four delegates at large to the National Convention will be Chauncey M. Depew, Thomas C. Platt, Warner Miller and either Frank Hiscock or Frederick A. Schroeder.

Grievances of Railroad Men.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 26.—A committee from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, representing the employes of the Delaware, Lackawanda and Western system, presented a list of grievances to General-Manager Hallstead. Among other things they demand a large advance in wages.

$30,000 Worth of Bonds Stolen.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 26.—It is discovered that the $30,000 in bonds taken from Babbett, the Mansfield miser, had not been deposited in the Rhode Island Safe Deposit Company, and they were probably stolen.

HIS CRUEL DECEIT

Maggie Williams Makes a Discovery, and Dies For It.

MURDERED BY HER LOVER.

She Had Broken the Engagement Because of His Wooden Leg.

Lover Cunningham, However, Asked Forgiveness, But Maggie Wouldn't Become Reconciled—Then He Shot Her Twice, and Also Put Two Bullets Into Himself —Girl Dead and Man Mortally Wounded —He Blames it All on the Woman.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 26. — The discovery that her lover had a wooden leg led Maggie Williams to dismiss William E. Cunningham, to whom she was betrothed. The engagement was broken Sunday night, the young woman upbraiding her lover for the deception he had practised upon her. Yesterday Cunningham visited 25 Portsmouth street, where Maggie was employed as a domestic, and asked her to shake hands and make up. Maggie refused to be reconciled to the wooden leg and again repulsed him.

Then Cunningham drew a revolver and fired two shots at his sweetheart, one bullet taking effect in her left temple and the other over the heart. Cunningham then placed the revolver at his own head and fired. The shot did not kill and the man fired again, the bullet passing just over the heart. He fell across the body of the girl and awaited death.

The police summoned an ambulance and hurried the victims of the tragedy to the hospital. The girl died before reaching the institution. Cunningham is alive, but is mortally wounded. He would say nothing about the matter save that the woman was killed by getting in the way while he was trying to commit suicide.

DR. HILL'S MURDER.

He Called to See a Patient at Night and Came Home Dying in His Gig.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 26. — The murder of Dr. John H. Hill, brother of Walter S. Hill, a commission merchant of New York city, in Kent county, Del., just across the Delaware line, by a gang of negro desperadoes, has caused great excitement.

Since the acquittal of a white man in Kent county who was charged with murdering one of their race, the gang has been bent on murder. Dr. Hill was called to the bedside of Mrs. James Shaw, who lives near Massey's Station, five miles from Millington, where the physician lived.

He responded to the urgent summons at 10 o'clock on Saturday night, but did not reach his destination. He told his wife he would not be gone long, and she waited for his return. At four o'clock she heard the noise of the dogcart as it rolled up the lane to her home. The vehicle stopped, but her husband did not appear.

Becoming alarmed Mrs. Hill went out to see if there was any trouble. Prone upon his face in the dogcart lay her husband. Calling to him he gave no answer. Her neighbor, J. P. Ahren, responded to her call for help, and they carried the unconscious man into his home. It was found that his throat was cut from ear to ear. His head was crushed and one foot was gone. Doctors was summoned, but Dr. Hill died at 3:45 yesterday afternoon without regaining consciousness.

The Grant Monument Corner Stone.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Arrangements for the ceremony of the laying of the corner-stone of the Grant Monument on Wednesday next are nearly completed. Governor Flower has ordered the First Brigade of the National Guard to participate in the ceremony. A grand stand to accomodate 9,000 persons has been erected at Riverside Park, and it is thought that over 200,000 persons will be able to witness the ceremony within the park inclosure. It is stated that there will be at least 3,000 Grand Army veterans in the parade, which is expected to be large and imposing.

Think O'Brien is in Cuba.

NEW YORK, April 26. — The belief is general among the authorities here that the escaped bunco steerer O'Brien has fled to Cuba. Inspector Steers is firmly of this belief. He says that O'Brien is too foxy to come to this city. David Dishler, the sporting man who is accused of having assisted O'Brien in his escape, is stopping at the Gilsey House, and does not appear at all disturbed by the fact that his name is prominently connected with O'Brien's escape.

Artist Bradford Dead.

NEW YORK, April 26.—William Bradford, the artist, who was stricken with apoplexy at his studio on Fifth avenue last Wednesday, died yesterday. The deceased was 70 years old, and had won much praise through his paintings of Northern scenery. He made several trips to the arctic region, his last being 20 years ago, when he was connected with the exploring expedition headed by Dr. Hayes. The body will be taken to Fair Haven Mass., for interment.

Consecration of Bishop McDonnell.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The new Catholic Bishop of Brooklyn, Charles E. McDonnell, was formally consecrated yesterday at St. Patrick's Cathedral, this city. The impressive and imposing ceremony began at 10 o'clock and lasted for nearly three hours, and was witnessed by a vast assemblage. The entire ceremonial was of extraordinary brilliancy, and the audience viewed it with great interest. Archbishop Corrigan was the consecrator, and full 300 priests participated.

Typhoid Fever in a Military Academy.

CHESTER, Pa., April 26.—Typhoid fever is prevalent in the Pennsylvania Military Academy. The third victim of the disease in the institution, Cadet Burrel, of Little Falls, N. Y., died Sunday night. An examination of the building revealed nothing but the most cleanly, healthy and well kept apartments and perfect sanitary system. Medical experts have secured some of the water for analysis to ascertain if impurities lurk therein.

Complete Accord With the United States.

LONDON, April 26.—In the House of Commons, Mr. Lowther, Parliamentary Secretary for the Foreign Office, said in reply to Mr. Bryce of Aberdeen, that there was complete accord between the United States and Great Britain on the question of a modus vivendi in Behring Sea, pending the consideration of the Behring Sea question by the arbitrators.

Epidemic of Scarlet-Fever.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 26.—An epidemic of scarlet-fever has broken out at Rifton and vicinity. Considerable alarm has been created owing to the fact that children in families where the disease existed were permitted to attend public school. A child named Hannah Loughran attended school yesterday, and died to-day of the disease.

Another Futile Election in Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 26.—A third attempt to complete the city's representation in the Legislature proved futile yesterday, and another trial will take place within 10 days. The vote was light, being 1,500 less than at the second attempt. Nine Representatives are yet to be chosen. Each trial costs the city $3,000.

Trouble Ahead For the Reading People.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26.—Some large holders of Poughkeepsie Bridge bonds have decided to reject the Reading reorganization plan and have made overtures to the Pennsylvania and Boston and Maine roads. The Railway Committee have made deposits but not enough to control the situation. The time for mading deposits under their plan expires April 30. The Pennsylvania has asked how many bonds its friends control and there may be a fight.

A Section Foreman's Sleep of Death.

LANCASTER, Pa., April 26.—Samuel Folts of Elizabethtown, a section foreman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, became intoxicated and lay down on the railroad and fell asleep. He was run over by a freight train and literally ground to pieces, the only portion of the body found being part of the trunk. When the engine arrived in Harrisburg pieces of flesh were found on the cowcatcher.

A Locomotive Tire Trust.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26.—It is rumored that the five leading manufacturers of locomotive tires of the country, the Nashua Iron Company, the Standard Iron and Steel Company of Lewiston, Pa., the Latrobe Steel Company of Latrobe, Pa., the Midvale Steel Company of this city, and the Chicago Tire and Spring Works of Chicago, have formed a combination and will soon be merged into a trust concern.

Danbury City Election.

DANBURY, Conn., April 26.—The annual election yesterday was very quiet. It resulted in a victory for the Republicans, who elected their candidates in three of the four wards. The election was only for members of the Common Council. The Council now stands nine Republicans and three Democrats. The Mayor is Republican.

Hunting Up Evidence Against Trusts.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26. — Special Agent Horton, of the Department of Justice, has been in this city during the past week hunting up evidence against trusts. It is understood that his mission has special reference to the Sugar Trust and National Cordage Trust. From Philadelphia Mr. Horton will go to New York.

Satinet Manufacturer Assigns.

WORCHESTER, Mass., April 26.—Chas. T. Aldrich, jr., manufacturer of satinet in Sutton, assigned yesterday. Liabilities $45,000, assets $5,000. A fire which caused the total destruction of Mr. Aldrich's mill, entailing a loss of $45,000, on which there was but $1,500 insurance, is the direct cause of the assignment.

MONEY IN IT.

That's why those who have good goods to sell and want to reach those who have money to spend, advertise in THE PRESS.

Our self-styled "rivals" trail along with but little life and no enterprise, and expect by periodically thrusting themselves gratuitously on the people's door steps and cutting down their advertising rates, to secure a patronage.

How poorly they succeed is proved by last Saturday's advertising record again.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Stylish French dressmaking will be done by Mme. Stroble, 44 East Fourth street.

—The city clerk's paper has just traded some of its advertising space for cheap cigars and tobacco.

—Alexander Thorn's block at 27 Somerset street was yesterday bought at auction by J. P. Homan, for $6,700.

—Only one game was rolled in the Lyceum tournament last night. The score was: Gallagher, 154; Mattox, 103.

—The "Bl." club base-ball team is trying to arrange a return game with the Leal school team for to-morrow afternoon at 4.

—The monthly business meeeting of the Woman's Temperance Aid society will be held Thursday, April 28, at 3:30, in the parlors of Reform Hall.

—Bicycle riders who want their footwear to be appropriate and comfortable ought to buy a pair of those bicycle shoes of which Kenney is making a specialty.

—The cry for Columbia safeties with pneumatic tires grows daily. Frank L. C. Martin has just received a shipment of 19 of them, brand-new from the factory.

—Janitor Hope of the Bryant school flung forth the school flag to-day in celebration of Gen. Grant's birthday anniversary. The boys told him he was wrong, and so the flag will wave to-morrow with the rest of the school banners.

—The Somerset county grand jury has made a presentment against the blowing of the whistle on the Somerville woolen mills. Manager Brown retorts that if his whistle is to be silenced church bells and railroad whistles must also be subdued.

—If you have any old shirts in stock, or stale bread, or faded socks, or beef's liver, or brass collar buttons, or clams, or any cheap thing you deal in, take it around to the Courier office, the city clerk will trade for it the advertising space he cannot sell or get rid of in any other way.

—The Courier and the News both last night reiterated some of the misstatements of their morning contemporaries, concerning the attempt to burn the Crescent Avenue church. They said that oil was poured inside the church and on the stone steps, and that the crazy woman tried to set fire to that oil. As a matter of fact, and as THE PRESS stated last night, oil was poured only on the stone flagging of the sidewalk and on the trunk of a tree near the curb. There was no oil spilled inside the church, nor within ten feet of it.

WILLIAM ASTOR IS DEAD.

HIS DEATH IN PARIS DUE TO HEART FAILURE.

He Was the Last Surviving Grandson of the Original John Jacob Astor—His Elder Brother, John Jacob Astor Died of the Same Disease Some Years Ago.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

LONDON, April 26.—A special despatch from Paris says that William Astor died last night from heart disease.

William Astor was the father of the present John Jacob Astor and grandson of the original John Jacob Astor

The cause of death is said by the despatch to be heart failure. It is a curious coincidence that the late John Jacob Astor, William Astor's elder brother, also died from this cause at his residence in New York.

The late William Astor leaves a widow, one son and two married daughters.

John Jacob Astor, his son, was married to Miss Willing of Philadelphia little more than a year ago.

Two of Mr. Astor's daughters now living are Mrs. Orme-Wilson and Mrs. Coleman Drayton.

While William Astor was very wealthy, he was not reputed to be nearly so rich as his elder brother, John Jacob Astor, whose wealth descended to the present William Waldorf Astor.

Mrs. William Astor has long been prominent in New York society, and held for many years the undisputed place of its leader.

A DEAD CHILD FOUND.

Boys Fishing in Tier's Lake Find the Body Wrapped in the "World".

Two boys fishing in Tier's pond this afternoon, found a suspicious looking bundle in the water, near the North Plainfield bank and just below the Water street bridge. Upon opening the bundle the dead body of a very young child was found within.

The outside wrapper was a copy of the New York World dated April 15. The body had been first rolled carefully in some cloths, and the whole bundle was tied with pink twine such as only druggists use. The twine was also tied in a flat bow knot after the manner of graduates of the schools of pharmacy.

Special marshal Geeorge Becker took charge of the body and has just notified the coroner of Somerset county.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. F. J. Horr of 13 Westervelt avenue is very seriously ill.

Dr. and Mrs. Ellis W. Hedges are obliged to omit their reception days because of the death of Mr. Hedges's father.

Mr. Venino's piano recital, which was to have been given Thursday evening, has been postponed because of sickness. The new date of it will be announced in a few days.

Councilman Neal of the borough, and wife, have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their little daughter, Marjory, who died this morning of cerebro-spinal meningitis. It is the first death in the family.

The friends of Dr. Charles H. Stillman found it inadvisable, on account of the patient's extreme weakness, to remove him as far as his mother's home, yesterday, as had been planned; and instead he was taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. J. K. Myers, where his wife and child affectionately greeted him. His condition is very low. His disease is the result of an attack of the grip, followed by pneumonia.

BY THE WAY.

—The members of All Saints church, Scotch Plains, have decided to change their mission to a parish.

—An important business meeting of the Young Men's auxiliary will be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening.

—The Plainfield firemen are very grateful to the Westfield people for the hospitality shown yesterday. The firemen were handsomely treated to a substantial luncheon, and were made to feel amply repaid for the assistance they gave at the fire.

—THE PRESS is in receipt of a communication criticizing the police for not putting a stop to the law-breaking of alleged "Sunday dives" in the southwestern section of the city. If the correspondent has any evidence he ought to submit it to the authorities.

—The "Y's" hold their annual business meeting Tuesday afternoon of next week at 4, in their new rooms in the Crescent. They are to have Miss Campbell, of New Brunswick, with them, and cordially invite the members of the W. C. T. U., and all their friends who are interested in their work, to be present at this meeting.

—Of all Newark's renowned and well patronized clothing firms, none enjoys a higher reputation for stylish material, true cut, fine trimming and proper make, than Kilpatrick & Betts, 745 and 747 Broad street. They are now offering the latest in dress suits, cut from fancy checks, worsteds, basket patterns, the soft, unfinished Clay diagonal, etc., for $15 and $18.

EXAGGERATED PRAISE A MISTAKE.

"Justice" Gives an Unbiased Opinion of Last Sunday's Singing at Holy Cross.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—I was surprised as well as amused to see in your issue of yesterday the extreme praise lavished upon the singing of the "Hallelujah" and "Worthy is the Lamb" choruses of the Messiah, by the choir of the Church of the Holy Cross. When that was followed by a slurring attack upon the efforts of others, I thought your borough critic deserved a little setting down. He should be aware that exaggerated praise of a thing only brings its faults into greater prominence. As I had not thought of drawing any comparisons, my opinion Sunday afternoon was entirely unbiased, and I was forcibly reminded of it last evening.

Considering the great difficulties of the work undertaken, and the extreme youth of most of the singers, all was exceedingly well rendered and showed the untiring patience and perseverance of their leader; but there were parts that, to one familiar with the music as it should be, were very bad, and no one probably knows that better than the worthy leader himself. As for the uninitiated in the mazes of those choruses—and your critic must have been one of them—the more of a jumble there was the more lost in admiration they were, perhaps, since it all came right in the end, and when an unwary member brought in an extra "Hallelujah" or two, they perhaps thought it part of the performance.

I wish you to understand that I do not desire to underrate the singing on Sunday. I enjoyed it, myself, very much, and decidedly admired the way in which some kept their lead in the teeth of great difficulties, but the performance was not the perfect one your critic would lead one to suppose. Master Schutt's solo was carefully and well rendered, and his breathing might be a study for many a more pretentious singer. Altogether, the choir is as fine a one as could possibly be gotten together in a town of this size, where selection is necessarily limited.

JUSTICE.

Lost His Presence of Mind.

Harry Ulrick of East Fifth street had an exciting experience yesterday afternoon. He was driving on Park avenue when his horse was startled and began to travel at its utmost speed. Ulrick lost his head and instead of trying to control the horse let the reins hang loose and looked wildly about. In front of Estil's store he dropped the reins altogether and slid from the rear of the wagon. He fell flat in the roadway and slid along, face downward, some distance. The horse upset the wagon at the corner of Front street, freed itself and ran down the street. It was caught two blocks farther west. Ulrick was not seriously hurt. The corner was crowded when the runaway swung around it, and much excitement was caused.

Odd Fellows' Anniversary.

The seventy-third anniversary of the imperial order of Odd Fellowship will be celebrated under the auspices of Plainfield lodge, No. 44, at Music Hall this evening. An entertainment will be given by Miss Mabel Stillman, the whistling Patti; Miss S. Louise Tooker, dramatic soprano; Carl Odell, dramatic tenor; the Ivanhoe banjo quartette, consisting of John V. Smith, Charles Powell, James J. Dougherty and Judd H. Redfield; and Miss M. Gertrude Carland, elocutionist.

To Wield the Racket and Ply the Wheel.

A baker's dozen of Plainfield's most charming and athletic young misses have organized the Odd Thirteen Racket club, for bicycle and tennis purposes. The membership is as follows: Bessie Cornwall, treasurer; Alice Haynes, Maizie Huribut and Alice Loomis, executive committee; Grace Bonny, Lizzie Hull, Agnes Blair, Emma Fish, Lou French, Ethel Holmes, Helen Hasbrouck, Florence Smith and Beatrice Craig.

Dr. Richards Thanks THE PRESS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—I wish to thank you for correcting the exaggerated report in the morning papers concerning the attempt to set fire to the Crescent Avenue church, and would only add the further correction that the unfortunate woman was never employed in our family. She has apparently been confused with some other person.

WM. R. RICHARDS.

April 25, 1892.

—David Taylor, proprietor of Taylor's livery at Bound Brook, has established a stage line between Bound Brook and New Brunswick, as will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere. Mr. Taylor is obliging, and reasonable in his charges.

"How do I look?" That depends, madam, upon how you feel. If you're suffering from functional disturbances, irregularities or weaknesses, you're sure to "look it." And Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the remedy. It builds up the system, regulates and promotes the proper functions, and restores health and strength. It's a legitimate medicine, not a beverage; purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and made especially for woman's needs. In the cure of all "female complaints," it's guaranteed to give satisfaction, or the money is refunded. No other medicine for women is sold so. Think of that, when the dealer says something "as" (which pays him better) is "just as good."

"Times have changed." So have methods. The modern improvements in pills are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They help Nature, instead of forcing with her. Sick and nervous headache, biliousness, costiveness, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels are prevented, relieved, and cured.

A HAPPY THOUGHT!

To add to the most ppular and useful tonic of our day, a harmless sedative for the nerves and a powerful appetizer,—was not that a "Happy Thought?" Reynolds' Beef Wine and Iron with Celery is the result, and it has been quickly appreciated by persons visiting our Pharmacy. For the relief of Nerve-Strain or Lassitude, whether from over work or excitement, it is unequalled. A full dose taken at night generally dispels sleeplessness. As a "Spring Medicine" it meets every requirement. It is, in fine, a powerful Tonic, Restorative and Sedative, and yet quite harmless. Originated and sold only at

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Corner Park and North Avenues.

A Base-Ball Memento.

There still hangs on the wall of the PRESS composing room a faithful old time-piece which was presented to the publishers by the Central Base-Ball club a score of years ago. In all that time the clock has never ceased swinging its pendulum, and ticking off the minutes. From the files of THE CONSTITUTIONALIST the following account of the presentation is taken, recalling interesting athletic events of twenty years ago:

"CENTRALS" STILL AHEAD!

We were agreeably surprised on Saturday last to see our friend Collier, the Front Street Jeweler, stalk into our office with a handsome eight-day clock under his arm, which he gently laid on our table, accompanied with the following note which explains itself:

To W. L. FORCE & BRO.

GENTS:

"We, the members of the Central Base-Ball Club, wish to present this Clock, as a slight token of our appreciation of your kindness for the past year.

H. Lecland, J. Martin, D. Leeson, C. Crandall, R. Dunham, E. Merritt, A. Collier, E. Laing, F. Dunham, W. Young, E. Platt, R. Merritt.

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas,

Yours,

W. H. YOUNG, Sec.

We return our sincere thanks to the generous donors, and can assure them that the members of the "Centrals" will ever be held in kind remembrance by us. Since their organization we have watched their career as ball-players, and it has been with pride that we have recorded through these columns their victories, and we predict for them in the future a name that will strike terror into the hearts of their opponents, and win them golden laurels as "Champions". May they always "wax" the "Waxers", put a "quill" in the ear of the "Aquillas", be "Dauntless" enough to bring home another "Silver Ball", and finally be "Resolute" in their determination to defeat any club in the state, even if they have to go to the banks of the "Raritan" to do so, and take their own "Umpire" with them.

It is not pleasant to hear people constantly coughing when they can be easily cured by a 25 cent bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

WHAT SHALL THE HARVEST BE?

This is neither a picnic party nor a political parade. Mother Hubbard, accompanied by a few of her numerous progeny, sets forth to have them all arrayed in new suits for Spring wear. "What shall the harvest be?" Well, that depends largely on Mother Hubbard's destination. If she goes to our place, where we are selling off a large line of Suits for all sizes marked with the wholesale price in plain figures, she'll save fifty dollars, at least, and her folks will be the best dressed in town.

CYCLERS HAVE A HARD TIME.

Trying in Vain to Ride From Philadelphia to Newark.

Twelve members of the Business Men's Cycle league of Newark had a lively experience Sunday in trying to ride from Philadelphia to Newark on their wheels. They found it utterly impossible to accomplish the journey and only the more plucky and enthusiastic of the party succeeded in getting as far as Somerville, when they were obliged to abandon the course on account of darkness and bad roads, and take to a train. The bulk of the party dropped out long before. It is thought, however, that two of the crack riders got even further than Somerville. Plainfield wheelmen will be interested in the following interesting account of the trip:

We went to Philadelphia on Saturday to ride to Newark on our wheels, and lay out the course for the great open handicap bicycle race of 100 miles from Philadelphia to Newark on May 16. We started from the Bingham House in Philadelphia at 8 a. m. yesterday and rode to Trenton. We had very good riding until we got within seven miles of Trenton, when we found the roads pretty bad. We made our first stop at Trenton, which we reached at 12 m. We stopped for dinner there at the United States Hotel. We left Trenton at 1:30 p. m. and rode to Pennington, where we were met by a number of Newarkers who had started out from Newark early in the morning to meet us. Their wheels were covered with red clay and they told us that we would find the roads in a very bad condition. We had hard riding from Trenton to Pennington, but they assured us that we knew nothing of what was before us. When we looked at their wheels we were very ready to believe them and a conference was held.

After a short discussion the Westons, Amman and myself started on our wheels for Newark. Soon after Messrs. Hall, Swartwout and Peck followed us. The others took the train for Newark. Peck and Swartwout are our two crack riders, and were able to navigate much better than we were. At Hopewell we made another stop and at that point Swartwout and Peck forged ahead and we lost sight of them. I waited for the Westons who had dropped behind and after a short delay they found us and we went on to Belle Mead. Then I left the Westons behind and after waiting half an hour for them went on. I continued to Somerville with Mr. Holmes. The last two miles before reaching Somerville were made in the dark, and we had to get off our wheels, climb sign posts and light matches to read the signs in order to find out where we were.

After making a brief stop at Somerville we started for Newark. We went about a mile and a-half when we found the roads so bad as to be utterly impassable, and we returned to Somerville and took the train for Newark, reaching here at 11 p. m. We were thoroughly tired out and had the roughest kind of a time. If we were thrown once we were hundreds of times. We had to leave the road more than once and walk through fields to get along, as the mud was so deep, but we were assured by those along the line that the roads will be all right before May 16. On May 1, they generally scrape the roads and level them off and after this they get hard and dry and we anticipate a fine run on the 16th of May. We will start from Philadelphia at 10 a. m. We will follow the route I have described to Somerville, and will go thence to Bound Brook, Dunellen, Plainfield, Westfield, Cranford, Roselle and Elizabeth. We will finish on Frelinghuysen avenue, Newark, before the engine house.

A Popular Boniface Come to Scotch Plains.

[From The Morris County Chronicle.]

William J. Lowe, proprietor of the West End Hotel, this city, has purchased another hotel, at Scotch Plains, near Plainfield, known as Brittin's Hotel, price $8,000, and will take possession May 1. He will at once remodel and fit it up as a first-class road house. Mr. Lowe is a popular hotel man, young in years though ripe in experience in the business for which he is so peculiarly adapted, and we predict that he will speedily win his way to popular favor in his new field of operation and make Plainfield's suburban road house a pleasant and popular resort.

His brother Thomas, who had several years' experience in the Gilsey House, New York city, will assume the management of the West End.

Republican Convention at Trenton April 27.

The Central railroad of New Jersey will sell special excursion tickets to Trenton, April 26 and 27, good to return until April 28, inclusive, for the accommodation of those attending the Republican State convention. The fare for the round trip from Plainfield will be $1.54. 3t

Worth Knowing.

That ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS are the highest result of medical science and skill, and in ingredients and method have never been equalled.

That they are the original and genuine porous plasters, upon whose reputation imitators trade.

That ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS never fail to perform their remedial work quickly and effectually.

That this fact is attested by thousands of voluntary and unimpeachable testimonials from grateful patients.

That for rheumatism, weak back, sciatica, lung trouble, kidney disease, dyspepsia, malaria and all local pains, they are invaluable.

That when you buy ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS you absolutely obtain the best plasters made.

THAT GRACE CHURCH ROOSTER.

It is a Decorous Decoration to a Sermon in Stone.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Your correspondent in Saturday's edition, alluding to the rooster, as he calls it, on Grace church tower, asks in concluding his article "what's the matter with it, anyhow?"

So many people have, it appears, been asking the same question, coupled with the query as to why "the steeple" was not finished, that I am tempted to reply, asking the privilege of doing so through the medium of your valuable columns.

The selected design of Grace church was chosen as a beautiful rendering of the early type of Gothic architecture, as well as for an eminently practical scheme for meeting the needs of the parish.

In the churches of the twelfth century we find the noblest development of the Gothic style, and to-day many examples may be seen, both in France and England. In France we find invariably the tall steeple, circular ends, the rounded arch and the transepts flush with the side walls; in England we find the square ends, the pointed arch, extended transepts and the low buttressed tower. The latter are beautiful even in their ruins and the traveler returning to rural England from the continent invariably finds a restfulness in contemplating the one he did not find in the other. The French churches are grand and inspiring; the English beautiful and picturesque, the towers peculiar and low, buttressed with lancet windows, erected presumably as watch-towers, originally.

The "cock", as a vane, was used both on the towers of England and the steeples of France, and was one of the symbols of the Passion. It is found, with others of the group, on mural decorations of the Catacombs. It was adopted by the Goths as a symbol of warning and admiration, and used in the ornamentation of all public buildings. The convention cock, or the "rooster without legs", was known as the Gallic cock, and every Warrior had it outlined on his shield.

To trace the primary use of the cock in ecclesiastical architecture, we have to go far back in the world's history. We find it at one time on all the churches of the Roman communion by an especial edict of the Pope in the ninth century, and it was universally used by the early Christians in England on their towers as the emblem of watchfulness; and to-day in that country the sight of the old Gothic church with its low tower surmounted by a cock is a familiar one. In many of the older parishes of this country the type and symbol may be seen. St. Peter's church, Whitehouse, Va., in which Washington was married, is still standing. This church was erected in 1703, and cost 146,000 weight of tobacco. The tower was added twelve years later. It is quite low, with four rising projections capped and surmounted by a low steeple, quite as low as the one on Grace church tower, holding on its extremity the cock as a weathervane.

To us who have the priviledge of belonging to Grace church parish, the new church, as a whole, is a written "sermon in stone", and partakes of the essence of a beautiful design full of meaning and life, and we claim the cock as a correct architectural decoration (that which is "decorous", becoming, or suitable to). Prof. D. M. Bristol's Wonderful Horses

Prof. D. M. Bristol and his famous school of thirty perfectly educated horses, mules and ponies will begin a three nights engagement at Music Hall, Thursday evening. On Saturday afternoon a matinee will be given, at which all children attending will be given a free pony ride. This will be Prof. Bristol's first visit to this city, and all who desire to see a novel, unique, interesting and amusing entertainment, should not fail to attend.

In addition to the horses the Professor carries with him twenty-five people, a band and an orchestra, the whole concern being transported from place to place in cars, built expressly for Prof. Bristol and under his personal supervision. To make it the best and largest show ever organized, the management have invested the sum of $60,000, and it is now the only show of its kind—exclusively horse—in the world. These horses go promptly and precisely through all sorts of exercises, including an admirable display of military drill. Mathematical exercises, trapeze and tight rope performances, balancing acts, leap-frog and reasoning from cause and effect are a few of the entertaining feats performed by these wonderfull trained animals.

"Tangled Up."

An attraction which appeals to the very best element of theater-goers is announced for Music Hall, to-morrow evening, when the DeLange-Rising comedy company will present the great laughing success, the roaring comedy, entitled "Tangled Up". The company comes direct from Cincinnati, where both play and company made an enormous hit. The play is not a farce comedy, but a clever adaptation from the French, and is described as a rattling, bustling skit, with pure, clean fun and devoid of vulgarity or horse play.

I have been using Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills in my case with marked success and upon my recommendation have induced one or two friends to try them with pleasing results. L. E. BENEDICT,

A CASE FOR THE HEALTH BOARD.

Let Minor Nuisances Go for a Time and See if the City Can't be Purged of That Plague on Somerset Street.

Again is THE PRESS called upon by the board of health to state to the people in effect that the News, published on Somerset street, this city, is an entirely unreliable and vicious paper.

Yesterday's issue contained an article which, even if true, a paper that cared for the interests of the city, would not have published. The article was headed: "Something Alarming", and implied that black diphtheria had broken out in Plainfield—having been brought here by some diseased Italians.

Ex-Mayor Rockfellow of the board of health says this is a base falsehood and the News will be compelled to eat its own words again, as usual, to-night.

All this is but another example of how depraved the News is in its methods, and recalls to mind that frequent assertion of the late Mayor Male: "The News does more to damage Plainfield than all the city's other drawbacks combined."

A Great Treat Coming.

The New York Sun said of Miss Margaret Reid who is to sing at the next concert of the Meiopola, at The Casino, May 3: "She sang the music, whose demands are great upon an artist, with exceeding sweetness and facility. She received a splendid tribute of applause after it, and it is fair to presume that no debutante ever had a heartier welcome or warmer encouragement than did the little lady last evening. Her self-possession and sang froid were extraordinary and very piquant. She will undoubtedly be heard soon and often again, for her intelligence, if we do not mistake her, is such that she will before long have a varied repertoire, and there is something about her that attracts an audience."

Two Small Fires.

The office boy sweeping the store of A. D. VanSciver, 47 North avenue, at 7:30 this morning, knocked a leg from under the stove, which promptly upset. The stove was full of red-hot coals, and only the prompt drenching of the stove and the floor prevented a serious fire. The floor was slightly burned.

At 8:05 this morning box 26, corner of Eighth street and Park avenue, sent in its first alarm. A chimney was afire at the home of A. C. Baldwin, and Mr. Baldwin feared that the roof would catch. The department soon subdued the fire in the chimney.

The fire at Mr. Baldwin's was put out by the hand-extinguishing apparatus of the department.

A Cleveland Mass-Meeting.

The Essex County Democracy, Edward W. Whitehead, Chairman of the Executive committee, and the Cleveland Democratic association of New Jersey, announce a mass-meeting to be held in the Grand Opera House, in Newark, next Monday night in the interest of Grover Cleveland as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. Congressman Breckinridge, of Kentucky, and other men prominent in the party, are expected to speak.

They Were 10 Days Later This Year.

In answer to an inquirer, it may be said that this year the martins returned to their home in front of Coriell's market, on the morning of April 23 at 11. Last year they came back on April 13 at 10 in the morning. The report that they returned this year on the 7th inst., is not true. One came on that day but he was merely a scout and returned to the South the same afternoon to notify the colony that their old habitation was unoccupied.

Reduced Rates to the Republican State Convention via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Pennsylvania railroad company announces that for the benefit of visitors to the Republican state convention to be held at Trenton, to-morrow, excursion tickets will be sold from all principal stations on the united railroads of New Jersey division to Trenton and return at the rate of two cents per mile. The tickets will be sold April 26 and 27 valid for return until April 28.

Maria's Insanity Is Killing Her.

Maria Mahon, the demented servant-woman who wanted to burn down the Crescent Avenue church, was taken to the Morris Plains insane asylum this morning, by police captain Grant. She is very ill, and will probably not last long. She says that voices are continually crying out to her, and that demons are plucking at her flesh. The insanity is gradually killing her.

Base-Ball Chatter.

Murphy reported yesterday. He will stay in town and will practice daily.

Admission to all games up to the league season will be 15 cents; grand stand, 25. Saturday's game will be called at 3:45 p. m. Berriman will umpire.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c., 50c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street, Plainfield N.J.

Correspondent Hastiness Exonerated.

(From To-day's Tribune.)

Maria Mahon, the young woman who made a disturbance in the vestibule of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, was adjudged to be insane yesterday and will be taken to the asylum at Morris Plains to-day. The story of her actions printed in The Tribune yesterday was not furnished by the regular correspondent, and the paper was misled into publishing an exaggerated account of the affair. In point of fact, the woman did not set fire to any kerosene oil within some distance of the church, and few of the congregation knew of the occurrence.

—After all and despite what the newspapers had to say, the other day, of the purchase of the Miller pharmacy by Dudley Miller and James Bailey, the deal has fallen through. When it came to signing the necessary papers, the "parties of the first and second part" could not agree on terms, and consequently Joseph G. Miller retained the business and is still to be found at the same old stand opposite the post-office.

Two Women Burned to Death.

WEYMOUTH, Mass., April 26. — The clothing of Mrs. Nathan Orenth and her daughter, Mrs. Crocker, living at South Weymouth, caugh fire yesterday afternoon in some unaccountable manner and before help arrived Mrs. Orenth was burned to death and Mrs. Crocker so seriously injured that she cannot recover.

Deacon's Trial to Begin May 20.

PARIS, April 26.—The trial of Mr. Edward Parker Deacon for killing Abelle will begin May 20. It is said that M. Clemenceau will appear in behalf of the Abelle family. It is believed that Mrs. Deacon will be absent, and that a medical certificate of her inability to be present will be produced, if necessary.

The infant reason grows apace and calls for one more application of that good friend, Salvation Oil, which always kills pain.

PASTIME FOR CHILDREN.

What Can Be Done with a Pair of Scissors and Some Cardboard.

In planning amusements for children, it is necessary to consider their natural tastes. A box of paints with a few pictures to copy, or some colored pencils, or fancy inks, will furnish a great amount of enjoyment to the little one artistically inclined, while another will amuse himself for hours with an old machine of almost any sort that has wheels which he can turn. I once knew a little boy whose favorite plaything was a block upon which was fastened a couple of wheels belted together with a string so that by turning the larger one with a crank the smaller one would revolve. Paper cutting was with me a favorite pastime when a child. With a pair of scissors and some cardboard, or even stiff paper, an ingenious child can cut out quite a menagerie of animals, and if each has four legs of even lengths at the bottom the animals can be made to stand quite nicely by spreading the feet apart. "Birds on a monument" may be cut by folding a piece of writing paper together in the form of book covers and cutting as seen in first illustration, letting the breasts and bills unite, then unfold, as seen in the second illustration, and if the crease is not flattened too much the monument will stand. The eyes and wings of the birds must be marked with a pencil or some other way. A row of ladies can be cut in a similar manner by folding a strip of rather thin paper over and over and cutting so as to leave the hands and a bit of the bottom of the dresses united, as seen in third illustration after unfolding. Pretty little baskets with four compartments can be made by simply folding a square piece of firm paper. Fold each corner toward the middle evenly and make a firm crease where the bend comes. Then turn the paper over and repeat the operation. Turn over again and draw each corner separately under toward the center, making a firm crease from center to each corner and from the center to the middle of each side where a fold comes. Now open out the little squares of paper made by the folding operation and the work is done, as seen in the fifth illustration. Stars for decorating can be cut by striking a circle, divide it into five equal parts, then pass a line from point to point as seen in illustration and cutting around outside the cross marks. Experiment till a satisfactory one is made, then use it for a pattern.—Farm and Home.

Probable.

Hicks—What have you been crying about?

Mrs. Hicks—What do you suppose?

Hicks—I'm not good at a guess; maybe to get your eyes to match the shade of your hair.—Truth.

A Good Guess.

Guest (after a delay of half an hour)—I say, waiter, is your name Time?

Waiter—No, sir.

Guest—Then it must be Tide. Time and Tide, you know, wait on no man.—Texas Siftings.

Accustomed to Luxuries.

Mr. Nicefello (exhibiting penknife)—This handle is pure silver. What do you think of that?

Little Girl—Huh! That's nothing. Sister's teeth is on a plate of pure gold.

IN GRANT'S HONOR

Cornerstone of the Monument Laid To-Day.

MOST IMPRESSIVE SERVICES.

President Harrison Wields the Trowel, and Chauncey M. Depew is the Orator.

Riverside Park Filled to Overflowing by the Multitude—Many Distinguished People at the Exercises—Veterans Who Followed the Warrior Take Part in the Ceremonies—The Only Four Generals Living Who Commanded Corps Present.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Thousands and thousands of people are flocking to Riverside Park, where amid impressive services, the corner-stone of the Grant monument will be laid this afternoon by President Harrison. The day is beautiful, and the occasion will be a memorable one.

The Presidential party arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night shortly after 9 o'clock. It consisted of President Harrison, Postmaster-General Wanamaker, Secretaries Noble and Rusk and Assistant Secretary of the Interior Bussey, Maj-Gen. Schofield and wife and Lieutenants Parker and Andrews.

The party was met at the Pennsylvania Railroad depot at Jersey City by Generals Porter and Dodge, and the party was driven to the Fifth Avenue Hotel in carriages provided by the Union League Club.

There will be at least 9,000 participants in the services. The platform built over the completed foundation of the monument will seat the 2,500 committeemen of the various trades and professions who have been collecting money for the fund. On the platform, at one end, the President and party will be seated. Fronting the platform are seats for 3,000 members of the G. A. R., and on the bank east of the platform are placed seats for the general public. The Loyal Legion also have a small platform to accommodate 300 members.

At 1 o'clock the President, his Cabinet the General commanding the army, the Admiral commanding the navy, and a few other invited guests accompanied by members of the Committee of Arrangements, will leave the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Troop A., N. G., S. N. Y., will form into platoons, four preceding the President's carriage, and three marching in the rear of the carriages.

The line of march will be up Fifth avenue to Fifty-seventh street, to Broadway, up Broadway and the Boulevard to Seventy-second street, to Riverside Drive, and thence to Claremont.

Upon arrival at the tomb the President will be received by three companies of regular troops from Governor's Island and two companies of marines and sailors from the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

After reaching the stand the following programme will be carried out:

First—Music by the United States Band, "Hail to the Chief."

Second—Prayer, by the Rev. Dr. John Hall.

Third—Address by General Horace Porter, president of the Grant Monument Association.

Fourth—Laying of the corner-stone by the President of the United States and address.

Fifth—Music.

Sixth—Address by Chauncey M. Depew.

Seventh—Benediction by the Rev. Dr. John Hall.

Eighth—Firing of a salute of twenty-one guns from U. S. S. Miantonomoh.

Among the notable Generals who participate in the ceremonies to-day are General Schofield, General O. O. Howe, Howard, General Granville N. Dodge and General H. W. Slocum.

About 2,000 schoolboys, under the direction of Lawson Fuller, will scatter flowers over the tomb at the conclusion of the ceremonies.

The usual articles will be placed in the corner-stone, including coins and notes of this date, newspapers, and resolutions and documents.

Mrs. Grant gave a dinner last night, at which a large number of distinguished soldiers and civilians were present. At the banquet to-night, given by the Monument Association, Mr. Breckenridge of Kentucky will be one of the chief orators.

Tammany Gives $5,000 to the Fund.

NEW YORK, April 27.—At a special meeting of the sachems of the Tammany Society yesterday, at Tammany Hall, a donation to the Grant Monument Fund was considered. After the special meeting an executive session was held and, upon motion of Richard Croker, $5,000 of the Society's funds were donated to the Grant Monument Fund.

Memorial Day in Savannah, Ga.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 27.—Memorial Day was celebrated more generally yesterday than for some years past. All the public offices and places of business were closed and the city filled with visitors from the surrounding country. Veterans from other counties united with those of Savannah and the military in the parade and the services at the soldier's monument. Gen. Wade Hampton paraded with them, and was the orator of the day. His address took nearly an hour in delivery and was an eloquent tribute to the Confederate cause and dead.

Chairman Clarkson Very Ill.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—A telegram has been received here which states that Chairman Clarkson of the Republican National Committee, is suffering severely from rheumatism at Hot Springs, Ark., and it is quite probable he will be unable to take part in the proceedings of the Minneapolis Convention. So great is his disability at this time that he is unable to write even to the members of his family. The news has caused considerable anxiety among those of Mr. Clarkson's friends who have heard it.

WILLIAM ASTOR'S DEATH.

His Sudden Demise in Paris a Great Surprise—His Enormous Wealth.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The cablegram from Paris announcing the death in that city at Hotel Liverpool of William Astor, came like a shock to his friends and relatives in this city, for they had received no intimation of his illness. In fact, his death was quite sudden, resulting from heart failure.

It is said that Mr. Astor has been almost prostrated on account of the Borrowe-Drayton scandal, Mrs. Drayton being his daughter. He leaves a widow, son and two daughters.

John Jacob Astor, his son, was married to Miss Willing, of Philadelphia, a little more than a year ago.

Two of Mr. Astor's daughters now living are Mrs. Orme Wilson and Mrs. Coleman Drayton.

William Astor was very wealthy, in fact, one of the richest men in America, his fortune, largely in New York real estate, being placed at about $70,000,000. He, however, was not reputed to be nearly so rich as his brother, John Jacob Astor, whose wealth descended to the present William Waldorf Astor.

Mrs. William Astor has long been prominent in New York society, and for many years held the undisputed place of its leader.

William Astor has been sometimes sarcastically described as a struggling real estate speculator, and it is a fact that during his life his great aim has been to increase the immense fortune which his father, William B. Astor, left him at the time of his death.

He could never expect to equal the wealth of his brother, the late John Jacob Astor, who received the lion's share of the patrimony, and whose fortune at his death was estimated at $200,000,000, but he did what he could to make his small nest-egg grow, and devoted the greater part of his energies to speculating in city real estate and large investments which would be certain to yield an enormous return by increased valuation as the years went by.

INVESTIGATION DEMANDED.

Washington Correspondents Take Up the Case of Executive Clerk Young.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The newspaper correspondents in Washington have decided not to allow the case of Mr. James R. Young to drop. Mr. Young was executive clerk of the Senate until that body declared his office vacated on the charge, preferred by Mr. Eugene Hale, Senator from Maine, that Mr. Young had betrayed the doings of the Senate in secret session.

Mr. Young demanded an investigation, but this was refused, and the resolution of Mr. Hale declaring the office vacant was adopted by the Senate largely on the representations of Messrs. Sherman and Hale that the refusal to adopt the resolution would be disrespectful to the Committee on Foreign Relations, which had reported it favorably.

There was much indignation expressed at this action of the Senate, both in newspaper circles and elsewhere, and in order to ascertain the truth or falsity of the charges preferred by Senator Hale, a number of correspondents have addressed a communication to the standing committee of correspondents in charge of the press galleries of the Senate and House, requesting an investigation of Mr. Young's case.

PANIC ON A FERRYBOAT.

Collision With a Pier Kills the Engineer and Injures Several.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The ferryboat Cincinnati of the Pennsylvania Railroad from Jersey City, while coming into the the Courtland street slip yesterday, went head on against the pier. Four persons were knocked insensible and there was a panic on board.

The reaction drove the boat back into the stream, where it lay helpless for 15 minutes. The passengers ran helpless from side to side ignorant of what was the matter. The captain signalled the engineer violently but the signals were unheeded.

A deckhand ran below and found that the engineer had dropped dead at his post. The captain blew the whistle violently and a tug came to the ferryboat's assistance, and towed her into the dock. The injured passengers were cared for. The engineer had fallen on the machinery and his body had been mangled by it.

Depew Is for Harrison.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Dr. Chauncey M. Depew says he is for Harrison's renomination. "I was the first one to suggest that President Harrison should succeed himself," he said last night. "That was more than a year ago, and I have seen no reason to change my mind since that time. The very same opinion and views I expressed then still hold today."

Scarlet Fever Epidemic at Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., April 27.—There is an epidemic of scarlet fever in this city that has been increasing since the first of the year. The total number of cases reported since January 1st is 942. The erection of a hospital for the treatment of contagious diseases is to be considered at the next meeting of the Common Council.

TO PRISON FOR LIFE

Ravachol and Simon Sentenced in Paris.

NO DISTURBANCE AT THE TRIAL.

Only the Witnesses and Those Known to the Officers Admitted.

The Cases Against the Other Anarchists Adjudged Unproven—Ravachol Impudent in His Testimony, and Took the Entire Responsibility for the Explosions Upon Himself—Eloquent Pleas for the Defence—Paris Still in a State of Terror.

PARIS, April 27.—The trial of Ravachol, alias half a dozen other names; Chareles Achile Simon, alias "Biscuit;" Jao Beala, alias Joseph Marius; Charles Ferdinand Chaumartin, and the girl Rosalie Soubere, was held yesterday at the Seine Assize Court. The trial opened at 11 o'clock. Only those personally known to the court officials and the 23 witnesses were admitted.

The prisoners were accused of causing the explosions at the residence of Judge Benoit, No. 136 Boulevard St. Germain, and at the residence of Public Prosecutor Bulot at the corner of Rue de Clichy and the Rue de Berlin. They were also charged with the attempt to blow up the Police Commissariat at Clichy.

The guards about the Palace de Justice were doubled, and the approaches watched closely. Only detectives and policemen could be seen in the interior.

The attendance in the court room was confined to the witnesses, officials, detectives and journalists.

When Judge Gues entered the court room he at once summoned the jury, who presented a greatly disturbed appearance. The prisoners were guarded by an immense number of police.

The prisoners appeared disposed to pose as heroes. A table was covered with bombs, the apparatus with which they were made, and everything that the police had captured.

Judge Gues examined Ravachol concerning the murders which it is charged he has committed and concerning the explosions. Ravachol in a nonchalant manner admitted his guilt and took upon himself the entire responsibility for the Boulevard St. Germain and the Rue Clichy explosions.

When questioned as to his motives for causing the explosions Ravachol replied:

"I felt anger at the conviction of Levallois and Ferrett.

"I do not think that Benoit and Bulot should have demanded the death of the fathers' families. Then the brutality of police when they arrested my comrades revolted my conscience and I determined upon revenge.

"In regard to the St. Germain explosion, I loaded a bomb that contained 60 cartridges. I dressed myself in broadcloth and went to Benoit's house without attracting any attention. After depositing the machine and lighting the fuse I ran down stairs and reached the pavement below just as the explosion occurred.

"The operation in the Rue Clichy was much the same, only I carried the bomb in a bag. A portion of the powder became displaced, and thus rendered it extremely dangerous to light the bomb, as it might explode in an instant. Yet I did not hesitate to take the risk."

Simon answered all questions put to him impudently and with nice exactness. The other prisoners were questioned only briefly. M. Benoit and M. Bulot, the magistrates whose lives have been attempted in the cases in question were called by M. de Beaurepaire and related briefly what they had experienced from the explosions in the Rue de Clichy and the Boulevard St. Germain.

The little waiter L'Herot, who kept in hiding Monday for fear of, his life, was the last witness for the prosecution. All signs of the happiness which his 4,000 francs in tips after Ravachol's arrest had caused him have vanished completely. He was white and scared, and jumped nervously every time a window rattled or a door slammed. He was such a pitiful figure that even the jury, who were hardly less nervous, smiled as he figeted about under the examination. He became vivacious while relating the story of the arrest in M. Very's wineshop, and jumped to his feet to illustrate how M. Dresh and his assistants pinned Ravachol to the floor after the struggle.

There were five speeches for the defence. Maitre Lagasse, counsel for Ravachol, made the longest appeal, in which he spoke eloquently of the prisoner's alleged kindness of heart and his conviction that he was enlisted in a great cause.

Ravachol and Simon were found guilty. The cases against the others were considered unproved. Ravachol and Simon were then sentenced to penal servitude for life, although M. de Beaurepaire moved for capital punishment.

Queen Victoria at Darmstadt.

BERLIN, April 27.—Queen Victoria has arrived at Darmstadt, she was received by her grandson, the Grand Duke, and others of her royal kindred in Germany.

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNED.

The Canter Reapportionment Bill Passed and Now in the Governor's Hands.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 27.—The bill for a reapportionment of the legislative districts of the State was finally passed last night. The extra session of the Legislature adjourned sine die at 9 o'clock, and the bill went to the Governor without amendment. It was a long fight, which lasted 12 hours. The power of the Governor was called into play time and again during the day, and, combined with the pressure of the leaders, won the day. Every Democratic vote in both houses was recorded in favor of the bill.

The bill as it has passed gives each county except Fulton and Hamilton one Assemblyman with the exception of the following:

New York, 30; Kings, 18; Albany, 4; Dutchess, 2; Erie, 6; Monroe, 3; Oneida, 2; Onondaga, 3; Orange, 2; Queen's, 3; Rensselaer, 3; Steuben, 2; Ulster, 2; Westchester, 3.

The Reapportionment bill now only needs the Governor's signature to become a law, but the apportionment will not be wholly accomplished, according to the Constitution, in each county to which more than one member is assigned until the Board of Supervisors and in New York the Board of Aldermen apportion the districts in the county. The Republicans will test the point that the extra session had no constitutional warrant to pass an Apportionment bill in the first county where Supervisors meet to redistrict. An order to show cause why the Board should not be restrained from redistricting will be obtained from the Supreme Court.

The question will thus be brought to the attention of the Court of Appeals, and the constitutionality of the extra session of the Legislature settled.

BANKER KINGSBURY'S FAILURE.

Every Merchant in Brockport Affected by It—Pathetic Incidents.

BROCKPORT, N. Y., April 27.—Latest developments in the failure of Banker Kingsbury show that nearly every tradesman in Brockport is affected by it. Many pathetic incidents are recorded. One man was to pay $1,000 on his house and Saturday deposited $900 in the bank. His house goes to-day. A poor man named "Patsey" Kane had $400 in the bank, the savings on wages of $1 per day.

It is thought the depositawere $88,000. Kingsbury was treasurer of the First Loan Association in Brockport, and $10,000 of its money was in the bank. The cause of the failure is still a mystery. Mrs. Kingsbury says she would gladly turn over every penny she had if it would clear her husband, but that her property would be but a drop in the bucket.

Kingsbury's assets are unknown, but he had no real estate. All his property was in the bank. Assignees are preparing schedules and liabilities.

DIFFERENT FEELING THAN IN '64

England Fears No Serious Dispute With the United States at Present.

LONDON, April 27.—The Chairman and Secretary of the Arbitration and Peace Association have written to Lord Salisbury inquiring whether it is true that the United States intended to repudiate the arrangement of 1817 relating to armed vessels on the lakes.

In reply the Foreign Office states that it has had no official information of the matter in question. "It appears that in 1865 Congress resolved to ratify the notice given by Mr. Seward to terminate the treaty. We infer that Lord Salisbury and his predecessors have not heard anything further, and also that the State Department, unable to nullify a resolution of Congress, may ignore the feelings of Americans toward us in 1864. To-day it is very different.

"We trust that the Americans will not see a cause to depart from the arrangement of 1817, but we do not fear a serious dispute on that or any other question."

The Tynehead in Port at New York.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The British steamer Tynehead has just arrived from Gibraltar. She is owned by Furness, of London, and has been chartered by the Red Cross Society of America to take a cargo of grain to the starving Russians. The grain has been contributed by Iowa. Miss Isabella F. Hapgood, of the Red Cross Society in this city, is to go in charge of the provisions. The steamer is to sail about the 30th. She is in ballast so not much time is necessary to discharge her.

More of Cashier Hill's Peculations.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., April 27.—Further peculations on the part of T. Wilton Hill, late cashier of the Jamesburg Bank, have been brought to light by the institution of a suit for $25,000 against the bank's officers by George E. Gordon, of this city. Gordon had kept an account at the bank, and after the discovery of Hill's defalcations employed an accountant to look over his books. It was found that he had been defrauded out of $13,000 by Hill.

Well-Known Actors Seriously Ill.

CINCINNATI, April 26.—Mrs. Stuart Robson, wife of the well-known comedian, who is playing an engagement at the Grand Opera House, is hopelessly ill at the Burnett House, suffering from pneumonia. Duncan B. Harrison, the actor and partner of John L. Sullivan, is also dangerously ill at the same house.

Electric Trust Formed.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—An electric trust, having for its object the control of the trolley overhead wire railroad system; the electric lighting system, and, in fact, the general electric business of the country, has been formed by the consolidation of the Edison, Thomson-Houston, and Fort Wayne companies. The trust is capitalized at $50,000,000, and has its headquarters in New York.

"No baking powder is gaining public favor so rapidly as Cleveland's."
One reason is people like to know what they are eating, and the composition of Cleveland's baking powder is given on every label.
So many baking powders containing ammonia or alum are widely advertised as "absolutely pure," the best way is to refuse any brand the composition of which is concealed.

RIOTS AND REVOLTS

Sorry State of Affairs in Venezuela.

AMERICAN LIVES IN DANGER.

The U. S. Steamer Newark Gives Help to Our Citizens in Laguara.

Everything at a Standstill in Caracas Because of the Revolution—An Engagement Between Palacio's Troops and Those of the Rebels, the Latter Being Victorious—Confirmation of the Previous Dispatches.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The steamship Caracas from Venezuelan ports has just arrrived here. The officers of the steamer refused to talk about affairs in Venezuela, and tried to create the impression that everything was quiet in that country. The passengers, however, agree in their accounts of bloody engagements, and say that a state of anarchy prevails. While the vessel was at Porto Cabelo the passengers were not allowed to go ashore, as there was fighting between the forces at Palacio and the revolutionists around the town and vicinity.

The United States cruiser Newark was obliged to go to Laguara to protect Americans in that town. The American Consul had sent a request for the presence of the warship after several Americans had been arrested by the soldiers while walking in the streets. The Americans were afraid that they would be murdered by the ignorant soldiers. Peasants from around Caracas were being marched into the city with chains around their necks and guarded by soldiers of Palacio. These were provided with arms and forced to fight in the governament ranks.

On April 18 in a town called Petare there was a bloody riot following an attempt on the part of an agent of Palacio to recruit for the army of Palacio. The citizens sympathized with the revolutionists and resisted the efforts of the Government officers to recruit. In the rioting that followed the recruiting officers, several in number, were cut to pieces in the street, and the Governor of the province, who attempted to subdue the revolt, was killed.

Everything is at a standstill in Caracas because of the revolution. When the steamer left Caracas it was reported that a serious engagement had taken place outside the town between the troops of Palacio and the revolutionists in which, it is said, that 300 of the Government troops were killed. The rebels were victorious.

At Port Cabello on the night of April 14 there was considerable firing in the streets, which was kept up for several hours. Several people were killed, among them being two of General Mora's soldiers.

All the Bodies Found.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 27.—The excitement existing in the neighborhood of the Leslie Colliery for several days has subsided with the finding of five bodies of victims of the recent disaster. They were reached about 8 o'clock at night. The body was that of John H. Zerby, which was found in the North Tunnel. Sabella, the contractor, and two other Italians were found in the south tunnel. The inquest will not be held until sometime late in the week. Six of the Italians were interred in one grave, whilst Sabella, the boss contractor, will be buried by himself.

Was Determined to Die.

PITTSBURG, April 27.—A deliberate and remarkable suicide occured yesterday at Boston, a small village near Elizabeth. John Gilkey, the superintendent of the upper division of the Pittsburg, McKeesport & Youghiogany Railroad, while ill in bed, and in the presence of two neighbors, who were watching at his bedside, cut his hand nearly off and bled to death before his act was discovered. The watchers did not realize that there was anything wrong until his cold forehead and ashy color indicated that he was dead.

Ward to Be Released Saturday.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Ferdinand Ward, whose financial operations in the firm of Grant & Ward caused such a stir some years ago, is to be liberated from Sing Sing next Saturday. There is still an indictment pending against him in the United States Court, but it will probably not be acted upon.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—No Lyceum tournament games were rolled last evening.

—A devotional meeting will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms to morrow afternoon at 3:30.

—A dog supposed to be mad took possession of Mrs. Corter's yard at 83 West Fifth street this morning. Dog-catcher Frisbie shot it.

—The entertainment given at the Dunellen Presbyterian church by the Rev. K. H. Baemajain, last night, was interesting and largely attended.

—Another criticism on the Grace church rooster is given in another column to-day. The opinion that it is an ornament to the structure, seems not to be unanimous.

—A meeting of the Alumni of the Plainfield high school will be held in the Stillman building Tuesday, May 3, at 8 p. m. Members of the earlier graduating classes are especially desired to be present.

—In the advertising columns to-day will be found particulars of Brittin's auction that is to take place at his hotel in Scotch Plains to-morrow noon. There will be horses, cows, fowls, wagons, household goods, etc., bar fixtures, 3,000 cigars, and many other articles sold at a sacrifice. There will be no postponement on account of the weather.

—To describe all that is done by Prof. Bristol's educated horses, ponies and mules would be impossible. It is only necessary to say that the exhibition given is a most wonderful one. They understand what is said to them with an intelligence that is almost human. In fact no such horses were ever seen before, and no one should fail to visit Music Hall Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week and see their performance.

—Will S. Rising, a clever young man, who will be remembered as the tenor in one of the "Little Tycoon" companies, is starring this season in the comedy called "Tangled Up", which will be seen at Music Hall this evening. It is a very amusing three-act play. In "Tangled Up" Louis DeLange, another high-class comedian, impersonates a young stock-broker, who gets himself in trouble with his wife by giving too much attention to another lady during his wife's absence.

Cuts, burns and all other wounds, can be cured in a short time by the use of Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain. 25 cents.

HYMENEAL.

Ross—Potter.

The wedding of Alexander Martin Ross and Miss Sarah Florence Potter took place last evening at the residence of the bride's father, Charles Potter, 43 West Seventh street, at half-past seven o'clock. The Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis performed the ceremony which made them man and wife. The house was very handsomely decorated with palms, Easter lilies, roses, and other flowers. Miss Mabel Potter and Miss Bessie Titsworth, sister and niece of the bride, were the bridesmaids. The bride wore a dress of white satin, trimmed with seed pearls and point degene lace, with diamond ornaments. At the conclusion of the ceremony a supper was served by Clark, the caterer, of Twenty-third street, New York. Music was furnished by New York artists, and a choice selection of musical gems entertained the guests. Among those present were the following: Mrs A. M. Ross and the Misses Ross of New York city, mother and sisters of the groom, Mrs. William Pearson of Brooklyn, N. Y., Arthur L. Titsworth, George B Titsworth, George H. Babcock, David E. Titsworth, H. Titsworth, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Bell of Brooklyn, N. Y., Charles O. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs Wallace H. Pearson, Mrs. Martin of Newark, N. J, Mr. and Mrs. John S Clark and family of New Brunswick, N. J., Dr. Sarah D. Keeny, Dr. F. S. Wells, Dr. J. A. Allis, J. F. Pearson, Clifford Pearson, W. W. Pearson, W. C. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Hubbard, Charles Potter Rogers and many others.

The happy couple left on their wedding tour on the 2:55 train for New York. The bride was the recipient of a large number of very handsome and valuable presents: from the groom a Jurgessen watch studded with diamonds; from the bride's father a solid silver service, consisting of seventeen pieces; from the groom's mother, an oak cabinet, containing seven dozen solid silver knives, forks, and spoons, consisting of eighty-four pieces; from his sister, Miss Hattie, a decorated dinner set, from Haviland's New York firm, consisting of 160 pieces; from his younger sister, Miss Carrie, a grandfather's clock from Tiffany's, an onyx clock, and ornaments; from the bride's mother and from other friends, the following: silver lobster dish, Dresden china ice-cream set, cut glass berry dish, with glass stand, salad fork and spoon, two pair of candelebras, cut glass celery dish, two chiffoniers, numerous bric-a-brac and other presents.

The groom is a young man of fortune. His annual income from his father's estate has for years been $10,000, and at his marriage he gets half a million. A great many society people attended the charming wedding.

AMONG THE MASTER MASONS.

Thomas Armstrong Raised in Good Company.

There was a large gathering of representative masons in Masonic Hall, last evening, upon the occasion of the raising of Thomas S. Armstrong to the sublime degree of master mason. The work was exemplified to perfection by worshipful master H. H. Lowrie, S. W., C. C. Howard, J. W., R. S. Morrison, S. D., A. F. Venino, J. D., W. R. Cock, masters of ceremonies P. A. Emmons and J. M. Crane, stewards B. O. Bowers and T. C. Pollock.

Among those present of Anchor lodge were: The Rev. E. M. Rodman, W. A. Freeman, F. O. Herring, James T. Scott, H. M. Stockton, S. C. Peck, jr., C. A. Marsh, William Thompson, O. L. Jenkins, C. G. Crawford, F. A. Dunham and W. A. Coddington. The visiting brothers from Jerusalem lodge included: C. H. Bugg, H. Woodland, J. A. Beerbower, W. L. Titsworth, W. R. Codington, W. J. Ford, J. W. VanSyckel, E. D. Fluck and A. Q. Fine. There were present from out of town: C. B. Mitchell of 128, Kansas; A. B. Lare of 34, New Jersey; F. W. Humphrey of 3, Vermont; John D. James of 35, New York, and Charles T. Smith of 66, Staten Island.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Lawyer W. A. Coddington is soon to erect a $5,000 dwelling on East Second street, near Richmond.

Charles S. A. Davis, of Broadway, writes from Farmville, Va., that he will return from his extended trip through the South, to-morrow.

Charles T. Smith, one of New York's prominent customs brokers and forwarding agents, has recently moved to this city with his family.

Crying for Help.

The Courier seems to be already in a bad way. Yesterday was told how it is trading its advertising space for chewing tobacco or anything else. Sunday it advertised for assistance in the New York World as follows:

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Atty., Washington, D. C.

I suffered for more than ten years with that dreadful disease, catarrh, and used every available medicine which was recommended to me. I cannot thank you enough for the relief which Ely's Cream Balm has afforded me.—Emanuel Meyers, Winfield, L. I., N. Y.

T. O. SPIER KILLED BY ACCIDENT.

(SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.)

ORANGE, N. J., April 27.—Thomas Olwell Spier, a well-known society man here, accidently killed himself in his room at the house of his father, Francis Spier, at South Orange last night.

Young Spier was examining a revolver, in the presence of two friends, when he fell and it went off.

He died shortly after, never recovering consciousness.

RUMORED CAPTURE OF O'BRIEN.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

UTICA, N. Y., April 27.—It is rumored that O'Brien, the bunco-swindler, has been captured by Chief of Police Dagwell, in a loft of a barn in West Utica.

KNEW NOT TO WHOM HE WROTE.

Or Else the Rev. Dr. Richards Did Not Intend to Send the "Courier" the Same Kind of a Letter He Sent THE PRESS.

On the third page of yesterday's Courier was printed a letter identical with that published in THE PRESS, from the Rev. Dr. Richards, thanking the Plainfield papers for their correction of the exaggerated reports in the New York papers of the "attempt to set fire" to the Crescent Avenue church.

If Dr. Richards thought the reports in the New York papers on the average were "exaggerated", what does he think of this that was published on the first page of yesterday's Courier:

TRIED TO FIRE A CHURCH.

DESPERATE ATTEMPT OF A WOMAN SERVANT IN PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Maria Mahon, a servant in the employ of Clifford Wharton, of Crescent avenue, made a desperate attempt to set fire to the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church at Sunday night while 800 persons were attending the service.

The woman, who is about 30 years of age, went to the church bareheaded and carrying a can of kerosene oil; she sprinkled the contents of the can on the floor in the vestibule and on the steps leading in the gallery, and with a lighted match set fire to the oil. As soon as the oil had ignited she ran up the centre isle during a prayer and demanded to see Rev. W. R. Richards, the pastor.

Great excitement prevailed in the church, the woman being promptly arrested, however, and the flames extinguished with difficulty.

It really begins to look as if the reports about town are true to the effect that the editor of the Courier is the man who wrote the "exaggerated reports" in the New York papers.

Mrs. Johnson Vindicated.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—Following your publication of the news of the arrest of Mrs. Susan Johnson on a charge of having stolen a carriage robe from Patrick Kiely, your sense of fairness compelled you on further investigation to state that the charge was wholly without foundation and to predict that Mrs. Johnson would be completely exonerated by the grand jury. Will you be good enough to announce now that your prediction has been verified? The grand jury having heard the evidence, promptly dismissed the complaint and thereby vindicated the defendant, who is now at liberty to bring her accusers to justice, if she should feel so inclined. I write to request that you will give as much publicity to the fact of her exoneration as was given to the report of her unjustifiable arrest.

A SIX-FOOTER FOR CAPTAIN.

Manager Keller Completes His Team With a Star Catcher.

P. Mays is the new catcher and captain of the Crescent nine just signed by manager Keller. He was star catcher and captain last year for the New York and Pennsylvania league. Mays is from Auburn, N. Y., where he captained a crack team in 1889 and 1890. He is 25 years of age, 6 feet tall, and weighs 172 pounds.

It isn't the usual way—it's just the reverse—to pay a patient when you can't cure him. Nevertheless, that's what's done by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. They promise to pay you $500 if they can't cure your catarrh, no matter how bad the case. It isn't more talk—it's business. You can satisfy yourself of it, if you're interested. And you ought to be, if you have catarrh. It's faith in their medicine that's behind the offer.

It has cured thousands of the worst cases, where everything else failed.

You can be cured, too. If you can't, you get the money.

They're willing to take the risk—you ought to be glad to take the medicine.

It's the cheapest medicine you can buy, because it's guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

You only pay for the good you get. Can you ask more?

That's the peculiar plan all Dr. Pierce's medicines are sold on.

A HAPPY THOUGHT!

To add to the most popular and useful tonic of our day, a harmless sedative for the nerves and a powerful appetizer,—was not that a "Happy Thought?" Reynolds' Beef Wine and Iron with Celery is the result, and it has been quickly appreciated by persons visiting our Pharmacy. For the relief of Nerve-Strain or Lassitude, whether from over work or excitement, it is unequalled. A full dose taken at night generally dispels sleeplessness. As a "Spring Medicine" it meets every requirement. It is, in fine, a powerful Tonic, Restorative and Sedative, and yet quite harmless. Originated and sold only at

The Concert Before the Game.

The arrangements for the opening of the base-ball season are fully completed for Saturday, and every effort is being made by manager Keller and the committee of the Crescent League club to care comfortably for the great attendance anticipated on that occasion. A large number of representative citizens, it is expected, will be on hand with their fair base-ball enthusiasts, all the local cranks of course will be there. The Plainfield Cornet band of seventeen pieces has been secured and as Mr. Guttman has been given carte blanche to select his artists he has gladly availed himself of this liberal offer to show the quality of his band.

Prior to the opening of the game with the Bicycle boys there will be a concert given on the ball grounds, and the music will inspire enthusiasm in crank and ball player alike. The following choice selection of musical gems will entertain the gathering throng:

Overture—Witch Dancer	Goetz
Waltz—Emmeline	Wade
Caprice—Darkies' Jubilee	Wiegand
March—M. O. P. C. C.	Thomas
Waltz—Trinity College	Missuel
Lanciers—Oriental	Ferraz

INDIAN NAMES.

Some of New Jersey's Reminders of the Red Man.

An interesting paper was contributed to the Dover Iron Era, recently, by Dr. Theodore F. Wolfe, of Succasunny, who has given considerable study to the derivation of Indian names which are familiar in this State. The doctor's paper made one and one-half columns of the Era, and displayed a great deal of patient study and research.

Of Watchung he says: "I am glad to observe that the aboriginal name is restored and preserved in the maps and other publications of the New Jersey Geological society". He says that this name, which is applied to the mountains just back of Plainfield, is a contraction of Watshuung from Watshu, "the hill", and the locative ung.

Succasunny, he says, is derived from the Minsi-Lenape Suken, black, and Absin, stone, and ing, a locative suffix, making the whole "the place of the black stone", applied to the locality of the outcropping magnetic iron ore at Ferro Monte. Of the Passaic he says:

"This name is variously spelled in old documents—Passyock in 1719, Passaiah in 1718, Pisaick in 1688, Passick in 1687, etc. Originally it was the Lenape word for valley. This is Passeck in the Unami-L. and, according to the Moravian Zeisberger (1740) and others, is Pachsajeck in the harsher dialect of the Minsi-L. who inhabited this district of country. Applied to the river it signified 'flowing in the valley.'"

The Government Powder Depot tract comes in for a reference in relation to the Indian name of Pickatinny, and Dr. Wolfe says that it is a corruption of the name by which the Lenape Indians designated a portion of the conglomerate range known as Green Pond mountain. He says that Picat-tinno in the Lenape language means the divided mountain, or the mountain cut up into peaks or valleys, which is singularly inappropriate for the Green Pond mountain between Picatinny peak and New Foundland, as it presents there an almost unbroken ridge, with bold and picturesque walls, for a distance of over eight miles, with an average altitude of 1,230 feet and less than fifty feet deviation anywhere. For the most part it is an abrupt-faced and level-topped wall of conglomerate rock, shutting out the valley on the east from the Longwood valley. He says in relation to this range:

"Latterly the name Picatinny is applied only to the peak whose rugged height rises abruptly from the western shore of the pretty Middle Forge pond. Beneath it lies the Government Powder Depot, which ought to bear its name, and its summit commands range upon range of verdure-clad hills and an enchanting landscape which extends southward to the uplands of Somerset and embraces the intervening expanse of field and forest and the abodes of men."

The doctor says "which ought to bear" the name of Picatinny. It does bear the name, not only upon the State geological map, but in all the Government reports of the Ordnance Department. It is known to the world as the Picatinny Powder Depot, and a prettier name for this lovely spot would be hard to coin.

Another pretty name is that of Minnisink, now applied to a large island in the Delaware, and originally used by the Lenapes to describe an extensive district lying along both sides of the river above the junction of the Lehigh. According to Dr. Wolfe's investigation the name was also applied specifically to the place where the Minsi (or Minnisink) tribe of the Lenni-Lenape nation held their council-fires, five miles above the Water Gap. In ancient documents, ranging from 1690 to 1718, etc., the name is also rendered Mannassink, Minnising and Meenesink.

The doctor says: "The name comes directly from the Lenape, Min-ahsin-ing, and means 'where the stones are gathered together.'"

In regard to the name of Pompton, Dr. Wolfe grows delightfully poetic, but leaves us much in doubt as to the origin of the name. He writes:

"No solution of this name has been reached that is in all respects satisfactory to myself. My friend Marion Harland (Mrs. Doctor Terhune) recently told me that she had found a tradition among the natives of that delectable locality which declared the proper title to be Pompaton (or Pompiton), and its meaning to be 'the meeting of the waters.' This beautiful and romantic appellation—worthy even of the imagination of Mrs. Terhune herself—would have been singularly appropriate. From the summit of Colfax mountain one may behold three valleys bounded by wooded mountain walls, and, emerging from each, a mountain stream which wanders and circles for a while through the verdant plain, between banks fringed with overhanging willows, and then the three meet and commingle their waters to make the Pompton river—a scene not less beautiful than famed Avoca, the 'vale in whose bosom the bright waters meet,' which inspired Moore's poem. But, unfortunately, the phrase by which the Lenape would express the confluence of these streams does not even remotely resemble Pompston."

He gives three or four more or less generally accepted theories regarding the deviation of the name, but the preference is conceded to the Indian root "Pim", or "Phim", crooked, and "ton", mouth, meaning crooked mouth. The best-known theory is mentioned in his letter. It is that the name Pompton, or Pomptong, was borne by a community of Indians who dwelt in the vicinage. They belonged to a clan of the Minsi-Lenapes called the Waping or Opong, and the name of Pompton or Pomptong may be a corruption of the latter word. The prefix wap or op (from Wapan or Opan) means east, and the term Opong would mean at, in, on, out of or pertaining to the east. Applied to a locality it would signify the "eastern country or region"; applied to its population it would mean "the dwellers in the east or the eastern people", and opong would be used by the Nahatacons of our highland region in speaking of the clan who inhabited the region between them and the ocean, and of this clan the occupants of the Pompton plain were a part.

One of the most twisted names mentioned in his letter is that of Lamington, which sounds English, but has no English equivalent. He thinks that it is a corruption of Walamatong, meaning in the language of the Minsi-Lenapes, beautiful stream, and spelled in early reference Alamatung, Allamitung and Alametunk. He says that the Lenapes pronounced it Eh-lam eh tong, with a marked accent on the second syllable.

TO UNITE THE TWO CHURCHES.

Mt. Olive and Immanuel Baptists to Join Together in Worship.

The interest manifested in the meetings at the Mt. Olive Baptist church deepens. Last Sunday the pastor baptized four. The house was crowded at each service. Sixteen have been added to the church. During the week each afternoon and evening the church has been thronged with eager hearers. Last evening the Rev. J. W. Mitchell preached an able sermon. Three came forward for prayer. At the close of the meeting all the Baptists in the city were invited to remain, and evangelist Murphy gave some very profitable advice. Remarks were made by pastor Warnick and the Rev. J. W. Mitchell, all tending toward uniting in our body the Immanuel and the Mt. Olive churches. Both pastors appear willing to take the step.

Mr. Murphy will close his labors here Friday evening, when a reception will be tendered to him. He will leave a lasting impression. It is hoped that he will labor throughout New Jersey, and build up the colored people through his efforts. Pastor Warnick received a donation of $17. Wherever the Rev. Mr. Murphy labors he seems destined to do a good work. The Mt. Olive and the Immanuel church will hold a union baptism in the former's house of worship next Sunday.

Cake Walk at The Crescent.

Cypress Commandery, No. 6, K. T., will give their fifth annual reception and cake walk in the Crescent rink, to-morrow evening. A cake and gold watch will be presented to the most graceful walker. Admission to the contest will be $1. The following commanderies have been invited: DeMolay, No. 1, of New Jersey; Damascus, No. 5, of New Jersey; Mount Calvary, No. 1, of New York; Paul Drayton, No. 2, of New York; Ivanhoe, No. 5, of New York. The committee of arrangements includes sir knights A. W. Brown, E. C., George W. Thompson, G. I., James Connett, recorder, William Connett, prelate, Prime Voorhees, S. W., John Reed, S. B., Charles Barber, W., James Long, Nelson Batts, Henry Johnson, James Sanders, C. G., Lewis Randolph, treasurer, Benjamin Johnson, S W., James Walker, S. W., Paul Arnold, C. of G., Nathan Cook, William H. Jones, Arthur Venerable, George VanBlake, William J. Douglass, P. G. C., and Nathan J. Williams, P. E. C. The committee will spare no pains to make it pleasant for all. There will be good music. Doors will open at 8. Admission will be 50 cents.

A Description of To-night's Serpentine Dance.

The serpentine dance in the comedy of "Tangled Up" is creating a great furore Here is the way a newspaper man describes Lottie Mortimer in this latest dancing fad:

"Enveloped in swirls of shiny white silk, Miss Mortimer tiptoed to the footlights. Up went the long ends of those voluminous skirts until they stretched like wings far above the dancer's well-rounded shoulders. In the lime light she looked like a very material angel; material because angel's legs are not clad in blue tights. Here and there she moved lithely, gracefully in the variegated rays, the skirts all the while describing figures all beautiful that would have puzzled the head of a geometrician. Miss Mortimer has a good figure—any one could see that—and she is pretty. Did she dance well? Ask the swallow-coated brigade who applauded until their hands tingled. Ask the old ones who yelled 'Bravo' while the blood rushed to their scalps."

Young Men Organize for Mission Work.

A local branch of the Temple Builders was organized at the First Baptist church last night, with the following officers:

President—George H. Batchelor.
Vice Presidents—David H. Lenox, Will MacClymont.
Secretary—John McLoughlin.
Treasurer—S. H. Bigelow, jr.

The Temple Builders will be an auxiliary of the Young Ladies' Missionary society of the church. Its object is to support missionaries in foreign fields.

After the business meeting excellent music was rendered by Miss Florence Randolph and W. E. MacClymont, and refreshments were served.

I have been using Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills in my case with marked success and upon my recommendation have induced one or two friends to try them with pleasing results. L. E. BENEDICT,

NOT THE BEST EMBLEM.

Grace Church Parishioners Prefer the Cross to the Cock.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—The "cock" on Grace church tower having given rise to much comment, and having caused many remarks to be made of a kind not at all flattering to the taste of those responsible for the decoration (?), it is but natural that defenders should arise to tell us where to go to find a similar style and to inform us of the antiquity of it.

But your correspondent whose letter appeared in Tuesday's paper should not have been so general in his statement as to the approval of the weather-vane. He says:

"To us who have the privilege of belonging to Grace parish the new church, as a whole, is a written 'sermon in stone', and partakes of the essence of a beautiful design full of meaning and life, and we claim the cock as a correct architectural decoration."

I have the satisfaction and honor of belonging to Grace church parish. I have talked with many in the parish on the subject of the "decoration" mentioned, and have not heard one expression of approval.

To go far back in the world's history, or even to modern England, for an emblem which here causes ridicule and requires to be defended, seems particularly out of place, when we have one which is recognized by Christianity at large—in fact, by everybody—as most fitting for a place of worship: that emblem which reminds us, not of the denial of Christ, but of His suffering for our salvation; not of the unfortunate act of a chosen disciple, but of the voluntary sacrifice of the Redeemer of mankind.

As for the design of the church, without the weather-cock, I think we will all agree that it is beautiful. X. Y. Z.

Judge Ulrich's Announcement on Retiring.

[From The Royal Craftsman]

With this issue of the Royal Craftsman retires the present editor of this publication from its active business and editorial managements, owing to his time and attention being required in other fields. Six years ago he assumed the task of introducing to New Jersey Masons a paper which would be devoted exclusively to their interests. In the beginning there were prophets and sons of prophets, whose sayings and predictions were varied. Some there were who bespoke but a short literary existence, others were more hopeful and encouraging. Withal the management and object stood steadily at the wheel with but one aim, and that was to publish a clean, conservative and an interesting Masonic paper, and how well it succeeded our readers best can tell. Humanity is liable to err, because it would be strange if no mistakes had been made. In taking a retrospective view it may be said that there was chance of improvement, but notwithstanding it will also truthfully be said that the subscribers have freely received quid pro quo.

The Royal Craftsman will be edited and conducted by Bro. J. A. Demarest, of Plainfield, whose newspaper abilities are well known throughout the State. He is the present able and bright city editor of the Daily Press and the Constitutionalist, of Plainfield, and he will bring into these columns a literary knowledge gained by years of rich experience and labor. We sincerely hope that the same courtesy and uniform kindness which has so fully been extended to us by the press and craft may with like earnestness be given him.

No More Show Than Plainfield Had.

The Union Water company that Kean & Bergen are trying to seize control of in Cranford, is still out for a fight. A meeting of its stockholders is called for May 16, to elect seven directors. The original incorporators of the company who claim they still own it, protest that they will never give in to Kean & Bergen—or Bergen & Kean, which is the truer composition of the partnership. But there is no reason to believe that Cranford will escape the clutches of that combination any longer than did Plainfield.

Burial of the Body.

The body of a partially-developed infant found in Tier's lake yesterday, as exclusively told in these columns, was buried by Terrill & Cole this morning. The Somerset county coroner could not be found, and Dr. J. H. Cooley issued a burial permit. The interment took place in the North Plainfield poor plot in the Presbyterian cemetery. No investigation is being made.

Fractured His Skull by a Fall.

George Apgar, a carpenter, and brother to John Apgar the contractor, fell from a scaffold yesterday, while working at the residence of P. W. Brakeley, Dunellen. He fell about 20 feet, striking on his head. He has been unconscious since, and it is feared that his skull is fractured. Mr. Apgar is about 50 years of age.

Shiloh's Cough Cure

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis. While its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c., 50c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street, Plainfield N.J.

"JUSTICE" CAN HAVE A FRONT SEAT.

Holy Cross Choir Will Entertain Their Friend To-Morrow Night.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PRESS:—If, as Mr. Justice told you in last night's PRESS, he was "surprised as well as amused" to read the kind words spoken in behalf of Holy Cross choir in Monday night's paper by your musical critic, perhaps you may imagine the surprise and amusement which his well meant tale of woe has elicited in certain parts of the country. The work of Holy Cross choir may be, as Mr. Justice says, very bad indeed, but should he not tell you which of your musical man's remarks troubled him most? and isn't it pretty rough on your critic to assume him to be one of those misguided individuals who are carried into transports of delight by "jumbles"?

And won't Mr. Justice please give us an approximate of how many "extra Hallelujahs" grated on his tympanum Sunday?

For my part, leaving you to smooth the ruffled feathers of your philharmonic editor, I rise to thank Mr. J. for venting so very "unbiased" an opinion and to say to him that Holy Cross choir are going to give an entertainment in their parish building to-morrow evening at which they will repeat the Hallelujah Chorus, just as they gave it Sunday, and with exactly the same number of "Hallelujahs", and they would be happy to have Mr. Justice come and occupy a front seat and count the "Hallujahs".

If Mr. J. will send his card to me, or to the choir-master, he will receive a complimentary ticket together with the best wishes of the choir.

CHORISTER.

A Birthday Surprise.

A very pleasant birthday surprise was tendered Miss Sadie Blimm, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Blimm, at her residence, 19 Somerset street, last evening, it being her fourteenth birthday. The little miss was sent out to spend the evening and returned at 8:30 to find that about twenty-five of her young friends had gathered to greet her and shower many happy congratulations and handsome presents. The evening was very pleasantly spent with games and music, and at 10:30 refreshments were served, after which the little ones departed for their homes all well pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

Fire in Germania Hall.

The members of the German societies had practice singing in their hall on Somerset street, last evening, and later went to the alleys below and bowled awhile. Presently a strong odor of smoke was noticed, and investigation revealed the fact that the exhibition stage in the main hall was afire. By strenuous exertions the flames were extinguished without calling in the fire department, but not before the stage, scenery and curtain were badly damaged.

Of Interest to Candy Manufacturers.

CHICAGO, April 27.—A decision of vast importance to candy manufacturers throughout the United States has just been rendered by Judge Blodgett. The Court sustained the Moffatt patent for making stick candy by the vacuum process and issued a perpetual injunction restraining the American Biscuit & Manufacturing Company, an Illinois corporation, from using the process without license. After the decision the defendant gracefully surrendered and will take out a license.

Floods at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., April 27.—The Ohio River is rising again at Cincinnati at the rate of 1 1-2 inches per hour, with the stage of water within nine inches of the danger line. The water, if it continues to rise, will in a few hours be in the first floor of the stores and houses on the public landing east of Broadway and from the west side of Main to Vine street, and will also be in the cellars of the warehouses and stores along Front and Second streets.

SOCIETY'S FREAKS.

One of the Latest Is Photographing the Feet.

Fashionable Women Have Their Comely Pedals Either Cast in Plaster, Bronze or Marble or Give the Camera a Shot at Them.

In this age of freaks and fads nothing is very surprising. A radical departure from that to which all are accustomed, of course, draws forth comment for the time being, but the talk is short lived, and few days roll around before society is discussing the merits of another innovation. What an endless amount of gossip, says the Detroit Free Press, was caused by the adoption of the decollete dresses not many years ago. How the cartoonists strove to outdo each other in their caricatures, and how the paragraphists labored to produce funnier jokes about the prevailing styles than their rivals. Yet this is all over, and today a high-necked dress is indeed rare at a grand ball. So with all things, the young man and his kummerbund, particularly. But they appear to have come to stay until the people who foster these departures tire of them and look for something new.

These changes, or progress, as they are termed, are not alone confined to dress. All the arts must step up in their turns and accept with good grace changes which would make the old masters seek oblivion in some convenient cave. Among the most noticeable fads of this season are two which have given the photographer and designer in plaster of paris quite a revenue. In some clime a lady with a pretty foot, which she could not display to a sufficient degree to satisfy her vanity, owing to the social restrictions which compel both rich and poor to wear shoes, conceived the idea of having a cast taken and a likeness made in bronze. Like wildfire did the craze spread until it has pervaded the civilized world. In some cities which never assume the initiative in such departures, the establishment of this custom was slower than in the metropolises of both worlds, but it came at last, and now the sculptor, or whatever you may call the artistic plasterer, is reaping a harvest. Detroit belongs to this latter class, and some members of its population have the malady badly.

The method was learned at a studio where the work is performed. Coyly does the maiden acquaint the master with the object of her visit, and a time is set for the casting. She returns on the appointed day, and, releasing her foot from the prison of silk and leather which protects it from earthly substances on which the natives trampled in bygone years, she places it in the position told. A shiver creeps up her spinal column as the plaster is applied, and when the foot has been completely covered as high as the ankle the cast is taken off and allowed to dry for a week. Then it is slightly moistened and the liquid plaster is poured in the mold, from which it is taken as soon as sufficiently dried, and then the final drying and smoothing off takes place. At the end of a week there is an exact counterpart of the foot in plaster of paris.

The work is difficult and the price for a plaster cast is twenty-five dollars. If the lady desires it in bronze the cost is sixty dollars; and if in marble one hundred and fifty dollars, and probably more if the sculptor's reputation is such as to warrant him in charging one person enough to pay his elementary education in the art.

The expense of the plaster and bronze casts makes it impossible for the lady to distribute these touching remembrances of herself, and some genius in feminine garb launched the idea of having the foot photographed. It has taken well in the east, and it has been reported that ladies right here in Detroit have had their feet "taken."

One cannot glean the slightest idea of what the foot looks like from the shoe except as to length, and in the days when the heels were worn under the instep you couldn't tell even that.

"It is not the foot which looks pretty in the shoe which is perfect, not by any means," said an artist. "As a rule the women having the prettiest feet wear the most comfortable shoes and their feet look larger and not nearly as shapely as those of the women who wear tight shoes when on the street."

ALLIGATOR AND CAT FIGHT.

An Exciting Combat in Which Tabby Comes Off Victorious.

One of the most remarkable combats ever witnessed in this country occurred on Holmes river, near Verner, Fla., lately. In the battle a cat and an alligator fought for three hours with the final result in favor of tabby.

A house cat was in the habit of going to the river and feeding on mussels and such fish as it could get, and it was noticed several times that when the cat moved along the bank a ripple in the water showed that an alligator kept pace with it in the water. The cat, however, was aware of the alligator's presence, but showed no signs of fear.

On the day mentioned the cat approached too near the water in its eagerness to get a fish, and was suddenly grasped by the hind leg by an alligator about three feet long.

The cat made a spring and got away, but the leg was bitten badly and bled freely. The taste of blood seemed to put the alligator in a frenzy, for it came out on the bank and tried to continue the pursuit.

The cat turned on its enemy and then began one of the fiercest fights seen in a long time. The cat was so quick that it was impossible for the alligator to get a bite at it, and the result was that the saurian was soon endeavoring to beat a retreat to the water.

But the cat now began an offensive attack and cut off the way, nipping the alligator in the throat and tender spots under the arms, until the reptile was bleeding and almost exhausted.

This fight continued for several hours, and when at last the alligator gave up it was bleeding from over one hundred wounds. The cat was seemingly unhurt, except in the wounded leg, which was injured before the fight began.

Growing More Liberal

That's what the human race is doing — particularly the American part of it.

There are a few left who are satisfied with ancient history. But most people are ready to apply modern progress and common-sense to the treatment of the human stomach—an organ that demands its rights whether or no; that resents the insults of worn-out methods. All this is to emphasize the facts about

COTTOLENE

There was once a prejudice against Cottonseed oil. But people who are alive, who have no bigotry in their composition, have found that pure, refined cottonseed oil combined with selected beef suet is a better article in every conceivable way than hog's lard. And so they wisely use it for cooking—and are correspondingly healthy and happy. The sales of COTTOLENE are enormous and constantly increasing; a proof that it is appreciated by appreciative persons.

THE GRANT CRYPT

Laying of the Corner-Stone By the President.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW'S ORATION

Riverside Park Thronged With a Hundred Thousand People.

Amid Breathless Silence the Nation's Executive Scattered the Mortar, and the Great Stone Was Lowered Into Place—Little School Children Strew Flowers Upon the Tomb—A Distinguished Party Present.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The President of the United States wielded a shining gold trowel yesterday at the laying of the cornerstone in Riverside Park. The widow of General Grant, the children of her children were there to witness the ceremony—a ceremony simple almost to severity. About her were grouped men great in the affairs of the nation, and men of note in all walks of life.

As the moment drew near when the stone should be placed in position, the mighty throng of persons on every side became very quiet. There had been music, a prayer by Dr. Hall, a brief and concise speech from the lips of General Horace Porter. Workmen manned the windlasses on either side of the 12-ton lump of granite.

With heads uncovered they waited for the President to scatter the mortar, when they would receive the signal to lower the stone.

The President stepped down from the platform, where he and other distinguished guests had been seated. The trowel placed in his hand, he stepped over to the southwest corner of the foundation.

The crowd, which was equalled only by that which saw the body of the dead General placed in the tomb, became so still that the chirp of a robin calling to its mate from the trees just behind the stands was heard distinctly.

The President stood on the foundation, directly in front of the stone and the bed of cement beneath it, and the windlass began to creak. In a moment the stone was in place.

The cornerstone had been laid. The President stepped upon a small stand that had been erected in the front and made a brief address.

Chauncey M. Depew, who for some time had been looking as if he were preparing to rise, stood up, giving the audience the signal for another tremendous outburst of cheering. He said, in part:

MR. PRESIDENT AND FELLOW CITIZENS:

The predominant sentiment of General Grant was his family and his home. As son, husband and father his care and devotion were constant and beautiful. While visiting the capitals of the Old World he had seen the stately mausoleums of their great soldiers, or statesmen, resting in the gloom of cathedral crypts or the solitude of public places. The perpetual ceremonial, the inhuman coldness, of these splendid tributes chilled and repelled him. He had shrunk all his life from display and he desired to escape it after death. To lie in the churchyard where slept his father and mother would have been more in accord with his mind. But he appreciated that his countrymen had a claim upon his memory and the lessons of his life and fame. He knew that where he was buried they would build a shrine for the study and inspiration of coming generations.

He selected New York because it was the metropolis of the continent and the capital of the country, but he made one condition. No spot must be chosen which did not permit his wife to be by his side at the resurrection. She had been the love of his youth, the companion and confidant of his maturer years. She had made the humble cottage at Galena, the camp, the White House and the stately city residence all equally his home. He would have no monument, however grand, which separated him from her during the unnumbered years of the hereafter.

The memory of our heroes, our patriots, and our men of genius is one of the strongest of the bonds which hold together our Union, and perpetuate our power. But the altars, upon which the fires of patriotism are ever burning, are North, South, East and West. Every State cherishes the remains of its citizens, whose illustrious achievements are the glory of the country and the pride of their commonwealth, whose works and lives are ever living lessons of love and devotion to the flag and Constitution of the United States.

New York, in accepting this bequest of General Grant, has assumed a sacred trust. Upon no municipality and its citizens was ever devolved a more solemn duty. Let the monument which will rise upon this corner-stone be worthy of the magnitude of the Metropolis and the grandeur of the subject. General Grant needs no stately shaft or massive pile to perpetuate his memory. The Republic is his monument, and its history during what must always be its most critical and interesting period will be the story of his deeds.

General Sherman once remarked: "I lay awake all night wondering where the enemy are, but Grant don't care where they are or what they are doing." This was because having once prepared his plans with reference to every known contingency he had so completely calculated the resources of his adversaries and of his own that he could not contemplate disaster and never knew defeat.

When General Sherman and all the able officers about him protested against the perilous movement to get below Vicksburg and attack the other side because his army would be cut off from its base of supplies, "The North will cut off our supplies unless we succeed," he said, and the Fourth of July, 1863, become one of the glorious days in the annals of war. For thirty days he led the Army of the Potomac through the Wilderness, hurling it against the entrenched positions of the enemy by day and moving it by night to assault fresh defenses in the morning. The country shuddered with horror at the carnage and rebelled for its removal, his officers were affected by the universal distrust of his movements, the mangled columns of troops recoiling from the shot and shell which ploughed through their ranks from impregnable fortifications, sometimes refused to attack again. But the response of the confident and imperturbable commander was the ever recurring order, "By the left flank, forward," and to his countrymen, "I will fight it out on this line if it takes all summer." Criticising Cabinets, hostile Congressmen, doubting Generals and distrustful people all surrendered with Lee at Appomattox.

On resuming his seat after the able address it was several minutes before quiet could be restored, the repeated shouting and clapping of hands being almost deafening.

When quiet was restored Dr. John Hall pronounced the benediction and the services ended by the firing of a salute of twenty-one guns from the U. S. S. Miantonomoh stationed in the Hudson.

After some more music and the ceremony being ended, Mr. Harrison and party shook hands with those nearest them and returned to the hotel.

As soon as the party had left over 200 schoolboys passed in procession by the tomb and scattered flowers upon it, followed by a number of private citizens and others, who cast their bouquets upon the last resting place of the famous General.

GRANT'S BIRTHDAY HONORED.

The Union League's Brilliant Banquet in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The banquet held at the Union League last night in commemoration of the anniversary of the birth of General Grant was one of the most brilliant in the history of that organization. Among those who gathered to do honor to the distinguished soldier's memory were many of a national reputation and all of the prominent members of the League were present, covers being laid for 250.

Among the guests were Secretary of the Interior Noble, Postmaster General Wanamaker, ex-Senator Edmunds of Vermont, the Chinese and Japanese Ministers, Senator John P. Jones, Col. John A. Cockerill, Hon John S. Wise of Virginia, Henry Watterson and Senator Manderson of Washington, and Congressman Boutelle of Maine.

Among the distinguished Pennsylvanians present were: Governor Pattison, Gen. Hastings, Gen. Merrill, A. A. McClure, President McLeod of the Reading Railroad, ex-Mayor Edwin H. Fitler, Robert Adams, ex-Minister to Brazil; Clayton McMichael, Col. John P. Nicholson, George W. Childs and a host of others equally well-known.

The banquet was held in the League annex, which was fittingly decorated for the occasion. In the absence of Mayor Stuart, who was unable to attend, owing to his recent accident, John Russell Young presided.

PREPARING FOR MAY DAY.

The National Guard in Brussels Mobilized—Dynamite Plot Discovered.

BRUSSELS, April 28.—Orders have been issued from the War Office for the mobilization of the National Guard in anticipation of May Day riots. All of the 35,000 infantry and 5,000 other other troops will report for duty early Sunday morning. If called out, the order states, the men must go prepared for action and not with blank cartridges in their rifles, as at first contemplated.

The police have learned that riotous demonstrations have been planned by the Socialists in Leige, Antwerp and this city, and that in Liege the working men have armed themselves in anticipation of street fights. In Antwerp it is reported, evidences of a plan to blow up the cathedral during services have been discovered, and the police are searching houses for explosives and incendiary placards, which the Anarchists are known to have brought to this city.

The garrison in this city has been strengthened this week and the guards at the public buildings have been trebled. All of the banks have private watchmen on duty and have stored arms in their vaults. It is believed that in view of the present excitement incident upon the suffrage discussion the day cannot pass without violence and bloodshed. Several Socialist leaders boast that on May Day the Chamber will be frightened into treating the Constitutional revision in accordance with the demands of the workingmen.

KIDNAPPED A FARMER.

A Man Got Him to Go With Him on Pretence of Looking at a Farm.

BRISTOL, Vt., April 28.—A singular kidnapping case has occurred here. A stranger called at the house of Elisha Hewitt, a farmer of advanced age, and induced Hewitt to accompany him to look at a farm near by, which, he said, he desired to purchase.

The unsuspecting farmer complied, and getting into the wagon with the stranger drove off.

Mr. Hewitt has not been seen since, though his son and other members of his family have made vigilant search for him. He had several hundred dollars with him, and it is believed that is what the stranger was after.

War on Ticket Scalpers.

CHICAGO, April 28.—War has been declared on the Chicago Railroad scalpers, and another effort is now being made to drive them out of the business. Representatives of nearly all the leading roads coming into Chicago are before the grand jury to testify against the scalpers. It is said the World's Fair directors are behind the crusade. They meet with little success thus far in securing cheap rates to the Fair, the railroads asserting that if cheap round-trip excursion tickets were sold the benefit would accrue to the scalper, to whom the return tickets would be sold.

Wealthy Miser Grimm Leaves No Heirs.

RED BANK, N. J., April 28.—Christian Grimm, known as the Parkertown miser, was buried yesterday. He was 80 years old, and had real estate and personal property valued at $80,000. Grimm was a native of Germany and came to this country 40 years ago. He started a grocery business at Parkertown. In that pursuit he made all of his money. He was never married. He died, it is thought, without making a will, and, as far as known, leaves no heirs. If no one appears to claim his weal h it will be divided between the State and Middletown township.

Mercier Trial Postponed.

MONTREAL, April 28.—The trial of ex-Premier Mercier on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the Province in connection with stationery contracts, which was to have commenced here to-day, has been postponed until May 3.

FLAMES AND PANIC

Burning of the Philadelphia Central Theatre.

SCORES OF PEOPLE INJURED.

Pushed from Fire Escapes Into the Street in the Rush.

The "Times" Annex and Several Other Buildings Also Destroyed—Loss Will Amount to About a Million Dollars—The Fire Originated from a Sky Border Swinging Against a Border Light—Many Narrow Escapes.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—A conflagration which did nearly $1,000,000 damage and in which hundreds of lives were imperiled and many people injured, broke out about 8 o'clock last night. It started in the flies of the Central Theatre, Walnut street, above Eighth, just after the curtain had gone up. It quickly spread to the scenery on the stage, then blazed up like a flash.

The people arose in a mass, and a panic in the lower portion of the house was prevented by the coolness of the ushers and some gentlemen scattered through the audience. The large doors were quickly thrown open and the people passed out in comparatively good order and without injury except in the upper gallery.

There was no one in the upper portion of the house to control the mob, which was composed principally of boys. A mad rush was made for the stairway and fire escapes.

These means of exit were blocked for a few moments, but the employes and police succeeded in forcing the crowds back until room was made to get the people out.

This occupied so long a time that those who had seats in the front were exposed to the intense heat from the burning scenery, and nearly 100 of them were burned about the face and hands, but none seriously.

Fifty were treated at the Pennsylvania Hospital and 10 at the Jefferson, while many others had their wounds bandaged at neighboring drugstores and dwellings.

The fire spread to the large brick annex of the "Times" containing the mechanical, editorial and city departments of the newspapers. It was totally destroyed. Three stories on Eighth street were also destroyed, and eight more were badly damaged.

The motor house of the Traction Company was crushed under a portion of the wall of the "Times building, which fell outward, and one of the cable lines was stopped, but the damage will be repaired soon.

Mr. Singerly of the "Record" at once offered the facilities of his office to business Manager McLaughlin of the "Times," and that paper will be issued from the "Record" office for the present.

The total of losses will aggregate fully a million dollars, and possibly more, but the exact figures cannot be learned for several days.

At one time the Continental Hotel at Ninth street, extending from Chestnut street to Sansom, was in danger, and many of the guests packed their baggage ready for removal. The firemen, however, succeeded in heading off the flames before they had gained a foothold. The Walnut Street Theatre, at Ninth and Walnut streets, was also thought at one time to be in danger, and the audience was quietly dismissed.

By a fortunate change in the wind the flames were carried back toward Eighth street in time to save the block between the Central Theatre and Ninth street, which at one time seemed doomed to destruction.

World's Fair Building Blown Down.

CHICAGO, April 28.—A high wind yesterday blew down a portion of the walls of the Manufactures and Liberal Arts Building at the World's Fair grounds. The damage was about $15,000, but the loss of time on the construction will be keenly felt. The walls fell in two parts, with an interval of about 30 minutes between. Three workmen were slightly injured. The south wall, 100 feet wide and 66 feet long, was first to go. The west wall was next caught. The wind came from the lake and had a clean sweep.

Diphtheria in Delaware County, N. Y.

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 28.—The prevalence of diphtheria at Hobart and vicinity in Delaware county is creating great alarm. Several deaths have occurred and the disease is attacking adults as well as children. Some of the cases are known as black diptheria, and are of a malignant form. Commercial travelers and other persons who visit the village for transient stays have given the village a wide berth for the past two weeks.

Veteran Pennsylvania Editor Dead.

CARLISLE, Pa., April 28.—Hon. John B. Bratton died here yesterday aged 75 years. Deceased was editor and proprietor of the "Volunteer" for 40 years, was postmaster under President Johnson and was nominated several times for Congress.

WITH BEFITTING SERVICES.

The Corner-Stone of the McMahon Hall of Philosophy Laid at Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Appropriate exercises incident to the laying of the corner-stone of the McMahon Hall of Philosophy, took place yesterday afternoon on the grounds of the Catholic University. A large crowd of spectators including many of the most prominent Catholics in Washington and well-known clergymen, were present, among them being Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishops Williams, of Boston; Ryan, of Philadelphia; Corrigan, of New York, and Bishops Moes, of Covington, Ky., Chappelle, of Santa Fe, and Vandevivver of Richmond, Va.

There were also about fifty priests in clerical garb seated on the platform. A procession was formed in the lecture hall of the University, and proceeded to the site of the new building, where Cardinal Gibbons, and Hon. C. J. Bonaparte delivered appropriatate addresses.

The building is 250 feet long, 100 feet in the centre, the wings being 70 feet deep. The central portion of the building containing the great assembly hall will be erected last. When completed the building will be surmounted by a statue of Christ, "The Light of the World." It will not be opened until in the fall of 1894, when it will be equipped with the best faculty that can be obtained.

THE JURORS WERE SCARED.

How It Happens that Anarchist Ravachol Escapes the Guillotine.

PARIS, April 28.—The finding of extenuating circumstances in the case of Ravachol and Simon, and the acquittal of their three associates is attributed to pusillanimity on the part of the jury. It is asserted by some that, if Ravachol had not chosen to avow his guilt, the jury would have acquitted him also, as from first to last they were unable to conceal the terror which animated them.

Indeed the Anarchists were treated by everybody throughout the proceedings with far more consideration than ordinary criminals, and Ravachol seemed to notice and to appreciate the dread with which he was regarded.

The general public are greatly disappointed wite the verdict as it is feared that it will encourage, instead of deterring the enemies of society, and there is a growing in favor of martial law for a time, and the suppression of the Anarchists by a series of courtmartials and summary executions, such as crushed the communists twenty years ago.

Very, the restaurant keeper who was instrumental in delivering Ravachol to the police, was in a very low condition this morning. The amputation of his limbs has been attended by a sinking of vitality that diminished seriously his chances of recovery.

A FATAL EXPLOSION.

Two Men Blown Up by Nitro-Glycerine at Freetown, Mass.

FALL RIVER, Mass., April 28.—A terrific and fatal explosion of nitro-glycerine occurred yesterday at the Fall River Granite Company's lodge in Freetown, about six miles from this city. Frank Cain and Joseph McNelly were at work in the blacksmith shop softening the nitro-glycerine cartridges used in blasting when in some unaccountable manner the cartridges exploded with a thundering report.

The frame building in which the men were employed was completely shattered, pieces being thrown in all directions. The quarrymen at work in other parts of the lodge were stunned by the shock. When they recovered they began a hunt for Cain and McNelly, whose dead bodies were found underneath the debris. The bodies were frightfully mutilated.

Cain was 37 years of age, and leaves a widow and one child residing in Assonet. McNelly was 35 years of age and unmarried. Both men were tool sharpeners. The officials at the quarry think the men were dipping the cartridges in warm water, preparatory to making them ready for use in drilling holes.

Dynamite in an Engine Cab's Coal.

PARIS, April 28.—At Laon, in the Department of Aisne, a railway stoker found a package of five dynamite cartridges in the cab containing the coals. The fire under the boiler was extinguished at once and the locomotive was switched on a side track. Men were set to work picking the coals, one by one, from the cab, but no more dynamite was found. The train to which the locomotive was attached is an express, and was carrying 45 passengers. The cartridges were sufficient to blow the locomotive and cab to atoms, and had they been exploded few of the passengers would have escaped death.

Half Fitzsimmons.

NEW ORLEANS, April 28.—Jim Hall's refusal to meet Fitzsimmons before the Olympic Club in September will prevent the fight taking place here. Club members say that the fight must come off in September or not at all, as Hall's reason for not wishing to fight at that time appears to them rather flimsy. It is suggested that Hall does not wish to meet Fitzsimmons in an actual contest, but simply brought on a match for advertising purposes.

STATE CONVENTIONS

New York Republicans at Albany To-Day.

THEIR STAY LIKELY TO BE BRIEF

Illinois Democrats Instructed for Palmer, if a Western Man is to be Chosen.

Republican Conventions in New Jersey, Colorado, Nebraska, Maine and New Hampshire—The Harrison Administration, the McKinley Bill and Reciprocity Generally Indorsed—Colorado Delegates Instructed for Free Coinage Candidates.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 28.—When W. A. Sutherland, temporary chairman, called the Republican State Convention to order, shortly after noon to-day, Harmanus Bleecker Hall was filled to overflowing. There were 777 delegates present. Mr. Sutherland made an address, after which he announced the committees, and the convention took a recess pending the action of the committees.

Hon. Whitelaw Reid will be permanent chairman. It is believed that the convention will get through in one session and that all will be over by 5 p. m. Indications are that while endorsement of the national administration will be made, that no resolutions will be adopted favoring any one particular candidate, or in any way tending to instruct the delegates to the National Convention.

The actual work of the convention will be the election of four delegates-at-large to the Minneapolis Convention, the adoption of a platform and the election of a new State Committee. The delegates-at-large will be Thomas C. Platt, Senator Hiscock, Warner Miller and Chauncey M. Depew.

The alternates have not been agreed upon, but one of them will probably be a Kings County man and the other's will be taken from up the State.

Chairman Brookfield said this morning that the delegation to Minneapolis would support Harrison, and that the president would be renominated without serious opposition.

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICANS.

Delegates to the National Convention Elected—Substance of the Platform.

TRENTON, N. J., April 28.—The Republican State Convention to name delegates to Minneapolis met here at noon. Although there was no contest before the convention, it drew a larger crowd to the city than a like convention has seen in many years, in evidence of the Republican activity which found expression recently at Jersey City.

The programme as agreed upon went through without serious opposition. This was the election of John L. Blair of Warren, ex-Congressman Geo. A. Halsey of Essex; Garrett A. Hobart of Passaic and ex-Senator W. J. Sewell to be delegates-at-large to the National Convention, and the adoption of a platform endorsing in high terms the administration of President Harrison. The platform also endorses the protective tariff, reciprocity and the Republican Congress, oppose free coinage and denounce the present Democratic State management.

The District delegates chosen to go to Minneapolis: 1st—David Baird, D. P. Elmer; 2d—H. P. Thorne, W. A. Rosbling; 3d—Dr. H. K. Carroll, W. E. Hoffman; 4th—Francis Swayze, H. A. Potter; 5th—William Barbour, J. E. Miller; 6th—Dr. H. C. Herald, Frank Parker; 7th—Gilbert Collins, Thomas McEwen; 8th—Alexander Gilbert, E. M. Condit.

Maine Indorses Blaine.

BANGOR, Me., April 28.—The Republican State Convention met here yesterday and was called to order by Chairman O. H. Manley of the State Committee. Hon. A. R. Savage of Auburn presided and made an extended opening speech. General Thomas W. Hyde of Bath and the Hon. W. N. Nash of Cherryfield were chosen presidential electors, and delegates-at-large were chosen in the order named below: Edmund B. Mallett of Freeport, Charles E. Littlefield of Rockland, Edmund F. Webb of Waterville, and John L. Cutler of Bangor. The platform contained a plank indorsing James G. Blaine.

New Hampshire Republicans.

CONCORD, N. H., April 28.—At noon Chairman Churchill of the State Committee called the Republican Convention to order. Hiram D. Upton was chosen permanent chairman. Allusions to Blaine and Harrison were loudly cheered. W. H. Shurtleff of Colbrook moved the nomination by acclamation of Frank C. Churchill of Lebanon, Benjamin A. Kimball of Concord, Henry B. Quinby of Lakeport and Charles T. Means of Manchester as delegates-at-large. The motion prevailed, and they were elected. The platform adopted commends the Harrison administration and the McKinley bill.

Colorado Republicans and Free Coinage.

DENVER, Col., April 28.—The Republican State Convention met yesterday at Coliseum Hall. It was called to order by Chairman Ashley. The delegates-at-large elected to Minneapolis are E. O. Wolcott, H. M. Teller, Hosea Townsend and J. L. Bruch. Strong free silver resolutions were passed and the delegates were instructed to vote only for candidates favoring free coinage.

Nebraska Republicans for Harrison.

KEARNEY, Neb., April 28.—The Republican State Convention yesterday indorsed the administration of President Harrison, and instructed the delegates to vote for him first, last and all the time. John L. Webster, Amasa Cobb, L. D. Richards and E. D. Webster were elected delegates-at-large.

IT WAS NOT O'BRIEN.

A Rumor That He Had Been Captured at West Utica.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 28.—There was a rumor here yesterday that Tom O'Brien, the escaped bunco steerer, had been captured at West Utica. The report had its origin in the attempt of a policeman to serve a warrant on Richard Burton, wanted for thieving, and Burton, to escape arrest, ran away. He was pursued by the policeman, and a lively chase resulted, the man being captured in West Utica.

Is O'Brien Operating in Vermont?

BURLINGTON, Vt., April 28. — Elisha Hewitt, a well-to-do farmer of Bristol, was buncoed out of $800 Tuesday afternoon by a stranger who had represented himself as the cashier of a Burlington bank. A report was received in this city last night that Samuel C. Wright, a well-known farmer of New Haven, Vt., was fleeced out of $5,500 yesterday afternoon by an attractive stranger, who left as security for the money a gold brick of the alleged value of $5,000.

A Mysterious Disappearance.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., April 28.—Over a week ago Mrs. Garrett Newhouse of Chautauqua left her home for a visit to Sherman. A letter has been received, mailed at Erie, Pa., saying that her body was found in Lake Erie. All efforts to find the body have been unsuccessful. She took quite a quantity of clothing with her, and it is hardly thought she has committed suicide. It is said her home life has been happy, and no reason can be given for her disappearance.

Collision in Boston Harbor.

BOSTON, April 28. — The fishing schooner Lizzie Williams and steamship Philadelphia of the Leyland line collided in the harbor yesterday. The schooner sank in half an hour, all hands being saved. The cause of the disaster is unknown. The Philadelphia is the largest steamship running out of Boston and is commanded by Capt. Trant.

In Favor of Dunlap's Pardon.

BOSTON, April 28.—The Pardon Committee of the Executive Council yesterday reported in favor of the pardon of James Dunlap, the Northampton bank robber by a vote of 4 to 1. The Council reported against a pardon for James Nichols, now under life sentence for the murder of his wife.

BRISTOL'S WONDERFUL HORSES.

They Begin To-Night an Engagement at Music Hall.

The people should not forget that this evening begins the engagement of Bristol's equescurriculum for three nights and a matinee on Saturday. One of the features of the matinee will be a free pony ride for the children. The following is from the Pittsburg Dispatch:

"The horses belonging to Prof. D. M. Bristol's company are a great deal brighter than many of the human actors that an unkind fate permits to torture the public. The Grand Opera House was the scene of the debut of these equine Thespians last night, and a large audience appreciated the performance very highly. Last year's horse show at this house, which was given by Mr. Bartholomew's animals, was clever enough, but it is an unquestionable fact that Prof. Bristol's horses perform a programme containing more varied and interesting features. Comparatively speaking, Prof. Bristol's horses are variety horses, whereas most equine performers belong to the legitimate drama. The trick mule Denver's antics are most laughable, and the tricks performed by the other horses are many of them new and all amusing. The horse Sultan is the chief star of the troupe, but there are several wonderful intelligent animals beside him."

HYMENEAL.

Welsh—Elston.

The wedding of John Franklin Welsh, of Newark, and Miss Carrie May Elston, of this city, took place last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Elston, 49 East Third street, at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Cornelius Schenck performed the ceremony which made them man and wife.

The bride wore a dress of cream surah trimmed with cream ribbons, and wore a tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of cream roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Sarah Smith, wore a dress of wine-colored silk and white lace, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The best man was Joseph Lawrence of Princeton, N. J., a cousin of the groom. At the conclusion of the ceremony a supper was served. The guests, being nearly all relatives of the bride and groom, were from New Brunswick, Princeton, Millstone, Newark, Jersey City, New Germantown, Bound Brook, Scotch Plains and Plainfield. The bride was the recipient of a large number of handsome and valuable gifts.

FATAL FIRE IN THE CAYUGA FLATS.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEW YORK, April 28.—At 11 o'clock an alarm of fire was sent out from the Cayuga flats in West Thirty-third street. A second and a third alarm followed in quick succession. The Cayuga flats occupy three buildings between Sixth and Seventh avenues. When the fire was discovered it had made much headway. It increased in vigor. The flames spread rapidly. Two more alarms were sent out. The flats were crowded with people at the time. There was much excitement. Everyone made preparations to leave the buildings. The streets were soon full of their belongings.

The street was crowded with onlookers. They hindered the firemen. The burning flats were in the rear of the Parker House. Excitement prevailed in the adjoining buildings. The inmates lost their heads. The flats are at 109 and 111 West Thirty-third street. Dr. J. E. Briggs, who has an office on the ground floor of 111, was cleaning a lounge with naptha. The naptha exploded. Flames burst out. The doctor was imprisoned by them. He was so badly burned that he was taken to the New York Hospital. He may die.

Mrs. Catherine Moore, who is 73 years old, was also badly burned. She was removed to the same hospital. Her injuries were serious. The inmates escaped by the balconies. Dr. Briggs and Mrs. Moore were rescued by the firemen. The stairs were burned away. At noon a watchman was missing. It was thought he was burned to death. A fireman was overcome. He was carried to the hospital. The fire went up the stairs from the first floor of 111 to the roof. The other building was not injured. At 12:05 the body of a dead woman was taken out.

SIX DEAD IN THE RUINS.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Six members of the "Devil's Auction" company lie dead beneath the fallen walls of the Grand Central Theatre, and nearly threescore people are in the hospital suffering from burns. Of the men and boys in the hospital seven are in such a serious condition that their recovery is doubtful. All were members of the audience. Besides those who were seriously enough hurt to remain in the hospitals, fully fifty others were treated for minor injuries.

FAILURE CONFESSED BY PROF. KOCH.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

CINCINNATI, April 28.—At the meeting yesterday of the Cincinnati academy of medicine, Dr. A. M. Brown, who has been spending the past winter in Germany, much of his time being occupied in laboratory studies under Prof. Koch, said that at last this eminent scientist had admitted to him that his lymph had proved a failure.

NEWARK FIREMEN INJURED.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—A fire in the mills of the Newark Lime and Cement works did $10,000 damage this morning. While going to the fire the horses attached to No. 4 engine ran away, throwing out the driver, Thomas Garrett, and engineer James Wallace, and injuring them severely.

ANOTHER PASSAIC MYSTERY.

[SPECIAL TO THE PRESS.]

NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—The body of an unknown woman about 35 years of age was found in the Passaic River this morning.

The body was handsomely dressed in black and had on gold earrings and a gold ring. There are no marks of foul play.

A HAPPY THOUGHT!

To add to the most popular and useful tonic of our day, a harmless sedative for the nerves and a powerful appetizer,—was not that a "Happy Thought?" Reynolds' Beef Wine and Iron with Celery is the result, and it has been quickly appreciated by persons visiting our Pharmacy. For the relief of Nerve-Strain or Lassitude, whether from over work or excitement, it is unequalled. A full dose taken at night generally dispels sleeplessness. As a "Spring Medicine" it meets every requirement. It is, in fine, a powerful Tonic, Restorative and Sedative, and yet quite harmless. Originated and sold only at

Death of a Nonogenarian.

On Monday, at the residence of her son, Samuel, Mrs. Samuel Burhans, of Westfield, passed away at the age of 91 years, six months, and a few days.

It is seldom that such length of days is given. Born when the century was young, October 5, 1800, she has grown old with, and lived nearly through the greatest century on the records of the world's history. New York city was her birthplace; her maiden name was Mary Ann Corning. Shortly after her marriage to Samuel Burnhans, they took up their residence at 35 Vestry street, where she lived continually for over sixty years. Her husband died in 1864.

Mrs. Burhans has been the mother of five children, all of whom survive her, the eldest being over seventy years old. She leaves sixteen grandchildren, and twenty-one great-grandchildren.

Five years ago she presented the bell to the Westfield Methodist church, and the ceremony of giving it to the church was held on her eighty-sixth birthday, Mrs. Burhans herself ringing the bell. Her hand has been in innumerable good works, that has caused the name of "Grandma Burhans" to be known and loved far beyond the circle of her immediate family. Her life was grand in its simplicity, and ennobled by a heart overflowing with love and kindness. The seed that she has sown by the wayside during a sojourn of over ninety years, only the Father of all knows of, and the fruits thereof will only be made known when the good receive the reward of their labors.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church yesterday, conducted by the Rev. Wesley Martin, assisted by the Rev. G. W. Smith, pastor at the time the bell was presented, and the very tolling of the bell that presaged the funeral cortege seemed to be of unusual sadness. Services were held at the old homestead, 35 Vestry street, New York city, in the afternoon, and interment was made at Greenwood to-day.

Graduation Gowns.

The very general liking shown for muslins has made the embroidered and printed muslin a favorite for graduation gowns, writes Mrs. Mallon in the May Ladies' Home Journal. Those having pale pink or blue flowers sprinkled upon them and decorated with ribbon in harmony are liked, because the dead whiteness that used to be peculiar to a commencement costume is no longer deemed necessary, and these faint bits of color come out most effectively in the goods. Fine nun's veiling, cashmere and broadcloth are chosen among the woolen stuffs, and if a silk should be selected, one of surah or of China is permissible. I do not advise tulle, unless, indeed, it is to be worn at some celebration afterward, for, although it is extremely pretty it crushes very easily, and seems to tear if anybody looks at it. Generally a white tending to cream will be found more becoming than the extremely dead white, which can only be worn effectively by girls with dark hair and eyes and pronouncedly warm complexion.

Road House Sunday Law Violators.

Judge McCormick in the Union county court yesterday delivered a scathing rebuke to the keepers of road houses in the county that are open on Sundays, and spoke of the disgraceful scenes that are presented on the Rahway, Westfield and Newark roads every fine Sunday by persons who go out driving and get drunk at the taverns.

The Judge instructed the county detective to take steps to put a stop to such practices and secure evidence against the law breakers. Special policemen will be sent out next Sunday to find how many of the road houses keep open.

It is said that the May Grand Jury, which meets next week, will be asked to indict some of the offending tavern keepers.

NO CENSORSHIP OF THE PRESS.

Our Postmasters-General Are Not the Proper Judges of What is Fit and Unfit Reading.

(From The Boston Globe, Feb. 27, 1892.)

There is a bill now before Congress, introduced by Congressman Henderson, of Iowa, which under the guise of providing against the publication of indecent literature, aims to establish a full-fledged censorship of the press, with the Postmaster-General as the supervisor and controller of all the newspapers of the country.

The ostensible purpose of this bill is one to which no reputable publisher or other good citizen will have any objection. The suppression of obscene and corrupt reading and the prevention of its transmission through the mails, are ends to promote which all proper and prudent means should be used. There are, we think, already laws enough on the Federal and State statute books to secure, if they are regularly enforced, all the wholesome ends aimed at by Mr. Henderson's bill. If not, this bill is not a proper or safe measure with which to meet whatever necessity may exist for the further protection of the community against the circulation of immoral and unclean reading matter.

This bill would, if it became law, erect a censorship of the press of the most obnoxious and dangerous character. It would lodge in the hands of the Postmaster-General for the time being —always sure to be a partisan chief of one political party or the other, chosen as such by the President of the day—the power to declare, at his own unqualified discretion, that any newspaper is "non-mailable matter". The power to make such a declaration, which at the pleasure of this one partisan official would exclude any newspaper in the country would, for practical purposes, be the power to suppress and destroy any newspaper that was offensive to the administration of the day.

Congress will never dare to pass such a law as this if it clearly understands its character. The press of the country is speaking out upon the subject in none too emphatic a tone. Our postmasters-general are not the proper judges of what is fit and unfit reading. The rulings of Mr. Wanamaker as to certain books have shown to what lengths of absurdity and injustice a postmaster-general of narrow views and sectarian prejudices might go if he had the entire press of the country placed under his moral guardianship. And when we remember what the temptations of strong partisan feeling, acting upon men of small mental calibre and intense prejudice in times of unusual political excitement, would be, we are not going too far in denouncing the proposal to vest a press censorship in the postmasters-general as utterly vicious and full of peril to the liberties of the people.

Official censorship of the press is a European idea and has its natural place in a despotic system of government. It does not belong in this country, and is contrary to every accepted axiom of free government.

New Jersey for Cleveland.

[From The Elizabeth Herald.]

Public sentiment in this State has consolidated very rapidly in the last two months in favor of the ex-President's renomination. One by one Democratic newspapers have declared him their preference, until we do not at present know of one that in any way opposes his nomination. Yesterday's Jersey City News has the following endorsement of his candidacy: "The people want him, and if he is nominated, they will elect him. If he be not nominated, the voters will be very apt to rebuke the politicians for ignoring their will by defeating the candidate whom these impose upon the country".

The people recognize in Mr. Cleveland clear, specific and wise conceptions of national policy. They recognize that he has the honesty and resolve to stand by his ideas of right under all circumstances, and regardless of consequences to himself. The people have grown tired of jugglers and tricksters. They want a man in whose truth they can believe.

We would go too far if we said that a ticket headed by Mr. Cleveland would be the only one that could win. The party unquestionably has other leaders in whom the people have confidence, and many winning combinations might be devised. But we insist that none can be thought of so strong as that which Mr. Cleveland would appear in, and we further insist that any which has the appearance or suspicion of being machine-made has not the ghost of a chance. This is going to be either a people's fight, in which case we will win—for we have the people with us—or a machine fight, in which the Republicans will win, for they have a better, stronger, more cast-iron, and vastly better lubricated machine than we have.

Shiloh's Cough Cure

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c., 50c, and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street, Plainfield N.J.

I have been using Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills in my case with marked success and upon my recommendation have induced one or two friends to try them with pleasing results. L. E. BENEDICT, Editor Ellenville Press.

WHAT NOBODY DID.

A Vehicular Congestion that Led to Much Language.

(From The New Brunswick Home News.)

About 11 o'clock this morning the pressure of business caused a blockade at Neilson and Richmond streets. The ice wagon had the chair with the lumber wagon playing a first-class second. Mr. Chas. Johnson kept talley.

"Git outen dar wif dat ar fruze factory!" shouted the lumber wagon.

"If you don't let me through I'll take a wheel off you!" yelled the spider legged buggy.

"What rent do you pay for this street, anyway?" demanded the fresh vegetable wagon.

"If my salt mackerel spoils while you keep me waiting, I'll bang your head off with one of them," howled the fishman.

"Say, you, clear the road there. There's a sick baby down town wants its breakfast, and he'll grow up and lick you if you don't light out," suggested the milkman.

"Some feller handed me out a cigarette and a dime novel, I'm in no hurry" sang out the butcher boy.

"Drive up a little!"

"Back down a couple of yards!"

"Pull over into the gutter!"

"Turn down Richmond street!"

"Take a plank and drive over the top!"

"Charge it to the boss!"

"Send for Dick Hagerman!"

"Chuck a pair of fire crackers into the crowd!"

Shouted the uninterested public full of advice. The iceman having dropped a twenty pound chunk on the cook's toes, came out in company with half a mad scouring brick and an irate potato masher, and smiled benevolently on the crowd of swearing drivers.

"Does you fellers wanter go on?"

"Y-a-a-a-a!" yelled the victims of delay.

"Well, why dontcher go?" responded the purveyor of hard drink, blandly.

"—————— gee whizzle yob ixety nobble whicheter unkstine blinkwhackity conskuzzlebuckity skibinkitte cussatorions!" howled the crowd in concert.

"Jess so!" remarked the iceman. "Tscheck! Tscheck!" he observed to his team and the jam was broken like a Sayreville fog before an early Perth Amboy sunbeam and each driver moved off whistling gently:

I've a huge respect for the big iceman,
And more for his wagon's size;
I won't run agin him,
For I know he's got it in him,
To gimme the grand capsize.

Firm Foundations Necessary.

[From The Elizabeth Journal.]

There are a good many people in this city and in Union county, who have singular ideas about roads and road building. To all such the following is commended. It is from the Westfield Standard:

"Speaking about roads. Without stopping to find fault 'with each other or with anybody else', let us turn over a new leaf as to the whole road subject; keeping this fact in view, viz—of all the various kinds of roads in Westfield (the county roads excepted) there has not been a reliable road in the township this winter. Several of them have been impassable so that carriages have been abandoned. Even that piece of crushed stone road laid with so much care by Senator Miller, on Elm street, and probably the best specimen of crushed stone road in town, gave way this spring and was 'mushy' with every 'soft spell' during the winter. The lesson is plain:—First establish the grade. Then build roads, as far as the money will go, to match the county roads, reserving enough only for repairs. It has been demonstrated over and over again that crushed stone roads will not stand. Stop wasting money. Lay down macadam or telford road; the stone for it is right at our door. Make the work the subject of bids from responsible contractors, and stop the picayune, penny-wise-pound-foolish, pop-gun policy of patching and tinkering and temporizing that has eaten up so much money with little or nothing to show for it."

There is a world of road wisdom in the above. It is not theory, it is experience. Westfield has the honor of having, under Senator Miller's zealous suggestions, laid the first crushed stone road in the county. And the work was done as well as it could be done, under the system adopted. The stone was laid from four to eight inches in depth, but the sequel shows that this was not enough, the foundation was not solid enough. It wore at the top, it yielded at the bottom, and the pavement broke in pieces. That's just what must be most carefully guarded against. The object of both telford and macadam pavement is to furnish a road that will never break through, and a thin coating of gravel or cracked stone will not do it. The Journal some time ago commented on the "Westfield experiment", and some were inclined to think the comments were incorrect. But here is the evidence from Westfield itself. They meant to do well when they laid the stone roads in Westfield township; and they certainly were in advance of the rest of the county. But time has shown that better work must be done and deeper roads must be built than those at Westfield if they are intended to be permanent.

My wife had been a sufferer for some time with pain in the back; Salvation Oil was freely used and I am glad to say my wife to-day suffers no more.—W. B. Council, Baltimore, Md.

In colds of great obstinacy and hacking chronic coughs use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the favorite.

A Modest Young Girl but a Remarkable Singer.

Of a prima donna who is to grace the Melopoia concert next Tuesday evening, the Mail and Express said:

"The part of Ophelia was taken by a new comer, who made her debut on the operatic stage last evening. Miss Margaret Reid is a young woman of slight figure, with an expressive countenance and an agreeable personality. She is from Indianapolis and has been studying in Paris for three years past. Her voice is a mezzo-soprano of excellent quality, of remarkable purity and power in the upper register. She has been well trained vocally for the profession she has adopted, and her success last evening was as unequivocal as it was well deserved.

"It is very seldom that such an audience shows the enthusiasm and delight that were manifested by those who were present at the opera last evening, and who were surprised to find so remarkable a singer in the modest young girl from Indiana. Her singing in the 'mad scene' was notably brilliant and effective, and her performance throughout the opera was such as to give unusual promise of her future achievements."

Majilton's the Funniest Ever Seen.

The entertainment which at present is being given at the Eden Musee, 55 West Twenty-third street, New York, is a notably good one. The resort has all the distinguishing marks of a first-class vaudeville, combined with the best features of a well-arranged theatre. Powell, the clever conjurer, introduces new wonders every week. His great illusion, "She", is universally pronounced one of the most startling realisms ever seen upon the metropolitan stage. There is a freshness to his performance rarely seen in displays of magic. The comical Majilton, in groseseque acts, arouses genuine mirth. He is a favorite with ladies and children especially. Concerts are given every afternoon and evening by the Hungarian band, and there is always something new in the wax-works collection. The American Historical hall will soon be opened.

The Bl. Club Wins a Game.

The P. Bl. C. and Leal's base-ball teams played a return game, yesterday afternoon, on the Crescent League grounds. The Bl. club did not have their full team out, and what men they had of their regular team played in strange places.

The Leal's boys played a very good all-round game, but could not hit Johnson.

The result of the game was 13 to 9 in favor of the Bl. club.

Willie Murphy umpired to the full satisfaction of the players and audience.

BY THE WAY.

—James Shay and Annie Clinton were brought before judge Codington this morning, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The court fined the man $5 and suspended sentence on the woman.

—E. B. Mattison of New Brunswick, will deliver an illustrated temperance address at the meeting of the Reform club next Sunday evening. As this will be a very interesting and instructive address, there ought to be a full house. Admission free.

—The anti-front-fence crusade has invaded East Fifth street. The three adjoining properties of W. H. Sampson, W. R. Cock and W. L. Titsworth now open directly on the sidewalk, and a fine lawn is being laid out in front of the houses.

—An entertainment is to be given in the Boys' Club rooms next Monday evening at 8, to which all the members of the club and their friends are cordially invited. This entertainment was to have been arranged for by Mrs. Wm. L. Patton, who was one of the principal starters of the club, and who has done so much for the boys ever since the club was organized. The "T's", however, have taken charge of the entertainment for Mrs. Patton, and a very interesting programme has been decided on, which will be sure to instruct as well as please the boys.

Only Right To Tell.

The Rev. Mark Guy Pearse, the eminent English divine, writes:

BEDFORD PLACE, LONDON, December 10, 1888.

"I think it only right that I should tell you of how much use I find AELOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS in my family and among those to whom I have recommended them I find them a very breastplate against colds and coughs."

Don't be hoodwinked by dealers who pretend that they can sell Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines at less than these long-established prices: Golden Medical Discovery (for Liver, Blood and Lung Diseases), $1.00 per bottle. Favorite Prescription (for woman's weaknesses and ailments), $1.00 per bottle. Pleasant Pellets (for the liver), 25 cents per vial. Compound Ext. of Smart-Weed, 50 cents per bottle. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, 50 cents per bottle. The genuine medicines can only be sold by druggists, at the above prices.

There are more ways than one to make a profit, even at "cut prices." Unscrupulous dealers tamper with the bottles, or refill empty ones—and such mixtures can be sold cheaply. But every bottle of Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines is guaranteed. If it fails to give satisfaction in any case, you have your money back.

Can anything else, at any price, be really as cheap? You pay only for value received.

Killed by the Blue Line.

John F. Peebles, an aged man, whose home was near Weston, Somerset county, was struck Tuesday night, while driving, by the Blue Line express on the Philadelphia and Reading road, and killed. Peebles's body was hurled a long distance and was terribly mutilated.. His buggy was smashed to bits.

CASE OF NERVES.

You May Be Overcome in the Same Way at this Season of the Year

Thousands are nervous and suffer from mental exhaustion, brain fatigue, weak and irritable nerves, sleeplessness, depression of mind and shattered nerves, without realizing the danger or the fearful results which follow neglect of these symptoms.

It is nerve and brain exhaustion which make the brain tired, the asm nervelees, the limbs trembling, the muscles weak and the body without strength and energy, and, unless cured, the end will be shattered nerves, heart failure, insanity, with softening of the brain, paralysis or death.

Those who have had the Grip are almost always sufferers from nervous and physical exhaustion, as this disease leaves the nerves and system in a weakened and debilitated condition.

Remember, neglect of these conditions is dangerous, and in the spring months, more dangerous than at any other time, because there is at this season added the weakness of Spring Debility. Use Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great Brain and Nerve Invigorant, the wonderful restorer of health, strength and vigor, and your bad feelings will disappear as by magic. Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists, $1.

"I had nervous weakness and trembling. After taking four bottles of Dr. Green's Nervura I feel like a new man. I was terribly constipated, but now my bowels are all right. I feel 10 years younger, and can eat, sleep and walk like a young man. I recommend everybody to take Dr. Greene's Nervura.

JOHN MULLANE, 183 East 70th st., New York.

N. B. Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 W. 14th St., New York, can be consulted, free, personally, or by letter. Call or write him about the case, or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining the disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free. 2 2 1d tias

SLATE WRITING.

A Famous Spiritist Trick Can Be Done With a Little Practice.

Two ordinary wooden framed slates are presented to the spectators and examined in succession by them. A small piece of chalk is introduced between the two slates, which are then united by a rubber band and held aloft in the prestidigitator's right hand.

Then in the general silence is heard the scratching of the chalk which is writing between the two slates the answer to a question asked by one of the spectators—the name of a card thought of or the number of spots obtained by throwing two dice. The rubber band having been removed and the slates separated, one of them is seen to be covered with writing.

This prodigy, which at first seems to be so mysterious, is very easily realized.

The writing was done in advance, but upon the written side of the slate A there has been placed a thin sheet of black cardboard, which hid the characters written with chalk. The two sides of this slate thus appeared absolutely clean.

The slate B is given out for examination, and, after it has been returned to him, the operator says: "Do you want to examine the other one also?" And then without any haste he makes a pass analogous to that employed in shuffling cards. The slate A being held by the thumb and forefinger of the left hand and the slate B between the fore and middle finger of the right hand, the two hands are brought together. But at the moment at which the slates are superposed the thumb and forefinger of the right hand grasp the slate A, while at the same time the fore and middle finger of the left hand take the slate B. Then the two hands separate anew and the slate that has already been examined, instead of the second one, is put into the hands of the spectators. This shifting, done with deliberation, is entirely invisible.

During the second examination the slate A is laid flat upon the table, the written face turned upward and covered with a black cardboard. The slate having been sufficiently examined and been returned to the operator the latter lays it upon the first and both are then surrounded by the rubber band.

It is then that the operator holds up the slates with the left hand, of which one sees but the thumb, while upon the posterior face of the second slate the nail of the middle finger makes a sound resembling that produced by chalk when written with. When the operator judges that this little comedy has lasted quite long enough he lays the two slates horizontally upon his table, taking care this time that the non-prepared slate shall be beneath. It is upon it that then rests the black cardboard and the other side on being raised shows the characters that it bears and that are stated to have been written by an invisible spirit that slipped in between the two slates.

Our readers will not ask us how we manage to know in advance what should be writen upon the slate. It is useless to say that deceit is allowable in prestidigitation. Loaded dice always turn up the same number and nothing is easier than to know the name of the card that a spectator will draw from a pack composed of thirty-two similar cards, if not skillful enough to cause him to take the forced card.—La Nature.

Watteau and Sack-Back Coats.

Most new fashions which show a radical change from long-established modes meet as a rule with extreme opposition from the majority, yet many of these very fashions finally win their way to popular favor by sheer force of insistence. Scores of derisive adjectives have been applied to the Watteau and sack-back coats, but it appears that the feelings of many of those who expressed an adverse opinion of them have undergone something more than modification, and the sack-back and the Watteau models are actually looming up in quite general favor. This can in a way be accounted for. There are certain articles of apparel that, for elegance and fitness, are almost entirely dependent on contemporary fashions. The trained skirt was a necessary adjunct to the new coat. Still advice is given to any woman whose stature is under five feet three inches to avoid it.—N. Y. Post.

Not Guilty.

Careful Mother—Hark! Huh! If a young man wants to talk to my daughter, he can just talk out loud. I hear whispering in the parlor.

Small Boy—They isn't whisperin', mamma. They is only kissing.—Good News.

A Perfect Dare-Devil.

"Have a cigawette, Cholly, ol' fel?"

"Nevah use them, deah boy; and I'm really surpwised that you have that weakness!"

"Weakness? I'll have you know, then, that it takes a pwetty stwong bwain to stand cigawettes."—Puck

What is It?

A substitute for lard? Upsetting the customs, habits, and prejudices of centuries? Yes, all this and more. Cottolene is a new cooking product—it is better than lard or butter for cooking, so say such noted housekeepers as

Marion Harland,
Catharine Owen,
Christine Terhune Herrick,
Emma P. Ewing,
Mrs. S. T. Rorer,
Mrs. F. A. Benson,
Amy Barnes,
Margaret Wister,

and many others; it is healthier—so says every thoughtful physician; and it is cheaper as every housekeeper knows when she finds that one-half the quantity answers every purpose.

COTTOLENE

is the purest clarified cottonseed oil mixed with pure beef fat. It is the best cooking material ever devised for frying anything and everything—easily digested and highly nutritious.

Beware of imitations. Ask your grocer for the genuine Cottolene.

NOT LONG IN SESSION

The Republican State Convention at Albany.

"BIG FOUR" ELECTED DELEGATES

The Administration Endorsed, and Harrison and Blaine Commended.

Addresses by Reid, Depew and Fassett—The Platform Arraigns the Democratic Legislature, Declares for Reciprocity and Against Free Coinage, and Denounces the Manner in Which Negroes Are Treated in the South.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 29.—The Republican State Convention yesterday afternoon was very brief, all the work having been done and the convention having adjourned by 6 o'clock.

After the adjournment at 1:45 the delegates took a recess until 3:45. When the convention was again called to order, Whitelaw Reid was elected permanent chairman. In accepting it he said that having resigned office abroad he held it as a privilege to resume at once the duties of citizenship.

Mr. Reid referred to the time when he made his first political speech for Fremont and Dayton, and said he never saw a time when the duty of Republican success seemed clearer than now. He referred to President Harrison as "the safe, honest, great big man under his grandfather's hat."

The mention of the names of Harrison, Blaine, and Fassett brought out a storm of cheers. Mr. Fassett and Mr. Depew were called upon for speeches.

The following delegates and alternates were chosen:

Delegates-at-Large — Warner Miller, Frank Hiscock, Chauncey M. Depew and Thomas C. Platt.

Alternates—J. S. Reed, Pottsdam; D. H. McMillan, Buffalo; J. F. Parkhurst, George C. Buell, Rochester.

Electors-at-Large—H. H. Sage, Ithaca, and J. Seligman, New.

John Raines of Ontario offered a resolution empowering the State Committee to determine the necessity of hold a convention to nominate a candidate for Chief Judge of the State Supreme Court and if no convention is called to name the party candidate. The resolution was adopted, also resolutions authorizing the State Committee to fill vacancies in the list of electors, and to appoint an additional member to represent the Afro-Americans of the State.

Judge Arnoux offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

"Resolved, That we, the Republican party of the State, in convention assembled, respectfully demand, in the interest of honest elections, that the Hon. Roswell P. Flower, as Governor of the whole State, and not of a political party, veto the so-called Inspection of Election bill."

The platform adopted reaffirms the National platforms of 1888, and commends President Harrison and Secretary Blaine. The proceedings of the Democratic Legislature are denounced as revolutionary, and the party is charged with seizing power by fraud and theft, and of using that power to rob the people of the right to participate equitably in the management of their public affairs. The platform declares unequivocally against free coinage, and denounces the outrages upon the negroes of the South.

Ohio Republican Platform.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 29.—The platform adopted by the Republican State Convention speaks in flattering praise of the administration of President Harrison and of that of their Governor, Major McKinley. The principles of protection found in the McKinley bill are approved as is also its reciprocity features. The bill recently passed by the House of Representatives to place wool on the free list is denounced. The free coinage of silver opposed.

Must Have a Branch Factory Here.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 29.—Chas. Marshall, the head of the English run and mat manufacturing concern, is in the city for the purpose of selecting a site for an American branch factory, the erection of which is nessitated by tariff legislation, which, for the past few years, has considerably decreased his imports in this country. He will visit several other Connecticut towns before making a choice, but expresses a preference for New Haven. The factory will employ 500 hands.

Brakeman Killed on His Second Trip.

RED BANK, N. J., April 29.—John Duffy, a freight brakeman on the Central Railroad, was killed at this place yesterday. He was coupling cars and was caught in the abdomen between the bumpers, causing a rupture of an internal artery. Duffy lives with his two sisters on Railroad avenue, Jersey City. He was about 50 years old. The trip on which he was killed was only his second as a Brakeman.

Policeman McManus Discharged.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Policeman McManus, who was under indictment for assault committed on 16-year-old Mary Jennings, in December last, was yesterday discharged by Judge Martine. The jury who heard the evidence on the trial last week, disagreed. In discharing McManus, Judge Martine said that he believed there was sufficient evidence adduced on the trial to warrant a conviction.

Suicide of a Prominent N. J. Farmer.

KEYPORT, N. J., April 29.—James A. Make, aged 71, a prominent and wealthy farmer of Bolmdel, N. J., committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the right temple. It is thought that the deed was the result of mental depression caused by the death of his wife four years ago.

FIERCE GALE IN ENGLAND.

Vessels Wrecked and Several Lives Lost —Great Destruction of Property.

LONDON, April 29.—Throughout the entire night the British coast was lashed by a fearful storm, and disasters are reported from all quarters, especially the eastern coast, along Yorkshire and the northern shores of England, and the southern part of Scotland.

The storm came unexpectedly, as the weather for a few days past has been bright and summerlike.

The scene off Scarborough headland was fearful. A number of fishing boats were caught in the storm, which descended almost with the suddenness of a cyclone, and made strenuous efforts to get within shelter of the harbor. Multitudes ran to the cliffs, and every effort was made to assist the struggling seamen.

Cheers greeted each boat as it gained shelter, and ready hands were extended to help the men ashore where the women and children were waiting in anxious crowds.

One fishing boat was swamped, and four of the crew were drowned. Otherwise no loss of life is reported at Scarborough.

Off Berwick a thrilling spectacle was witnessed. The Norwegian schooner Rederindin was seen driven before the gale. The crew struggled vainly to escape being wrecked, but the storm was too much for them. Their vessel struck, and was knocked about by the waves with a fury that threatened every moment to break it to pieces.

Efforts were made to throw a line by means of a rocket over the perishing ship, but every attempt was a failure.

The crew of hardy Norsemen saw their only chance and plunged into the waves. They were all excellent swimmers, and the crowd on shore sent up a mighty cheer of encouragement.

The men disappeared now and then in the raging sea, but all made their appearance again, and each appearance was greeted with a shout from the shore.

As they neared the sands of the Beach, a score of men rushed out into the waves, to the depth of their shoulders, and took hold of the exhausted seamen, and pulled and carried them to the shore and to safety. All were saved.

At North Shields two fishing boats foundered; but the crews were saved.

Along the Norfolk coast it is feared that several wrecks have occurred, a number of coasting and fishing vessels being missing this morning.

SAYS HE IS THE RIPPER.

Deeming's Reported Confession—His Trial in Progress.

MELBOURNE, April 29.—The "Standard" says it is in a position to announce without reserve that Deeming has confessed to his lawyers and the doctors who examined him that he committed a majority of the "Jack the Ripper" crimes in the Whitechapel district of London.

The article has created a great sensation.

The demeanor of Deeming when he was arraigned for trial in the Central Criminal Court yesterday presented a marked difference from his conduct at the inquest. He was quiet and depressed, and he looked very much disappointed when the Judge decided no further delay would be granted, and that the trial should at once be proceeded with.

After the jury had been selected and the usual formalities complied with the Public Prosecutor began his opening speech, in which he arrayed with almost irresistible force all the facts in connection with the murder of the prisoner's wife.

Deeming had put aside the flippant air that characterized him at the previous hearings, and he listened closely to the prosecutor's speech, paying no attention to the crowd that thronged the courtroom to see the criminal whose many evil deeds have brought him world-wide notoriety.

Three Children Fatally Hurt.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 29.—A runaway occurred here yesterday afternoon in which three children were fatally injured. A horse belonging to J. M. Halstead, attached to a wagon heavily loaded with lumber took fright and dashed madly through a crowd of children, knocking them in all directions. The wheels of the wagon passed over three of J. A. Wolford's children aged 6, 9 and 11 years, breaking their legs and arms and internally injuring them to such an extent that no hopes of their recovery are entertained.

The Proposed Ship Canal.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The House Committee on Railways and Canals has ordered a favorable report on the bill authorizing and directing the Secretary of War to appoint a board of three officers of the corps of engineers of the United States army whose duty it shall be to select, and survey and report the most feasible location, and estimate the expense of construction of a ship canal to connect the waters of Lake Erie from a point at or near Erie, Pa., with the Ohio river at a point at or near Pittsburg, Pa.

The Manitoba Storm.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 29.—Reports of the terrible storm have been coming in all day. Fully 20 miles of Canadian Pacific wires west of here have been blown almost out of the Province. The body of George E. Sunby, a blacksmith, was found frozen to death near Reaburn, 20 miles west. In Winnepeg people were blown off the sidewalks trying to navigate the streets. It is impossible to see two feet ahead on the prairies. Fear is felt for the safety of vessels on Lake Superior.

Supposed Murderer Arrested.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 29.—Adam Mottie, charged with the murder of Edward Cramsy at Shipton, Schuylkill county, was arrested at Hanover last night.

PRISON DAYS OVER

Ferdinand Ward Leaves Sing Sing To-Morrow.

HE HAS FEARS OF RE-ARREST.

Without Friends or Money He Will Emerge to Begin Life Anew.

Ward is Still a Young Man, Being Only Thirty-four—He Will Join His Son in Connecticut, and Expects to Work at His Trade of Printer—His Old Partner, Fish, It is Said, Will Have Nothing to Do With the Released Convict.

SING SING, N. Y., April 29. — After nearly eight years of imprisonment at hard labor in Sing Sing Ferdinand Ward will be free to-morrow. An obedient and well behaved convict he has reaped his full reward in commuted time, and with the famous Marine Bank defalcation far behind him will start life anew.

All arrangements for the departure have been made, and although in strict accordance with prison rules, Ward still works hard at his duties in the printing department. To-morrow he will be in readiness to take the train and start at once for Connecticut, where his motherless 8-year-old son is living.

With Warden Brown Ward has earnestly discussed the chances of his being arrested on other indictments which are out against him. He says that as he has served his time justice should be content, and he sees little satisfaction to the law in inflicting further punishment. He declares, however, that were the option his of fleeing to Canada or remaining in Sing Sing he would choose the latter.

When he comes out Ward will find many changes. He will be nearly alone. His devoted wife, heartbroken at his disgrace, died three years ago, still firmly believing in him. From the "Young Napoleon of Finance," whose every word Wall street bent, to, he has become a cipher. His old partner, Fish, still lives in retirement, but he will be no friend to the liberated convict.

Friends and money, so Ward claims, are alike gone, and he will emerge penniless to begin again the struggle of life. He is still young, comparatively, being only 34, and in the prime of health and vigor.

WILLIAM ASTOR'S WILL.

The Late Millionaire's Lawyers Deny That It Has Been Made Public.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Messrs. Lord, Day & Lord denied the story this morning which appeared in a morning newspaper purporting to divulge the contents of William Astor's will. According to the story Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to about $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000, and when the other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob.

The widow will receive an annual income of $600,000 while she lives. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made.

John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about six months old.

Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton, the second daughter, instead of being cut off without a shilling, as some people supposed she would be on account of the Drayton-Borrowe scandal, receives as much as the other daughters.

Under the will she receives $2,000,000, to be added to the $600,000 given her at her marriage.

Mrs. Orme Wilson and Mrs. Roosevelt, the other daughters, will each receive $2,000,000. Both already have large fortunes.

Astor's Funeral in Paris.

PARIS, April 2 .—The funeral services over the late Mr. William Astor took place during the afternoon in the chapel of the American Episcopal Church, in the Avenue de l'Alma.

The members of the family present were: Mrs. Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Orme Wilson and Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton. The latter arrived here from London and will return to New York with her mother.

After the service the body of Mr. Astor was transferred to a vault, and on Saturday it will be fowarded to New York by the steamship La Bourgogne.

To Dredge the Liverpool Bar.

LIVERPOOL, April 29. — The city of Liverpool has voted £65,000 more for the dredging of the bar. Coasters are already able to cross at all times, and the new dredgers will deepen the channel 28 feet so that the largest ocean steamship may be able to cross at any hour of the day.

FOR MINISTER AT PARIS.

The Name of T. Jefferson Coolidge of Massachusetts Sent to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The President has sent to the Senate the nomination of T. Jefferson Coolidge of Massachusetts to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to France.

The new Minister to France is one of the best known bankers of Boston. He is from the celebrated Coolidge family of Massachusetts, and is very wealthy and popular. Years ago he was a Democrat, but became a Republican on the tariff issue.

He never took much active part in politics, although he always did his part in campaign matters. He has been offered several places by his party but refused all, preferring not to hold office. He is a man about 50 years of age and a graduate of Harvard.

He is considered the handsomest man in Boston. He was indorsed by the entire New England delegation, and only recently ex-Gov. Cheney of New Hampshire came here and made a personal appeal to the President for his appointment.

Mr. Coolidge was one of the United States delegates to the Three-Americas Congress. His appointment has been confidently predicted by the New England members for some time.

ANNIE WALDEN SENTENCED.

Motion for a New Trial Denied—She Goes to the Penitentiary for Life.

NEW YORK, April 29.—An immense crowd assembled in the Court of Oyer and Terminer to hear Judge Ingraham pronounce sentence upon Mrs. Annie Walden, convicted of murder in the second degree for killing her young husband last October.

She showed no sign of fear or other emotion when called upon to say why sentence should not be pronounced, the motion of her counsel, Mr. Howe, for a new trial having been denied. She advanced to the bar, and in answer to the clerk's question said, in a hard, metallic, voice:

"I have not had a proper trial. I have not been justly tried. The witnesses who appeared against me perjured themselves. My witnesses were not called, though I do not mean to say that was my counsel's fault. I have not been treated justly by any one. When my witnesses were summoned the District-Attorney would not permit them to enter the room."

The sentence came briefly, without a superfluous word:

"The jury gave you the benefit of every doubt in the case. The sentence of the Court is that you be imprisoned in the Penitentiary for the term of your natural life."

GONE WITH A CROOK.

The Daughter of a Prominent Detroit Man Flees With Her Lover.

DETROIT, April 29.—Miss Ida Lyons, the handsome seventeen-year-old daughter of the well known liveryman here, has fled with her lover from St. Mary's Convent in Windsor. Her lover is Billy Considine, a member of a gang of crooks and thugs that have terrorized Detroit for many years. Her father is now prostrated. Where the pair fled is not known.

George Considine last fall eloped with the handsome daughter of a Bay City banker, and has since been forgiven. Johnnie Considine, at the hospital suffering with a bullet wound, inflicted during a row, also has a well connected wife.

Lyons says he never wants to see his daughter again.

Shot Herself While Insane.

ELIZABETH, N. J., April 29.—Mrs. Carolyn Dubosque, wife of Frank L. Dubosque, the superintendent of the boat building department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was found dying yesterday afternoon. There was a pistol wound in the head, while the weapon from which she had fired the shot with suicidal intent, lay close by. Mrs. Dubosque died shortly before the arrival of the physicians, who had been summoned. The suicide was a daughter of Judge Clayton, of Thurlow, Pa., and since she received an injury to her head some years ago she has had occasional spells of insanity.

Citizens of Exeter, N. H., Insulted.

EXETER, N. H., April 29.—Words insulting to the principal of Exeter Academy and another member of the faculty, and also to Superintendent of Police were last night painted in letters a foot high on the dome of the town hall and on the residences of the members of the faculty mentioned. The town will offer a reward for the conviction of the perpetrators of the outrage.

A Big Schooner Launched.

BOSTON, April 29.—The four-masted schooner Louise H. Randall, the largest vessel of the kind ever built in this city, was launched yesterday from the shipyard of John M. Brooks. The schooner is 186 feet long on the keel, 41 feet 2 inches beam, and 25 feet 6 inches in depth. She will carry nearly 2,000 tons of cargo. Capt. William M. Randall will command her.

NO STOP TO ANARCHY

More Dynamite Explosions in Europe.

A NUMBER OF PEOPLE INJURED.

Workingmen's Club Near Paris Responsible for Another Outrage.

Many Arrests on Suspicion—Prime Minister of France Loubet Is Not Afraid of Trouble on May Day—Comments of the Newspapers on the Verdict in Ravachol's Case—Discovery of a Plot to Kill King Ferdinand.

ROME, April 29.—A dynamite bomb was exploded in Faenza, near Ravenna, at 3 o'clock in the entrance of the subprefecture of police. The door and steps were blown away, the whole front of the building was cracked, and houses nearby were damaged badly.

Four policemen were injured seriously by falling ceilings, and one on the ground floor received from a flying piece of stone a blow which probably will prove fatal. Seven arrests have been made.

A bomb was also exploded late yesterday afternoon in the main street of Corleon, Sicily. All the windows in the neighborhood were broken, but nobody was injured.

All places of business were closed immediately after the explosion. A half hour later an Anarchist was arrested pasting a placard on a church door. Seven printers were arrested, and a great quantity of inflammatory literature, dated May 1, in red letters, was seized.

LIEGE, April 29.—A bomb was exploded on the steps of the Widow Myst's house in St. Pierre Place at 9 o'clock yesterday evening. All the lower rooms were wrecked and the furniture was smashed to splinters. Nobody was injured. The motive of the dynamitards is a mystery, as the widow lives alone and has no enemies.

PARIS, April 29.—Bombs were exploded before five houses in Langeac in the Department of Haute-Loire. The doors and windows were broken and the occupants were thrown into a panic. Nobody was injured. The town has a considerable laboring population and two workingmen's clubs, one of which is supposed to be responsible for the explosions. The people of the village are badly frightened, and the factories are guarded day and night. More trouble is expected to come on May Day and extra constables have been sworn in.

LOUBET IS NOT AFRAID.

The French Prime Minister's Preparations for May Day.

PARIS, April 29.—In an interview on the Anarchist question, M. Loubet, the Prime Minister and Minister of the Interior, said:

"We are suffering from the faults of our predecessors who for a succession of years allowed everything to be done and said under the guise of liberty of speech and pen to prostitute the cause of liberty, and this has resulted in the recent outbreak of Anarchism.

"I am collecting every thread of evidence against the agitators and their plots, and intend to continue to do so. There is absolutely no reason to fear that disturbances will occur on May Day. Precise instructions have been sent everywhere, and every contingency has been provided for.

"France may honestly and frankly be reassured.

"The police are satisfied that Francis and Lapeyre, the men arrested on Tuesday, were not the authors of the explosion at Very's restaurant. The culprit is believed to have been the Anarchist Mathieu or an Italian named Pinie, who organized a band of desperadoes and stole much money."

A majority of the Ravachol jurymen, during their open discussion of the case, declared that they were strongly opposed to finding extenuating circumstances, but on a secret ballot seven of them voted for leniency and five against it.

Most of the papers declare that the verdict was an inexcusable miscarriage of justice.

"La Lanterne" and Drumont's journal, "Libre Parole," alone approve the verdict. "La Lanterne" says that if Ravachol had been sentenced to death it would have been a consecration by a baptism of blood, elevating the assassin into a martyr.

Drumont congratulates the jury upon taking into consideration the influence the demoralizing spectacle of present morals is likely to exercise upon primitive natures like Ravachol's. The verdict, he says, was humane and wise.

To Kill King Ferdinand.

VIENNA, April 29.—A despatch from Galatz, Roumania, says that the police believe that they have discovered a conspiracy against the life of King Ferdinand, of Roumania. Owing to certain revelations made to the Roumanian authorities search was made in a shoemaker's shop and the police found there eighteen dynamite bombs. The shoemaker and his wife were arrested and it is reported that they have made a confession which gives a clue to the conspirators.

Incendiaries Active in Vienna.

VIENNA, April 29.—Incendiaries, supposed to be Anarchists, are again active in this city and vicinity. Their latest outrage is the burning of the panorama of "Christ Crucified," by Pigiheim, a work of great labor and considerable art. There is no doubt that the fire was of incendiary origin, and the Anarchist circulars and documents discovered in Austria and Galicia have all contained blasphemous and denunciatory allusions to religious subjects.

SIX LIVES WERE LOST.

Victims of the Central Theatre Fire in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—At least six persons were killed in the awful fire which destroyed the Central Theatre, the "Times" annex, and other valuable property on Wednesday night.

The names of those who have not yet been accounted for and supposed to be in the ruins are:

THOMAS LORELLA, gymnast, and one of the sprites.

FLORENCE LORELLA, his wife, and one of the coryphee.

VINCENCINA CHITTEN, premier danseuse.

SARAH GOLMAN, coryphee.

FANCHON COLYERS, the Madeline of the show.

WILLIAM L. BROOKS, heavy man.

They were members of the "Devil's Auction" Company. The uncertainty that surrounded their fate was practically removed when no trace of any of them could be found. There is still some question whether or not other bodies are buried under the ruins, and as soon as possible an investigation will be made to ascertain if any of the audience were killed while endeavoring to escape from the flames.

At the Jefferson Hospital three of the injured are reported as having received injuries which will result fatally. They inhaled the flames and the surgeons have no hope of their recovery. The three are William Gunney, John Quinney and Fred Evans.

The total damage is estimated at over $75,000, of which about half is covered by insurance. The "Times" annex, the De Kosenko & Hetherington Manufacturing Company, and the Grand Central Theater are the heaviest losers.

This is the fourth fire that has visited the Central Theater site.

A MYSTERY CLEARED UP.

On His Death Bed Samuel Shiner Tells Who Killed the Kesler Brothers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 29. — The mystery which has surrounded the brutal murder of John and Joseph Kesler, two wealthy bachelor farmers at their home in Sugar Loaf Township seven years ago, has been cleared up by a confession made to the police by Samuel Shiner, who is lying dangerously ill at his home here.

Shiner says he stood outside the home of the Keslers and kept watch. Joseph Eveland shot Joseph Kesler, and a man named Christman, of Northampton county, killed John with a club. The club is in possession of the police authorities.

A man named Kunkle, Shiner says, who lives in Lehigh county, and two others named Gallagher and Higgins, were implicated in the murder. Shiner was placed under arrest at the conclusion of his confession. Gallagher and Higgins were arrested a month ago charged with the murder, and were discharged for lack of evidence. The police will arrest all the parties implicated at once.

Insane When He Turned Back Robber.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 29.—A board of medical examiners yesterday adjudged Charles W. Austin, the newspaper man, who attempted to get $250 from Cashier Hawley of the Utah National Bank at the muzzle of a revolver on Saturday last, insane, and ordered his commitment to the insane asylum at Provo. Drink and cigarettes, over which the Keeley cure had no control, are believed to be the cause of his reason being dethroned.

Valuable Timber Land Burned.

NORWICH, Conn., April 29.—A number of serious forest fires have occurred in this vicinity, doing great damage to timber lands. East of Rockville between 600 and 700 acres were burned over, while at Forth Grosvenor Dale several hundred acres were destroyed. At Stafford Springs a 12-year-old boy, named Day, was overtaken by flames from a forest fire and received probably fatal burns.

New Jersey Forest Fire.

PLEASANTVILLE, N. J., April 29.—A great forest fire played sad havoc with the famous Jersey pines on the outskirts of West Pleasantville and east of McKee City yesterday. The fire is now under control after doing damage estimated at $40,000.

Poor Health Caused Self-Murder.

WALTHAM, Mass., April 29.—Augustus Williams, aged 46, a grocery clerk, committed suicide by hanging yesterday, because of melancholia resulting from poor health. He leaves a widow and one child.

THE MATERIAL'S HERE.

WORK ON PLAINFIELD'S STREET RAILWAY TO BEGIN AT ONCE.

Cars Will Probably be Running by July—All Contracts Possible for Work and Material. Given to Plainfielders—The Construction to be the Best and the Rolling Stock the Finest—A Model Road to be Built and Kept so—The Cultured and Artistic Women of the City Invited to Choose How the Costly Cars are to be Colored and Decorated.

The appeal "Oh, for a street railway", that THE PRESS has echoed for the people day after day, and month after month, is at last to be answered. All alone, against the reprehensible opposition of both the other papers combined; all alone, against the culpable tactics of obstruction adopted by the selfish and the strikers; all alone, against the manipulations of the clever lawyers retained by the Republican powers of Elizabeth and Plainfield; all alone has THE PRESS stood up and talked back, and kept at it for the people's sake, until even the council of '92 that was once in sentiment arrayed against a trolley road in Plainfield, is now convinced that it's a mighty good thing to have and that it can't come too quick.

And Plainfield is to have the finest road in the land. President Nevins and Secretary Riker propose to build a model piece of road in this city—a model in every way. And they propose to keep it so. No expense is to be spared, and such Plainfield people as can do any of the work of construction or furnish any of the material, have been given the chance.

Consequently L. W. Serrell, jr., son of ex-councilman Serrell, has been given the contract for the overhead construction, and he assures THE PRESS that his orders are to build the best he knows how. Mr. Serrell is the brilliant young electrical expert, constructing engineer and inventor who was appointed by the Daft company to succeed Leo Daft in their new organization. He has built a great deal of the highest-classed electric work in the United States.

The contract for the trolley poles has been given to the Milliken Bros., of New York, sons of Samuel H. Milliken of Central avenue. It is rumored that the price paid is much above what poles are selling for to-day, but it is a pole beyond comparison and Messrs. Nevins & Riker propose to have it for that reason and because two of Plainfield's good citizens and taxpayers will reap the profit. The ties also are to be furnished by a dealer of this city, A. D. Thompson, and if there is anything else necessary in the construction or maintenance of the road that can be bought here, the Plainfield Street Railway company will be found a ready purchaser.

As to rails, although the specifications of their contract with the city calls for a 55-pound rail—which is even heavier and better than most other cities are favored with—yet Messrs. Nevins & Riker have decided to lay the Plainfield road with a 70-pound rail which will make such a substantial track that the heaviest of trains could run over it all day long and still it would keep its perfect level, compact joints and fine condition. This costs more money, but the comfort and gratification of the people will be accomplished by the smoothness of the track and the easy riding of the cars, which is all the company is aiming for.

A reporter of THE PRESS had the good fortune to meet, the other day, the vice-president of the J. G. Brill company of Philadelphia, which is already at work on the Plainfield cars. Mr. Brill, also, says his orders are to turn out the finest work his company's shops are capable of. Such orders to a firm whose open and closed cars have taken all the first prizes in all the biggest expositions in the country, means a great deal for Plainfield. The cars are to be entirely of cherry in their interior construction. The seats are also to be of the natural wood but covered with axminster carpet in winter. The cars will be lighted by electric lights and heated. The exterior coloring may be the same as the Royal Blue line cars—that is president Nevins's preference—but he and the rest of the company very much desire that the choice be made by the cultured and artistic women of Plainfield. Consequently if the Monday Afternoon club, or the wives of the members of the Union County Country club, will meet together, discuss the matter and send their suggestions to THE PRESS office, they may be assured that the cars will be trimmed, painted and decorated in accordance with their perfect judgment of color and taste in combination.

Work is to be begun next Monday and pushed forward as rapidly as consistent with first-class construction. If the cars are completed in 60 days, everything else will be in readiness and the road will commence to run at once. There are three cars of rails and one car of poles already here. The company will at a cost of about $250 to itself, regrade that part of West Fourth street through which the road will run, and thus save the tax-payers that much expense.

How They Will Bat.

FRUITS OF THE "ELKWOOD" SOWING.

Sad Sequel to a Career of Dissipation—An Erring Husband and a "High Kicker"—Story of the Outraged Wife.

In a neatly-kept cottage at 62 East Fourth street a frail little woman sits sobbing to-day for a husband who does not come, and that husband's name is bandied about on the tongue of gossip, the subject of a scandal that had its inception in the notorious resort which had so lively a career under the guardianship of Joseph Brengle Miller.

The afflicted woman is the wife of James Heath, who, in the days when the "Elkwood" flourished, was one of its stanchest adherents. Heath was a warm crony of Miller, and was among those bitten, he says, by that fellow's financial operations. Heath's own story is that he raised money to help Miller by mortgaging his household effects.

Now the public tongue is busy with the story that Heath has left his wife and baby for another and gone to parts unknown, and it was with the purpose of getting at the facts of the alleged elopement that a PRESS reporter called on Mrs. Heath this noon.

Mrs. Heath has been quite ill for several days. She is therefore pale and weak, through worrying over her husband's misdeeds, but she is an attractive young woman, and her home gives every evidence of thrift and careful attention to wifely duties.

"It is true"—she said—"that James has gone. He has been away since last week Tuesday, and I do not expect to see him again. I have no means of knowing absolutely, but suppose the 'high kicker' has something to do with his departure. When I found out about his attentions to her I told him plainly that he must choose between me and that other woman. Soon after that he left his place in Moore's meat market on North avenue, or was discharged, I don't know which. A week ago Tuesday he packed up all his clothes and went away. He told me he was going to get work in New York, and that he would bring me some money Thursday night. That promise he did not keep.

"It has been very hard"—continued the sobbing wife—"to bear his cruel treatment. Soon after he began to neglect me he made it a habit to spend his Sundays in New York altogether. He would leave the shop Saturday evening and not show up again until Monday morning, leaving me and my fifteen-months-old child alone. He did not seek to give us any pleasure.

"If I had ever done anything to merit abuse and desertion I should not mind it so, but I have always tried to be a faithful, loving and dutiful wife, and it is very hard to have my efforts in his welfare so faithlessly rewarded. We have been married five years, and never had any trouble till this 'Elkwood' business began.

"Now I do not care ever to see him again. I could not receive him back, were he to come to me. I shall go to the home of my parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walpole, at Scotch Plains, and shall take my child with me."

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Herbert Case has gone on a business trip in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lister have returned from their wedding trip.

The Rev. Dr. John Gillespie will preach in the First Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Alfred Compton, son of Halstead Compton, is about to take a western trip, to be gone a year.

I. C. Pierson of this city was elected secretary of the Actuarial Society of America, at the annual meeting held yesterday.

The Rev. Dr. J. L. Hurlbut, and the Rev. H. K. Carroll, LL. D., will leave next Monday for Omaha, to attend the spring conference of the M. E. church.

Pierre Mali, who is to marry Miss Johnston, of this city and New York, daughter of John Taylor Johnston, on Saturday, will give his bachelor farewell dinner this evening.

Miss Florence Randolph entertained a number of friends from New Brunswick, Scotch Plains, New York and Plainfield, last evening. The occasion was a most enjoyable one.

The annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal church of New Jersey will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, May 3 and 4, at St. John's church, Camden. The opening service will begin Tuesday at 10:30 a. m.

The baby boy that was born to the gypsy woman in camp at Round Park, Sunday morning, has been named. After Dr. Sarah D. Keeney declined to suggest a title, the mother christened it Edward Campbell Cooper.

The very many friends of John L. Force, son of the late proprietor of Force's Hotel, this city, and now of the Mansion House, Bound Brook, are overwhelming him with congratulations upon his securing one of the most charming young women of the State as his wife. The marriage took place at New Brunswick last evening. The Rev. M. V. McDuffie, pastor of the First Baptist church of that city, officiated. The bride was Miss Nettie E. Stroud and has long been one of the highest esteemed and admired of New Brunswick's best society.

I have been using Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills in my case with marked success and upon my recommendation have induced one or two friends to try them with pleasing results. L. E. BENEDIOT, Editor Ellenville Press.

A HAPPY THOUGHT!

To add to the most popular and useful tonic of our day, a harmless sedative for the nerves and a powerful appetizer,—was not that a "Happy Thought?" Reynolds' Beef Wine and Iron with Celery is the result, and it has been quickly appreciated by persons visiting our Pharmacy. For the relief of Nerve-Strain or Lassitude, whether from over work or excitement, it is unequalled. A full dose taken at night generally dispels sleeplessness. As a "Spring Medicine" it meets every requirement. It is, in fine, a powerful Tonic, Restorative and Sedative, and yet quite harmless. Originated and sold only at

HIS EMPLOYERS' MONEY MISSING.

And Trustful and Gentle-Faced Henry Languishes Under the Charge of Embezzlement.

Henry S. Phillips, who for a few years has been a trusted clerk in the employ of B. W. Rice & Co., the North Plainfield grocers, is now under arrest on the charge of embezzling money from his employers.

Phillips is the fellow who figured prominently as Mr. Rice's close friend and stanch adviser during the celebrated trial of Rice vs. Shotwell, and whatever Mr. Shotwell's witnesses swore to, Phillips very emphatically and positively denied. At that time the reporters spoke of him as a person of effeminate features, cherubic smile, and immaculate sidewhiskers, and Mrs. Phillips thereupon expressed a desire and a determination to scratch out the nasty reporters' nasty eyes.

Mr. Rice trusted Phillips implicitly, and to all appearances Phillips was a most humble and subservient creature. But Mr. Rice now claims to have proof that Phillips is a cunning rogue and a Uriah Heep of iniquity.

Mr. Rice was warned at times to beware of the clerk in whom he was placing so much confidence, but only recently did he ascertain that the suspicion thus aroused was just.

From the facts in his possession he deemed it best to discharge the clerk, and last Saturday Phillips was turned out of the store, and went to Newark to visit relatives.

Further examination by Mr. Rice revealed the magnitude of Phillips's operations, and forbearance ceased to be a virtue and a warrant was issued for the misguided clerk's arrest.

Yesterday afternoon officer Job Coddington went to Newark, armed with the warrant, arrested Phillips, and brought him back to Plainfield.

Phillips was taken before justice Crosley, who took his plea of not guilty. Phillips waived examination, and was held to await the action of the September grand jury.

There are five counts to the complaint against him, and he is charged with having misappropriated funds aggregating $300.

Mr. Rice claims to have abundant evidence of the clerk's guilt. His method seems to have been to collect from customers on his route and turn in only a portion of the amount paid, pocketing the rest.

Phillips stoutly maintains his innocence, and Mrs. Phillips denounces the arrest as an outrage.

WHAT SHALL THE HARVEST BE?

This is neither a picnic party nor a political parade. Mother Hubbard, accompanied by a few of her numerous progeny, sets forth to have them all arrayed in new suits for Spring wear. "What shall the harvest be?" Well, that depends largely on Mother Hubbard's destination. If she goes to our place, where we are selling off a large line of Suits for all sizes marked with the wholesale price in plain figures, she'll save fifty dollars, at least, and her folks will be the best dressed in town.

LEFT TO HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW.

And Now His Sister Claims the Property and Is Seeking to Break the Will.

Mrs. Marie C. Williams, widow of John C. Williams, of 151 West Front street, is an important witness, as well as one of the most interested parties, in a will contest now pending. Her son-in-law, William H. Livingston, died in Newark four years ago, leaving his estate to his only child, Lillian Belle Livingston, who is now about twelve years old. Her maternal grandmother, was named as trustee, and the property was to go to her if Lillian died before being married or before the age of twenty-five. In case both died prior to that Mrs. Williams's son, Pierre, was to be the beneficiary.

Ever since the will was presented for probate a contest has been going on in the courts. The testator's sister, Mrs. Margaret L. Middleditch, asserts that her brother was not in a condition to make a will, on the ground that he was a slave to morphine and a believer in spiritualism. She therefore asks that the property be given to her instead of to the mother-in-law. The Orphans court sustained the will, but an appeal was taken, and no final decision has been given.

Vice-Chancellor VanFleet heard testimony yesterday. Mrs. Williams was the star witness. Her daughter was married to Livingston. Mrs. Williams went to live with them, she said, in 1885. About a year later Mrs. Livingston died and Livingston himself died on Feb. 4, 1888. Mrs. Williams declared that Livingston made his own will. He signed it in the office of Dr. William M. Kemp, West Twenty-third street, New York, in the doctor's presence.

"How do you know that?"—asked ex-Judge Yeaman, of New York.

"Well, when Mr. Livingston came from New York he told me he had made his will and that Dr. Kemp had witnessed it. He said that I had been provided for. He asked me to promise that if he were taken sick I would not call any of his relatives. He said I knew how they had treated him and tormented his wife and that he did n't want them to torment him in his last hours."

"Where do you live now?"

"In Plainfield."

"Did you ever visit the house of a spiritualistic medium in New York?"

"Yes. Mr. Livingston and I went there. We were both very much disappointed."

"Why?"

"We did not see our friends as we had expected."

"How often did you go there?"

"Several times on Mr. Livingston's invitation. He did n't believe in spiritualism at first, but he was finally converted."

"Do you believe in spiritualism?"

"I believe that our spirit friends are around us and know what we do."

"And that they can be communicated with through a medium?"

"If you find the proper medium, yes."

"Did you receive any messages?"

"Yes. I received one from my daughter Minnie that she was with us, and that she knew Belle was well. I believed that message."

"Did you get any message for Mr. Livingston?"

"Minnie sent her love to him."

"When you went alone to those seances did you tell Mr. Livingston afterwards about the messages you received?"

"Yes."

"Those messages were about his deceased wife, were they not?"

"Always. Sometimes I would get a message that I believed because it seemed like her. At other times it did not seem like her."

"Did you see anything?"

"Only a little cloud and part of a face."

"Was the face like that of your daughter?"

"Yes, and the voice sounded like her's."

There will be a further hearing in the case.

Urging Cleveland's Nomination.

The Trenton True American publishes a letter from Carman F. Randolph of Morristown, a well-known Democratic lawyer and publicist, urging the nomination of Mr. Cleveland and the sending of a delegation from New Jersey unanimous for Cleveland. The True American editorially commends Mr. Randolph's argument and views, and says:

"The popular regard for Mr. Cleveland may seem senseless to the practical politician, but that it exists everywhere in this great country is as certain as that Mr. Cleveland was once President. That regard constantly seeks and finds opportunity for demonstration, and is seen to be the strongest among the most unselfish. The great body of the people—those who do not seek or want office, and who see in the triumph of a party only the ascendency of certain principles of government—are for Grover Cleveland. His administration of public affairs; his independence of improper control; his fearless advocacy of the right regardless of personal consequences to himself; the sturdy common sense of right and wrong which he made the ultimate test of every public question, all combine to commend him to that great element of the American people whose presence in our politics is only discovered after the votes are counted and unexpected results are disclosed.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

I suffered for more than ten years with that dreadful disease, catarrh, and used every available medicine which was recommended to me. I cannot thank you enough for the relief which Ely's Cream Balm has afforded me.—Emanuel Meyers, Winfield, L. I., N. Y.

PRESERVES FROM POMPEII.

Pastor Mitchell Tells Interesting Things About the Buried City.

The Rev. Charles B. Mitchell delivered a most interesting lecture on Vesuvius and Pompeii before a large audience at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last evening.

The lecture was illustrated throughout with beautiful dissolving views. The fine stereopticon used belongs to the Rev. Dr. J. L. Hurlbut, and was operated with great success by A. A. Taft.

The first view was that of Naples. Nearly all the vehicles used there for drayage, etc., are two-wheeled, drawn by one or two horses, or a mule and a horse, and sometimes by a donkey and a cow, with no bit in their mouths, but just a hoop over the nose. The people live largely in the streets, all sorts of business being transacted there. A group of women was seen cooking in the street, using a stone stove and burning charcoal. If they want a little hot water they go around the corner and buy it, as not everyone can afford to have a fire in his own house.

The speaker described in a graphic style the ascent of Vesuvius, and did not forget to mention some of the amusing incidents in connection with the trip. For instance, the only word for women that one of the Italians could say in English was "mamma", and he thus addressed one of the ladies of the parties to whom he was giving some assistance up the mountain.

They now have a cable railway up the mountain, which has in most places a grade steeple than 45 degrees. As the party neared the crater they could feel the ground tremble and hear the subterranean thunder. The diameter of the opening was from 40 to 50 feet. The contrast between the heavy clouds of smoke of the mountain and the luxurious growth of the vegetation in the valley beneath was very marked.

Pompeii was next visited. Many of the articles gathered from the ruins of that city have been placed in the National Museum at Naples. Pompeii was first covered by 3 feet of ashes, and then the second eruption took place and the city was covered to a depth of 20 feet.

The streets are narrow and rough, being paved with pumice stone and worn rutty by the chariots. The Amphitheater, seating about 20,000 people, is in a fine state of preservation.

The Italian government is excavating these buried ruins by appropriating a certain sum of money each year, and some one has calculated that at the present rate the excavations will be completed in 60 years. About 50 or 60 men are working leisurely.

A Yankee visiting the museum was shown a bottle or can of fruit which had been put up by people of Pompeii, and from that thought developed in the mind of that Yankee has come the canning industry of this country.

Local Talent at Holy Cross.

The entertainment given by the Holy Cross church choir last evening was enjoyed by a large audience. The choir did excellently in the choruses, which were highly appreciated. The "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah" was omitted, and the "Crusaders" was sung last. Master Perry was ill, and his place in the quartette was taken by Master Springer. The quartette was therefore composed of Master Schutt, L. S. Bond, Master Springer, and Fred. Cutter. The selection "Annie Lee" was excellently rendered. William Holmes gave an entertaining vocal solo, and Miss Maude Agnes Bowers was as interesting as ever in her readings. The laughable sketch, "The Morning After", rendered by George Taggart and William Holmes, suffered from Mr. Taggart's evident illness, but was nevertheless very creditable.

To-Morrow's Horse Parade.

The route of the horse-show parade to-morrow will be: Leave cars at Central railroad freight-house, 10 a. m.; to Fourth street, to Park avenue, to Fifth, to Franklin place, to Broadway, to Ninth, to Park avenue, to Seventh, to Plainfield avenue, to Third, to Liberty, to Front, to Park avenue, to the cars.

Unitarians to Dedicate.

The Unitarian society hopes to dedicate its new house of worship on Park avenue the evening of Wednesday, May 11. A number of prominent Unitarians are expected to participate.

—The Unions will play the Crestons to-morrow afternoon at 3:30, on the grounds near Hope chapel.

Pleasant to the taste, surprisingly quick in effect and economical in price—no wonder that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the leading preparation.

"Oh, woman, in thy hours of ease, uncertain and hard to please." With children hurt, hours she's spent. Do try Salvation Oil, the liniment.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c., 50c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street, Plainfield N.J.

THE WHEELMEN CARRIED NO LIGHTS.

And They Were Punished by a Collision that Came Near Being Fatal.

Mrs. Bowen of Leland avenue was badly injured last night as the result of a collision between bicycle and carriage.

The woman was driving along South avenue, about 8 o'clock, when two bicycles came up out of the darkness, and collided with her horse. At the moment of collision the two wheelmen threw themselves from their machines and were saved from any but minor injuries. The frighted horse turned up Woodland avenue, throwing Mrs. Bowen out at the corner. Some distance up Woodland avenue the horse stopped. It was unharmed, but one of the bicycles, which had been dragged along under the wagon, was a complete wreck. The machine was claimed, however, by its owner, who gave his name as Whitehead and his residence as Westfield. The other bicyclist did not give his name.

Mrs. Bowen was carried into the home of Dorsey W. Hyde, where she still lies. She was unconscious most of the night, from concussion of the brain, and it was feared that her injuries would be fatal, but thanks to the skill of Dr. J. T. Fritts she was improved this morning, and the result of the accident will not be as serious as was anticipated.

The reason for the collision was that neither bicycles nor carriage carried any lights.

DUPLICATE GAMES NEXT.

Wind-up of the Great Whist Tournament—Fanwood Wins.

The final games of the series between the Fanwood and the N. J. A. C. representatives were played last evening at Bergen Point. The result, after the tie between these teams of the two previous games, was: Total—Fanwood, 258; N. J. A. C., 247; thus showing in the grand total the Fanwood team to be the winner of the series by eleven points. The total points made in the three games were: Fanwood, 795; N. J. A. C., 784.

The games were started at 8 p. m., and were finished at 11. Afterward the gentlemen representing Fanwood were feasted at an elaborate supper in the dining rooms of the club, and in every other manner generously entertained and a welcome assured them upon all occasions. A match game was arranged for the immediate future for duplicate whist between these experts, and the defeat of the "Jerseys" was so gracefully taken by them that as Judge Bates stated, "It is a pleasure to play with those gentlemen, and we will join issue on the duplicate".

Those Wonderful Horses Again To-night.

The Bristol horse show, which opened at Music Hall last evening, is one of the most attractive entertainments of the kind that has ever appeared in Plainfield. Persons who visited the exhibition with a kind of passive interest, went away heartily enthusiastic over it, while those who entered the theater pre-possessed in its favor, could not get enough of it. If horses can't reason, those of Prof. Bristol's "come very near it, very near it".

There are many bright stars in the company, chief among whom, however, is the clown mule Denver, whose antics never fail to "bring down the house". This mule is simply a phenomenon; he seems to know he is funny and is never so well pleased as when those in front are laughing at him. Then there is Tony, who makes a wonderful leap from flying swing to pedestal, and Dynamite, who walks a tight rope. Sultan is another star, and evidently is not color blind, for he distinguishes easily the difference between red, white and blue. There is something pathetic in the fact that one of the brightest of all the equine family is totally blind and could not see how pleased and delighted everyone was of his clever performance. Perhaps he does n't miss the light and sunshine, but it is human to think he does. The military drill was marvelously well executed, very beautiful and a bit imposing. The comical mule trade concluded the programme.

On Saturday afternoon a matinee will be given, at which the children present will be treated to a free pony ride.

Mother Goose at Hope Chapel.

A Mother Goose party was given in Hope chapel last evening, under the auspices of the chapel circle of the King's Daughters. Miss Annie Gray took the part of Mother Goose very interestingly. The programme included music on the mandolin and guitar, by the Schoonmaker brothers; and "Dorothy's Tea Party", with Miss Fannie Westphal as Dorothy. The singing of the choruses was very fine. Ice-cream and cake were also enjoyed by the large audience.

Nothing can be said in favor of the best medicine in the world that may not be said of the most worthless. In one case, it's true; in the other, it isn't; —but how can you distinguish?

Judge by what is done. There's only one blood-purifier that's guaranteed. It's Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and this is what is done with it; if it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you get your money back. Isn't it likely to be the best?

All the year round, as well at one time as another, it cleanses and purifies the system. All blood-poisons must go. For Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Scrofula, Salt-rheum, Tetter, Erysipelas, or any blood-taint or disorder, it is an unequaled remedy.

It's the cheapest, too. With this, you pay only for the good you get.

And nothing else is "just as good." It may be better—for the dealer. But he isn't the one that's to be helped.

"Value received, or no pay,"—you can't get these terms with any other medicine, at any price.

SPECIAL REAL ESTATE SALES FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL ONLY.

THE CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY offer its houses and lots at greatly reduced prices and on very easy terms, in the following Cities and Towns:

	Population.	Time from New York.	Commutation.
ELIZABETH	40,000	30 minutes	20c per day
BAYONNE	25,000	30 "	15c "
NEWARK	175,000	30 "	17c "
PLAINFIELD	20,000	45 "	27c "
RARITAN	3,000	60 "	25c "

The CENTRAL NEW JERSEY LAND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY, after an existence of twenty years, during which time it has sold thousands of lots and been instrumental in the rapid growth of the towns and villages along the Central Railroad of New Jersey, has decided to dispose of its remaining properties at such prices as will prove attractive to home seekers, investors and speculators. Don't invest in the many mushroom paper towns when here is a chance to buy lots in prosperous, healthy cities, with good schools, churches, electric light, low taxes and city charges paid for, all improvements made, such as sewers, curbing, paving, etc. Many $400.00 lots reduced to $200.00, and large reductions throughout. In many instances city improvements have cost close to $200.00. A rare chance, and present prices will hold good DURING APRIL ONLY.

"A woman best understands a woman's ills."

"To what recognition is a woman entitled whose sole ambition in life was to do good to others, and the fruit of whose labors has proved a blessing to the civilized world?"

"ONE BOTTLE BROUGHT ME OUT OF BED."

BALTIMORE, OCT. 30, 1890.

DEAR MADAM: Having seen your advertisement in Tuesday's paper, I have concluded to send for your book (entitled "Guide to Health and Etiquette"); inclosed find two 2-cent stamps. I have used your vegetable compound, and without mistake I believe it to be the best medicine ever used. I was prostrate, one bottle brought me out of bed, and three got me up so that I could do the housework. May you be as successful in the future as you have been in the past, for everybody gives praise to your medicine. Yours truly,

JOSEPHINE SCHOENBORN, 713 Baker St., Baltimore City, Md.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Is the only Positive Cure and Legitimate Remedy for the peculiar weaknesses and ailments of women.

All Druggists sell it as a standard article, or sent by mail, in form of Pills or Lozenges, on receipt of $1.00. LYDIA E. PINKHAM MED. CO., LYNN, MASS.

An illustrated book, entitled "Guide to Health and Etiquette," by Lydia E. Pinkham, is of great value to ladies. We will present a copy to anyone addressing us with two 2-cent stamps.

SCHOOLBOOKS SIXTY YEARS AGO

How Boys Were Taught to Hate England and to Like France.

The schoolboy who was fortunate enough to be subject to the pedagogism of the "thirties" had a lot to contend with which the happy youth of these later days can never realize. Subject to men who, though perhaps learned, had no particular vocation or training for the fine art as it is now understood, all differences of opinion between pupil and teacher as to the meaning of the scrist or of the value of an equation was cut short by a flogging; and parents, who had themselves been brought up in the same way, were inclined to judge of the excellence of the school by the vigor with which the birch was applied.

In those days we had geographies without proper maps, arithmetics and algebras without a word of explanation or induction, and Lindley Murray's rules were a shibboleth. For history we had a list of the kings of England and France, and for our own country certain works published in New England, giving the youthful mind to understand that the United States consisted of the six states east of the Hudson river, with some outlying territory; while such important historical events were imparted to us as the "Deerfield Massacre," with cuts; "The Landing of the Pilgrims," also with cuts, and the story of the Charter Oak.

These were memorable things in our history, and well to be informed about, but we have since thought that there were other matters about which boys ought to have been informed after they had learned all about the preponderating territory of New England. In the same way we were led to believe that we could not have any war except with Great Britain, and when the Mexican war occurred, in the days of our own adolescence, it was a surprise to youths who had always imagined we must fight men in red coats, instead of others in dark green.

These reflections were caused by reading an article of Gen. Butler's in the New England Magazine. The general has been one of the best abused of living men, but he does know some things in spite of that. He says: "I had as deep-seated a prejudice against a British red coat as our turkey gobbler exhibited to a red petticoat when he drove my sister into the house. Thus I was taught that the highest achievement in life was to get behind a stone wall and shoot a Britisher, and I longed for the time when I should grow up to do it. So thoroughly was this drilled into me, that in after life it was a matter of reasoning on my part whether I should treat an Englishman decently.

"The difference between this feeling and that which I had toward the Frenchman, who fought us with the Indians, and who helped the savages to scalp us, was that the French were poor fellows who did not know any better; and besides, the French had helped us in the revolution against the British, so that we would forgive them, but the Britishers, never!"

When the present writer was stationed at the naval academy, a few years after the war closed, Butler's name was held in poor account by many of the townspeople, who, like most people who do least in a war, are apt to remain most unreconcilable. When the place was seized by the northern troops, because access to Washington was cut off by the regular route, the "one-horse" railroad was partially disabled by disarranging the machinery of the one or two locomotives which the road possessed. Upon a call for mechanics to repair the damage a number stepped from the ranks of a Massachusetts regiment, and things were soon right again.

Annapolis is a presq'ile with a rather narrow neck, and as there was no knowing what might happen in these days, in even "Ann Arundel," Butler determined to throw up works across the narrow part, which would enable him to resist any coup de main. For the labor concerned, it is stated, he exercised the right of a general in a place held under martial law and summoned all able-bodied men to work on the intrenchments. The work was done—for no fooling was permitted; but in five years after the war was over it was impossible to find a man who would admit that he had worked at the intrenchments.—United Service.

A Busy Housewife.

Gushable Minister—Do you read your Bible every day, my little dear?

Little Dear—No, indeed. I don't have time. I'm too busy helping mamma stone raisins and things, so as to always have something nice for dinner every time you come.—Good News.

Kitchen Extension.

University Extension is good, but Kitchen Extension is better. Wider knowledge of better cooking processes means better health and comfort for everybody. Science can never do us better service than by the multiplication of the cooking schools which make healthful means and methods available for even the most modest home.

COTTOLENE

The vegetable substitute for lard, is science's latest gift to the kitchens of the world. Every woman who has ever cooked a meal, knows that lard is disagreeable in use and unhealthy in its effects.

Cottolene is a most satisfactory substitute—clean, delicate and far more economical. At your grocers.

MARCH ON CARACAS

Crespo's Revolutionists Nearing the City.

PALACIO'S ARMY DEMORALIZED.

The Country in a State of Anarchy and Business Men Are Fleeing.

Bands of Plunderers and Highwaymen Making Raids on the Villages—A Great Battle Imminent—Gen. Crespo's Troops Outnumber Those of the Government, and Are Better Armed—Citizens in the Capital Compelled to Dig Trenches.

ASPINWALL, (via Galveston), April 30.—The steamship Amerique, with twenty-nine passengers, has arrived here from La Guayra. They report that Gen. Crespo is marching on Caracas with 18,000 infantry and 2,000 cavalry. The revolutionists are well armed. Of the infantry 8,000 are armed with Mannlicher small calibre repeaters and 6,000 with Martini-Henry rifles of the latest model.

Most of these guns are of Austrian manufacture and have been smuggled in from Hamburg steamships. The cavalry is well mounted, having had the pick of the horses in the country through which Crespo marched. The army is said to be accompanied by thousands of camp followers, who have risen to join the revolutionists, and are ready to fight as soon as arms can be found for them. Crespo is welcomed in all the villages along the line of march, and money and food are supplied to him from all sides.

Before beginning his march Gen. Crespo detached several thousand infantry to make a demonstration against Victoria for the purpose of diverting the attention of the government generals and giving him an opportunity to get well in advance of Palacio's army before the latter could discover his intention to capture Caracas.

The fall of Caracas is said to be certain, unless Palacio's army can be united and pushed on in pursuit of the revolutionists with unprecedented speed. The Government cavalry is poorly mounted, however, and it is thought impossible for it to overtake the revolutionists. The infantry is in bad condition for forced marches as the army stores are low, and the people of the country conceal or destroy their provisions upon the approach of Palacio's soldiers.

The condition of the country through which the opposing armies have marched is desperate. The revolution has demoralized a large part of the population. Bands of plunderers and highwaymen, calling themselves revolutionists, infest all districts. They make raids on the villages, burn the houses and rob the shops. Dozens of wealthy men have been kidnapped and held for ransom. There is absolutely no trade in the region thus afflicted. Business men are fleeing with their money, or are burying it and hastening to the seaport towns. The province of Tachira suffers especially from the operations of these raiders.

The national military bands are too full to allow an opportunity to punish the freebooters, and the legitimate followers of Crespo do not interfere, as they derive benefit from the complete demoralization of the population.

Horse Thieves Killed by Sheriffs.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 30.—Information was received here yesterday of the killing of two desperate horse thieves, Got Spencer and Jack Burnett, at Jackson Hole, in the extreme northwestern part of the State. The men were killed by five deputy sheriffs, and 50 horses stolen from the Big Horn country in Wyoming and Montana were found at their rendezvous. J. H. Holland led the expedition, and he was aided by two deputies from Montana and two from Wyoming. Four other horse thieves are under arrest in the same county, the result of a crusade inaugurated six months ago.

Congressmen Under Arrest.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The House indulged in a little light comedy when twelve members, for whom warrants were issued on the charge of absenteeism yesterday, were presented by the Sergeant-at-Arms. All gave excuses bordering on the humorous, one member gravely asserting that he went to the race track to see if anything there needed investigation. The twelve offenders were all forgiven and the House returned to serious business.

Granite Cutters on Strike.

CONCORD, N. H., April 30.—All of the granite cutters employed by John H. Flood, West Concord, are on strike on account of a misunderstanding as to the minimum amount to be paid for work. It is also claimed that Mr. Flood employs more apprentices than allowed by the bill of prices. Unless the differences are adjusted a general strike may be precipitated.

Urged to Approve Canal Bills.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 30.—About one hundred grain merchants and canal men held a meeting on Change yesterday and passed resolutions urging Gov. Flower to approve the bills now before him appropriating $540,000 for the canals of the State, and appropriating $20,000 for bottoming out the Erie canal in this city.

Will Not be Named Before Election.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The United States Supreme Court has closed its docket and decided to hear no further arguments during the remainder of the present term, which ends May 16. The impression has prevailed that the President would appoint the successor of the late Justice Bradley before the term closed, but this opinion is now changed and the understanding is that no selection will be announced until after the Presidential election. The place is generally conceded to Attorney General [illegible]

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Grievances of Women in the Government Mail Bag Repair Shop.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—A delegation of women employed in the Government mail bag repair shop appeared before the House Committee on Postoffices and Postroads under the ciceronage of Mrs. Charlotta Smith and told of grievances which they asked to be remedied.

They told the committee that the canvas bags which were sent to the shop for repairs were often covered with tobacco juice and other filth, and some of the women to whom they were given became sick while at work.

This necessitated the presense of a doctor, and his fee of $3 materially reduced the amount of wages earned by the women who became ill. It was shown that only 3 1-2 cents was paid for mending each bag, and in this connection it was stated that 30 women who had appealed to Superintendent Bell for an increase to 5 cents per bag were dismissed from service, the reason given for their dismissal being that the appropriation was exhausted.

Some of them earned less than $10 per month. An earnest appeal to the committee was made.

THE CONNECTICUT MUDDLE.

Treasurer Henry Files an Answer—The Case Comes Up May 10.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 30.—The case of the State ex rel. Marvin H. Sanger vs. E. Stephen Henry comes up here on May 10. The answer to the amendment just received states:

That Henry and no other person is Treasurer of the State; that as Treasurer he has in his custody large sums of money belonging to the State, to-wit: more than two million dollars, including money belonging to the school fund, and various other funds which he can under the provision of law only deliver to a legal successor in the said office without personal liability to himself and his bondsmen; and that neither the relator nor any one else can demand or receive said office, together with said sums, until he has been completely elected according to law.

Depositors Will Be Paid in Full.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., April 30.—Receiver Augustus Lynch, of the defunct Asbury Park National Bank, yesterday sold per order of the Comptroller of the Currency, the assets of the bank, consisting of notes, mortgages, etc., for $35,000. By this sale the depositors of the bank will be paid in full. The assets are said to foot upwards of $50,000. The purchase was made by George W. Byram, of New York, who represented a New York and Philadelphia syndicate. It is thought that the syndicate will reorganise the bank.

A Famous Boat.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The steamer River Queen, which obtained national fame as President Lincoln's dispatch boat, will make her re-appearance on the Potomac river next week as one of the Washington and Mount Vernon line of boats. Since leaving Washington years ago she has been one of the Old Colony's fleet, running between New Bedford and Nantucket. It was the River Queen that conveyed President Lincoln and Secretary-of-State Seward to Hampton Roads, where on Feb. 3, 1865, while on board, a conference was held with a view to the cessation of hostilities.

Poor Showing of the Annexationist.

TORONTO, April 30.—The election to fill the vacancy in the Ontario Legislature caused by the death of H. E. Clarke, member for this city, took place yesterday. The canvass has been an exciting one. There were four candidates in the field representing the straight Conservatives, Liberals, Independent Labor, and Mr. E. A. McDonald on the platform of political union with the United States. The election resulted in the choice of Mr. N. G. Bigelow, the Liberal candidate. Mr. McDonald received 179 out of the 10,000 votes polled.

Small Returns for "Royal Ark" Victims.

BOSTON, April 30.—Receiver Wyman in his report on the defunct order of the Royal Ark submits a table showing $7,000 assets and 3,100 claimants. He suggests that varying sums be paid to the different classes so that those paying in $43 will receive $1.54 and those paying in $72 receive $2.64 and those paying in less sums to receive proportionate amounts.

The Grand Trunk Indicted.

PORTLAND, Me., April 30. — In the United States Circuit Court four indictments were found against the Grand Trunk Railway for neglecting to widen the draw in the bridge across the entrance to Back Cove in this city, which work was ordered done by the Government on January 1. The penalty is $5,000 a month until the work is commenced.

Ameer's Troops Routed.

BOMBAY, April 30.—The troops of the Ameer of Afghanistan, stationed in three villages between Herat and Baniaa, have been treating the inhabitants in such an outrageous manner that the men of the village made a united attack upon the soldiers. The troops were defeated.

WHOM DID HE FIGHT?

Different Stories Regarding Milbank's Latest.

HE SAYS IT WAS NOT DE MORNY

Positively Asserted, However, that H. Vane and the Duc Had a Quarrel.

Another Report is that Milbank Had a Fist Fight in Brussels With an Unknown Frenchman Who Had Sneered at England and Englishmen—Whoever Milbank's Antagonist Was, He is Dangerously Wounded.

LONDON, April 30.—The duel fought by Harry Vane Milbank at Ostend Thursday has no connection with the Borrowe-Drayton affair. Milbank's opponent was not the Duc de Morny, as has been reported. Milbank, who returned to Brussels immediately after the duel last evening, informed a reporter at the Grand Hotel that he was under a promise not to give the name of his opponent or his seconds, but stated that he has not seen De Morny since his (Milbank's) return from America, and that he had not had any communication with him.

A reporter also saw the Duc de Morny in Paris, apparently not suffering from any recent wound. De Morny said that he had not fought with Milbank and did not apprehend a hostile meeting with him.

The duel was brought about by causes that have no connection with the Borrowe-Drayton affair. After the meeting between Fox and Borrowe at Nieuport, on Saturday, Milbank went to Brussels, the others going on from Ostend to London, and put up at the Grand Hotel. On Monday he dined in the hotel cafe. The story at the hotel is that near his table sat two Frenchmen at another table who spent most of their time during dinner making insulting remarks about Englishmen, which were obviously intended for Milbank's ears. He paid no attention to them until they came out of the cafe, when he met them in the courtyard of the hotel and slapped the face of one of them.

The result was a challenge and a meeting of the two at Nieuport on the identical spot where Fox and Borrowe exchanged shots last Saturday. The conditions were the same as on that occasion. There were also two shots at twelve paces. Milbank shot his opponent through the hip at the first fire, and he was carried at once to a yacht owned by a friend that lay off the coast, accompanied by his surgeon and seconds.

Milbank and his seconds, De l'Estrange and Tournier, Belgian gentlemen, returned at once to Brussels. It is not known how seriously the wounded man is injured, as no report has been received as yet from the yacht, which sailed toward the French coast. The surgeon feared, however, after his first inspection of the wound, that it was very dangerous.

BRUSSELS, April 30.—Harry Vane Milbank was seen at the Grand Hotel just before his departure for London, but refused at first to be interviewed concerning his latest duel. He eventually admitted that he had fought, although he denied that his antagonist was the Duc de Morny. He would nor give the details of the duel.

Despite Mr. Milbank's denial there are a dozen persons in the Grand Hotel who say positively that the quarrel in the restaurant was between Milbank and De Morny, and that they were the principals in the duel. The landlord of the Grand asserts that he witnessed part of the quarrel and knows that De Morny was Milbank's adversary.

The contradictory reports are due, the restaurant people say, to the fact that on Tuesday Milbank had a fist fight with an unknown Frenchman. The latter sneered at England and said that Englishmen had no proper idea of honor. Thereupon Milbank struck him on the nose. The Frenchman raised his arm, but Milbank hit him a blow on the neck and knocked him down. Cards were exchanged, but nobody seems to have heard more of the affair. It is rumored, however, that the Frenchman was Aurelien Scholl, the Duc de Morny's comrade on the court of honor.

The trouble between Harry Vane Milbank and the Duc de Morny dates from the publishing of the correspondence in the notorious Drayton-Borrowe dueling affair.

One of the letters written by Milbank and Fox, Borrowe's seconds, to J. Coleman Drayton, dated Feb. 17, 1892, informing Drayton that they should decline to permit their principal to meet him upon the field of honor, stated that the case had been submitted to M. Aurelien Scholl and the Duc de Morny, two of the best known authorities in France on the Code d'Honneur, and that they had decided that Mr. Drayton was not entitled to claim the satisfaction of a gentleman.

After the fire-eaters arrived in New York on the Majestic, it was learned by Milbank that the Duc de Morny had given out for publication the letter that he (Milbank) had sent to the Duc submitting the facts in the case without mentioning names, but which contained statements extremely compromising to the woman in the case, who was Mrs. Drayton.

When Milbank saw this he was very angry, and declared that the Duke had violated a sacred trust in giving out the letter, and besides that, he had been guilty of garbling the letter, making Milbank say things which he denied that he had ever written.

"I shall demand an explanation from the Duke for allowing that letter to get out," said Milbank. "It was a private letter from one gentleman to another, and he had no right to show it to anyone without asking my permission."

There was some cable correspondence between the Duke and Milbank before the latter sailed for Europe, but it was not satisfactory to the Englishman, and when he went away he vowed that he would make it warm for De Morny when he reached Paris.

Since that time, and up to the present, nothing has been heard of this episode of the Drayton-Borrowe affair.

TOLL ON CANADIAN VESSELS.

The President to Shortly Urge the Adoption of Retaliatory Measures.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—No action has yet been taken by the President in reference to the proposed retaliation upon Canada on account of the tolls charged American vessels for passing through Welland Canal by levying a toll upon Canadian vessels which use the Sault Ste Marie Canal.

It is expected that the President will send a communication to Congress early in the week and will recommend Congressional action, which will be necessary before the Treasury Department will have authority to impose a toll on Canadian vessels.

Complaints have frequently been made to the State and Treasury Departments during the past three years by the Boards of Trade at Oswego, Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and elsewhere against the imposition of tolls on American ships using the Welland canal and demands have been made by these cities that there be retaliation against Canada by toll charges for Canadian ships which use the Sault Ste Marie Canal.

It was not until last February, when the Canadian commissioners were in conference here, that the Department of State took formal action in the matter. A demand was made upon the Commissioners that the charges imposed upon our ships by the Canadian government should cease. The representatives of Canada promised that they would have the practice withdrawn and that our ships should be allowed free passage through the Canadian canal. The attention of the State Department was some weeks ago called to the fact that no action had yet been taken by the Canadian government, and that tolls were still levied on our vessels using the Welland canal. It was the purpose of the President to immediately send a communication to Congress on the subject and recommend retaliation, but a stress of public business has delayed his action.

THE GRANT MONUMENT.

Active Measures Being Taken to Raise the Rest of the Needed Sum.

NEW YORK, April 30. — The Grant Monument Committee has begun an active canvass to raise the sum needed to complete the tomb of the great soldier. The committee now has subscriptions on the book amounting is $302,800. This sum is in addition to the $150,000 raised by the former monument association, so that the monument fund to date is $352,800. The sum of $500,000 is required to complete the tomb according to the adopted plans, and therefore there remains to be subscribed something less than $150,000. The committee hope to obtain the money they need in a very short time.

One of Dr. Hill's Murderers Confesses.

WILMINGTON, April 30.—Chas. Brooks, Fletcher Williams, Moses Brown, Frisqy Comegys, Charles Emery, Frederick Bradshaw and Joshua Bayard, all colored, charged with the murder of Dr. James H. Hill at Millington, Md., have been taken from the county jail to Baltimore, where they can be kept more securely and safe from lynching. Bayard, one of the prisoners, has confessed that Brooks struck the doctor with a stone and Williams cut his throat. Comegys, he said, held the horse while the men committed the murder.

Lehigh Valley Conductors in Luck.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 30.—The Lehigh Valley's conductors recently petitioned the Reading management for an increase of wages. The request has been granted, and after May 1 the pay will be $3.25 a day. The concession amounts to an advance of $5 to $10 a month. Heretofore the conductors have been paid $75 a month for the first year, $80 the second year and $90 the third year. Some of the telegraph operators will also have their pay increased.

Vassar's Birthday Honored.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 30.—The 100th anniversary of the birth of Matthew Vassar, founder of Vassar College, was observed at the college last night. The chief features of the exercises were an address by Prof. Mary Augusta Gordon of Smith College, and the reading of a poem by Miss Leonora Howe of Cambridge, Mass. The exercises were under the auspices of the Students' Association, of which Miss Alice M. Robins is president.

Caught Hydrophobia from a Horse.

MIDDLETON, Mass., April 30.—Alexander Murray, while caring for a horse afflicted with hydrophobia, received a severe scratch upon one of his fingers. The scratch began healing, and he thought but little of it until yesterday, when it became inflamed and Murray complained of not feeling well. It is believed that he is suffering from hydrophobia, and he has gone to New York for the purpose of being treated at the Pasteur Institute.

It's concealed, but it's there—ammonia in baking powder widely advertised as "absolutely pure;" 'tis easy to detect it;

Boil up a heaping spoonful of the powder in a spoonful of water, and smell the steam.

There's nothing to conceal in Cleveland's baking powder; the composition is stated on every label.

The ingredients are all so wholesome we are glad to have people know what they are.

AFRAID OF MAY DAY

Fears that the Anarchists Will Do Bloody Work.

EXTRA PRECAUTIONS IN PARIS.

A Large Force of Troops Ready to Suppress Any Disorder.

No Demonstration of Any Kind to be Allowed—The Authorities Say They Do Not Anticipate Much Trouble—Great Excitement at Dijon Over the Attempt to Blow Up the Town Hall—Police Severely Criticised.

PARIS, April 30.—The many dynamite outrages of the past few months have caused a feeling that, despite the reiterated assurances of the authorities that no trouble will occur on May Day, the 1st of May will witness rioting and bloodshed, not only in Paris, but also in the various labor employing sections throughout the country.

Notwithstanding the assertions that the Anarchists have no organization, that each individual acts on his own responsibility, the public generally point out the recent explosions and the attempts to cause explosions as direct proof to the contrary, claiming that the whole series of outrages have been the work of a regularly organized band of Anarchists.

Though the authorities have repeatedly said that no trouble was anticipated in this city, they are nevertheless taking the most extensive precautions to repress any disorders.

The municipal elections take place tomorrow throughout France, except in Paris, and it is feared that the crowds in the towns where elections occur, excited by partisan feeling, may perhaps fall an easy prey to the Anarchist agitators, who are certain to inveigh against government and society if the occasion offers.

In Paris, which city is governed by a special law in regard to the municipal elections, no disturbances of a political nature will, of course, occur. The Anarchists, however, are given to take advantage of any popular excitement to make trouble, and they may perhaps try to incite the city workingmen to rioting.

The police will attempt to prevent any speechmaking on the streets, and a large force of military will be held in readiness to aid them if it is required.

Considerable excitement, not unmixed with indignation against the police, has been caused at Dijon, capital of the Department of Cote d'Or, by an attempt that was made to blow up the Town Hall.

It is considered to be a remarkable state of affairs when Anarchists can approach a supposed-to-be carefully guarded public building, arrange their explosives, set the fuses on fire and then make their escape without being seen by the guards at any part of the proceedings.

Many critics of the police say that after so many attempts have been made in various places to blow up police barracks, notably the Lobau Barracks in Paris and the barracks at Clichy, the instinct of self-preservation should impel the gendarmes doing guard at public buildings to keep a careful watch to prevent themselves and the buildings which they are guarding from being blown up.

The inhabitants of Dijon give free voice to their indignation, and it is thought hereafter a much closer watch will be kept upon stragglers about the Town Hall and all the other public buildings.

Fortunately the explosion did little damage and nobody was injured, but the people of the town believe that this was in no measure due to the police.

All Demonstrations Forbidden.

BERLIN, April 30.—In Bochum, the centre of Germany's coal and iron production, the police have forbidden all demonstrations on May Day. It was feared that the prevalent discontent in the mining region might be increased to violence in case the Anarchistic and Socialist agitators, who have gone to Bochum from this city, were allowed to speak before large public meetings.

Failure of a Benefit Order.

BOSTON, April 30.—The Industrial Benefit Order has been placed in the hands of a receiver by Justice Lathrop of the Supreme Court. The amount of assets to be distributed among its creditors is about $20,000, and the court appointed Charles M. Abbott receiver.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Evening prayer is held at Grace church daily at 5 p. m.

—Fine butter at 26 cents a pound is one of the specialties at Carty's, 22½ North avenue.

—Tennis and croquet goods and hammocks are given a special discount at Rand's, 24 West Front street.

—J. V. F. Ryerson has re-opened his store at 33 Somerset street, and is now prepared to furnish fine business wagons, carriages and harness.

—Mass is celebrated at St. Joseph's church every week day at 7:30 a. m. On holy days occurring on week days mass is celebrated at 5:30 and 8 a. m., and evening service is held at 8.

—The anniversary of the "Ys" will be held in their new rooms in the Crescent building next Tuesday afternoon at 4. Miss Mary E. Cambell, State superintendent of young women's work, will address the meeting. All interested in the work are cordially invited to be present.

—If Hamlet had been living in Plainfield now he would have said "There are more gems in Collier's store, Horatio, than is dreamt of in your philosophy", for it will surprise anyone to see the great variety of novel jewelry on sale there at rates equally surprising. It will pay you to drop in there.

—The committees representing the Y. P. S. C. E. local union of Plainfield have met, and the line of work for each to do towards making the public meeting of Thursday evening, May 19, a great success, is being carried out. One of the best speakers of the State in the line of the Christian Endeavor work has been secured.

—With the present issue, that admirable publication, The Art Amateur, concludes its thirteenth year. It takes this occasion to say that from its first issue up to the present time it has never hesitated to expose frauds in "the art business" wherever it has found them, and the public may feel confident that it will continue to do so without the least fear of any rascals who may mark their disapproval of its course.

—If your piano needs tuning, leave your order at F. M. Hulett's, where competent tuners are employed, rather than trust the so-called tuner who drums up trade from door to door. He gets your consent to tune the piano, receives his pay, and is gone. Next day you find the instrument is ruined, but the so-called tuner can't be found. Go to the leading music house, 74 West Front street, where satisfaction is guaranteed.

—Drink Moy's soda—none better.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Ex-mayor and Mrs. John H. VanWinkle and son left on the Blue Line to-day for a few days' rest at Washington.

Dr. James Allen Wilson, of Glasgow, Scotland, has returned home after a week's visit with his aunt, Mrs. John Wilson.

James L. Anthony has recently purchased of J. J. H. Pollion, the latter's handsome residence corner of Putnam and Kensington avenues.

The meeting of the alumni of the Plainfield High-school has been postponed to May 10. This meeting is to be for the purpose of preparing a farewell reception to Miss Bulkley.

Margaret Roberts died at the home of her son-in-law, Joseph Krewson, 83 West Front street, yesterday, at the age of 72. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2

Captain Mays of the Crescent team arrived in Plainfield this morning. He is a mannerly young fellow, of prepossessing appearance. May he lead the Crescents on to the championship pennant!

VanEmburgh & White report that their sale of matting the past week was the largest they ever had. They claim the most extensive assortment, and prices that are right. They offer many bargains throughout every department for the coming week.

The members of the Union County Country club, assisted by the pick of New York's best amateur and high-class professional talent, will give a "Phantasie in Cork" at the Casino next Saturday evening. Cards of admission, limited however to the seating capacity of the Casino, are now on sale at Reynolds's pharmacy, but won't be long. Such features as the high-kicking of Messrs. Stockton and Walz, and Mr. Fisk as "Cupid in Tights", have created an unprecedented demand for tickets.

BY THE WAY.

—A praise service will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms this evening at 8.

—Make a note of the fact that J. Fred MacDonald is selling star-brand goods, the best in the market.

—Doane & VanArsdale are advertising their $3-shoe this week. They are making a specialty of this article.

—A four-footed comedian, Prof. D. M. Bristol's educated mule, Denver, takes a prominent part in the performances at Music Hall.

—The talk on "Impure Lips" to be given by C. T. Kiseam at the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-morrow afternoon at 4:15 will be of special interest to those who are in shops or other places where a large number of men are employed.

—The next regular examination for first and second grade teachers' certificates will be held at Westfield on Friday and Saturday, May 6 and 7. Examination for first grade branches on Saturday; all other branches on Friday.

—Prof. Bristol's Eques-Curriculum is worthy the attention of every one who ever loved a horse. Such perfectly trained animals were never seen together before, and they give a far more interesting entertainment than do most dramatic companies.

—The regular meeting of the Union County Branch of the State Charities' Aid association will be held next Wednesday evening, May 4, at 8, in the parlors of the Young Men's Christian association. At this meeting the annual election of officers and executive committee will be held.

—Prof. Bristol's Eques-Curriculum, at Music Hall, has been called "marvels of equine intelligence", and without doubt they are. They can't talk, but they do nearly everything else, and their series of acts and tricks elicit the most rapturous applause, and many a dramatic artist would be highly honored to secure one-half the plaudits showered on these dumb animals.

—As you know, the primrose paths of peace are far preferable to the thorny roads of discord. Good humor among the members of the family circle is greatly conducive to peace therein, and good, clean, wholesome amusement is greatly conducive to good humor. Prof. D. M. Bristol's Eques-Curriculum furnishes this class of amusement. You cannot fail to see this application.

—The bicycle that was run into by Mrs. Bowen on South avenue, Thursday evening, is now on exhibition at F. L. C. Martin's establishment, corner of Park avenue and Fourth street. It is an 1892 Columbia. Although it was dragged under the carriage until the runaway horse became exhausted, the tires are still sound and have not lost the smallest particle of air with which they are inflated. The rubber in spots is worn through to the canvas body that the tires are built on, yet there is not a leak.

—The Providence and Stonington Steamship company's new steel steamer "New Hampshire," made a record for phenomenal speed on her trial trip at Wilmington, Del., on the 21st inst., loaded with 600 tons dead weight. She made a measured mile in 2 minutes and 59 seconds, an average of over 20 miles per hour. The "New Hampshire" is a sister ship to the "Maine", recently built at Wilmington, for the Providence and Stonington Steamship company, which has also proven a great success, both as a fast sailer and a most comfortable and luxurious boat for passengers. For particulars address O. H. Briggs, general passenger agent, New York city.

SEVERED THREE ARTERIES.

O'Rourke Had Delirums, and Was Nearly Killed by a Chisel.

James O'Rourke met Will Harding on the street last evening, as Harding was returning from work, and attempted to assault him. Harding's arms were full of tools, and as he raised his hands to defend himself the edge of a chisel struck O'Rourke on the temple, severing three arteries. O'Rourke bled almost to death before medical aid could be summoned, and when taken to the hospital was thought to be dying. Dr. Probasco successfully stanched the flow of blood, and found that O'Rourke was a victim of delirium tremens. O'Rourke had a hard night of it, but is to-day improved, though very weak from loss of blood.

OBITUARY.

F. F. Knauft.

Frederick Ferdinand Knauft, who died at his home, 323 West Fourteenth street, Thursday evening, was an octogenarian. For many years he lived in this city. He was born near Hamburg, Germany, in 1810, and came to America in 1839. He was at one time a leather merchant in the "Swamp". After 1857 he was engaged in business for himself. Mr. Knauft was twice married, his last wife being a sister of Bret Harte. She is still living, and so are their nine children, two boys and seven girls. Ernest Knauft, the youngest son, who until recently was a well-known resident of Plainfield, is an artist and is the Director of Fine Arts for the Chautauqua society. The funeral took place this forenoon from the residence.

Plainfield Property Change.

Early Evening Events.

As usual, Fanwood's society leaders hold supreme as introducers of novelties. Dances are now in order at the club, from 7:30 to 9, after which the ladies may enjoy the excitement of the bowling alleys or a quiet game at billiards or pool as may suit them, this club being under the entire control and management of a select few, led by Mr. Anderson, and facetiously termed "the 400". The music and dancing Thursday evening were greatly enjoyed and admired by the bicyclists of both sexes out for a spin from Plainfield at the eventide.

Conductor Chapman's Concerts of Next Season.

Following are the dates already fixed for next season's concerts of William R. Chapman's societies:

All alone, both in the way it acts, and in the way it's sold, is Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription for women.

It acts in this way:

If you're weak or "run-down," it builds you up; if you suffer from any of the painful disorders and derangements peculiar to your sex, it relieves and cures. It improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength. For all functional weakness and irregularities, it's a positive remedy. Hence, it's sold in this way:

It's guaranteed to give satisfaction, in every case, or the money paid for it is refunded.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets prevent and cure Sick and Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. They're the smallest, the cheapest, the easiest to take.

But all that would be nothing, if they weren't also the best to take.

WHAT SHALL THE HARVEST BE?

This is neither a picnic party nor a political parade. Mother Hubbard, accompanied by a few of her numerous progeny, sets forth to have them all arrayed in new suits for Spring wear. "What shall the harvest be?" Well, that depends largely on Mother Hubbard's, destination. If she goes to our place, where we are selling off a large line of Suits for all sizes marked with the wholesale price in plain figures, she'll save fifty dollars, at least, and her folks will be the best dressed in town.

ATLANTIC CITY.

A Booming Season Ahead for the Great Resort and the Reading's Royal Route.

The popularity of Atlantic City long since reached National proportions, and it continues to grow from year to year. The approaching season promises to be the greatest ever known at this, the greatest of all seaside resorts. The Reading railroad, whose superbly magnificent line between Philadelphia and Atlantic City has become famous throughout the country as the "Royal Route to the Sea", will continue to be the principal and favorite means of getting to and from the City by the Sea. The Reading's superiority in equipment is generally conceded. Its chief advantage consists in the fact that it has the only double track line of railroad to Atlantic City. The importance of this cannot be overestimated. Not only does it insure the absolute safety of passengers, but it admits of quicker and more reliable transit. The Reading line is also several miles shorter than any other road to Atlantic City, and it runs almost as straight as the crow flies. The great "Seventy-five Minute Flyers" are the most talked of trains in America. For beauty, elegance and speed they are literally beyond rivalry and those of our readers who visit Atlantic City should not fail to experience the delight of a ride on one of those matchless trains. The summer schedule will comprise a larger number of fast express trains than has ever heretofore been run on any line. Trains will start at such frequent intervals that one can scarcely fail to catch a "Flyer" at whatever time he may desire to go.

Only Right To Tell.

The Rev. Mark Guy Pearse, the eminent English divine, writes:

BEDFORD PLACE, LONDON, December 10, 1888.

"I think it only right that I should tell you of how much use I find AELCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS in my family and among those to whom I have recommended them I find them a very breastplate against colds and coughs."

For burns and wounds we would recommend Salvation Oil. All dealers sell it at 25 cents.

Many cases have come under our notice where a single bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup relieved a sufferer from a severe cough, which had been treated for months by competent physicians.

GEISSENHAINER DID IT.

$100,000 to be Appropriated for a Post-Office Building in Elizabeth Which Last Year's Republican Congress Refused.

The House committee on public buildings in Congress at Washington, yesterday, reported favorably on congressman Geissenhainer's bill to appropriate $100,000 for a post-office in Elizabeth. Hon. D. H. Bankhead, chairman of the committee, speaks of the bill as a necessity for a city of such size, and all interests that are at stake.

This is the same bill that the Republican house last year under the leadership of Czar Reed defeated, and for which congressman Geissenhainer unceasingly labored for the last two years.

This favorable report will in all probability secure its passage through the House, and if so it will have plain sailing in the Senate under Senator McPherson's favorable care.

Somerville Already Has the Pennant, in Her Mind.

(From The Harkinstown Democrat.)

To-morrow will occur the opening of the base-ball season, at which time the West Ends will be cut adrift upon the uncertain sea of victories and defeats for the season of '92. The West Ends will upon this eventful day have for their opponents the crack New Jersey Athletic club team, and the game will be played upon their beautiful grassy diamond at Bergen Point. Four o'clock is the time set for play. In all probability Harkins will pitch the game, and show the dyed-in-the-wool cranks who have been calling him down for the last two years that he is in just as good trim as when eleven years ago his star shone as brilliant as the sun. John's glass arm is all O. K. It is in no wise brittle, as most people think, and whoever thinks his twirling days over, let them go to Bergen Point to-morrow and see their mistake.

The season will also be opened at Plainfield to-morrow by the blare of trumpets and the beating of drums. The manager will parade his gilt-edged team through the principal streets before the game headed by a band. A very evident desire to win the first game of the season, and win it easily too, is shown by the selection of the Plainfield Bicycle club to oppose the Crescents. The Bi. boys have a fair amateur team, but as they were badly beaten last summer by a club composed of Somerville boys, there is not the slightest doubt that Keller's stars will prove victorious. This is commendable to say the least, but the old adage that "the first may be last, and the last shall be first", may prove true. Plainfield may open the season with bluster, noise and bombast, but when the gentle frosts of fall are upon us and the beautiful pennant, which goes to the victor in the Central New Jersey Base-Ball League, floats proudly from the staff in the West End grounds, the rooters of Plainfield will be glad to house their band, and turn mournfully to the bowling alley and billiard tables in their sumptuous club-house.

The New Jerseys will put their strongest team in the field against the West Ends to-morrow. They were beaten last Saturday by the Yale team at New Haven, the score being 17 to 4 in favor of the college boys. The heavy hitters of the bay side club could do nothing with the erratic curves of Bowers, and therefore if revenge is possible, they will seek it deeply.

Prof. Woodhull Will Lecture Morning and Afternoon.

The Somerset County Teachers' association will meet at the North Plainfield school-house Saturday, May 14, when the following programme will be rendered:

MORNING.

10:15—Opening exercises.

10:30—General business and election of officers.

The Tynehead to Sail Monday.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The Washington ship Tynehead will sail from Dow's storehouse, Brooklyn, Monday morning, for Russia, with the cargo of grain and other food products contributed by the people of Iowa. A party representing Iowa and the District of Columbia will witness the sailing of the vessel. The ship will be elaborately decorated with bunting, the American, Russian and Red Cross flags being most largely used. The destination of the ship will be Riga, Russia, although she will first touch at St. Petersburg. The cargo will be unloaded at Riga.

American Society of Authors.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The American Society of Authors has filed articles of incorporation. Its trustees are Will Carlton, Alfred H. Monent, Charles K. Lewis, Katherine Hodges, Mary F. Seymour, Edward P. Ingersoll, E. Kirkana, Esther Herrman and Julia W. D. Townsend.

Shiloh's Cough Cure.

This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold; a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since its first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10c., 50c. and $1. If your lungs are sore, chest, or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by J. G. Miller, No. 10 East Front street, Plainfield N.J.

Adirondack Railroad Outrages Again.

CINCINNATI, April 30.—An application was made yesterday to the Mayor by two negroes who wanted transportation to Birmingham, Ala. The negroes said they had been working on a railroad in the Adirondacks in New York, and had received horrible treatment. They had managed to escape the armed guards. One of the men had the great toe on both feet frozen, and it is believed both legs will have to be amputated to save his life.

Mrs. Deacon Has Left France.

PARIS, April 30.—Mrs. Deacon, wife of Edward Parker Deacon, who killed M. Abeille in the Hotel Splendide, Cannes, has left France, in order, it is understood, to avoid giving testimony at the trial of her husband on May 20 next. Mr. Deacon, who is at liberty on bail, will have to surrender to the authorities five days before the day set for the trial.

Central America's Display.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The special exposition commissioner to Central America, Lieut. Servin, has reported upon the progress of his work. He states that the prospect for an interesting display from Central America is most encouraging.

The Big Four Absorbs Another Road.

TOLEDO, O., April 30.—The Toledo, Columbus & Cincinnati Railroad has been purchased by the Big Four. It is 72 miles in length and runs from Toledo to Kenton. It is believed that the Big Four also design getting into the Michigan.

A $2,000 Dyg Goes Mad.

CINCINNATI, April 30.—The $2,000 pet mastiff belonging to A. E. Barhardt was seized with hydrophobia and terrorized the entire family until shot. He was known throughout America, having won many medals at bench shows.

DISTRESSING EVENT.

And Yet There are Many Similar.

What is it?

Simply that a popular young lady fell to the floor at a social gathering.

Nervous exhaustion, weak and over-strained nerves.

Most women lack both nerve and physical strength, and as a result are extremely nervous feel weak and languid, wake mornings as tired as they go to bed, lack ambition and energy, have strange faint feelings and trembling sensations, cry easily, and at trifles, lose interest in society and friends—in fact, feel dispirited, dragged out and unutterably miserable. Often the head feels badly, sometimes there is backache, female weakness, irregularities, leucorrhœa, &c. All these symptoms are greatly increased during the spring, and should be attended to immediately.

The Grip also, which so many have had, has left thousands in a weakened, nervous and debilitated condition, with perhaps stomach, kidney and liver difficulties, constipation, etc.

If you suffer from any of these complaints, suffer no longer. Go to your druggist and procure for $1 a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura, the greatest of all nerve and vital restoratives the boon of weak, nervous and suffering woman. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and will bring back strength to your nerves, freshness to your complexion, brightness to your eyes, the bloom of health to your cheeks, elasticity and spring to your step.

"I have been a sufferer from painful menstruation, nervousness and weakness for 8 years. I used Dr. Greene's Nervura. It acted like magic Why do women suffer when Dr. Green's Nervura will surely cure them? I think it is splendid."

MISS PAULINE KAYSER,

AN IDOL OF MOUND-BUILDERS

The Modest Clay Deity of the Early American Heathen.

The State Historical society was enriched recently by an image of pottery supposed to be an idol of some prehistoric race, probably the mound-builders, says the Topeka Capital. The idol was found near Aron, Independence county, Ark., and was dug from a mound by relic-hunters along with a number of decayed human bones, copper arrowheads and broken domestic utensils. It is the property of G. W. Hume, of Strasburg, Mo. The idol is five inches in diameter. It is rudely constructed, having evidently been formed by hand, or at best very crude tools, from common clay and afterward hardened by being dried in the sun.

The idol represents a human figure in a kneeling posture, the arms extending at the side. The features are rudely formed, yet, notwithstanding this, are not altogether repulsive, the nose being gracefully aquiline and the lips well formed. The ears are missing, but the remnants show that they were adorned with rings. The body is "squatty," and might be said to resemble a toad. At the top of the head there is a hole which seems to have a purpose, probably that of fastening a head dress to the figure. The image would hardly be catalogued with the works of art, but it is, nevertheless, an interesting relic.

The race whose deity was represented by this clumsy bit of clay inhabited the Mississippi valley from the great lakes to the gulf at a time to which the traditions of man runneth not. Who they were, where they came from, what their manner of life was, is all a mystery. True, many mounds, excavations and burying grounds of this lost people have been discovered, but so far they have given but little of their history. That they lived and died before the race of American Indians existed is proven by the fact that the traditions of the latter race contain no references to this lost people although their mounds and relics are mentioned. Many mounds of this kind are found in Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio and Indiana, and a few have been discovered in nearly all of the states in the Mississippi valley.

BETTER THAN A CAT.

A Pet Snake That Occupies a Favored Place in a Farmer's Household.

A Niagara county farmer tells of a snake which has been gliding about his premises for the past ten years. The snake is about four feet long, is some over three inches in thickness at the abdomen and has an open and engaging countenance. His snakeship was first brought to the farmer's notice in 1881 by the suspicious actions of his son and heir. The boy one day attempted to kill the family cat, which had long been his favorite pet and developed a marked aversion to the dog. The family was at a loss to explain his peculiar actions until one day it was discovered that the lad was keeping a snake in his bedroom. He fed the reptile on milk stolen from the pantry, and took the strange pet to bed with him nights. The parents at first were greatly horrified and wanted to kill the snake, but the boy protested and at last his wishes were regarded. It was found that the animal was harmless, and at last the family came to look upon the reptile with considerable favor. He keeps the premises free from rodents and saves the expense of feeding cats and dogs.

During the first five years of his residence with the family, says the Buffalo Enquirer, the snake retired to the cellar in the autumn and passed the winter in a state of torpor. But since the winter of 1886 he has given up this habit and is now as lively as a cricket even during the coldest weather. The snake takes his meals at the same time as the family. He is regularly provided for. If by any chance he is forgotten he makes his disapproval known in a peculiar hissing. The snake displays a great love of music, and twists around the leg of the piano whenever anyone plays. He also chooses the same leg, which is worn considerably by reason of his peculiar writhings whenever a lively tune is played.

The farmer says that he would not part with the snake for any money, and his son, although now a young man, still regards the reptile as a most desirable pet.

Curiosity Gratified.

"Have you got any stale bread?" asked Johnny Fizzletop, sticking his head into a baker's shop.

"Yes. I have five or six loaves."

"Serves you right. Why didn't you tell them while they were fresh?"—Texas Siftings.

An Important Whistle.

Mother (severely)—Why didn't you come when I called you?

Small Boy—Why, just as you was calling me Tommy Traddles, down street, whistled for me. I couldn't go to both, could I?—Good News.

A New Shortening

If you have a sewing machine, a clothes wringer or a carpet sweeper (all new inventions of modern times), it's proof that you can see the usefulness of new things.

Cottolene

Is a NEW SHORTENING, and every housekeeper who is interested in the health and comfort of her family should give it a trial. It's a vegetable product and far superior to anything else for shortening and frying purposes. Physicians and Cooking Experts say it is destined to be adopted in every kitchen in the land. This is to suggest that you put it in yours now. It's both new and good. Sold by leading grocers everywhere.
